L6578–6581 Nor in a cemetery—whether a Muslim cemetery or a disbelievers' cemetery—for if it is excavated and the dead within are removed, prayer therein becomes permissible. Nor should one pray facing a grave or upon it, even if it is the grave of a prophet or others besides him. If one finds no place except the site of a grave, a cemetery, a bathhouse, a camel resting area, a dunghill, or a place containing something one is commanded to avoid, then one should leave and not perform Friday or congregational prayer there. If one is confined to a place mentioned above, one may pray there while avoiding what one is obligated to avoid during prostration. However, one should move as close as possible to the permissible area in the direction of prayer. One must not place his forehead, nose, hands, or knees upon it, nor sit except by resting on the heels. If one is unable except to sit or recline, one may pray as able, and it suffices. The evidence for this: what was narrated to us by ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ, who narrated to us from ʿAbdullāh ibn Muḥammad ibn ʿUthmān, who narrated to us from Aḥmad ibn Khālid, who narrated to us from ʿAlī ibn ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz, who narrated to us from Ḥajjāj ibn al-Minhāl, who narrated to us from Ḥammād ibn Salamah, from ʿAmr ibn Yaḥyā al-Anṣārī, from his father, from Abū Saʿīd al-Khudrī, that the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "The entire earth is a place of prostration except for bathhouses and cemeteries." It was narrated to us by Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad al-Ṭalamankī, who narrated to us from Ibn Mufarrij, who narrated to us from Muḥammad ibn Ayyūb al-Raqqī, who narrated to us from Aḥmad ibn ʿAmr al-Bazzār, who narrated to us from Abū Kāmil—al-Jaḥdarī—who narrated to us from ʿAbd al-Wāḥid ibn Ziyād, who narrated to us from ʿAmr ibn Yaḥyā al-Māzinī, from his father, from Abū Saʿīd al-Khudrī, from the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—who said: "The entire earth is a place of prostration except for bathhouses and cemeteries." Al-Bazzār said: "It was also attributed via ʿAmr ibn Yaḥyā by Abū Ṭuwālah ʿAbdullāh ibn ʿAbd al-Raḥmān al-Anṣārī." And Aḥmad ibn Isḥāq. ʿAlī said: Some reckless individuals who speak carelessly about debt claimed, "This is a ḥadīth that Sufyān al-Thawrī transmitted as mursal, and Mūsā ibn Ismāʿīl cast doubt on the chain's validity through Ḥammād ibn Salamah."

Ali said: "What then was the case - especially when they say: 'The continuous chain (musnad) is like the disconnected chain (mursal) with no difference'? What benefit do they gain from casting doubt on Musa when al-Ḥajjāj did not doubt? If there is none above Musa, there is certainly none below him. As for Sufyān's disconnected narration - though Ḥammād, ʿAbd al-Wāḥid, Abū Ṭuwālah, and Ibn Isḥāq narrated it with continuous chains, all being trustworthy narrators."

Abu Bakr said: Zakariyya ibn 'Udayy narrated to us from Ubaydullah ibn Amr al-Raqqi from Zayd ibn Abi Unaysah from Amr ibn Murrah from Abdullah ibn al-Harith al-Najrani: Jundub narrated to me, saying: I heard the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings be upon him - five days before his passing: "Those before you took the graves of their prophets and righteous ones as mosques. Beware! Do not take graves as mosques, for I indeed forbid you from this," in a lengthy hadith. Ali said: Whoever claims that the Prophet - peace be upon him - meant by this the graves of polytheists has lied against Allah's Messenger - peace and blessings be upon him - for he - peace be upon him - universally prohibited all graves, then reinforced it by condemning those who did so with prophets' and righteous people's graves. Ali stated: These are consecutively transmitted reports that conclusively establish our position verbatim. No one may disregard them. This is the view held by groups of the early scholars - may Allah be pleased with them. It has been narrated to us from Nafi ibn Jubayr ibn Mut'im that he said: "Praying amidst graves, in bathhouses, or amidst latrines is forbidden." From Sufyan al-Thawri, from Habib ibn Abi Thabit, from Abu Zabyan, from Ibn Abbas, who said: "Do not pray facing a cesspit, in a bathhouse, or within a cemetery." Ali said: "We do not know of any Companion who disagreed with Ibn Abbas regarding this matter—may Allah be pleased with them—and they would honor such an act if it conformed to their juridical adherence." From Sufyan al-Thawri, from al-Mughirah ibn Miqsam, from Ibrahim al-Nakha'i, who said: "They disapproved of taking three places as a prayer direction: latrines, public baths, and graves." From al-'Ala' ibn Ziyad, from his father, and from Khaythamah ibn 'Abd al-Rahman, both of whom said: "Do not pray facing a public bath, a latrine, or the middle of a cemetery." Ahmad ibn Hanbal said: "Whoever prays in a public bath must repeat it indefinitely." From Waki', from Sufyan al-Thawri, from Humayd, from Anas, who said: "Umar

Ibn Jurayj said: I asked Ata, "Do you disapprove of praying among graves or facing a grave?" He replied, "Yes"—he used to disapprove of that—"Do not pray with a grave between you and the qiblah. But if there is a barrier of a cubit between you and it, then pray." Ibn Jurayj said: Amr ibn Dinar was asked about praying among graves, and he said, "They mentioned that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'The Children of Israel took the graves of their prophets as places of worship, so Allah cursed them.'" Ibn Jurayj said: Abdullah ibn Tawus informed me from his father, who said, "I have no knowledge except that he strongly disapproved of praying among graves." From Sufyan al-Thawri, from Mansur ibn al-Mu'tamir, from Ibrahim al-Nakha'i, who said, "When they attended a funeral, they would distance themselves from the graves to pray." Ahmad ibn Hanbal said, "Whoever prays in a graveyard or facing a grave must repeat it indefinitely." Ali said: These are Umar ibn al-Khattab, Ali ibn Abi Talib, Abu Hurairah, Anas, and Ibn Abbas—we know of no disagreement among the Companions, may Allah be pleased with them. Ali said: Abu Hanifah, al-Awza'i, and Sufyan disapproved of praying toward a grave, in a graveyard, or over a grave. Malik saw no harm in it, and some of his adherents cited as evidence that 'the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) prayed over the grave of the poor dark-skinned woman.' Ali said: How astounding! Is it not enough that these people contradict this report in its implication?

They do not permit performing the funeral prayer over one already buried, yet they permit what is otherwise impermissible. In it there is no trace or indication opposing the established Sunnahs, and we seek refuge in Allah from being forsaken. Ali said: All these narrations are true, so prayer is not permissible in the places we mentioned, except for the funeral prayer, which is performed in the cemetery and over the grave where its owner has been buried, as the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) did. We prohibit what he forbade, and we consider it a means of drawing closer to Allah Almighty to do as he did. Thus, his commands and prohibitions are the truth, his actions are the truth, and whatever contradicts that is invalid. All praise is due to Allah, Lord of the worlds. As for our statement that one who finds no place other than what we mentioned must refrain: he has found no place where prayer is permissible. Similarly, if he encounters overcrowding that prevents him from bowing or prostrating, and as for the imprisoned person, he is unable to leave that place or pray elsewhere. The ruling applies to him according to the command of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) when he said: "When I forbid you from something, avoid it, and when I command you to do something, do as much as you are able." This absolves him of what he is incapable of, obligates him to what he can perform, and requires him to avoid what he can avoid of what is prohibited. Allah Almighty said: "Allah does not burden a soul beyond its capacity" [al-Baqarah 2:286].[16]

The Ruling on Prayer in a Usurped Land

[مَسْأَلَة الصَّلَاةُ فِي أَرْضٍ مَغْصُوبَةٍ]

L6593–6599

394 - Issue: Prayer is not valid in illegally seized land nor in property acquired without legitimate right through invalid transactions such as an invalid sale, invalid gift, or similar unlawful means. This likewise applies to one aboard an illegally seized ship or a ship containing an illegally seized plank that, if absent, would allow water to flood it. If he is able to disembark from it, his prayer becomes invalid. Similarly invalid is prayer performed upon illegally seized bedding, bedding taken without legitimate right, upon an animal taken without right, in unlawfully acquired clothing, within an illegally occupied structure, or if the ship's nails are illegally seized, or the threads used to sew the garment are illegally seized – or if all such items were taken without legitimate right. If one is fundamentally incapable of leaving that location or disembarking from the ship, or if the plank fails to prevent water ingress, or if he neither shelters beneath that structure nor uses it to conceal his nakedness, or... If one has despaired of knowing the person from whom something was wrongfully taken, or if it is a ship or building from which nothing tangible was seized but people were unjustly compelled to labor therein: prayer remains permissible in all such cases, whether one is able to leave that place or not. Similarly, if one fears the cold and its harm, or the heat and its harm, they may pray in a garment taken without right—provided its owner is not compelled by necessity to it; otherwise, they may not. Likewise, prayer is permissible in permissible land that its owner has neither restricted nor prohibited access to. The evidence for this is Allah's statement: "O you who believe, do not enter houses other than your own until you have asked permission and greeted their inhabitants. That is better for you, that you may be mindful" (24:27), and "If you find no one therein, do not enter until permission has been given to you. And if you are told, 'Go back,' then go back, for that is purer for you" (24:28). The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "Your blood and your wealth are inviolable to you"—authentically narrated through Abu Bakrah, Abdullah ibn Umar, and Nubayt ibn Sharit al-Ashja'i. He (peace be upon him) also said: "Whoever performs an act not in accordance with our command, it is rejected." Thus, if Allah has forbidden someone to enter a place, reside in it, wear a specific garment, dispose of it, or use a specific thing, and they do so during their prayer, they have not prayed as they were commanded. Whoever fails to pray as they were commanded has not truly prayed. Prayer is an act of obedience and obligation: standing, sitting, residing in it, and certain aspects of attire during it. If one sits where they are forbidden, acts in a prohibited manner, or uses what is forbidden, they have committed sinful acts and sat in disobedience. It is invalid for sinful disobedience to substitute for obligatory obedience, or for misguidance and sinful conduct to be valid in place of guidance and truth. Some contentious individuals have opposed this, arguing: “By your logic, if someone pronounces divorce, manumission, marriage, sale, purchase, gift, or charitable giving in such circumstances, you must nullify all such acts.” Similarly, if one dyes his beard with usurped henna then prays, or learns the Qur’an from a stolen Quranic codex (muṣḥaf)—thereby leading him to forget it—or is taught by an absconding slave, and they proliferated many such absurdities, claiming: “Those you mentioned are equivalent to one who prays while persisting in adultery, murder, drinking intoxicants, and theft—with no distinction—”

ʻAlī responded: “None of their claims fall under the category of our rulings. Prayer inherently requires: remaining in one place, performing prescribed sitting, concealing one’s nakedness, abstaining from impermissible acts during prayer, adhering to its fixed time, observing its designated location, and using lawful water for purification or permissible dust for dry ablution (tayammum) when capable. These are points of consensus between us, them, and all Muslims.

Divorce, marriage, emancipation, sales, gifts, charity, and Qur’anic study are not contingent upon such conditions. They require neither specific postures, obligatory standing, nor prescribed sitting positions—nor designated places. Yet these acts necessitate: formulated utterances, defined actions, and appointed times. Whoever performs prayer, marriage, divorce, trade, gift-giving, or charity contrary to Allah’s commandments—as conveyed by His Messenger (peace be upon him)—renders the act entirely invalid. No divorce, marriage, emancipation, gift, charity, or Sharīʻa-compliant deed is valid.

If one substitutes the prescribed sitting with a prohibited posture, replaces obligatory remaining with a forbidden manner of staying, covers his nakedness with illicit means, performs prayer outside its appointed time or place—substituting prohibited alternatives—or uses unlawfully acquired water or dust instead of prescribed purification means: he has not performed the prayer Allah commanded. His case mirrors one who intentionally prays away from the qibla—both are equivalent, with no distinction—having disobeyed divine instructions.

Likewise, if one divorces a stranger, or employs utterances other than those Allah ordained for divorce..." The sexual intercourse that was lawful, or one who marries a woman already married, or during her waiting period, or without the contractual utterance that permits marriage—thereby rendering lawful the previously forbidden sexual act—or one who engages in a prohibited sale; or buys from a non-owner; or gives a gift not formally validated; or unlawfully emancipates, such as freeing another's slave; or donates a garment to idols—all such acts are invalid and rejected. None of them is valid. One legal ruling is not invalidated by what invalidates another, but rather by acting contrary to what Allah the Exalted commanded to be upheld. As for the one who dyes his beard with usurped henna: if he prays while bearing that henna, his prayer is invalid. If he removes it and does not pray with it—since the color is not owned property—he has not opposed the command. Regarding those persistent in sins, it is authentically reported from the Prophet (peace be upon him) that Allah the Almighty has forgiven every member of his community for whatever they entertained in their hearts of speech or action; thus, this is pardoned. If it is said: "You invalidate the prayer of one who intends to exit it, even without action or utterance," we reply: Indeed, he has acted, for through that intention, his standing (if standing), sitting (if sitting), bowing (if bowing), or prostrating (if prostrating) becomes an outward act performed for other than prayer. His prayer is invalidated because he intentionally interrupted its acts with what is foreign to them. However, if he intended to invalidate it after the prayer's completion, his prayer remains valid. And success is from Allah, the Exalted.[17][18]

L6600 As for one who is unable to abstain from any of the matters we mentioned, Allah the Exalted has stated: "He has already detailed for you what He prohibited you, except what you are compelled to by necessity" (al-Anʿām 6:119). He—glory be to Him—also declared that Allah has forgiven His community for mistakes, forgetfulness, and what they are coerced into. Thus, such a person is coerced by necessity; their prayer remains valid unless nullified by a clear textual ruling explicitly invalidating it for that reason, as in the case of ritual impurity—where it is unanimously agreed that persisting in prayer after its occurrence is invalid without renewing ablution. As for vessels and structures in which people are unjustly forced to labor, there is no inherently unlawful entity being used by the worshiper, nor can lost property be privately owned. If one despairs of identifying its owner, he becomes part of the Muslim community—being one of them—thereby entitling him to manage it at that point. And success is from Allah, the Exalted.[19]

[مَسْأَلَةُ الصَّلَاةُ لِلرَّجُلِ خَاصَّةً فِي ثَوْبٍ فِيهِ حَرِيرٌ]

L6601 Issue: The ruling on prayer specifically for men in a garment containing silk.

٣٩٥ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَا تَحِلُّ الصَّلَاةُ - لِلرَّجُلِ خَاصَّةً - فِي ثَوْبٍ فِيهِ حَرِيرٌ أَكْثَرُ مِنْ أَرْبَعِ أَصَابِعَ عَرْضًا فِي طُولِ الثَّوْبِ، إلَّا اللَّبِنَةَ وَالتَّكْفِيفَ فَهُمَا مُبَاحَانِ وَلَا فِي ثَوْبٍ فِيهِ ذَهَبٌ، وَلَا لَابِسًا ذَهَبًا فِيهِ خَاتَمٌ وَلَا فِي غَيْرِهِ. فَإِنْ أُجْبِرَ عَلَى لِبَاسِ شَيْءٍ مِنْ ذَلِكَ أَوْ اُضْطُرَّ إلَيْهِ خَوْفَ الْبَرْدِ: حَلَّ لَهُ الصَّلَاةُ فِيهِ. أَوْ كَانَ بِهِ دَاءٌ يُتَدَاوَى مِنْ مِثْلِهِ بِلِبَاسِ الْحَرِيرِ: فَالصَّلَاةُ لَهُ فِيهِ جَائِزَةٌ وَكَذَلِكَ لَوْ حَمَلَ ذَهَبًا لَهُ فِي كُمِّهِ لِيُحْرِزَهُ، أَوْ حَرِيرًا أَوْ

L6602–6606 395 - Issue: Prayer is not permissible—specifically for men—in a garment containing silk exceeding four [units]. Fingers' width along the length of the garment, except for the reinforcement patch and the lining – these two are permissible – nor in a garment containing gold, nor wearing gold that includes a ring or other forms. If one is compelled to wear any of that or forced by necessity such as fear of cold, it becomes lawful for him to pray in it. If he has an illness treated by medicinal use of silk, prayer in it is permissible for him. Similarly, if he carries his own gold in his sleeve to safeguard it, or silk or a silk garment likewise, his prayer is fully valid.

Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us, Muslim al-Hajjaj narrated to us, Zuhayr ibn Harb narrated to us, Affan ibn Muslim narrated to us, Qatadah reported that Anas ibn Malik informed him: “Abd al-Rahman ibn Awf and al-Zubayr ibn al-Awwam complained to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) about lice, so he permitted them to wear silk shirts.” Through the same chain transmitted to Muslim: Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah narrated to us, Muhammad ibn Bishr narrated to us, Sa‘id ibn Abi ‘Arubah narrated from Qatadah from Anas: “The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) permitted Abd al-Rahman ibn Awf and al-Zubayr ibn al-Awwam to wear silk shirts due to itching or pain they experienced.” Through the same chain transmitted to Muslim: Yahya ibn Yahya narrated to us, Khalid ibn Abdullah—al-Tahhan—narrated from Ibn Jurayj from Abdullah, the freed slave of Asma bint Abi Bakr al-Siddiq: “Asma brought out to him a Taylasani cloak of Kisrawani style with a brocade panel and front openings lined with brocade, and said: ’This is the cloak of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). It was with Aisha until she passed away, then I took it. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) used to wear it, and we wash it for the sick seeking cure through it.’” Touching silk and gold, owning them, and carrying them are permissible by explicit textual evidence and consensus. If it is objected: “It has been narrated that wearing khazz was reported from some of the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—” We said: The prohibition of it has come from some of them—as we have narrated: That ‘Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb—may Allah be pleased with him—equipped an army, and they gained spoils of war. ‘Umar came to meet them and saw them wearing brocade cloaks and Persian garments. He turned away from them and said: “Cast off the garments of the people of the Fire!” So they cast them off. From Shu‘bah, from ‘Abdullāh ibn Abī al-Safar: I heard al-Sha‘bī narrating from Suwayd ibn Ghafalah, who said: “We attained conquests in Syria, then we came to Madinah. When we drew near, we wore brocade and silk. When ‘Umar saw us, he cast something at us, so we removed them. When he saw us, he said: ’Welcome, O Emigrants! Indeed, Allah was not pleased with silk and brocade for those before you—would He then be pleased with it for you? It is not permissible except in this amount, this amount, and this amount.’” Shu‘bah said: “Two fingers, or three, or four.” We have narrated from Abū al-Khayr that he asked

‘Uqbah ibn ‘Āmir al-Juhanī about a piece of silk on his cloak. He said: “There is no harm in it.” From Yazīd ibn Hārūn—Hishām (the son of Ḥassān)—from Ḥafṣah bint Sīrīn, from Abū Dhubyān (Khalīfah ibn Ka‘b): “Ibn ‘Umar heard the report stating, ’Whoever wears silk in this world will not wear it in the Hereafter,’ so he said: ’Then, by Allah, he will not enter Paradise! Allah the Exalted said: {Their garments in Paradise will be silk} [Al-Ḥajj: 23].” From Muhammad ibn al-Muthanna: Abd al-Rahman ibn Mahdi narrated to us, Sufyan al-Thawri narrated to us, from Mansur—who is Ibn al-Mu’tamir—from Mujahid, who said: Ibn Umar said: “Avoid garments mingled with silk.” From Ubayd Allah ibn Amr al-Raqqi—from Zayd ibn Abi Unaysah—from Zubayd—from Abu Burdah—from Rib’i ibn Hirash—from Hudhayfah, who said: “Whoever wears a silk garment, Allah the Exalted will clothe him in a garment of fire—not [measured] by your days but by Allah’s lengthy days.” From Ali ibn Abi Talib: He saw a man wearing a cloak with silk brocade on its chest and said: “What is this stench upon your chest?” From Shu’bah—from Abu Ishaq al-Sabi’i: I heard Abd al-Rahman ibn Yazid say: “I was with Ibn Mas’ud when his son came wearing a silk shirt, so Ibn Mas’ud tore it apart.” From Ibn al-Zubayr: “Whoever wears silk in this world shall not wear it in the Hereafter.” When the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—disagreed, the obligation is to refer the dispute to the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—as Allah Almighty commanded. Samurah sold wine, Abu Talhah ate hail while fasting, and no valid proof exists in anyone other than the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him.[21]

L6613–6616 The permissibility of a garment with a silk warp is fundamentally invalid as a report, because the narration concerning it from Ibn Abbas is solely transmitted by Khusayf—who is weak. How can this stand when every Companion—may Allah be pleased with them—from whom it is narrated that they wore khazz (a blend of silk and wool) contains no mention in any of those reports that they knew its warp was silk? It has been narrated to us from Shu‘bah from ‘Āmir ibn ‘Ubaydah al-Bāhilī, who said: “I saw Anas wearing a khazz cloak, so I asked him about it. He replied: ‘I seek refuge by Allah from its evil.’” From Ma‘mar from ‘Abd al-Karīm al-Jazarī, who said: “I saw Anas ibn Mālik wearing a khazz cloak and khazz shawl while I was circumambulating the House with Sa‘īd ibn Jubayr. Sa‘īd ibn Jubayr remarked: ‘Had the early generation seen him, they would have punished him severely.’” This clarifies that the Companions deemed this impermissible, as they would not inflict punishment for something lawful. From ‘Abdullāh ibn Shaqīq: “The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings upon him—prohibited silk most emphatically.” A man said to him: “Is this not silk you are wearing?” ‘Abdullāh replied: “Glory to Allah! This is khazz.” The man said: “Yes, but its warp is silk.” He responded: “I was unaware.” From ‘Umar ibn ‘Abd al-‘Azīz: He ordered a khazz garment to be made for him with a linen warp. From ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Abī Laylā, a similar account. Every Companion from whom it is narrated that he wore such garments—may Allah be pleased with them—cannot escape being one of three possibilities: Either the warp of those garments was linen, or they did not know it was silk—and it is impermissible to assume anything else about them—or they sought forgiveness from Allah the Exalted for wearing it. The least of their days with Allah’s Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) outweighs this many times over, for none besides them equals them. The half a mudd of barley given in charity by one of them surpasses all the deeds of any one of us even if he lived a hundred years. This is because half a mudd from one of them is better than a mountain of gold belonging to anyone that we ourselves spend in righteous causes. We know no one who spends in righteous causes even the weight of a large stone from anyone’s possession—how then could one donate an entire mountain? Success comes only from Allah the Exalted. As for one compelled to wear it due to fear of cold, Allah the Exalted has said: {He has detailed for you what He has forbidden to you, except what you are compelled to} [6:119].[22]

L6617 A jurisprudential issue regarding the recitation of the Quran by the worshiper during rukūʿ (bowing) and sujūd (prostration).

L6618–6620 396 - Issue: It is not permissible for anyone to recite the Quran during their bowing or prostration. If one does so intentionally, their prayer is invalidated. If done forgetfully: if this occurred after attaining stillness and glorifying Allah as commanded, their prayer is valid with the prostration for forgetfulness, as they added something extraneous to their prayer unintentionally. However, if this occurred throughout the entirety of their bowing or prostration, that specific prostration or rak'ah is nullified as though it were not performed. They must complete their prayer and perform the prostration for forgetfulness, for they did not fulfill the act as commanded. The Prophet (peace be upon him) said: "Whoever introduces into this matter of ours that which is not part of it, it is rejected."

Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: from Ahmad ibn Fath: from Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa: from Ahmad ibn Muhammad: from Ahmad ibn Ali: from Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj: from Zuhayr ibn Harb: from Sufyan ibn Uyaynah: from Sulayman ibn Suhaym, reported from Ibrahim ibn Abdullah ibn Ma'bad, from Ibn Abbas, who said: "Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him) drew back the curtain while people were lined up behind Abu Bakr. He said: 'O people! Nothing remains of the glad tidings of prophethood except the righteous dream a Muslim sees or is shown to him. Know that I have been forbidden to recite the Quran while bowing or prostrating. As for bowing, magnify the Lord therein, and as for prostration, strive in supplication, for it is most deserving that your supplications be answered.'"

Ali said: If it is argued, "This meaning has been narrated through Ali's chain with the wording: 'He forbade me, but I do not say he forbade you,'" we respond: Yes, but that narration only mentions Ali being forbidden, whereas the hadith we cited prohibits everyone, for it states... Every matter that he—peace be upon him—prohibited, our ruling aligns with his ruling, unless a text comes specifying an exception. If it is said: "'Ā'ishah—may Allah be pleased with her—reported that she heard him—peace and blessings of Allah be upon

Thus, the report explicitly states this, confirming that the meaning of his—peace be upon him—interpretation of the Quran in this Surah is {And seek His forgiveness} [110:3]. It has been transmitted to us from 'Alī ibn Abī Ṭālib: "Do not recite while bowing or prostrating." Issue: Whether the worshipper recites the Quran while seated after reciting the Tashahhud, either as an Imam or praying alone.

L6622 Issue 397: If a worshiper recites the Quran during his sitting after the Tashahhud—whether as an imam, praying alone, or if he recites the Tashahhud during standing, bowing, or prostration after fulfilling what is incumbent upon him of recitation and glorification—his prayer remains valid (whether done intentionally or forgetfully), with no prostration for inadvertence required. Nevertheless, other forms of Allah the Exalted's remembrance are more preferable to us. As for the prayer's validity and exemption from prostration for inadvertence, this is because he committed no prohibited act—rather, he recited (an inherently virtuous act when not forbidden), and the Tashahhud itself constitutes virtuous remembrance. Our preference for other remembrances stems from the absence of any explicit command or exhor-

L6623 A legal issue on the prayer in the Mosque of Harm.

L6624–6626 Issue 398: Prayer is not valid for anyone in the Mosque of Harm (Masjid al-Dirar) located near Quba, whether performed deliberately or out of forgetfulness. This is based on Allah's statement: "And those who took a mosque for [causing] harm, disbelief, and division among the believers, and as an outpost for those who waged war against Allah and His Messenger" (Quran 9:107), up to His saying: "Never stand therein. A mosque founded on piety from the first day is more deserving for you to stand in" (Quran 9:108). Thus, it is established that it is not a place of prayer.[25]

L6627 The issue of prayer in a mosque built out of ostentation or to cause harm to another mosque.

L6628–6630 399. Issue: Prayer is not valid in a mosque built for ostentation or to cause harm to another mosque, provided its congregants can hear the call to prayer of the original mosque and face no hardship in attending it. It is obligatory to demolish such a mosque, and to demolish every mosque built for people to isolate themselves in as monks do, or that ignorant people seek for its perceived virtue despite lacking traces of any prophet's legacy—peace be upon them. It is fundamentally impermissible to intentionally seek out any mosque believed to possess superior virtue over others, except solely the mosques of Makkah, Madinah, and Bayt al-Maqdis, for the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—condemned the excessive clustering of mosques.

Abdullāh ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-Malik narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Bakr narrated to us: Abū Dāwūd narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn al-Ṣabbāḥ narrated to us: Sufyān ibn ʿUyaynah narrated from Sufyān al-Thawrī, from Abū Fazarah, from Yazīd ibn al-Aṣamm, from Ibn ʿAbbās, who said: The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said, "I was not commanded to construct mosques with elaborate elevation." [Ibn ʿAbbās added: "You will adorn them as the Jews and Christians adorned theirs."] ʿAlī—may Allah be pleased with him—said: "Elaborate elevation (tashyīd)" refers to constructing with plastered structures.

Through this chain to Abū Dāwūd: Muḥammad ibn al-ʿAlāʾ narrated to us: Ḥusayn ibn ʿAlī narrated to us from Zāʾidah, from Hishām ibn ʿUrwah, from his father, from ʿĀʾishah, who said: "The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—commanded that mosques be built in residential quarters (al-dūr, meaning neighborhoods), perfumed, and kept clean."

ʿAlī—may Allah be pleased with him—said: He—peace and blessings be upon him—did not command mosques to be built in every location but ordered them in residential quarters. Thus, it is established that what he prohibited—peace and blessings be upon him—differs from what he commanded. Therefore, the rightful manner of building mosques is as he clarified—peace and blessings be upon him—through his command and practice: constructing them in residential quarters. He—peace and blessings be upon him—said, "The best neighborhoods of the Anṣār are the neighborhood of Banū al-Najjār, then Banū ʿAbd al-Ashhal, then Banū al-Ḥārith ibn al-Khazraj, then Banū Sāʿidah." Following the precedent he established—peace and blessings be upon him—in Madinah, each neighborhood's residents have their own mosque without restriction. Upon them is the obligation to respond to the mu'adhdhin's call for the five prayers. Whatever is added beyond that or reduced from what he—peace be upon him—did not practice is invalid and a reprehensible act, and the reprehensible act must be changed. He—peace be upon him—prescribed marriage and taking female captives as concubines while prohibiting monasticism. Therefore, anything introduced after him—peace be upon him—that did not exist during his era or the time of the Rightly Guided Caliphs is an innovation and invalid. Ibn Mas'ud demolished a mosque built by 'Amr ibn 'Utbah on the outskirts of Kufa and returned it to the congregational mosque. No Friday mosque holds superiority over other mosques. It is impermissible to embark on journeys to mosques except to the mosque of Mecca, Medina, and Bayt al-Maqdis.

[مَسْأَلَةُ الصَّلَاةُ فِي مَكَان يُسْتَهْزَأُ فِيهِ بِاَللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ]

Issue: Performing Ṣalāh in a place wherein Allah, the Exalted and Glorious, is mocked.

٤٠٠ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَا تُجْزِئُ الصَّلَاةُ فِي مَكَان يُسْتَهْزَأُ فِيهِ بِاَللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ أَوْ بِرَسُولِهِ أَوْ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ الدِّينِ، أَوْ فِي مَكَان يُكْفَرُ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ ذَلِكَ فِيهِ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يُمْكِنْهُ الزَّوَالُ وَلَا قَدَرَ صَلَّى وَأَجْزَأَتْهُ صَلَاتُهُ. قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {أَنْ إِذَا سَمِعْتُمْ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ يُكْفَرُ بِهَا وَيُسْتَهْزَأُ بِهَا فَلا تَقْعُدُوا مَعَهُمْ حَتَّى يَخُوضُوا فِي حَدِيثٍ غَيْرِهِ إِنَّكُمْ إِذًا مِثْلُهُمْ} [النساء: ١٤٠] وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {وَإِذَا رَأَيْتَ الَّذِينَ يَخُوضُونَ فِي آيَاتِنَا فَأَعْرِضْ عَنْهُمْ حَتَّى يَخُوضُوا فِي حَدِيثٍ غَيْرِهِ} [الأنعام: ٦٨] .

400. Issue: Prayer is not valid in a place where Allah—the Mighty and Majestic—, His Messenger, or any aspect of the religion is mocked, or where disbelief is expressed in any of that. If one cannot leave and is unable [to do otherwise], he prays, and his prayer suffices. Allah the Exalted said: “When you hear the verses of Allah being disbelieved and mocked, do not sit with them until they engage in another discourse—for indeed you would then be like them” [4:140]. And He said: “When you see those who engage in mockery regarding Our verses, turn away from them until they engage in another discourse” [6:68].[27]

فَمَنْ اسْتَجَازَ الْقُعُودَ فِي مَكَان هَذِهِ صِفَتُهُ فَهُوَ مِثْلُ الْمُسْتَهْزِئِ الْكَافِرِ بِشَهَادَةِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى، فَمَنْ أَقَامَ حَيْثُ حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ عَلَيْهِ الْقُعُودَ فَقُعُودُهُ وَإِقَامَتُهُ مَعْصِيَةٌ، وَقُعُودُ الصَّلَاةِ

Whoever deems it permissible to sit in a place possessing these attributes is akin to the scornful disbeliever who derides the testimony of Allah, Exalted and Majestic. Whoever remains in a location where Allah has forbidden sitting, their sitting or staying there constitutes an act of disobedience, while sitting in prayer is an act of obedience. It is invalid for sins to compensate for acts of worship, or for forbidden matters to substitute obligatory duties. As for those incapable, Allah, Exalted and Majestic, has said: “Allah does not burden any soul beyond its capacity” (al-Baqarah 2:286).[28]

Issue: Reciting from a Mushaf during the prayer.

401 – Issue: It is not permissible for a praying person—whether an imam or otherwise—to recite from a muṣḥaf or anything else. If done intentionally, their prayer becomes invalid. Similarly, counting verses [during prayer] is prohibited, because referring to the scripture constitutes an action not explicitly permitted in prayer. This has been transmitted from several of the Salaf, including Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib, al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī, al-Shaʿbī, and Abū ʿAbd al-Raḥmān al-Sulamī. Abū Ḥanīfah and al-Shāfiʿī invalidated the prayer of one who leads people using the muṣḥaf. However, some others permitted this. In cases of disagreement, the recourse lies in the Quran and the Sunnah. The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—said: “Prayer is an occupation.” Thus, it is confirmed that prayer precludes every action not explicitly permitted by textual evidence. And success is from Allah, the Most High.

The Ruling on Greeting with Salām Upon the One Praying During the Prayer.

Issue 402: If someone is greeted while praying, he should respond with a gesture - using his hand or his head - not with speech. If he intentionally speaks, his prayer becomes invalid. If someone sneezes, he should say, “All praise is due to Allah, Lord of the Worlds.” It is not permissible for anyone to say to him, “Raḥimaka Allāh.” If someone does this, the prayer of the one who said it becomes invalid provided he acted intentionally while aware of the prohibition. We have previously mentioned the ḥadīth of Muʿāwiyah ibn

The issue of performing the prayer while the worshiper's food is present or while they are holding back urine or stool.

403. Issue: Prayer is not valid in the presence of the worshiper's food, whether it be lunch or supper, nor while he is resisting urine or stool. It is obligatory upon him to begin with eating, urinating, or defecating.

Abdullāh ibn Yūsuf narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ narrated to us: ʿAbd al-Wahhāb ibn ʿĪsā narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn ʿAlī narrated to us: Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj narrated to us: Muḥammad ʿAbbād narrated to us: Ḥātim ibn Ismāʿīl narrated to us from Yaʿqūb ibn Mujāhid (known as Abū Ḥazrah) from Ibn Abī ʿAtīq, who said:

Al-Qāsim ibn Muḥammad and I were conversing at ʿĀ'ishah's residence when a meal was served. Al-Qāsim ibn Muḥammad stood up. ʿĀ'ishah said: "Where are you going?" He replied: "To pray." She said: "Sit down, O negligent one! I heard Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—say: 'No prayer is valid in the presence of food, nor while one is resisting the two impurities.'"

Ḥammām narrated to us: Ibn Mufarrij narrated to us: Ibn al-Aʿrābī narrated to us: al-Dubayrī narrated to us: ʿAbd al-Razzāq narrated to us from Maʿmar from Hishām ibn ʿUrwah from his father, who said:

We were with ʿAbdullāh ibn Arqam when the prayer was called. He went to relieve himself and said: "I heard Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—say: 'If the prayer is called while one of you needs to defecate, let him begin with defecation.'"

ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ narrated it to us: ʿAbdullāh ibn Muḥammad ibn ʿUthmān narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Khālid narrated to us: ʿAlī ibn ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz narrated to us: Ḥajjāj ibn al-Minhāl narrated to us: Ḥammād ibn Salamah narrated to us from Hishām ibn ʿUrwah from his father. He said: Abdullah ibn Arqam was on Hajj or Umrah when he pronounced the iqamah. He then said to his companions: “Pray! For I heard Allah’s Messenger (peace be upon him) say: ’When the prayer iqamah is called while one of you has a need, let him fulfill his need first, then pray.”’ He then fulfilled his need, performed ablution, and prayed. This view was held by the early scholars. It has been narrated to us from Hammad ibn Salamah through Thabit al-Bunani, and Humaid through Anas: The meal was served when the prayer time arrived. I rose to pray Maghrib, but Abu Talha grasped my garment and said: “Sit and eat first, then pray it.” From Umar ibn al-Khattab: “Do not suppress the two impurities during prayer, for it is equally burdensome whether one prays while doubted or with traces on his garment’s edge.” A similar narration is reported from Ibn Abbas like this. Ali stated: “If one fears missing the prayer time, the same ruling applies, for one is fundamentally commanded to attend first to urination, defecation, or eating. Thus, it is established that the prayer time remains valid for him since he is instructed to delay prayer until completing his need, as we explained. And with Allah alone is success.”[29]

A legal question regarding one who has eaten garlic, onion, or kurrat.

404 - Issue: Whoever eats garlic, onions, or leeks is obligated not to pray in the mosque until the odor dissipates. It is incumbent upon him to be expelled from the mosque if he enters before the odor ceases. If he prays in the mosque in such a state, his prayer is invalid. None may be barred from the mosque except those we have mentioned: not those with offensive breath, nor lepers, nor persons with ailments. Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us; Abdul-Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us; Ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us; Muhammad ibn al-Muthanna narrated to us; Yahya ibn Sa’id al-Qattan narrated from Ubaydullah ibn Umar, who informed me from Nafi’ from Ibn Umar, who said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said, “Whoever eats from this plant—meaning garlic—must not approach the mosques.” Through the same chain to Yahya ibn Sa’id:

Hisham al-Dastuwa'i narrated to us; Qatadah narrated from Salim ibn Abi al-Ja'd from Ma'dan ibn Abi Talhah: "Umar ibn al-Khattab addressed the people during Friday prayer—he delivered a lengthy sermon, in which he said: 'O people! You consume two plants I consider them foul: this onion and garlic. I witnessed the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), whenever he detected their smell from a man in the mosque, command that he be expelled to al-Baqiʿ.'"

L6646–6647 And with him to Muslim: Muhammad ibn Hatim narrated to us, Yahya ibn Sa'id narrated to us from Ibn Jurayj, who informed me from 'Ata' from Jabir ibn 'Abdullah from the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—who said: "Whoever eats onions, garlic, or leeks, let him not approach our mosque, for the angels are harmed by what harms the children of Adam." Ali said: If he did not say "this mosque of ours" or use wording specifying its restriction to his mosque in Medina, then every mosque is "our mosque," because he—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—refers to Muslims by saying "our mosque," especially given what is clarified in another hadith. Ali said: It was narrated to us via the narration of Mus'ab ibn Sa'id: A man among the companions of Muhammad—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—would go out to the wilderness when he wanted to eat garlic, as if he meant himself. It was narrated to us from Ali ibn Abi Talib and Shurayk ibn Hanbal among the Followers that raw garlic is forbidden. Ali ibn Ahmad said: It is not forbidden, for the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—permitted it in the mentioned reports. It was narrated to us from 'Ata' the prohibition against garlic-eaters entering all mosques. Ali said: The Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—did not prevent anyone from attending mosques except those we mentioned. "Nor does he speak from [his own] desire" (53:3). "And your Lord is not forgetful" (19:64).[3031]

Fingers or Interlocking Them During Prayer]

L6649 405 – Issue: Whoever intentionally cracks his fingers or interlaces them during prayer invalidates his prayer, due to the saying of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), "Verily, prayer demands full attention."

٤٠٥ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ تَعَمَّدَ فَرْقَعَةَ أَصَابِعِهِ أَوْ تَشْبِيكَهَا فِي الصَّلَاةِ بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ، لِقَوْلِهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «إنَّ فِي الصَّلَاةِ لَشُغْلًا»

L6650 An issue: one prays while leaning on a staff, a wall, or a person, or resting against.

L6651–6653 406 - Issue: If someone prays while leaning on a stick, wall, or person, or reclining, his prayer is invalid due to the Prophet's command (peace be upon him) to stand during prayer. If unable, then sitting; if unable, then lying down. Leaning and reclining constitute actions not ordained. He (peace be upon him) said: "Verily, prayer requires full attention." Ali said: Unless a valid narration emerges permitting this, we would act upon it, but we know of no authentic narration. The narration regarding this is only through Abd al-Salam ibn Abd al-Rahman al-Wābiṣī from his father, and his status is unknown, nor... The ruling concerning his father's condition. Then, even if the narration were sound, there would be no permissibility to lean on it during prayer or use it for support, for its wording is solely from Umm Qays bint Miḥṣan: "When the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—grew elderly and became frail, he installed a pillar in his prayer area to lean upon." ʿAlī said: "It does not state that he—peace and blessings be upon him—leaned upon it during the prayer itself. The sound ḥadīths affirm that he—peace and blessings be upon him—would pray seated, and when the remaining portion of the recitation was equal in duration to what he would stand, he would rise, recite, and then bow."[32] thumb, or ring finger—except the little finger alone—and intentionally prays in that state, his prayer is invalid. Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us, Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated to us, from Muḥammad ibn Bishār and Hannād ibn al-Sarrī. Muḥammad ibn Bishār said: Muḥammad ibn Jaʿfar narrated to us, Shuʿbah narrated to us, on the authority of ʿĀṣim ibn Kulayb, on the authority of Abū Burdah—the son of Abū Mūsā al-Ashʿarī—who said: I heard ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib—may Allah be pleased with him—say, "The Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—forbade me from wearing a ring on the index and middle fingers." Hannād ibn al-Sarrī said: on the authority of Abū al-Aḥwaṣ, on the authority of ʿĀṣim ibn Kulayb, on the authority of Abū Burdah—the son of Abū Mūsā al-Ashʿarī—on the authority of ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib, who said: "The Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—forbade me from wearing a ring." "In this finger of mine, the middle one, or the one adjacent to it." ʿAlī said: This Ḥadīth of Shuʿbah overrules every report doubted by those who narrated it from ʿĀṣim. There is no distinction between someone who prays while wearing a ring on a finger where wearing a ring is prohibited and someone who prays wearing silk or in a prohibited state, for all of them have performed a prohibited action during prayer; thus, they have not prayed in the manner they were commanded to pray.

A jurisprudential issue: The worshipper deliberately diverts his intention during the prayer to another prayer.

408 - Issue: If one intentionally diverts their intention during the prayer to another prayer, or shifts from an obligatory prayer to a voluntary one, or from a voluntary prayer to an obligatory one, their prayer is invalidated because they did not perform it as commanded. If this is done forgetfully, their prayer is not invalidated. However, whatever was performed contrary to the command is disregarded, whether long or short. They must resume building upon what they prayed as commanded, complete their prayer, then perform the prostration for forgetfulness—provided their ritual ablution (wudu) remains valid. If their ritual ablution is invalidated, they must restart the prayer from the beginning, because we have previously explained [the rulings] regarding speech and action during prayer, with no distinction.

L6660 Case: He went to a soothsayer and asked him while believing his claims, even though he knew this was impermissible for him.

L6661 409 – Issue: Whoever consults a soothsayer – meaning the diviner – and questions him while believing in him, knowing this is impermissible, no prayer from him will be accepted for forty nights unless he repents to Allah the Almighty. Abdullah ibn Yūsuf narrated to us; Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ narrated to us; ʿAbd al-Wahhāb ibn ʿĪsā narrated to us; Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad narrated to us; Aḥmad ibn ʿAlī narrated to us; Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj narrated to us; Muḥammad ibn al-Muthannā al-ʿAnazī narrated to me: Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān narrated to me from ʿUbaydullāh ibn ʿUmar from Nāfiʿ, the freed slave of Ibn ʿUmar, from Ṣafiyyah – she being the daughter of Abū ʿUbayd – from one of the Prophet's wives (peace be upon him), who said: "Whoever consults a soothsayer and questions him about anything, his prayer will not be accepted for forty nights." ʿAlī said: All the Prophet's wives (peace be upon him) are at the peak of truthfulness, integrity, purity, and reliability. It is impossible for them to conceal anything or for anyone not among them to intermingle with them – unlike those who claim companionship with the Prophet while being unrecognized. Whoever approaches a soothsayer and questions him without believing in him, but rather to expose his falsehood, is not deemed to have questioned him or approached him. As for whoever repents, Allah has exempted through repentance the erasure of all sins provided the repentance is sincere and performed correctly – and success comes from Allah the Exalted.[33]

L6662 Whoever claims that this is for severity has attributed deliberate lying to the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—and this is clear to all.

L6663–6664 A case in which one presumed that his Imam had performed the Taslīm (concluding salutation), so he stood to complete the portion of the prayer he had missed.

L6665 410 - Issue: If someone assumes their imam has concluded the prayer or forgets being in congregational prayer behind an imam, then stands to complete missed portions, perform voluntary prayers, or attend to a need while distracted, they must return to sitting whenever they remember, recite the Tashahhud if unrecited, and only perform Taslim after their imam's Taslim while seated - this being obligatory. If prevented from sitting, they perform Taslim as possible and prostrate for forgetfulness. Should their ablution nullify before fulfilling these obligations, they must restart the prayer. If they intentionally perform any aforementioned action before remembering their congregational status, their prayer becomes invalid due to intentional acts neither commanded nor permitted - since forgetfulness is pardoned. Taslim is only legislated by textual proof and consensus at the final sitting containing Tashahhud. With Allah the Exalted lies success.

L6666 A jurisprudential question: Praying behind someone whom one knows to be a disbeliever.

L6667 411 - Issue: Prayer behind someone whom one knows to be a disbeliever is null and void. Similarly, prayer behind someone known to pray without purification or to act disruptively during prayer is also null and void. There is no disagreement among anyone regarding this, given the established textual evidence such as the ḥadīth of Abū Mūsā: "Let the one most proficient in recitation lead the people, and let one of you lead you in prayer." A disbeliever is not one of us, nor is a disbeliever counted among those who pray or affiliated with them. Likewise, the one who acts disruptively is neither truly praying nor in a state of prayer. Thus, whoever follows either of them in prayer has not prayed as commanded.

he presumed to be a Muslim, then learned that he was a disbeliever.

L6669–6671 Question 412: If one prays behind someone he presumes to be a Muslim, then later learns that he is a disbeliever, or that he was frivolous, or that he had not reached puberty, his prayer remains valid. This is because Allah, the Exalted, has not obligated people to discern what lies within hearts. The Prophet (peace be upon him) said, "I was not sent to scrutinize people's hearts. We are only charged with their outward conduct." Thus, when prayer time arrives, we are commanded to let one among us lead the prayer based on his apparent condition. Whoever does so has indeed... He prayed as he was commanded. Similarly, regarding the one who is frivolous in his intention—there is no way to ascertain that [state] from him. And success comes from Allah, the Exalted.

A case in which a jurist exercised juristic interpretation regarding certain matters that necessitate ablution but did not deem ablution obligatory on the basis of that interpretation.

L6673 413 - Issue: As for one who interprets certain matters that necessitate ablution as not requiring it and thus omits ablution for them, it is permissible to follow him as an imam in congregational prayer. Similarly, if someone interprets some obligatory acts of his prayer as voluntary, he is excused due to his ignorance. The Prophet, peace be upon him, validated the prayer of Muʿāwiyah ibn al-Ḥakam, even though he had intentionally spoken during his prayer while ignorant [of the prohibition].

A case of one who knew that his Imam had added a rakʿah or a sajdah.

L6675 414 – Issue: If one knows that their imam has added a rakʿah or prostration, it is not permissible for them to follow him in that. Rather, they must remain in the permissible state and say "Subḥānallāh" with the Imam. There is no disagreement on this, and Allah the Exalted has said: {No soul is burdened except with its own} [An-Nisā': 84].[34]

The issue of a man praying behind the row.

L6677 415 – Issue: If any man prays behind the row, his prayer is invalid. This ruling does not affect a woman's prayer. Congregants are obligated to straighten the rows—completing each first row in succession—stand closely together, and align their shoulders and feet. Any gap should be in the last row. Whoever prays while there is an unfilled space before him in the row that he could occupy himself but fails to do so invalidates his prayer. If he finds no space in the row, he must draw a man to himself to pray together. If unable, he must withdraw and not pray alone behind the row unless prevented from joining it, in which case he may pray alone and his prayer remains valid. Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-Malik al-Khawlānī narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Bakr narrated to us: Abū Dāwūd narrated to us: Sulaymān ibn Ḥarb narrated to us: Shuʿbah narrated to us from ʿAmr ibn Murrah from Hilāl ibn Yasāf from ʿAmr ibn Rāshid from Wābiṣah—who is Ibn Maʿbad al-Asadī—that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, saw a man praying alone behind the row and ordered him to repeat his prayer.

L6678–6681 We have been narrated through the chain of Jarīr ibn ʿAbd al-Ḥamīd, who narrated from Ḥuṣayn ibn ʿAbd al-Raḥmān, who narrated from Hilāl ibn Yasāf, that Ziyād ibn Abī al-Jaʿd informed him from Wābiṣah ibn Maʿbad: "The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) commanded a man who prayed alone behind the row to repeat the prayer." Some people speculated based on their opinions: "Perhaps he ordered him to repeat it for another reason unknown to us." ʿAlī said: "This is null and void, for the Prophet (peace be upon him) would not have neglected to clarify that had it been as they alleged. If they permit such conjecture, then anyone lacking piety toward Allah the Almighty would not fail to say when a hadith is cited: 'Perhaps something was omitted from it that nullifies the ruling it contains.'"

Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad ibn al-Jasūr narrated to us, Wahb ibn Masarrat narrated to us, Muḥammad ibn Waḍḍāḥ narrated to us, Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shaybah narrated to us, Mulāzim ibn ʿAmr narrated from ʿAbd Allāh ibn Badr: "'Abd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAlī ibn Shaybān narrated to me." From his father, he said: "We came to the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—pledged allegiance to him, and prayed behind him. When he concluded the prayer, he saw a man praying alone behind the row. The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—stood over him until he finished, then said: 'Redo your prayer, for there is no prayer for one who prays behind the row.'" Ali said: "Consistently trustworthy." Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ibn Numayr, and others affirmed his reliability. Abdullah ibn Badr is a renowned trustworthy narrator, and we know of no criticism against Abd al-Rahman except that only Abdullah ibn Badr narrated from him—this does not constitute a flaw. Hilal ibn Yasaf's narration of Wabisah's hadith—once through Ziyad ibn Abi al-Ja'd and another through Amr ibn Rashid—strengthens the report. Amr ibn Rashid is trustworthy, as affirmed by Ahmad ibn Hanbal and others.

From Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah ibn Khalid, from Ibrahim ibn Ahmad, from al-Farbari, from al-Bukhari, from Abu al-Walid (al-Tayalisi), from Shu'bah: I am Amr ibn Murrah; I heard Salim ibn Abi al-Ja'd say: I heard al-Nu'man ibn Bashir say: The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "Straighten your rows, or Allah will surely cause discord between your faces." Ali said: "This is a severe warning. Warnings are only issued for major sins." Explicitly through this chain to Shu'bah: From Qatadah, from Anas, who said: The Messenger of Allah—peace and bless-

Ali said: Straightening the row, being part of the iqamah of the prayer, is obligatory because the iqamah of the prayer is obligatory, and whatever pertains to an obligation is itself obligatory. And through him to al-Bukhari: Narrated by Ahmad ibn Abī Rajā’ from Mu‘āwiyah ibn ‘Amr, from Zā’idah ibn Qudāmah, from Ḥumayd al-Ṭawīl, from Anas ibn Mālik, who said: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) told us: “Straighten your rows and stand shoulder-to-shoulder, for I see you from behind my back.” It has been transmitted to us from Anas that he said: “Each of us would press his shoulder against his companion’s shoulder and his foot against his foot.” Ali said: This is the consensus of the Companions, and the narrations on this are exceedingly numerous. The first row is the one adjacent to the Imam. Narrated by ‘Abdullāh ibn Yūsuf from Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ, from ‘Abd al-Wahhāb ibn ‘Īsā, from Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad, from Aḥmad ibn ‘Alī, from Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj, from Muḥammad ibn Ḥarb al-Wāsiṭī... ’Amr ibn al-Haytham Abu Qatan narrated to us: Shu’bah narrated from Qatadah from Khilas from Abu Rafi’ from Abu Hurayrah that the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: “If you knew – or if they knew – what is in the first row, it would have necessitated a drawing of lots.” ’Ali said: “Drawing lots applies only when space cannot accommodate everyone, causing rivalry and crowding. Were the first row reserved for those arriving early – as claimed by those who fail to grasp his words – drawing lots for it would be folly, for none are prevented from hastening to attend, rendering lots unnecessary.”

’Abdullah ibn Rabi’ narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Mu’awiyah narrated: Ahmad ibn Shu’ayb narrated: Isma’il ibn Mas’ud al-Jahdari narrated from Khalid ibn al-Harith: Sa’id ibn Abi ’Arubah narrated from Qatadah from Anas that Allah’s Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: “Complete the first row, then the one following it. If there is a deficiency, let it be in the last row.”

’Ali said: “Those who permit praying alone behind the row clamored by citing the Prophet’s prayer (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) with Anas, an orphan behind him, and a woman behind them. This holds no proof, for women’s ruling is to stand behind men. Otherwise, they would share men’s obligation to arrange rows when numerous, per the general command. It is invalid to discard the hadith about the woman’s prayer position for Wabisah’s hadith, nor to discard Wabisah’s hadith for hers. Discarding one narration for another holds no more validity than abandoning what one accepts and accepting what another discards—all of which is invalid.”

They further argued using the hadith of Ibn ’Abbas and Jabir when each stood alone to the left of Allah’s Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) following him. The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) repositioned each until placing them on his right side. They claimed: “Thus Jabir and Ibn ’Abbas ended up behind Allah’s Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) during that repositioning.”[36]

L6686–6687 Ali said: “This contains no proof for them, due to what we mentioned that it is impermissible to oppose one part of the Sunnah with another. This is toying with religion. I wish I knew: What distinguishes between one who abandons the Hadith of Jābir and Ibn ʿAbbās for the Hadith of Wābiṣah and ʿAlī ibn Shaybān, and between one who abandons the Hadith of Wābiṣah and ʿAlī for the Hadith of Jābir and Ibn ʿAbbās? Is all this nothing but sheer falsehood and arbitrary judgment without evidence? Rather, the truth lies in accepting all these narrations, for all are true, and opposing them is impermissible. Thus, the Imam redirecting one praying to his left towards his right is correct, and the prayer remains valid. This differs from the case of one who knowingly prays to the Imam’s left despite the prohibition - the prayer of these two is invalid, unlike the ruling for one praying behind the row. Never has one redirected from left to right been termed as praying alone behind the row. They also attempted to obscure matters using the report of Abū Bakrah: When he arrived breathless, he bowed outside the row, then joined it.”

Ali said: "This report is a proof against them for us. ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us, saying: ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-Malik narrated to us, saying: Muḥammad ibn Bakr narrated to us, saying: Abū Dāwūd narrated to us, saying: Ḥumayd ibn Masʿadah narrated that Yazīd ibn Zuraiʿ reported: Saʿīd ibn Abī ʿArūbah narrated from Ziyād al-Aʿlam, from al-Ḥasan, that Abū Bakrah said: 'I entered the mosque while Allah's Prophet (peace be upon him) was bowing. I bowed outside the row.' The Prophet (peace be upon him) said: 'May Allah increase your earnestness, but do not repeat this.'"

ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us, saying: ʿAbdullāh ibn ʿUthmān narrated to us, saying: Aḥmad ibn Khālid narrated to us, saying: ʿAlī ibn ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz narrated to us, saying: al-Ḥajjāj ibn al-Minhāl narrated to us, saying: Ḥammād ibn Salamah narrated from al-Aʿlam - meaning Ziyād - from al-Ḥasan, from Abū Bakrah: "He entered the mosque while Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him) was praying and had already bowed. Abū Bakrah bowed, then joined the row while bowing. When Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him) concluded the prayer, he asked: 'Who joined the row while bowing?' Abū Bakrah replied: 'I did.' He said: 'May Allah increase your earnestness, but do not repeat this.'"[37]

L6688–6693 Ali said: It has been established that bowing outside the row then entering the row in that state is impermissible. If it is asked: Why did the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, not command him to repeat the prayer, as he commanded the one who performed the prayer incorrectly and the one who prayed alone behind the row? We respond: We are absolutely certain—indeed, we categorically affirm—that bowing outside the row was only prohibited when the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, forbade it. Since this is the case, there is no obligation to repeat the prayer for one who did so before the prohibition. Had it been forbidden prior to the prohibition, he, peace and blessings be upon him, would not have neglected to command its repetition, as he did with others. Thus, the arguments of those who permit praying alone behind the row or validate the prayer of one who fails to straighten the rows are invalidated entirely—possessing no basis in the Quran, the Sunnah, or consensus.

The righteous predecessors support our view: It has been narrated to us through the most authentic chain from Abu Uthman al-Nahdi, who said: I was among those whom Umar ibn al-Khattab struck his foot to straighten the row during prayer. Ali said: He, may Allah be pleased with him, would not strike anyone or deem it permissible to violate a sacred bodily sanctity except for an obligation.

From Yahya ibn Sa'id al-Qattan, from Ubaydullah ibn Umar, from Nafi', who reported from Ibn Umar: Umar ibn al-Khattab used to send men to straighten the rows, and when they came, he would say "Allahu Akbar."

From Umar ibn al-Khattab: Whoever has a river, wall, or road between him and the Imam is not with the Imam.

From Malik, from Abu al-Nadr, from Malik ibn Abi Amir, from Uthman ibn Affan, who would rarely omit including the following in his sermons: "When the prayer is established, straighten the rows and align them." By the shoulders, for straightening the rows is part of the perfection of prayer. He would not pronounce the Takbīr until men appointed to straighten the rows came to inform him they were aligned, after which he would pronounce the Takbīr. This was the practice of the two Caliphs—may Allah be pleased with them—in the presence of the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—with none opposing it. ʿUthmān would say: "Straighten the rows, align the feet, and level the shoulders." From Sufyān al-Thawrī, via al-Aʿmash, via ʿUmārah ibn ʿImrān al-Juʿfī, via Suwayd ibn Ghaflah: "Bilāl—the Muʾadhdhin of Allah's Messenger (ﷺ)—would adjust our feet in prayer and align our shoulders. Bilāl would not adjust anyone except for the obligatory prayer." Ibn ʿUmar narrated: "Straightening the rows completes prayer," adding: "I would rather lose my front teeth than see a gap in the row and not close it." ʿAlī remarked: "This should not be desired when abandoning what is permissible altogether." Ibn ʿAbbās warned: "Avoid praying between pillars and adhere to the first row." ʿUbaydullāh ibn Abī Yazīd reported: "I saw al-Miswar ibn Makhramah moving through the rows until he reached the first or second row." Via Wakīʿ, from Misʿar ibn Kidām, from ʿAmr ibn Murrah, from Sālim ibn Abī al-Jaʿd, via al-Nuʿmān ibn Bashīr: "By Allah! Straighten your rows, or Allah will cause discord among your hearts." When asked if he disapproved of anything from the Prophet's era (ﷺ), Anas ibn Mālik replied: "Only your failure to straighten the rows." ʿAlī stated: "What is permissible cannot be deemed objectionable." Saʿīd ibn Jubayr mentioned: "The command to straighten the rows." From Ata: It is incumbent upon people to straighten the rows. From Abd al-Rahman ibn Yazid: Straighten the rows, for perfecting the prayer includes establishing the row. From Ibrahim al-Nakha'i regarding a man who arrives when the row is already complete: If he is able, let him join them in the row, or let him pull a man to pray with him. If he prays alone, he must perform the prayer again. From Shu'bah, he said: I asked al-Hakam ibn 'Utaybah about a man praying alone behind the row. He replied: He must repeat it. Al-Awza'i, al-Hasan ibn Hayy, one of the two opinions of Sufyan al-Thawri—and it is the view of Ahmad ibn Hanbal and Ishaq—hold that the prayer of one who prays alone behind the row is invalid.

Question: What should one who enters the mosque say?

[مَسْأَلَةٌ مَاذَا يَقُول مَنْ دَخَلَ الْمَسْجِدَ]

416 - Issue: It is obligatory upon whoever enters the mosque to say, "O Allah, open for me the doors of Your mercy." When exiting, one should say, "O Allah, I ask You of Your bounty." This pertains specifically to the requirements of entering the mosque whenever one enters it, not to the prerequisites of prayer. Therefore, the prayer of one who does not utter these words remains valid, though they have sinned by neglecting to say what they were commanded. Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us, Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us, Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us, Yahya ibn Yahya narrated to us, Sulaiman ibn Bilal narrated to us from Rabi'ah ibn Abi Abd al-Rahman, from Abdul Malik ibn Sa'id - who is Ibn Suwayd al-Ansari - from Abu Humaid or Abu Usaid, who said: The Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings be upon him - said: "When any of

A Jurisprudential Issue Concerning the Congregant's Compliance with the Imam

417 - Issue: It is obligatory upon every follower not to raise, bow, prostrate, utter the takbīr, stand, or give the salām before his imam or alongside his imam. If he does so intentionally, his prayer is invalidated. However, after the completion of every. That is from his Imam; if he did so inadvertently, he must return and ensure that all of that is from him after all of that from his Imam, and the prostration of forgetfulness is obligatory upon him.

Abdullāh ibn Yūsuf narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ narrated to us: ʻAbd al-Wahhāb ibn ʻĪsā narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn ʻAlī narrated to us: Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj narrated to us: Abū Kāmil al-Jaḥdarī narrated to us: Abū ʻAwānah narrated from Qatādah, from Yūnus ibn Jubayr, from Ḥiṭṭān ibn ʻAbdillāh al-Raqqāshī: Abū Mūsā narrated to us, saying: "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) addressed us, clarified to us the Sunnah of goodness, and taught us our prayer. He said: 'When you pray, straighten your rows, then let one of you lead you. When he pronounces the takbīr, pronounce it likewise. When he says: {Not of those who have earned [Your] wrath nor of the astray} [1:7], say "Ameen"—Allah will respond to you. When he pronounces the takbīr and bows, pronounce the takbīr and bow, for the Imam bows before you and rises before you; that corresponds to that. When he pronounces the takbīr and prostrates, pronounce the takbīr and prostrate, for the Imam prostrates before you and rises before you; that corresponds to that.'" He then mentioned the remainder of the ḥadīth.

Through this chain to al-Bukhārī: al-Ḥajjāj ibn al-Minhāl narrated to us: Shu‘bah narrated from Muḥammad ibn Ziyād, who said: I heard Abū Hurayrah say: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: “Does any one of you not fear—or does any one of you not fear—that if he raises his head before the Imam, Allah will transform his head into a donkey’s head, or make his form resemble a donkey’s?”[39][40]

Whatever I precede you in when I bow, you will catch up with me when I rise, and whatever I precede you in when I prostrate, you will catch up with me when I rise.” This is the view held by the Salaf. It was narrated to us from Abu Hurairah that he said: “Whoever raises his head before the Imam and lowers it before him, his forelock is in the hand of a devil.” From Abdullah ibn Mas’ud: “A man cannot be sure, if he raises his head before the Imam, that his head might not return as the head of a dog.” Ali said: “There is no threat more severe than being transformed into the form of a dog or a donkey. L6704 A jurisprudential issue [where] a person with impaired vision feared physical injury due to extending the bowing (rukūʿ) or prostration (sujūd).

L6705 418 - Issue: If someone has impaired vision and fears harm from prolonging the bowing or prostration, they should delay these actions until shortly before the imam raises his head—allowing time equivalent to what is needed to bow, attain stillness, and recite "Glory be to my Lord, the Most Great, and praise be to Him"—then rise after the imam does. This is based on Allah's words: "He has not placed upon you in the religion any hardship" (22:78), "Allah does not burden a soul beyond its capacity" (2:286), and "Allah intends ease for you and does not intend hardship for you" (2:185). It is entirely perplexing that Abū Ḥanīfa and Mālik ruled: It is unlawful for a follower to pronounce the opening takbīr before the imam, nor simultaneously with him; nor to offer the salutation before the imam, nor simultaneously with him—yet they permitted all other actions to coincide with the imam. The Prophet's explicit statement: "Pray what you coincide with and complete what you miss" constitutes clear evidence that it is unlawful for a follower to separate from the imam until the imam's prayer is fully concluded, and the imam's prayer is only concluded by the completion of his final salutation.[41] before their imam except in four cases.

419 - Issue: It is not permissible for anyone to utter the takbīr before the Imam except in four cases. The first: When someone joins behind an Imam, and when the Imam utters the takbīr and the people follow, the Imam realizes he lacks ritual purity. He then signals to the people to stay, exits to purify himself, returns, and initiates the takbīr for iḥrām while they remain in their state of having pronounced the takbīr—as the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) did with his companions (may Allah be pleased with them). The second: When the Imam utters the takbīr and the people follow, then he nullifies his wuḍū'. He appoints someone who entered at that moment as his successor, who becomes the Imam in his place, while the followers had uttered the takbīr before him—this being a consensus among Ḥanafīs, Mālikīs, Shāfiʿīs, and Ḥanbalīs. The third: When the regular Imam is absent, and the people appoint someone to lead them in prayer, then the regular Imam arrives. The appointed Imam steps back, and he steps forward to lead the prayer while the congregation had already uttered the takbīr before him—as the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) did twice: once when he (peace be upon him) went to Banī ʿAmr ibn ʿAwf to reconcile between them, so the people appointed... For the prayer in which Abu Bakr was present, and the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) arrived, Abu Bakr stepped back, and the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) advanced to lead the people in prayer, continuing from what they had prayed with Abu Bakr—just as he did in the final prayer he led for the Muslims. We have previously mentioned this with its chain of transmission in our book, praise be to Allah. The fourth scenario: One who had a valid excuse for missing congregational prayer or despaired of finding a congregation and began praying alone, then the Imam arrived—he joins the Imam's prayer and counts his initial takbīr and prior prayer, for he performed the takbīr as commanded and prayed the elapsed portion of his prayer as commanded. Whoever fulfills his obligation has done well, and it is impermissible to invalidate his deeds except by explicit textual evidence from the Quran or established Sunnah. Allah Almighty says: "Do not nullify your deeds" (47:33). Similarly, it is unlawful for anyone to utter the salām before the Imam except in four situations: First: The prayer of fear, as we shall discuss in its relevant chapters, Allah willing. Second: One who had a valid excuse for missing congregational prayer or despaired of finding a congregation began praying alone, then the Imam arrived. He then became a follower of the Imam, and his prayer concluded before the Imam's prayer. In this case, he may choose: If he wishes, he may utter the salām and rise, for his prayer is complete. He may not continue following the Imam's actions during the prayer, nor is it permissible for the follower to add such actions to his prayer. Since he cannot continue following the Imam, he exits the Imam's leadership and his prayer is complete. Thus, he should utter the salām. Alternatively, he may prolong his Tashahhud (testification) and supplication until the Imam utters the salām, then he may utter the salām afterward or simultaneously. Third: A traveler praying behind one who performs the complete prayer—whether a resident or someone excused due to an erroneous interpretation. Once the follower completes two rakʿahs with their prostrations, his prayer is complete. He may choose between uttering the salām, prolonging his sitting and supplication, rising after his salām, or voluntarily praying the remaining portion of the prayer with the Imam. Fourth: One for whom the Imam's excessive prolongation causes harm to himself or loss of property. He may exit the Imam's leadership, complete his prayer individually, utter the salām, and attend to his needs—as narrated to us by ʿAbdullāh ibn Yūsuf, Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ narrated to us, ʿAbd al-Wahhāb ibn ʿĪsā narrated to us... Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us, Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us, Muhammad ibn Abbad narrated to us, Sufyan—Ibn Uyaynah—from Amr—Ibn Dinar—from Jabir ibn Abdullah, who said: "Mu'adh used to pray with the Prophet (PBUH) then return to lead his people. One night, he prayed Isha with the Prophet (PBUH) then came to his people and led them, commencing with Surah Al-Baqarah. A man turned away, said the Salam, prayed alone, and left. They said: 'Have you become a hypocrite, O so-and-so?' He replied: 'No, by Allah! I will surely go to the Messenger of Allah (PBUH) and inform him.' He came to the Messenger of Allah (PBUH) and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, we are water-carriers working by day. Mu'adh prayed Isha with you then came and commenced Al-Baqarah.' Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah ibn Khalid narrated to us, Ibrahim ibn Ahmad narrated to us, al-Farbari narrated to us, al-Bukhari narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Bashshar narrated to me, Ghundar narrated to us, Shu'bah narrated from Amr ibn Dinar, who said: I heard Jabir ibn Abdullah say: "Mu'adh ibn Jabal prayed with the Prophet (PBUH) then returned to lead his people. He prayed Isha reciting Al-Baqarah. A man left, and when this reached the Messenger of Allah (PBUH), he said thrice: 'Instigator! Instigator! Instigator!'—or he said: 'Tempter! Tempter! Tempter!'—commanding him to recite two surahs from the middle Mufassal."

This constitutes the Companions' consensus alongside textual evidence. We narrate through Abd al-Razzaq from Isra'il ibn Yunus from Abu Ishaq al-Sabi'i from Asim ibn Damrah from Ali ibn Abi Talib, who said: "If a man completes Tashahhud and fears invalidating ablution before the Imam says the Salam, let him say the Salam—his prayer is complete." We know no dissent among the Companions regarding this. Through all the scenarios mentioned, groups of the Salaf upheld these positions.[42]

Similarly, if he rises without relinquishing his spot and returns, he holds greater right to it, for the mosque belongs to all people. 421 - Issue: It is not permissible for anyone to pray in front of the Imam except due to the necessity of confinement alone, or on a ship where no alternative is possible. Abdullah ibn Yūsuf narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ narrated to us, ʿAbd al-Wahhāb ibn ʿĪsā narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn ʿAlī narrated to us, Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj narrated to us, Hārūn ibn Maʿrūf narrated to us, Ḥātim ibn Ismāʿīl narrated from Yaʿqūb ibn Mujāhid Abū Ḥarza from ʿUbādah ibn al-Walīd ibn ʿUbādah ibn al-Ṣāmit: We came to Jābir ibn ʿAbdullāh, and he narrated to us: “The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—performed ablution. Jābir said: I performed ablution from the water used by the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—for ablution. Jabbār ibn Ṣakhr went to relieve himself. The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—stood to pray. Then I came and stood to his left. He took me by the hand and turned me until he positioned me to his right. Then Jabbār ibn Ṣakhr came and stood to the left of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him. He took both of us by our hands and positioned us behind him.” It is thus obligatory without exception that two or more must stand behind the Imam, and a single person must stand to his right. For the Prophet’s act of moving Jābir and Jabbār behind him—peace and blessings be upon him—was a command from him that may not be transgressed. Similarly, his turning Jābir to his right was such. Whoever prays contrary to what he—peace and blessings be upon him—commanded has no valid prayer. Some scholars have asserted that two may stand on either side of the Imam, citing as evidence a narration we transmitted from al-Aʿmash from Ibrāhīm from ʿAlqamah and al-Aswad: “They prayed with Ibn Masʿūd—may Allah be pleased with him. He stood between them, placing one to his right and the other to his left, then bowed with them. They placed their hands on their knees, so he tapped their hands and clasped his hands between his

Both are abandoned: that this was the practice of the Prophet—peace be upon him—when they were three. Ali said: As for Al-A'mash's narration—the established one—it contains no clarification regarding what Ibn Mas'ud indicated by his statement: "Thus did Allah's Messenger—peace be upon him—act." Was this reference to the Imam's position between the two along with placing the hands together simultaneously, or to placing the hands together alone? Since no clarification exists in this matter, it is impermissible to abandon certainty for conjectures. Furthermore, even if this report were authentically attributed to Allah's Messenger—peace be upon him—the Prophet's moving of Jabir and Jabbār away from his sides and placing them behind him would establish for us with certainty the prohibition of the two being at the Imam's sides, rendering it impermissible. Since this is so, the permissibility of the two being at the Imam's sides has become prohibited with certainty. Therefore, what has been conclusively established as forbidden cannot revert to permissibility except through an explicit text concerning its restoration—and success comes from Allah, the Exalted.[43]

[مَسْأَلَةٌ مَنْ اسْتَخْلَفَهُ الْإِمَامُ]

Legal Question: The one whom the Imam has appointed as his successor.

L6719

422 - Question: Every individual appointed as a successor by the imam in a state of minor impurity (ḥadath) prays his own prayer, not continuing the prayer of the imam who appointed him. The congregants follow him in what is obligatory for them but do not follow him in what is non-obligatory. Rather, they pause in their current state, waiting for him to reach their position before following him then. Abū Ḥanīfah and Mālik said: Rather, the successor imam prays as he would if he were a congregant, according to the ruling of his imam's prayer who appointed him. ʿAlī said: We know of no proof for their position except our dispute with them regarding the Messenger of Allah's statement—peace and blessings be upon him—"The imam is appointed only to be followed." ʿAlī added: The imam who incurred minor impurity, appointed a successor, and withdrew has nullified his role as imam by the consensus between us and them, and by the necessity of sensory observation—for he is now in his home relieving himself, eating, or doing what Allah... He, the Exalted, knows best about it outside prayer, and that if he were to return, he would be a follower among you, not an Imam. We are certain that his Imamate has been nullified. If they say, "We only stated that the legal validity of his Imamate remains, not the Imamate itself," we respond: Herein we dispute you, for your claim is not inherently valid proof. Since you have acknowledged that his Imamate has been nullified and that he is not an Imam, it is impermissible for the legal effect of an Imamate—whose foundation has been nullified—to persist.

As for the second point—by consensus (إجماع) between us and them—the Imam whom the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) commanded us to follow, to pronounce "Allāhū Akbar" when he pronounces it, to rise when he rises, to bow when he bows, and to prostrate when he prostrates. Since this is so, he is the Imam, not the follower. The Imam is the one commanded to perform the prayer as he was instructed, while those emulating him are commanded to follow his lead. If they say, "Yet you claim that when a follower completes his prayer, he need not wait for the Imam," we reply: Yes, but these individuals have not yet completed their prayer. They are obligated to wait for him, just as the Muslims waited for the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) when he left and returned after performing ghusl, and as they did during the Prayer of Fear (ṣalāt al-khawf). For they remain followers of him, he is their Imam, and their prayer is incomplete. Thus, they have no excuse to abandon following him, nor is it permissible for them to imitate him in acts outside their prayer—thereby intentionally adding to what they have already prayed.

Therefore, they must necessarily wait for him—and success is attained only through Allah, the Exalted.

As for those among them whose prayer has been completed, they may choose to give the Taslīm (salutation) or prolong the Tashahhud (testification) until they conclude the prayer with the Imam. And success is attained only through Allah, the Exalted.

L6723 Issue: If any slave flees from his master, his Prayer will not be accepted until he returns.

L6724–6726 423. Issue: Any slave who absconds from his master, his prayer is not accepted until he returns, except if he absconded due to unlawful harm which he could find no one to protect him. In that case, he is not considered absconding at that time if his intention was solely to distance himself from it. It was narrated to us by ʻAbdullāh ibn Yūsuf: Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ narrated to us: ʻAbd al-Wahhāb ibn ʻĪsā narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn ʻAlī narrated to us: Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj narrated to us: Yaḥyā ibn Yaḥyā narrated to us: Jarīr narrated from al-Mughīrah from al-Shaʻbī, who said: Jarīr ibn ʻAbdillāh al-Bajalī used to narrate from the Prophet — peace and blessings be upon him — that he said: "When a slave absconds, his prayer is not accepted." This is also the view of Abū Hurayrah, as was narrated to us from Muḥammad ibn al-Muthannā: ʻAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī narrated to us: Shuʻbah narrated to us from Ḥabīb ibn Abī Thābit, who said: "I heard as a child from Abū Hurayrah that he said regarding..." The runaway slave: No prayer is accepted from him. Ali said: "This is a figure not known among the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them) - a dissenter. Yet our opponents raise clamor over matters smaller than this when they align with their taqlid."

without prominent coloration that would warrant being called “mu’asfar,” then prayer in it is permissible. Women may pray in such garments. Abdullah ibn Rabi’ narrated to us through his chain from Ali ibn Abi Talib: “Allah’s Messenger - peace and blessings be upon him - forbade wearing qassi (a Yemeni garment), safflower-dyed clothes, gold rings, and recitation during bowing.” This view is held by some of the righteous Salaf, as narrated through Ma’mar from Qatadah: Umar ibn al-Khattab saw a man wearing safflower-dyed clothing and said, “Leave these shiny garments for women.” Through another chain from Sulayman ibn Sard al-Khuza’i: Umar saw a man wearing two safflower-dyed garments and said, “Remove these, lest people suspect you of worse conduct.” Ali remarked, “This represents an extremely severe ruling.” We are narrated that Umm al-Fadl bint Ghaylan asked Anas ibn Malik about safflower dye, to which he replied, “It is permissible for women.” Ali stated, “The Prophet’s permission for women is well-established.” Abdullah ibn Rabi’ further narrated through his chain from Abdullah ibn Umar: “I heard Allah’s Messenger - peace and blessings be upon him - forbid women in ihram from wearing gloves, face-veils, garments dyed with wars (a plant dye) or saffron. After that [state of ihram], they may wear any colored garments they choose - whether safflower-dyed, khazz (a silk-wool blend)...” “or ornaments, or pants, or a shirt, or a khuff.”[44]

L6731 Issue: Whoever prays while carrying stolen property, wrongfully seized property, or a vessel made of silver or gold.

L6732 425. Issue: If someone prays while carrying a stolen item, a usurped item, a silver vessel, or a gold vessel, their prayer becomes invalid—except if they carry the wrongfully taken item to return it to its owner or carry the vessel to break it, in which case their prayer remains valid. If one prays while holding gold ornaments in their hand or waist area that they own for their family's use or intend to sell, or a silk garment under similar circumstances, or gold coins (dinars), their prayer is valid. Similarly, if they pray with a dinar or pearl in their mouth to secure them, their prayer remains valid. The evidence for this is that they performed an impermissible act during prayer, and whoever does so has not fulfilled the prayer Allah Almighty commanded. However, if they carried it to fulfill an obligated purpose, engaging only in what was commanded for rectifying wrongdoing during prayer, then their prayer is valid. And success is from Allah, the Exalted.

L6733 A jurisprudential issue regarding a man if he prays in a wide garment.

L6734 426 - Issue: It is obligatory upon a man—if he prays in a spacious garment—to drape part of it over his shoulder or both shoulders. If he fails to do so, his prayer becomes invalid. If the garment is narrow, he may wrap it around his waist, and this suffices him, whether he has other garments with him or not. It was narrated to us by ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Khālid; narrated to us by Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad; narrated to us by al-Farbarī; narrated to us by al-Bukhārī; narrated to us by Abū ʿĀṣim, known as al-Nabīl—from Mālik, from Abū al-Zinād, from al-Aʿraj, from Abū Hurayrah, who said: The Messenger of Allāh (peace and blessings of Allāh be upon him) said, "Let none of you pray in a single garment without something from it covering his shoulder." We also narrated it through the chain of Sufyān ibn ʿUyaynah, from Abū al-Zinād, from al-Aʿraj, from Abū Hurayrah, from the Prophet

(peace and blessings of Allāh be upon him): “Let none of you pray in a single garment without something from it covering both his shoulders.”[45]

عُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ أَبِي الزِّنَادِ عَنْ الْأَعْرَجِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «لَا يُصَلِّيَنَّ أَحَدُكُمْ فِي الثَّوْبِ الْوَاحِدِ لَيْسَ عَلَى عَاتِقَيْهِ مِنْهُ شَيْءٌ» .

L6735–6736 Ali said: The meaning in both expressions is the same, because when one drapes part of the garment over his shoulder, he has not prayed in a garment that leaves both shoulders uncovered, but rather prayed in a garment covering one of his shoulders. Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us from Ahmad ibn Fath from Abdul-Wahhab ibn Isa from Ahmad ibn Muhammad from Ahmad ibn Ali from Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj from Harun ibn Ma’ruf from Hatim ibn Ismail from Ya‘qub ibn Mujahid Abu Hazrah from ‘Ubada ibn al-Walid ibn ‘Ubada ibn as-Samit, who said: “My father and I came to Jabir ibn ‘Abdullah, and he narrated to us in a hadith that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him: ’O Jabir, if the garment is wide, cross its ends; if it is narrow, tie it around your waist,”’ referring to his garment. These hadiths take precedence over all other reports regarding prayer in a single garment. It was narrated to us from Hammad ibn Salama from Ayyub as-Sikhtiyani from Nafi‘, the freed slave of Ibn ‘Umar, who said about the garment: “If it is wide, drape it over your shoulders; if it is short, wrap it around your waist.” From Abu ‘Awanah from al-Mughirah from Ibrahim an-Nakha‘i, who said: “If you have only one garment, drape it over your shoulders if it is wide, or wrap it around your waist if it is short.” From Tawus in a similar manner. From Muhammad ibn al-Hanafiyyah: “No prayer is valid for one who does not cover both shoulders during prayer.”

L6739 Issue: The ruling on the prayer of a man who drags his garment in ostentatious pride.

L6740–6742 Issue 428: The prayer is not valid from a man who drags his garment out of arrogance. As for a woman, she may let down the hem of what she wears by a cubit's length and no more. If she exceeds that knowingly, her prayer becomes invalid. The requirement for every garment a man wears is that it should reach the ankles, not lower at all. If he lets it hang below the ankles out of fear or forgetfulness, there is no blame on him. Abdullah ibn Yusuf reported to us, Ahmad ibn Fath reported to us, Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa reported to us, Ahmad ibn Muhammad reported to us, Ahmad ibn Ali reported to us, Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj reported to us, Muhammad ibn al-Muthanna reported to us, Yahya ibn Sa'id—al-Qattan—reported from Ubaydullah ibn Umar from Nafi' from Ibn Umar, who said: The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said, "Allah will not look on the Day of Resurrection at one who drags his garment out of arrogance." This applies generally to trousers, waist wrappers, shirts, and all that is worn. It was also narrated by Abdullah ibn Dinar and Zayd ibn Aslam from Ibn Umar with a connected chain. We narrated it via the chain of Abu Dharr with a severe warning. We narrated from Abu Uthman al-Nahdi from Ibn Mas'ud that he said: "One who lets his waist wrapper drag in prayer is neither deemed permissible nor forbidden by Allah." From Ibn Abbas: "Allah will not look at one who lets his garment hang below the ankles." From Mujahid: "It was said: Whoever's

Issue: Prayer in the Garment of a Disbeliever or a Transgressor

[مَسْأَلَةُ الصَّلَاةُ فِي ثَوْبِ الْكَافِرِ وَالْفَاسِقِ]

L6747

Issue: It is permissible to pray in the garment of a disbeliever or a sinner, provided one is not certain there is something impure in it that must be avoided, based on Allah’s statement: “He created for you all that is on the earth” (Q. 2:29). It is authentically reported that “the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) prayed in a Roman cloak.” We are certain of the purity of cotton, linen, wool, hair, fur, leather, and silk—for women—and the permissibility of all these materials. Whoever claims they are impure or prohibited is not to be believed unless they provide evidence from a Quranic text or an authentic Sunnah. Allah says: “He has detailed for you what He has forbidden to you” (Q. 6:119), and “Assumption avails nothing against the truth” (Q. 10:36). If it is argued that the Messenger of Allah prohibited their utensils unless washed, even if no other is found, we respond: Yes, but utensils are distinct from garments, and [remind them that] “Your Lord is not forgetful” (Q. 19:64). Had Allah intended to prohibit their garments, He would have clarified it through His Messenger, as He did with utensils. It is astonishing that those who prohibit prayer in their garments permit their utensils without necessity—this is contrary to the facts. The permissibility of praying in the garments of polytheists is the view of Sufyan al-Thawri, Dawud ibn ‘Ali, and this is our position.[47]

L6749 430 - Issue: It is not valid for any man to pray while having dyed his skin with saffron. If he dyes his garments or turban with saffron, or saffron-dyes his beard, this is commendable, and his prayer with all such [apparel] is permissible. Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Isḥāq narrated to us: Ibn al-Aʿrābī narrated to us: Abū Dāwūd narrated to us: Musaddad narrated to us: Ḥammād ibn Zayd and Ismāʿīl ibn Ibrāhīm – that is Ibn ʿUlayyah – both narrated to us from ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz ibn Ṣuhayb from Anas, who said: "Allah's Messenger – peace and blessings of Allah be upon him – prohibited men from saffron-dyeing." This is the wording of Ismāʿīl. The wording of Ḥammād is: "prohibited from saffron-dyeing for men."[48]

L6750–6751 Abdullah ibn Rabi' narrated to us: 'Umar ibn 'Abd al-Malik narrated; Muhammad ibn Bakr narrated; Sulayman ibn al-Ash'ath narrated; Zuhayr ibn Harb narrated; Muhammad ibn 'Abdullah al-Asadi narrated; Abu Ja'far al-Razi narrated from al-Rabi' ibn Anas from his two grandfathers [al-Rabi''s grandfathers], who said: We heard Abu Musa al-Ash'ari say: The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "Allah does not accept the prayer of a man who has any khaluq (a saffron-based perfume) on his body." 'Ali said: Al-Khaluq refers to saffron. The initial grading of this report places it as a statement of Abu Musa (mawqūf), not a direct Prophetic narration. 'Ali said: This prohibitive ruling abrogates what was permitted at the beginning of the Hijrah, when the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—allowed men to use saffron. For he saw 'Abd al-Rahman ibn 'Awf upon his marriage wearing khaluq, yet did not censure him. The original ruling in this matter was permissibility, then the prohibitive ruling emerged, serving as an abrogating ruling. Abdullah ibn Rabi' narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah narrated; Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb informed us: Ya'qub ibn Ibrahim narrated; al-Darawardi—'Abd al-'Aziz ibn Muhammad—narrated from Zayd ibn Aslam, who said: I saw Ibn 'Umar dyeing his beard yellow with khaluq, so I said: O Abu 'Abd al-Rahman, you dye your beard yellow with khaluq! He replied: "I saw the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—dyeing his beard yellow with it, and no dye was more beloved to him than L6752 A matter: It is unlawful for a man to clap his hands during prayer.

L6753–6755 Issue 431: It is not permissible for a man to clap his hands during prayer. If he does so knowingly, his prayer becomes invalid. However, if he is distracted by something during prayer, he should say "Subḥān Allāh" (Glory be to God). As for a woman, if she is distracted during her prayer, she should clap her hands. If she says "Subḥān Allāh" (Glory be to God), it is permissible. This is the view of Al-Shafi'i and Dawud. Abu Hanifah said: If a man utters Subḥān Allāh intending to communicate something to others, his prayer becomes invalid. Malik said: A woman should not clap but instead utter Subḥān Allāh. Both opinions are incorrect and contradict what is firmly established from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). Narrated by Abdur-Rahman ibn Abdullah ibn Khalid from Ibrahim ibn Ahmad from Al-Farbari from Al-Bukhari from Abu An-Nu'man—who is Muhammad ibn Al-Fadl ʿĀrim—from Hammad ibn Zayd from Abu Hazim Al-Madani from Sahl ibn Sa'd, who mentioned a hadith containing: The people clapped when they saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) coming to them while they were praying behind Abu Bakr. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said to them after concluding the prayer: "If something doubtful occurs to you during prayer, let the men say Subḥān Allāh and let the women clap." Ali said: There is no dispute that clapping (tasfīq) and clapping (tasfīḥ) share the same meaning—striking one palm with the other. It is reported from Abu Hurairah and Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that they said: Uttering Subḥān Allāh is for men, and clapping is for women. No opposing view is known among the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them). Women are permitted to say Subḥān Allāh because it is a remembrance of Allah Almighty, and prayer is a context for the remembrance of Allah (Exalted and Glorified is He).

L6756 A ruling: It is not lawful for a woman to apply perfume when attending the mosque.

L6757 Issue 432: It is not permissible for a woman attending the mosque to apply perfume. If she does so, her prayer is nullified. This ruling applies to Friday prayers, ʿIsha, Eid prayers, and all other prayers. Narrated by Abdullah ibn Yusuf from Ahmad ibn Fath from Abd al-Wahhab ibn Isa from Ahmad ibn Muhammad from Ahmad ibn Ali from Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj from Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah from Yahya ibn Sa'id al-Qattan from Muhammad ibn Ajlan from Bukayr ibn Abdullah ibn al-Ashajj from Busr ibn Sa'id from Zaynab, the wife of Abdullah ibn Mas'ud, who said: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said to us, "When any one of you attends the mosque, she must not apply perfume."

L6758–6759 Abdullah ibn Rubay narrated to us, from Ibn al-Sulaym, from Ibn al-A'rabi, from Abu Dawud, from Musa ibn Isma'il, from Hammad ibn Salamah, from Muhammad ibn Amr, from Abu Salamah ibn Abd al-Rahman ibn Awf, from Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "Do not prevent the female servants of Allah from the mosques of Allah, but let them go out unadorned." Ali said: "If a woman can apply perfume on Friday such that its scent fades before the Friday prayer, then she may do so. Otherwise, she must either refrain from perfume or refrain from attending Friday prayer. Whichever she chooses is permissible for her."

applies to men. As for a woman who braids her lock or braids with a thread of silk, wool, linen, cotton, a strap, silver, or gold, she is not considered to be attaching hair, and no sin is upon her. A woman's prayer is invalid if she adds bulk to her head with an object under her headscarf.

Abd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Khālid narrated to us: Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad narrated to us: al-Farbarī narrated to us: al-Bukhārī narrated to us: al-Ḥumaydī narrated to us: Sufyān ibn ʿUyaynah narrated to us: Hishām ibn ʿUrwah narrated to us, stating he heard Fāṭimah bint al-Mundhir say she heard Asmāʾ bint Abī Bakr al-Ṣiddīq say: "A woman asked the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), 'O Messenger of Allah, my daughter contracted measles which thinned her hair, and I have married her. Shall I attach extensions to it?' He replied, 'Allah curses the one who attaches hair and the one who has hair attached to her.'" facial hair, and the one who has her hair plucked—plucking being the removal of hair from the face—all women who perform these acts upon themselves or others are cursed by Allah, the Mighty and Exalted. As for the curse, the Prophet Muhammad—peace be upon him—has authentically cursed all those we mentioned. As for the completeness of their prayers: once these acts have been performed on them or by them, they cannot rid themselves of these conditions. Whoever is incapable of fulfilling an obligation is excused from it. Allah, the Exalted, says: "Allah does not burden a soul beyond its capacity" [2:286]. The Prophet—peace be upon him—said: "When I command you to do something, do as much of it as you can." Thus, no one is obligated except according to their ability. If they are unable to remove these conditions, they are excused from doing so, while remaining commanded to pray. They must therefore perform prayers as they are able. However, the woman who attaches hair to herself is capable of removing it. If she does not remove it, she has brought into her prayer an act of disobedience to Allah, the Mighty and Exalted. Thus, she has not prayed as she was commanded, and her prayer is invalid. And success comes only from Allah, the Most High.[51]

435. Issue: Prayer is permissible on the exterior of the Kaaba, on Abu Qubays, and on any roof in Mecca—even if higher than the Kaaba—as well as inside the Kaaba, wherever one wishes within it. Obligatory and voluntary prayers are equal. Malik said: It is not permissible to perform obligatory prayers specifically inside the Kaaba, though he permitted voluntary prayers therein. What we have said is the opinion of Abū Ḥanīfa, Al-Shāfiʿī, Abū Sulaymān, and others. Malik's followers argued by saying: "Whoever prays inside the Kaaba turns their back to part of it." ʿAlī responded: Allah the Exalted states, {And from wherever you depart, turn your face toward the Sacred Mosque. And wherever you are, turn your faces toward it} [Al-Baqarah: 150]. If the Malikis' argument were valid, it would not be permissible for anyone to pray in the Sacred Mosque itself, for it constitutes the Qibla by Allah's explicit decree in the Quran. Every worshipper there inevitably turns their back to part of it—thus the fallacy of this view becomes evident. Moreover, anyone praying toward the Sacred Mosque or the Kaaba must leave parts of it to their right and left. No one among Muslims distinguishes between turning one's back to the Qibla during prayer and placing it to one's right or left. Hence, it is established that Allah the Exalted never obligated us to observe such distinctions. We are merely required to face whatever part of the Kaaba's wall—or the mosque's wall opposite the Kaaba—lies before us, wherever we are.

ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Khālid narrated to us: Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad narrated to us: Al-Firabrī narrated to us: Al-Bukhārī narrated to us: ʿAbd Allāh ibn Yūsuf said: Mālik narrated to us from Nāfiʿ from Ibn ʿUmar, who said: "Allah's Messenger—peace be upon him—entered the Kaaba with Usāmah ibn Zayd, Bilāl, and ʿUthmān ibn Ṭalḥah al-Ḥajabī. They closed the door upon him, and he remained inside. When he emerged, I asked Bilāl, 'What did the Prophet—peace be upon him—do?' He replied, 'He positioned a pillar to his left, two pillars to his right, and three pillars behind him, then he prayed.'" ʿAlī said: No one has ever claimed that the Prophet's aforementioned prayer—peace be upon him—was directed away from the Qibla, and he explicitly stated... Upon him be peace—that the entire earth is a place of prayer, and the interior of the Kaaba is the most excellent and virtuous part of the earth. Thus, it is the most excellent of mosques and the most deserving for obligatory and voluntary prayer. It is not permissible for anyone other than a rider, one in fear, or a sick person to perform voluntary prayer without facing the Qibla. Differentiating between obligatory and voluntary prayer without [support from] the Qur'an, the Sunnah, or consensus is erroneous—and success comes only from Allah, the Most High.[52]

In every place higher than the Kaaba, we are required to face only the direction of the Kaaba. The Kaaba was demolished to be renewed, and no one declared the invalidity of the Muslims' prayers.

A case: He prayed while there was a copy of the Quran in the direction of his qiblah.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ صَلَّى وَفِي قِبْلَتِهِ مُصْحَفٌ]

436. Issue: Whoever prays while a copy of the Quran is in the direction he faces for prayer, that is permissible, provided he does not intend to worship the copy of the Quran, since neither textual evidence nor consensus exists to prohibit this.

٤٣٦ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ صَلَّى وَفِي قِبْلَتِهِ مُصْحَفٌ فَذَلِكَ جَائِزٌ، مَا لَمْ يَتَعَمَّدْ عِبَادَةَ الْمُصْحَفِ؛ إذْ لَمْ يَأْتِ نَصٌّ، وَلَا إجْمَاعَ، بِالْمَنْعِ مِنْ ذَلِكَ.

Issue: He prayed while there was a fire, a church, a synagogue, or a fire temple in the direction of his qiblah.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ صَلَّى وَفِي قِبْلَتِهِ نَارٌ أَوْ كَنِيسَةٌ أَوْ بِيعَةٌ أَوْ بَيْتُ نَارٍ]

437 - Issue: If someone prays while there is a fire, a stone, a church, a synagogue, a house of fire, a person (whether Muslim, disbeliever, or menstruating woman), or any object that exists - except for a dog, a donkey, and women other than those lying down - in the direction of their prayer, all of this is permissible. This is because no distinction has been established through the Qur'an, the Sunnah, or scholarly consensus between the objects mentioned and all other objects. There must inevitably be some object from the world's entities in front of the worshiper. Therefore, making distinctions between them is invalid, as it is an unsubstantiated claim. And with Allah, the Exalted, is success.

٤٣٧ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ صَلَّى وَفِي قِبْلَتِهِ نَارٌ، أَوْ حَجَرٌ، أَوْ كَنِيسَةٌ، أَوْ بِيعَةٌ، أَوْ بَيْتُ نَارٍ، أَوْ إنْسَانٌ، مُسْلِمٌ، أَوْ كَافِرٌ، أَوْ حَائِضٌ، أَوْ أَيُّ جِسْمٍ كَانَ - حَاشَا الْكَلْبِ، وَالْحِمَارِ، وَغَيْرِ الْمُضْطَجِعَةِ مِنْ النِّسَاءِ - فَكُلُّ ذَلِكَ جَائِزٌ، لِأَنَّهُ لَمْ يَأْتِ بِالْفَرْقِ بَيْنَ شَيْءٍ مِمَّا ذَكَرْنَا وَبَيْنَ سَائِرِ الْأَجْسَامِ كُلِّهَا قُرْآنٌ وَلَا سُنَّةٌ وَلَا إجْمَاعٌ. وَلَا بُدَّ مِنْ أَنْ يَكُونَ بَيْنَ يَدَيْ الْمُصَلِّي جِسْمٌ مِنْ أَجْسَامِ الْعَالَمِ، فَالتَّفْرِيقُ بَيْنَهَا بَاطِلٌ؛ لِأَنَّهُ دَعْوَى بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

[مَسْأَلَةُ الصَّلَاةُ فِي الْبَيْعَةِ وَالْكَنِيسَةِ وَبَيْتِ النَّارِ]

438 - Issue: Prayer in churches, synagogues, [Zoroastrian] fire temples, and slaughterhouses—provided one avoids urine, dung, and blood—on thoroughfares, in valley beds, subsidence areas, facing camels and female camels, while conversing, during sleep, or in any place is permissible, unless there exists an explicit text or indubitable consensus prohibiting prayer in a specific location. In such cases, one must adhere to the prohibition regarding that matter. Hammam related to us: Ibn Mufarrij narrated to us: Ibn al-A'rābī narrated

He replied: 'Al-Masjid al-Haram.' I asked: 'Then which?' He said: 'Al-Masjid al-Aqṣā.' I asked: 'How much time passed between them?' He said: 'Forty years. L6779–6780 Ali said: This is a clear text affirming that the Kaaba is a mosque, in addition to the Quran's mention of this. No one knows of a mosque where obligatory prayers are prohibited yet voluntary prayers are permitted. It has been narrated to us from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) through the chains of transmission of Abu Hurayrah, Jabir, Hudhayfah, and Anas: "Among our distinctions is that the earth has been made a mosque for us." Every location we have mentioned is permissible for prayer, except what is explicitly prohibited by textual evidence: camel resting grounds, bathhouses, graveyards, facing or standing upon a grave, usurped places, impure areas, and the mosque of harm alone. The prohibition against praying in slaughterhouses and the vicinity of the Sacred House is transmitted through the chain of Zayd ibn Jabirah—which is baseless—and through the chain of Abdullah ibn Salih, the scribe of al-Layth, who is weak. The prohibition against praying in places where the earth has caved in as divine retribution comes through the chain of Ibn Lahiʻah, which is likewise baseless.

L6781–6782 And the prohibition against praying on the main thoroughfare of the road is narrated through the chain of Al-Ḥasan from Jābir, but Al-Ḥasan's direct hearing from Jābir is not authentic.

L6783 An Issue Regarding Prayer on Skins and Wool

[مَسْأَلَةٌ الصَّلَاةُ عَلَى الْجُلُودِ وَالصُّوفِ]

L6784–6786 439 - Issue: Prayer is permissible on leather, wool, and anything permissible to sit upon if it is pure. It is permissible for a woman to pray on silk.

This is the view of Abū Ḥanīfah, al-Shāfiʿī, Abū Sulaymān, and others. ʿAṭāʾ said: “Prayer is not permissible except on soil or level ground.” Mālik said: “Prayer is disliked on anything other than the ground or what the earth produces.” ʿAlī said: “This opinion has no evidence for its validity. Prostration is obligatory on seven limbs: the two feet, the two knees, the two hands, the forehead, and the nose. It is permissible to place all these limbs on the materials we mentioned except the forehead. There is no distinction between the limbs of prostration, nor any basis for such a distinction—neither in the Quran, nor in a sound or weak Sunnah, nor in consensus, analogy, a Companion’s statement, nor any reasoned opinion. Success comes only from Allah, the Exalted.” It is narrated from Ibn Masʿūd that he prayed on a hair mat, from ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb that he prostrated in prayer on an ʿabqarī—a woolen rug—and from Ibn ʿAbbās that he prostrated in prayer on a ṭunfusah, which is a woolen rug. The same is reported from Abu al-Darda. The same is reported from Shurayh and al-Zuhri, and from al-Hasan. There is no dissenting opinion among the Companions we have mentioned—may Allah be pleased with them—regarding that. And with Allah, the Exalted, is success.

L6788 440 - Issue: If someone is pressed during Friday or other days and cannot prostrate upon what is before him, let him prostrate on the leg of the one praying in front of him or on his back, and it suffices him. This is the opinion of Abū Ḥanīfah, al-Shāfiʿī, Abū Sulaymān, and others. Mālik said: This is not permissible. ʿAlī said: “Allah the Exalted commanded us to prostrate and did not specify any particular thing from anything for us to prostrate upon.

L6789 A juristic question: whether the Imam may pray in a place higher than the congregation's place, or in a place lower than his own.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ لِلْإِمَامِ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ فِي مَكَان أَرْفَعَ مِنْ مَكَانِ جَمِيعِ الْمَأْمُومِينَ، وَفِي أَخْفَضَ مِنْهُ]

L6790 441 - Issue: It is permissible for the Imam to pray in a place higher than the congregation's location or in a lower place. This applies equally whether it concerns the general public, the majority, or the minority. If he is able to prostrate properly, this is preferable. Otherwise, when he intends to prostrate, he should step down to a position where he can perform it, then return to his place. This is the opinion of Al-Shāfiʿī and Abū Sulaymān.

L6791–6794 Abu Hanifah and Malik said: This is not permissible. However, Abu Hanifah permitted it within the measure of a qamah (standing height) or less, and Malik permitted slight elevation. Ali said: These two specifications are invalid, as they lack support from Quranic text, Sunnah, consensus, analogy, companion's opinion, or rationally valid view. No distinction is recognized between minor and major elevation in any of these sources. Declaring prohibition, permissibility, or specification between them is only lawful through the Quran or Sunnah. If the imam's prayer position being a finger's breadth higher than the congregation is permissible, then it remains permissible through incremental elevations—a finger's breadth after a finger's breadth—even reaching a thousand qamahs or more. Conversely, if a thousand qamahs are prohibited in this matter, then all elevations down to a finger's breadth or less are equally prohibited. Whoever arbitrarily differentiates between these through personal opinion falsely attributes to Allah and His Messenger—peace be upon him—what they never decreed. It is surprising that Abu Hanifah and Malik ruled: "If a group shares the imam's elevated position, his prayer with those below is valid; otherwise not"—a ruling marked by further arbitrariness. They also permitted the imam to be positioned lower than the congregation—a third arbitrary ruling, all asserted without evidence. Ali said: The established ruling requires congregants to form rows behind the imam. Disrupting this arrangement is impermissible due to the obligation of row organization commanded by Allah's Messenger—peace be upon him. If the imam's prayer space is on a platform, in a room, or elevated ground insufficient for a row behind him, those below may pray there. Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated from Ahmad ibn Fath, from Abdul-Wahhab ibn Isa, from Ahmad ibn Muhammad, from Ahmad ibn Ali, from Muslim ibn Al-Hajjaj, from Yahya ibn Yahya and Qutaybah ibn Sa'id—both from Abdul-Aziz ibn Abi Hazim, from his father—that some men came to Sahl ibn Sa'd. Sahl said: "I saw Allah's Messenger—peace be upon him—stand upon the pulpit, pronounce the Takbir, while the people behind him pronounced Takbir as he remained on the pulpit. He then rose from bowing, stepped backward, and prostrated at the pulpit's base. He returned [to the pulpit] until he finished the last part of his prayer." After completing his prayer, he turned to the people and said: "O people, I have done this so that you may follow my lead and learn my manner of prayer." ʿAlī said: "There is no clearer exposition than this regarding the permissibility of an imam praying in a place elevated above the congregation's position." Opponents cited a report prohibiting the imam from praying in a higher place than the congregation, but this is a rejected report – solely narrated by Ziyād ibn ʿAbdillāh al-Bakkāʾī, who is deemed unreliable. The report we presented reflects the consensus of the Companions during the Messenger of Allah's lifetime (peace and blessings be upon him), and this constitutes the valid proof, not the fabricated falsehood. Some opponents objected: "This indicates arrogance." ʿAlī responded: "This claim is baseless. The same logic rebounds against their allowance for the congregation to pray in a place higher than the imam. One could retort: 'This would then imply the congregation's arrogance,' with absolutely no distinction in legal principle. By this reasoning, they must also prohibit an imam from praying while girded with a sword or wearing armor, for such attire is more indicative of arrogance than praying in an elevated place." Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, al-Layth ibn Saʿd, al-Bukhārī, and others uphold the same position as ours. And success comes solely from Allah, the Exalted.

[الْأَعْمَالُ الْمُسْتَحَبَّةُ فِي الصَّلَاةِ وَلَيْسَتْ فَرْضًا] [مَسْأَلَةُ رَفْعُ الْيَدَيْنِ عِنْدَ كُلِّ رُكُوعٍ وَسُجُودٍ وَقِيَامٍ وَجُلُوسٍ، سِوَى تَكْبِيرَةِ الْإِحْرَامِ]

L6797 Issue: Raising the hands at every bowing, prostration, standing, and sitting, except for the opening takbīr? ʿAlī said: "People have differed regarding this: a group held that the hands are not raised in any part of the prayer except at its beginning during the opening takbīr—also to the shoulders as well."

مَسْأَلَةٌ: رَفْعُ الْيَدَيْنِ عِنْدَ كُلِّ رُكُوعٍ وَسُجُودٍ وَقِيَامٍ وَجُلُوسٍ، سِوَى تَكْبِيرَةِ الْإِحْرَامِ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: اخْتَلَفَ النَّاسُ فِي هَذَا -: فَطَائِفَةٌ: لَمْ تَرْفَعْ الْيَدَيْنِ فِي شَيْءٍ مِنْ الصَّلَاةِ إلَّا فِي أَوَّلِهَا عِنْدَ تَكْبِيرَةِ الْإِحْرَامِ عَلَى ظَلْعٍ أَيْضًا.

L6798 They also deemed it—if it is the case—a non-obligatory slight raising—and this is the narration of Ibn al-Qāsim from Mālik?—while Abū Ḥanīfah and his companions held that raising the hands at the very outset of the prayer is a recommended practice (Sunnah), not an obligatory act (farḍ), and they prohibited it in the remainder of the prayer. A group maintained raising the hands at the commencement of the prayer, during bowing, and upon straightening up from bowing.

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ الشَّافِعِيِّ: وَأَحْمَدَ وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَأَصْحَابِهِمْ.

وَهُوَ رِوَايَةُ أَشْهَبَ، وَابْنِ وَهْبٍ، وَأَبِي الْمُصْعَبِ، وَغَيْرِهِمْ، عَنْ مَالِكٍ أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَفْعَلُهُ وَيُفْتِي بِهِ؟ وَرَأَتْ طَائِفَةٌ: رَفْعَ الْيَدَيْنِ عِنْدَ كُلِّ تَكْبِيرٍ فِي الصَّلَاةِ، الْفَرْضِ وَالتَّطَوُّعِ، وَعِنْدَ كُلِّ قَوْلِ: سَمِعَ اللَّهُ لِمَنْ حَمِدَهُ؟ فَأَمَّا رِوَايَةُ ابْنِ الْقَاسِمِ عَنْ مَالِكٍ فَمَا نَعْلَمُ لَهَا وَجْهًا أَصْلًا، وَلَا تَعَلُّقًا بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ الرِّوَايَاتِ، وَلَا قَائِلًا بِهَا مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ وَلَا مِنْ التَّابِعِينَ؟

وَأَمَّا قَوْلُ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ فَإِنَّهُمْ احْتَجُّوا بِمَا حَدَّثَنَاهُ حَمَامٌ ثنا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ الْبَاجِيُّ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ بْنِ أَيْمَنَ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ الصَّائِغُ ثنا زُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ ثنا وَكِيعٌ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ عَاصِمِ بْنِ كُلَيْبٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ الْأَسْوَدِ عَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ: «أَلَا أُرِيكُمْ صَلَاةَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -؟ فَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ فِي أَوَّلِ تَكْبِيرَةٍ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَعُدْ»

قَالُوا: وَكَانَ عَلِيٌّ، وَابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ، لَا يَرْفَعَانِ أَيْدِيَهُمَا إلَّا فِي تَكْبِيرَةِ الْإِحْرَامِ فَقَطْ.

مَا نَعْلَمُ لَهُمْ حُجَّةً غَيْرَ هَذَا، وَلَا حُجَّةَ لَهُمْ فِيهِ، لِمَا نَذْكُرُ إنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى، فَنَقُولُ: وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ -: إنَّ هَذَا الْخَبَرَ صَحِيحٌ، وَلَيْسَ فِيهِ إلَّا أَنَّ رَفْعَ الْيَدَيْنِ فِيمَا عَدَا تَكْبِيرَةَ الْإِحْرَامِ لَيْسَ فَرْضًا فَقَطْ، وَلَوْلَا هَذَا الْخَبَرُ لَكَانَ رَفْعُ الْيَدَيْنِ - عِنْدَ كُلِّ رَفْعٍ وَخَفْضٍ وَتَكْبِيرٍ وَتَحْمِيدٍ فِي الصَّلَاةِ -: فَرْضًا؛ لِأَنَّهُ قَدْ صَحَّ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - رَفْعُ الْيَدَيْنِ عِنْدَ كُلِّ رَفْعٍ عَلَى مَا نَذْكُرُ بَعْدَ هَذَا إنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ.

L6799 And it is the opinion of al-Shāfiʿī, Aḥmad, Abū Sulaymān, and their followers.

L6800 This is the narration of Ashhab, Ibn Wahb, Abi al-Muṣʿab, and others from Mālik that he would practice it and issue rulings accordingly. A group held the view of raising the hands at every takbīr in prayer—both obligatory and voluntary—and upon saying Samiʿa Allāhu liman ḥamidah? As for the narration of Ibn al-Qāsim from Mālik, we do not know of any basis for it whatsoever, any connection to other narrations, or any proponent from the Companions or the Followers who adhered to it.

L6801–6802 As for the statement of Abū Ḥanīfah, they cited as evidence the narration transmitted to us by Ḥammām, who narrated from ʿAbdullāh ibn Muḥammad al-Bājī, who narrated from Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd al-Malik ibn Ayman, who narrated from Muḥammad ibn Ismāʿīl al-Ṣāʾigh, who narrated from Zuhayr ibn Ḥarb, who narrated from Wakīʿ, from Sufyān al-Thawrī, from ʿĀṣim ibn Kulayb, from ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn al-Aswad, from ʿAlqamah, from Ibn Masʿūd, who said: "Shall I show you the prayer of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)?" He then raised his hands at the first Takbīr (saying 'Allāhū Akbar') and did not repeat this afterward.

L6803 They said: 'Ali and Ibn Masʿūd would raise their hands only during the opening takbīr of prayer.'

L6804 We know of no valid proof for them other than this, nor do they possess any proof in this matter, due to what we will mention—Allah, the Exalted, willing. Thus we say—and with Allah, the Exalted, lies success—: This narration is authentic, and there is nothing in it except that raising the hands in acts beyond the opening Takbīr is not solely obligatory. Were it not for this narration, raising the hands—at every raising, lowering, Takbīr, and Tahmīd in prayer—would have been obligatory, for it is authentically established from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) that he raised his hands at every raising, as we will clarify hereafter—Allah, the Exalted and Majestic, willing.

L6805 It has been authentically reported from him (peace be upon him) that he said: "Pray as you see me pray." We have mentioned this with its chain of transmission in this book of ours in the chapter on the obligation of the adhan and the iqamah.

وَصَحَّ عَنْهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - أَنَّهُ قَالَ: «صَلُّوا كَمَا تَرَوْنِي أُصَلِّي» وَقَدْ ذَكَرْنَاهُ بِإِسْنَادِهِ فِي كِتَابِنَا هَذَا فِي بَابِ وُجُوبِ الْأَذَانِ وَالْإِقَامَةِ.

L6806 Were it not for this ḥadīth of Ibn Masʿūd, it would have been obligatory upon every person who prays to pray as he (peace be upon him) used to pray.

فَلَوْلَا حَدِيثُ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ هَذَا لَكَانَ فَرْضًا عَلَى كُلِّ مُصَلٍّ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ كَمَا كَانَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - يُصَلِّي.

L6807–6809 He—peace be upon him—used to pray while raising his hands at every raising and lowering [in prayer]. However, when Ibn Masʿūd's report was verified, did we learn that raising the hands apart from the opening takbīr is merely a sunnah and recommendation? Though ʿAlī and Ibn Masʿūd—may Allah be pleased with them—did not raise [their hands], Ibn ʿUmar, Ibn ʿAbbās, and a group of the Messenger of Allah's Companions—peace and blessings be upon him—did raise theirs. Thus, the action of some cannot be used as proof against the action of others. Rather, the proof binding upon all is what is authentically established from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him. In any case, even if Ibn Masʿūd and ʿAlī did not raise [their hands], it is never reported that they disapproved of it or forbade it, as these people do. As for those who consider raising the hands when bowing and rising from bowing [obligatory], they have argued based on what... We have narrated it via the routes of Mālik, Yūnus ibn Yazīd, Sufyān ibn ʿUyaynah, Ibn Jurayj, al-Zubaydī, Maʿmar, and others—all of them narrating from al-Zuhrī from Sālim ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn ʿUmar from his father: "That the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) would raise his hands level with his shoulders when he commenced the prayer, when he pronounced the takbīr for bowing, and when he raised his head from bowing—he would raise them in the same way. He did not do that while prostrating."

وَكَانَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - يُصَلِّي رَافِعًا يَدَيْهِ عِنْدَ كُلِّ رَفْعٍ وَخَفْضٍ، لَكِنْ لَمَّا صَحَّ خَبَرُ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ عَلِمْنَا أَنَّ رَفْعَ الْيَدَيْنِ فِيمَا عَدَا تَكْبِيرَةِ الْإِحْرَامِ: سُنَّةٌ وَنَدْبٌ فَقَطْ؟ وَإِنْ كَانَ عَلِيٌّ، وَابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا - لَا يَرْفَعَانِ، فَقَدْ كَانَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ، وَابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ، وَجَمَاعَةٌ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَرْفَعُونَ فَلَيْسَ فِعْلُ بَعْضِهِمْ حُجَّةً عَلَى فِعْلِ بَعْضٍ، بَلْ الْحُجَّةُ عَلَى جَمِيعِهِمْ مَا صَحَّ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَعَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ فَإِنْ كَانَ ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ، وَعَلِيٌّ: لَا يَرْفَعَانِ، فَمَا جَاءَ قَطُّ أَنَّهُمَا كَرِهَا الرَّفْعَ، وَلَا نَهَيَا عَنْهُ كَمَا يَفْعَلُ هَؤُلَاءِ وَأَمَّا مَنْ رَأَى رَفْعَ الْيَدَيْنِ عِنْدَ الرُّكُوعِ، وَالرَّفْعِ مِنْ الرُّكُوعِ، فَإِنَّهُمْ احْتَجُّوا بِمَا رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ مَالِكٍ، وَيُونُسَ بْنِ يَزِيدَ، وَسُفْيَانَ بْنِ عُيَيْنَةَ، وَابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ، وَالزُّبَيْدِيِّ، وَمَعْمَرٍ، وَغَيْرِهِمْ، كُلُّهُمْ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ: «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - كَانَ يَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ حَذْوَ مَنْكِبَيْهِ إذَا افْتَتَحَ الصَّلَاةَ، وَإِذَا كَبَّرَ لِلرُّكُوعِ، وَإِذَا رَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ مِنْ الرُّكُوعِ، رَفَعَهُمَا أَيْضًا كَذَلِكَ، وَكَانَ لَا يَفْعَلُ ذَلِكَ فِي السُّجُودِ» .

L6810 And it has been narrated to us this action in prayer from Jābir ibn ʿAbdullāh, Abū Saʿīd, Abū al-Dardāʾ, Umm al-Dardāʾ, and Ibn ʿAbbās.

وَرُوِّينَا هَذَا الْفِعْلَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ، وَأَبِي سَعِيدٍ، وَأَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ، وَأُمِّ الدَّرْدَاءِ وَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ.

L6811 And it has also been narrated to us concerning this action in prayer from Abū Mūsā al-Ashʿarī – and that he used to teach it to the people – via Ḥammād ibn Salamah from al-Azraq ibn Qays from Ḥiṭṭān ibn ʿAbdillāh al-Raqāshī from Abū Mūsā al-Ashʿarī.

L6812 It has also been narrated to us from Abū az-Zubayr, Abū Hurayrah, an-Nuʿmān ibn Abī ʿAyyāsh, and a group of the Prophet's companions - peace and blessings be upon him - through the chain of Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shaybah from Muʿādh ibn Muʿādh from Saʿīd ibn Abī ʿArūbah from Qatādah from al-Ḥasan: "The companions of the Prophet - peace and blessings be upon him - used to raise their hands when commencing the prayer, when bowing, and when rising from bowing, as if they were fluttering fans."

وَرُوِّينَا أَيْضًا عَنْ أَبِي الزُّبَيْرِ وَأَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، وَالنُّعْمَانِ بْنِ أَبِي عَيَّاشٍ، وَجُمْلَةِ أَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِنْ طَرِيقِ أَبِي بَكْرِ بْنِ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ مُعَاذٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي عَرُوبَةَ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ الْحَسَنِ " كَانَ أَصْحَابُ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَرْفَعُونَ أَيْدِيَهُمْ إذَا أَحْرَمُوا وَإِذَا رَكَعُوا وَإِذَا رَفَعُوا كَأَنَّهَا الْمَرَاوِحُ ".

L6813–6815 We have also narrated it from ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Sābiṭ, al-Ḥasan, al-Qāsim, Sālim, ʿAṭāʾ, Ṭāwus, Mujāhid, Ibn Sīrīn, Nāfiʿ client of Ibn ʿUmar, Qatādah, al-Ḥasan ibn Muslim, Ibn Abī Najīḥ, ʿAbd Allāh ibn Dīnār, Makḥūl, Muʿtamir ibn Sulaymān, Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān, ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī, Ismāʿīl ibn ʿUlayyah, al-Layth ibn Saʿd, al-Awzāʿī, Sufyān ibn ʿUyaynah, al-Ḥumaydī, Jarīr ibn ʿAbd al-Ḥamīd, ʿAbd Allāh ibn al-Mubārak, Ibn Wahb, Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, Isḥāq, al-Muzanī, Abū Thawr, Muḥammad ibn Naṣr al-Marwazī, Muḥammad ibn Jarīr al-Ṭabarī, Ibn al-Mundhir, the two sons of ʿAbd Allāh ibn ʿAbd al-Ḥakam, and al-Rabīʿ. L6816 As for those who advocate raising the hands at every lowering and rising, they substantiated their position with the narration transmitted to us by Hammām ibn Aḥmad—who narrated to us from ʿAbbās ibn Aṣbagh—who narrated to us from Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd al-Malik ibn Ayman—who narrated to us from Abū Ismāʿīl Muḥammad ibn Ismāʿīl—who narrated to us from Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd al-Aʿlā al-Ṣanʿānī—who narrated to us from al-

L6817 Abd al-Rahman ibn Abd Allah ibn Khalid reported to us: Ibrahim ibn Ahmad reported to us: al-Farbari reported to us: al-Bukhari reported to us: Ayyash reported to us, saying: Abd al-A'la reported to us: Ubaid Allah ibn Umar reported to us from Nafi' from Ibn Umar: "When he entered into prayer, he would pronounce the Takbīr and raise his hands. When he said: 'Sami'a Allāhu liman ḥamidah,' he would raise his hands. And when he stood up after the two Rak'ahs, he would raise his hands." Ibn Umar traced this practice back to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him).

L6818 And Ḥammād ibn Salamah also narrated it from Ayyūb as-Sikhtiyānī, from Nāfi', from Ibn 'Umar, from the Prophet—peace be upon him—.

Among them was Abu Qatadah, the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—being mentioned therein.

L6823 Abu Humaid said: "I am the most knowledgeable among you regarding the prayer of Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him)." They asked: "Why? By Allah, you were neither the one with the longest companionship among us nor the earliest in accompanying him." He replied: "Indeed." They said: "Then describe it." He said: "When Allah's Messenger (PBUH) stood for prayer, he would raise his hands until aligning them with his shoulders, then proclaim 'Allahu Akbar' until every bone settled into place and his posture became balanced. Then he would recite [the Quran], then proclaim 'Allahu Akbar' while raising his hands to shoulder level. He would bow, placing his palms on his knees while keeping his back straight - neither drooping his head nor raising it. Then he would lift his head saying: 'Allah hears whoever praises Him,' while raising his hands to shoulder level."

فَقَالَ أَبُو حُمَيْدٍ: «أَنَا أَعْلَمُكُمْ بِصَلَاةِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالُوا: فَلِمَ؟ فَوَاللَّهِ مَا كُنْتَ بِأَكْثَرِنَا تَبِعَةً وَلَا أَقْدَمِنَا لَهُ صُحْبَةً قَالَ: بَلَى قَالُوا: فَاعْرِضْ؟ فَقَالَ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إِذَا قَامَ إِلَى الصَّلَاةِ يَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ حَتَّى يُحَاذِيَ بِهِمَا مَنْكِبَيْهِ، ثُمَّ يُكَبِّرُ حَتَّى يَقِرَّ كُلُّ عَظْمٍ فِي مَوْضِعِهِ مُعْتَدِلًا ثُمَّ يَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يُكَبِّرُ فَيَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ حَتَّى يُحَاذِيَ بِهِمَا مَنْكِبَيْهِ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ وَيَضَعُ رَاحَتَيْهِ عَلَى رُكْبَتَيْهِ ثُمَّ يَعْتَدِلُ، فَلَا يَصُبُّ رَأْسَهُ وَلَا يُقْنِعُ ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ رَأْسَهُ فَيَقُولُ: سَمِعَ اللَّهُ لِمَنْ حَمِدَهُ، ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ حَتَّى يُحَاذِيَ مَنْكِبَيْهِ»

L6824 He mentioned the ḥadīth containing: "Then when he rises from the two rakʿahs, he pronounces the takbīr and raises his hands until they align with his shoulders, just as he pronounced the takbīr at the commencement of prayer. He does this in the rest of his prayer" - and he related the remainder of the ḥadīth - "They said: 'You have spoken truthfully. This was how he used to pray.'"

وَذَكَرَ الْحَدِيثَ وَفِيهِ «ثُمَّ إِذَا قَامَ مِنَ الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ كَبَّرَ وَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ حَتَّى يُحَاذِيَ بِهِمَا مَنْكِبَيْهِ كَمَا كَبَّرَ عِنْدَ افْتِتَاحِ الصَّلَاةِ، ثُمَّ يَصْنَعُ ذَلِكَ فِي بَقِيَّةِ صَلَاتِهِ - وَذَكَرَ بَاقِيَ الْحَدِيثِ - قَالُوا: صَدَقْتَ هَكَذَا كَانَ يُصَلِّي» .

Alqamah ibn Wā'il reported from Wā'il ibn Ḥujr, who said: "I prayed with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him). When he pronounced the Takbīr, he raised his hands. Then he folded them, grasping his left hand with his right hand and positioning his hands beneath his garment. When he intended to bow, he brought his hands out and raised them. When he intended to raise his head from bowing, he raised his hands. Then he prostrated, placing his face between his palms. When he lifted his head from prostration, he likewise raised his hands, continuing this until he completed his prayer." Muḥammad ibn Juḥādah said: I mentioned this to al-Ḥasan ibn Abī al-Ḥasan, who replied: "This L6828 Narrated to us by Abdullah ibn Rabee'; narrated to us by Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah; narrated to us by Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb: I, Muhammad ibn al-Muthanna, narrated to us; narrated to us by Mu'adh ibn Hisham al-Dastuwa'ī, ʻAbd al-Aʻlā, and Muhammad ibn Abi ʻAdī; from Saʻeed ibn Abi ʻArubah; from Qatadah.

L6829 Mu'adh said, "My father reported to me, on the authority of Qatādah."

وَقَالَ مُعَاذٌ: حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي عَنْ قَتَادَةَ.

L6830–6832 Then they agreed, from Naṣr ibn ʿĀṣim from Mālik ibn al-Ḥuwayrith: "Mālik ibn al-Ḥuwayrith saw the Prophet—peace be upon him—raise both hands in his prayer when he bowed, when he raised his head from bowing, when he prostrated, and when he raised his head from prostration until both hands aligned with the lobes of his ears." This is the wording of Ibn Abī ʿAdiyy and ʿAbd al-Aʿlā. Muʿādh said in his ḥadīth: "When he—peace be upon him—entered into prayer, he would raise his hands, and when he bowed..." He did the same, and when he raised his head, he did the same.

ثُمَّ اتَّفَقُوا، عَنْ نَصْرِ بْنِ عَاصِمٍ عَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ الْحُوَيْرِثِ: «رَأَى النَّبِيَّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - رَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ فِي صَلَاتِهِ إِذَا رَكَعَ، وَإِذَا رَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ مِنْ رُكُوعِهِ وَإِذَا سَجَدَ، وَإِذَا رَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ مِنْ سُجُودِهِ حَتَّى يُحَاذِيَ بِهِمَا فُرُوعَ أُذُنَيْهِ» هَذَا لَفْظُ ابْنِ أَبِي عَدِيٍّ، وَعَبْدِ الْأَعْلَى وَقَالَ مُعَاذٌ فِي حَدِيثِهِ: «كَانَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - إِذَا دَخَلَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ رَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ، وَإِذَا رَكَعَ فَعَلَ مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ، وَإِذَا رَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ فَعَلَ مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ» .

L6833 Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad ibn al-Jasūr narrated to us: Wahb ibn Maysarah narrated to us, Muḥammad ibn Waḍḍāḥ narrated to us, Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shaybah narrated to us, ʿAbd al-Wahhāb ibn ʿAbd al-Majīd al-Thaqafī narrated to us from Ḥumayd from Anas: that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) would raise his hands during the bowing and prostration.

L6834 Ali said: These are manifest, mass-transmitted narrations from Ibn Umar, Abū Ḥumayd, Abū Qatādah, Wā'il ibn Ḥujr, Mālik ibn al-Ḥuwayrith, Anas, and others among the companions of the Messenger of Allāh—peace and blessings be upon him—and this establishes definitive knowledge.

L6835 Ali said: So what Az-Zuhri narrated on the authority of Salim on the authority of Ibn Umar was an addition to what Alqama narrated on the authority of Ibn Mas'ud. Accepting this addition became obligatory because Ibn Umar

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَكَانَ مَا رَوَاهُ الزُّهْرِيُّ عَنْ سَالِمٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ زَائِدًا عَلَى مَا رَوَاهُ عَلْقَمَةُ عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ، وَوَجَبَ أَخْذُ الزِّيَادَةِ؛ لِأَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ حَكَى: أَنَّهُ رَأَى مَا لَمْ يَرَهُ ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ مِنْ رَفْعِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَدَيْهِ عِنْدَ الرُّكُوعِ وَعِنْدَ الرَّفْعِ مِنْ الرُّكُوعِ، وَكِلَاهُمَا ثِقَةٌ، وَكِلَاهُمَا حَكَى مَا شَاهَدَ، وَقَدْ خَفِيَ عَلَى ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - أَمْرُ وَضْعِ الْيَدَيْنِ عَلَى الرُّكْبَتَيْنِ، فَكَيْفَ وَمَا تُحْمَلُ كِلَا رِوَايَتَيْهِمَا إلَّا عَلَى الْمُشَاهَدَةِ الصَّحِيحَةِ؟

L6836 The narrations of Nāfiʿ and Muḥārib ibn Dithār—both from Ibn ʿUmar—along with the narrations of Abū Ḥumayd, Abū Qatādah, and eight Companions of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) regarding raising the hands when rising for the two rakʿahs are supplementary reports to what al-Zuhrī narrated from Sālim from Ibn ʿUmar. All are trustworthy and deemed truthful in what they reported as having heard and observed. Is accepting the supplementary narration obligatory?

وَكَانَ مَا رَوَاهُ نَافِعٌ وَمُحَارِبُ بْنُ دِثَارٍ، كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، وَمَا رَوَاهُ أَبُو حُمَيْدٍ وَأَبُو قَتَادَةَ وَثَمَانِيَةٌ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِنْ رَفْعِ الْيَدَيْنِ عِنْدَ الْقِيَامِ إلَى الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ -: زِيَادَةٌ عَلَى مَا رَوَاهُ الزُّهْرِيُّ عَنْ سَالِمٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، وَكُلٌّ ثِقَةٌ، وَكُلٌّ مُصَدَّقٌ فِيمَا ذَكَرَ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَهُ وَرَآهُ - وَأَخْذُ الزِّيَادَةِ وَاجِبٌ؟ .

L6837–6839 The narration reported by Anas concerning raising the hands during prostration: this constitutes an addition to what Ibn Umar narrated. All of them are trustworthy in what they transmitted and what they personally witnessed. Likewise, the narration of Malik ibn al-Huwayrith regarding raising the hands in every instance of bowing and rising from the bowing position, and every... Prostration and raising from prostration—acts supplementary to all of that, and all narrators are trustworthy in what they narrated and heard. Adopting the additional acts is obligatory; it is impermissible to abandon them, because the additional acts are independent rulings. They were narrated by those who knew them, and the silence of those who did not report them does not harm their narration—as with all other rulings entirely, without distinction. Among those who held the view we mentioned are Ibn Umar, as we previously cited from his practice, Al-Ḥasan Al-Baṣrī, and the Companions as a whole, as we cited—Yūnus ibn ʿAbdullāh narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn ʿAbdullāh ibn ʿAbdur-Raḥīm narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn Khālid بْنُ بَشَّارٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَجِيدِ الثَّقَفِيُّ عَنْ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ إِذَا دَخَلَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ، وَإِذَا رَكَعَ، وَإِذَا قَالَ: سَمِعَ اللَّهُ لِمَنْ حَمِدَهُ، وَإِذَا سَجَدَ، وَبَيْنَ الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ، يَرْفَعُهُمَا إِلَى ثَدْيَيْهِ.

L6840 Ali said: This is a chain of transmission free from irregularities, and Ibn Umar would not have resorted to contradicting what he had narrated—regarding the omission of hand-raising during prostration—unless the Prophet's action (peace be upon him) concerning it had been authenticated for him. Muhammad ibn Saʿid ibn Nubat → Ahmad ibn ʿAbd al-Basir → Qasim ibn Asbagh → Muhammad ibn ʿAbd al-Salam al-Khushani → Muhammad ibn al-Muthanna → Abu Sahl al-Nadr ibn Kathir al-Saʿdi reported: Ibn Tawus prayed beside me at al-Khayf Mosque in Mina. When he raised his head from the first prostration, he lifted his hands toward his face. I objected to this and said to Wuhaib ibn Khalid: "This man is doing something I have never seen anyone do!" Ibn Tawus replied: "I saw my father do it, and he told me: 'I saw ʿAbdullah ibn ʿAbbas do it.'"

L6846 Issue 443: Tawjīh is a recommended sunnah. This entails the Imam or the individual praying alone (munfarid) saying after the opening takbīr for every prayer - whether obligatory or non-obligatory, aloud or silently - the following: This is transmitted by Hammām ibn Aḥmad, who narrated from ʿAbbās ibn Aṣbagh, who narrated from Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd al-Malik ibn Ayman, who narrated from ʿAbdullāh ibn Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal and Aḥmad ibn Zuhayr ibn Ḥarb. Each of them said: "My father narrated to me."

L6847 Then Ahmad ibn Hanbal said: Abu Sa'id narrated to us, Abdul Aziz ibn Abdullah ibn al-Majishun narrated to us, Abdullah ibn al-Fadl and Abu Yusuf ibn Abi Salamah al-Majishun—both of them—narrated from Abdul Rahman ibn Hurmuz al-A'raj, from Ubaydullah ibn Abi Rafi', from Ali ibn Abi Talib, that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—would commence with the Takbir and then say:[54]

L6848–6850 Zuhayr ibn Harb said: Abd al-Rahman ibn Mahdi narrated to us—Abd al-Aziz ibn Abdullah ibn Abi Salama, who is Ibn al-Majishun—narrated to us. My uncle—Abu Yusuf ibn Abi Salama—narrated to me from Abd al-Rahman al-A'raj from Ubayd Allah ibn Abi Rafi' from Ali ibn Abi Talib: "When the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) uttered the Takbir to commence the prayer, he would say: 'I have directed my face Indeed, my prayer, my sacrifice, my living, and my dying are for Allah, Lord of the worlds—He has no partner. I have been commanded thus, and I am the foremost of the Muslims. O Allah, You are the Sovereign; there is no deity except You. You are my Lord, and I am Your servant. I have wronged myself and acknowledged my sin. Forgive all my sins entirely.'" Ahmad and Zuhayr concurred in both their narrations. Indeed, none forgives sins except You. Guide me to the finest morals, for none guides to their finest except You. Shield me from their evil, for none shields me from their evil except You. Here I am at Your service, responding joyfully to Your call. All good lies in Your hands, and evil is not attributed to You. I am with You and turn to You. Blessed are You and Exalted. I seek Your forgiveness and repent to You.[55][56]

L6851 Ali said: And it has been narrated to us through the chain of Al-Hajjaj ibn Al-Minhāl, Abū Al-Naḍr, and Muʿādh ibn Muʿādh, all of them from Ibn Al-Mājishūn.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَقَدْ رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ الْحَجَّاجِ بْنِ الْمِنْهَالِ، وَأَبِي النَّضْرِ، وَمُعَاذِ بْنِ مُعَاذٍ، كُلُّهُمْ عَنْ ابْنِ الْمَاجِشُونِ.

L6852 It has also been narrated to us through the chain of Jābir ibn ʿAbdullāh and other Companions (may Allah be pleased with them).

L6853 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us, Abd al-Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us. Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to me: Zuhayr ibn Harb narrated to me, Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah narrated to me, Muhammad ibn Abdullah ibn Numayr narrated to me, and Abu Kamil narrated to me. Abu Kamil said: Abd al-Wahid ibn Ziyad narrated to us. Abu Bakr and Ibn Numayr said: Ibn Fudayl narrated to us. Zuhayr said: Jarir ibn Abd al-Hamid narrated to us.

L6854 Then Abd al-Wahid, Ibn Fuḍayl, and Jarir—the wording being his—all narrated through Ammarah ibn al-Qaʿqaʿ from Abu Zurʿah ibn Amr ibn Jarir from Abu Hurairah: "When the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) would say the takbīr in prayer, he would pause briefly before reciting. I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, by my father and mother, tell me what you say during your pause between the takbīr and the recitation?' He replied: 'I say: O Allah, separate me from my sins as You have separated the east from the west. O Allah, purify me from my sins as a white garment is purified from stains. O Allah, wash away my sins with snow, water, and hail.'"[57]

L6855 We have also narrated it through Sufyān's route from ʿUmārah ibn al-Qaʿqāʿ with a similar isnād.

L6856 We mention this as an obligation because it is an action performed by him—peace be upon him—and he was not commanded to do it. Thus, following his example is recommended.

L6857–6858 It is recommended for the Imam to pause briefly after completing the recitation before the rukūʿ (bowing).

L6859 As narrated to us by Hamam, narrated from Abbas ibn Asbagh, narrated from Muhammad ibn Abd al-Malik ibn Ayman, narrated from Ahmad ibn Muhammad al-Birṭī the judge, narrated from Abu Ma'mar, narrated from Abd al-Warith ibn Said al-Tannuri, narrated from Yunus - that is, Ibn Ubayd - from al-Hasan al-Basri: "Samurah ibn Jundub prayed, pronounced the takbir, then paused for a period. Then he recited, and when he concluded the surah, he paused again for a period. Then he pronounced the takbir and bowed. Imran ibn al-Husayn said to him: 'What is this?' Samurah replied: 'I memorized this from the Messenger of Allah - peace be upon him.' Samurah wrote to Ubayy ibn Ka'b regarding that matter, and he confirmed Samurah's account."

L6860 Ali said: "We hold that every imam should perform prayer as Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—did, and as Samurah and other Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—did after him. The congregant recites Umm al-Qur'an during the first silence, so whoever misses it should recite during the second silence?" Ali said: "The majority of the Salaf have practiced as we said—: it has been narrated to us through Hammad ibn Salamah's chain from Ibrahim al-Nakha'i from Alqamah, who said: 'When وَأُمِّي، أَرَأَيْتَ سُكُوتَكَ بَيْنَ التَّكْبِيرِ وَالْقِرَاءَةِ مَا تَقُولُ؟ قَالَ: أَقُولُ: اللَّهُمَّ بَاعِدْ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَ خَطَايَايَ كَمَا بَاعَدْتَ بَيْنَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ، اللَّهُمَّ نَقِّنِي مِنْ خَطَايَايَ كَمَا يُنَقَّى الثَّوْبُ الْأَبْيَضُ مِنَ الدَّنَسِ، اللَّهُمَّ اغْسِلْنِي مِنْ خَطَايَايَ بِالثَّلْجِ وَالْمَاءِ وَالْبَرَدِ» .

Blessed is Your name, exalted is Your majesty, and there is no deity except You,' raising his voice during it—so we assumed he intended to teach us?"' From Abd al-Razzaq's narration via Sufyan al-Thawri from Mansur ibn al-Mu'tamir from Ibrahim al-Nakha'i from al-Aswad from Umar ibn al-Khattab: "He would declare when pronouncing the takbir: 'Glory be to You, O Allah, and praise be to You. Blessed is Your name, exalted is Your majesty, and there is no deity except You.'"

كَانَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ إِذَا دَخَلَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ قَالَ: اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ تَبَارَكَ اسْمُكَ وَتَعَالَى جَدُّكَ، وَلَا إِلَهَ غَيْرُكَ، يَرْفَعُ بِهَا صَوْتَهُ، فَظَنَنَّا أَنَّهُ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يُعَلِّمَنَا؟ وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ مَنْصُورِ بْنِ الْمُعْتَمِرِ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ عَنْ الْأَسْوَدِ عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ إِذَا كَبَّرَ قَالَ: سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ، تَبَارَكَ اسْمُكَ، وَتَعَالَى جَدُّكَ، وَلَا إِلَهَ غَيْرُكَ

L6861 This is the action of Umar—may Allah be pleased with him—in the presence of the Companions, with none among them opposing him? We have also narrated it from Ali ibn Abi Talib, from Ibn Umar, from Tawus and Ata—each of them would direct themselves after the Takbir in the obligatory prayer.

فَهَذَا فِعْلُ عُمَرَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - بِحَضْرَةِ الصَّحَابَةِ لَا مُخَالِفَ لَهُ مِنْهُمْ؟ وَرُوِّينَاهُ أَيْضًا - عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ، وَعَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، وَعَنْ طَاوُسٍ وَعَطَاءٍ، كُلُّهُمْ يَتَوَجَّهُ بَعْدَ التَّكْبِيرِ فِي صَلَاةِ الْفَرْضِ.

L6862–6864 This is the position of Al-Awza'i, Sufyan Al-Thawri, Abu Hanifah, Al-Shafi'i, Ahmad, Ishaq, Dawud, and their companions. Malik said: "I do not recognize the justification." Ali said: "Can someone ignorant be a proof against one who knows?" Some of his followers argued against what we mentioned by citing what was narrated from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—that he... He would begin the prayer with the Takbir (saying "Allahu Akbar") and begin the recitation with "Praise be to Allah, Lord of the worlds [Al-Fatihah: 2]."[58] وَهُوَ قَوْلُ الْأَوْزَاعِيِّ، وَسُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ، وَأَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، وَالشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَحْمَدَ، وَإِسْحَاقَ، وَدَاوُد وَأَصْحَابِهِمْ؟ وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: لَا أَعْرِفُ التَّوْجِيهَ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: لَيْسَ مَنْ لَا يَعْرِفُ حُجَّةً عَلَى مَنْ عَرَفَ؟ وَقَدْ احْتَجَّ بَعْضُ مُقَلِّدِيهِ فِي مُعَارَضَتِهِ مَا ذَكَرْنَا بِمَا «رُوِيَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِنْ أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَفْتَتِحُ الصَّلَاةَ بِالتَّكْبِيرِ، وَالْقِرَاءَةَ بِ {الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ} [الفاتحة: ٢] » .

L6865 Ali said: "This provides no proof for them; rather, it is our position, because commencing the recitation with 'Al-ḥamdu lillāhi rabbi l-ʿālamīn' does not incorporate setting the intention (tawjīh), for setting the intention is not recitation - it is merely remembrance."

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا لَا حُجَّةَ لَهُمْ فِيهِ، بَلْ هُوَ قَوْلُنَا، لِأَنَّ اسْتِفْتَاحَ الْقِرَاءَةِ بِ " الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ": لَا يَدْخُلُ فِيهِ التَّوْجِيهُ، لِأَنَّهُ لَيْسَ التَّوْجِيهُ قِرَاءَةً، وَإِنَّمَا هُوَ ذِكْرٌ.

L6866 It has been authentically established that he—peace be upon him—would commence the prayer with the proclamation "Allāhu Akbar," then recite the remembrances verified from him, then begin recitation with "Al-ḥamdu lillāhi Rabbi l-ʿālamīn." It is impermissible to reject additions by upright narrators—and success is with Allah, the Exalted—nor does the congregant recite them, as they contain something from the Qur'an. The Prophet—peace be upon him—forbade reciting anything behind the Imam except "the Opening Chapter (Umm al-Qur'an)" alone. If one supplicates after reciting "the Opening Chapter" during the Imam's pause, using words narrated from the Prophet—peace be upon him—is that good?

فَصَحَّ أَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - كَانَ يَفْتَتِحُ الصَّلَاةَ بِالتَّكْبِيرِ، ثُمَّ يَذْكُرُ مَا قَدْ صَحَّ عَنْهُ مِنْ الذِّكْرِ، ثُمَّ يَفْتَتِحُ الْقِرَاءَةَ بِالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ، وَزِيَادَةُ الْعُدُولِ لَا يَجُوزُ رَدُّهَا - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ وَلَا يَقُولُهَا الْمَأْمُومُ، لِأَنَّ فِيهَا شَيْئًا مِنْ الْقُرْآنِ، وَقَدْ نَهَى - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ

L6867 It is a juristic ruling incumbent upon the Imam to shorten the prayer when leading a congregation.

L6868–6870 Issue 444: It is obligatory for the Imam to shorten the prayer when leading a congregation whose capabilities he is unaware of, while an individual praying alone may prolong it as he wishes. The limit for prolonging is as long as the time of the current prayer has not ended (i.e., before the subsequent prayer's time begins). Is it permissible for an individual to shorten his prayer? Abd al-Rahman ibn Abd Allah ibn Khalid narrated to us, Ibrahim ibn Ahmad al-Balkhi narrated to us, al-Farbari narrated to us, al-Bukhari narrated to us, Abd Allah ibn Yusuf narrated to us, Malik narrated from Abu al-Zinad from al-A'raj from Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "When one of you leads the people in prayer, let him shorten it, for among them are the weak, the sick, and the elderly. When one of you prays alone, let him prolong it as he wishes." And through the same chain of narration to al-Bukhari: Ahmad ibn Yunus narrated to us, Zuhayr—who is Ibn Mu'awiyah—narrated to us, Isma'il—who is Ibn Abi Khalid—narrated to us, I heard Qays—who is Ibn Abi Hazim—say: Abu Mas'ud informed me that a man... He said: "By Allah, O Messenger of Allah, I indeed delay attending the Fajr prayer because of so-and-so, due to how long he prolongs it with us." I never saw the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—angrier in any admonition than he was that day. Then he—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "Among you are those who repel people. Whoever leads people in prayer should be brief, for among them are the weak, the elderly, and those with needs."[59]

to us, Ibn al-A'rabi narrated to us, Abu Dawud narrated to us, Musa ibn Isma'il narrated to us, Hammad ibn Salamah narrated to us, who reported from Sa'id al-Jurayri from Abu al-'Ala' from Mutarrif ibn Abdullah—who was the son of al-Shikhkhir—from Uthman ibn Abi al-As, who said: I asked, "O Messenger of Allah, appoint me as the imam of my people." He replied, "You are their imam. Follow the example of the weakest among them, and appoint a mu'adhdhin who does not take payment for his call to prayer."

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ إِسْحَاقَ الْقَاضِي ثنا ابْنُ الْأَعْرَابِيِّ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ ثنا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ أَنَا سَعِيدٌ الْجُرَيْرِيُّ عَنْ أَبِي الْعَلَاءِ عَنْ مُطَرِّفِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ هُوَ ابْنُ الشِّخِّيرِ - «عَنْ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ أَبِي الْعَاصِ قَالَ: قُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ اجْعَلْنِي إِمَامَ قَوْمِي، قَالَ: أَنْتَ إِمَامُهُمْ، وَاقْتَدِ بِأَضْعَفِهِمْ، وَاتَّخِذْ مُؤَذِّنًا لَا يَأْخُذُ عَلَى أَذَانِهِ أَجْرًا» .

L6872 Ali said: This is the limit of lightening the prayer - that one should consider what the weakest person behind him can endure and those most in need concerning standing, bowing, prostration, and sitting, so let him pray accordingly. It was narrated to us from the righteous predecessors: It was narrated to us from Hammad ibn Salama, from Thabit al-Bunani and Humayd - both of whom narrated from Anas, who said: "I never prayed behind anyone whose prayer was more concise yet complete than the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). His prayer was balanced, Abu Bakr's prayer was balanced, but when it was Umar, he extended the Fajr prayer."

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: هَذَا حَدُّ التَّخْفِيفِ، وَهُوَ أَنْ يَنْظُرَ مَا يَحْتَمِلُ أَضْعَفُ مَنْ خَلْفَهُ وَأَمَسُّهُمْ حَاجَةً مِنَ الْوُقُوفِ وَالرُّكُوعِ وَالسُّجُودِ وَالْجُلُوسِ فَلْيُصَلِّ عَلَى حَسَبِ ذَلِكَ؟ وَرُوِّينَا ذَلِكَ عَنِ السَّلَفِ الطَّيِّبِ -: رُوِّينَا عَنْ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ ثَابِتٍ الْبُنَانِيِّ وَحُمَيْدٍ كِلَاهُمَا «عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ: مَا صَلَّيْتُ خَلْفَ أَحَدٍ أَوْجَزَ صَلَاةً مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي تَمَامٍ، كَانَتْ صَلَاتُهُ مُتَقَارِبَةً، وَصَلَاةُ أَبِي بَكْرٍ مُتَقَارِبَةً، فَلَمَّا كَانَ عُمَرُ مَدَّ فِي صَلَاةِ الْفَجْرِ» .

L6873 Through the chain of Waki' from Sa'id ibn Abi 'Arubah from Abu Raja' al-'Utaridi, who said: I said to al-Zubayr ibn al-'Awwam, "Why are you, the companions of Muḥammad—may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him—the lightest of people in prayer?" He replied, "We hasten to preempt the Satanic whispers."

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي عَرُوبَةَ عَنْ أَبِي رَجَاءٍ الْعُطَارِدِيِّ قَالَ: قُلْت لِلزُّبَيْرِ بْنِ الْعَوَّامِ: مَا لَكُمْ أَصْحَابَ مُحَمَّدٍ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِنْ أَخَفِّ النَّاسِ صَلَاةً؟ قَالَ: نُبَادِرُ الْوَسْوَاسَ

L6874 From 'Abdur-Razzāq, from Ibn Jurayj, from 'Aṭā' that he heard Abū Hurayrah say: "If you lead as an Imam, shorten the prayer, for among the people are the elderly, the weak, the sick, and someone with an urgent need. When you pray alone, prolong it as you please."

وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنِ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ يَقُولُ: إذَا كُنْت إمَامًا فَخَفِّفْ الصَّلَاةَ، فَإِنَّ فِي النَّاسِ الْكَبِيرَ وَالضَّعِيفَ وَالْمُعْتَلَّ وَذَا الْحَاجَةِ، وَإِذَا صَلَّيْت وَحْدَك فَطَوِّلْ مَا بَدَا لَك.

L6875–6876 Delay until it cools, for intense heat is from the blast of Hellfire. From Ṭalḥah: the lightening (of prayers) is also reported? And from ʿAmmār likewise? From Saʿd ibn Abī Waqqāṣ: He would lengthen prayer in his home but shorten it publicly, and he urged others to do so.

وَأَبْرِدْ، فَإِنَّ شِدَّةَ الْحَرِّ مِنْ فَيْحِ جَهَنَّمَ؟ وَعَنْ طَلْحَةَ التَّخْفِيفُ أَيْضًا، وَعَنْ عَمَّارٍ كَذَلِكَ؟ وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يُطِيلُ الصَّلَاةَ فِي بَيْتِهِ، وَيُقَصِّرُ عِنْدَ النَّاسِ، وَيَحُضُّ عَلَى ذَلِكَ

L6877 On the authority of ʿUmar ibn Maymūn al-Awdī: If a man were to take a barren old ewe, he would not finish milking it until I pray the five prayers, and I complete their bowings and prostrations.

وَعَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ مَيْمُونٍ الْأَوْدِيِّ: لَوْ أَنَّ رَجُلًا أَخَذَ شَاةً عَزُوزًا لَمْ يَفْرُغْ مِنْ لَبَنِهَا حَتَّى أُصَلِّيَ الصَّلَوَاتِ الْخَمْسَ، أُتِمُّ رُكُوعَهَا وَسُجُودَهَا

L6878 Narrated from Alqamah: If one were commanded to slaughter a sheep and began skinning it, I would pray all five prayers in their entirety before he finishes skinning it.

L6879 As for the limit we mentioned concerning prolongation, it is: We have stated in the section on prayer timings that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—performed the Dhuhr prayer at the time he had prayed Asr the day before, and he—peace be upon him—said: "The time for Fajr lasts until the sun rises. The time for Asr lasts until the sun sets. The time for Maghrib lasts until the redness of twilight vanishes. The time for the latter Isha lasts until midnight." It is therefore certain that whoever begins a prayer at the very end of its time only completes the remainder of it during the subsequent prayer's time—a time which has no valid basis whatsoever for delaying the start of prayer into it.

وَأَمَّا الْحَدُّ الَّذِي ذَكَرْنَا فِي التَّطْوِيلِ فَهُوَ: أَنَّا قَدْ ذَكَرْنَا فِي أَوْقَاتِ الصَّلَوَاتِ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - صَلَّى الظُّهْرَ فِي الْوَقْتِ الَّذِي صَلَّى فِيهِ الْعَصْرَ بِالْأَمْسِ، وَقَالَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «وَقْتُ الصُّبْحِ مَا لَمْ تَطْلُعْ الشَّمْسُ. وَوَقْتُ الْعَصْرِ مَا لَمْ تَغْرُبْ الشَّمْسُ. وَوَقْتُ الْمَغْرِبِ مَا لَمْ يَسْقُطْ نُورُ الشَّفَقِ. وَوَقْتُ الْعِشَاءِ الْآخِرَةِ إلَى نِصْفِ اللَّيْلِ.» فَصَحَّ يَقِينًا أَنَّ مَنْ دَخَلَ فِي صَلَاةٍ فِي آخِرِ وَقْتِهَا فَإِنَّمَا يُصَلِّي بَاقِيَهَا فِي وَقْتِ الْأُخْرَى، وَفِي وَقْتٍ لَيْسَ لَهُ تَأْخِيرُ ابْتِدَاءِ الصَّلَاةِ إلَيْهِ أَصْلًا.

L6880 It is authentically reported from the Prophet (peace be upon him) that "culpable negligence is when one delays a prayer until the time of the next prayer begins."

وَقَدْ صَحَّ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: أَنَّ «التَّفْرِيطَ أَنْ تُؤَخِّرَ صَلَاةً حَتَّى يَدْخُلَ وَقْتُ أُخْرَى» .

L6881 Thus, it is established that when one enters prayer within its prescribed time, one may prolong it as one wishes, as commanded by the Prophet (peace be upon him), except for prolongation prohibited by the textual evidence. The sole restriction is prolonging it until one misses the subsequent prayer. And success is from Allah, the Exalted?

فَصَحَّ أَنَّ لَهُ إذَا دَخَلَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ فِي وَقْتِهَا أَنَّ لَهُ أَنْ يُطَوِّلَ مَا شَاءَ، كَمَا أَمَرَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -، إلَّا تَطْوِيلًا مَنَعَ مِنْهُ النَّصُّ، وَلَيْسَ إلَّا أَنْ يُطِيلَ حَتَّى تَفُوتَهُ الصَّلَاةُ التَّالِيَةُ لَهَا فَقَطْ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ؟ .

L6882 A legal issue: It is obligatory in every rakʿah to recite Al-Fatihah (the Mother of the Quran).

L6883–6885 Issue 445: We have stated that the obligation in every rakʿah is to recite only the Mother of the Quran. If one adds Quranic recitation beyond that—whether little or much—it is recommended, regardless of which obligatory prayer it is. Nor do we exclude anything, even acts not classified as obligatory (farḍ); we omit nothing.

L6886 However, we recommend that in the dawn prayer one recites, alongside the Mother of the Quran (Umm al-Quran), in each rak'ah, from sixty to one hundred verses of any surah one wishes.

L6887 In the Dhuhr prayer, during the first two rak'ahs, "Umm al-Qur'an" is recited in each rak'ah alongside approximately thirty verses in this manner, and in the last two rak'ahs of it, "Umm al-Qur'an" is recited in each rak'ah alongside approximately fifteen verses.

L6888 In the first two [rakʿahs] of Asr, like the last two of Dhuhr, and in the last two [rakʿahs] of Asr, only Umm al-Qur'an is recited.

L6889 In Maghrib, similar to 'Asr, even if one recites Al-Aʿraf, Al-Ma'idah, At-Tur, or Al-Mursalat during Maghrib, it is acceptable.

L6890 During the Isha prayer, in the first two rak'ahs with Al-Fatihah, recite Surah At-Tin, Surah Ash-Shams, and similar surahs.

L6891 And on the morning of Friday, "Alif-Lam-Mim, the Revelation of the Prostration (As-Sajdah)."

L6892 And "Has there not come upon man" alongside Umm al-Quran, the Opening.[60]

[60] Qur'an references (L6892): Qur'an 76:1 (Al-Insan).

وَفِي صَلَاةِ الْجُمُعَةِ فِي الرَّكْعَةِ الْأُولَى مَعَ أُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ (سُورَةَ الْجُمُعَةِ) وَفِي الثَّانِيَةِ مَعَ أُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ مَرَّةً (سُورَةَ الْمُنَافِقِينَ) وَمَرَّةً (سُورَةَ الْغَاشِيَةِ) .

L6893 In the Friday prayer, during the first rak'ah, along with Umm al-Qur'an (Surah Al-Fatihah), Surah al-Jumu'ah is recited. In the second rak'ah, along with Umm al-Qur'an, either Surah al-Munafiqun or Surah al-Ghashiyah is recited.

وَلَوْ قَرَأَ فِي كُلِّ ذَلِكَ: سُورَتَيْنِ أَوْ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ رَكْعَةٍ فَحَسَنٌ.

L6894 If one recites two surahs or more in a single rak'ah in all such cases, it is recommended.

وَلَوْ قَدَّمَ السُّورَةَ قَبْلَ " أُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ " كَرِهْنَا ذَلِكَ وَأَجْزَأَهُ.

L6895 Even if he were to precede a surah before "Umm al-Qur'ān," we would disapprove of that, but it suffices him.

وَمَنْ أَرَادَ مِنْ الْأَئِمَّةِ تَطْوِيلَ صَلَاةٍ ثُمَّ أَحَسَّ بِعُذْرٍ مِمَّنْ خَلْفَهُ فَلْيُوجِزْ فِي مَدِّهَا -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ خَالِدٍ ثنا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفِرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا آدَم - ثنا شُعْبَةُ ثنا سَيَّارُ بْنُ سَلَامَةَ هُوَ أَبُو الْمِنْهَالِ - قَالَ: دَخَلْت عَلَى أَبِي بَرْزَةَ فَسَأَلْنَاهُ فَأَخْبَرَنَا «عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يُصَلِّي الصُّبْحَ فَيَنْصَرِفُ الرَّجُلُ فَيَعْرِفُ جَلِيسَهُ، وَكَانَ يَقْرَأُ فِي الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ أَوْ إحْدَاهُمَا مَا بَيْنَ السِّتِّينَ إلَى الْمِائَةِ» .

L6896–6898 And whoever among the imams intends to prolong the prayer then senses an excuse from those behind him, let him shorten it. From Abd al-Rahman ibn Abd Allah ibn Khalid, from Ibrahim ibn Ahmad, from al-Firabri, from al-Bukhari, from Adam, from Shu'bah, from Sayyar ibn Salamah - known as Abu al-Minhal - who said: I visited Abu Barzah and questioned him, whereupon he informed us from the Prophet - peace be upon him - that he would pray the dawn prayer in such a way that a departing man could recognize those around him. While with his companion, he would recite in both rak'ahs or one of the two between sixty and a hundred."

We estimated his standing in the last two to be half of that. We estimated his standing in the first two rakʿahs of ʿAṣr to be upon the measure of his standing in the last two of Dhuhr, and in the last two of ʿAṣr to be half of that."

L6900 Abdullah ibn Rabi' narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb narrated to us: Harun ibn Abdullah al-Hammal informed me: Ibn Abi Fudayk narrated from al-Dahhak ibn Uthman from

Bukayr ibn Abdullah—who is Ibn al-Ashajj—from Sulayman ibn Yasar from Abu Hurayrah, who said: "I have not prayed behind anyone whose prayer more closely resembled that of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—than so-and-so." Sulayman added: "He would prolong the first two units of Dhuhr, shorten the last two, shorten Asr, recite short chapters from the Mufassal in Maghrib, recite middle-length chapters from the Mufassal in Isha, and recite long chapters from the Mufassal in Fajr."

Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah ibn Khalid narrated to us: Ibrahim ibn Ahmad narrated to us: al-Farbari narrated to us: al-Bukhari narrated to us: Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Malik narrated from Ibn Shihab from Ubaydullah ibn Abdullah ibn Utbah ibn Mas'ud from Ibn Abbas, who said: "Umm al-Fadl heard him reciting 'By those sent forth in succession,' and she said: 'My son, by Allah, your recitation of this surah reminded me that it was the last thing I heard the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—recite it in Maghrib.'"[61]

L6901–6903 Narrated to us by Abdullah ibn Yusuf; informed by Ahmad ibn Fath; informed by Abd al-Wahhab ibn Isa; informed by Ahmad ibn Muhammad. Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us, Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us, Amr an-Naqid narrated to us, Yaqub ibn Ibrahim ibn Sa'd narrated to us, Yaqub's father, Ibrahim ibn Sa'd, narrated to us from Salih from al-Zuhri from Ubayd Allah ibn Utbah from Ibn Abbas, and he mentioned this Hadith: "And that Umm al-Fadl said, 'Then he did not pray afterward until Allah, the Mighty and Majestic, took him.'"

L6904 So this was the last Maghrib prayer he prayed—peace be upon him—and his final deed—peace be upon him.

L6905 So where are those who claim to follow his practice and his final practice?

وَعَنْ أَبِي وَائِلٍ: أَنَّهُ قَرَأَ فِي إحْدَى رَكْعَتَيْ الصُّبْحِ " أُمَّ الْقُرْآنِ " وَآيَةً.

L6925 And from Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī, is there a similar narration to this? Through the route of Mālik from Nāfiʿ: that Ibn ʿUmar would sometimes recite two or three sūrahs in a single rakʿah of the prescribed prayer.

وَعَنْ إبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ نَحْوُ هَذَا؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ مَالِكٍ عَنْ نَافِعٍ: أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ أَحْيَانًا يَقْرَأُ بِالسُّورَتَيْنِ وَالثَّلَاثِ فِي الرَّكْعَةِ الْوَاحِدَةِ فِي صَلَاةِ الْفَرِيضَةِ.

L6926 From Wakiʿ from Sufyan al-Thawri from Abu Ishaq al-Sabiʿi from ʿAmr ibn Maymun, who said: “Umar ibn al-Khattab led us in the Maghrib prayer. In the second rakʿah, he recited ʾHave you not seen how...ʾ (Sūrat al-Fīl) and ʾFor the pact of Quraysh...ʾ (Sūrat Quraysh), reciting them together in the same rakʿah.”

وَعَنْ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي إسْحَاقَ السَّبِيعِيِّ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ مَيْمُونٍ قَالَ: صَلَّى بِنَا عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ صَلَاةَ الْمَغْرِبِ، فَقَرَأَ فِي الرَّكْعَةِ الثَّانِيَةِ " أَلَمْ تَرَ كَيْفَ " " وَلِإِيلَافِ قُرَيْشٍ " جَمَعَهُمَا.

L6927 And is the like of this narrated from Tawus, al-Rabiʿ ibn Khuthaym, Saʿīd ibn Jubayr, Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī, and others?

وَمِثْلُ هَذَا عَنْ طَاوُسٍ، وَالرَّبِيعِ بْنِ خُثَيْمٍ وَسَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ، وَغَيْرِهِمْ؟

L6928–6929 And ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated to us from Muḥammad ibn Bashshār and ʿAmr ibn ʿAlī.

وَحَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثِنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثِنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ، وَعَمْرُو بْنُ عَلِيٍّ.

L6931 It has also been authentically established—through the chain of Ibn Abbas (this being the preferred view of Al-Shāfiʿī, Abū Sulaymān, and the Ahl al-Ḥadīth)—and through another chain via Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj → ʿAmr al-Nāqid → Ismāʿīl ibn Ibrāhīm (Ibn ʿUlayyah) → Ibn Jurayj → ʿAṭāʾ, who said: Abū Hurayrah stated, “Recitation is done in every prayer.” A man asked him, “What if I recite nothing beyond Umm al-Qur’ān?” He replied, “If you add to it, that is better, but if you limit yourself to it, it suffices for you.”

L6932–6934 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us, Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us, Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us, Abdullah ibn Maslamah ibn Qaʿnab narrated to us, Sulayman - who is Ibn Bilal - narrated from Jaʿfar ibn Muhammad, from his father, from Ibn Abi Rafiʿ, who said: “Abu Hurairah led us in the Friday prayer and recited in the last rakʿah after Surah al-Jumuʿah: ’When the Hypocrites Come’ (Surah al-Munafiqun).” Ibn Abi Rafiʿ said: “I approached Abu Hurairah after he concluded the prayer and said to him: ’You recited with two surahs that Ali ibn Abi Talib used to recite with in Kufah.’ Abu Hurairah replied: ’I heard...’” The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) would recite them both on the day of Jumu’ah.

L6935 And through him to Muslim: Amr an-Naqid narrated to us, Sufyan ibn Uyaynah narrated to us from Damrah ibn Saʿid from Ubaydullah ibn Abdullah, who said: “Ad-Dahhak ibn Qays wrote to an-Nuʿman ibn Bashir asking:

’What [surah] did the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) recite on Friday besides Surah al-Jumuʿah?’ He said: ’He used to recite: ”Has there come to you the report of the Overwhelming Event¿“”

L6936 Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us; Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah narrated to us; Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated to us; Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd al-Aʿlā narrated to us; Khālid—that is, Ibn al-Ḥārith—narrated to us from Shuʿbah, who reported from Maʿbad ibn Khālid; from Zayd—that is, Ibn ʿUqbah—; from Samurah ibn Jundub, who said: “The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—used to recite in the Friday prayer: ’Glorify the name of your Lord, the Most High’ and ’Has there come to you the report of the Overwhelming?”’[65]

L6937 Abu Hanifah said: “Is it disliked for the imam to adhere to reciting a specific surah or specific surahs in Friday prayer or other prayers?” Ali said: “[He] disliked a Sunnah practice and opposed the action of Allah’s Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him. Similarly, would one who dislikes anything confirmed to have been practiced by him—peace be upon him—[not do likewise]? As for reciting a surah before the Mother of the Quran, no directive opposing this has been transmitted. However, the practice of Muslims and the practice of Allah’s Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—was to prioritize the Mother of the Quran. Therefore, we deemed it disliked to contravene this, though we did not invalidate the prayer for it, since no prohibition concerning this has been transmitted from him.”

L6938 And the Almighty has said: “So recite whatever is easy from the Quran” [Al-Muzzammil 73:20].[66]

L6939 It is astonishing how one condemns such a practice yet permits reversing the sequence of ablution, the direction of circumambulation, and the sequence of the adhān.

L6940–6942 As for the one who began the prayer intending to prolong it but sensed a valid excuse from some of those behind him—verily, ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh narrated to us, saying: Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad narrated to us, al-

The Issue of Audible Recitation in Prayer

446 - Question:

It is recommended to recite aloud in the two rak'ahs of Fajr, the first two rak'ahs of Maghrib, the first two rak'ahs of ʿAtamah (Isha), and the two rak'ahs of Jumuʿah. Quiet recitation applies to all rak'ahs of Dhuhr, all rak'ahs of ʿAṣr, the third rak'ah of Maghrib, and the last two rak'ahs of ʿAtamah. If one acts contrary to this, we dislike it—yet is his prayer still valid?

As for the ma'mum, it is obligatory upon him to recite the "Mother of the Quran" silently in every prayer without exception. If he were to recite it aloud, his prayer would be invalid. The proof for this is that loud recitation in the aforementioned cases where audible recitation is required, and silent recitation in the cases where silent recitation is required, are merely the practices of Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—not his commands. His actions—peace be upon him—are for emulation, not obligation, while he—peace be upon him—was acting as the imam. The ruling for one praying alone is the same as the ruling for the imam: It was narrated to us by Abdullah ibn Yusuf from Ahmad ibn Fath from Abd al-Wahhab ibn Isa from Ahmad ibn Ali from Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj from Muhammad ibn al-Muthanna from Muhammad ibn Abi Adiy from al-Hajjaj al-Sawwaf from Yahya ibn Abi Kathir from Abdullah ibn Abi Qatadah and Abu Salamah ibn Abd al-Rahman ibn Awf—both from Abu Qatadah—who said: "Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—would lead us in prayer, reciting the Opening of the Book and two surahs after it during the first two rak'ahs of Dhuhr and Asr, occasionally making a verse audible to us."

L6947–6948 This is the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) raising his voice in recitation during parts of the Dhuhr prayer. Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us; Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah narrated to us; Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb reported to us via Muḥammad ibn Ibrāhīm from Salm ibn Qutaybah, who narrated to us from Hāshim ibn al-Barīd from Abū Isḥāq, from al-Barāʾ ibn ʿĀzib, who said: "We used to pray Dhuhr behind the Prophet (peace be upon him), and he would make us hear a verse after the verses from Luqmān and al-Dhāriyāt."

L6949 And it was narrated to us through the chain of Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān: from Ismāʿīl ibn Muslim, from Abū al-Mutawakkil (who is ʿAlī ibn Dāwūd al-Nājī), who said: "'Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb would recite in the Dhuhr and Asr prayers {By the scattering winds scattering...} [al-Dhāriyāt:1] and {Qaf. By the Glorious Qur'an...} [Qāf:1], reciting them audibly in both prayers." And from the chain of Maʿmar, from Thābit al-Bunānī, who said: "Anas ibn Mālik used to lead us in the Dhuhr and Asr prayers, and sometimes we would hear him recite {When the sky is split apart} [al-Infiṭār:1] and {Exalt the name of your Lord, the Most High} [al-Aʿlā:1]."[68]

L6950 This was the action of Umar ibn al-Khattab and Anas in the presence of the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—with no one objecting to them both. From Abd al-Razzaq via Maʿmar from Qatadah, who said: "Whoever prays the Maghrib prayer while reciting silently yet audibly enough for himself to hear—does this suffice him?" From Hammad ibn Salama via Dawud, the son of Abi Hind, from al-Shaʿbi: "Saʿid ibn al-As recited aloud during the Dhuhr or Asr prayer, persisted in his audible recitation, and upon concluding his prayer stated: 'I disliked concealing the Quran after having recited it aloud,' without mentioning the two prostrations of forgetfulness?"

L6951 Ali said, "This is his doing in the presence of the Companions. None of them objected to him regarding that."

L6952–6954 It has also been narrated to us regarding audible recitation in the ʿAṣr prayer from Khabbāb ibn al-Arat (may Allah be pleased with him). From Wakiʿ, from al-Rabīʿ, from al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī, who said: "If one recites audibly in what is meant to be recited quietly, there is no prostration of forgetfulness required." From Wakiʿ, from Isrāʾīl, from Jābir, from ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn al-Aswad ibn Yazīd, from... that Al-Aswad and ʿAlqamah both used to recite aloud in what is recited quietly, so they did not prostrate.

L6955 And through the chain of transmission of Al-Bukhārī: Muḥammad ibn Bishār and Muḥammad ibn Kathīr narrated to us. Ibn Bishār said: Ghundar narrated to us from Shuʿbah. Ibn Kathīr said: On the authority of Sufyān al-Thawrī. Then the chains of both Shuʿbah and Sufyān converged, each narrating from Saʿd ibn Ibrāhīm ibn ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAwf, from Ṭalḥah ibn ʿAbdullāh ibn ʿAwf, who said: "I prayed behind Ibn ʿAbbās at a funeral prayer. He recited the Opening of the Book and said: 'So that you may know it is a Sunnah.'"

L6956 Ali said: We disliked that because the well-known practice of the Prophet (peace be upon him) was to recite aloud in the cases we mentioned where raising the voice is required, and to recite quietly in the cases we mentioned where lowering the voice is required. There is no prostration of forgetfulness in such matters, because if an action is permissible to perform or omit intentionally, there is no forgetfulness involved - since one has done what is permissible. The forgetfulness requiring prostration applies only to what would invalidate the prayer if done intentionally. Is it due to omission or commission? Al-Shafi'i said: Whoever recites aloud where quiet recitation is required or quietly where aloud recitation is required - we consider this disliked, yet his prayer remains valid with no prostration of forgetfulness required.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَإِنَّمَا كَرِهْنَا ذَلِكَ؛ لِأَنَّ الْمَشْهُورَ مِنْ فِعْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - كَانَ الْجَهْرُ فِيمَا ذَكَرْنَا أَنَّهُ يُجْهَرُ بِهِ وَالْإِسْرَارُ فِيمَا ذَكَرْنَا أَنَّهُ يُسِرُّ فِيهِ، وَلَا سُجُودَ سَهْوٍ فِي ذَلِكَ، لِأَنَّ مَا أُبِيحَ تَعَمُّدُ فِعْلِهِ أَوْ تَرْكِهِ فَلَا سَهْوَ فِيهِ؛ لِأَنَّهُ فَعَلَ مَا هُوَ مُبَاحٌ لَهُ، وَإِنَّمَا السَّهْوُ الَّذِي يَسْجُدُ لَهُ فِيمَا لَوْ فَعَلَهُ عَمْدًا بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ، مِنْ تَرْكٍ أَوْ فِعْلٍ؟ وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ: مَنْ جَهَرَ فِيمَا يُسَرُّ فِيهِ أَوْ أَسَرَّ فِيمَا يُجْهَرُ فِيهِ كَرِهْنَاهُ وَتَمَّتْ صَلَاتُهُ، وَلَا سُجُودَ سَهْوٍ فِيهِ.

L6957 This is the opinion of Abū Sulaymān and all our fellow scholars, which we uphold.

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ وَجَمِيعِ أَصْحَابِنَا وَبِهِ نَقُولُ.

L6958 Mālik said: If one recites aloud in a prayer requiring silent recitation or silently in a prayer requiring aloud recitation, then if it is extensive, he must perform the prostration of forgetfulness. But if it is slight, there is no obligation. ʿAlī said: This is erroneous, for the matter must either be permissible—in which case the much and the little of it are equivalent—or forbidden—in which case the little and the much of it are equivalent. It is impermissible to permit a small amount of what is forbidden in large quantities except by an established scriptural text (nass) on the matter.

وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: إنْ جَهَرَ فِيمَا يُسَرُّ فِيهِ أَوْ أَسَرَّ فِيمَا يُجْهَرُ فِيهِ فَإِنْ كَانَ ذَلِكَ كَثِيرًا سَجَدَ لِلسَّهْوِ، وَإِنْ كَانَ قَلِيلًا فَلَا شَيْءَ فِيهِ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا خَطَأٌ، لِأَنَّهُ لَا يَخْلُو أَنْ يَكُونَ مُبَاحًا فَالْكَثِيرُ مِنْهُ وَالْقَلِيلُ سَوَاءٌ، أَوْ يَكُونَ مَحْظُورًا، فَالْقَلِيلُ مِنْهُ وَالْكَثِيرُ سَوَاءٌ، وَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُحَلَّ قَلِيلَ مَا حُرِّمَ كَثِيرُهُ إلَّا بِنَصٍّ وَارِدٍ فِي ذَلِكَ.

L6959 Additionally, the question arises about distinguishing between a significant quantity that necessitates the prostration for inadvertence and an insignificant one that does not. There is no way to specify this except through arbitrary judgment devoid of evidence—and no one is incapable of such a claim. It is impossible to impose a ruling concerning something whose necessitating quantity remains unclear.

L6960 Abu Hanifa said: If the imam recites silently in prayers where audible recitation is prescribed or aloud in prayers where silent recitation is prescribed, and this was due to forgetfulness, he must perform the prostration of forgetfulness.

وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ: إنْ أَسَرَّ الْإِمَامُ فِيمَا يُجْهَرُ فِيهِ أَوْ جَهَرَ فِيمَا يُسَرُّ فِيهِ، فَإِنْ كَانَ سَهْوًا فَعَلَيْهِ سُجُودُ السَّهْوِ.

L6961 If the act was intentional, there is no prostration of forgetfulness for it, and the prayer is complete.

وَإِنْ كَانَ عَمْدًا فَلَا سُجُودَ سَهْوٍ فِيهِ، وَالصَّلَاةُ تَامَّةٌ.

L6962–6964 If he does that The one praying alone, whether intentionally or forgetfully, his prayer is complete, and there is no prostration of forgetfulness in it. [The prayer is complete. If the one praying alone commits an error intentionally or forgetfully, his prayer remains complete, and there is no prostration of forgetfulness in it.]

فَإِنْ فَعَلَ ذَلِكَ الْمُنْفَرِدُ عَمْدًا أَوْ سَهْوًا فَصَلَاتُهُ تَامَّةٌ، وَلَا سُجُودَ سَهْوٍ فِيهِ، [وَالصَّلَاةُ تَامَّةٌ، فَإِنْ فَعَلَ ذَلِكَ الْمُنْفَرِدُ عَمْدًا أَوْ سَهْوًا فَصَلَاتُهُ تَامَّةٌ، وَلَا سُجُودَ سَهْوٍ فِيهِ] .

L6965 Ali said: This is erroneous in two aspects. First: He permits the intentional act yet does not require prostration for the deliberate offender—according to his view—while mandating it for the forgetful one, though the latter only forgot what was permissible for him, in his view, to omit or perform. What prostration could apply here? Second: His differentiation between the imam and the individual praying alone in this matter, which is another astonishing aspect. We do not know of any opinion from Abū Ḥanīfah or Mālik here that is reported from anyone before them. How could they contradict all the narrations from the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—regarding this?

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا خَطَأٌ مِنْ وَجْهَيْنِ -: أَحَدُهُمَا: إبَاحَتُهُ تَعَمُّدَ ذَلِكَ وَلَا سُجُودَ عِنْدَهُ عَلَى الْعَامِدِ، وَإِيجَابُهُ السُّجُودَ عَلَى السَّاهِي، وَهُوَ لَمْ يَسْهُ إلَّا عَمَّا أُبِيحَ لَهُ - عِنْدَهُ - تَرْكُهُ وَفِعْلُهُ، فَأَيُّ سُجُودٍ فِي هَذَا؟ وَالثَّانِي: تَفْرِيقُهُ فِي ذَلِكَ بَيْنَ الْإِمَامِ وَالْمُنْفَرِدِ، وَهَذَا عَجَبٌ آخَرُ وَلَا نَعْرِفُ قَوْلَ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، وَقَوْلَ مَالِكٍ هَهُنَا عَنْ أَحَدٍ قَبْلَهُمَا، وَقَدْ خَالَفَا فِي

As for the ma'mūm (follower in prayer), his prayer is invalidated only if he recites aloud during any part of his recitation, based on Allah's statement: "When the Quran is recited, listen to it attentively and remain silent, so that you may be shown mercy" [7:204], and "Remember your Lord inwardly with humility and reverence, and without raising your voice" [7:205].[69]

L6966 It has been authentically reported from the Prophet (peace be upon him) that he said: "The imam is only designated to be followed in prayer."

L6967 And in the Hadith: "And when he recites, then remain silent."

L6968 So whoever among the congregants does not maintain attentive silence and recites aloud—has he not opposed Allah the Exalted and His Messenger (may Allah bless him and grant him peace) in his prayer, failed to pray as commanded, and thus has not prayed? Success lies with Allah, the Exalted.

L6969 Issue: Prolonging the first rakʿah of every prayer more than its second rakʿah.

L6970 447 - Issue: It is recommended to prolong the first rakʿah of every prayer more than the second rakʿah. ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Khālid narrated to us: Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad narrated to us: al-Farabrī narrated to us: al-Bukhārī narrated to us: Mūsā ibn Ismāʿīl narrated to us: Hammām ibn Yaḥyā from Yaḥyā ibn Abī Kathīr from ʿAbd Allāh ibn Abī Qatādah from his father: "The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) would recite in the first two rakʿahs of Dhuhr the Opening of the Book and two sūrahs, and in the last two rakʿahs the Opening of the Book. Jabbar ibn Wā’il narrated to us from Alqamah ibn Wā’il that he narrated to him from his father Wā’il ibn Ḥujr: “He saw the Prophet - peace and blessings be upon him - raise his hands upon entering the prayer, say the takbīr, then wrap himself in his garment, then place his right hand over his left,” and he related the remainder of the ḥadīth. Muhammad ibn Sa‘īd ibn Nubāt narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Abdul-Baṣīr narrated to us, Qāsim ibn Aṣbagh narrated to us. Muhammad ibn Abd al-Salam al-Khushani narrated to us; Muhammad ibn al-Muthanna narrated to us; Abd al-Rahman ibn Mahdi said: I am Hushaym, from al-Hajjaj ibn Abi Zaynab, who said: I heard Abu Uthman al-Nahdi narrating from Ibn Mas’ud, who said: “The Prophet (peace be upon him) saw me when I had placed my left hand over my right in prayer. He took my right hand and placed it over my left.”[72] وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ عَلِيٍّ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - " أَنَّهُ كَانَ إذَا طَوَّلَ قِيَامَهُ فِي الصَّلَاةِ يُمْسِكُ بِيَدِهِ الْيُمْنَى ذِرَاعَهُ الْيُسْرَى فِي أَصْلِ الْكَفِّ إلَّا أَنْ يُسَوِّيَ ثَوْبًا أَوْ يَحُكَّ جِلْدًا؟ وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: وَضْعُ الْكَفِّ عَلَى الْكَفِّ فِي الصَّلَاةِ تَحْتَ السُّرَّةِ.

L6980 It has been reported to us from ʿAlī—may Allah be pleased with him—that when he prolonged his standing in prayer, he would hold his left forearm with his right hand at the base of the palm, except when adjusting his garment or scratching his skin. In another narration, Abū Hurayrah said: Placing the palm over the palm in prayer is under the navel.

L6981 From ʿĀ’ishah (may Allāh be pleased with her) that she said: “Three matters belong to the Prophetic tradition: hastening the breaking of the fast, delaying the pre-dawn meal, and placing the right hand over the left hand in prayer.” A similar narration is reported from Anas as well, except he phrased it: “from the characteristics of Prophethood,” and added: “below the navel.”

L6982 Narrated by Malik, from Abu Hazim, from Sahl ibn Sa‘d, who said: “People were instructed that each person should place his right hand over his left forearm during Ṣalāh.”

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: هَذَا رَاجِعٌ فِي أَقَلِّ أَحْوَالِهِ إلَى فِعْلِ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -، إنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ مُسْنَدًا.

L6983 Ali said: “This, at minimum, is attributable to the actions of the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them), if it is not supported by an isnād.”

L6984 From the narration of Abū Ḥumayd al-Sāʿidī that he said: “I am the most knowledgeable among you regarding the prayer of Allah's Messenger." Then he described—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—that the Prophet uttered the Takbīr, raised his hands to his face, then placed his right hand over his left.

L6985 Has it been narrated to us that this action was transmitted from Abū Mijlaz, Ibrāhīm an-Nakhaʿī, Saʿīd ibn Jubayr, ʿAmr ibn Maymūn, Muḥammad ibn Sīrīn, Ayyūb al-Sakhtiyānī, and Ḥammād ibn Salamah—that they used to do that—and is this the position of Abū Ḥanīfah, al-Shāfiʿī, Aḥmad, and Dāwūd?

L6986 The Imam does not utter the takbīr until those behind him have straightened.

L6987 Issue 449: We recommend that the Imam not pronounce the Takbīr until all those behind him are aligned in a single row or multiple rows. If he pronounces it before that, he has erred but it suffices him.

L6988–6989 Abu Hanifah said: If the resident [prayer-caller] says "The prayer has been established," should the imam utter the takbir? We have been narrated from Ibrahim al-Nakhai regarding the permissibility of the imam's takbir before the mu'adhdhin commences the iqāmah. Ali said: Both statements are erroneous—Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us: Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us: Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us: Harun ibn Ma'ruf and Harmalah ibn Yahya both narrated to us, stating: Ibn Wahb narrated to us, informing us: Yunus—meaning Ibn Yazid—informed us from Ibn Shihab, who informed us: Abu Salamah ibn Abd al-Rahman ibn Awf informed us that he heard Abu Hurairah say: "The prayer was established, so we stood and straightened the rows before Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—came out to us. When he stood at his prayer place but before uttering the takbir, he remembered something and turned back. He told us: 'Stay in your places.' We remained standing, waiting until he came out to us after having performed ghusl, with water dripping from his head. Then he uttered the takbir and led us in prayer?"

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ أَبِي حُمَيْدٍ السَّاعِدِيِّ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: «أَنَا أَعْلَمُكُمْ بِصَلَاةِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - " ثُمَّ وَصَفَ: أَنَّهُ كَبَّرَ فَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ إِلَى وَجْهِهِ ثُمَّ وَضَعَ يَمِينَهُ عَلَى شِمَالِهِ» .

وَرُوِّينَا فِعْلَ ذَلِكَ عَنْ أَبِي مِجْلَزٍ، وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ، وَسَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، وَعَمْرِو بْنِ مَيْمُونٍ، وَمُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سِيرِينَ، وَأَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ، وَحَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ: أَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ ذَلِكَ؟ وَهُوَ قَوْلُ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، وَالشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَحْمَدَ، وَدَاوُد؟

[مَسْأَلَةٌ لَا يُكَبِّرُ الْإِمَامُ حَتَّى يَسْتَوِيَ مَنْ وَرَاءَهُ]

٤٤٩ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَنَسْتَحِبُّ أَنْ لَا يُكَبِّرَ الْإِمَامُ إلَّا حَتَّى يَسْتَوِيَ كُلُّ مَنْ وَرَاءَهُ فِي صَفٍّ أَوْ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ صَفٍّ، فَإِنْ كَبَّرَ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ أَسَاءَ وَأَجْزَأَهُ.

L6990 Hammam narrated to us, Ibn Mufarrij narrated to us, Ibn al-A'rabi narrated to us, al-Dabari narrated to us, Abd al-Razzaq narrated to us from Ma'mar, from Thabit al-Bunani, from Anas, who said: "The prayer would be established, and a man would speak to the Prophet (peace be upon him) about a need he had, standing there between him and the qibla while conversing with him. Sometimes I saw some of the people becoming drowsy due to the prolonged standing of the Prophet (peace be upon him)."

وَأَيْضًا - «فَقَوْلُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لِلْمَأْمُومِينَ وَإِذَا كَبَّرَ فَكَبِّرُوا» يَعْنِي الْإِمَامَ -: مُبْطِلٌ لِقَوْلِ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، لِأَنَّهُ إذَا كَبَّرَ الْإِمَامُ وَلَمْ يُتِمَّ الْمُقِيمُ الْإِقَامَةَ لَمْ يُمْكِنْ الْمُقِيمُ أَنْ يُكَبِّرَ إذَا كَبَّرَ الْإِمَامُ، فَأَبُو حَنِيفَةَ يَأْمُرُ بِخِلَافِ أَمْرِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِأَنْ يُكَبِّرَ إذَا كَبَّرَ الْإِمَامُ؟ وَرُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ يَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانِ عَنْ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ: كَانَ عُمَرُ يَبْعَثُ رِجَالًا يُسَوُّونَ الصُّفُوفَ فَإِذَا جَاءُوهُ كَبَّرَ

L6991 Moreover, the statement of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—to the congregation, "When he pronounces the takbir, pronounce the takbir," referring to the Imam, invalidates Abu Hanifa's opinion. This is because if the Imam pronounces the takbir while the one leading the prayer has not yet completed the iqamah, it becomes impossible for the one leading the prayer to pronounce the takbir when the Imam does so. Thus, does Abu Hanifa's ruling—which instructs pronouncing the takbir when the Imam does—not contradict the command of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him? It has been narrated to us through the chain of Yahya ibn Sa'id al-Qattan, from 'Ubayd Allah ibn 'Umar, from Nafi', from Ibn 'Umar, who said: "Umar would dispatch men to straighten the prayer rows, and when they came to him, he would pronounce the takbir."

وَعَنْ مَالِكٍ عَنْ أَبِي النَّضْرِ عَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ أَبِي عَامِرٍ قَالَ: كَانَ عُثْمَانُ بْنُ عَفَّانَ لَا يُكَبِّرُ حَتَّى يَأْتِيَهُ رِجَالٌ قَدْ وَكَّلَهُمْ بِتَسْوِيَةِ الصُّفُوفِ، فَيُخْبِرُونَهُ أَنَّهَا قَدْ اسْتَوَتْ فَيُكَبِّرُ.

L6992 From Malik, from Abu al-Nadr, from Malik ibn Abi Amir, who said: Uthman ibn Affan would not begin the takbir until men he had assigned to straighten the rows came to him. They would inform him that the rows were properly aligned, and then he would begin the takbir.

وَعَنْ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ مِسْعَرِ بْنِ كِدَامٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَيْسَرَةَ عَنْ مَعْقِلِ بْنِ أَبِي قَيْسٍ عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَنْتَظِرُ بَعْدَ مَا أُقِيمَتْ الصَّلَاةُ قَلِيلًا؟

L6993 And from Waki' from Mis'ar ibn Kidām from 'Abdullāh ibn Maysarah from Ma'qil ibn Abī Qays from 'Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb: That he would wait briefly after the iqamah had been called?

وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ الْحَسَنِ بْنِ عَلِيٍّ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا - نَحْوَ هَذَا؟ .

L6994–6995 Was it narrated to us from Al-Ḥasan ibn ʿAlī—may Allah be pleased with them both—similar to this?

L6996 So, this is the action of the two caliphs in the presence of the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them) and their consensus with them on that? It has been narrated to us from al-Ḥajjāj ibn al-Minhāl, from ʿAbdullāh ibn Dāwūd al-Khuraibī, who said: Sufyān ath-Thawrī gave the call to prayer from the minaret and performed the iqāmah from the minaret, then he descended and led us in prayer.

فَهَذَا فِعْلُ الْخَلِيفَتَيْنِ بِحَضْرَةِ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -، وَإِجْمَاعُهُمْ مَعَهُمْ عَلَى ذَلِكَ؟ وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ الْحَجَّاجِ بْنِ الْمِنْهَالِ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ دَاوُد الْخُرَيْبِيِّ قَالَ: أَذَّنَ سُفْيَانُ الثَّوْرِيُّ فِي الْمَنَارِ وَأَقَامَ فِي الْمَنَارِ، ثُمَّ نَزَلَ فَأَمَّنَا.

L6997 Our position aligns with that of Mālik, al-Shāfiʿī, Aḥmad, Dāwūd, Muḥammad b. al-Ḥasan, and one of the two doctrines held by Abū Yūsuf.

وَقَوْلُنَا هُوَ قَوْلُ مَالِكٍ وَالشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَحْمَدَ، وَدَاوُد، وَمُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْحَسَنِ، وَأَحَدُ قَوْلَيْ أَبِي يُوسُفَ.

L6998 Ali said: The adherent of Abu Hanifah's school cited as evidence a narration transmitted by us through the chain of Waki' from Sufyan al-Thawri from 'Asim al-Ahwal from Abu 'Uthman al-Nahdi: "That Bilal said to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him): 'O Messenger of Allah, do not precede me in saying Ameen.'" قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَاحْتَجَّ مُقَلِّدُ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ بِأَثَرٍ رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ عَاصِمٍ الْأَحْوَلِ عَنْ أَبِي عُثْمَانَ النَّهْدِيِّ «أَنَّ بِلَالًا قَالَ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، لَا تَسْبِقْنِي بِآمِينَ» .

L6999 Via the chain of Abd al-Razzaq, from Maʿmar, from Yaḥyā ibn Abī Kathīr, from Abū Salama ibn ʿAbd al-Raḥmān, from Abū Hurayra: He (Abū Hurayra) was the muʾadhdhin for al-ʿAlāʾ ibn al-Ḥaḍramī in Bahrain. Abū Hurayra said to him, "You must wait for me at [the time of] Amīn, or I will not call the adhān for you."

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ أَبِي كَثِيرٍ عَنْ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ مُؤَذِّنًا لِلْعَلَاءِ بْنِ الْحَضْرَمِيِّ بِالْبَحْرَيْنِ فَقَالَ لَهُ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ: لِتَنْتَظِرَنِّي بِآمِينَ أَوْ لَا أُؤَذِّنُ لَك.

L7000 Ali said: Their reliance on these two narrations ranks among the most repugnant forms of religious obfuscation—a reckless venture into disgrace through deceiving those beguiled by them, serving as comprehensive evidence of their utter lack of piety. This is because they fundamentally reject any legitimacy for the follower to recite behind the Imam. Rather, they assert that the Imam should recite, "I have directed my face..." [Quran 6:79] through the end of the transmitted wording before reciting the Opening Chapter (Al-Fatihah). By necessity and established custom, they acknowledge that when the caller of the Iqamah declares, "The prayer has been established," and the Imam pronounces "Allahu Akbar," nothing remains for the caller except to say: "Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, La ilaha illa Allah."[1]

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَاحْتِجَاجُهُمْ بِهَذَيْنِ الْأَثَرَيْنِ مِنْ أَقْبَحِ مَا يَكُونُ مِنَ التَّمْوِيهِ فِي الدِّينِ وَإِقْدَامٌ عَلَى الْفَضِيحَةِ بِالتَّدْلِيسِ عَلَى مَنْ اغْتَرَّ بِهِمْ وَدَلِيلٌ عَلَى قِلَّةِ الْوَرَعِ جُمْلَةً، لِأَنَّهُمْ لَا يَرَوْنَ لِلْمَأْمُومِ أَنْ يَقْرَأَ خَلْفَ الْإِمَامِ أَصْلًا بَلْ يَرَوْنَ لِلْإِمَامِ أَنْ يَقُولَ: {وَجَّهْتُ وَجْهِيَ} [الأنعام: ٧٩] إِلَى آخِرِ الْكَلَامِ الْمَرْوِيِّ فِي ذَلِكَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَقْرَأَ " أُمَّ الْقُرْآنِ " وَبِالضَّرُورَةِ وَالْمُشَاهَدَةِ يَدْرُونَ أَنَّ الْمُقِيمَ إِذَا قَالَ: " قَدْ قَامَتْ الصَّلَاةُ " فَكَبَّرَ الْإِمَامُ فَلَمْ يَبْقَ عَلَى الْمُقِيمِ شَيْءٌ إِلَّا أَنْ يَقُولَ: " اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ ".

L7001 It is utterly and unequivocally impossible, without any ambiguity, that the Imam would complete reciting Surah Al-Fatiha (The Opening) before the caller (mu'adhdhin) completing the iqamah finishes proclaiming "Allah is the Greatest, Allah is the Greatest; there is no deity but Allah," and then repeats "Allahu Akbar."

فَمِنْ الْمُحَالِ الْمُمْتَنِعِ الَّذِي لَا يُشْكِلُ أَنْ يَكُونَ الْإِمَامُ يُتِمُّ قِرَاءَةَ " أُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ " قَبْلَ أَنْ يُتِمَّ الْمُقِيمُ قَوْلَ " اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ " ثُمَّ يُكَبِّرَ.

L7002 So how can this be evidence that the Imam utters the Takbīr when the caller of the iqāmah says, "The prayer has been established"?

فَكَيْفَ يَكُونُ هَذَا دَلِيلًا عَلَى أَنَّ الْإِمَامَ يُكَبِّرُ إِذَا قَالَ الْمُقِيمُ " قَدْ قَامَتْ الصَّلَاةُ ".

L7003 Rather, if the imam were to pronounce the takbīr simultaneously with the muqim's commencement of the iqamah, he would not have completed Umm al-Qur'ān at all except after the muqim has concluded the iqamah and after the imam has uttered the opening takbīr for iḥrām. How then could this be conceivable with only three words?

بَلْ لَوْ كَبَّرَ الْإِمَامُ مَعَ ابْتِدَاءِ الْمُقِيمِ الْإِقَامَةَ لَمَا أَتَمَّ " أُمَّ الْقُرْآنِ " أَصْلًا إِلَّا بَعْدَ إتْمَامِ الْمُقِيمِ الْإِقَامَةَ، وَبَعْدَ أَنْ يُكَبِّرَ لِلْإِحْرَامِ، فَكَيْفَ بِثَلَاثِ كَلِمَاتٍ؟

L7004–7005 Should they not have been ashamed to engage in such feeble obfuscation within the religion of Islam? If it is asked: "What is the meaning of Bilāl and Abū Hurayrah's statement: 'Do not precede me in saying Āmīn'?" We reply: Its meaning is manifestly clear, for the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—informed: "When the imam says 'Āmīn,' the angels say 'Āmīn.' If his utterance of Āmīn corresponds with that of the angels, his past sins are forgiven." Thus Bilāl sought to delay his own saying of "Āmīn" alongside the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—so that he might unite with him in uttering it, hoping to align with the angels' Āmīn. This is what Abū Hurayrah sought from al-ʿAlāʾ. Thus their reliance upon these two narrations is invalidated. They further obfuscated by citing what Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad al-Ṭalamankī narrated to us, stating: Ibn Mufarrij narrated to us; Aḥmad ibn ʿAmr ibn ʿAbd al-Khāliq al-Bazzār narrated to us; Muḥammad ibn al-Muthannā narrated to us; al-Ḥajjāj ibn Farrukh narrated to us from al-ʿAwwām ibn Ḥawshab, from ʿAbdullāh ibn Abī Awfā—may Allah be pleased with him—who said: "When Bilāl proclaimed 'The prayer has commenced,' Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—would rise to pronounce the Takbīr."

L7006 Al-Bazzār said: "No one narrated this except through this chain, and they also narrated something similar from 'Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb." 'Alī said: "These two reports are fabricated. As for the ḥadīth of Ibn Abī Awfā, it is transmitted through al-Ḥajjāj ibn Farrukh, who is unanimously deemed weak and unreliable. As for the report of 'Umar, it is transmitted through Sharīk the judge, who is weak—thus reliance on them is void. We have already mentioned that what is authentically established from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—and from 'Umar contradicts this." 'Alī said: "They say: 'We do not accept the single-narrator report in matters of significant societal impact.'" 'Alī said: "This pertains to matters of significant societal impact. If their claim were true, it would not have remained unknown to other jurists. Yet they accepted a weak report in this matter and abandoned the established narrations."

And through him to Sufyan: from al-Suddiyy and Mis'ar. L7023 Ali said: These are convergent narrations, mass-transmitted hadiths, and mutually supportive reports—it is not permissible for anyone to disregard them. A group of the righteous predecessors held this opinion, as Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us from Abdullah ibn Muḥammad ibn ʿUthmān, from Aḥmad ibn Khālid, from ʿAlī ibn ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz, from al-Ḥajjāj ibn al-Minhāl, from Ḥammād ibn Salamah, from Qays ibn Saʿd and Ḥammād ibn Abī Sulaymān, from Saʿīd ibn Jubayr: that Ibn ʿAbbās, when raising his head from bowing, would say: "O Allah, our Lord, to You belongs all praise—fill of the heavens, fill of the earth, and fill of whatever You will beyond that."

L7024 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us, Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us, Muslim ibn Al-Hajjaj narrated to us, Ubaidullah ibn Muadh Al-Anbari narrated to us, Shu'bah narrated from Al-Hakam that Abu Ubaydah ibn Abdullah ibn Mas'ud used to lead people in prayer. When he raised his head from bowing, he would stand long enough to say: "O Allah, our Lord, to You belongs all praise filling the heavens, the earth, and as much as You will of anything beyond that. You are the One deserving of praise and glory. None can withhold what You grant, and none can grant what You withhold. Can the possessor of any grandeur avail against You with his grandeur?" Ali said: "This is also the view of Al-Shafi'i, his companions, and some of our companions. We adopt this position, and success is from Allah, the Exalted."

An issue regarding one who prolongs his bowing, prostration, and the standing during his rising from the bowing.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ مِنْ طَوَّلَ رُكُوعَهُ وَسُجُودَهُ وَوُقُوفَهُ فِي رَفْعِهِ مِنْ الرُّكُوعِ]

٤٥٢ - مَسْأَلَةٌ:

L7027 If one extends his bowing, prostration, standing while rising from bowing, and sitting between the two prostrations such that each of these equals the duration of his standing recitation before bowing, that is recommended.

L7028–7030 Narrated to us Abdullah ibn Yusuf. Narrated to us Ahmad ibn Fath. Narrated to us Abd al-Wahhab ibn Isa. Narrated to us Ahmad ibn Muhammad. Aḥmad ibn ʿAlī narrated to us, Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj narrated to us, Abū Kāmil Fuḍayl ibn al-Ḥusayn al-Jaḥdarī narrated to us from Abū ʿAwānah from Hilāl ibn Abī Ḥumayd from ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Abī Laylā from al-Barāʾ ibn ʿĀẓib, who said: “I attentively observed the prayer with Muḥammad—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—and found his standing, his rukūʿ, his rising from rukūʿ, his prostration, then his sitting between the two prostrations, followed by another prostration, then his sitting, and his sitting between the taslīm and departure to be nearly equal in duration.”

L7031 And through him to Muslim: Abu Bakr ibn Nafiʿ al-ʿAbdi narrated to us, Bahz ibn Asad narrated to us, Hammad said: Thabit reported from Anas, who said: “You never prayed behind anyone whose prayer was more concise yet properly complete than that of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him). The prayer of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was moderate, and Abu Bakr’s prayer was moderate. When ʿUmar ibn al-Khattab became caliph, he prolonged the Fajr prayer. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) would, upon saying ‘Allah hears those who praise Him,’ remain standing until we thought he had forgotten, then he would prostrate and sit between the two prostrations until we thought he had forgotten.”

L7033 Ali said: This clarifies that there is no authoritative proof in the actions of anyone other than the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him).

L7034 From Waki‘, from Sufyan, from Mansur, from Ibrahim, who said: Abu ‘Ubaydah ibn ‘Abdullah ibn Mas‘ud used to prolong the standing after bowing, and they would criticize him for that. ‘Ali said: The blameworthy one is whoever criticizes the practice of the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—and relies on that which has no scriptural basis. And with Allah, the Exalted, is success.

L7035 ## Issue: The Proper Performance of the Rukūʿ

L7036 453 - Issue

L7037–7039 The proper manner of bowing is that one neither raises his head when bowing nor tilts it, but keeps it aligned with his back. As for prostration, he must arch his back as much as possible and spread his arms apart to the fullest extent. The man and the woman are the same in all of that: Narrated to us by ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Khālid; narrated to us by Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad; narrated to us by al-Farbarī; narrated to us by al-Bukhārī; narrated to us by Yaḥyā ibn Bukayr; narrated to us by Bakr ibn Muḍar, from Jaʿfar ibn Rabīʿah, from Ibn Hurmuz, from ʿAbd Allāh ibn Mālik ibn Buḥaynah: “That the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—when he prayed, would separate between his hands until the whiteness of his armpits became visible.”

L7040 Narrated by Abdullah ibn Yusuf → Ahmad ibn Fath → Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa → Ahmad ibn Muhammad → Ahmad ibn Ali → Muslim ibn Al-Hajjaj → Yahya → Sufyan ibn Uyaynah → Ubaidullah ibn Abdullah ibn Al-Asamm → his uncle Yazid ibn Al-Asamm → Maymunah, the wife of the Prophet

L7041 By the same chain to Muslim: Ishāq ibn Ibrāhīm—who is Ibn Rāhawayh—narrated to us: “‘Īsā ibn Yūnus narrated to us from Ḥusayn al-Muʿallim, from Budayl ibn Maysarah, from Abī al-Jawzāʾ, from ʿĀʾishah: ‘The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—when he bowed, would neither raise his head nor lower it.’”

L7042 It was narrated to us from Hammad ibn Salama, from Abu Jamrah: I said to A’idh ibn Amr al-Muzani, “When I bow, should I fully straighten my back in my rukūʿ?” He said, “No, but moderate your posture until the vertebrae of your spine are aligned.” I said, “When I prostrate, should I rest on my elbows?” He said, “No, but keep them lifted away from the ground.”

L7043 ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb used to instruct his companions, when bowing [in prayer], not to cover [their heads] nor to lower them excessively.

L7044–7046 From Waki’ through his father through Shihab al-Bariqi that Ali ibn Abi Talib, when he prostrated, would spread his elbows away from his sides. Just as the underfed camel becomes emaciated.

L7047 From Waki‘, from Zakariyya ibn Abī Zāʾida, from Abū Isḥāq al-Sabīʿī, who said: “I saw Masrūq prostrating as if he were hunched?” From al-Ḥasan: “A man bows without raising his head upward nor letting it droop.” From Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī: He disliked grasping his knees or excessively straightening his back in the bowing, and this is the view of al-Shāfiʿī, Abū Sulaymān, and the People of Hadith.

L7048 As for the woman—if there were a ruling contrary to this, the Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—would not have neglected to clarify it. What manifests from her in this action is precisely what mani-

L7052–7054 And this is the practice of a group of the Salaf: Abdullah ibn Rabee' narrated to us, Muhammad ibn Ishaaq ibn as-Sulaim narrated to us, Ibn al-A'rabi narrated to us, Abu Dawud narrated to us, Musaddad narrated to us, Isma'eel – that is Ibn Ulayyah – narrated to us from Ayyoob as-Sakhtiyani from Abu Qilaabah, Abu Sulayman Maalik ibn al-Huwayrith narrated to us in our mosque, saying: "I pray with you not intending the prayer itself, but rather I intend to show you how I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) pray." Abu Qilabah said: He prayed like the prayer of this sheikh of ours, meaning Amr Ibn Salamah, your imam, and he mentioned that when he raised his head from the second prostration in the first rak'ah, he would sit and then rise.

[8] Hadith references (L7051): Mishkat al-Masabih 796.

L7055–7057 Ali said: This ʻAmr has the status of a Companion, and his father was a Companion. Thus, this represents the practice of a group of the Companions and others with them. It has been reported to us from Ahmad ibn Hanbal that Hammad ibn Zayd acted upon this based on the hadith of Malik ibn al-Huwayrith. This is the view of al-Shāfiʿī, Ahmad, and Dawūd. Abū Ḥanīfah and Mālik did not hold this view. Ali said: This is among matters where they abandoned the practice of two Companions – may Allah be pleased with them – despite no opposing stance from other Companions being known, yet they uphold this when it conforms to their emulation. If they argue using the hadith of Abū Ḥumayd – which we shall mention after this section, Allah willing – claiming it lacks mention of this sitting posture, we reply: You have no valid argument here, for not all Sunnah practices are mentioned in every hadith. Though Abū Ḥumayd did not mention it, other Companions did, nor did Abū Ḥumayd state that it was not practiced. Whoever inserts this into Abū Ḥumayd's narration has falsely attributed lies to Abū Ḥumayd and to the Messenger of Allah – peace and blessings be upon him. There is no difference between one who says, "Had the Messenger of Allah – peace and blessings be upon him – performed this, Abū Ḥumayd would have mentioned it," and one who counters, "Had he not performed it, Abū Ḥumayd would have mentioned its absence." The wonder is that they opposed Abū Ḥumayd's explicit textual report – as we shall clarify, Allah willing – dismissing its authority regarding what it contains, yet citing it to validate what it excludes – this is truly astounding! Ali said: This exemplifies their abandonment of both the Sunnah and analogical reasoning, despite their claim to uphold juridical analogy. Why did they not argue: Just as one rises for the third rakʿah only from a seated position, so too should one rise for the second and fourth rakʿahs? Except out of inaction, but they neither follow the Sunnah nor excel in Qiyas—and success comes from Allah, the Most High.

L7058 An Issue Regarding the Four Sittings in Prayer

[مَسْأَلَةٌ فِي الصَّلَاةِ أَرْبَعُ جَلْسَاتٍ]

L7059 455 - Issue: In prayer, there are four sittings: a sitting between every two prostrations; a sitting following the second prostration of each rak'ah; a sitting for the tashahhud after the second rak'ah - after which one rises to the third rak'ah in Maghrib, and similarly rises in Dhuhr, Asr, and the final Isha; and a sitting for the tashahhud at the conclusion of every prayer, which ends with the tasleem (salutation of peace).

L7060 The description of all the mentioned sittings is to position his left buttock upon the sole of his left foot while spreading his left foot, and to erect his right foot with its heel raised, resting it on the bases of its toes. This excludes the sitting that precedes the salutation in every prayer, whose description requires settling his buttocks fully onto what he is sitting upon rather than merely sitting on the sole of his foot. Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: Ibn al-Sulaym narrated to us: Ibn al-Aʿrābī narrated to us: Abū Dāwūd narrated to us: Musaddad narrated to us: Bishr ibn al-Mufaḍḍal narrated from ʿĀṣim ibn Kulayb from his father from Wā'il ibn Ḥujr who said: "I said: 'I will surely observe how Allah's Messenger - peace and blessings be upon him - prays.' He then stood facing the qiblah, uttered the takbīr, raised his hands until they aligned with his ears, then placed his right hand over his left. When he intended to bow, he raised them similarly. Then he sat spreading his left foot." He mentioned the remainder of the hadith.

وَصِفَةُ جَمِيعِ الْجُلُوسِ الْمَذْكُورِ أَنْ يَجْعَلَ أَلْيَتَهُ الْيُسْرَى عَلَى بَاطِنِ قَدَمِهِ الْيُسْرَى مُفْتَرِشًا لِقَدَمِهِ، وَيَنْصِبُ قَدَمَهُ الْيُمْنَى، رَافِعًا لِعَقِبِهَا، مُجْلِسًا لَهَا عَلَى بَاطِنِ أَصَابِعِهَا، إِلَّا الْجُلُوسَ الَّذِي يَلِي السَّلَامَ مِنْ كُلِّ صَلَاةٍ، فَإِنَّ صِفَتَهُ: أَنْ يُفْضِيَ بِمَقْعَدِهِ إِلَى مَا هُوَ جَالِسٌ عَلَيْهِ، وَلَا يَقْعُدَ عَلَى بَاطِنِ قَدَمِهِ فَقَطْ؟ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا ابْنُ السُّلَيْمِ ثنا ابْنُ الْأَعْرَابِيِّ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا مُسَدَّدٌ ثنا بِشْرُ بْنُ الْمُفَضَّلِ عَنْ عَاصِمِ بْنِ كُلَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ «عَنْ وَائِلِ بْنِ حُجْرٍ قَالَ: قُلْتُ: لَأَنْظُرَنَّ إِلَى صَلَاةِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - كَيْفَ يُصَلِّي فَقَامَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَاسْتَقْبَلَ الْقِبْلَةَ فَكَبَّرَ فَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ حَتَّى حَاذَتَا بِأُذُنَيْهِ ثُمَّ أَخَذَ شِمَالَهُ بِيَمِينِهِ، فَلَمَّا أَرَادَ أَنْ يَرْكَعَ رَفَعَهُمَا مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ، ثُمَّ جَلَسَ فَافْتَرَشَ رِجْلَهُ الْيُسْرَى» ، وَذَكَرَ بَاقِيَ الْحَدِيثِ.

L7061–7063 This is a general principle applicable to every sitting in prayer: Narrated to us by Abd al-Rahman ibn Abd Allah; he narrated to us Ibrahim ibn Ahmad al-Balkhi; he narrated to us Muhammad ibn Yusuf al-Farbari. Al-Bukhārī narrated to us: Yaḥyā ibn Bukayr narrated to us: Al-Layth—that is, Ibn Saʿd—narrated from Yazīd ibn Abī Ḥabīb and Yazīd ibn Muḥammad, from Muḥammad ibn ʿAmr ibn Ḥalḥalah, from Muḥammad ibn ʿAmr ibn ʿAṭāʾ that he was sitting among a group of the Prophet's companions (peace be upon him) when they mentioned the Prophet's prayer (peace be upon him). Abū Ḥumayd al-Sāʿidī said: "I am the most knowledgeable among you about the prayer of Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him). I saw him when he said the takbīr, he positioned his hands opposite his shoulders. When he bowed, he firmly placed his hands on his knees, then flattened his back. When he raised his head, he straightened up until every vertebra returned to its place. When he prostrated, he placed his hands neither spread out nor clenched, and directed the tips of his toes toward the qiblah. When he sat during the two rak'ahs, he sat on his left leg, raised upright the right one, and sat squarely on his buttocks."

L7064–7066 Al-Bukhārī said: Al-Layth heard Yazīd ibn Abī Ḥabīb, and he heard Yazīd ibn Ḥalḥalah and Ibn Ḥalḥalah from Ibn ʿAṭāʾ. We have also been narrated through the chain of ʿAbd al-Razzāq from ʿAṭāʾ and Nāfiʿ, the freedman of Ibn ʿUmar—both transmitting from Ibn ʿUmar: that he would sit between the two prostrations, placing his left leg beneath him, settling onto it while seated upon it, and resting upright on the toes of his right foot positioned behind him. This is the opinion of al-Shāfiʿī and Abū Sulaymān. Abū Ḥanīfah said: "The whole sitting—excluding nothing—is performed by sitting flat on his left buttock, the sole of his left foot beneath him." Mālik said: "The entire sitting—omitting nothing—is performed by fully pressing his buttocks to the ground." ʿAlī said: "Both opinions are erroneous and contradict the established Sunnah we have cited. How astonishing it is that both groups cite the ḥadīth of Abū Ḥumayd regarding omitting the sitting posture after the second prostration in the first and third rakʿahs, though it contains no mention of this whatsoever—neither affirmation nor negation. Yet they contradict the explicit text of Abū Ḥumayd's ḥadīth concerning the description of the sitting posture. This is utterly strange!" Some objectors have baselessly opposed this ḥadīth of Abū Ḥumayd by arguing that Al-ʿAṭṭāf ibn Khālid narrated it from Muḥammad ibn ʿAmr ibn ʿAṭāʾ through a man from Abū Ḥumayd, and that Muḥammad ibn ʿAmr ibn ʿAṭāʾ also narrated this ḥadīth via ʿAbbās ibn Sahl al-Sāʿidī from his father—yet this division does not appear in the latter narration.

L7067 Ali said: This is the objection of one who lacks piety toward Allah, for ʿAṭṭāf ibn Khālid is deemed unreliable – it is impermissible to narrate from him without disclosing his weakness. Therefore, his report may not be invoked in opposition to the narration transmitted by al-Layth (from Yazīd ibn Abī Ḥabīb, from Muḥammad ibn ʿAmr, from ʿAṭāʾ) that ʿAṭāʾ witnessed the incident.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: هَذَا اعْتِرَاضُ مَنْ لَا يَتَّقِي اللَّهَ، لِأَنَّ عَطَّافَ بْنَ خَالِدٍ سَاقِطٌ لَا تَحِلُّ الرِّوَايَةُ عَنْهُ إِلَّا عَلَى بَيَانِ ضَعْفِهِ، فَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُحْتَجَّ بِهِ عَلَى رِوَايَةِ اللَّيْثِ عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ أَبِي حَبِيبٍ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو عَنْ عَطَاءٍ أَنَّهُ شَهِدَ الْأَمْرَ.

L7068 As for the narration of Muḥammad ibn ʿAmr on the authority of ʿAbbās ibn Sahl, this is a mistake by the one who said that.

وَأَمَّا رِوَايَةُ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو عَنْ عَبَّاسِ بْنِ سَهْلٍ فَهَذَا خَطَأٌ مِمَّنْ قَالَ ذَلِكَ.

L7069 ʿĪsā ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Mālik narrated it from ʿAbbās ibn Sahl—or possibly ʿAyyāsh, with this uncertainty explicitly mentioned.

إِنَّمَا رَوَاهُ عِيسَى بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ عَنْ عَبَّاسِ بْنِ سَهْلٍ، أَوْ عَيَّاشٌ - هَكَذَا بِالشَّكِّ.

L7070 And it was also narrated by Fulayḥ ibn Sulaymān from ʿAbbās ibn Sahl—and these two narrations as well, despite their flaws, conform to the two narrations of Abī Ḥumayd.

وَرَوَاهُ أَيْضًا فُلَيْحُ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ عَنْ عَبَّاسِ بْنِ سَهْلٍ -: وَهَاتَانِ الرِّوَايَتَانِ أَيْضًا - عَلَى عِلَّاتِهِمَا - مُوَافِقَتَانِ لِرِوَايَتَيْ أَبِي حُمَيْدٍ.

L7071 Some of those who held this opinion said: Certain narrators transmitted the hadith of Muḥammad ibn ʿAmr ibn ʿAṭāʾ from Abū Ḥumayd, in which he mentioned that Abū Qatādah attended the gathering—and Abū Qatādah was killed alongside ʿAlī, while Muḥammad ibn ʿAmr did not live to meet him.

وَقَالَ بَعْضُ الْقَائِلِينَ: إِنَّ بَعْضَ الرُّوَاةِ رَوَى حَدِيثَ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ عَطَاءٍ عَنْ أَبِي حُمَيْدٍ فَذَكَرَ فِيهِ: أَنَّ أَبَا قَتَادَةَ شَهِدَ الْمَجْلِسَ وَأَبُو قَتَادَةَ قُتِلَ مَعَ عَلِيٍّ، وَلَمْ يُدْرِكْهُ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَمْرٍو.

L7072 ʿAlī said: As for what is reported from Abū Qatādah—that he was killed for supporting ʿAlī based on narrations circulated among the Sāmiriyyīn and Rāfiḍah—this is unfounded. Such baseless claims cannot discredit the narrations of reliable transmitters.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَالَّذِي ذُكِرَ عَنْ أَبِي قَتَادَةَ أَنَّهُ قُتِلَ مَعَ عَلِيٍّ مِنْ أَحَادِيثِ السَّمُرِيِّينَ وَالرَّوَافِضِ، وَلَا يَصِحُّ ذَلِكَ، وَلَا يُعْتَرَضُ بِمِثْلِ هَذَا عَلَى رِوَايَةِ الثِّقَاتِ.

L7073–7074 Moreover, it was only ʻAbd al-Ḥamīd ibn Jaʻfar who mentioned Abū Qatādah, and he may have erred in this attribution, thereby invalidating the argument they contentiously raised. And success comes solely from Allah, the Most High.

وَأَيْضًا: فَإِنَّمَا ذَكَرَ أَبَا قَتَادَةَ: عَبْدُ الْحَمِيدِ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ، وَلَعَلَّهُ وَهِمَ فِيهِ، فَبَطَلَ مَا شَغَبُوا بِهِ، وَبِاللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ

قُلْنَا: هَذَا لَا حُجَّةَ فِيهِ لِوَجْهَيْنِ -: أَحَدُهُمَا: أَنَّهُ لَيْسَ فِي حَدِيثِ أَنَسٍ: أَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - كَانَ يَضَعُ رُكْبَتَيْهِ قَبْلَ يَدَيْهِ، وَإِنَّمَا فِيهِ: سَبْقُ الرُّكْبَتَيْنِ الْيَدَيْنِ فَقَطْ، وَقَدْ يُمْكِنُ أَنْ يَكُونَ هَذَا السَّبْقُ فِي حَرَكَتِهِمَا لَا فِي وَضْعِهِمَا، فَيُتَّفَقُ الْخَبَرَانِ وَالثَّانِي: أَنَّهُ لَوْ كَانَ فِيهِ بَيَانُ وَضْعِ الرُّكْبَتَيْنِ قَبْلَ الْيَدَيْنِ، لَكَانَ ذَلِكَ مُوَافِقًا لِمَعْهُودِ الْأَصْلِ فِي إبَاحَةِ كُلِّ ذَلِكَ، وَلَكَانَ خَبَرُ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ وَارِدًا بِشَرْعٍ زَائِدٍ رَافِعٍ لِلْإِبَاحَةِ السَّالِفَةِ بِلَا شَكٍّ، نَاهِيَةٍ عَنْهَا بِيَقِينٍ، وَلَا يَحِلُّ تَرْكُ الْيَقِينِ لِظَنٍّ كَاذِبٍ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ؟ وَرُكْبَتَا الْبَعِيرِ: هِيَ فِي ذِرَاعَيْهِ

L7078–7079 We said: This contains no proof for two reasons. First, the narration of Anas does not state that the Prophet (peace be upon him) placed his knees before his hands. It merely mentions the knees preceding the hands, and this precedence could relate to their movement rather than their placement, thereby the two reports are reconciled. Second, even if it had clarified placing the knees before the hands, this would conform to the established principle of universal permissibility governing all such acts. The narration of Abu Hurayrah would then introduce a supplementary ruling that revokes the prior permissibility without doubt, prohibiting it with certainty. It is impermissible to abandon certainty for a false assumption—and success is from Allah, the Exalted. As for the camel's knees, they are in its forelegs.

457 - Legal Question:

L7081

We recommend for every worshiper—whether an imam, one being led in prayer, or praying alone, in obligatory or supererogatory prayer, male or female—to perform only two acts of taslīm: one to the right and the other to the left, stating in both: “Peace be upon you and God’s mercy. Peace be upon you and God’s mercy.” None of these should be intended as greetings to any person—neither to those being led in prayer, nor to those on the right, nor as a response to the imam, nor to those on the left. Rather, the first taslīm—which is the obligatory act—is solely intended to conclude the prayer. The second taslīm is an excellent sunnah; omitting it is not sinful. As for the obligation of the first taslīm, we have previously addressed it, rendering repetition unnecessary. Regarding the second taslīm: ‘Abdullāh ibn Rabīʿ al-Tamīmī narrated to us, saying: Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah al-Marwānī narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated to us, Muḥammad ibn al-Muthannā and Isḥāq ibn Ibrāhīm—who is Ibn Rāhwayh—narrated to us. Ishaq said: Narrated to us by Abu Nu’aym, al-Fadl ibn Dukayn, and Yahya ibn Adam. Ibn al-Muthanna narrated to us Ibn Mu’adh al-’Anbari. Al-Fadl, Yahya, and Mu’adh narrated to us from Zuhayr—who is Abu Mu’awiyah—from Abu Ishaq al-Sabi’i, from ’Abd al-Rahman ibn al-Aswad, from al-Aswad and ’Alqamah, from ’Abdullah ibn Mas’ud, who said: “I saw the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—saying the takbīr at every lowering, raising, standing, and sitting. He would turn to his right and left, saying the salutation twice: ’Peace be upon you and the mercy of Allah, peace be upon you and the mercy of Allah,’ until the whiteness of his cheek was visible. I saw Abu Bakr and ’Umar performing the same.”

Through the narration of Abū 'Abd al-Raḥmān al-Sulamī: Ibn Mas'ūd would pronounce two salāms from the prayer. 'Alī ibn Aḥmad stated: Abū Bakr, 'Umar, 'Alī, 'Ammār, and Ibn Mas'ūd were among the foremost Muhājireen. This practice was followed by Abū 'Ubaydah ibn 'Abd Allāh, Khaythama, al-Aswad, 'Alqama, 'Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Abī Laylā, and those Companions they encountered.

L7094 Malik said: The Imam and the individual praying alone each utter one taslim, whereas a follower with no one to his left utters two *taslim*s, one of which is a response to the Imam.

وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: يُسَلِّمُ الْإِمَامُ وَالْفَذُّ تَسْلِيمَةً وَاحِدَةً، وَيُسَلِّمُ الْمَأْمُومُ الَّذِي لَيْسَ عَلَى يَسَارِهِ أَحَدٌ تَسْلِيمَتَيْنِ، إِحْدَاهُمَا رَدٌّ عَلَى الْإِمَامِ

L7095–7099 The worshipper to the left of another offers three salams - is the third a response to the one on his left? Ali (may Allah be pleased with him) said: As for a single salutation, no authentic narration is reported from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) regarding it, for the narrations concerning... This is only via the chain of Muḥammad ibn al-Mufarrij from Muḥammad ibn Yūnus—both being unknown narrators or the chain being interrupted—or via al-Ḥasan's chain, or via Zuhayr ibn Muḥammad (who is weak), or via Ibn Lahīʿah (who is rejected). What is reliably established from Saʿd is two instances of taslīm, as we mentioned. Thus, this constitutes an addition by a credible narrator. Even if authentic, one who narrated two taslīms would have added a legal ruling and knowledge beyond those who narrated only one. However, an addition by a credible narrator is impermissible. Leaving it—and is that not an increase of good? We did not affirm the obligation of both instances of Taslīm as a compulsory obligation, as Al-Ḥasan ibn Ḥayy stated, because the second Taslīm is merely an action of Allah's Messenger—

وَيُسَلِّمُ الْمَأْمُومُ الَّذِي عَلَى يَسَارِهِ غَيْرُهُ ثَلَاثَ تَسْلِيمَاتٍ، الثَّالِثَةُ رَدٌّ عَلَى الَّذِي عَنْ يَسَارِهِ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: أَمَّا تَسْلِيمَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ فَلَا يَصِحُّ فِيهَا شَيْءٌ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لِأَنَّ الْأَخْبَارَ فِي ذَلِكَ إِنَّمَا هِيَ مِنْ طَرِيقِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْمُفَرِّجِ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ يُونُسَ وَكِلَاهُمَا مَجْهُولٌ أَوْ مُرْسَلٌ مِنْ طَرِيقِ الْحَسَنِ أَوْ مِنْ طَرِيقِ زُهَيْرِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَهُوَ ضَعِيفٌ أَوْ مِنْ طَرِيقِ ابْنِ لَهِيعَةَ، وَهُوَ سَاقِطٌ وَالثَّابِتُ عَنْ سَعْدٍ تَسْلِيمَتَانِ كَمَا ذَكَرْنَا، فَهِيَ زِيَادَةُ عَدْلٍ، ثُمَّ لَوْ صَحَّتْ لَكَانَ مَنْ رَوَى تَسْلِيمَتَيْنِ قَدْ زَادَ حُكْمًا وَعِلْمًا عَلَى مَنْ لَمْ يَرْوِ إِلَّا وَاحِدَةً، وَزِيَادَةُ الْعَدْلِ لَا يَجُوزُ تَرْكُهَا، وَهِيَ زِيَادَةُ خَيْرٍ؟ وَإِنَّمَا لَمْ نَقُلْ بِوُجُوبِ التَّسْلِيمَتَيْنِ جَمِيعًا فَرْضًا كَمَا قَالَ الْحَسَنُ بْنُ حَيٍّ: فَلِأَنَّ الثَّانِيَةَ إِنَّمَا هِيَ فِعْلُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ

peace and blessings be upon him—not a command from him—peace and blessings be upon him. For only his commands are obligatory, not his actions? As for Mālik's distinction between the Taslīm of the follower, the imam, and the solitary worshipper (munfarid)—this is an assertion without proof: neither from the Qur'an, nor from any sound or weak Hadith, nor consensus, nor a Companion's opinion, nor analogy? We maintain that the Taslīm constitutes solely an exit from the prayer; it cannot be considered either initiating a greeting or responding to one, based on two proofs: The first is what is authentically reported from Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—through Ibn Masʿūd: "Allah has established in His command that you shall not speak during prayer."

عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَلَيْسَتْ أَمْرًا مِنْهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -، وَإِنَّمَا يَجِبُ أَمْرُهُ لَا فِعْلُهُ؟ وَتَفْرِيقُ مَالِكٍ بَيْنَ سَلَامِ الْمَأْمُومِ وَالْإِمَامِ وَالْمُنْفَرِدِ -: قَوْلٌ لَا بُرْهَانَ لَهُ عَلَيْهِ، لَا مِنْ قُرْآنٍ وَلَا مِنْ سُنَّةٍ صَحِيحَةٍ وَلَا سَقِيمَةٍ وَلَا إجْمَاعٍ وَلَا قَوْلِ لِصَاحِبٍ وَلَا قِيَاسٍ؟ وَإِنَّمَا قُلْنَا: إنَّ التَّسْلِيمَ خُرُوجٌ عَنْ الصَّلَاةِ فَقَطْ، لَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يَكُونَ ابْتِدَاءَ سَلَامٍ وَلَا رَدًّا، لِبُرْهَانَيْنِ -: أَحَدُهُمَا: الثَّابِتُ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِنْ طَرِيقِ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ «أَنَّ اللَّهَ أَحْدَثَ مِنْ أَمْرِهِ أَنْ لَا تَكَلَّمُوا فِي الصَّلَاةِ»

L7100 And that he—peace be upon him—said: "No part of people's speech is valid within this prayer," through Muʿāwiyah ibn al-Ḥakam's narration. The intended salām—whether initiating or responding—is considered speech directed at others. This [ruling] is abrogated and impermissible; rather, does it invalidate the prayer if it occurs? Second: they are in consensus with us that a person praying alone says "Peace be upon you" though no human is present to receive his greeting. Similarly, when an Imam leads only one follower, he utters "Peace be upon you" using the plural form meant for a congregation.

وَأَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - قَالَ: «إنَّ هَذِهِ الصَّلَاةَ لَا يَصْلُحُ فِيهَا شَيْءٌ مِنْ كَلَامِ النَّاسِ» مِنْ طَرِيقِ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنِ الْحَكَمِ وَالتَّسْلِيمُ الْمَقْصُودُ بِهِ الِابْتِدَاءُ أَوْ الرَّدُّ: كَلَامٌ مَعَ النَّاسِ، وَهَذَا مَنْسُوخٌ لَا يَحِلُّ، بَلْ تَبْطُلُ بِهِ الصَّلَاةُ إنْ وَقَعَ؟ وَالثَّانِي: أَنَّهُمْ مُجْمِعُونَ مَعَنَا عَلَى أَنَّ الْفَذَّ يَقُولُ " السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ، وَلَيْسَ بِحَضْرَتِهِ إنْسَانٌ يُسَلِّمُ عَلَيْهِ، وَكَذَلِكَ الْإِمَامُ لَا يَكُونُ مَعَهُ إلَّا الْوَاحِدُ، فَإِنَّهُ يَقُولُ " السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ " بِخِطَابِ الْجَمَاعَةِ

L7101 Thus, it is correct that initiating the greeting of peace toward a person is invalid, nor responding to it? If someone mentions what we transmitted in Muslim's Ṣaḥīḥ through the chain of Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shaybah and Abū Kurayb – they said: Abū Muʿāwiyah narrated to us from al-Aʿmash, from al-Musayyib ibn Rāfiʿ, from Tamīm ibn Ṭarafah, from Jābir ibn Samurah, who said: "Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him) came out to us and said: 'Why do I see you raising your hands like the tails of untamed horses? Remain calm during prayer.'"

فَصَحَّ أَنَّهُ لَيْسَ ابْتِدَاءَ سَلَامٍ عَلَى إنْسَانٍ وَلَا رَدًّا؟ فَإِنْ ذَكَرَ ذَاكِرٌ مَا رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ مُسْلِمٍ: ثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ، وَأَبُو كُرَيْبٌ قَالَا: ثنا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ عَنْ الْمُسَيَّبِ بْنِ رَافِعٍ عَنْ تَمِيمِ بْنِ طَرَفَةَ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ: «خَرَجَ عَلَيْنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَقَالَ: مَالِي أَرَاكُمْ رَافِعِي أَيْدِيكُمْ كَأَنَّهَا أَذْنَابُ خَيْلٍ شُمْسٍ؟ اُسْكُنُوا فِي الصَّلَاةِ» ؟

L7102–7103 And through him to Muslim: Abu Kurayb narrated to us: Ibn Abi Za'idah from Mis'ar, from Ubaydullah ibn al-Qibṭiyyah, from Jabir ibn Samurah who said: "When we prayed with the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—we would say, 'Peace be upon you and the mercy of Allah, peace

وَبِهِ إلَى مُسْلِمٍ: ثنا أَبُو كُرَيْبٌ ثنا ابْنُ أَبِي زَائِدَةَ عَنْ مِسْعَرٍ ثنا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ ابْنُ الْقِبْطِيَّةِ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ: «كُنَّا إذَا صَلَّيْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قُلْنَا: السَّلَامُ

be upon you and the mercy of Allah,' while gesturing with our hands to both sides. The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—then said: 'Why do you wave your hands as if they were the tails of skittish horses? It suffices for one of you to place his hand upon his thigh, then offer the greeting of peace to his brother from his right and left.'"[10]

L7104 Ali said: There is no valid argument in this for those who maintain the position of a single taslimah (salutation), for it contains two salutations as you observe. As for those who rely on this to claim that the salām (greeting) was originally part of the prayer from its initiation—being a greeting directed at those beside him—this undoubtedly existed but was later abrogated. The explicit text of the narration states that they would do that during prayer, then were commanded to maintain silence in it. This occurred when speech during prayer was permissible, but was subsequently abrogated. The text does not indicate that this act refers to the taslim (salutation) that marks the conclusion of the prayer. Thus, their reliance on it is invalid—and success is attained only through Allah, the Exalted.

L7105 Issue: We recommend that when the one praying completes the Tashahhud in both sittings, he send blessings upon the Messenger of Allah.

L7106–7108 458 - Issue: It is recommended that when one completes the Tashahhud in both sittings, they should invoke blessings upon the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him - by saying: "O Allah, send blessings upon Muhammad and upon the family of Muhammad, his wives, and his descendants, as You sent blessings upon Ibrahim and upon the family of Ibrahim. Truly, You are the Praiseworthy, the Glorious. And bestow blessings upon Muhammad and upon the family of Muhammad, his wives, and his descendants, as You bestowed blessings upon Ibrahim and upon the family of Ibrahim throughout all creation. Truly, You are the Praiseworthy, the Glorious."

He said: “The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) came to us in the gathering of Sa‘d ibn ‘Ubādah, where Bashīr ibn Sa‘d said to him: ’Allah has commanded us to invoke blessings upon you, so how should we invoke blessings upon you?’ The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) remained silent until we wished he had never asked. Then he said: ’Say: O Allah, send blessings upon Muhammad and the family of Muhammad as You sent blessings upon Ibrāhīm, and bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad as You blessed Ibrāhīm in all the worlds. Indeed, You are Praiseworthy and Glorious.’”

Narrated to us by ‘Abdullāh ibn Yūsuf, from Ahmad ibn Fatḥ, from ‘Abd al-Wahhāb ibn ‘Īsā, from Ahmad ibn Muḥammad, from Ahmad ibn ‘Alī, from Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj, from Isḥāq ibn Ibrāhīm (Ibn Rāhawayh), from Rawḥ, from Mālik ibn Anas, from ‘Abdullāh ibn Abī Bakr, from his father, from ‘Amr ibn Sulaym, from Abū Ḥumayd al-Sā‘idī: “They said: ’O Messenger of Allah, how should we invoke blessings upon you?’ He said: ’Say: O Allah, send blessings upon Muhammad and his wives and offspring as You sent blessings upon the family of Ibrāhīm, and bless Muhammad and his wives and offspring as You blessed the family of Ibrāhīm in all the worlds. أَبِي مَسْعُودٍ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ قَالَ: «أَتَانَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي مَجْلِسِ سَعْدِ بْنِ عُبَادَةَ، فَقَالَ لَهُ بَشِيرُ بْنُ سَعْدٍ: أَمَرَنَا اللَّهُ أَنْ نُصَلِّيَ عَلَيْكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، فَكَيْفَ نُصَلِّي عَلَيْكَ؟ فَسَكَتَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - حَتَّى تَمَنَّيْنَا أَنَّهُ لَمْ يَسْأَلْهُ، ثُمَّ قَالَ: قُولُوا: اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ، وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ فِي الْعَالَمِينَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ» ؟ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ ثنا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ هُوَ ابْنُ رَاهْوَيْهِ - ثنا رَوْحٌ عَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ أَنَسٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ سُلَيْمٍ أَنَا أَبُو حُمَيْدٍ السَّاعِدِيُّ " أَنَّهُمْ «قَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ كَيْفَ نُصَلِّي عَلَيْكَ؟ قَالَ: قُولُوا: اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى أَزْوَاجِهِ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى أَزْوَاجِهِ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ» ؟ وَبِهِ إِلَى مُسْلِمٍ: ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْمُثَنَّى ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ ثنا شُعْبَةُ عَنِ الْحَكَمِ بْنِ عُتَيْبَةَ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ ابْنَ أَبِي لَيْلَى هُوَ عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ - قَالَ: لَقِيَنِي كَعْبُ بْنُ عُجْرَةَ فَقَالَ: أَلَا أُهْدِي لَكَ هَدِيَّةً؟ «خَرَجَ عَلَيْنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَقُلْنَا: قَدْ عَرَفْنَا كَيْفَ نُسَلِّمُ عَلَيْكَ، فَكَيْفَ نُصَلِّي عَلَيْكَ؟ قَالَ: قُولُوا: اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ، اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ»

You are Praiseworthy and Glorious. O Allah, bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad as You blessed the family of Ibrāhīm. Indeed, You are Praiseworthy and Glorious.'"[11]

L7109 Ali said: The Prophet—peace be upon him—gathered us prior to articulating all his words, which are preserved in these hadiths.

L7110–7112 If the worshipper limits himself to some of what is mentioned in these narrations, it suffices him. If he does not do it at all, we consider it Disliked (makruh), and his prayer is complete. However, it is necessarily incumbent upon him to say what is in a report from these reports, even if once in his lifetime, due to the command of him—peace be upon him—that this be said.

L7113 Indeed, Allah and His angels send blessings upon the Prophet. O you who believe, invoke blessings upon him and salute him with a worthy salutation [Al-Ahzab: 56].[12]

L7114 And a person, if they perform what they are commanded once, has fulfilled their obligation, unless the command specifies repeating it in specific known quantities or at specific known times, in which case it becomes binding. Whoever asserts that repeating what one is commanded to do is obligatory—their claim is invalid, for this would impose a burden from that without limit. Were this obligatory, it would lead to nullifying all occupations, invalidating all other commands, and this constitutes the burden and distress from which Allah the Exalted has safeguarded us. We only dislike abandoning it because it is an immense virtue none turns away from it except one deprived. It is authentically reported from the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—that whoever invokes blessings upon him once, Allah blesses him tenfold. Al-Shāfiʿī said: Whoever fails to send blessings upon the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—in their prayer, their prayer is invalid. He argued that sending peace upon the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—is obligatory, and it is obligatory during the Tashahhud.

L7115 He said: It has been narrated that Abd al-Rahman ibn Bishr reported from Abu Mas'ud: "It was said to the Prophet (peace be upon him): 'We have been commanded to invoke blessings upon you and to greet you with peace. As for the greeting of peace, we have understood it, but how should we invoke blessings upon you?' Then he (peace be upon him) taught them" some of what has already been mentioned previously.

L7116 In some of what we have mentioned: that he (peace be upon him) said to them, "The salam is as you have been taught." They said, "Then is prayer an obligation where the salam [greeting] is given?" Ali said, "Had the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said, 'Prayer is where the salam is given,' their statement would have been valid. But since he did not say it, that is not the case, and it is impermissible to rule based on what he did not say. Thus, such a person would be prescribing for him (peace be upon him) what he did not say and legislating what Allah the Exalted has not authorized."

L7117–7119 Ali said: Indeed, it is incumbent upon whoever claims that fasting is obligatory during iʿtikāf because Allah the Exalted mentioned iʿtikāf alongside His mention of fasting - to make invoking blessings upon the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, in every... The prayer is an obligation, because Allah the Exalted and His Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him) both mentioned sending blessings upon him along with the taslīm (greeting of peace). If someone were to cite the hadith of Ibn Wahb from Abu Hani that Abu Ali al-Janbi narrated to him—that he heard Fadalah ibn Ubayd say: "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) heard a man supplicating in his prayer without glorifying Allah or sending blessings upon the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him). The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said to him: 'You have hastened, O you who are praying!' Then the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) taught them. He heard a man praying while glorifying Allah the Exalted, praising Him, and sending blessings upon the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him). The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said to him: 'Supplicate, and you will be answered; ask, and you will be granted.'" Ali said: "This does not establish the obligation of sending blessings upon him (peace and blessings be upon him) in the prayer. Had it been obligatory, he would not have said, 'You have hastened,' for one who hastens in their prayer does not invalidate it. Rather, he would have said: 'Repeat your prayer, for you have not prayed.' However, this narration only indicates the recommendation of sending blessings upon him (peace and blessings be upon him) in the prayer and elsewhere." If they were to cite the hadith of Ka'b ibn Ujrah, which states: "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was met by Gabriel, who said to him: 'Far removed is the one in whose presence you are mentioned yet he does not send blessings upon you.' The Prophet (peace be upon him) replied: 'Amen.'" Ali said: "This is an unsound narration, because its narrator, Abu Bakr ibn Abi Uways—who was strongly criticized—narrated it from Muhammad ibn Hilal, who is unknown, from Sa'd ibn Ishaq, whose name is inconsistently reported and whose reliability is not established."

L7120 If it were valid, it would contain an explicit text obligating the invocation of blessings upon the Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—whenever he is mentioned in prayer or otherwise, without specifying that this applies only after the Tashahhud in the prayer. And yet, some of them have cited what aligns with their opinion from Abu Humaid and Abu Usayd?

L7121–7122 Ali said: This is binding upon those who hold the view of imitating the Companion—not upon us. And with Allah, the Exalted, lies all success.

He said: "Yes." They asked him: "Before the rukūʿ or after it?" He said: "After the rukūʿ."

L7131 We said: Anas only reported that from the rulers of his time, not from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). For instance, when he was asked about certain matters of Hajj, he related the Prophet's practice (peace be upon him) but then added: "I act as your rulers act." This statement from Anas constitutes either taqiyyah or personal opinion on his part, and no one after the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) holds conclusive authority.

L7132–7134 We have been narrated from Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān: al-ʿAwwām ibn Ḥamzah narrated to us, saying: I asked Abū ʿUthmān al-Nahdī about the qunūt in the dawn prayer. He said: After the rukūʿ. So I said, "From whom?" He said, "From Abū Bakr, ʿUmar, and ʿUthmān."

L7137 From Ma’mar, from Ayyub, from Ibn Sirin: Ubayy ibn Ka’b performed the Qunut in Witr after bowing. It has also been narrated to us from Alqamah and Al-Aswad that Mu’awiyah used to perform the Qunut in prayer. It has also been narrated to us from Ibn Abbas: “Is the Qunut after bowing?” These are the leaders of guidance: Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman, Ali, Mu’awiyah, along with Ubayy and Ibn Abbas. A group advocated for the prohibition of Qunut, as narrated to us from Abu Malik Al-Ashja’i through his father, who said: “I prayed behind the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—and he did not perform the Qunut; behind Abu Bakr, and he did not perform it; behind Umar, and he did not perform it; behind Uthman, and he did not perform it; behind Ali, and he did not perform it. O my son, this is a _bidʿah_.”

L7138–7140 Narrated from Alqamah and al-Aswad, who both said: “Umar ibn al-Khattab led us in prayer for some time and did not perform the qunut.” Al-Aswad ibn Yazid reported: Ibn Mas’ud did not perform the qunut in the Fajr prayer. From Sufyan, from Mansur, from Ibrahim al-Nakha’i, from Abu al-Sha’tha’, who said: I asked Ibn Umar about qunut in Fajr. He replied, “I was unaware that anyone does it.” From Malik, from Nafi’: Ibn Umar did not perform qunut in Fajr. It was narrated to us that Ibn Abbas did not perform qunut. From Sufyan ibn Uyaynah, from Ibn Abi Najih, who said: I asked Salim ibn Abdullah ibn Umar, “Did Umar ibn al-Khattab perform qunut in the Fajr prayer?” He said, “No. It is merely something people innovated.” From Abd al-Razzaq, from Ma’mar, from al-Zuhri, who used to say, “From where did people adopt the qunut?” He marveled, “The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) performed qunut for a few days, then abandoned it.” Ali said:

وَعَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ، وَالْأَسْوَدِ قَالَا: صَلَّى بِنَا عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ زَمَانًا فَلَمْ يَقْنُتْ وَعَنْ الْأَسْوَدِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ قَالَ: كَانَ ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ لَا يَقْنُتُ فِي صَلَاةِ الْغَدَاةِ وَعَنْ سُفْيَانَ عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي الشَّعْثَاءِ قَالَ: سَأَلْت ابْنَ عُمَرَ عَنْ الْقُنُوتِ فِي الْفَجْرِ؟ فَقَالَ: مَا شَعَرْت أَنَّ أَحَدًا يَفْعَلُهُ؟ وَعَنْ مَالِكٍ عَنْ نَافِعٍ: أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ لَا يَقْنُتُ فِي الْفَجْرِ؟ وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: أَنَّهُ لَمْ يَقْنُتْ؟ وَعَنْ سُفْيَانَ بْنَ عُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ ابْنِ أَبِي نَجِيحٍ: قَالَ سَأَلْت سَالِمَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ: هَلْ كَانَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ يَقْنُتُ فِي الصُّبْحِ؟ قَالَ: لَا، إنَّمَا هُوَ شَيْءٌ أَحْدَثَهُ النَّاسُ؟ وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ

Yahya ibn Yahya al-Laythi and Baqi ibn Makhlad did not hold the view of qunut. The people of their two mosques have adhered to this practice in Cordoba up to the present day. Ali said: As for the narrations from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman, Ali, and Ibn Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them) stating they did not perform qunut, this provides no evidence for prohibiting qunut, for it is authentically established that they all performed it. All such reports are valid: they performed it and abandoned it. Thus both matters are permissible. Qunut is a remembrance of Allah Almighty. Performing it is commendable, and omitting it is permissible. It is not obligatory but a virtuous act. As for the statement of Abu Malik al-Ashja'i's father that it is an innovation—he had no knowledge of it. Those who recognize it hold stronger authority regarding it than those who do not. The decisive proof lies with those who possess knowledge, not those who lack it.

L7141 وَأَمَّا ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ فَلَمْ يَأْتِ عَنْهُ كُرْهُهُ، وَلَا أَنَّهُ نَهَى عَنْهُ، وَإِنَّمَا جَاءَ أَنَّهُ كَانَ لَا يَقْنُتُ فِي الْفَجْرِ فَقَطْ، وَهَذَا مُبَاحٌ، وَقَدْ قَنَتَ غَيْرُهُ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -

As for Ibn Masʿūd, there is no report from him indicating his dislike of it, nor that he prohibited it. Rather, what is reported is that he did not perform the qunūt specifically in the Fajr prayer, and this is permissible. Other Companions besides him performed the qunūt, may Allah be pleased with them.

L7142–7146 وَأَمَّا ابْنُ عُمَرَ فَلَمْ يَعْرِفْهُ كَمَا لَمْ يَعْرِفْ الْمَسْحَ، وَلَيْسَ ذَلِكَ بِقَادِحٍ فِي مَعْرِفَةِ مَنْ عَرَفَهُ؟ وَأَمَّا الزُّهْرِيُّ فَجَهِلَ الْقُنُوتَ وَرَآهُ مَنْسُوخًا، كَمَا صَحَّ عَنْهُ مِنْ تِلْكَ الطَّرِيقِ نَفْسِهَا: أَنَّ كَوْنَ زَكَاةِ الْبَقَرِ فِي كُلِّ ثَلَاثِينَ: تَبِيعٌ، وَفِي أَرْبَعِينَ: مُسِنَّةٌ - مَنْسُوخٌ، وَأَنَّ زَكَاتَهَا كَزَكَاةِ الْإِبِلِ، فَإِنْ كَانَ قَوْلُ الزُّهْرِيِّ فِي نَسْخِ الْقُنُوتِ حُجَّةً، فَهُوَ حُجَّةٌ فِي نَسْخِ زَكَاةِ الْبَقَرِ فِي ثَلَاثِينَ تَبِيعٌ، وَفِي أَرْبَعِينَ مُسِنَّةٌ، وَإِنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ هُنَالِكَ حُجَّةٌ فَلَيْسَ هُوَ هَهُنَا حُجَّةً؟ وَالْعَجَبُ مِنْ الْمَالِكِيِّينَ الْمُحْتَجِّينَ بِقَوْلِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ إِذَا وَافَقَ تَقْلِيدَهُمْ ثُمَّ سَهُلَ عَلَيْهِمْ هَهُنَا خِلَافَ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، وَخِلَافَ سَالِمٍ ابْنِهِ، وَخِلَافَ الزُّهْرِيِّ، وَهُمَا عَالِمَا أَهْلِ الْمَدِينَةِ وَالْعَجَبُ مِمَّنْ

As for Ibn 'Umar, he did not recognize it—just as he did not recognize wiping—so does that undermine the knowledge of those who recognized it? As for al-Zuhri, he was unaware of the qunut and considered it abrogated, as was authentically reported from him via that same chain: That the ruling of zakāh on cows being a one-year-old male calf (tabīʿ) for every thirty and a three-year-old cow (musinnah) for every forty is abrogated, and that their zakāh is like the zakāh of camels. If al-Zuhrī's statement regarding the abrogation of qunūt is deemed authoritative, then it is similarly authoritative for the abrogation of zakāh on cows at thirty being a tabīʿ and at forty a musinnah. If it is not authoritative there, is it not authoritative here? It is astonishing that the Mālikīs—who cite Ibn 'Umar's opinion when it aligns with their school—readily oppose Ibn 'Umar here, oppose his son Sālim, and oppose al-Zuhrī, both of whom were the scholars of Medina. It is equally astonishing that one argues against qunūt using Sālim's statement, "People introduced it," while accepting the validity of claims like "People equated two mudds of wheat to a ṣāʿ of barley in zakāh al-fiṭr"—all arbitrary judgments in religion based on falsehood. They argued: Had qunūt been a sunnah, it would not have been unknown to Ibn Masʿūd or Ibn ʿUmar. We countered: The practice of placing hands on the knees during bowing was unknown to Ibn Masʿūd, yet he adhered to tathbīq (spreading palms on knees) until his death. Similarly, wiping over leather socks was unknown to Ibn ʿUmar, yet they did not consider this a proof. Why then does the ignorance of qunūt by them become a proof? This is truly astonishing and a mockery of religion, especially since qunūt could remain obscure, being a silent act connected to standing after bowing—known only to those who inquired—not an obligation people must necessarily know. Moreover, Ibn ʿUmar did know it, as we will later mention, and Ibn Masʿūd did not reject it. Some argued: The proof for qunūt's abrogation is your narration via Maʿmar from al-Zuhrī from Sālim ibn ʿAbdullāh from his father: "He heard Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings upon him—say upon raising his head from the final rakʿah of Fajr: 'O Allah, curse so-and-so and so-and-so,' invoking curses against some hypocrites. Then Allah revealed: {Not for you is the decision—whether He pardons them or punishes them, for they are wrongdoers} [3:128]." Ali said: This serves as evidence for affirming qunut, because it contains no prohibition against it. Thus, this refutes the claim of those who say: "Ibn Umar was ignorant of qunut." It is probable that Ibn Umar only rejected qunut in the Fajr prayer before bowing – which is the disputed position – and the narrations from him align with this interpretation. This is the preferable view, to avoid his statement contradicting what is firmly established from Allah's Messenger – peace and blessings be upon him. This report in fact informs us of Allah's declaration that the command belongs to Him alone, not to His Messenger – peace and blessings be upon him – and that those cursed ones may either be granted repentance by Him the Exalted or, according to His prior knowledge, be destined to believe exclusively. Some scholars held that qunut is only performed during warfare? They argued using the narration we transmitted through Ibn al-Mujālid's chain from his father, from Ibrāhīm

يَحْتَجُّ فِي تَرْكِ الْقُنُوتِ بِقَوْلِ سَالِمٍ: أَحْدَثَهُ النَّاسُ، وَهُوَ يَرَى حُجَّةَ قَوْلِ الْقَائِلِ: فَعَدَلَ النَّاسُ مُدَّيْنِ مِنْ بُرٍّ بِصَاعٍ مِنْ شَعِيرٍ فِي زَكَاةِ الْفِطْرِ، وَهَذَا كُلُّهُ تَحَكُّمٌ فِي الدِّينِ بِالْبَاطِلِ وَقَالُوا: لَوْ كَانَ الْقُنُوتُ سُنَّةً مَا خَفِيَ عَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ وَلَا عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ؟ فَقُلْنَا: قَدْ خَفِيَ وَضْعُ الْأَيْدِي عَلَى الرُّكَبِ فِي الرُّكُوعِ عَلَى ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ، فَثَبَتَ عَلَى الْقَوْلِ بِالتَّطْبِيقِ إِلَى أَنْ مَاتَ، وَخَفِيَ عَلَى ابْنِ عُمَرَ الْمَسْحُ عَلَى الْخُفَّيْنِ، وَلَمْ يَرَوْا ذَلِكَ حُجَّةً، فَمَا بَالُ خَفَاءِ الْقُنُوتِ عَنْهُمَا صَارَ حُجَّةً؟ إِنَّ هَذَا لَعَجَبٌ وَتَلَاعُبٌ بِالدِّينِ، مَعَ أَنَّ الْقُنُوتَ مُمْكِنٌ أَنْ يَخْفَى، لِأَنَّهُ سُكُوتٌ مُتَّصِلٌ بِالْقِيَامِ مِنَ الرُّكُوعِ، لَا يَعْرِفُهُ إِلَّا مَنْ سَأَلَ عَنْهُ، وَلَيْسَ فَرْضًا فَيَعْلَمُهُ النَّاسُ وَلَا بُدَّ، فَكَيْفَ وَقَدْ عَرَفَهُ ابْنُ عُمَرَ كَمَا نَذْكُرُ بَعْدَ هَذَا، وَلَمْ يُنْكِرْهُ ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ؟ وَقَالَ بَعْضُ النَّاسِ: الدَّلِيلُ عَلَى نَسْخِ الْقُنُوتِ مَا رَوَيْتُمُوهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ مَعْمَرٍ عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ عَنْ أَبِيهِ «أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - حِينَ رَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ مِنْ صَلَاةِ الصُّبْحِ مِنَ الرَّكْعَةِ الْأَخِيرَةِ قَالَ: اللَّهُمَّ الْعَنْ فُلَانًا وَفُلَانًا، دَعَا عَلَى نَاسٍ مِنَ الْمُنَافِقِينَ فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ: {لَيْسَ لَكَ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ شَيْءٌ أَوْ يَتُوبَ عَلَيْهِمْ أَوْ يُعَذِّبَهُمْ فَإِنَّهُمْ ظَالِمُونَ} [آل عمران: ١٢٨] » قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: هَذَا حُجَّةٌ فِي إِثْبَاتِ الْقُنُوتِ، لِأَنَّهُ لَيْسَ فِيهِ نَهْيٌ عَنْهُ، فَهَذَا حُجَّةٌ فِي بُطْلَانِ قَوْلِ مَنْ قَالَ: إِنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ جَهِلَ الْقُنُوتَ، وَلَعَلَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ إِنَّمَا أَنْكَرَ الْقُنُوتَ فِي الْفَجْرِ قَبْلَ الرُّكُوعِ، فَهُوَ مَوْضِعُ إِنْكَارٍ، وَتَتَّفِقُ الرِّوَايَاتُ عَنْهُ، فَهُوَ أَوْلَى، لِئَلَّا يَجْعَلَ كَلَامَهُ خِلَافًا لِلثَّابِتِ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -، وَإِنَّمَا فِي هَذَا الْخَبَرِ إِخْبَارُ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى بِأَنَّ الْأَمْرَ لَهُ، لَا لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَأَنَّ أُولَئِكَ الْمَلْعُونِينَ لَعَلَّهُ تَعَالَى يَتُوبُ عَلَيْهِمْ، أَوْ فِي سَابِقِ عِلْمِهِ: أَنَّهُمْ سَيُؤْمِنُونَ فَقَطْ؟ وَذَهَبَ قَوْمٌ إِلَى أَنَّ الْقُنُوتَ إِنَّمَا يَكُونُ فِي حَالِ

al-Nakhaʿī, from ʿAlqamah and al-Aswad, who both said: “Allah’s Messenger – peace and blessings be upon him – never performed qunut in any prayer except when at war, whereupon he would perform it in all prayers. Neither Abū Bakr, ʿUmar, nor ʿUthmān performed qunut until their deaths. ʿAlī did not perform qunut until he fought the people of Syria, after which he performed it in all prayers. Muʿāwiyah likewise performed qunut, each of them [ʿAlī and Muʿāwiyah] invoking curses against the other.” Ali responded: This contains no valid evidence, as the narration from Allah’s Messenger – peace and blessings be upon him – is mursal (disconnected), and no proof can be established through a mursal report. Moreover, the assertion that Abū Bakr, ʿUmar, and ʿUthmān did not perform qunut is contradicted by more reliable chains confirming they did perform it.[14]

L7147 The scholar who affirms holds greater authority than the denier who lacks knowledge.

L7148 Or do we say: Both are correct, and both are permissible? In this [report]—if authenticated by a chain—lies the confirmation of qunoot from the Prophet (peace be upon him) during warfare in all prayers? Similarly reported from Ali and Muawiyah, with no prohibition mentioned outside wartime circumstances. Thus, it would be proof for us—if established—though we have no need for it due to the established [evidence] we mentioned earlier? And all praise is due to Allah, the Most High?

L7149–7150 As for Abū Ḥanīfah and those who follow his school, they said: Qunūt is not prescribed in any of the prayers whatsoever except in Witr—wherein Qunūt is performed before bowing, applying throughout the entire year. Whoever omits Qunūt in it, let them perform two prostrations of forgetfulness? As for Mālik and al-Shāfiʿī, they said: Qunūt is not prescribed in any of the obligatory prayers whatsoever except specifically in the dawn prayer. Mālik said: “Before bowing.”

L7151 Al-Shafi’i said: After the rukūʿ.

L7152 Ash-Shāfiʿī said: If a calamity befalls the Muslims, he should perform qunūt in all prayers, and qunūt is not performed in Witr except exclusively on the night of the middle of Ramadan after bowing. ʿAlī said: As for Abū Ḥanīfa's statement—we did not find it reported from any of the Companions, namely the prohibition of qunūt in any prayers except Witr, wherein qunūt is performed—whoever omits it must perform sujūd al-sahw.

وَكَذَلِكَ قَوْلُ مَالِكٍ فِي تَخْصِيصِهِ الصُّبْحَ خَاصَّةً بِالْقُنُوتِ، مَا وَجَدْنَاهُ عَنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ، وَلَا عَنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ التَّابِعِينَ؟ وَكَذَلِكَ تَفْرِيقُ الشَّافِعِيِّ بَيْنَ الْقُنُوتِ فِي الصُّبْحِ وَبَيْنَ الْقُنُوتِ فِي سَائِرِ الصَّلَوَاتِ؟ وَهَذَا مِمَّا خَالَفُوا فِيهِ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ رُوِيَ فِي هَذَا الْبَابِ عَنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -، مَعَ تَشْنِيعِهِمْ عَلَى مَنْ خَالَفَ بَعْضَ الرِّوَايَةِ عَنْ صَاحِبٍ لِسُنَّةٍ صَحَّتْ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَقَوْلُنَا هُوَ قَوْلُ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ؟ وَرُوِيَ عَنْ ابْنِ أَبِي لَيْلَى: مَا كُنْت لِأُصَلِّيَ خَلْفَ مَنْ لَا يَقْنُتُ، وَأَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقْنُتُ فِي صَلَاةِ الصُّبْحِ قَبْلَ الرُّكُوعِ

L7153 Similarly, Malik's specification of Qunut exclusively for Fajr—have we found this reported from any Companion—may Allah be pleased with them—or any Follower? Likewise, Al-Shafiʿi's distinction between Qunut in Fajr and Qunut in other prayers—is this not among matters wherein they opposed every narration transmitted in this topic from the Companions, despite their censure of those who contradict some reports from a companion associated with a Sunnah authentically established from Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him? Ali said: "Our view is the view of Sufyan al-Thawri." It is reported from Ibn Abi Layla: "I would not pray behind someone who does not perform Qunut"—and that he performed Qunut in Fajr prayer before bowing.

وَعَنْ اللَّيْثِ كَرَاهَةُ الْقُنُوتِ جُمْلَةً؟ وَرُوِيَ عَنْهُ أَيْضًا: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقْنُتُ فِي صَلَاةِ الصُّبْحِ؟ وَعَنْ أَشْهَبَ: تَرْكُ الْقُنُوتِ جُمْلَةً؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَأَمَّا مَنْ رَأَى الْقُنُوتَ قَبْلَ الرُّكُوعِ فَإِنَّهُمْ ذَكَرُوا أَثَرًا رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ يَزِيدَ بْنِ زُرَيْعٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي عَرُوبَةَ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ عَزْرَةَ عَنْ ابْنِ أَبْزَى؟

L7154 From al-Layth: The discouragement of qunut altogether? It is also narrated from him: that he used to perform qunut in the dawn prayer? From Ashhab: The complete abandonment of qunut? Ali said: As for those who hold that the qunut is before bowing, they mentioned a narration we transmitted via the path of Yazīd ibn Zuraiʿ from Saʿīd ibn Abī ʿArūbah from Qatādah from ʿAzrah from Ibn Abzāʾ?

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَعَزْرَةُ لَيْسَ بِالْقَوِيِّ

L7155–7156 Ali said: And ʿUzrah is not strong.

وَبِأَثَرٍ آخَرَ فِي الْوِتْرِ مِنْ حَدِيثِ حَفْصِ بْنِ غِيَاثٍ، قِيلَ: إنَّهُ أَخْطَأَ فِيهِ، وَإِنَّمَا الثَّابِتُ بَعْدَ الرُّكُوعِ كَمَا ذَكَرْنَا؟ وَمَنْ قَنَتَ قَبْلَ الرُّكُوعِ فَلَمْ يَأْتِ بِالْمُخْتَارِ، وَلَمْ تَبْطُلْ صَلَاتُهُ؛

L7157 And another narration concerning the Witr prayer from the hadith of Hafs ibn Ghiyath: it is said that he erred in it, and the established practice is after the bowing as we mentioned. Whoever performs the Qunoot before bowing has not followed the preferred practice, but his prayer is not invalidated because it is a remembrance of Allah, the Exalted. As for the Qunoot in the Witr prayer: Abdullah ibn Rabi‘ narrated to us, saying: ‘Umar ibn ‘Abd al-Malik narrated to us, Muhammad ibn Bakr narrated to us, Abu Dawud narrated to us, Qutaybah ibn Sa‘id and Ahmad ibn Jawwas al-Hanafi narrated to us, both of whom said: Abu al-Ahwas narrated to us from Abu Ishaq al-Sabi‘i from Burayd ibn Abi Maryam from Abu al-Hawra’—he is Rabi‘ah ibn Shayban al-Sa‘di—who said: Al-Hasan ibn ‘Ali said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) taught me words to say in the Witr prayer. Ibn Jawwas in his narration said: In the Qunoot of the Witr prayer. Then they both concurred: “O Allah, guide me among those You have guided, grant me well-being among those You have granted well-being, take me into Your charge among those You have taken into Your charge, bless me in what You have given me, and protect me from the evil of what You have decreed. Verily, You decree and none can decree over You. He whom You support is never humiliated. Blessed are You, our Lord, and Exalted are You.”[15]

L7158 Ali said: Qunut is the remembrance of Allah, the Exalted, and supplication; therefore, we cherish it.

L7159 And this athar, even if not considered authoritative in its own right, we have found no other narration on this matter from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him. Ahmad ibn Hanbal—may Allah have mercy on him—said: “A weak ḥadīth is more preferable to us than opinion.” ʿAlī said: “And is this our position?” And qunūt with wording other than this has been reported from ʿUmar—may Allah be pleased with him—and is the musnad more preferable to us? If it is objected: “Would ʿUmar have stated it unless he had received it from the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—?”

L7160–7161 We said to them: The narration decisively established in its chain as being from the Prophet - peace and blessings be upon him - holds greater authority than what is attributed to him - peace and blessings be upon him - based on the conjecture which Allah the Exalted and His Messenger - peace and blessings be upon him - have forbidden. If you say: “This is not conjecture,” then incorporate into your narration an explicit chain by stating: “From ʻUmar from the Prophet - peace and blessings be upon him -.” If you do so, you lie; if you refuse, you confirm that this constitutes an assertion from yourselves against the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings be upon him - founded on the conjecture about which Allah the Exalted said: “Indeed, conjecture avails nothing against the truth” (Quran 10:36). As for specifying names in supplication, we have mentioned that the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings be upon him - did this, as narrated: ʻAbdullāh ibn Yūsuf narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ narrated to us, ʻAbd al-Wahhāb ibn ʻĪsā narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn ʻAlī narrated to us, Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj narrated to us, Abū al-Ṭāhir and Ḥarmalah ibn Yaḥyā both said: Ibn Wahb informed us, Yūnus ibn Yazīd informed me from Ibn Shihāb, who informed me that Saʻīd ibn al-Musayyib and Abū Salamah ibn ʻAbd al-Raḥmān heard Abū Hurayrah say: “When the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings be upon him - finished reciting in the dawn prayer, pronounced the Takbīr while raising his head, and said: ʻAllah hears those who praise Him; our Lord, to You is all praise,’ he would then supplicate while standing: ʻO Allah, rescue al-Walīd ibn al-Walīd, Salamah ibn Hishām, ʻAyyāsh ibn Abī Rabīʻah, and the oppressed among the believers. O Allah, intensify Your punishment against Muḍar, and inflict upon them years of famine like those of Yūsuf. O Allah, curse Liḥyān, Riʻl, Dhakwān, and ʻUṣayyah, who disobeyed Allah and His Messenger.’”[16]

L7162 We later learned that he abandoned that practice when Allah, the Exalted, revealed: {You have no part in the matter—whether He accepts their repentance or punishes them, for they are certainly wrongdoers} [Āl ʻImrān: 128].[17]

L7163–7165 In Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim: Muḥammad ibn Muḥammad ibn Mihrān al-Rāzī narrated to us, from al-Walīd ibn Muslim, from al-Awzāʻī, from Yaḥyā ibn Abī Kathīr, from Abū Salama ibn ʻAbd al-Raḥmān that Abū Hurayrah reported to them: “The Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—performed qunūt after the rakʻah in prayer for a month. When he said, ’Allah hears those O Allah, rescue the downtrodden among the believers. O Allah, intensify Your scourge upon Muḍar. O Allah, inflict upon them years like the years of Joseph?'" Abū Hurayrah said: "Then I saw the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—cease this supplication afterward. I said: 'I observe the Messenger...'" "Has Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—ceased to supplicate?" It was said, "And what do you make of their arrival?"

L7166 Ali said: "They abandoned supplication only because they arrived." He further said: "People differed regarding this matter. It was narrated from Ibn Masʿūd that he said: 'Carry your needs to the obligatory prayer.' From ʿAmr ibn Dīnār and other Tābiʿūn (successors) among the people of Makkah: 'No prayer in which I supplicate for my need is dearer to me than the obligatory prayer.' From al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī: 'Supplicate in the obligatory prayer for whatever you wish.' From ʿUrwah ibn al-Zubayr: He used to say in his prostration: 'O Allah, forgive al-Zubayr ibn al-ʿAwwām and Asmāʾ bint Abī Bakr.' This opinion is also held by Ibn Jurayj, al-Shāfiʿī, Mālik, Dāwūd, and others. It has been reported from ʿAṭāʾ, Ṭāwūs, and Mujāhid that one should not supplicate in the obligatory prayer with anything at all. From ʿAṭāʾ: 'Whoever supplicates in his prayer for a person by explicitly naming him, his prayer is invalidated.'"

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: إنَّمَا تَرَكَ الدُّعَاءَ؛ لِأَنَّهُمْ قَدِمُوا قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَاخْتَلَفَ النَّاسُ فِي هَذَا، فَرُوِيَ عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: احْمِلُوا حَوَائِجَكُمْ عَلَى الْمَكْتُوبَةِ؟ وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ وَغَيْرِهِ مِنْ تَابِعِي أَهْلِ مَكَّةَ مَا مِنْ صَلَاةٍ أَدْعُو فِيهَا بِحَاجَتِي أَحَبُّ إلَيَّ مِنْ الْمَكْتُوبَةِ؟ وَعَنْ الْحَسَنِ الْبَصْرِيِّ: اُدْعُ فِي الْفَرِيضَةِ بِمَا شِئْت؟ وَعَنْ عُرْوَةَ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقُولُ: فِي سُجُودِهِ: اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِلزُّبَيْرِ بْنِ الْعَوَّامِ، وَأَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ؟ وَبِهِ يَقُولُ ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ، وَالشَّافِعِيُّ، وَمَالِكٌ، وَدَاوُد، وَغَيْرُهُمْ وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ عَطَاءٍ، وَطَاوُسٍ، وَمُجَاهِدٍ: أَنْ لَا يُدْعَى فِي الصَّلَاةِ الْمَكْتُوبَةِ بِشَيْءٍ أَصْلًا وَعَنْ عَطَاءٍ: مَنْ دَعَا فِي صَلَاتِهِ لِإِنْسَانٍ سَمَاهُ بِاسْمِهِ بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ

L7167–7169 And from Ibn Sīrīn: One should not supplicate in prayer except with what is in the Qur'ān. Abū Ḥanīfah held that if someone mentions a person by name in their prayer while supplicating for them, their prayer becomes invalid. He further extended this strictness by asserting: "If someone sneezes during prayer and says 'Praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds' while moving their tongue to utter it, their prayer is invalidated. Should supplication in prayer be limited only to phrases resembling Qur'ānic wording?"

Alī responded: "This contradicts the established Sunnah of Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—who explicitly supplicated for certain named groups and against others by name. He never prohibited such practice, and whoever claims otherwise has uttered falsehood."

وَعَنْ ابْنِ سِيرِينَ: لَا يُدْعَى فِي الصَّلَاةِ إلَّا بِمَا فِي الْقُرْآنِ؟ وَذَهَبَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ إلَى أَنَّ مَنْ سَمَّى فِي صَلَاتِهِ إنْسَانًا يَدْعُو لَهُ بِاسْمِهِ بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ، ثُمَّ زَادَ غُلُوًّا فَقَالَ: مَنْ عَطَسَ فِي صَلَاتِهِ فَقَالَ " الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ " وَحَرَّكَ بِهِ لِسَانَهُ بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ، وَلَا يُدْعَى فِي الصَّلَاةِ إلَّا بِمَا يُشْبِهُ مَا فِي الْقُرْآنِ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا خِلَافٌ لِمَا فِي سُنَّةِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إذْ دَعَا لِقَوْمٍ سَمَاهُمْ وَعَلَى قَوْمٍ سَمَاهُمْ، وَمَا نَهَى قَطُّ عَنْ ذَلِكَ، وَمَنْ ادَّعَى ذَلِكَ فَقَدْ كَذَبَ؟ وَاحْتَجَّ فِي ذَلِكَ قَوْمٌ بِقَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - «إنَّ

Some proponents argued using the Prophet's statement—peace and blessings be upon him: "Indeed, this prayer cannot accommodate any mundane human speech." Alī countered: "This provides no proof for their view, as the prohibition applies solely to a worshipper engaging in conversational speech with others." As for supplication, it is speech with Allah the Exalted - otherwise, recitation is the speech of people. Did the Prophet - peace be upon him - not authentically prohibit the worshiper from reciting the Quran while prostrating, and command supplication during prostration? Thus, the invalidity of Abu Hanifah's opinion has been confirmed, and it is established that supplicating during prostration with Quranic verses is impermissible if intended as recitation. The Prophet - peace be upon him - authentically said after the tashahhud: "Then let each of you choose whichever supplication he finds most pleasing and supplicate with it." This is one of the matters in which Abu Hanifah opposed Ibn Mas'ud, and we know of no opponent from the Companions - may Allah be pleased with them - to Ibn Mas'ud.[18]

A juristic issue: whether the worshiper points with his finger when seated for the Tashahhud and does not move it.

Issue 460: It is recommended that the worshiper point with his finger during the seated position of the Tashahhud and not move it.

His right hand is on his right thigh, and he places his left palm on his left thigh. Abdullah ibn Rabee'ah narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Ishaq ibn as-Sulaym narrated to us from Ibn al-A'rabi, from Abu Dawud, from al-Qa'nabi, from Malik, from Muslim ibn Abi Maryam, from Ali ibn Abdur-Rahman al-Ma'afiri, who said: Abdullah ibn Umar saw me fiddling with pebbles during prayer. When he concluded the prayer, he forbade me and said: "Do as the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) used to do. When he sat in prayer, he placed his right palm on his right thigh, closed all his fingers, pointed with his index finger, and placed his left palm on his left thigh."[19]

L7173 It is a juristic principle for every worshiper that their initiation of the takbīr (saying "Allāhu Akbar") must begin simultaneously with their initial descent for the purpose of bowing (rukūʿ).

L7174 Question 461:

L7175 It is recommended for every worshiper that the utterance of the takbīr begin simultaneously with starting the descent into bowing, the descent into prostration, the rising from prostration, and the standing up after the two rakʿahs. The beginning of saying "Samiʿa Allāhu li-man ḥamidah" should coincide with the start of rising from bowing. It is entirely impermissible for the imam to lengthen the takbīr; rather, he must perform it swiftly. Thus, he must not bow, prostrate, stand, or sit until he has finished uttering the takbīr.

L7176–7178 Hammam narrated to us: Ibn Mufarrij → Ibn al-Aʿrabī → al-Dabarī → ʿAbd al-Razzāq → Maʿmar → ... Al-Zuhri reported from Abu Salama ibn ʿAbd al-Rahman ibn ʿAwf, who said: "Abu Huraira would pray and say the takbir when he stood up, when he bowed, when he was about to prostrate, when he prostrated after raising himself from prostration, when he sat, and when he intended to stand up after the two rak'ahs. When he concluded the prayer with the taslim, he would say: 'By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, I am indeed the most similar to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) in prayer. This remained his prayer until he departed from this world.'"

L7179 It has been narrated to us from ʿAlī, Ibn al-Zubayr, and ʿImrān ibn al-Ḥuṣayn. As for ʿAlī and Ibn al-Zubayr, this is derived from their practice. From ʿImrān, it is transmitted through a connected chain to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Khālid related to us, from Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad, from al-Firabrī, from al-Bukhārī, from Yaḥyā ibn Bukayr, from al-Layth (Ibn Saʿd), from ʿUqayl, from Ibn Shihāb, who informed me that Abū Bakr ibn ʿAbd al-Raḥmān heard Abū Hurayrah say: “When the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) stood for prayer, he would say ’Allāhu Akbar’ upon standing, then say ’Allāhu Akbar’ upon bowing. Then when raising his back from the bowing position, he would say: ’Allah hears those who praise Him.’ While standing upright, he would then say: ’All praise is due to You, our Lord.’” He mentioned the rest of the ḥadīth.

L7180 And with this say Abu Hanifah, Ahmad, Al-Shafi’i, Dawood, and their followers.

L7181 Malik held that position except regarding the takbīr for rising from the two rakʿahs, for he did not consider it valid unless one had stood upright—a view unsupported by the Quran, the Sunnah, consensus, analogy, or the statement of a Companion. This is among matters wherein they opposed a group of the Companions—how could there be no known opponent among them? As for our position obligating the imam to hasten the takbīr as a binding duty, it is based on the statement of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him: “The imam is appointed to be followed. When he says Allāhu Akbar, say Allāhu Akbar.” He—peace and blessings be upon him—thus made the takbīr obligatory upon the congregants as a duty necessarily immediately after the imam’s takbīr. If the imam prolongs the takbīr, this confuses the congregants, causing them to say takbīr with him and before he completes it, thus not performing the takbīr as they were commanded. Whoever does not say the takbīr invalidates their prayer, for they have not prayed as commanded. This corrupts people’s prayers and aids in sin and transgression. And with Allah, the Exalted, lies success.[20]

This is one of the two opinions of Al-Shāfiʿī. Abū Sulaymān, Abū Ḥanīfah, and their followers said: He may resume his prayer after performing ablution, except that Abū Ḥanīfah stated: "If one sleeps during prayer and experiences nocturnal emission, he must perform ritual bathing and restart the prayer without resuming it." We do not know their position if his ruling is dry ablution, for if they accounted for the time-consuming nature of ritual bathing, dry ablution is not comparable - since the ruling for the minor ritual impurity (muḥdith) and the major impurity (junub) in this matter is equal. They said: "If the Imam nullifies his state of purity through involuntary emission while prostrating - if he says 'Allāhu Akbar' and raises his head, his prayer and the prayers of those behind him become invalid. If he raises his head without saying 'Allāhu Akbar,' neither his prayer nor the prayers of those behind him are invalidated. If he appoints a successor for them or they appoint one before the Imam exits the mosque, neither the Imam's prayer nor the followers' prayers are invalidated. If he does not appoint a successor nor they [do so] until he exits the mosque, his prayer and their prayers become invalid." The most well-known opinion from Abū Ḥanīfah is: "The followers' prayers are invalidated while the Imam's prayer remains valid." If he exits and takes water from a water-skin using a vessel, performs ablution, he may return and resume his prayer. If he draws water from a well, his prayer becomes invalid. If he speaks - whether intentionally or unintentionally - his prayer is invalidated. ʿAlī said: "These are utterly corrupt, contradictory, and arbitrary rulings in the religion of Allah Almighty without evidence. Moreover, most of these were never stated by anyone before them. Our discussion concerns the invalidation or validation of resuming prayers." ʿAlī said: "Those who advocate resuming prayers cite two weak narrations

From the chain of Saʿīd ibn Manṣūr: Ismāʿīl ibn ʿAyyāsh narrated to us from Ibn Jurayj from his father and Ibn Abī Mulaykah, from ʿĀ'ishah that the Messenger of Allāh—peace and blessings of Allāh be upon him—said: "If one of you vomits during his prayer, has a nosebleed, or regurgitates, let him pause, perform ablution, and continue from where he left off."

L7190 Both of these carry no valid proof, for Ismāʿīl ibn ʿAyyāsh is weak—particularly in what he narrated from narrators of the Hijaz region—thus it is unanimously agreed that he is not a valid authority. As for ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Ziyād, he is in the utmost degree of rejection. There is also a discarded narration transmitted through ʿUmar ibn Riyāḥ al-Baṣrī—who is rejected—from Ibn Ṭāwūs, from his father, from Ibn ʿAbbās: "When the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—experienced a nosebleed during prayer, he would perform ablution and resume his prayer from where he left off."

L7191 As for the Ḥanafīs, they contradicted themselves by applying analogy from what was mentioned in these two reports to all cases not mentioned in them.

L7192 They did not analogize nocturnal emission to that, and this is an inconsistency. No narration—neither sound nor weak—has ever been transmitted concerning the validity of prayer due to ritual impurities such as urination, defecation, passing wind, or pre-ejaculatory fluid? As for our companions, they argued that since the prayer was validly performed, it cannot be nullified except by textual proof. Ali said: "This is a valid argument. Had there not been a text nullifying what had already been performed of it, we would not have nullified it."

L7193 But the proof for the invalidity of his prayer is that ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us, saying: Muḥammad ibn Isḥāq ibn al-Sulaym narrated to us, from Ibn al-Aʿrabī, from Abū Dāwūd, from Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad ibn Ḥanbal, from ʿAbd al-Razzāq, from Maʿmar, from Hammām ibn Munabbih, from Abū Hurayrah, who said: The Messenger of Allāh (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "Allāh does not accept the prayer of any one of you if he invalidates his ablution until he renews it."[21]

L7194–7198 Ali said: We have narrated it through various chains. Since it is established that Allah does not accept the prayer of one who invalidates ablution until he performs ablution anew—and this is confirmed without disagreement through explicit textual evidence that prayer is only valid when continuous, with no permissible interruption of its components by non-prayer acts—we question those who advocate continuation after invalidating ablution: Inform us about the person who invalidates ablution whom you command to continue prayer. From the moment he invalidates ablution—when he exits, walks, fetches water, washes his minor impurity or performs istinjāʾ, performs ablution, and returns to resume prayer—is he considered in prayer according to your view? Or outside prayer? They have no third option. If they claim, "He remains in prayer," the Messenger of Allah's statement—peace and blessings be upon him—proves them liars: "Allah does not accept the prayer of one who invalidates ablution until he renews it." Among the absurd and invalid claims is to regard a prayer as valid when we are certain Allah the Exalted does not accept it. Thus, it is established that the act of his previous prayer has ceased. As for his reward, it remains for him without doubt. However, he is now undoubtedly not in prayer, for he is in a state where Allah the Exalted does not accept prayer alongside it. If they say: "Rather, he is not in prayer?" We reply: "You have spoken truthfully." Since he is not in prayer, he must perform the prayer continuously—without allowing interruptions between its parts (by actions not belonging to the prayer) during the time he is [supposed to be] in prayer—while intending [to pray]. This is an irrefutable proof. Moreover, had we wished to present a stronger argument from the ḥadīth than what they cited, we would mention what ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ → ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-Malik → Muḥammad ibn Bakr → Abū Dāwūd → ʿUthmān ibn Abī Shaybah → Jarīr ibn ʿAbd al-Ḥamīd → ʿĀṣim al-Aḥwal → ʿĪsā ibn Ḥiṭṭān → Muslim ibn Salām → ʿAlī ibn Ṭalq reported: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "If one of you breaks wind during prayer, let him perform ablution and repeat the prayer." If they mention those among the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—who performed prayer, it has been narrated to us from ʿAbdullāh ibn Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal: My father narrated to us, ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī narrated to me, from ʿAbdullāh ibn al-Mubārak, from Maʿmar, from al-Zuhrī: Al-Miswar ibn Makhramah would repeat his prayer if he experienced a nosebleed during it, and did not consider valid what had passed. The righteous predecessors differed regarding this matter. It has been narrated to us through Wakīʿ, from Ismāʿīl ibn Abī Khālid, from al-Shaʿbī, who said concerning one who breaks his ablution during prayer and then renews it: "He should complete the remainder of his prayer, even if he has spoken."

L7199 From the narration of Muḥammad ibn al-Muthannā from ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī, who narrated to us from Sufyān al-Thawrī, from al-Mughīra ibn Miqsam, from Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī, who said: For passing stool, urine, or wind, one must perform ablution and restart the prayer. For vomiting or nosebleed, one must perform ablution and resume his prayer as long as he has not spoken. From al-Muʿtamir ibn Sulaymān al-Taymī, from his father, from Ibn Sīrīn, regarding one who invalidates his ablution while praying before concluding with the salutation, he said: Has his prayer not been completed? From Maʿmar, from al-Zuhrī, regarding one who invalidates his ablution while praying before concluding with the salutation: He must restart the prayer. This is the opinion of Sufyān al-Thawrī, Mālik, Ibn Shubrumah, the latter of the two opinions of al-Shāfiʿī, and this is the opinion we adopt.

prayer - as previously stated - and if he can pinch his nose while letting the blood drip in front of him without touching his garment or any external part of his body, he should do so, continue his prayer, and bears no liability.

L7202–7204 The proof of this is that a nosebleed is not a ḥadath as we previously mentioned. Since it is not a ḥadath, and the blood has not touched his garment or the external part of his body, has anything occurred to his ritual purity or his prayer? If the blood touches any part of his body or garment, and he is able to wash it without turning his back to the Qiblah, then he must wash it. He is persisting in his prayer while his prayer remains complete. Does it matter whether he walks to water a short distance or a little? The proof for this is that washing filth and avoiding forbidden things constitute an obligation without dispute. Thus in his walking for that purpose and his action toward it, he is fulfilling an obligation. The prayer is not invalidated by performing within it what he was commanded to fulfill, for he has not contravened - rather, he prayed as he was commanded. Whoever does what he was commanded to do is among the good-doers, and the Almighty has said: "There is no blame upon the good-doers" [al-Tawbah 9:91].[22]

بُرْهَانُ ذَلِكَ -: أَنَّ الرُّعَافَ لَيْسَ حَدَثًا عَلَى مَا ذَكَرْنَا قَبْلُ، فَإِذْ لَيْسَ حَدَثًا، وَلَا مَسَّ لَهُ الدَّمُ ثَوْبًا، وَلَا ظَاهِرَ جَسَدٍ فَلَمْ يَعْرِضْ فِي طَهَارَتِهِ، وَلَا فِي صَلَاتِهِ شَيْءٌ؟ فَإِنْ مَسَّ الدَّمُ شَيْئًا مِنْ جَسَدِهِ أَوْ ثَوْبِهِ فَأَمْكَنَهُ غَسْلُ ذَلِكَ غَيْرَ مُسْتَدْبِرِ الْقِبْلَةَ فَلْيَغْسِلْهُ وَهُوَ مُتَمَادٍ فِي صَلَاتِهِ، وَصَلَاتُهُ تَامَّةٌ، وَسَوَاءٌ مَشَى إِلَى الْمَاءِ كَثِيرًا أَوْ قَلِيلًا؟ بُرْهَانُ ذَلِكَ - أَنَّ غَسْلَ النَّجَاسَةِ وَاجْتِنَابَ الْمُحَرَّمَاتِ فَرْضٌ بِلَا خِلَافٍ، فَهُوَ فِي مَشْيِهِ لِذَلِكَ وَفِي عَمَلِهِ لِذَلِكَ مُؤَدٍّ فَرْضٍ، وَلَا تَبْطُلُ الصَّلَاةُ بِأَنْ يُؤَدِّيَ فِيهَا مَا أُمِرَ بِأَدَائِهِ، لِأَنَّهُ لَمْ يُخَالِفْ، بَلْ صَلَّى كَمَا أُمِرَ، وَمَنْ فَعَلَ مَا أُمِرَ بِهِ فَهُوَ مُحْسِنٌ، وَقَدْ قَالَ تَعَالَى: {مَا عَلَى الْمُحْسِنِينَ مِنْ سَبِيلٍ} [التوبة: ٩١]

L7205 If he is unable to do that, he prays as he is, and his prayer is complete, based on Allah's statement: "Allah does not burden a soul beyond its capacity" [Al-Baqarah: 286]. Thus, it is established that one is not burdened with what they cannot bear.[23]

فَإِنْ عَجَزَ عَنْ ذَلِكَ: صَلَّى كَمَا هُوَ، وَصَلَاتُهُ تَامَّةٌ، لِقَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {لا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلا وُسْعَهَا} [البقرة: ٢٨٦] فَثَبَتَ أَنَّهُ لَا يُكَلَّفُ مَا لَا يَسْتَطِيعُ

L7206 If one intentionally turns his back to the Qiblah for that reason, his prayer becomes invalid because he opposes what Allah the Exalted has prescribed upon him while intending to do so. Mālik said: If a nosebleed occurs before completing a rakʿah with its two prostrations, he should terminate his prayer and restart. If it occurs after completing a rakʿah with its two prostrations, he should exit, wash the blood, return, and continue from where he left off. ʿAlī said: This categorization is not supported by the Quran, nor the Sun-

فَإِنْ تَعَمَّدَ اسْتِدْبَارَ الْقِبْلَةِ لِذَلِكَ: بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ، لِأَنَّهُ مُخَالِفٌ مَا افْتَرَضَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى عَلَيْهِ قَاصِدًا إِلَى ذَلِكَ؟ وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: إِنْ أَصَابَهُ الرُّعَافُ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُتِمَّ رَكْعَةً بِسَجْدَتَيْهَا: قَطَعَ صَلَاتَهُ وَابْتَدَأَ، وَإِنْ أَصَابَهُ بَعْدَ أَنْ أَتَمَّ رَكْعَةً بِسَجْدَتَيْهَا: فَلْيَخْرُجْ فَلْيَغْسِلْ الدَّمَ وَيَرْجِعْ فَيَبْنِي؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا تَقْسِيمٌ لَمْ يَأْتِ بِهِ قُرْآنٌ وَلَا سُنَّةٌ، لَا صَحِيحَةٌ وَلَا سَقِيمَةٌ، وَلَا قَوْلُ صَاحِبٍ وَلَا قِيَاسٌ، وَمَا كَانَ كَذَلِكَ فَلَا مَعْنَى لِلِاشْتِغَالِ بِهِ

L7207 A scenario where someone is crowded [by others] and misses the bowing (rukūʿ), prostration (sujūd), one rakʿah, or multiple rakʿahs.

L7208 464 – Question:

٤٦٤ - مَسْأَلَةٌ:

L7209–7211 And whoever is crowded until he misses the bowing, prostration, one rakʿah, or multiple rakʿahs—he should remain as he is. If he can perform what he missed, he must do so, then follow the imam in whatever state he catches him, and his prayer is complete—nothing further is incumbent upon him. If he cannot do this except after the imam's concluding salām—whether the period is short or long—he must likewise do so, and his prayer is complete. Are the Friday prayer and others equal in all that we have mentioned? If he catches one rakʿah with the imam, does he pray it and append it to what he had prayed, then complete his prayer—with nothing further incumbent upon him? Are the one who forgets out of heedlessness and the crowded person equal in all that we have mentioned? If he can prostrate upon the back of someone before him or upon his foot, let him do so—and this suffices him. The proof for this is Allah's statement: "Do not nullify your deeds" [Sūrat Muḥammad (33)]. For whoever validly enters the state of prayer, any additional acts he performs are valid as obligatory acts carried out as commanded. It is impermissible for him to nullify this without an explicit text from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—regarding its nullification. And He, the Exalted, said: "Allah does not burden a soul except according to its capacity" [Al-Baqarah 2:286].[24] rayrah—from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), who said: “When you hear the iqamah, proceed to the prayer while maintaining calmness and dignity. Do not rush. Pray whatever portion you reach [of the prayer], and complete what you have missed.”

الرَّحْمَنِ كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: «إِذَا سَمِعْتُمْ الْإِقَامَةَ فَامْشُوا إِلَى الصَّلَاةِ وَعَلَيْكُمْ السَّكِينَةُ وَالْوَقَارُ، وَلَا تُسْرِعُوا، فَمَا أَدْرَكْتُمْ فَصَلُّوا، وَمَا فَاتَكُمْ فَأَتِمُّوا»

L7213 Abdullah ibn Rabi‘ narrated to us: ‘Umar ibn ‘Abd al-Malik narrated to us, Muhammad ibn Bakr narrated to us, Abu Dawud narrated to us, Musaddad narrated to us, Yahya (Ibn Sa‘īd al-Qaṭṭān) from Ibn ‘Ajlān. Muhammad ibn Yahya ibn Ḥibbān narrated to me from Ibn Muḥayrīz from Mu‘āwiyah ibn Abī Sufyān, who said: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: “Do not rush ahead of me in bowing or prostrating. No matter how much I precede you in bowing, you will catch up when I rise. I have indeed grown corpulent.”[25]

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا عُمَرُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَكْرٍ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا مُسَدَّدٌ ثنا يَحْيَى هُوَ ابْنُ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانُ - عَنْ ابْنِ عَجْلَانَ حَدَّثَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ يَحْيَى بْنِ حِبَّانَ عَنْ ابْنِ مُحَيْرِيزٍ عَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنِ أَبِي سُفْيَانَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «لَا تُبَادِرُونِي بِرُكُوعٍ وَلَا بِسُجُودٍ فَإِنَّهُ مَهْمَا أَسْبِقْكُمْ بِهِ إِذَا رَكَعْتُ تُدْرِكُونِي بِهِ إِذَا رَفَعْتُ، إِنِّي قَدْ بَدَّنْتُ»

L7214 He (peace be upon him) commanded one to pray what one has caught up with in the prayer, not to precede the imam in bowing or prostration, and that whatever bowing a follower misses, he may complete it after the imam rises. He did not distinguish (peace be upon him) between the first, second, third, or fourth rak’ah, and he commanded to make up for what was missed. He informed (peace be upon him) that error, forgetfulness, and acts performed under compulsion are pardoned for his community. This necessitates the certainty of our assertion: that one performs their prayer according to their capability, and whatever contradicts this is a corrupt opinion.

A legal question concerning any part of what one is commanded to wash during wudu (ritual ablution) or ghusl (ritual bath) that was not touched by water, even an area equivalent to a single hair.

L7216 465 - Issue: Whoever does not touch with water—in their ablution or ritual bath—even an area equivalent to a single hair from what they were commanded to wash during the ritual bath or ablution, his prayer is invalid.

٤٦٥ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ لَمْ يَمَسَّ بِالْمَاءِ - فِي وُضُوئِهِ وَغُسْلِهِ - وَلَوْ مِقْدَارَ شَعْرَةٍ مِمَّا أُمِرَ بِغَسْلِهِ فِي الْغُسْلِ أَوْ الْوُضُوءِ فَلَا صَلَاةَ لَهُ، لِقَوْلِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -

[25] Hadith references (L7213): Sunan Abi Dawud 619.

This is due to the statement of Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him: "Allah does not accept the prayer of one who breaks his ablution until he performs ablution again." Such a person has not performed ablution yet, since he did not complete his ritual purity as commanded.

L7217 A jurisprudential issue concerning the intentional attribution [of something] to the Quran.

L7218 Issue 466: Whoever intentionally alters the Qur'ān has become a disbeliever, and there is no disagreement about this.

L7219–7220 If a person's language is other than Arabic, it is permissible for them to supplicate in it during their prayer, but it is not permissible for them to recite in it. If someone recites in a language other than Arabic, their prayer is invalid. Abū Ḥanīfah said: If someone recites in Persian during their prayer, their prayer is valid. ʿAlī said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "There is no prayer for one who does not recite the Opening of the Qur'an." And Allah the Exalted said: "An Arabic Qur'an" [12:2].[26]

L7221 And He, the Exalted, said: "We have not sent any messenger except in the language of his people, so that he may make clear to them." [Surah Ibrāhīm (14:4)][27]

L7222 It has been established that Allah the Exalted did not send Muhammad—peace be upon him—with a non-Arabic revelation, nor did He reveal the Quran to him in any other language. Thus, whoever recites in a non-Arabic language has not recited what Allah the Exalted sent His Prophet—peace be upon him—with, nor has he recited the Quran. Rather, he has trifled with his prayer, so his prayer is invalid, because he did not pray as commanded.

L7223 If they were to mention the statement of Allah the Exalted: {And indeed, it is in the scriptures of the former peoples} [Ash-Shu'ara': 196], we would say: Yes, the mention of the Quran and the warning through it exist in the scriptures of the former peoples. As for the claim that Allah the Exalted revealed this Quran to anyone before the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—is it false and a lie from whoever asserts that? Had this been true, it would not have been a virtue for the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—nor a miraculous sign for him. We know of no one who made this claim before Abu Hanifah. Whoever fails to memorize Surah Al-Fatihah must pray to the best of his ability, while being obligated to learn it, based on Allah's declaration: {Allah does not burden any soul beyond its capacity} [Al-Baqarah: 286]. Thus, he is not obligated to bear what he cannot endure. If he memorizes any part of the Quran besides it, he is obligated by duty to pray with it and must learn Surah Al-Fatihah, in accordance with the Prophet's saying—peace be upon him: "There is no prayer without recitation."[28]

L7224 And due to the statement of Allah, the Most High: "Recite as much of the Qur'an as is manageable" [Al-Muzzammil 20].[29]

L7225–7226 [Prostration for Forgetfulness] [An Issue Concerning the Ruling on Actions Performed Out of Forgetfulness During Prayer]

L7227 Issue: Every action a person performs forgetfully during prayer – if such action would invalidate the prayer when done intentionally by one who is mindful – obligates the two prostrations for forgetfulness. This appears to align with Al-Shāfiʿī's doctrine, though he specifically applied it to forgetting the sitting posture after two rakʿahs, while the apparent position of his school holds this sitting is not obligatory. He stated: "Whoever omits any essential element of prayer forgetfully must perform the prostrations for forgetfulness." Abū Sulaymān and our companions maintained: "Prostrations for forgetfulness apply only in specific cases: when one erroneously performs the concluding salutation (taslīm), speaks, or walks during an obligatory prayer."

L7228–7230 Or one who stands after two rakʿahs in an obligatory prayer; or one who doubts and does not know how much he has prayed?; or one who adds a rakʿah or more in his prayer due to forgetfulness in an obligatory prayer.

Abū Ḥanīfah said: Prostration for forgetfulness is only required in ten cases - either standing in place of sitting or sitting in place of standing for the Imam or solitary worshipper; or uttering the salutation before completing the prayer for the Imam or solitary worshipper; or forgetting the takbīrs specific to the Eid prayer for the Imam or solitary worshipper; or forgetting the qunūt in the Witr prayer for the Imam or solitary worshipper; or forgetting the tashahhud for the Imam or solitary worshipper; or forgetting Umm al-Qur'ān for the Imam or solitary worshipper. Or delaying it after the recitation of the surah for the Imam or the one praying alone, or one who recites aloud in a prayer requiring silent recitation or silently in a prayer requiring audible recitation - exclusively for the Imam. He said: If he does that intentionally, his prayer is complete with no prostration of forgetfulness required. He said: If he forgets a prostration or doubts and cannot discern how much he prayed - if this occurs for the first time, he repeats the prayer. If this has happened to him before, even a single time, he performs the prostration of forgetfulness. If he does not recall this until after leaving the mosque, his prayer is nullified and he repeats it.

L7231 As for Mālik's position on prostration of forgetfulness, it is not well-defined, because he held that whoever omits three or more takbīrs in the prayer—excluding the opening takbīr—should perform the prostration of forgetfulness.

فَإِنْ لَمْ يَفْعَلْ حَتَّى انْتَقَضَ وُضُوءُهُ، أَوْ تَطَاوَلَ ذَلِكَ: بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ وَأَعَادَهَا.

L7232 If he does not do so before his ablution is invalidated or the delay becomes excessive, his prayer is invalidated, and he must repeat it.

وَرَأَى فِيمَنْ سَهَا عَنْ تَكْبِيرَتَيْنِ مِنْ الصَّلَاةِ كَذَلِكَ: أَنْ يَسْجُدَ لِلسَّهْوِ؟ فَإِنْ لَمْ يَفْعَلْ حَتَّى انْتَقَضَ وُضُوءُهُ أَوْ تَطَاوَلَ ذَلِكَ: فَلَا شَيْءَ عَلَيْهِ وَصَلَاتُهُ تَامَّةٌ، وَلَا سُجُودَ سَهْوٍ عَلَيْهِ.

L7233 He held the opinion regarding one who omits two takbīrs in prayer: Should they perform the prostration of forgetfulness? If they do not do so before their ablution becomes invalid or a prolonged time elapses, nothing is incumbent upon them; their prayer remains complete, and no prostration of forgetfulness is required.

وَرَأَى فِيمَنْ سَهَا عَنْ تَكْبِيرَةٍ وَاحِدَةٍ غَيْرِ تَكْبِيرَةِ الْإِحْرَامِ أَنْ لَا شَيْءَ عَلَيْهِ، لَا سُجُودَ سَهْوٍ وَلَا غَيْرَهُ.

L7234 He held the view that if someone inadvertently omits a single takbir other than the opening takbir, there is nothing required of him—neither a prostration for forgetfulness nor anything beyond that.

L7235 He held the opinion that whoever substitutes "Allāhu akbar" in place of "Samiʿa Allāhu li-man ḥamidah" is required to perform the Prostration of Forgetfulness.

L7236 He was asked about one who recited audibly during a silent prayer or silently during an audible prayer: if this occurred slightly, nothing is required, but if much occurred, prostration for forgetfulness becomes obligatory. Ali said: Regarding one who neglected to recite the Opening Chapter (Al-Fatihah) in two units of prayer or more, his prayer becomes invalid.

L7237–7239 If he forgets it in a rakʿah—at one time he held the view of performing only the prostration of forgetfulness, and at another he held that one must perform a rakʿah and prostrate for forgetfulness? ʿAlī said: As for Abū Ḥanīfah's opinion, it is too corrupt to merit consideration, for it is not grounded in any Qurʾān, nor a sound or weak Sunnah, nor analogy, nor a companion's statement, nor sound reasoning—indeed, we have no knowledge of its basis. No one has said it before him. Similarly, Mālik's statement "equal, equal," with the additional point that no two Muslims differ concerning: every four-rak'ah obligatory prayer containing twenty-two takbīrs besides the opening takbīr; the Maghrib prayer containing sixteen takbīrs besides the opening takbīr; and every two-rak'ah obligatory prayer containing ten takbīrs besides the opening takbīr. Their equation of one who omitted three takbīrs with one who omitted two takbīrs, while differentiating between one who omitted two takbīrs and one who omitted a single takbīr—this ranks among the world's marvels. God suffices us, and He is the best disposer of affairs!

As for al-Shāfiʿī's view, its contradiction is evident: he mandates prostration of forgetfulness for omitting the first sitting—which he does not deem obligatory—yet rejects prostration for omitting all prayer takbīrs (except the opening takbīr) or for minor actions that would invalidate the prayer if performed excessively under his doctrine. He failed to establish any defining boundary between the minor action where he waived prostration and that which invalidates the prayer if done intentionally—while requiring prostration for its unintentional omission. This is profoundly invalid. Among the astonishing claims is his reference to "the backbone of prayer"—when people know no backbone, belly, liver, or intestine for prayer! Such statements are self-evidently flawed, needing no forced refutation.

Regarding our companions' position: they assert prostration of forgetfulness applies only where God's Messenger (peace be upon him) performed it or commanded it—and he (peace be upon him) only prostrated in the cases we mentioned. ʿAlī said: "This is a sound position none may oppose, except that we have found an authentic narration confirming our view's validity. Yet they deem it contradictory to other narrations—this is invalid and impermissible. Rather, all narrations must be implemented; abandoning any of them is forbidden. If not, adopting the supplementary rulings within them becomes obligatory, for they constitute divine rulings from God Almighty—how then could abandoning them be permissible?"

L7240–7241 Ali said: The proof for the validity of our position is that the acts of prayer are divided into two categories - with absolute certainty, leaving no doubt - with absolutely no third alternative. Either it is an obligation, such that one who omits it commits disobedience, or it is non-obligatory, such that one who omits it incurs no disobedience. What is non-obligatory is permissible to perform or omit - even if some non-obligatory acts are recommended to perform, while omitting them is religiously discouraged.

L7242 As for what is permissible to abandon, how could it be valid to make binding a legal ruling regarding abandoning an act that Allah the Exalted permitted abandoning? Would this not render the one doing so a legislator without Allah's authorization? As for the farḍ – the second category – it invalidates the prayer if intentionally omitted, but does not invalidate it if forgotten in it, based on Allah's statement: {There is no blame upon you for what you err in unintentionally, but only for what your hearts deliberately intend} [Al-Aḥzāb: 5].[30]

L7243 Since the prayer is not invalidated by forgetfulness occurring within it, and forgetfulness has occurred, prostration of forgetfulness becomes obligatory—as nothing remains other than it. It is therefore impermissible to restrict prostration to certain instances of forgetfulness while omitting others. And by Allah, the Exalted, is success granted.

L7244 Ali said: “There has come an explicit text supporting our view, as narrated by Abdullah ibn Yusuf: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us, then Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us, then Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us, then Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us, then Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us, then al-Qasim ibn Zakariya narrated to us, from al-Husayn ibn Ali al-Ju’fi, from Za’ida, from al-A’mash, from Ibrahim, from Alqamah, from Abdullah ibn Mas’ud, who said: ”We prayed with the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings be upon him - and he either added or reduced (Ibrahim expressed doubt). Ibn Mas’ud said: We asked, ”O Messenger of Allah, has something invalidating occurred in the prayer¿‘ He replied, ”No.“ We then informed him of what he did. He said, ”When a person adds or omits in prayer, let him perform two prostrations of forgetfulness.“”

L7245–7247 Narrated to us by ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ, narrated to us by Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah, narrated to us by Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb, narrated to us by Ismāʿīl ibn Masʿūd al-Jaḥdarī, narrated to us by Khālid ibn al-Ḥārith, narrated to us by Shuʿbah, who said: I recited [the ḥadīth] to Manṣūr and heard him narrate, and he wrote it to me from Ibrāhīm an-Nakhaʿī, from ʿAlqamah, from ʿAbdullāh ibn Masʿūd, that The Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him - said to them: “I am but a human. If I forget, remind me. If any of you falls into uncertainty during his prayer, let him strive to determine what is closest to correctness, then complete it upon that, and afterward perform two prostrations.” Ali said: “This is the explicit text of our position regarding the obligation of prostration for every addition, omission, or uncertainty in the prayer. It cannot be said of one who performs his prayer with all its obligatory acts as Allah the Exalted commanded him that he added to his prayer, omitted from it, or acted upon uncertainty in it. Rather, he has completed it as he was commanded. The one who adds to the prayer, omits from it, or acts on uncertainty is he who introduces elements not part of it, or omits what is essential for its proper completion due to uncertainty. And success is granted by Allah the Exalted.”

narrated through Hammad ibn Salamah from Sa'id ibn Qatan: Abu Zayd al-Ansari said, "If any of you experiences doubt in his prayer, let him perform two prostrations of forgetfulness?" Through al-Hajjaj ibn al-Minhal from Abu 'Awanah from al-Mughirah ibn Miqsam from Ibrahim al-Nakha'i: "Doubt only applies to sitting, standing, addition, omission, or ending the prayer after two rak'ahs?" Through Ma'mar's chain from Qatadah from Anas: He forgot a rak'ah in an obligatory prayer and proceeded to voluntary prayer before remembering. He then completed the remaining portion of the obligatory prayer and performed two prostrations while seated. 'Ali said, "We know of no disagreement among the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—regarding Anas's position." From Ibn Jurayj: I asked 'Ata', "If you become certain you prayed five rak'ahs?" He replied, "Do not repeat it—even if you prayed ten rak'ahs—but perform the two prostrations of forgetfulness?" From 'Abd al-Razzaq from Sufyan al-Thawri: "If you added or omitted, perform the two prostrations of forgetfulness."

An issue regarding action performed inadvertently during prayer, such as speaking or reciting poetry.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ مَا عَمِلَهُ الْمَرْءُ فِي صَلَاتِهِ سَهْوًا مِنْ كَلَامٍ أَوْ إنْشَادِ شَعْرٍ]

Issue 468: ʿAlī said: Every action a person performs during prayer unintentionally—whether speech, chanting poetry, walking, lying down, turning away from the qiblah, performing any deed, eating, drinking, adding one rakʿah or multiple rakʿahs, exiting to perform a voluntary prayer (whether such actions are frequent or scarce), or giving the salām before completing the prayer—then whenever one remembers (regardless of whether the elapsed time was long or short, provided one's ablution remains valid), one must merely complete what was omitted, then perform the two prostrations of forgetfulness. This excludes cases where ablution is nullified, for this invalidates the prayer as previously explained. The evidence for this is what we detailed in the preceding interconnected issue.

By Allah, he did not reprimand me, strike me, or insult me. He said: "This prayer is not a place for any speech of people. It is only for tasbīḥ (glorification), takbīr (proclaiming Allah's greatness), and recitation of the Qur'an"—or as the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said.'"

Hammam ibn Ahmad narrated to us: 'Abbas ibn Asbagh narrated to us: Muhammad ibn 'Abd al-Malik ibn Ayman narrated to us: "It was recited to Abu Qilabah while I was listening: Bishr ibn 'Umar al-Zahrani narrated to you all: Rifa'ah ibn Yahya, the imam of the Banu Zurayq mosque, narrated to me: I heard Mu‘adh ibn Rifa‘ah ibn Rafi‘ narrating from his father, who said: ”We prayed Maghrib with the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—and a man behind the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—sneezed and said: ”All praise is due to Allah, abundant, pure, blessed praise in the way that our Lord loves and is pleased with.“ When the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—concluded the prayer, he said: ”I saw thirty-some angels, all rushing to it, each competing to be the one to write it and ascend with it to heaven.“”” Here, the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—commended the one who praised Allah Almighty when sneezing loudly during prayer, yet did not require the one who spoke forgetfully to repeat it, as we previously mentioned in earlier sections of this treatise. Ali said: As for those who differentiate between few actions and many actions—invalidating prayer for the latter but not the former, or requiring prostration of forgetfulness for many actions but not few, or defining “many” as exiting the mosque and “few” as remaining within it—this constitutes deeply flawed reasoning. We ask them: What of one who intentionally throws a weaving shuttle once during prayer? Or intentionally takes a sesame seed while aware and eats it? Or intentionally utters a single word? According to their doctrine, would not both the minimal and excessive instances of such acts invalidate prayer? We further ask them: What of one who scratches their body extensively out of necessity throughout the prayer, or wears a loose garment requiring constant adjustment from beginning to end? Do they claim all this remains permissible in prayer? We respond: If you speak truthfully, then present a textual proof or consensus—not baseless assertions—that certain actions invalidate prayer when frequent but not when occasional. Then produce an unequivocal textual proof or verified consensus—not false claims—defining the distinction between few and many actions, though no such distinction can ever be established. Thus our position stands validated: Any action explicitly permitted in prayer by textual evidence—whether occasional or frequent—remains lawful. Conversely, any action not textually permitted invalidates prayer if done intentionally, regardless of quantity, and necessitates prostration of forgetfulness if done unintentionally. As for exiting the mosque, consider one whose mosque extends over three hundred paces in length. And many a mosque from which one exits with a single step—and with Allah, the Exalted, is all success.[31]

L7261 The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—once concluded the prayer forgetfully, spoke, returned, exited the mosque, entered his home, then recognized his error. He went out again, rectified the remaining part of his prayer, and performed only two prostrations of forgetfulness. He—peace be upon him—also said, "Whoever turns away from my Sunnah is not of me."

L7262 This also refutes the view of those who claim "two prostrations are required for every instance of forgetfulness in prayer." As for those who argue: "If a prolonged period passes after omitting the prostrations of forgetfulness, one's prayer becomes invalid and must be repeated," and those who state: "If a prolonged period passes, the obligation for prostrations of forgetfulness is lifted and the prayer remains valid"—are these not two profoundly defective positions? The foremost reason is that both views lack any evidentiary basis, and whatever lacks proof is inherently invalid.

L7263 The second is that they must differentiate—based on an authentic text or an indubitable consensus not falsely asserted—between the prolongation of the period and its brevity, yet is there any means to achieve this? The truth in this matter is that whoever the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—commanded to perform the two prostrations of forgetfulness is obligated to fulfill what he was commanded. No jurist's opinion can nullify this duty, and he must perpetually act upon what he was commanded. Can this obligation be lifted except by the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—explicitly delimiting that act to a time whose end is defined? How strange it is of a people who adhered to the command of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—regarding prayer within a time with fixed beginning and end, and fasting within a time with fixed beginning and end, affirming that their worship remains valid even after the time Allah the Exalted designated for them has passed—for He did

If the Imam becomes forgetful and performs the prostration of forgetfulness, it is obligatory upon the followers to prostrate with him, except one who missed a rakʿah or more with the Imam. Such a person must stand to make up what he missed. When he completes it, he must perform the prostration of forgetfulness himself, unless the Imam performed the prostration of forgetfulness before the final taslīm. In that case, it remains obligatory upon the follower to perform both prostrations with him, even if he still needs to make up what he missed. He does not repeat the two prostrations after performing the taslīm, does he?

The proof for this is that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—once became forgetful during prayer, so he prostrated, and the Muslims prostrated with him due to his awareness of that forgetfulness. As for one who must make up a rak'ah or more: when the Imam gives the salutation, he has exited his prayer, and the follower is obligated to complete what they missed, based on the statement of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him: "Pray what you have caught, and complete what you have missed." He—peace and blessings be upon him—also said: "Complete your prayer." Therefore, it is not permissible for the follower to engage in anything other than completing the prayer as commanded—connecting it to what they have already performed—since he has not yet completed his prayer. The prostration for inadvertence occurs exclusively at the conclusion of the prayer, following its completion, by the instruction of the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—as we mentioned earlier. If the Imam performs the two prostrations before giving the salutation, the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "The Imam is appointed to be followed. When he prostrates, prostrate with him." It is thus obligatory for the follower to emulate the Imam in every action he performs in its proper place—even if that position differs for the follower—as applies to standing, sitting, and prostrating. And with Allah alone is success, the Exalted.

L7269 A legal case: The congregant lapsed into forgetfulness [during prayer], but the imam did not.

L7270 Issue 470 -

L7271 If the follower becomes forgetful while the imam does not, it is obligatory upon the follower to perform the two prostrations of forgetfulness, just as he would prostrate if praying alone or leading, with no distinction. This is because the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) commanded—as we previously mentioned—everyone who causes uncertainty in their prayer to perform the two prostrations of forgetfulness. He (peace be upon him) did not specify this ruling exclusively for an imam or someone praying alone over a follower. Thus, it is impermissible to restrict this ruling to them. Whoever claims that the imam invalidates responsibility for the follower's forgetfulness has spoken falsely without proof and opposed the aforementioned command of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) through personal opinion. There is no disagreement between us and them regarding the ruling that if someone omits a rakʿah, prostration, or commits an invalidating act—whether all of that was inadvertent or deliberate—the imam does not invalidate responsibility for him. How then did they conclude that the imam invalidates responsibility for the remaining obligatory acts they forgot? This is truly astonishing. This opinion has been reported from Ibn Sirin and others.

L7272 And this is the opinion of Abū Sulaymān, and should we adopt it?

[مَسْأَلَةٌ سَهَا الْمَأْمُومُ وَلَمْ يَسْهُ الْإِمَامُ]

٤٧٠ - مَسْأَلَةٌ:

وَإِذَا سَهَا الْمَأْمُومُ وَلَمْ يَسْهُ الْإِمَامُ فَفَرْضٌ عَلَى الْمَأْمُومِ أَنْ يَسْجُدَ لِلسَّهْوِ، كَمَا كَانَ يَسْجُدُ لَوْ كَانَ مُنْفَرِدًا أَوْ إمَامًا وَلَا فَرْقَ؟ لِأَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَمَرَ كَمَا أَوْرَدْنَا آنِفًا كُلَّ مَنْ أَوْهَمَ فِي صَلَاتِهِ بِسَجْدَتَيْ السَّهْوِ، وَلَمْ يَخُصَّ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِذَلِكَ إمَامًا وَلَا مُنْفَرِدًا مِنْ مَأْمُومٍ، فَلَا يَحِلُّ تَخْصِيصُهُمْ فِي ذَلِكَ. وَمَنْ قَالَ: إنَّ الْإِمَامَ يَحْمِلُ السَّهْوَ عَنْ الْمَأْمُومِ -: فَقَدْ أَبْطَلَ، وَقَالَ مَا لَا بُرْهَانَ لَهُ بِهِ، وَخَالَفَ أَمْرَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - الْمَذْكُورَ بِرَأْيِهِ، وَلَا خِلَافَ مِنَّا وَمِنْهُمْ فِي أَنَّ مَنْ أَسْقَطَ رَكْعَةً أَوْ سَجْدَةً أَوْ أَحْدَثَ - سَهْوًا كَانَ كُلُّ ذَلِكَ أَوْ عَمْدًا - فَإِنَّ الْإِمَامَ لَا يَحْمِلُهُ عَنْهُ، فَمِنْ أَيْنَ وَقَعَ لَهُمْ أَنْ يَحْمِلَ عَنْهُ سَائِرَ مَا سَهَا فِيهِ مِنْ فَرْضٍ؟ إنَّ هَذَا لَعَجَبٌ. وَقَدْ رُوِيَ هَذَا الْقَوْلُ عَنْ ابْنِ سِيرِينَ وَغَيْرِهِ.

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَبِهِ نَأْخُذُ؟

[مَسْأَلَةٌ سَجَدَ سَجْدَتَيْ السَّهْوِ عَلَى غَيْرِ طَهَارَةٍ]

tions of forgetfulness without ritual purity.

L7274 Issue 471: If a person performs the two prostrations of forgetfulness without being in a state of ritual purification, are they valid for him, and is this act considered disliked (makrūh)?

٤٧١ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ سَجَدَ سَجْدَتَيْ السَّهْوِ عَلَى غَيْرِ طَهَارَةٍ أَجْزَأَتَا عَنْهُ وَنَكْرَهُ ذَلِكَ؟ .

L7275–7277 The proof of that is: what we have mentioned of what was narrated to us by Abdullah ibn Rabi‘, who narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Mu‘awiyah al-Marwani narrated to us. Ahmad ibn Shu’ayb narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Bashar narrated to us, [saying]: Muhammad ibn Ja‘far Ghundar and ‘Abd al-Rahman ibn Mahdi both said together: Shu‘bah narrated to us from Ya‘la ibn ‘Ata’ that he heard ‘Ali ibn ‘Abd Allah al-Azdi—who is al-Bariqi—narrate that he heard Ibn ‘Umar narrate that the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—said: “Prayers during the night and day are two by two.”

بُرْهَانُ ذَلِكَ -: مَا قَدْ ذَكَرْنَاهُ مِمَّا حَدَّثَنَاهُ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ الْمَرْوَانِيُّ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ غُنْدَرٌ - وَعَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ مَهْدِيٍّ قَالَا جَمِيعًا: ثنا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ يَعْلَى بْنِ عَطَاءٍ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ عَلِيَّ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ الْأَزْدِيَّ هُوَ الْبَارِقِيُّ - أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ ابْنَ عُمَرَ يُحَدِّثُ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَنَّهُ قَالَ: «صَلَاةُ اللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ مَثْنَى مَثْنَى» .

L7278 Ali said: It is impermissible for any prayer to be performed except in two-unit sequences, except those which the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, specifically named as prayers not in pairs: such as the obligatory prayers consisting of four units each, Witr prayer, the four-unit prayer before Dhuhr and after Jumu’ah (Friday) without offering salutations between them, and the funeral prayer. Other than these, it is not considered a prayer. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, did not designate the two prostrations of forgetfulness as a prayer. Ablution is only strictly required for prayer - as narrated to us through the chain: Abdullah ibn Yusuf → Ahmad ibn Fath → Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa → Ahmad ibn Muhammad → Ahmad ibn Ali → Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj → Muhammad ibn Amr ibn Abbad ibn Jabalah → Abu Asim → Ibn Jurayj → Sa’id ibn al-Huwayrith, who reported hearing Ibn Abbas state: “The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, answered the call of nature, then had food brought to him. He ate without performing ablution.”

Ibn Jurayj added through Amr ibn Dinar → Sa’id ibn al-Huwayrith: “When someone asked the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, ’Did you not perform ablution?’ he replied: ’I had no intention to pray, so I did not perform ablution.’” Amr inquired: “Did I hear this directly from Sa’id ibn al-Huwayrith?” We also narrated it from Sufyan ibn Uyaynah and Hammad

L7279 Issue: The most preferable practice is to utter Allāhu Akbar (Takbīr) for each of the two prostrations of forgetfulness and to recite the Tashahhud after both prostrations.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ الْأَفْضَلُ أَنْ يُكَبِّرَ لِكُلِّ سَجْدَةٍ مِنْ سَجْدَتَيْ السَّهْوِ وَيَتَشَهَّدَ بَعْدَهُمَا]

L7280 Issue 472: The most preferable practice is to pronounce "Allāhu Akbar" for each prostration of the two prostrations of forgetfulness, recite the Tashahhud afterward, then conclude with the Salām after them. If one performs only the two prostrations without any of these acts, it is valid.

٤٧٢ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَالْأَفْضَلُ أَنْ يُكَبِّرَ لِكُلِّ سَجْدَةٍ مِنْ سَجْدَتَيْ السَّهْوِ وَيَتَشَهَّدَ بَعْدَهُمَا وَيُسَلِّمَ مِنْهُمَا، فَإِنْ اقْتَصَرَ عَلَى السَّجْدَتَيْنِ دُونَ شَيْءٍ مِنْ ذَلِكَ أَجْزَأَهُ

L7281–7283 Ali said: As for limiting oneself to the two prostrations in prayer alone, this ruling derives from the evidence we earlier cited from his command—peace be upon him—. For one who is uncertain in his prayer, adds to it, or omits from it, [the ruling is] two prostrations. Did he (peace be upon him) not command anything else besides that regarding them?

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: أَمَّا الِاقْتِصَارُ عَلَى السَّجْدَتَيْنِ فَقَطْ، فَلِمَا أَوْرَدْنَاهُ آنِفًا مِنْ أَمْرِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - مَنْ أَوْهَمَ فِي صَلَاتِهِ أَوْ زَادَ أَوْ نَقَصَ: بِسَجْدَتَيْنِ، وَلَمْ يَأْمُرْ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - فِيهِمَا بِغَيْرِ ذَلِكَ؟

L7284 As for our choice of the Takbīr for them two, the Tashahhud, and the Salām—it is based on what ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Isḥāq narrated to us: Ibn al-Aʿrābī narrated to us: Abū Dāwūd narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn ʿUbayd ibn Ḥisāb narrated to us: Ḥammād—that is, Ibn Zayd—narrated from Ayyūb al-Sakhtiyānī, from Muḥammad ibn Sīrīn, from Abū Hurayrah, who said: "Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—led us in one of the two afternoon prayers—the Ẓuhr, he said, or the ʿAṣr. He prayed two rakʿahs with us, then said the Salām. Then he went to a wooden post at the front of the mosque, placed his hands on it—one over the other—with anger recognizable on his face. People hurried out saying: 'The prayer has been shortened! The prayer has been shortened!' Among them were Abū Bakr and ʿUmar, but both of them feared to address him. A man whom the Prophet called Dhū al-Yadayn stood up and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, did you forget or has the prayer been shortened?' He replied: 'Did I forget, or has the prayer been shortened?' The man said: 'Rather, you forgot, O Messenger of Allah!' The Prophet turned to the people and asked: 'Is Dhū al-Yadayn truthful?' They responded: 'Yes, indeed.'

He returned to his position, prayed the remaining two rakʿahs, then said the Salām. Then he pronounced Takbīr, prostrated similarly to his prostration—or longer—then rose and pronounced Takbīr. Then he pronounced Takbīr again, prostrated similarly to his prostration—or longer—then rose and pronounced Takbīr." When Muḥammad ibn Sīrīn was asked: "Did he say the Salām in the forgetfulness [prostration]?" he answered: "I did not retain this from Abū Hurayrah, but I was informed that ʿImrān ibn al-Ḥuṣayn said: 'Then he said the Salām.'"

L7285 From him, it reaches Abū Dāwūd: Muḥammad ibn Yaḥyā ibn Fāris narrated to us; Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn al-Muthannā narrated to us; Ashʿath—who is the son of ʿAbd al-Malik—related to me from Muḥammad ibn Sīrīn from Khālid al-Ḥadhdhā from Abu Qilābah from Abu al-Muhallab from ʿImrān ibn al-Ḥuṣayn: "That the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) became forgetful, so he prostrated twice, then recited the tashahhud, then gave the salām."

L7286–7287 Ali said, "These are actions, not commands. So is emulating them commendable?" It has been narrated to us from Ibn Jurayj, via ʿAṭāʾ, that he said: "There is no recitation, bowing, or tashahhud in the two prostrations of forgetfulness."

L7288 Al-Hajjaj ibn Al-Minhal narrated to us from Hammad ibn Salamah, from Qatadah, from Anas ibn Malik and Al-Hasan, that the two of them held the opinion that one does not recite the Tashahhud in the two prostrations of forgetfulness.

L7289 And from al-Ḥasan: "There is no Taslīm in them." ʿAlī said: "It is necessary in both to say 'Glory be to my Lord, the Most High,' based on the statement of Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him): 'Include it in your prostrations'—and does this not imply a general ruling applicable to all prostrations?"

L7290 Issue: The entire prostration of forgetfulness is performed after the salam, except in two instances.

L7291 473 - Issue: All prostration of forgetfulness (sajdah al-sahw) is performed after concluding the prayer with salām except in two situations where the forgetful worshiper may choose to perform the two prostrations of forgetfulness either before or after salām.

The first situation occurs when one forgetfully rises from the two rakʿahs without sitting for the tashahhud. This applies equally to an imam or individual worshiper. Once fully upright, it is impermissible to return to sitting. If one deliberately returns while aware of this prohibition, their prayer is invalidated. If done forgetfully, the prayer remains valid but requires prostrations. They must continue the prayer, and upon completing the final tashahhud, may choose to perform the two prostrations of forgetfulness before salām or after it.

The second situation arises when one is uncertain: in a two-rakʿah prayer – "Did I pray one or two rakʿahs?" In a three-rakʿah prayer – "Did I pray one, two, or three rakʿahs?" In a four-rakʿah prayer – "Did I pray four or fewer?" Here, they must assume the lesser number and pray continuously until achieving certainty of having completed the required rakʿahs, even if they doubt having added extra rakʿahs.

L7292–7293 If he recites the Tashahhud at the conclusion of his prayer, he may choose: if he wishes, he may perform the two prostrations of forgetfulness before the salutation and then conclude with the salutation; or if he wishes, he may conclude with the salutation and then perform the two prostrations of forgetfulness. If he realizes during this process that he has indeed completed the prayer, he must immediately sit, recite the Tashahhud, conclude with the salutation without exception, then perform the prostrations of forgetfulness. If he recalls after concluding the salutation and prostrating that he had attained greater certainty, there is no obligation upon him, and his prayer remains valid. Prostrations of forgetfulness in voluntary prayers are obligatory, just as in obligatory prayers. Is there any distinction in all that we have mentioned? Imam Abu Hanifah said: All prostrations of forgetfulness occur after the salutation. Imam al-Shafiʿi said: They all occur before the salutation. Imam Malik said: They occur after the salutation for additions and before the salutation for omissions. ʿAli said: Abu Hanifah relied on some narrations while disregarding others, and this is impermissible. Similarly, al-Shafiʿi acted thus and added a theoretical argument, stating: "Compensation for an act can only occur within it, not separately." 'Ali said: It is impermissible to oppose the words of Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—with speculative reasoning. Would that I knew from where they derived that compensation for an act cannot occur except within it, not separately? They unanimously agree that the sacrificial offering and fasting compensate for deficiencies in Hajj rituals, even though these compensations occur after departing from Hajj. Similarly, freeing a slave, giving charity, or fasting two months compensate for the deficiency caused by intentional intercourse during Ramadan's daytime—some of these compensations are only permissible after completing the act, while others are permissible thereafter. These are the traits of opinions unjustifiably imposed upon the religion without any evidence from Allah—the Exalted—or from His Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him.

وَأَمَّا قَوْلُ مَالِكٍ، فَرَأْيٌ مُجَرَّدٌ فَاسِدٌ بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ عَلَى صِحَّتِهِ، وَهُوَ أَيْضًا مُخَالِفٌ لِلثَّابِتِ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِنْ أَمْرِهِ بِسُجُودِ السَّهْوِ قَبْلَ السَّلَامِ مَنْ شَكَّ فَلَمْ يَدْرِ كَمْ صَلَّى؟ وَهُوَ سَهْوُ زِيَادَةٍ

L7294 As for the statement of Mālik, it is a mere opinion, invalid without any proof of its validity, and it also contradicts what is established from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, regarding his command that whoever doubts and does not know how much he has prayed must perform the prostration of forgetfulness before the salutation. And it is the prostration for an unintentional addition [in prayer].

فَبَطَلَتْ هَذِهِ الْأَقْوَالُ كُلُّهَا، وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L7295 Therefore, all these statements have been invalidated, and success is from Allah, the Exalted.

L7296–7299 Ali said: The proof for the validity of our opinion lies in what Abdullah ibn Rabi' narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb narrated to us: Al-Hasan ibn Isma'il ibn Sulayman narrated to us: Al-Fudayl—that is, Ibn Iyad—narrated from Mansur ibn Al-Mu'tamir from Ibrahim Al-Nakha'i from Alqamah from Ibn Mas'ud: That the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—said to them: "Whoever among you forgets something, let him carefully determine what he deems correct, then conclude with the salutation, then perform two prostrations for forgetfulness." Abdullah ibn Rabi' narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Ishaq narrated to us: Ibn Al-A'rabi narrated to us: Abu Dawud narrated to us: Uthman ibn Abi Shaybah narrated to us: Jarir narrated from Mansur from Ibrahim from Alqamah, who said: Abdullah—that is, Ibn Mas'ud—said: "The Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—said to them in a hadith: 'If any of you doubts during his prayer, let him strive to ascertain what is correct, complete it, then conclude with the salutation, then perform two prostrations.'" Ali said: We have reported it through numerous reliable chains of the utmost excellence. Thus, if no other Sunnah besides this were reported, it would not be permissible to perform the prostration of forgetfulness except after the salutation. Yunus ibn Abdullah ibn Mughith narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb narrated to us: Qutaybah ibn Sa'id narrated to us from Malik ibn Anas from Ibn Shihab from Al-A'raj from Abdullah ibn Buhaynah, who said: "The Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—led us in two rak'ahs, then stood up without sitting, and the people stood with him. When he completed the prayer and we awaited his salutation, he said 'Allahu Akbar,' performed two prostrations while seated before the salutation, then concluded with the salutation." He—peace be upon him—did not return to the sitting position, and he—peace be upon him—said: "Pray as you see me pray." Abdullah ibn Rabi' narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Ishaq narrated to us: Ibn Al-A'rabi narrated to us: Abu Dawud narrated to us: Ubaydullah ibn Umar Al-Jushami narrated to us: Yazid ibn Harun narrated to us: Al-Mas'udi—that is, Abu Al-'Umays 'Utbah ibn... From Abdullah ibn Mas'ud, from Ziyad ibn 'Ilaqah, who said: "Al-Mughirah ibn Shu'bah led us in prayer and stood up after the two rak'ahs. We said, 'Subhanallah,' so he responded, 'Subhanallah,' and continued. When he completed his prayer and said the salam, he performed two prostrations of forgetfulness. After concluding, he said: 'I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) do as I did.'"[32]

L7300 Ali said: Both reports are authentic—so is following either of them a Sunnah? Some followers of Abū Ḥanīfah said: Perhaps Ibn Buḥaynah did not hear the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, when he uttered the salām. Ali said: This is an excuse based on a baseless claim of falsehood and discarding the Prophetic traditions through a false assumption. It is impermissible to say regarding what a reliable narrator (how much more so a Companion) has reported: "Perhaps it is an error," except with definitive proof establishing it as an error. As for basing this on mere assumption, it is not permissible.

L7301 He—peace be upon him—said: “Beware of suspicion, for suspicion is the most deceitful speech.” Among the falsehoods is the claim that Allah’s Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—would conclude his prayer with the salutation while those praying behind him would neither respond to his salutation nor offer theirs in the same manner he did—and that Ibn Buḥaynah heard nothing of this. None would assert such except one lacking modesty, feeble in faith, and indifferent to falsehood. ʿAbdullāh ibn Yūsuf narrated to us from Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ, from ʿAbd al-Wahhāb ibn ʿĪsā, from Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad, from Aḥmad ibn ʿAlī, from Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj; Muḥammad ibn Aḥmad ibn Abī Khalaf narrated to me from Mūsā ibn Dāwūd, from Sulaymān ibn Bilāl, from Zayd ibn Aslam, from ʿAṭāʾ ibn Yasār, from Abi Saʿid al-Khudrī, who said: Allah’s Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—said: “When any of you doubts during prayer, uncertain whether he has prayed three or four units, let him dismiss the doubt and build upon what is certain, then perform two prostrations (of forgetfulness) before giving the salutation.”

L7302–7304 Abdullah ibn Rabiʿ narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Ishaq reported, from Ibn al-Aʿrabi, from Abu Dawud, from Muhammad ibn al-ʿAlaʾ (Abu Kuraib), from Abu Khalid al-Ahmar, from Muhammad ibn ʿAjlan, from Zayd ibn. Aslam reported from ‘Ata’ ibn Yasar from Abu Saʿid al-Khudri, who said: The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: “If any of you has doubt in his prayer, let him discard the doubt and act according to what he is certain of. When he is certain of completion, let him perform two prostrations. If his prayer was complete, the rakʿah and the two prostrations become voluntary. If it was deficient, the rakʿah completes his prayer, and the two prostrations become a means of vexing the devil.”

L7305 And it was narrated by us through Mālik’s transmission as a mursal narration.

L7306 This is the precise text of what we have stated and the explanation of the verification mentioned in the Hadith of Ibn Mas’ud.

قَالَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - «إِيَّاكُمْ وَالظَّنَّ فَإِنَّ الظَّنَّ أَكْذَبُ الْحَدِيثِ» . وَمِنْ الْبَاطِلِ أَنْ يُسَلِّمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِنْ صَلَاتِهِ وَلَا يُسَلِّمَ الْمُؤْتَمُّونَ بِسَلَامِهِ، وَأَنْ يُسَلِّمُوا كَمَا سَلَّمَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - وَلَا يَسْمَعَ ابْنُ بُحَيْنَةَ شَيْئًا مِنْ ذَلِكَ فَلَا يَدَّعِي هَذَا إلَّا قَلِيلُ الْحَيَاءِ، رَقِيقُ الدِّينِ مُسْتَهِينٌ بِالْكَذِبِ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ حَدَّثَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ بْنِ أَبِي خَلَفٍ ثنا مُوسَى بْنُ دَاوُد ثنا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ بِلَالٍ عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ أَسْلَمَ عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «إذَا شَكَّ أَحَدُكُمْ فِي صَلَاتِهِ فَلَمْ يَدْرِ كَمْ صَلَّى، أَثَلَاثًا أَمْ أَرْبَعًا فَلْيَطْرَحْ الشَّكَّ وَلْيَبْنِ عَلَى مَا اسْتَيْقَنَ، ثُمَّ يَسْجُدُ سَجْدَتَيْنِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُسَلِّمَ» .

L7307 In this lies the refutation of Abū Ḥanīfah's opinion: if that occurs to him for the first time, he repeats the prayer, but after that he should strive to ascertain his strongest conviction - though this categorization is baseless, as it lacks evidence. ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Isḥāq narrated to us: Ibn al-Aʿrābī narrated to us: Abū Dāwūd narrated to us: Ḥafṣ ibn ʿUmar al-Hawḍī - and Muslim ibn Ibrāhīm narrated to us: Shuʿbah narrated from al-Ḥakam ibn ʿUtaybah - from Ibrāhīm - from ʿAlqamah - from ʿAbdullāh ibn Masʿūd, who said: "Allah's Messenger - peace and blessings be upon him - prayed Dhuhr as five [units]. Someone asked: 'Was the prayer lengthened?' He responded: 'What do you mean?' They said: 'You prayed five [units].' Thereupon he performed two prostrations after he had said the salām."

فَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ: مَنْ صَلَّى خَمْسًا سَاهِيًا فَصَلَاتُهُ بَاطِلٌ، إلَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ جَلَسَ فِي آخِرِ الرَّابِعَةِ مِقْدَارَ التَّشَهُّدِ.

L7308 Abu Hanifah said: Whoever prays five [rakʿahs] out of forgetfulness, his prayer is invalid, unless he has sat at the end of the fourth rakʿah for the duration of the tashahhud.

L7309 Ali said: This division contradicts the Sunnah, lies outside the scope of qiyas, and is far removed from sound judgment. It was narrated to us through Yahya ibn Sa'id al-Qattan, from Sufyan al-Thawri, from his father, from al-Harith ibn Shibl, from Abdullah ibn Shaddad: Ibn Umar did not sit during the two rak'ahs, so he proceeded. When he concluded his prayer with the salutation, he performed two prostrations of forgetfulness and recited the tashahhud twice.

حَدَّثَنَا يُوسُفُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ النَّمَرِيُّ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَارِثِ بْنُ سُفْيَانَ ثنا قَاسِمُ بْنُ أَصْبَغَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ زُهَيْرِ بْنِ حَرْبٍ ثنا أَبِي ثنا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ الضَّرِيرُ عَنْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ بْنِ أَبِي خَالِدٍ عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ أَبِي حَازِمٍ عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ «أَنَّهُ نَهَضَ فِي الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ فَسَبَّحُوا لَهُ، فَاسْتَتَمَّ قَائِمًا، ثُمَّ سَجَدَ سَجْدَتَيْ السَّهْوِ حِينَ انْصَرَفَ ثُمَّ قَالَ: كُنْتُمْ تَرَوْنِي أَجْلِسُ إنِّي صَنَعْتُ كَمَا رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - صَنَعَ» .

L7310–7312 Yusuf ibn Abdallah al-Namari narrated to us, Abd al-Warith ibn Sufyan narrated to us, Qasim ibn Asbagh narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Zuhayr ibn Harb narrated to us, my father narrated to us, Abu Mu'awiyah al-Darir narrated to us from Ismail ibn Abi Khalid from Qays ibn Abi Hazim from Sa'd ibn Abi Waqqas: "He began to rise during the two rakʿahs, so they alerted him by saying Subḥān Allāh, and he settled back to properly conclude." He stood, then performed the two prostrations of forgetfulness after concluding the prayer, and said: "You saw me sitting; I did exactly as I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) do."

L7313 Narrated by Sufyan al-Thawri from Abdullah ibn Dinar: I heard Ibn Umar say, “If any of you doubts during his prayer, let him strive until he is certain he has completed it, then let him perform two prostrations of forgetfulness while sitting.”

Ibn ʻUmar interpreted careful investigation (al-taharri) as we have stated. If someone were to argue using what we narrated through the chain of ʻAbd al-Razzaq from Maʻmar and Sufyan ibn ʻUyaynah, both from Ayyub al-Sakhtiyānī from Ibn Sirin from ʻImran ibn al-Husayn from the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—that he said, “The salutation (taslim) is after the two prostrations of forgetfulness,” we would respond that Ibn Sirin did not hear from ʻImran ibn al-Husayn, so this chain is disconnected. Even if it were supported by a continuous chain, it would not contradict the command of the Prophet—peace be upon him—to perform the prostrations of forgetfulness after the salutation, but rather it would be an addition to it. It would only indicate that after the two prostrations, there is a salutation after them alone. Success is from Allah, the Exalted.

It has been reported to us from ʿAṭāʾ regarding the obligation of the prostration of forgetfulness in voluntary prayers, and the generality of the Prophet’s command—peace and blessings of Allāh be upon him—concerning whoever introduces doubt during prayer, necessitating the two prostrations of forgetfulness: voluntary prayer is included within this ruling. It is impermissible to exclude it through conjecture, and in Allāh the Exalted we place our reliance.

Issue: Being Compelled to Prostrate to an Idol or Cross

474 - Issue: If someone is compelled to prostrate to an idol, a cross, or a human being and fears being beaten, harmed, or killed - whether the harm is directed at themselves or another Muslim - if they do not comply, they should prostrate to God Almighty facing the idol, the cross, or the human. They need not care whether they prostrate toward the Qiblah or elsewhere. Some people have said: If the one they are ordered to prostrate to is situated in the direction of the Qiblah, then let them prostrate to God - otherwise, they should not.

Ali said: This is a flawed division, because deliberately and intentionally preventing prostration to God Almighty in every direction did not result in an actual prohibition.

وَعَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ دِينَارٍ سَمِعْتُ ابْنَ عُمَرَ يَقُولُ: إذَا شَكَّ أَحَدُكُمْ فِي صَلَاتِهِ فَلْيَتَوَخَّ حَتَّى يَعْلَمَ أَنَّهُ قَدْ أَتَمَّ، ثُمَّ لِيَسْجُدْ سَجْدَتَيْنِ وَهُوَ جَالِسٌ.

L7319–7320 Allah, the Exalted, said: “So wherever you turn, there is the Face of Allah.” [Al-Baqarah: 115][33]

L7321 Indeed, we have been commanded to face the Kaaba specifically in prayer, while prostration alone is not prayer. It is permissible without ritual purity, to face a direction other than the Qibla, and for menstruating women, because no text has come obligating that in it. And He, the Exalted, said: “Except those who are compelled while their hearts are firm in faith” (Surah An-Nahl 16:106).[34]

L7322 An issue regarding inability to stand or concerning any of the obligations of his prayer.

L7323 Issue 475: Whoever is unable to stand or perform any obligatory elements of their prayer shall perform it seated. If incapable even of this, then lying down with head gestures. He is excused from what he cannot perform; it suffices him, and no prostration of forgetfulness (sujūd al-sahw) is required in such cases. When lying down, he should position himself as possible - either on his side with his face toward the qibla, or on his back positioned such that if he could stand, he would face the qibla. If unable even for this, he should pray as he is able - whether facing the qibla or otherwise. Similarly, one blinded shall pray as he is able. Allah the Exalted said: “Allah does not burden any soul beyond its capacity” (2:286).[35]

L7324 And He, the Exalted, said: “He has already spelled out in detail what He has forbidden you, except what you are compelled to [do].” [Al-An‘ām 6:119][36]

L7325 The Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—said: “When I instruct you to do something, fulfill from it to the best of your ability.”

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا تَقْسِيمٌ فَاسِدٌ، لِأَنَّ الْمَنْعَ مِنْ السُّجُودِ لِلَّهِ تَعَالَى إلَى كُلِّ جِهَةٍ عَمْدًا قَصْدًا لَمْ يَأْتِ مِنْهُ مَنْعٌ.

وَأَمَرَ تَعَالَى عَلَى لِسَانِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِالتَّدَاوِي؟ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ إِسْحَاقَ ثنا ابْنُ الْأَعْرَابِيِّ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا حَفْصُ بْنُ عُمَرَ هُوَ الْحَوْضِيُّ - ثنا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ زِيَادِ بْنِ عِلَاقَةَ عَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ شَرِيكٍ قَالَ: «أَتَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَأَصْحَابُهُ كَأَنَّمَا عَلَى رُءُوسِهِمْ الطَّيْرُ، فَسَلَّمْتُ ثُمَّ قَعَدْتُ، فَجَاءَتْ الْأَعْرَابُ مِنْ هَهُنَا وَهَهُنَا، فَقَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَنَتَدَاوَى؟ قَالَ: تَدَاوَوْا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَمْ يَضَعْ دَاءً إلَّا وَضَعَ لَهُ دَوَاءً غَيْرَ دَاءٍ وَاحِدٍ: الْهَرَمُ» . فَإِنْ ذَكَرُوا: أَنَّ عَائِشَةَ نَهَتْ ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ عَنْ ذَلِكَ قُلْنَا: كَمْ قِصَّةٍ لَهَا - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا - خَالَفْتُمُوهَا؟ حَيْثُ لَا يُعْلَمُ لَهَا مُخَالِفٌ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -، وَحَيْثُ لَمْ تَأْتِ سُنَّةٌ بِخِلَافِهَا -: كَأَمْرِهَا الْمُسْتَحَاضَةَ بِالْوُضُوءِ لِكُلِّ صَلَاةٍ إيجَابًا وَمَعَهَا فِي ذَلِكَ: عَلِيُّ بْنُ أَبِي طَالِبٍ، وَابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ، وَابْنُ الزُّبَيْرِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْ جَمِيعِهِمْ، وَلَا مُخَالِفَ لَهُمْ فِي ذَلِكَ يُعْرَفُ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ، وَمَعَهَا السُّنَّةُ الصَّحِيحَةُ.

L7326–7328 The Almighty commanded through the words of His Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—to seek treatment. Abdullah ibn Rabi‘ narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Ishaq narrated to us; Ibn al-A‘rabi narrated to us; Abu Dawud narrated to us; Hafs ibn ‘Umar (al-Ḥawḍī) narrated to us; Shu‘bah narrated from Ziyad ibn ‘Ilaqah from Usamah ibn Sharik, who said: “I came to the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—while his companions sat as motionless as if birds were perched on their heads. I offered greetings, then sat down. Bedouins came from every side and asked: ’O Messenger of Allah, should we seek treatment?’ He replied: ’Seek treatment, for Allah has not created any disease without creating its cure except one: old age.’” If they mention that ‘Aisha forbade Ibn ‘Abbas from seeking treatment. We said: How many rulings of hers—may Allah be pleased with her—have you opposed, where no opposing Companion is known—may Allah be pleased with them—and no Prophetic tradition comes contradicting her position? Such as her instruction to the mustahādah woman to perform ablution for every prayer as an obligation, wherein she was joined by Ali ibn Abi Talib, Ibn Abbas, and Ibn al-Zubayr—may Allah be pleased with them all—with no dissenting Companion recognized in this matter, while the authentic Sunnah supports her position.

وَكَإِمَامَتِهَا هِيَ، وَأُمِّ سَلَمَةَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا -: النِّسَاءَ فِي الْفَرِيضَةِ، وَلَا مُخَالِفَ لَهُمَا فِي ذَلِكَ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ يُعْرَفُ.

L7329 And as for her leading the prayer, it is—along with Umm Salamah, may Allah be pleased with them both—[the ruling regarding] women in the obligatory prayer. No opposer to them both among the Companions is known concerning this.

وَمِثْلُ هَذَا كَثِيرٌ جِدًّا فَإِنْ كَانَ لَا يَحِلُّ خِلَافُهَا فِي مَكَان لَمْ يَحِلَّ فِي كُلِّ مَكَان، وَإِنْ كَانَ خِلَافُهَا لِلسُّنَّةِ مُبَاحًا فِي مَوْضِعٍ فَهُوَ وَاجِبٌ بِالسُّنَّةِ فِي كُلِّ مَوْضِعٍ

L7330 Similar cases are very numerous. If opposing it is not permissible in one situation, it is not permissible in all situations. And if opposing it in accordance with the Sunnah is permissible in a situation, it is obligatory by the Sunnah in every situation.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ ابْتَدَأَ الصَّلَاةَ مَرِيضًا مُومِئًا أَوْ قَاعِدًا أَوْ رَاكِبًا لِخَوْفٍ ثُمَّ أَفَاقَ أَوْ أَمِنَ]

A case: one who began prayer either while ill or [while] nodding (in lieu of bowing), sitting, or riding due to fear, then recovered or was no longer in fear.

L7332 Issue 476: If someone begins prayer while ill, or due to fear [by] gesturing, sitting, or riding - then recovers or attains safety: the one who recovers must stand, and the one who attains safety must dismount. They both continue from what they have already performed of their prayer and complete what remains. Their prayer is complete, whether the portion already performed was its smallest part, only the opening takbīr, or nothing remained except the salutation and what is between them. Are all these cases equal?

٤٧٦ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ ابْتَدَأَ الصَّلَاةَ مَرِيضًا مُومِئًا أَوْ قَاعِدًا أَوْ رَاكِبًا لِخَوْفٍ ثُمَّ أَفَاقَ أَوْ أَمِنَ -: قَامَ الْمُفِيقُ وَنَزَلَ الْآمِنُ، وَبَنَيَا عَلَى مَا مَضَى مِنْ صَلَاتِهِمَا، وَأَتَمَّا مَا بَقِيَ، وَصَلَاتُهُمَا تَامَّةٌ، سَوَاءٌ كَانَ مَا مَضَى مِنْهَا أَقَلَّهَا أَوْ لَمْ يَكُنْ إلَّا التَّكْبِيرُ، أَوْ لَمْ يَبْقَ مِنْهَا إلَّا السَّلَامُ فَمَا بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ، كُلُّ ذَلِكَ سَوَاءٌ؟ .

L7333 And whoever begins his prayer in a sound state – standing and facing the Qiblah – then is afflicted by an illness that compels him to sit, to gesture, or to face a direction other than the Qiblah, or fears [something] and is forced to ride, run, or ward off [harm], let him continue based on what he has already performed of his prayer and complete what remains, as we have stated, alike and without difference. This is based on what we cited from the statement of the Exalted: "Allah does not burden any soul beyond its capacity" [Al-Baqarah: 286].[37]

وَمَنْ ابْتَدَأَ صَلَاتَهُ صَحِيحًا قَائِمًا إلَى الْقِبْلَةِ، ثُمَّ مَرِضَ مَرَضًا أَصَارَهُ إلَى الْقُعُودِ، أَوْ إلَى الْإِيمَاءِ، أَوْ إلَى غَيْرِ الْقِبْلَةِ. أَوْ خَافَ فَاضْطُرَّ إلَى الرُّكُوبِ وَالرَّكْضِ وَالدِّفَاعِ -: فَلْيَبْنِ عَلَى مَا مَضَى مِنْ صَلَاتِهِ، وَلْيُتِمَّ مَا بَقِيَ، كَمَا ذَكَرْنَا سَوَاءٌ وَلَا فَرْقَ، لِمَا ذَكَرْنَا مِنْ قَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: {لا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلا وُسْعَهَا} [البقرة: ٢٨٦] .

L7334 And due to the statement of Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him: "When I command you with a matter, fulfill it as much as you are able." This is the opinion of Mālik, Zufar, Abū Sulaymān, and others. Al-Shāfiʿī said: If security returns after fear, he dismounts, completes the prayer, and it is validly concluded. But if fear arises after security and he mounts, he begins the prayer anew. ʿAlī said: This is an invalid categorization and an arbitrary differentiation—based on his principle—between small and large amounts of action, and it is a principle that is utterly corrupt.

وَلِقَوْلِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «إذَا أَمَرْتُكُمْ بِأَمْرٍ فَأْتُوا مِنْهُ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ؟» . وَهُوَ قَوْلُ مَالِكٍ، وَزُفَرَ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَغَيْرِهِمْ. وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ: إنْ أَمِنَ بَعْدَ الْخَوْفِ فَنَزَلَ بَنَى وَتَمَّتْ صَلَاتُهُ، وَإِنْ خَافَ بَعْدَ الْأَمْنِ فَرَكِبَ ابْتَدَأَ الصَّلَاةَ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا تَقْسِيمٌ فَاسِدٌ، وَتَفْرِيقٌ - عَلَى أَصْلِهِ - بَيْنَ قَلِيلِ الْعَمَلِ وَكَثِيرِهِ، وَهُوَ أَصْلٌ فِي غَايَةِ الْفَسَادِ.

L7335–7336 And He, the Exalted, said: "But if you fear [danger], then [pray] on foot or mounted" [Al-Baqarah 239].[38]

وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {فَإِنْ خِفْتُمْ فَرِجَالا أَوْ رُكْبَانًا} [البقرة: ٢٣٩] .

L7337 Some of the Companions prayed while walking toward their enemy. Abū Ḥanīfah said: Whoever initiates prayer seated due to an illness affecting them and then becomes able to stand during it must continue [from their current position]; his ruling on this matter is unequivocal.

وَقَدْ صَلَّى بَعْضُ الصَّحَابَةِ مَاشِيًا إلَى عَدُوِّهِ. وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ: مَنْ ابْتَدَأَ الصَّلَاةَ جَالِسًا لِمَرَضٍ بِهِ ثُمَّ صَحَّ فِي صَلَاتِهِ فَإِنَّهُ يَبْنِي، لَا يَخْتَلِفُ قَوْلُهُ فِي ذَلِكَ.

[38] Qur'an references (L7336): Qur'an 2:239 (Al-Baqarah).

L7338 His rulings differed regarding one who begins prayer by gesturing due to illness then recovers during it, and regarding one who initiates prayer healthy and standing but is later afflicted by an illness that causes him to sit or gesture while lying down. At times he ruled: he continues the prayer, and at other times he ruled: he must restart it necessarily—whether this occurs after sitting for the duration of the Tashahhud but before the Taslīm or before sitting for the Tashahhud.

وَاخْتَلَفَ قَوْلُهُ فِي الَّذِي يَفْتَتِحُهَا مُومِئًا لِمَرَضٍ بِهِ ثُمَّ يَصِحُّ فِيهَا، وَفِي الَّذِي يَفْتَتِحُهَا صَحِيحًا قَائِمًا ثُمَّ يَمْرَضُ فِيهَا مَرَضًا يَنْقُلُهُ إِلَى الْقُعُودِ أَوْ إِلَى الْإِيمَاءِ مُضْطَجِعًا. فَمَرَّةً قَالَ: يَبْنِي، وَمَرَّةً قَالَ: يَبْتَدِئُهَا وَلَا بُدَّ، وَسَوَاءٌ أَصَابَهُ ذَلِكَ بَعْدَ أَنْ قَعَدَ مِقْدَارَ التَّشَهُّدِ وَقَبْلَ أَنْ يُسَلِّمَ، أَوْ أَصَابَهُ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ

L7339 This narration is utterly corrupt and entails baseless division to the extent that it is inconceivable how a rational person's mind could conceive accepting it from anyone other than the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), who does not speak from personal desire. {It is nothing but a revelation revealed} [An-Najm: 4] from the Creator, {who is not questioned about what He does, but they will be questioned} [Al-Anbiyā': 23].[39]

L7340 Abū Yūsuf said: If one initiates prayer while healthy and standing, then falls ill and shifts to gesturing or sitting; or begins it while ill and seated then recovers - these individuals must resume their prayer from their current state provided their condition does not change before sitting long enough to recite the Tashahhud. He said: Whoever starts prayer while ill and gesturing, then recovers before sitting for the duration of the Tashahhud - must he necessarily restart the prayer? Muḥammad ibn al-Ḥasan said: Whoever begins prayer while ill - whether seated or gesturing - then recovers during it must restart the prayer without fail. As for one who starts prayer standing, then falls ill before sitting long enough to recite the Tashahhud and shifts to sitting or gesturing - must he continue? ʿAlī remarked: These are utterly invalid assertions without evidence. We have mentioned them only to demonstrate to the people of the Sunnah the extent of these individuals' juristic understanding and knowledge.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ اشْتَغَلَ بَالُهُ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ أُمُورِ الدُّنْيَا فِي الصَّلَاةِ]

L7342–7344 Issue 477: If someone's mind is distracted by any worldly matter during prayer, we consider it disliked (makrūh), and he did not... Would his prayer be invalidated for that reason—with no prostration for forgetfulness in that case—if he knew how he prayed and omitted nothing from his prayer?

٤٧٧ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ اشْتَغَلَ بَالُهُ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ أُمُورِ الدُّنْيَا فِي الصَّلَاةِ كَرِهْنَاهُ، وَلَمْ تَبْطُلْ لِذَلِكَ صَلَاتُهُ، وَلَا سُجُودَ سَهْوٍ فِي ذَلِكَ، إذَا عَرَفَ مَا صَلَّى وَلَمْ يَسْهُ عَنْ شَيْءٍ مِنْ صَلَاتِهِ؟

L7345 The proof of this is what we have cited with its chain of transmission from the statement of the Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—: "Allah has forgiven my nation for what their hearts whisper to them, so long as they do not act on it or speak of it." This is exactly our position.

بُرْهَانُ ذَلِكَ -: مَا قَدْ ذَكَرْنَاهُ بِإِسْنَادِهِ مِنْ قَوْلِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «إنَّ اللَّهَ تَجَاوَزَ لِأُمَّتِي عَمَّا حَدَّثَتْ بِهِ أَنْفُسَهَا مَا لَمْ تُخْرِجْهُ بِقَوْلٍ أَوْ عَمَلٍ» وَهَذَا نَفْسُ قَوْلِنَا.

L7346 If it is said: "You invalidate the prayer by intentionally intending during it to abandon the prayer entirely, to leave the leadership of the imam without a valid justification, to transition from an obligatory prayer to a supererogatory one, from a supererogatory prayer to an obligatory one, or from one prayer to another - if one deliberately does this while aware - and you mandate the prostration of forgetfulness for his inadvertence in such matters," then what is the ruling regarding forgetfulness causing the nullification of the obligations he performed during that state in his prayer?

L7347 We said: Yes, because this person has manifested his inner resolve through action by willfully performing something in his prayer contrary to what was commanded, thereby invalidating his prayer. If he forgot due to that action, he must perform the prostration of forgetfulness. Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us: Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us: Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us: Muhammad ibn al-Muthanna narrated to us: Muadh ibn Hisham narrated to us: My father al-Dastuwa'i narrated to me from Yahya ibn Abi Kathir: Abu Salama ibn Abd al-Rahman narrated that Abu Hurairah reported to them that Allah's Messenger - peace and blessings be upon him - said: "When the call to prayer is proclaimed, Satan retreats while farting until he cannot hear it. When the call concludes, he returns. When the iqamah is proclaimed, he retreats again. When the iqamah concludes, he returns to whisper between a person and his soul, suggesting: 'Remember such-and-such' - matters he had not recalled - until one becomes uncertain of how much he has prayed. If any of you becomes unaware of how much he has prayed, let him perform two prostrations (sajdah) of forgetfulness while seated."

L7348 He (peace be upon him) did not invalidate the prayer due to Satan's reminder of matters that distracted him from his worship, nor did he ordain prostration of forgetfulness for such instances. He (peace be upon him) prescribed prostration of forgetfulness solely for cases of uncertainty about the number of prayer units performed. Through the chain of Waki', from Hisham ibn 'Urwah, from his father: 'Umar ibn al-Khattab stated, "Indeed, I calculate Bahrain's jizyah tax during prayer."

In that prayer of his until he completes it. Then he must pray only the prayer he intended. It is not permissible for him to do otherwise, nor shall he repeat the prayer he mentioned in it.

L7354 Allah, the Exalted, said: "And do not invalidate your deeds" (Muhammad 47:33). Does this pertain to an act whose nullification is prohibited? Abū Ḥanīfah said: If one who mentioned five prayers [but intended] fewer, he must terminate the prayer he is performing and pray the specified prayer. He should invalidate the Dawn Prayer (Fajr), perform the Witr prayer, then repeat the invalidated prayer. If he feared the invalidation of the prayer he was engaged in, he should complete it first, then pray the specified prayer—with no additional [actions].[40]

قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {وَلا تُبْطِلُوا أَعْمَالَكُمْ} [محمد: ٣٣] فَهَذَا فِي عَمَلٍ قَدْ نُهِيَ عَنْ إِبْطَالِهِ؟ وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ: إِنْ كَانَ الَّذِي ذَكَرَ خَمْسَ صَلَوَاتٍ فَأَقَلَّ: قَطَعَ الَّتِي هُوَ فِيهَا وَصَلَّى الَّتِي ذَكَرَ، وَقَطَعَ صَلَاةَ الصُّبْحِ، وَأَوْتَرَ، ثُمَّ صَلَّى الَّتِي قَطَعَ، فَإِنْ خَشِيَ فَوْتَ الَّتِي هُوَ فِيهَا تَمَادَى فِيهَا ثُمَّ صَلَّى الَّتِي ذَكَرَ وَلَا مَزِيدَ.

[40] Qur'an references (L7354): Qur'an 47:33 (Muhammad).

فَإِنْ كَانَتْ الَّتِي ذَكَرَ سِتَّ صَلَوَاتٍ فَصَاعِدًا تَمَادَى فِي صَلَاتِهِ الَّتِي هُوَ فِيهَا ثُمَّ قَضَى الَّتِي ذَكَرَ؟ وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: إنْ كَانَتْ الَّتِي ذَكَرَ خَمْسَ صَلَوَاتٍ فَأَقَلَّ أَتَمَّ الَّتِي هُوَ فِيهَا ثُمَّ صَلَّى الَّتِي ذَكَرَ، ثُمَّ أَعَادَ الَّتِي ذَكَرَهَا فِيهَا.

L7355 If the prayer he mentioned is six prayers or more, he continues the prayer he is performing, then makes up the mentioned prayer. Mālik said: If the prayer he mentioned is five prayers or fewer, he completes the prayer he is performing, then prays the mentioned prayer, then repeats it within the same sequence.

وَإِنْ كَانَتْ سِتَّ صَلَوَاتٍ فَأَكْثَرَ أَتَمَّ الَّتِي هُوَ فِيهَا ثُمَّ قَضَى الَّتِي ذَكَرَهَا وَلَا يُعِيدُ الَّتِي ذَكَرَهَا فِيهَا؟

L7356 If there are six prayers or more, he should complete the one he is performing, then make up the one he mentioned, and he does not repeat the one he mentioned during it.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَانِ قَوْلَانِ فَاسِدَانِ -: أَوَّلُ ذَلِكَ: أَنَّهُ تَقْسِيمٌ بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ، وَلَا فَرْقَ بَيْنَ ذِكْرِ الْخَمْسِ وَذِكْرِ السِّتِّ، لَا بِقُرْآنٍ وَلَا بِسُنَّةٍ صَحِيحَةٍ وَلَا سَقِيمَةٍ وَلَا إجْمَاعٍ وَلَا قَوْلِ صَاحِبٍ، وَلَا قِيَاسٍ وَلَا رَأْيٍ سَدِيدٍ.

L7357 Ali said: These are two defective opinions. The first is that it is a division without proof, with no distinction between mentioning five or six—neither by the Quran, nor by an authentic or weak Sunnah, nor consensus, nor the statement of a Companion, nor analogy, nor a sound opinion.

وَلَا فَرْقَ بَيْنَ وُجُوبِ التَّرْتِيبِ فِي صَلَاةِ يَوْمٍ وَلَيْلَةٍ وَبَيْنَ وُجُوبِهِ فِي تَرْتِيبِ صَلَاةِ أَمْسِ قَبْلَ صَلَاةِ الْيَوْمِ، وَصَلَاةِ أَوَّلِ أَمْسِ قَبْلَ صَلَاةِ أَمْسِ، وَهَكَذَا أَبَدًا؟ فَإِنْ ذَكَرُوا قَوْلَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «مَنْ نَسِيَ صَلَاةً فَلْيُصَلِّهَا إذَا ذَكَرَهَا، لَا كَفَّارَةَ لَهَا إلَّا ذَلِكَ» ؟ قُلْنَا: هَذَا حَقٌّ وَهُوَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - الْآمِرُ بِهَذَا قَدْ ذَكَرَ صَلَاةَ الصُّبْحِ إذْ انْتَبَهَ بَعْدَ طُلُوعِ الشَّمْسِ، فَأَمَرَ النَّاسَ بِالِاقْتِيَادِ، وَالْوُضُوءِ، وَالْأَذَانِ.

L7358 There is no distinction between the obligation to maintain the sequence of prayers within a day and night and the obligation to maintain the sequence of yesterday's prayers before today's prayers, the day before yesterday's prayers before yesterday's prayers, and so forth indefinitely. If they cite the statement of Allah's Messenger—peace be upon him—"Whoever forgets a prayer, let them pray it when they remember it, for there is no expiation for it except that prayer," we respond: This is correct, and he—peace be upon him—who commanded this has mentioned the dawn prayer when he awoke after sunrise, whereupon he instructed the people to form rows, perform ablution, and give the call to prayer.[41]

ثُمَّ صَلَّى هُوَ وَهُمْ رَكْعَتَيْ الْفَجْرِ، ثُمَّ صَلَّى الصُّبْحَ.

L7359 Then he prayed the two Sunnah rak'ahs of Fajr along with those with him, and afterward he led the obligatory Fajr prayer.

فَصَحَّ أَنَّ مَعْنَى قَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «فَلْيُصَلِّهَا إذَا ذَكَرَهَا» كَمَا أُمِرَ، لَا كَمَا لَمْ يُؤْمَرْ مَنْ قَطَعَ صَلَاةً قَدْ أَمَرَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِالتَّمَادِي فِيهَا بِقَوْلِهِ: «فَمَا أَدْرَكْتُمْ فَصَلُّوا، وَمَا فَاتَكُمْ فَأَتِمُّوا» .

L7360–7362 Thus, it is confirmed that the meaning of his statement—peace be upon him—"Let him pray it when he remembers it" is to pray as he was commanded, not as he was not commanded. The Prophet (peace be upon him) commanded one who interrupts a prayer to persist in it by saying: "Pray what you have caught up with, and complete what you have missed."

[41] Hadith references (L7358): Sunan Abi Dawud 442; Sahih Muslim 684a.

L7363 And by his statement—peace be upon him—: “Verily, in prayer there is a profound preoccupation.”

وَبِقَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «إنَّ فِي الصَّلَاةِ لَشُغْلًا» .

L7364 Then they are the first to contradict this report by distinguishing between counting five or fewer [prayers] and counting more than five, though where is there any explicit text or evidence in the report justifying this distinction? If they cite Ibn ‘Umar’s report: “Whoever counts one prayer during another prayer, it becomes nullified for him?” – we have already stated that no one’s statement apart from Allah’s Messenger – peace and blessings be upon him – holds as proof. Yet they themselves have contradicted Ibn ‘Umar’s report by distinguishing between five or fewer and more than five.

ثُمَّ هُمْ أَوَّلُ مُخَالِفٍ لِهَذَا الْخَبَرِ لِتَفْرِيقِهِمْ بَيْنَ ذِكْرِ خَمْسٍ فَأَقَلَّ، وَبَيْنَ ذِكْرِهِ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ خَمْسٍ، وَلَيْسَ فِي الْخَبَرِ نَصٌّ وَلَا دَلِيلٌ بِالْفَرْقِ بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ؟ فَإِنْ ذَكَرُوا خَبَرَ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: " مَنْ ذَكَرَ صَلَاةً فِي صَلَاةٍ " انْهَدَمَتْ عَلَيْهِ؟ فَقَدْ قُلْنَا: إنَّهُ لَا حُجَّةَ فِي قَوْلِ أَحَدٍ دُونَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -، وَهُمْ قَدْ خَالَفُوا قَوْلَ ابْنِ عُمَرَ فِي تَفْرِيقِهِمْ بَيْنَ خَمْسٍ فَأَقَلَّ وَبَيْنَ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ خَمْسٍ.

L7365 If they claim a consensus in this matter, they lie against the Ummah, for they speak about them without knowledge and through impermissible conjecture. Their most false claim is that Ahmad ibn Hanbal and one of the two opinions of al-Shafi’i hold that one must begin with the missed prayers—even if they were prayers neglected over twenty years. This is especially so regarding Abu Hanifa’s command to nullify the dawn prayer—which is an obligation—for the Witr prayer—which is voluntary—and that one who abandons it incurs no sin.

L7366 And Mālik’s instruction to complete a prayer that is not valid for him, then to repeat it? This is truly astonishing—that he would command him to perform an act that is not considered valid. This directive to persist in his prayer must necessarily be either the prayer that Allāh, the Exalted, has commanded or a prayer that Allāh has not commanded him to perform. There is no possibility of a third category.

L7367 If he commanded him to persist in continuing the prayer that Allah, the Exalted, has commanded, then his command to repeat it is invalid.

L7368 If he commanded him to persist in a prayer that Allah, the Most High, has not ordained, has he not thereby commanded him to do what is impermissible? Our position is the view of Tawus, al-Hasan, al-Shafi’i, Abu Thawr, Abu Sulayman, and others. There is no fundamental distinction, through juristic reasoning, between making up a prayer he forgot or slept through during another prayer, after concluding another prayer, or during the time of another prayer before commencing it. And success is from Allah, the Most High.

وَإِنْ كَانَ أَمَرَهُ بِالتَّمَادِي فِي صَلَاةٍ لَمْ يَأْمُرْهُ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى بِهَا فَقَدْ أَمَرَهُ بِمَا لَا يَجُوزُ؟ وَقَوْلُنَا: هُوَ قَوْلُ طَاوُسٍ، وَالْحَسَنِ، وَالشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَبِي ثَوْرٍ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ وَغَيْرِهِمْ، وَلَا فَرْقَ بَيْنَ

L7369 A jurisprudential case where one mentioned a prayer while in the time of another.

L7370 479 - Issue:

L7371–7373 If he remembers a prayer while within the time of another prayer, and if there remains time in the latter prayer's period... He must begin with the prayer he remembered, whether it comprises one unit, five units, ten units, or more. He shall pray all of them in proper sequence, then pray the prayer currently within its time - whether in congregation or individually. He is necessarily required to pray that congregational prayer from those he had forgotten. If he fulfills it contrary to this procedure, it suffices. If he fears missing the prayer currently within its time, he must begin with it without exception - no alternative is valid, whether the prayer he recalled consists of one unit or multiple. When he completes the prayer whose time he is in, he shall pray the remembered prayer. Nothing else is incumbent upon him. If he begins with the remembered prayer and the time of the current prayer elapses, both prayers become invalid. He must pray the remembered prayer, but he cannot perform the prayer he intentionally neglected until its time has expired.

L7374 This is the opinion of Abū Ḥanīfa, al-Shāfiʿī, and Abū Sulaymān. Mālik said: If the prayers he specified are five or fewer, he should begin with those he mentioned even if the time of the prayer whose time has arrived has expired. If they exceed five, he should begin with the prayer whose time is current. ʿAlī said: This is an opinion with no evidence whatsoever for its validity—neither from the Quran, nor any Sunnah whether authentic or weak, nor consensus, nor analogy, nor a companion's statement, nor any rationally defensible view. Rather, he extended the reasoning of the preceding issue since Abū Ḥanīfa contradicted himself. The evidence for the validity of our position is: "That Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—forgot the Ẓuhr and

فَإِنْ ذَكَرَ صَلَاةً وَهُوَ فِي وَقْتِ أُخْرَى، فَإِنْ كَانَ فِي الْوَقْتِ فُسْحَةٌ فَلْيَبْدَأْ بِالَّتِي ذَكَرَ، سَوَاءٌ كَانَتْ وَاحِدَةً أَوْ خَمْسًا أَوْ عَشْرًا أَوْ أَكْثَرَ، يُصَلِّي جَمِيعَهَا مُرَتَّبَةً ثُمَّ يُصَلِّي الَّتِي هُوَ فِي وَقْتِهَا سَوَاءٌ كَانَتْ فِي جَمَاعَةٍ أَوْ فَذًّا، وَحُكْمُهُ - وَلَا بُدَّ - أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ تِلْكَ الصَّلَاةَ مَعَ الْجَمَاعَةِ مِنْ الَّتِي نَسِيَ، فَإِنْ قَضَاهَا بِخِلَافِ ذَلِكَ أَجْزَأَهُ فَإِنْ كَانَ يَخْشَى فَوْتَ الَّتِي هُوَ فِي وَقْتِهَا بَدَأَ بِهَا وَلَا بُدَّ، لَا يُجْزِئُهُ غَيْرُ ذَلِكَ، سَوَاءٌ كَانَتْ الَّتِي ذَكَرَ وَاحِدَةً أَوْ أَكْثَرَ، فَإِذَا أَتَمَّ الَّتِي هُوَ فِي وَقْتِهَا صَلَّى الَّتِي ذَكَرَ، لَا شَيْءَ عَلَيْهِ غَيْرُ ذَلِكَ، فَإِنْ بَدَأَ بِالَّتِي ذَكَرَ وَفَاتَ وَقْتُ الَّتِي ذَكَرَهَا فِي وَقْتِهَا بَطَلَ كِلَاهُمَا، وَعَلَيْهِ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ الَّتِي ذَكَرَ، وَلَا يَقْدِرُ عَلَى الَّتِي تَعَمَّدَ تَرْكَهَا حَتَّى خَرَجَ وَقْتُهَا.

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، وَالشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ؟ وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: إنْ كَانَتْ الَّتِي ذَكَرَ خَمْسَ صَلَوَاتٍ فَأَقَلَّ: بَدَأَ بِالَّتِي ذَكَرَ، وَإِنْ خَرَجَ وَقْتُ الَّتِي حَضَرَتْ، وَإِنْ كَانَتْ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ خَمْسٍ بَدَأَ بِالَّتِي حَضَرَ وَقْتُهَا؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا قَوْلٌ لَا بُرْهَانَ عَلَى صِحَّتِهِ أَصْلًا، لَا مِنْ قُرْآنٍ وَلَا سُنَّةٍ صَحِيحَةٍ وَلَا سَقِيمَةٍ وَلَا إجْمَاعٍ، وَلَا قِيَاسٍ، وَلَا قَوْلِ صَاحِبٍ، وَلَا رَأْيٍ لَهُ وَجْهٌ، لَكِنَّهُ طَرَدَ الْمَسْأَلَةَ الَّتِي قَبْلَ هَذِهِ إذْ تَنَاقَضَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ؟ وَبُرْهَانُ صِحَّةِ قَوْلِنَا -:

ʿAṣr prayers during the Battle of the Trench until sunset. He then ordered the adhān and iqāmah, prayed Ẓuhr, then ordered the adhān and iqāmah again, prayed ʿAṣr, then ordered the adhān and iqāmah once more, and prayed Maghrib at its appointed time."

«أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - نَسِيَ الظُّهْرَ وَالْعَصْرَ يَوْمَ الْخَنْدَقِ حَتَّى غَرَبَتْ الشَّمْسُ، فَأَمَرَ بِالْأَذَانِ وَالْإِقَامَةِ ثُمَّ صَلَّى الظُّهْرَ، ثُمَّ أَمَرَ بِالْأَذَانِ وَالْإِقَامَةِ، ثُمَّ صَلَّى الْعَصْرَ، ثُمَّ أَمَرَ بِالْأَذَانِ وَالْإِقَامَةِ فَصَلَّى الْمَغْرِبَ فِي وَقْتِهَا» .

L7375 We did not render that obligatory because it pertains to a practical act, not a divine command.

وَإِنَّمَا لَمْ نَجْعَلْ ذَلِكَ وَاجِبًا؛ لِأَنَّهُ عَمَلٌ لَا أَمْرٌ.

L7376 As for if he misses the time of the current prayer, then those prayers he remembered—whose time has expired for anyone other than the forgetful person—the time remains perpetually extended for the forgetful person forever. They do not become missed for the remainder of his life. As for the prayer whose time he is in, it is only missed if he intentionally neglects it until its time expires while consciously remembering it. He is commanded to perform it, just as he is commanded to perform the prayer he forgot—there is no distinction.

L7377–7379 It is then forbidden for him to neglect a prayer he remembers until the time of another prayer enters or the current prayer's time expires, making this impermissible for him. If one relies on the Prophet's saying—peace be upon him—"Let him pray it when he remembers it," we reply: You are the first to contradict this ḥadīth by distinguishing between the five [obligatory prayers] and more than five. As for us, we have not opposed it, for one must necessarily pray one [prayer] he remembers before the other. The act which, if delayed, makes one disobedient to Allah (Exalted is He) is more obligatory than the act which does not make one disobedient to Him, the Exalted, if delayed. To this statement of ours concur Sa'id ibn al-Musayyab, al-Hasan, Sufyan al-Thawri, and others.

فَإِذًا حَرَامٌ عَلَيْهِ التَّفْرِيطُ فِي صَلَاةٍ يَذْكُرُهَا حَتَّى يَدْخُلَ وَقْتُ أُخْرَى أَوْ يَخْرُجَ وَقْتُ هَذِهِ فَلَا يَحِلُّ لَهُ ذَلِكَ؟ فَإِنْ تَعَلَّقَ بِقَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «فَلْيُصَلِّهَا إذَا ذَكَرَهَا» ؟ قُلْنَا: أَنْتُمْ أَوَّلُ مُخَالِفٍ لِهَذَا الْخَبَرِ، فِي تَفْرِيقِكُمْ بَيْنَ الْخَمْسِ وَبَيْنَ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ الْخَمْسِ، وَأَمَّا نَحْنُ فَمَا خَالَفْنَاهُ، لِأَنَّهُ لَا بُدَّ مِنْ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ إحْدَى الَّتِي ذَكَرَ قَبْلَ الْأُخْرَى، فَالَّتِي يَكُونُ عَاصِيًا لِلَّهِ إنْ أَخَّرَهَا أَوْجَبُ مِنْ الَّتِي لَا يَكُونُ عَاصِيًا لَهُ تَعَالَى إنْ أَخَّرَهَا وَبِقَوْلِنَا هَذَا يَقُولُ سَعِيدُ بْنُ الْمُسَيِّبِ، وَالْحَسَنُ، وَسُفْيَانُ الثَّوْرِيُّ، وَغَيْرُهُمْ؟

A case wherein one is certain he has forgotten a prayer but does not know which prayer it is.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ أَيْقَنَ أَنَّهُ نَسِيَ صَلَاةً لَا يَدْرِي أَيُّ صَلَاةٍ هِيَ]

L7380

L7381 480 - Issue: If one is certain that he forgot a prayer but does not know which one it was—then Mālik, Abū Yūsuf, al-Shāfiʿī, and Abū Sulaymān said: Should he perform the prayers of a full day and night? By this opinion, if he does not know whether the prayer was forgotten during travel or residence, must he perform eight prayers? Sufyān al-Thawrī and Muḥammad ibn al-Ḥasan said: He should perform three prayers—one of them being two rakʿahs, intending it to be the dawn prayer.

٤٨٠ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ أَيْقَنَ أَنَّهُ نَسِيَ صَلَاةً لَا يَدْرِي أَيُّ صَلَاةٍ هِيَ؟ فَإِنَّ مَالِكًا، وَأَبَا يُوسُفَ، وَالشَّافِعِيَّ، وَأَبَا سُلَيْمَانَ قَالُوا: يُصَلِّي صَلَاةَ يَوْمٍ وَلَيْلَةٍ؟ وَيَلْزَمُ عَلَى هَذَا الْقَوْلِ

إِنْ لَمْ يَدْرِ أَمِنْ سَفَرٍ أَمْ مِنْ حَضَرٍ؟ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ ثَمَانِيَ صَلَوَاتٍ؟ وَقَالَ سُفْيَانُ الثَّوْرِيُّ، وَمُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْحَسَنِ: يُصَلِّي ثَلَاثَ صَلَوَاتٍ -: إِحْدَاهَا - رَكْعَتَانِ، يَنْوِي بِهَا الصُّبْحَ.

L7382 And the second: three with which one intends Maghrib.

وَالثَّانِيَةُ - ثَلَاثٌ يَنْوِي بِهَا الْمَغْرِبَ.

L7383 The third issue: Four rak'ahs intended for Dhuhr? Asr? Or the latter Isha? According to this opinion, if one does not know whether the prayer is during travel or residence, this entails praying only two rak'ahs and three rak'ahs. Zufar and al-Muzani said: He prays a single prayer of four rak'ahs, sits after the second rak'ah, then after the third, then after the fourth, then performs the prostration of forgetfulness.

L7384 Zufar said: after the taslim; al-Muzani said: before the taslim. Al-Awza'i said: He prays a single prayer of four rak'ahs only, sitting only in the second and fourth [units], then performs sujūd al-sahw (prostration for forgetfulness), intending at the beginning of the prayer that this is the one he missed in Allah's knowledge, the Exalted.

L7385–7387 We adhere to this position. However, Al-Awzāʿī said: "The prostration for forgetfulness should be performed before the salutation," whereas we say: "After the salutation?" The proof validating our view is that when Allah, Exalted and Majestic, imposed upon him—with absolute certainty free from doubt and uncontested by any of them or us—a single prayer, which is the one he missed, then who commands him to pray five prayers, eight prayers, three prayers, or two prayers? For such a one has certainly commanded him to perform what Allah, Exalted, and His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, did not obligate. They have thus imposed upon him one prayer, two prayers, or prayers that are not Upon him, and this is invalid with certainty. Therefore, he should only be obligated to perform one prayer as it is, with no addition.

وَبِهَذَا نَأْخُذُ، إِلَّا أَنَّ الْأَوْزَاعِيَّ قَالَ: يَسْجُدُ لِلسَّهْوِ قَبْلَ السَّلَامِ، وَقُلْنَا نَحْنُ: بَعْدَ السَّلَامِ؟ بُرْهَانُ صِحَّةِ قَوْلِنَا -: أَنَّ اللَّهَ - عَزَّ وَجَلَّ - لَمَّا فَرَضَ عَلَيْهِ - بِيَقِينٍ مَقْطُوعٍ لَا شَكَّ فِيهِ، وَلَا خِلَافَ مِنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْهُمْ وَلَا مِنَّا -: صَلَاةً وَاحِدَةً، وَهِيَ الَّتِي فَائِتَتُهُ، فَمَنْ أَمَرَهُ بِخَمْسِ صَلَوَاتٍ، أَوْ ثَمَانِ صَلَوَاتٍ، أَوْ ثَلَاثِ صَلَوَاتٍ، أَوْ صَلَاتَيْنِ؟ فَقَدْ أَمَرَهُ - يَقِينًا - بِمَا لَمْ يَأْمُرْهُ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى بِهِ وَلَا رَسُولُهُ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَفَرَضُوا عَلَيْهِ صَلَاةً أَوْ صَلَاتَيْنِ أَوْ صَلَوَاتٍ لَيْسَتْ عَلَيْهِ، وَهَذَا بَاطِلٌ بِيَقِينٍ، فَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُكَلَّفَ إِلَّا صَلَاةً وَاحِدَةً كَمَا هِيَ عَلَيْهِ وَلَا مَزِيدَ.

L7388 Thus, the opinions of all those we mentioned are rejected, except our opinion, the opinion of Zufar, and Al-Muzani? They countered, arguing: "Indeed,

L7392 وَقَالَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «إِذَا أَمَرْتُكُمْ بِأَمْرٍ فَأْتُوا مِنْهُ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ» ؟ فَقَدْ سَقَطَتْ عَنْهُ النِّيَّةُ الْمُعَيَّنَةُ، لِعَدَمِ قُدْرَتِهِ عَلَيْهَا، وَبَقِيَ عَلَيْهِ وُجُوبُ النِّيَّةِ الْمَرْجُوعِ فِيهَا إِلَى عِلْمِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى، إِذْ هُوَ قَادِرٌ عَلَيْهَا - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ، فَسَقَطَ ذَلِكَ الْقَوْلُ أَيْضًا؟ .

L7393–7395 ثُمَّ قُلْنَا لِزُفَرَ، وَالْمُزَنِيِّ: إِنَّكُمْ أَلْزَمْتُمُوهُ جِلْسَةً بَعْدَ الرَّكْعَةِ الثَّالِثَةِ لَمْ يَأْمُرْ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى بِهَا قَطُّ، وَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُلْزَمَ أَحَدٌ إِلَّا مَا نَحْنُ عَلَى يَقِينٍ مِنْ أَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى أَلْزَمَهُ إِيَّاهُ فَسَقَطَ أَيْضًا قَوْلُهُمَا، لِأَنَّهُمَا دَخَلَا فِي بَعْضِ مَا أَنْكَرَا عَلَى غَيْرِهِمَا؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَبُرْهَانُ صِحَّةِ قَوْلِنَا the intention for prayer is an obligation according to us and according to you, yet you command him to form a shared intention without knowing whether it is the one obligatory upon him." This objection is only directed at those who commanded him to pray five rak'ahs or eight rak'ahs exclusively? We said to them: "Yes, the intention is an obligation according to us and according to you, yet you command him, for every prayer you instruct him to perform, to form an intention that is either doubtful or knowingly false, and it necessarily must be one of the two."

L7389 For if you command him to intend for each prayer that it is undoubtedly the one he missed, you have obligated him to falsehood and lying, and this is impermissible, because he is not certain that it is the one he missed.

L7390 If he is not certain of it yet resolves it with definitive resolve, then he has certainly intended falsehood, and this is prohibited.

L7391 If you instruct him to make the intention at the beginning of each of those prayers that it is the one Allah knew had eluded him, you have indeed commanded him to do the very same thing you reproached us for—identical in every respect, not even its equivalent. We maintain that this reproach is invalid regarding him, for he is fundamentally incapable of any alternative whatsoever. Allah the Most High has said: "Allah does not burden any soul beyond its capacity" [Al-Baqarah: 286].[42]

L7392 And he—peace be upon him—said: "When I command you with something, do as much of it as you can." Thus, the specified intention is waived from him due to his inability to fulfill it, and the obligation to form the intention referred back in this matter to Allah's knowledge remains upon him, since Allah is capable of it—and divine success comes only from Allah, the Exalted. Therefore, that statement is also waived.

L7393–7395 Then we said to Zufar and Al-Muzani: "You have obligated upon him a sitting posture after the third rak'ah - something Allah the Exalted never commanded - and it is impermissible to obligate anyone except with that which we are certain Allah the Exalted has obligated upon him." Thus their opinion is also invalidated, for have they not engaged in the very practice they condemned in others?

‘Ali said: “The proof validating our position is that Allah the Exalted obligated upon him only one prayer. Since he does not know which prayer it is, he is utterly incapable of forming a specific intention for it. He must necessarily form an uncertain intention regarding which prayer it is? Intending thereby to perform the prayer he missed - the one known to Allah the Exalted.” He prays two rak’ahs, then sits and recites the tashahhud. Upon completing his tashahhud, he doubts: has he completed the prayer incumbent upon him—if it was Fajr or a shortened prayer during travel—or has he prayed only part of it as commanded, if it was a prayer performed in full while resident or Maghrib? In this state, he falls under those whom the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—commanded, when uncertain of the number of rak’ahs prayed, to pray until he is certain of completion and doubtful of addition. He must then rise without fail to a third rak’ah. When he raises his head from the second prostration of this rak’ah, he doubts: has he completed his obligatory prayer if it was Maghrib—so he should sit then—or does one rak’ah remain if it was Dhuhr, Asr, or Isha while resident? In this state, he falls under those whom the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—commanded, when uncertain of the number of rak’ahs prayed, to pray until he is certain of completion and doubtful of addition. He must then rise to a fourth rak’ah. When he completes it, sits for the final tashahhud, and attains certainty of completion without doubt but becomes doubtful of addition, he should then conclude with the salām and prostrate as Allah the Exalted has ordained through His Messenger—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

L7396–7398 This is the unequivocal truth decisively establishing its obligation—and praise be to Allah, Lord of all worlds. As for Zufar and al-Muzani’s position compelling him to adopt a sitting posture during the third rakʿah—they mandated isolating the intention in that sitting as being exclusively for Maghrib, but this is erroneous, for it constitutes applying certainty in a matter where no certainty exists. If one becomes certain that the prayer is due to travel, he prays a single prayer as we mentioned, sits after the second unit,

-: هُوَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى إنَّمَا أَوْجَبَ عَلَيْهِ صَلَاةً وَاحِدَةً فَقَطْ، لَا يَدْرِي أَيُّ صَلَاةٍ هِيَ؟ فَلَا يَقْدِرُ أَلْبَتَّةَ عَلَى نِيَّةٍ لَهَا بِعَيْنِهَا، وَلَا بُدَّ لَهُ مِنْ نِيَّةٍ مَشْكُوكٍ فِيهَا أَيُّ صَلَاةٍ هِيَ؟ فَيَنْوِي أَنَّهُ يُؤَدِّي الصَّلَاةَ الَّتِي فَاتَتْهُ الَّتِي يَعْلَمُهَا اللَّهُ تَعَالَى، فَيُصَلِّي رَكْعَتَيْنِ، ثُمَّ يَجْلِسُ وَيَتَشَهَّدُ، فَإِذَا أَتَمَّ تَشَهُّدَهُ فَقَدْ شَكَّ: أَتَمَّ صَلَاتَهُ الَّتِي هِيَ عَلَيْهِ إنْ كَانَتْ الصُّبْحَ، أَوْ إنْ كَانَتْ صَلَاةً تُقْصَرُ فِي السَّفَرِ؟ أَمْ صَلَّى بَعْضَهَا كَمَا أُمِرَ وَلَمْ يُتِمَّهَا، إنْ كَانَتْ صَلَاةً تَتِمُّ فِي الْحَضَرِ؟ أَوْ كَانَتْ الْمَغْرِبَ؟ فَإِذَا كَانَ فِي هَذِهِ الْحَالِ فَقَدْ دَخَلَ فِي جُمْلَةِ مَنْ أَمَرَهُ النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إذَا لَمْ يَدْرِ كَمْ صَلَّى؟ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ حَتَّى يَكُونَ عَلَى يَقِينٍ مِنْ التَّمَامِ، وَعَلَى شَكٍّ مِنْ الزِّيَادَةِ فَيَقُومَ إلَى رَكْعَةٍ ثَالِثَةٍ وَلَا بُدَّ، فَإِذَا رَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ مِنْ السَّجْدَةِ الثَّانِيَةِ مِنْهَا فَقَدْ شَكَّ: هَلْ أَتَمَّ صَلَاتَهُ الَّتِي عَلَيْهِ - إنْ كَانَتْ الْمَغْرِبَ - فَيَقْعُدُ حِينَئِذٍ؟ أَمْ بَقِيَتْ عَلَيْهِ رَكْعَةٌ، إنْ كَانَتْ الظُّهْرَ، أَوْ الْعَصْرَ، أَوْ الْعَتَمَةَ، فِي حَضَرٍ؟ فَإِذَا صَارَ فِي هَذِهِ الْحَالِ فَقَدْ دَخَلَ فِي جُمْلَةِ مَنْ أَمَرَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إذَا لَمْ يَدْرِ كَمْ صَلَّى؟ بِأَنْ يُصَلِّيَ حَتَّى يَكُونَ عَلَى يَقِينٍ مِنْ التَّمَامِ وَعَلَى شَكٍّ مِنْ الزِّيَادَةِ، فَعَلَيْهِ أَنْ يَقُومَ إلَى رَابِعَةٍ، فَإِذَا أَتَمَّهَا وَجَلَسَ فِي آخِرِهَا وَتَشَهَّدَ فَقَدْ أَيْقَنَ بِالتَّمَامِ بِلَا شَكٍّ، وَحَصَلَ فِي شَكٍّ مِنْ الزِّيَادَةِ، فَلْيُسَلِّمْ حِينَئِذٍ، وَلْيَسْجُدْ كَمَا أَمَرَهُ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى عَلَى لِسَانِ رَسُولِهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.

then after the third unit, concludes with salām, and performs the prostration of forgetfulness. ʻAli said: If one forgets Dhuhr and ʻAsr without knowing whether they are from one day or two days, or knows only that he prayed them without worrying about which he performed first—this is because no obligation beyond this is established by any textual proof from the Sunnah, Quran, consensus, analogy, or Companion's opinion. This is the view of Abū Ḥanīfah, al-Shāfiʻī, and Abū Sulaymān. The Mālikīs said: If he does not know whether they belong to one day or two days, he must pray three prayers: either a Dhuhr prayer sandwiched between two ʻAsr prayers, or an ʻAsr prayer between two Dhuhr prayers. ʻAli said: This is sheer confusion. Sequential order remains obligatory only as long as the prayer times are still in effect. Arranged according to the order prescribed by Allah, the Exalted, for it. However, when certain times lapse, is it not [valid]? For no explicit Quranic text, Sunnah, or consensus supports this—and with Allah alone is success.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ قَوْمٌ فِي سَفِينَةٍ لَا يُمْكِنُهُمْ الْخُرُوجُ إلَى الْبَرِّ إلَّا بِمَشَقَّةٍ أَوْ بِتَضْيِيعِ الصَّلَاةِ]

A jurisprudential case involving people aboard a ship who cannot disembark to land except with hardship or by neglecting the prayer.

٤٨١ - مَسْأَلَةٌ:

If people are aboard a ship and cannot disembark to land except with hardship or by risking the ship's loss, they must pray on the ship as they are able, with an imam, adhān, and iqāmah being obligatory. If they are unable to establish the prayer rows, to stand due to the ship's pitching, because some are below deck, or due to the ship's rolling, they must pray as they are able.

فَإِنْ كَانَ قَوْمٌ فِي سَفِينَةٍ لَا يُمْكِنُهُمْ الْخُرُوجُ إلَى الْبَرِّ إلَّا بِمَشَقَّةٍ أَوْ بِتَضْيِيعِهَا فَلْيُصَلُّوا فِيهَا كَمَا يَقْدِرُونَ، بِإِمَامٍ وَأَذَانٍ وَإِقَامَةٍ وَلَا بُدَّ، فَإِنْ عَجَزُوا عَنْ إقَامَةِ الصُّفُوفِ وَعَنْ الْقِيَامِ لِمَيْدٍ أَوْ لِكَوْنِ بَعْضِهِمْ تَحْتَ السَّطْحِ أَوْ لِتَرَجُّحِ السَّفِينَةِ -: صَلَّوْا كَمَا يَقْدِرُونَ.

It is equally permissible whether some or all of them are positioned in front of the Imam, with him, or behind him if they are unable to do more. Those incapable of standing may pray while sitting, but for those capable of standing, is anything other than standing valid? This is due to the statement of Allah, the Exalted: “Allah does not burden any soul beyond its capacity” (the Qur’an 2:286).[43]

L7403 And because of the saying of the Most High: “He has not imposed upon you any hardship whatsoever in religion” [Sūrah Al-Ḥajj 22:78].[44]

L7404 And due to the statement of Allah’s Messenger (peace be upon him): “When I command you with a matter, fulfill it to the best of your ability.”

L7405 Abu Hanifa said: One who is capable of standing [may still] pray while seated - this contradicts Allah’s command, the Most High, to stand during prayer.

L7406 And he cited as evidence that Anas prayed while sitting in a boat?

L7407 So we said: How do you know he was sitting while he was capable of standing? Allah forbid that one should presume about Anas - may Allah be pleased with him - that he prayed sitting while he was capable of standing.

L7408 Issue: Prayer in synagogues, churches, fire temples (al-habbārāt), and a house among the houses of fires (buyūt al-nīrān).

L7409–7411 482 - Issue: Prayer is permissible in synagogues, churches, hermitages, a house among fire temples, idol houses, and monasteries, provided one does not know of anything there that must be avoided such as blood, intoxicants, or what [must be avoided]. This resembles that, due to the statement of Allah’s Messenger (may Allah bless him and grant him peace): “The earth has been made for me as a place of prostration and a means of purification. Wherever the prayer overtakes you, pray there.”

L7412 An issue regarding the limit of a person’s proximity to his sutrah during prayer.

L7413 483 – Question:

وَلِقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: {وَمَا جَعَلَ عَلَيْكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ مِنْ حَرَجٍ} [الحج: ٧٨]

وَلِقَوْلِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «إِذَا أَمَرْتُكُمْ بِأَمْرٍ فَأْتُوا مِنْهُ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ»

وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ: يُصَلِّي قَاعِدًا مَنْ قَدَرَ عَلَى الْقِيَامِ - وَهَذَا خِلَافُ أَمْرِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى بِالْقِيَامِ فِي الصَّلَاةِ.

وَاحْتَجَّ بِأَنَّ أَنَسًا صَلَّى فِي سَفِينَةٍ قَاعِدًا؟ .

فَقُلْنَا: وَمَا يَدْرِيكُمْ أَنَّهُ كَانَ قَاعِدًا وَهُوَ يَقْدِرُ عَلَى الْقِيَامِ؟ حَاشَا لِلَّهِ أَنْ يُظَنَّ بِأَنَسٍ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - أَنَّهُ صَلَّى قَاعِدًا، وَهُوَ قَادِرٌ عَلَى الْقِيَامِ

[مَسْأَلَةُ الصَّلَاةِ فِي الْبِيَعِ وَالْكَنَائِسِ وَالْهَبَّارَاتِ وَالْبَيْتِ مِنْ بُيُوتِ النِّيرَانِ]

٤٨٢ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَالصَّلَاةُ جَائِزَةٌ فِي الْبِيَعِ، وَالْكَنَائِسِ، وَالْهَبَّارَاتِ وَالْبَيْتِ مِنْ بُيُوتِ النِّيرَانِ، وَبُيُوتِ الْبُدِّ وَالدُّيُورِ: إِذَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ هُنَالِكَ مَا يَجِبُ اجْتِنَابُهُ مِنْ دَمٍ، أَوْ خَمْرٍ أَوْ مَا أَشْبَهَ ذَلِكَ، لِقَوْلِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «وَجُعِلَتْ لِي الْأَرْضُ مَسْجِدًا وَطَهُورًا، حَيْثُمَا أَدْرَكَتْكَ الصَّلَاةُ فَصَلِّ» .

[مَسْأَلَةُ حَدُّ دُنُوِّ الْمَرْءِ مِنْ سُتْرَتِهِ فِي الصَّلَاةِ]

[43] Qur’an references (L7402): Qur’an 2:286 (Al-Baqarah).
[44] Qur’an references (L7403): Qur’an 22:78 (Al-Hajj).

L7414 The closest limit for a person's proximity to their sutrah is the width of a sheep's passage, and the farthest limit is three cubits. It is impermissible for anyone to exceed this distance. If one intentionally moves beyond three cubits from their sutrah while intending it as their sutrah, their prayer is invalidated. If they did not intend it as their sutrah, their prayer remains valid.

وَحَدُّ دُنُوِّ الْمَرْءِ مِنْ سُتْرَتِهِ أَقْرَبُ ذَلِكَ قَدْرُ مَمَرِّ الشَّاةِ، وَأَبْعَدُهُ ثَلَاثَةُ أَذْرُعٍ لَا يَحِلُّ لِأَحَدٍ الزِّيَادَةُ عَلَى ذَلِكَ فَإِنْ بَعُدَ عَنْ سُتْرَتِهِ عَامِدًا أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ثَلَاثَةِ أَذْرُعٍ وَهُوَ يَنْوِي أَنَّهَا سُتْرَتُهُ بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَنْوِ أَنَّهَا سُتْرَةٌ لَهُ فَصَلَاتُهُ تَامَّةٌ.

L7415 Any object that passes in front of a worshipper which invalidates the prayer, while there is a barrier (or its equivalent measure) between him and it—whether he intended that as a barrier or not—his prayer remains valid. It is the same whether that passes over the barrier or behind it. The defined measure of the barrier is a cubit's length, regardless of its thickness. If someone passes in front of a person praying while maintaining a distance greater than three cubits, there is no sin upon the passerby, and the one praying is not obligated to ward him off. However, if someone passes at a distance of three cubits or less, he commits a sin unless the worshipper's barrier measures less than three cubits. In that case, there is no blame on the passerby for passing behind it or over it.

وَكُلُّ مَا مَرَّ أَمَامَهُ مِمَّا يَقْطَعُ الصَّلَاةَ وَالسُّتْرَةُ بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَهُ أَوْ مِقْدَارُهَا - نَوَى ذَلِكَ سُتْرَةً أَوْ لَمْ يَنْوِ -: فَصَلَاتُهُ تَامَّةٌ، وَسَوَاءٌ مَرَّ ذَلِكَ عَلَى السُّتْرَةِ أَوْ خَلْفَهَا؟ وَحَدُّ مِقْدَارِ السُّتْرَةِ: ذِرَاعٌ فِي أَيِّ غِلَظٍ كَانَ وَمَنْ مَرَّ أَمَامَ الْمُصَلِّي وَجَعَلَ بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَهُ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ثَلَاثَةِ أَذْرُعٍ فَلَا إِثْمَ عَلَى الْمَارِّ، وَلَيْسَ عَلَى الْمُصَلِّي دَفْعُهُ، فَإِنْ مَرَّ أَمَامَهُ عَلَى ثَلَاثَةِ أَذْرُعٍ فَأَقَلَّ فَهُوَ آثِمٌ إِلَّا أَنْ تَكُونَ سُتْرَةُ الْمُصَلِّي أَقَلَّ مِنْ ثَلَاثَةِ أَذْرُعٍ، فَلَا حَرَجَ عَلَى الْمَارِّ فِي الْمُرُورِ وَرَاءَهَا أَوْ عَلَيْهَا.

L7416 The evidence for that is what was narrated to us by Abdullah ibn Rabee', who narrated to us Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah, who narrated to us Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb, from Ali ibn Hujr and Ishaq ibn Mansur, both of whom said: I was told by Sufyan ibn 'Uyaynah, from Safwan ibn Sulaym, from Nafi' ibn Jubayr ibn Mut'im, from Sahl ibn Abi Hathmah, who said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "When any of you prays toward a sutrah, let him draw close to it, so that Satan does not disrupt his prayer."[45]

بُرْهَانُ ذَلِكَ -: مَا حَدَّثَنَاهُ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا عَلِيُّ بْنُ حُجْرٍ، وَإِسْحَاقُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ قَالَا: أَنَا سُفْيَانُ هُوَ ابْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ - عَنْ صَفْوَانَ بْنِ سُلَيْمٍ عَنْ نَافِعِ بْنِ جُبَيْرِ بْنِ مُطْعِمٍ عَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ أَبِي حَثْمَةَ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «إِذَا صَلَّى أَحَدُكُمْ إِلَى سُتْرَةٍ فَلْيَدْنُ مِنْهَا لَا يَقْطَعُ الشَّيْطَانُ عَلَيْهِ صَلَاتَهُ» .

L7417 ʿAlī (may Allah be pleased with him) said: "It became obligatory upon whoever prays toward a sutrah to draw near to it. As for one who does not draw near to it when praying toward it—has he not prayed in the manner he was commanded to, so is his prayer invalid? Since drawing near to it is obligatory, it is necessary to clarify the divinely prescribed measure of proximity and its contrary, for it is inconceivable that the Prophet (peace be upon him) would command us with a binding injunction incumbent upon us, then not clarify it to us. Allah the Exalted has enjoined him to make it clear to us and convey it to us, as He said, 'Convey what has been sent down to you from your Lord' [Al-Mā'idah 5:67]."[46]

يَلْزَمُنَا، ثُمَّ لَا يُبَيِّنُهُ عَلَيْنَا، وَاللَّهُ تَعَالَى قَدْ أَمَرَهُ بِالْبَيَانِ عَلَيْنَا، وَالتَّبْلِيغِ إِلَيْنَا، قَالَ تَعَالَى: {بَلِّغْ مَا أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَبِّكَ} [المائدة: ٦٧] .

L7418 And He, the Exalted, said: {to make clear to the people what has been revealed to them} [An-Nahl 16:44].[47] وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {لِتُبَيِّنَ لِلنَّاسِ مَا نُزِّلَ إِلَيْهِمْ} [النحل: ٤٤] .

L7419–7420 We investigated that matter and found: Abdullah ibn Yusuf ibn Nami narrated to us, saying: from Ahmad ibn Fath, from Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa, from Ahmad ibn Muhammad, from Ahmad ibn Ali, from Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj, from Yaqub ibn Ibrahim al-Dawraqi, from Ibn Abi Hazim—who is Abdul Aziz—from his father, from Sahl ibn Sa'd al-Sa'idi, who said: "Between the prayer place of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—and the wall was a space wide enough for a sheep to pass." This constituted the minimum permissible proximity, for anything less would prevent bowing and prostration unless one steps back. It is impermissible to require such effort except for one who is incapable of securing greater space.[48]

فَنَظَرْنَا فِي ذَلِكَ فَوَجَدْنَا -: عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ يُوسُفَ بْنِ نَامِي حَدَّثَنَا قَالَ: ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ ثنا يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ الدَّوْرَقِيُّ ثنا ابْنُ أَبِي حَازِمٍ هُوَ عَبْدُ الْعَزِيزِ - ثنا أَبِي عَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ السَّاعِدِيِّ قَالَ: «كَانَ بَيْنَ مُصَلَّى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَبَيْنَ الْجِدَارِ مَمَرُّ الشَّاةِ» فَكَانَ هَذَا أَقَلَّ مَا يُمْكِنُ مِنَ الدُّنُوِّ، إِذْ مَا كَانَ أَقَلَّ مِنْ هَذَا فَمَانِعٌ مِنَ الرُّكُوعِ وَمِنَ السُّجُودِ إِلَّا بِتَقَهْقُرٍ، وَلَا يَجُوزُ تَكَلُّفُ ذَلِكَ إِلَّا لِمَنْ لَا يَقْدِرُ عَلَى أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ذَلِكَ.

L7421 We found Abdullah ibn Rabi' reporting to us, saying: Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah narrated to us, saying: Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb narrated to us, saying: I [Ahmad] heard from Muhammad ibn Salamah, who narrated from ibn al-Qasim, who said: Malik narrated to me from Nafi' from ibn Umar, who said: "The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) entered the Kaaba with Usamah ibn Zayd, Bilal, and Uthman ibn Talhah al-Hajabi, then closed it upon himself. When he [the Prophet] exited, I asked Bilal: 'What did the Messenger of Allah do?' He replied: 'He positioned himself with one pillar to his left, two pillars to his right, and three pillars behind him—the House at that time had six pillars—then he prayed, maintaining a distance of approximately three cubits between himself and the wall.'" Ali said: "We have not found a greater distance from the sutrah than this. Thus, this constitutes the definitive standard of clarification regarding the farthest obligatory limit of that—we have already presented the evidences in preceding sections of this book. All praise belongs to Allah the Exalted."

L7422 A group of the Salaf before us held this opinion. It has been narrated to us from Ibn Jurayj, from 'Aṭā', who said: "It is said that the minimum sufficient distance between you and the pillar is three cubits." And indeed, the Prophet (peace be upon him) prayed facing a spear, a javelin, and a camel. The stipulated measure for the height of the sutrah is the rear part of the camel saddle. We have narrated this from Abū Sa'īd, 'Aṭā', and others.

L7423–7424 And nothing valid has been established regarding the line [of reasoning], so it is impermissible to adopt this opinion - and success is from Allah, the Most High.

L7425 Issue: If one wept during ṣalāh out of fear of Allah and could not restrain his weeping.

L7426 484: Question

L7427 Whoever weeps during prayer out of fear of Allah the Exalted or due to overwhelming grief and cannot restrain his weeping bears no responsibility—neither prostrations for forgetfulness nor any other compensation. But if he intentionally weeps, his prayer becomes invalid. Abdullah ibn Rabee'ah narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb narrated to us: Suwayd ibn Nasr informed us: Abdullah ibn Al-Mubarak reported from Hammad ibn Salamah, from Thabit Al-Bunani, from Mutarrif ibn Ash-Shikhkhīr, from his father, who said: "I came to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) while he was praying, and his chest emitted a sound like the boiling of a pot—meaning he was weeping." Ali remarked: "Is this not explicitly stated in the hadith itself?" As for uncontrollable weeping,

٤٨٤ - مَسْأَلَةٌ:

وَمَنْ بَكَى فِي الصَّلَاةِ مِنْ خَشْيَةِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى أَوْ مِنْ هَمٍّ عَلَيْهِ وَلَمْ يُمْكِنْهُ رَدُّ الْبُكَاءِ فَلَا شَيْءَ عَلَيْهِ وَلَا سُجُودَ سَهْوٍ وَلَا غَيْرَهُ، فَلَوْ تَعَمَّدَ الْبُكَاءَ عَمْدًا بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا سُوَيْدُ بْنُ نَصْرٍ أَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الْمُبَارَكِ عَنْ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ ثَابِتٍ الْبُنَانِيِّ عَنْ مُطَرِّفٍ هُوَ ابْنُ الشِّخِّيرِ - عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: «أَتَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَهُوَ يُصَلِّي، وَلِجَوْفِهِ أَزِيزٌ كَأَزِيزِ الْمِرْجَلِ، يَعْنِي يَبْكِي» . قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: هَكَذَا هُوَ التَّفْسِيرُ نَصًّا فِي نَفْسِ الْحَدِيثِ؟ وَأَمَّا غَلَبَةُ الْبُكَاءِ فَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {لا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلا وُسْعَهَا} [البقرة: ٢٨٦] .

Allah the Exalted said: “Allah does not burden any soul beyond its capacity” (al-Baqarah 2:286).[49]

L7428 And he (peace be upon him) said: “When I command you with something, do from it as much as you are able.”

L7429 As for intentional crying, is it an action for which no textual evidence has been provided? The Prophet—peace be upon him—said, “Indeed, in prayer there is preoccupation.”

L7430 Thus, it is established that every action is prohibited during prayer except an action whose permissibility is established by a text or consensus. And success is from Allah, the Most High.

Issue: On Congregational Prayer Issue: The prayer of a man who hears the adhan is not valid unless performed in the mosque

L7433 Issue: No obligatory prayer is valid for any man—if he is within hearing range of the call to prayer—except when performed in the mosque with the Imam. If he intentionally neglects this without a valid excuse, his prayer is invalid. If he is beyond hearing range of the call, it is obligatory upon him to pray in congregation with at least one person, and this is required. If he fails to do so, his prayer is invalid unless he finds no one to pray with him, in which case his prayer suffices. For those with a valid excuse, abstaining from congregational prayer suffices him at that time. This obligation does not apply to women, though if they attend congregational prayer, they have done well—and is it not preferable for them? If free women or slave women seek their husbands’ or masters’ permission to attend prayer in the mosque, it is obligatory upon the husbands/masters to permit them—provided they go out only rarely, without applying perfume or adorning themselves. If they apply perfume or adorn themselves for this purpose, their prayer is invalid. Is preventing them then obligatory?

وَقَالَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «إذَا أَمَرْتُكُمْ بِأَمْرٍ فَأْتُوا مِنْهُ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ» .

فَصَحَّ أَنَّ كُلَّ عَمَلٍ فَهُوَ مُحَرَّمٌ فِي الصَّلَاةِ، إلَّا عَمَلًا جَاءَ بِإِبَاحَتِهِ نَصٌّ، أَوْ إجْمَاعٌ، وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

He asked the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—to grant him permission so he could pray in his home, and the Prophet permitted him. When the man began to leave, the Prophet called him back and asked, "Do you hear the call to prayer?" He replied, "Yes." The Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—said, "Then respond to it." And through him [the preceding narrator] to al-Bukhārī: Muḥammad ibn Yūsuf narrated to us: Sufyān narrated to us from Khālid al-Ḥadhdhāʾ from Abī Qilābah from Mālik ibn al-Ḥuwayrith: That the Prophet — peace be upon him — said to two men who came to him intending to travel: "When the two of you depart, give the call to prayer (adhān), then the iqāmah [the second call], then let the elder of you two lead the prayer."[50]

L7441 We have narrated it through the route of Sufyan ibn 'Uyaynah → Abu al-Zinad → al-A'raj → Abu Hurayrah, with a connected chain; and through the route of Shu'bah, 'Abdullah ibn Numayr, and Abu Mu'awiyah—all of them from al-A'mash → Abu Salih → Abu Hurayrah, with a connected chain.

L7442 The mention of al-'Ishā' prayer in the latter part of the ḥadīth does not indicate that it is the sole prayer threatened with punishment for abandonment to the exclusion of others. Rather, these are two distinct matters.

وَلَيْسَ فِي ذِكْرِ الْعِشَاءِ فِي آخِرِ الْحَدِيثِ دَلِيلٌ عَلَى أَنَّهَا الْمُتَوَعَّدُ عَلَى تَرْكِهَا دُونَ غَيْرِهَا، بَلْ هِيَ قَضِيَّتَانِ مُتَغَايِرَتَانِ؟ .

falsehood, nor does he threaten except with truth.

L7445–7447 If it is asked, “Why did he not burn it?” the reply is: “Because they hastened to attend the congregational prayer; no alternative is permissible.” Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us, Muḥammad ibn Isḥāq ibn As-Sulaym narrated to us, Ibn Al-Aʿrabī narrated to us, Abū Dāwūd narrated to us, An-Nufaylī (who is ʿAbdullāh ibn Muḥammad) narrated to us, Abū Al-Malīḥ (who is Al-Ḥasan ibn ʿUmar Ar-Raqqī) narrated to me, Yazīd ibn Yazīd (who is Ibn Jābir) narrated to me, Yazīd ibn Al-Aṣamm narrated to me: I heard Abū Hurayrah say: The Messenger of Allāh—peace and blessings of Allāh be upon him—said: “I resolved to order my young men to gather bundles of firewood, then go to people who pray in their homes without having a legitimate excuse, and burn their houses down around them.”

L7448 Yazid said: I said to Yazid ibn al-Aṣamm, “O Abu Awf, does he mean Friday prayer or another?” He replied, “May my ears be deafened if I have not heard Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) - he did not mention Friday or anything else.” Ali said: Some people have ventured to lie about the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) openly, so he stated, “He only meant the hypocrites. Allah forbid that we lie about the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), and it is utterly impossible for him (peace be upon him) to intend the hypocrites without naming them, yet mention those who abandon prayer without intending them. If they cite the hadith of Abu Hurairah and Ibn Umar, both from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) - ’Verily, congregational prayer surpasses individual prayer by twenty-seven degrees.”’

L7449 We said: These two are authentic reports, and the reports we presented have been authenticated. It has been established that there is no prayer for one who stays behind from the congregation unless he has an excuse. Therefore, it is obligatory to apply these two reports in accordance with what has been established there, not based on contradiction and inconsistency—which are far removed from the speech of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

L7450 Thus, it is established that this preferential distinction applies only to the prayer of one with a valid excuse—which is permissible and lesser in merit than congregational prayer—as the Prophet (peace be upon him) reported.

فَصَحَّ أَنَّ هَذَا التَّفَاضُلَ إِنَّمَا هُوَ عَلَى صَلَاةِ الْمَعْذُورِ الَّتِي تَجُوزُ، وَهِيَ دُونَ صَلَاةِ الْجَمَاعَةِ فِي الْفَضْلِ كَمَا أَخْبَرَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -.

L7451 Whoever interprets these two reports contrary to what we have mentioned will have incurred opposition to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) in the other narrations, disbelieved his statement (peace be upon him) that "there is no prayer outside congregational prayer except with an excuse," treated his warning lightly, and disobeyed his command (peace be upon him) to respond to the call to prayer.

L7452 Is it not an exceedingly grave matter that one of two or more individuals leads the prayer?

وَبِأَنْ يَؤُمَّ الِاثْنَيْنِ فَصَاعِدًا أَحَدُهُمَا، وَهَذَا عَظِيمٌ جِدًّا؟

L7453 And this which we have said is like the statement of Allah, the Exalted: "Not equal are the believers who remain behind - other than those with valid excuses - and those who strive in jihad in Allah's cause with their wealth and lives. Allah has elevated those who strive with their wealth and lives above those who remain behind by a degree. To each [group] Allah has promised the finest reward, and Allah has favored those who strive over those who remain behind with an immense reward - and ranks from Him" [An-Nisa 4:95-96].[52]

وَهَذَا الَّذِي قُلْنَا: هُوَ مِثْلُ قَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {لا يَسْتَوِي الْقَاعِدُونَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ غَيْرُ أُولِي الضَّرَرِ وَالْمُجَاهِدُونَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَنْفُسِهِمْ فَضَّلَ اللَّهُ الْمُجَاهِدِينَ بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَنْفُسِهِمْ عَلَى الْقَاعِدِينَ دَرَجَةً وَكُلا وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الْحُسْنَى وَفَضَّلَ اللَّهُ الْمُجَاهِدِينَ عَلَى الْقَاعِدِينَ أَجْرًا عَظِيمًا} [النساء: ٩٥] {دَرَجَاتٍ مِنْهُ} [النساء: ٩٦] .

L7454–7455 The Exalted has explicitly decreed that whoever neglects to join jihad without valid excuse is condemned in the strongest terms, as emphasized in numerous Quranic verses. Among these is His declaration: {O you who believe! What ails you that when you are commanded to march forth in Allah's cause, you become sluggish towards the earth? Do you prefer the life of this world over the Hereafter? Yet the enjoyment of worldly life compared to the Hereafter is but insignificant} [9:38]. {If you do not march forth, He will inflict upon you a grievous punishment and replace you with another people} [9:39] - among many other verses.[53]

فَنَصَّ تَعَالَى عَلَى أَنَّ الْمُتَخَلِّفَ عَنِ الْجِهَادِ بِغَيْرِ عُذْرٍ مَذْمُومٌ أَشَدَّ الذَّمِّ فِي غَيْرِ مَا مَوْضِعٍ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ -: مِنْهَا قَوْلُه تَعَالَى: {يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مَا لَكُمْ إِذَا قِيلَ لَكُمُ انْفِرُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ اثَّاقَلْتُمْ إِلَى الأَرْضِ أَرَضِيتُمْ بِالْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا مِنَ الآخِرَةِ فَمَا مَتَاعُ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا فِي الآخِرَةِ إِلا قَلِيلٌ} [التوبة: ٣٨] {إِلا تَنْفِرُوا يُعَذِّبْكُمْ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا وَيَسْتَبْدِلْ قَوْمًا غَيْرَكُمْ} [التوبة: ٣٩] فِي آيَاتٍ كَثِيرَةٍ جِدًّا.

L7456–7458 Then Allah the Exalted clarified that the mujāhidīn are preferred over those who remain behind by one degree and multiple degrees. Thus, it is established that He only meant the excused ones who remain behind—those entitled to a share of Allah's goodly promise and reward—not those threatened with punishment? And as the Prophet (peace be upon him) informed us that the prayer of one sitting is half the prayer of one standing, and there is no disagreement with us that one who prays sitting without an excuse has no reward or share in the prayer. Hence, it is confirmed that the mentioned ratio of virtue applies only to those permitted to pray sitting due to an excuse such as fear, illness, or in supererogatory prayers. If they intend to restrict this solely to supererogatory prayers, then we ask them for evidence of that—but do they have any basis for it except by falsely claiming that the excused person in obligatory prayers has their prayer equal to that of one standing? This is a false claim contradicting the general statement of the Prophet (peace be upon him): "The prayer of one sitting is half the prayer of one standing," without any specification from him (peace be upon him)? Additionally, Ḥummām ibn Aḥmad narrated to us, saying: ʿAbbās ibn Aṣbagh narrated to us, Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd al-Malik ibn Ayman narrated to us, Bakr ibn Ḥammād and Judge Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad al-Birtī—Judge al-Birtī said: Abū Maʿmar, who is ʿAbdullāh ibn ʿAmr al-Raqqī, narrated to us, ʿAbd al-Wārith—Bakr said: Musaddad narrated to us, Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān and ʿAbd al-Wārith ibn Saʿīd al-Tannūrī. Then they both concurred in narration from al-Ḥusayn al-Muʿallim, from ʿAbdullāh ibn Buraydah, from ʿImrān ibn al-Ḥuṣayn. Al-Qāḍī al-Birtī narrated in his ḥadīth: Indeed ʿImrān ibn al-Ḥuṣayn—who suffered from hemorrhoids—reported to him that he asked the Messenger of Allāh, peace and blessings be upon him, about praying while sitting. The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: "Whoever prays standing, it is superior. Whoever prays sitting receives half the reward of one standing, and whoever prays lying down receives half the reward of one sitting." ʿAlī said: "Our opponents do not permit voluntary prayers through gestures for those who are healthy, thus their interpretation is entirely invalidated—and all praise belongs to Allāh the Exalted."[54]

[54] Hadith references (L7456): Sahih al-Bukhari 1116; Sunan Ibn Majah 1231; Sunan an-Nasai 1660.

L7459 There is no doubt that one who performs good deeds is superior to another prevented by an excuse from doing so. This is explicitly stated in the narration where the poor said: “O Messenger of Allah, those with abundant wealth have taken the rewards!” Thereupon, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) taught them the dhikr he had taught them. When the wealthy learned of it, they practiced it in addition to what they were already doing—freeing slaves and giving charity. The poor mentioned this to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), and he said: “That is the bounty of Allah, which He grants to whom He wills.”[55]

وَلَا شَكَّ فِي أَنَّ مَنْ فَعَلَ الْخَيْرَ أَفْضَلُ مِنْ آخَرَ مَنَعَهُ الْعُذْرُ مِنْ فِعْلِهِ، وَهَذَا مَنْصُوصٌ عَلَيْهِ فِي الْخَبَرِ الَّذِي فِيهِ -: إنَّ الْفُقَرَاءَ قَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، ذَهَبَ أَصْحَابُ الدُّثُورِ بِالْأُجُورِ، فَعَلَّمَهُمْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - الذِّكْرَ الَّذِي عَلَّمَهُمْ، فَبَلَغَ الْأَغْنِيَاءَ فَفَعَلُوهُ زَائِدًا عَلَى مَا كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَهُ مِنْ الْعِتْقِ وَالصَّدَقَةِ، فَذَكَرَ الْفُقَرَاءُ ذَلِكَ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَقَالَ: «ذَلِكَ فَضْلُ اللَّهِ يُؤْتِيهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ» .

L7460 There is no disagreement that one who performs the pilgrimage is superior to one who does not - including those prevented by a valid excuse - and the same applies to all other acts of worship. Indeed, an authentic report states: “Whoever intends a good deed but does not act upon it, one good deed is recorded for him; and if he performs it, ten good deeds are recorded for him.”

L7461–7463 Did he—peace be upon him—generalize [the ruling] to include one who did not perform it, whether with an excuse or without? If they cite the transmitted report regarding one who had a regular nightly devotion but was prevented by illness or sleep: “Is it recorded for him?” We reply: We do not deny the specification of whatever Allah the Exalted wills to specify when a textual evidence states so. We only reject specification through personal opinion, conjecture, or mere claim. His standing [in prayer] may indeed be recorded for him as in the hadith, and the reward of the one who prays is multiplied tenfold according to his standing. This is plausible and consistent with all scriptural texts—and success comes from Allah alone. If they cite: “The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—led people in prayer in his house while his foot was dislocated and in the house of Anas?” We respond: Yes, and he—peace be upon him—was excused due to his dislocated foot. Those with him cannot be free from either... They may all be the people of the mosque, so they prayed there, forming the congregation there.

فَعَمَّ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - مَنْ لَمْ يَعْمَلْهَا بِعُذْرٍ أَوْ غَيْرِ عُذْرٍ؟ فَإِنْ ذَكَرُوا الْأَثَرَ الْوَارِدَ فِيمَنْ كَانَ لَهُ حِزْبٌ مِنْ اللَّيْلِ فَأَقْعَدَهُ عَنْهُ الْمَرَضُ أَوْ النَّوْمُ: كُتِبَ لَهُ؟ قُلْنَا: لَا نُنْكِرُ تَخْصِيصَ مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى تَخْصِيصَهُ إذَا وَرَدَ النَّصُّ بِذَلِكَ، وَإِنَّمَا نُنْكِرُهُ بِالرَّأْيِ وَالظَّنِّ وَالدَّعْوَى، وَقَدْ يُكْتَبُ لَهُ الْقِيَامُ كَمَا فِي الْحَدِيثِ، وَيُضَاعَفُ الْأَجْرُ لِلْقَائِمِ عَشَرَةَ أَمْثَالِ قِيَامِهِ، فَهَذَا مُمْكِنٌ مُوَافِقٌ لِسَائِرِ النُّصُوصِ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ. فَإِنْ ذَكَرُوا: «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَمَّ النَّاسَ فِي بَيْتِهِ وَهُوَ مُنْفَكُّ الْقَدَمِ وَفِي مَنْزِلِ أَنَسٍ؟» قُلْنَا: نَعَمْ، وَهُوَ مَعْذُورٌ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِانْفِكَاكِ قَدَمِهِ، وَلَا يَخْلُو الَّذِينَ مَعَهُ مِنْ أَنْ يَكُونُوا جَمِيعَ أَهْلِ الْمَسْجِدِ فَصَلَّوْا هُنَالِكَ، فَهُنَالِكَ كَانَتْ الْجَمَاعَةُ، وَهَذَا لَا نُنْكِرُهُ، أَوْ مِنْ أَنْ يَكُونُوا مِمَّنْ لَزِمَهُ الْكَوْنُ مَعَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - لِضَرُورَةٍ، فَهَذَا عُذْرٌ، وَتَكُونُ إمَامَتُهُ فِي مَنْزِلِ أَنَسٍ فِي غَيْرِ وَقْتِ صَلَاةِ فَرْضٍ، لَكِنْ تَطَوُّعًا؟ وَكُلُّ هَذَا لَا يُعَارَضُ بِهِ مَا ثَبَتَ

مِنْ وُجُوبِ فَرْضِ الصَّلَاةِ فِي جَمَاعَةٍ، وَوُجُوبِ إِجَابَةِ دَاعِي اللَّهِ تَعَالَى فِي قَوْلِهِ: " حَيَّ عَلَى الصَّلَاةِ "؟ .

We do not deny this. Alternatively, they might be among those compelled by necessity to remain with him (peace be upon him)—this constitutes an excuse. Would his leading prayer in Anas's house outside the time of obligatory prayer count as voluntary prayer? None of this opposes the established obligation of prescribed prayer in congregation or the duty to respond to the caller proclaiming Allah's exalted message in the phrase: "Come to prayer."

وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ: هِيَ فَرْضٌ عَلَى الْكِفَايَةِ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذِهِ دَعْوَى بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ، وَإِذْ أَقَرَّ بِأَنَّهَا فَرْضٌ، ثُمَّ ادَّعَى سُقُوطَ الْفَرْضِ لَمْ يُصَدَّقْ إِلَّا بِنَصٍّ وَقَدْ قَالَ: بِمِثْلِ هَذَا جَمَاعَةٌ مِنْ السَّلَفِ -: رُوِّينَا عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّهُ رَأَى إِنْسَانًا خَرَجَ مِنْ الْمَسْجِدِ بَعْدَ النِّدَاءِ فَقَالَ " أَمَّا هَذَا فَقَدْ عَصَى أَبَا الْقَاسِمِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - ".

L7464 Al-Shafi'i said: "Is it a collective obligation?" 'Ali replied: "This is an unsupported claim. Having acknowledged it as an obligation, then asserting its cessation, he cannot be deemed credible except through textual evidence." It is reported that a group of the Salaf upheld this position—as narrated from Abu Hurayrah, who saw a man leave the mosque after the prayer call and declared: "As for this one, he has disobeyed Abu al-Qasim—may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him."

L7465 It has been narrated to us from Abī al-Aḥwaṣ from Ibn Masʿūd that he said: "Preserve these five prayers when they are called, for they are among the guided practices. Truly, I have seen us when no one stayed away from them except a clear hypocrite. Truly, I have seen us when a man would be supported between two men until he took his place in the row. There is none among you except that he has a place of prayer in his house. If you were to pray in your homes and abandon your mosques, you would abandon the Sunnah of your Prophet. If you were to abandon the Sunnah of your Prophet, you would disbelieve."

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ مِسْعَرِ بْنِ كِدَامٍ عَنْ أَبِي حُصَيْنٍ عَنْ أَبِي بُرْدَةَ بْنِ أَبِي مُوسَى عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى الْأَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ: مَنْ سَمِعَ الْمُنَادِيَ فَلَمْ يُجِبْ مِنْ غَيْرِ عُذْرٍ فَلَا صَلَاةَ لَهُ.

L7466 And through the narration of Wakiʿ from Misʿar ibn Kidām from Abū Ḥuṣayn from Abū Burdah ibn Abī Mūsā from Abū Mūsā al-Ashʿarī, who said: Whoever hears the caller to prayer and does not respond to the call without an excuse, there is no prayer for him.

وَعَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ: مَنْ سَمِعَ الْمُنَادِيَ فَلَمْ يُجِبْ مِنْ غَيْرِ عُذْرٍ فَلَا صَلَاةَ لَهُ؟ وَعَنْ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: أَنَّهُ صَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ مِنْ الْمَكْتُوبَةِ فِي بَيْتِهِ فَسَمِعَ الْإِقَامَةَ فَخَرَجَ إِلَيْهَا؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: لَوْ أَجْزَأَتْ ابْنَ عُمَرَ صَلَاتُهُ فِي مَنْزِلِهِ مَا قَطَعَهَا؟

L7467–7469 From Ibn Masʿūd: "Whoever hears the caller to prayer and does not respond without an excuse - there is no prayer for him." Narrated by Maʿmar from Ayyūb al-Sakhtiyānī from Nāfiʿ from Ibn ʿUmar: "That he prayed two rakʿahs of..." If he prayed the obligatory prayer in his house and heard the iqāmah, then went out to it? ʿAlī said: Had Ibn ʿUmar's prayer in his home been valid, would he have abandoned it? From Abū Hurayrah: It would be better for a son of Adam to have his ears filled with molten lead than to hear the mu'adhdhin and not respond to him. From Sufyān al-Thawrī, from Manṣūr, from ʿAdī ibn Thābit al-Anṣārī, from ʿĀ'ishah, the Mother of the Believers, who said: Whoever hears the call and does not come to it neither intends good nor is good intended for him. From Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān: Abū Ḥayyān Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Taymī reported to us: My father narrated to me from ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib: There is no valid prayer for the neighbor of the mosque except in the mosque. He was asked: O Commander of the Faithful, who is the neighbor of the mosque? He replied: One who hears the adhān. A similar narration is transmitted via Sufyān ibn ʿUyaynah and Sufyān al-Thawrī, from the aforementioned Abū Ḥayyān, from his father, from ʿAlī.

وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ: لَأَنْ يُمْتَلِئَ أُذُنَا ابْنِ آدَمَ رَصَاصًا مُذَابًا خَيْرٌ لَهُ مِنْ أَنْ يَسْمَعَ الْمُنَادِيَ فَلَا يُجِيبُهُ؟ وَعَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ عَنْ عَدِيِّ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أُمِّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ قَالَتْ: مَنْ سَمِعَ النِّدَاءَ فَلَمْ يَأْتِهِ فَلَمْ يُرِدْ خَيْرًا وَلَمْ يُرَدْ بِهِ وَعَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانِ: ثنا أَبُو حَيَّانَ يَحْيَى بْنُ سَعِيدٍ التَّيْمِيُّ حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ: لَا صَلَاةَ لِجَارِ الْمَسْجِدِ إِلَّا فِي الْمَسْجِدِ؟ فَقِيلَ لَهُ: يَا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ، وَمَنْ جَارُ الْمَسْجِدِ؟ قَالَ: مَنْ سَمِعَ الْأَذَانَ وَمِثْلُهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ سُفْيَانَ بْنِ عُيَيْنَةَ، وَسُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي حَيَّانَ الْمَذْكُورِ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ عَلِيٍّ.

L7470 And from Muhammad ibn Ja'far from Shu'bah from 'Adi ibn Thabit: I heard Sa'id ibn Jubayr narrating from Ibn 'Abbas that he said: Whoever hears the call to prayer and does not come [to join the congregation], his prayer is not valid except due to a valid excuse.

L7471 There is no concession for any of Allah's creation in urban areas or villages who hear the adhan and the iqamah to abandon prayer. Ibn Jurayj said: I asked him, "Even if he is selling goods and fears they will be lost if he leaves them?" He replied, "No, there is no concession for him in that." I said, "What if he is ill, has eye inflammation that does not prevent him [from attending prayer], or suffers pain in his hand?" He said, "I prefer that he make the effort." I asked him, "What about someone from the village who does not hear the call, even if he is near the mosque?" He replied, "If he wishes, let him come; otherwise, let him stay."

وَعَنْ عَطَاءٍ: لَيْسَ لِأَحَدٍ مِنْ خَلْقِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى فِي الْحَضَرِ وَالْقَرْيَةِ يَسْمَعُ النِّدَاءَ وَالْإِقَامَةَ -: رُخْصَةٌ فِي أَنْ يَدَعَ الصَّلَاةَ قَالَ ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ: فَقُلْت لَهُ: وَإِنْ كَانَ عَلَى بَزٍّ يَبِيعُهُ يَفْرَقُ إِنْ قَامَ عَنْهُ أَنْ يَضِيعَ؟ قَالَ: لَا، لَا رُخْصَةَ لَهُ فِي ذَلِكَ؟ قُلْت: إِنْ كَانَ بِهِ مَرَضٌ أَوْ رَمَدٌ غَيْرُ حَابِسٍ أَوْ تَشْتَكِي يَدُهُ؟ قَالَ: أَحَبُّ إِلَيَّ أَنْ يَتَكَلَّفَ، قُلْت لَهُ: أَرَأَيْت مَنْ لَمْ يَسْمَعْ النِّدَاءَ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْقَرْيَةِ وَإِنْ كَانَ قَرِيبًا مِنْ الْمَسْجِدِ؟ قَالَ: إِنْ شَاءَ فَلْيَأْتِ، وَإِنْ شَاءَ فَلْيَجْلِسْ

L7472 From 'Aṭā': We used to hear that none would abstain from congregational prayer except a hypocrite. And from Ibrāhīm al-Nakha'ī: He did not grant a concession to abandon prayer in congregation except for one who is sick or fearful.

؟ وَعَنْ عَطَاءٍ: كُنَّا نَسْمَعُ أَنَّهُ لَا يَتَخَلَّفُ عَنْ الْجَمَاعَةِ إِلَّا مُنَافِقٌ وَعَنْ إبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ لَا يُرَخِّصُ فِي تَرْكِ الصَّلَاةِ فِي الْجَمَاعَةِ إِلَّا لِمَرِيضٍ أَوْ خَائِفٍ؟

L7473–7474 From Hisham ibn Hassan, from al-Hasan, who said: "When a man hears the call to prayer, he is accounted." From Sufyan ibn Uyaynah, who narrated:

Abd al-Rahman ibn Harmalah reported: “I was with Sa‘id ibn al-Musayyib when a man came to ask him about a matter. The caller proclaimed the prayer, and the man sought to leave. Sa‘id said: ’The prayer has been called.’ The man replied: ’My companions have departed, and my mount is at the door.’ Sa‘id said: ’Do not leave, for the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: ”None leaves this mosque after the call except a hypocrite, unless a man departs intending to return to the prayer.“’ The man insisted on leaving. Sa‘id said: ’Deal with this man.”’ He continued: “One day while I was with him, a man came and said: ’O Abu Muhammad, did you not see the man?’—meaning the one who had left—’He fell from his mount and broke his leg.’ Sa‘id said: ’I indeed suspected something would befall him.’ This is the view of Abu Sulayman and all our companions. As for women, there is no dispute that their attendance at congregational prayer is not obligatory. Authentic reports confirm that the Prophet’s wives—peace and blessings be upon him—remained in their chambers and did not go to the mosque. People differed regarding which is superior for them: praying in their homes or in mosques with congregations. The proof for our position—as we have mentioned—is the statement of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him: ’Congregational prayer exceeds individual prayer by twenty-seven degrees.”’

L7475 This is a general ruling from which it is impermissible to exclude women in favor of others besides them.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا نَفْسُ قَوْلِنَا، فَإِذَا خَرَجْنَ مُتَزَيِّنَاتٍ أَوْ مُتَطَيِّبَاتٍ فَهُنَّ عَاصِيَاتٌ لِلَّهِ تَعَالَى، خَارِجَاتٌ بِخِلَافِ مَا أُمِرْنَ، فَلَا يَحِلُّ إرْسَالُهُنَّ حِينَئِذٍ أَصْلًا.

L7485 Ali said: This is precisely our view. If they go out adorned or perfumed, they are disobeying Allah the Exalted by venturing contrary to what they were commanded. Thus, it is impermissible to permit their going out at all in that case.

L7486–7488 The reports regarding the presence of women at congregational prayers with the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—are mutawātir, meaning mass-transmitted, to the utmost degree. Regarding the validity [of covering oneself], none denies it except an ignorant person - as in the ḥadīth of ʿĀ’ishah the Mother of the Believers: “When the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) prayed the dawn prayer, the women would leave wrapped in their mantles, unrecognizable in the darkness.”[58]

وَحَدِيثِ أَبِي حَازِمٍ عَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ: «لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُ الرِّجَالَ عَاقِدِي أُزُرِهِمْ فِي أَعْنَاقِهِمْ مِنْ ضِيقِ الْأُزُرِ خَلْفَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَقَالَ قَائِلٌ: يَا مَعْشَرَ النِّسَاءِ، لَا تَرْفَعْنَ رُءُوسَكُنَّ حَتَّى يَرْفَعَ الرِّجَالُ» .

L7489 And the narration of Abū Ḥāzim from Sahl ibn Saʿd: “I indeed saw men tying their waist-wraps around their necks due to the shortness of the waist-wraps behind the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings be upon him. Then a speaker said: ’O women, do not lift your heads [from prostration] until the men have lifted theirs.”’ وَقَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «إنِّي لَأَدْخُلُ فِي الصَّلَاةِ أُرِيدُ أَنْ أُطِيلَهَا فَأَسْمَعُ بُكَاءَ الصَّبِيِّ فَأَتَجَوَّزُ فِي صَلَاتِي خَشْيَةَ أَنْ تُفْتَنَ أُمُّهُ» .

L7490 And his statement—peace be upon him—: “Indeed, I enter prayer intending to prolong it, then when I hear a child’s cry, I curtail my prayer out of apprehension that his mother might face distress.”

L7491 The report we have narrated through the chain of Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shay-bah, who narrated to us from Ḥusayn ibn ʿAlī al-Juʿfī, from Zā'idah, from ʿAbdullāh ibn Muḥammad ibn ʿAqīl, from Jābir, from the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—that he said: "The best rows for men are the front, and the worst the last; the worst rows for women are the front, and the best the last." Then he said: "O assembly of women, when the men prostrate, lower your gaze lest you see men's private parts due to their tight lower garments." And the ḥadīth of Ayyūb, from Nāfiʿ, from Ibn ʿUmar, who said: The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "If we were to leave this door for the women," so Ibn ʿUmar never entered through that door after that until his death.

أَنَّهُ قَالَ: «خَيْرُ صُفُوفِ الرِّجَالِ الْمُقَدَّمُ، وَشَرُّهَا الْمُؤَخَّرُ وَشَرُّ صُفُوفِ النِّسَاءِ الْمُقَدَّمُ، وَخَيْرُهَا الْمُؤَخَّرُ، ثُمَّ قَالَ: يَا مَعْشَرَ النِّسَاءِ، إِذَا سَجَدَ الرِّجَالُ فَاغْضُضْنَ أَبْصَارَكُنَّ، لَا تَرَيْنَ عَوْرَاتِ الرِّجَالِ مِنْ ضِيقِ الْأُزُرِ» وَحَدِيثِ أَيُّوبَ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «لَوْ تَرَكْنَا هَذَا الْبَابَ لِلنِّسَاءِ» فَمَا دَخَلَ مِنْ ذَلِكَ الْبَابِ ابْنُ عُمَرَ حَتَّى مَاتَ.

L7492 It is also reported that ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb forbade entry through the women's door.

وَأَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ كَانَ يَنْهَى أَنْ يُدْخَلَ مِنْ بَابِ النِّسَاءِ

L7493 And the hadith of Asma' concerning the eclipse prayer, that she prayed in the mosque with the women behind the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him).

L7494 He—peace be upon him—would not have allowed them to burden themselves by going out at night and in predawn darkness, carrying their young children, nor would he have designated a separate door for them, commanded virgins and non-virgins to go out, or permitted those without a jilbāb to borrow one for reaching the prayer ground. He would not have left them to undertake such burdens that diminish their rewards while the greater merit lies with them in abandoning it. Only one devoid of reason would attribute such an act to a sincere advisor to the Muslims—how much less to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him—of whom the Almighty said: "Distressing to him is what grieves you; ardently concerned for your welfare, kind and merciful to the believers" [Quran 9:128].[59]

فَمَا كَانَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - لِيَدَعَهُنَّ يَتَكَلَّفْنَ الْخُرُوجَ فِي اللَّيْلِ وَالْغَلَسِ يَحْمِلْنَ صِغَارَهُنَّ وَيُفْرِدَ لَهُنَّ بَابًا وَيَأْمُرَ بِخُرُوجِ الْأَبْكَارِ وَغَيْرِ الْأَبْكَارِ وَمَنْ لَا جِلْبَابَ لَهَا فَتَسْتَعِيرُ جِلْبَابًا إِلَى الْمُصَلَّى، فَيَتْرُكُهُنَّ يَتَكَلَّفْنَ مِنْ ذَلِكَ مَا يَحُطُّ أُجُورَهُنَّ، وَيَكُونُ الْفَضْلُ لَهُنَّ فِي تَرْكِهِ، هَذَا لَا يَظُنُّهُ بِنَاصِحٍ لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ إِلَّا عَدِيمُ عَقْلٍ، فَكَيْفَ بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -؟ الَّذِي أَخْبَرَ تَعَالَى أَنَّهُ {عَزِيزٌ عَلَيْهِ مَا عَنِتُّمْ حَرِيصٌ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ رَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ} [التوبة: ١٢٨]

ibn Abd Rabb al-Ka'bah: that he heard Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-As say: We gathered to the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—and he said: "There has been no prophet before me except that it was incumbent upon him to guide his ummah to the best of what he knew for them and to warn them against the worst of what he knew for them?" Ali said: Those who opposed the truth in this matter cited as evidence a fabricated report from Abd al-Hamid ibn al-Mundhir al-Ansari from his aunt or grandmother Umm Humayd: that the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "Your prayer in your house is better than your prayer with me?" Ali said: Abd al-Hamid ibn al-Mundhir is unknown; no one knows him.[60]

فَقَالَ: «إِنَّهُ لَمْ يَكُنْ نَبِيٌّ قَبْلِي إِلَّا كَانَ حَقًّا عَلَيْهِ أَنْ يَدُلَّ أُمَّتَهُ عَلَى خَيْرِ مَا يَعْلَمُهُ لَهُمْ، وَيُنْذِرَهُمْ شَرَّ مَا يَعْلَمُهُ لَهُمْ» ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَاحْتَجَّ مَنْ خَالَفَ الْحَقَّ فِي هَذَا بِخَبَرٍ مَوْضُوعٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ الْحَمِيدِ بْنِ الْمُنْذِرِ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ عَنْ عَمَّتِهِ أَوْ جَدَّتِهِ أُمِّ حُمَيْدٍ: أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: «إِنَّ صَلَاتَكِ فِي بَيْتِكِ أَفْضَلُ مِنْ صَلَاتِكِ مَعِي» ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: عَبْدُ الْحَمِيدِ بْنُ الْمُنْذِرِ مَجْهُولٌ لَا يَدْرِيهِ أَحَدٌ.

They also mentioned - as we have narrated from 'Ā'ishah, may Allah be pleased with her - her statement: "Had the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, witnessed what women have introduced [of misdeeds], he would have prohibited them from going out, just as he prohibited the women of the Children of Israel." This holds no proof for eight reasons:

First: Allah the Exalted, who sent Muhammad, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, with the truth, ordained His religion until the Day of Resurrection. He who inspired him not to prevent women - whether free or enslaved, married or unmarried - from mosques by night or day. He knew what women would introduce [of misdeeds], yet He neither established a prohibition for that nor commanded him: "If they introduce [such acts], prevent them!"

Second: Even if it were soundly established that he, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, would have prohibited them had he witnessed their innovations, this would not justify prohibiting them. For he did not witness them and thus did not prohibit them. Therefore, prohibition is impermissible since he did not command it.

Third: Among the grave sins is abrogating a law he, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, died without abrogating; indeed, this constitutes pure disbelief.

[60] Hadith references (L7495): Sahih Muslim 1844a; Riyad as-Salihin 667.

Fourth: There is no proof in any opinion after him, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

Fifth: ʻĀ'ishah, may Allah be pleased with her, did not state that prohibiting them is permissible for you. Rather, she prohibited others from that [attribution]. She merely related her assumption about something that did not occur or materialize. Thus, they contradict her in this matter.

Sixth: No act committed by them is graver than sexual immorality, which existed among women during the era of the Messenger... The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) - and indeed Allah the Exalted had forbidden women from immodest display of beauty, and from striking their feet "so that what they conceal of their adornments may become known" (24:31). He (peace be upon him) warned against women who are clothed yet naked, swaying and leading others astray, their heads resembling camel humps - they will not perceive Paradise's fragrance. Though he knew such women would emerge after him, why did he not prevent them for that reason?

The seventh: It is unlawful to punish those who commit no sin due to others' sins, for it is invalid to restrict the innocent because of the guilty. Allah the Exalted says: "No soul bears another's burden, and no burdened soul shall bear another's load" (6:164).

The eighth:[61]

[61] Qur'an references (L7498): Qur'an 6:164 (Al-An'am); Qur'an 24:31 (An-Nur).

L7501 They do not differ that it is impermissible to prevent women from visiting one another, engaging in transactions in markets, or going out for their needs. Nothing embodies misguidance and religious invalidity more than granting them unrestricted liberty in all such matters, for some among them have indeed introduced innovations. Yet their prayer in the mosque—the most virtuous deed after affirming divine oneness—is singled out for restriction. Allah is exalted far above such injustice! How could a rational person justify such arguments contradicting established, mass-transmitted traditions? Ali said: The sound position herein is what Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Isḥāq ibn Sulaym narrated to us, from Ibn al-Aʿrābī, from Abū Dāwūd, from Muḥammad ibn al-Muthannā, that ʿAmr ibn ʿĀṣim al-Kilābī narrated to them, saying: Hammām—who is Ibn Yaḥyā—narrated from Qatādah, from Muwarriq al-ʿIjlī, from Abū al-Aḥwaṣ, from ʿAbdullāh ibn Masʿūd, from the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—who said: "A woman's prayer in her private chamber is better than her prayer in her house, and her prayer in the mosque is better than her prayer in her house."

أَنَّهُمْ لَا يَخْتَلِفُونَ فِي أَنَّهُ لَا يَحِلُّ مَنْعُهُنَّ مِنْ التَّزَاوُرِ، وَمِنْ الصَّفْقِ فِي الْأَسْوَاقِ، وَالْخُرُوجِ فِي حَاجَاتِهِنَّ، وَلَيْسَ فِي الضَّلَالِ وَالْبَاطِلِ أَكْثَرُ مِنْ إطْلَاقِهِنَّ عَلَى كُلِّ ذَلِكَ وَقَدْ أَحْدَثَ مِنْهُنَّ مَنْ أَحْدَثَ، وَتُخَصُّ صَلَاتُهُنَّ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ الَّذِي هُوَ أَفْضَلُ الْأَعْمَالِ بَعْدَ التَّوْحِيدِ بِالْمَنْعِ، حَاشَا لِلَّهِ مِنْ هَذَا، وَمَا نَدْرِي كَيْفَ يَنْطَلِقُ لِسَانُ مَنْ يَعْقِلُ بِالِاحْتِجَاجِ بِمِثْلِ هَذَا فِي خِلَافِ السُّنَنِ الثَّابِتَةِ الْمُتَوَاتِرَةِ. قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَالصَّحِيحُ مِنْ هَذَا - هُوَ مَا حَدَّثَنَاهُ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ إِسْحَاقَ بْنِ السَّلِيمِ ثنا ابْنُ الْأَعْرَابِيِّ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْمُثَنَّى أَنَّ عَمْرَو بْنَ عَاصِمٍ الْكِلَابِيَّ حَدَّثَهُمْ قَالَ: ثنا هَمَّامٌ هُوَ ابْنُ يَحْيَى - عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ مُوَرِّقٍ الْعِجْلِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي الْأَحْوَصِ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: «صَلَاةُ الْمَرْأَةِ فِي بَيْتِهَا أَفْضَلُ مِنْ صَلَاتِهَا فِي حُجْرَتِهَا، وَصَلَاتُهَا فِي مَسْجِدِهَا أَفْضَلُ مِنْ صَلَاتِهَا فِي بَيْتِهَا» .

L7502–7504 We have been narrated this report with another wording as related by Muhammad ibn Saʿīd ibn Nubāt, who narrated to us from ʿAbbās ibn Aṣbagh, who narrated to us from Muḥammad ibn Qāsim, who narrated to us from Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd al-Salām al-Khushanī, who narrated to us from Muḥammad ibn al-Muthannā, who narrated to us from ʿAmr ibn ʿĀṣim al-Kilābī, who narrated to us from Hammām, from Qatādah, from Muwarriq al-ʿIjlī, from Abī al-Aḥwaṣ, from ʿAbdullāh ibn Masʿūd, from the Prophet - peace and blessings be upon him - who said: "A woman is indeed ʿawrah. When she goes out, Satan beautifies her. The closest she is to the countenance of her Lord is when she is in the innermost part of her home. A woman's prayer in her innermost chamber is superior to her prayer in her house, and her prayer in her house is superior to her prayer in her room." ʿAlī said: "This version mentions the innermost chamber, with no reference to the mosque whatsoever. Even if it were soundly established therein that her prayer in her house is superior to her prayer in the mosque - and this is never found in any chain thereof." The better view—since it contains proof, as it would have been abrogated without doubt due to his (peace be upon him) leaving them to exert effort in the twilight while the women were eager to pray in congregation with him until his death (peace be upon him)—thus this is undoubtedly the final ruling? Ali said: "Her mosque here is the mosque of her district and her people's mosque. It is impermissible to presume it was her house's mosque, for had that been the case, he (peace be upon him) would have said: 'Your prayer in your house is better than your prayer in your house.' This constitutes a flaw and incoherence—it is forbidden to attribute such to him (peace be upon him)." In our view, the Imams said: "It has been narrated to us from Ma'mar through al-Zuhri that 'Atikah bint Zayd ibn 'Amr ibn Nufayl, the wife of 'Umar ibn al-Khattab, used to attend prayers in the mosque. 'Umar would tell her: 'By God, you know I dislike this.' She responded: 'By God, I shall not stop unless you forbid me.' 'Umar said: 'Then I do not forbid you.'" He said: "Indeed, 'Umar was stabbed that day while she was in the mosque."

L7505 Ali said: Had Umar deemed her prayer at home superior, the least of his obligations would have been to compel her through that and say to her: "You abandon the superior and choose the inferior, especially since I dislike this for you." Yet he did not do so; rather, he merely informed her of his personal inclination which he could not divert. How invalid is it for her—being his wife—to choose [this], while he refrains from intervening, [thereby] burdening herself with angering her husband in a matter where a better alternative exists? Thus, it is confirmed that they both recognized the immense merit [of her prayer]—wherein compliance with the husband's approval, [the view of] the Commander of the Faithful, and [the stance of] the Companion of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) is overridden—through her going to the mosque at dawn and other times. Is this not utterly clear to those who understand? It has been narrated to us through Hisham ibn Urwah's chain that Umar ibn al-Khattab ordered Sulayman ibn Abi Hathmah to lead the women in prayer at the rear of the mosque during Ramadan.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَلَوْ رَأَى عُمَرُ صَلَاتَهَا فِي بَيْتِهَا أَفْضَلَ لَكَانَ أَقَلُّ أَحْوَالِهِ أَنْ يَجْبُرَهَا بِذَلِكَ وَيَقُولَ لَهَا: إنَّك تَدَعِينَ الْأَفْضَلَ وَتَخْتَارِينَ الْأَدْنَى، لَا سِيَّمَا مَعَ أَنِّي لَا أُحِبُّ لَك ذَلِكَ، فَمَا فَعَلَ، بَلْ اقْتَصَرَ عَلَى إخْبَارِهَا بِهَوَاهُ الَّذِي لَا يَقْدِرُ عَلَى صَرْفِهِ، وَمِنْ الْبَاطِلِ أَنْ تَخْتَارَ - وَهِيَ صَاحِبَةٌ، وَيَدَعَهَا هُوَ - أَنْ تَتَكَلَّفَ إسْخَاطَ زَوْجِهَا فِيمَا غَيْرُهُ أَفْضَلُ مِنْهُ؟ فَصَحَّ أَنَّهُمَا رَأَيَا الْفَضْلَ الْعَظِيمَ الَّذِي يَسْقُطُ فِيهِ مُوَافَقَةُ رِضَا الزَّوْجِ، وَأَمِيرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ، وَصَاحِبِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي خُرُوجِهَا إلَى الْمَسْجِدِ فِي الْغَلَسِ وَغَيْرِهِ، وَهَذَا فِي غَايَةِ الْوُضُوحِ لِمَنْ عَقَلَ؟ وَرُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ هِشَامِ بْنِ عُرْوَةَ: أَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ أَمَرَ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنَ أَبِي حَثْمَةَ أَنْ يَؤُمَّ النِّسَاءَ فِي مُؤَخَّرِ الْمَسْجِدِ فِي شَهْرِ رَمَضَانَ.

L7506 From the narration of 'Arfaja: Ali ibn Abi Talib used to command people to perform the standing prayers in Ramadan, appointing an imam for the men and an imam for the women. ʻArfaja said: "He instructed me, so I led the women in prayer," alongside what we previously noted concerning the intensity of Ibn ʻUmar's anger toward his son when he said: "He prevents women from going out to prayer?"

L7507–7508 These are the leaders of the Muslims in the presence of the Companions, then upon this has been the practice of Muslims throughout the regions of the earth, generation after generation—and success is through Allah, the Exalted.

L7509 The issue of the excuse for men regarding failure to attend the congregation in the mosque.

L7511 Among the valid excuses for men to miss congregational prayers in the mosque are: illness; fear; rain; cold; fear of property loss; being occupied with eating; fear of neglecting a sick person or deceased; the Imam prolonging the prayer to the detriment of those behind him; and eating garlic, onions, or leeks while the odor persists. Consumers of such foods are forbidden from mosque attendance and must be expelled without exception. No one other than those mentioned may be barred from mosques—not even a leper, a person with offensive breath, a person with an impairment, or a woman accompanied by a small child. Regarding illness and fear as valid excuses, there is no disagreement, in accordance with Allah's decree: "Allah does not burden any soul beyond its capacity" (Quran 2:286).[1]

L7512 And the statement of the Almighty: "He has detailed for you what He has forbidden upon you, except what you are compelled to by necessity" [Al-An'am 6:119]. And the Almighty said: "Except one who is coerced" [An-Nahl 16:106]. Similarly, squandering wealth—and he (peace be upon him) forbade squandering wealth. Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us, Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Muhammad

From two trees—I do not consider them except foul-smelling: this onion and garlic. I saw the Prophet of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—when he detected their odor from a man, he would order that he be taken out to Al-Baqi'. No one other than these are to be expelled, for if Allah Almighty had intended to prevent anyone besides them from the mosques, He would have clarified that, as He says: {And your Lord is never forgetful} [19:64]. If someone mentions the narration of Abu Hurairah from the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—"There is no contagion, no ill omen, and flee from the leper as you flee from a lion"—then its meaning is like Allah's saying: {Do whatever you will} [41:40]. That is, flee from the leper as you flee from a lion; there is no contagion—he does not infect you, nor does fleeing from what is decreed for you benefit you. If this were not its meaning, the end of the hadith would contradict its beginning, which is impossible. Additionally, if it were meant as literal fleeing, the command would be general, obligating his wife, children, and everyone to flee from him until he dies of hunger and hardship. Narrow alleys would have to be closed before him, as is done with lions—yet this is undeniably false. No one doubts that there were lepers during his time—peace be upon him—and no one fled from them.[5]

Ibn 'Abbās added, "Someone superior to me did this. Indeed, the Friday prayer is a firm obligation, but I disliked forcing you to go out and walk through mud and rain."

L7527 Issue: The best person to lead the congregation in prayer is the one among them most proficient in Quranic recitation.

L7529 It is preferable for the one leading the congregational prayer to be the most وَالْأَفْضَلُ أَنْ يَؤُمَّ الْجَمَاعَةَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ أَقْرَؤُهُمْ لِلْقُرْآنِ وَإِنْ كَانَ أَنْقَصَ فَضْلًا.

proficient in Quranic recitation, even if he is lesser in merit.

فَإِنْ اسْتَوَوْا فِي الْقِرَاءَةِ فَأَفْقَهُهُمْ.

L7530–7531 If they are equal in recitation, then the most knowledgeable in fiqh among them.

فَإِنْ اسْتَوَوْا فِي الْفِقْهِ وَالْقِرَاءَةِ فَأَقْدَمُهُمْ صَلَاحًا فَإِنْ حَضَرَ السُّلْطَانُ الْوَاجِبَةُ طَاعَتُهُ أَوْ أَمِيرُهُ عَلَى الصَّلَاةِ فَهُوَ أَحَقُّ بِالصَّلَاةِ عَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ

L7532 If they are equal in jurisprudence and recitation, then the foremost in righteousness among them takes precedence. If the ruler whose obedience is legitimately obligatory is present, or his appointed commander over the prayer, then he is most deserving to lead the prayer in all circumstances.

فَإِنْ كَانُوا فِي مَنْزِلِ إِنْسَانٍ فَصَاحِبُ الْمَنْزِلِ أَحَقُّ بِالْإِمَامَةِ عَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ إِلَّا مِنْ السُّلْطَانِ.

L7533 If they are in a person's home, the owner of the home has the greatest right to lead the prayer under all circumstances, except in the case of the Sultan.

وَإِنْ اسْتَوَوْا فِي كُلِّ مَا ذَكَرْنَا فَأَسَنُّهُمْ؟ فَإِنْ أَمَّ أَحَدٌ بِخِلَافِ مَا ذَكَرْنَا أَجْزَأَ ذَلِكَ، إِلَّا مَنْ تَقَدَّمَ بِغَيْرِ أَمْرِ السُّلْطَانِ عَلَى السُّلْطَانِ، أَوْ بِغَيْرِ أَمْرِ صَاحِبِ الْمَنْزِلِ عَلَى صَاحِبِ الْمَنْزِلِ، فَلَا يُجْزِئُ هَذَيْنِ وَلَا تُجْزِئُهُمْ؟ وَقَدْ ذَكَرْنَا حَدِيثَ مَالِكِ بْنِ الْحُوَيْرِثِ: «وَلْيَؤُمَّكُمَا أَكْبَرُكُمَا» وَكَانَا فِي الْقِرَاءَةِ وَالْفِقْهِ وَالْهِجْرَةِ سَوَاءً؟ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ ثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ سَعِيدٍ هُوَ الْقَطَّانُ - ثنا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ أَبِي نَضْرَةَ عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: «إِذَا كَانُوا ثَلَاثَةً فَلْيَؤُمَّهُمْ أَحَدُهُمْ، وَأَحَقُّهُمْ بِالْإِمَامَةِ أَقْرَؤُهُمْ» .

L7534 If they are equal in all that we have mentioned, then the oldest among them? If someone leads prayer contrary to what we have mentioned, that is valid, except for one who presumes leadership over the Sultan without the Sultan's authorization, or over the homeowner without the homeowner's authorization – the leading of these two is not valid, nor are their prayers valid. We have mentioned the ḥadīth of Mālik ibn al-Ḥuwayrith: "Let the eldest among you lead," even though they were equal in recitation, jurisprudence, and Hijrah? ʿAbdullāh ibn Yūsuf narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ narrated to us: ʿAbd al-Wahhāb ibn ʿĪsā narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn ʿAlī narrated to us: Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Bashshār narrated to us: Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd – al-Qaṭṭān – narrated to us: Shuʿbah narrated to us from Qatādah from Abū Naḍrah from Abū Saʿīd al-Khudrī that the Messenger of Allāh – peace and blessings be upon him – said: "When there are three, let one of them lead them, and the most deserving of leadership is the most proficient in recitation."[8]

L7536 And through his chain to Muslim's compilation: Abū Saʿīd al-Ashajj and Muḥammad ibn al-Muthannā narrated to us. Al-Ashajj said: From Abū Khālid al-Aḥmar, from al-Aʿmash. Ibn al-Muthannā said: Muḥammad ibn Jaʿfar narrated to us from Shuʿbah. Then Shuʿbah and al-Aʿmash concurred, narrating from Ismāʿīl ibn Rajāʾ from Aws ibn Ḍamʿaj from Abū Masʿūd.

L7537–7538 Shuʿbah said: I heard Aws ibn Damʿaj say: I heard Abū Masʿūd—he is al-Badrī—say: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "The people should be led in prayer by the most proficient among them in reciting the Book of Allah. If they are equal in recitation, then the most knowledgeable among them in the Sunnah. If they are equal in the Sunnah, then the earliest among them in Hijrah. If they are equal in Hijrah, then the earliest among them to embrace Islam. Let no man lead another in prayer within his authority, nor sit in his house upon his place of honor except with his permission."[9]

L7539–7541 Ali said: The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—explained the enduring Hijrah, as narrated to us by ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh al-Hamadānī, who narrated from Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad, who narrated from al-Farabrī, who narrated from al-Bukhārī, who narrated from Ādam, who narrated from Shuʿbah, on the authority of ʿAbd Allāh ibn Abī al-Safar and Ismāʿīl ibn Abī Khālid, on the authority of al-Shaʿbī, on the authority of ʿAbd Allāh ibn ʿAmr, on the authority of the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—who said: «A Muslim is one from whose tongue and hand the Muslims are safe, and a Muhājir is one who abandons what Allah has forbidden.»

Ali said: Mālik said, "The most virtuous leads the prayer, even if he is less proficient in recitation." This is erroneous, for it contradicts the command of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—as narrated to us by Ḥumām, who narrated from Ibn Mufarrij, who narrated from Ibn al-Aʿrābī, who narrated from al-Dabarī, on the authority of ʿAbd al-Razzāq, on the authority of Ibn Jurayj, from Nāfiʿ, who heard Ibn ʿUmar say: "Sālim, the freed slave of Abī Ḥudhayfah, used to lead the first Muhājirīn—including

Abu Salama said: The Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—said: "When three are on a journey, let the most proficient in Quran recitation among them lead them in prayer, even if he is the youngest. If he leads them in prayer, he becomes their leader."

L7543 Abu Salama said: That was a leader whom the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—appointed. We only deemed it permissible for someone to lead prayer contrary to that due to what Abdullah ibn Rabi' narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb narrated to us from Muhammad ibn al-Muthanna, from Bakr ibn 'Isa, who said: I heard Shu'bah report from Nu'aym ibn Abi Hind, from Abi Wā'il, from Masrūq, from 'Ā'ishah, the Mother of the Believers, that Abu Bakr al-Siddiq led the people in prayer while the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—was in the row.

[10] Hadith references (L7539): Sahih al-Bukhari 10; Sahih al-Bukhari 6484; Sunan an-Nasai 4996.

وَبِهِ إِلَى أَحْمَدَ بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ -: أَنَا عَلِيُّ بْنُ حُجْرٍ ثنا إِسْمَاعِيلُ هُوَ ابْنُ عُلَيَّةَ - ثنا حُمَيْدٍ عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ «آخِرُ صَلاَةٍ صَلاَّهَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مَعَ الْقَوْمِ: صَلَّى فِي ثَوْبٍ وَاحِدٍ مُتَوَشِّحًا بِهِ خَلْفَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ» .

L7544 And through him to Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb: I am 'Ali ibn Hujr—narrated to us Isma'il, that is Ibn 'Ulayyah—narrated to us Humayd from Anas, who said: "The final prayer the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—performed with the people: he prayed in a single garment, wrapped in it, behind Abu Bakr."

L7545–7547 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us: Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us: Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Rafi' and Hasan ibn Ali al-Hulwani both narrated from Abd al-Razzaq. I am Ibn Jurayj: Ibn Shihab narrated to me from the ḥadīth of Abbad ibn Ziyad that Urwah ibn al-Mughirah ibn Shu'bah informed him that al-Mughirah ibn Shu'bah informed him - then he mentioned a ḥadīth, and within it... He said, "Then I accompanied him—meaning the Messenger of Allah, may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—until we found the people had appointed Abdur-Rahman ibn Awf as Imam to lead them in prayer. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, joined them in one of the two rak'ahs, and he—peace be upon him—prayed the final rak'ah with the people. When Abdur-Rahman ibn Awf concluded the prayer with the salutation, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, stood to complete his prayer. This alarmed the Muslims, and they increased their saying of SubḥānAllah (Glory be to Allah). When the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, finished his prayer, he turned to them and said: 'You have done well,' or 'You have acted correctly,' praising them for performing the prayer at its appointed time."

L7548 With this chain of transmission ending at Ibn Shihāb: from Ismāʿīl ibn Muḥammad ibn Saʿd ibn Abī Waqqāṣ, from Ḥamzah ibn al-Mughīrah ibn Shuʿbah: a similar narration of the same Hadith, in which al-Mughīrah said, "I intended to delay ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAwf, but the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said, 'Let him be.'"

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَبِهَذَيْنِ الْخَبَرَيْنِ عَلِمْنَا أَنَّ قَوْلَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «يَؤُمُّ الْقَوْمَ أَقْرَؤُهُمْ، فَإِنْ اسْتَوَوْا فَأَفْقَهُهُمْ، فَإِنْ اسْتَوَوْا فَأَقْدَمُهُمْ هِجْرَةً، فَإِنْ اسْتَوَوْا، فَأَقْدَمُهُمْ سِنًّا»

L7549–7551 Ali said: Through these two narrations, we have understood that the Messenger of Allah's statement—peace and blessings be upon him—"Let the most Quranically proficient lead the people. If they are equal, then the most jurisprudentially learned. If equal, then the oldest in age" constitutes a recommendation rather than an obligation. For was he not—peace be upon him—more proficient in recitation than Abu Bakr and Abd al-Rahman, more learned in jurisprudence than both, earlier in migration to Allah the Exalted than both, and older than both? Through these two narrations, prayer behind any Muslim becomes permissible—even one possessing extreme shortcomings—for every Muslim's standing in virtue and religious commitment relative to the finest Muslims after Allah's Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him) is closer in merit than the standing of Abu Bakr and Abd al-Rahman ibn Awf (may Allah be pleased with them), and they themselves are among the finest Muslims. In matters of excellence and religion pertaining to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), has this ruling been established by its evidence? We found no trace of taking precedence over the ruler or the householder that would shift the obligations of both from compulsory to recommended. Thus, the ruling remains obligatory.

: نَدْبٌ لَا فَرْضٌ، لِأَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - أَقْرَأُ مِنْ أَبِي بَكْرٍ، وَعَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ، وَأَفْقَهُ مِنْهُمَا، وَأَقْدَمُ هِجْرَةً، إلَى اللَّهِ تَعَالَى مِنْهُمَا وَأَسَنُّ مِنْهُمَا؟ وَبِهَذَيْنِ الْأَثَرَيْنِ جَازَتْ الصَّلَاةُ خَلْفَ كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ، وَإِنْ كَانَ فِي غَايَةِ النُّقْصَانِ، لِأَنَّهُ لَا مُسْلِمَ إلَّا وَنِسْبَتُهُ فِي الْفَضْلِ وَالدِّينِ إلَى أَفْضَلِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ بَعْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: أَقْرَبُ مِنْ نِسْبَةِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ وَعَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ - وَهُمَا مِنْ أَفْضَلِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا - فِي الْفَضْلِ وَالدِّينِ إلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -، فَخَرَجَ هَذَا بِدَلِيلِهِ؟ وَلَمْ نَجِدْ فِي التَّقَدُّمِ عَلَى السُّلْطَانِ وَعَلَى صَاحِبِ الْمَنْزِلِ أَثَرًا يُخْرِجُهُمَا عَنْ الْوُجُوبِ إلَى النَّدْبِ، فَبَقِيَ عَلَى الْوُجُوبِ.

L7552 Rather, we found what reinforces the obligation of that: as narrated to us by Abdullah ibn Rabi', who narrated from Muhammad ibn Ishaq ibn Sulaym, who narrated from Ibn al-A'rabi, who narrated from Abu Dawud, who narrated from Abdullah ibn Muhammad al-Nufayli, who narrated from Muhammad ibn Salamah, from another Muhammad ibn Ishaq, who narrated to me from al-Zuhri, who narrated to me from Abd al-Malik ibn Abi Bakr ibn Abd al-Rahman ibn al-Harith ibn Hisham, from his father, from Abdullah ibn Zam'ah, who said: "When the illness grew severe upon the Messenger of Allah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) while I was among a group of Muslims with him, Bilal called him to prayer. He said: 'Have someone instruct the people to pray.' Abdullah ibn Zam'ah went out and found Umar with the people—Abu Bakr being absent. Abdullah ibn Zam'ah said: 'Rise, O Umar, and lead the people in prayer.' Umar stepped forward and proclaimed 'Allāhu Akbar' to commence prayer. When the Messenger of Allah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) heard his voice—Umar being a man with a powerful voice—he said: 'Where is Abu Bakr? Allah and the Muslims reject this.' The Prophet sent for Abu Bakr, who arrived after Umar had led that prayer, and he then led the people."

بَلْ وَجَدْنَا مَا يَشُدُّ وُجُوبَ ذَلِكَ -: كَمَا حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ إِسْحَاقَ بْنِ السُّلَيْمِ ثنا ابْنُ الْأَعْرَابِيِّ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ النُّفَيْلِيُّ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ إِسْحَاقَ حَدَّثَنِي الزُّهْرِيُّ حَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُ الْمَلِكِ بْنُ أَبِي بَكْرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ هِشَامٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ زَمْعَةَ قَالَ: «لَمَّا اسْتَعَزَّ بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَأَنَا عِنْدَهُ فِي نَفَرٍ مِنْ الْمُسْلِمِينَ دَعَاهُ بِلَالٌ إلَى الصَّلَاةِ، فَقَالَ: مُرُوا مَنْ يُصَلِّي بِالنَّاسِ فَخَرَجَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ زَمْعَةَ فَإِذَا عُمَرُ فِي النَّاسِ، وَكَانَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ غَائِبًا، فَقَالَ: قُمْ يَا عُمَرُ فَصَلِّ بِالنَّاسِ، فَتَقَدَّمَ وَكَبَّرَ، فَلَمَّا سَمِعَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - صَوْتَهُ - وَكَانَ عُمَرُ رَجُلًا مِجْهَرًا - فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَأَيْنَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ؟ يَأْبَى اللَّهُ ذَلِكَ وَالْمُسْلِمُونَ، فَبَعَثَ إلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ فَجَاءَ بَعْدَ أَنْ صَلَّى عُمَرُ تِلْكَ الصَّلَاةَ فَصَلَّى بِالنَّاسِ» .

L7553 Narrated by Abdullah ibn Rabee', Abdullah ibn Muhammad ibn Uthman, Ahmad ibn Khalid, Ali ibn Abdulaziz, Al-Hajjaj ibn Al-Minhal, Hammad ibn Salamah, Dawud ibn Abi Hind from Abu Nadhrah from Abu Sa'id, the client of Abu Usayd, who said: "I married a woman, and on my wedding night, a group of the companions of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—were present with me. When the time for prayer commenced, Abu Dharr sought to step forward and lead the prayer, but Hudhayfah pulled him back and said: 'The master of the house has the greater right to lead the prayer.' He then asked Ibn Mas'ud: 'Is this so?' He replied: 'Yes.' Abu Sa'id said: 'Thus, I stepped forward and led them in prayer while I was a slave at that time.'" From Ibn Jurayj, from 'Ata'—regarding a group of people camping together, among them a Qurayshi, an Arab, a client, a Bedouin, and a slave, each having his own encampment. When one of them went to another's encampment and the time for prayer had commenced, he said: "The owner of the encampment leads them in prayer. It is his right to assign it to whomever he wishes."

The blind and the sighted, the slave and the free, are equal in leading prayers (imamate).

L7556 Issue: The blind, the sighted, the eunuch, the male, the slave, the free person, the illegitimate child, and the Qurashi are equal in leading prayers. All may validly serve as regular imams, with no distinction between them except in Qur'anic recitation, juristic knowledge, precedence in good deeds, and age alone. Mālik disliked an illegitimate child leading prayers and a slave serving as a regular imam – yet this opinion has no valid basis, as it is not supported by the Qur'an, nor by an authentic or weak Sunnah, nor consensus, analogy, or any Companion's statement. People's defects lie in their religious practice and moral character, not in their physical attributes or lineage.

L7557 Allah, the Almighty and Majestic, said: {Indeed, the most noble of you in the sight of Allah is the most righteous of you} [Al-Hujurat: 13].[11]

قَالَ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ: {إِنَّ أَكْرَمَكُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ أَتْقَاكُمْ} [الحجرات: ١٣] .

[11] Qur'an references (L7557): Qur'an 49:13 (Al-Hujurat).

وَاحْتَجَّ بَعْضُ الْمُقَلِّدِينَ لَهُ بِأَنْ قَالَ: يُفَكِّرُ مَنْ خَلْفَهُ فِيهِ فَيُلْهَى عَنْ صَلَاتِهِ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا فِي غَايَةِ الْغَثَاثَةِ وَالسُّقُوطِ وَلَا شَكَّ فِي أَنَّ فِكْرَةَ الْمَأْمُومِ فِي أَمْرِ الْخَلِيفَةِ إذَا صَلَّى بِالنَّاسِ، أَوْ الْأَحْدَبِ إذَا أَمَّهُمْ - أَكْثَرُ مِنْ فِكْرَتِهِ فِي وَلَدِ الزِّنَى، وَلَوْ كَانَ لِشَيْءٍ مِمَّا ذَكَرْنَا حُكْمٌ فِي الدِّينِ لَمَا أَغْفَلَهُ اللَّهُ عَلَى لِسَانِ رَسُولِهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: {وَمَا كَانَ رَبُّكَ نَسِيًّا} [مريم: ٦٤] .

L7558 Some of his imitators argued by stating: "Those behind him would think about him, thus they are distracted from their prayer." Ali said: "This reaches the extreme of insipidity and degradation. Doubtlessly, a worshipper's thought about the caliph's affair when he leads prayer, or about a hunchbacked man when he leads them, exceeds his consideration for a child of illicit intercourse. Had there been any religious ruling for any of what we mentioned, God would not have omitted it through the words of His Messenger—may God's blessings and peace be upon him—as He said: {And your Lord is never forgetful} [19:64]."[12]

وَالْعَجَبُ كُلُّهُ فِي الْفَرْقِ بَيْنَ الْإِمَامِ الرَّاتِبِ وَغَيْرِ الرَّاتِبِ وَتَجُوزُ إمَامَةُ الْفَاسِقِ كَذَلِكَ وَنَكْرَهُهُ، إلَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ هُوَ الْأَقْرَأُ، وَالْأَفْقَهُ، فَهُوَ أَوْلَى حِينَئِذٍ مِنْ الْأَفْضَلِ، إذَا كَانَ أَنْقَصَ مِنْهُ فِي الْقِرَاءَةِ، أَوْ الْفِقْهِ، وَلَا أَحَدَ بَعْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إلَّا وَلَهُ ذُنُوبٌ.

L7559 The entire wonder lies in the distinction between the regular imam and the non-regular. Similarly, the imamate of a sinful person is permissible, though we dislike it—unless he is the most proficient in recitation and the most learned in jurisprudence. In that case, he becomes more entitled than the morally superior individual if the latter is inferior to him in recitation or jurisprudence. There is none after the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) except that he has sins.

L7560 He, the Exalted and Majestic, said: "If you do not know their fathers, then they are your brothers in religion and your allies" [al-Aḥzāb: 5].[13] وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {وَالصَّالِحِينَ مِنْ عِبَادِكُمْ وَإِمَائِكُمْ} [النور: ٣٢] . فَنَصَّ تَعَالَى عَلَى أَنَّ مَنْ لَا يُعْرَفُ لَهُ أَبٌ: إخْوَانُنَا فِي الدِّينِ.

L7561 And the Exalted said: "And the righteous among your male slaves and female slaves" [An-Nur: 32]. Thus the Exalted specified that those without known fathers are our brothers in religion.[14]

L7570 From the chain of Az-Zuhri, from Humaid ibn Abdur-Rahman ibn Awf, from Ubaydullah ibn Adiyy ibn Al-Khiyar, that he entered upon Uthman—may Allah be pleased with him—while he was under siege. He said to him: "You are the leader of the entire community, and this calamity we witness has befallen you. An imam of fitnah leads us in prayer, and we feel uneasy." Uthman replied: "Prayer is the best of people's deeds. When people do good, do good with them, and when they do wrong, avoid their wrongdoing." Ibn Umar used to pray behind Al-Hajjaj and Najdah: one of them was a Kharijite, and the other was the most wicked of creation. Ibn Umar would say: "Prayer is a good deed; I do not care at all who shares it with me." From Ibn Juraij: I said to Ataa: "What if an imam delays the prayer until he performs it negligently?" He said: "Praying with the congregation is more beloved to me." I said: "Even if the sun turns yellow and touches the mountain peaks?" He said: "Yes, as long as it has not set." I said to Ataa: "If the imam does not complete the prayer properly, should I abstain from praying with him?" He said: "Rather pray with him and complete it as best as you can. The congregation is more beloved to me. If he raises his head from bowing without completing it properly, then you complete it. If he raises his head from prostration without completing it, then you complete it. If he stands and hastens the final sitting, do not hasten—complete it even if he stands." From Abdur-Razzaq, from Sufyan Ath-Thawri, from Uqbah, from Abu Wa'il: He used to pray with Al-Mukhtar al-Kadhdhāb (the Liar).

L7571–7573 And from Abu Al-Ash'ath, he said: The Khawarij emerged against us, so I asked Yahya ibn Abi Kathir, saying: "O Abu Nasr, what is your view on praying behind these people?" He replied: "The Quran is your imam. Pray with them as long as they perform the prayer." And from Ibrahim al-Nakha'i, he said: I said to Alqama, "Our imam does not complete the prayer." Alqama said: "But we complete it," meaning we pray with him and complete it. And from al-Hasan: A believer's prayer behind a hypocrite does not harm him, nor does a hypocrite's prayer behind a believer benefit him. And from Qatādah:

I said to Sa'īd ibn al-Musayyab, "Should I pray behind al-Ḥajjāj?" He replied, "We indeed pray behind those who are worse than him." 'Alī said, "We do not know of any of the Companions, may Allah be pleased with them, who refused to pray behind al-Mukhtār, 'Abdullāh ibn Ziyād, or al-Ḥajjāj, nor any sinner more wicked than these."

L7574 And Allah, the Mighty and Majestic, has said: "Cooperate in matters of righteousness and piety, and do not cooperate in sin and transgression [Al-Ma'idah: 2]."[16]

L7575 There is no act of righteousness more virtuous than Salah and congregating in mosques. Thus, whoever calls others to these acts, it becomes obligatory to respond to him and assist him in the righteousness and piety to both of which he calls. There is no sin after the sin of disbelief more grievous than neglecting Salah in mosques. Therefore, it is forbidden for us to support such neglect. Similarly concerning fasting, Hajj, and jihad: whoever performs any of these acts, we perform it alongside him. But whoever invites us to sin, we neither respond to him nor assist him in it. Is all of this not the position of Abu Hanifa, Al-Shafi'i, and Abu Suleiman?

L7576–7577 An issue: one who performed prayer while in a state of major impurity or without ablution, whether intentionally or forgetfully.

L7578–7580 Issue: If someone prays while in a state of major impurity or without ablution—whether intentionally or forgetfully—the prayer of those following him is valid and complete, unless the follower knew this with certainty, in which case his prayer is invalid. This is because he is not praying. If he is not praying, then the one following someone who is not praying is acting foolishly, disobediently, and contrary to divine command. Whoever's prayer is characterized as such, his prayer is invalid. Abu Hanifah said: "The prayer of one who follows someone not in a state of ritual purity is invalid, whether the imam acted intentionally or forgetfully." Malik said: "If the imam was forgetful, the prayer of those behind him is complete. But if he acted intentionally, the prayer of those behind him is invalid." Al-Shafi'i and Abu Sulayman held the same view as we stated. Ali said: "The proof for the correctness of our opinion is Allah's statement: Allah does not burden a soul beyond its capacity [Al-Baqarah 2:286]." Is it not within our capacity to know the unseen regarding his purity? Every imam behind whom prayer is conducted in the world could potentially be in a state of impurity—whether deliberate or out of forgetfulness. Thus, is it not correct that we are not tasked with knowing with certainty their purity? Each individual prays for themselves: the invalidity of the imam's prayer does not invalidate the follower's prayer—if valid—nor does the validity of the imam's prayer render valid the follower's prayer—if invalid.[17]

عَامِدًا فَلَا صَلَاةَ لِمَنْ خَلْفَهُ؟ وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ، وَأَبُو سُلَيْمَانَ، كَمَا قُلْنَا؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: بُرْهَانُ صِحَّةِ قَوْلِنَا -: قَوْلُ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {لا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلا وُسْعَهَا} [البقرة: ٢٨٦] وَلَيْسَ فِي وُسْعِنَا عِلْمُ الْغَيْبِ مِنْ طَهَارَتِهِ؟ وَكُلُّ إِمَامٍ يُصَلَّى وَرَاءَهُ فِي الْعَالَمِ: فَفِي الْمُمْكِنِ أَنْ يَكُونَ عَلَى غَيْرِ طَهَارَةٍ عَامِدًا أَوْ نَاسِيًا، فَصَحَّ أَنَّا لَمْ نُكَلَّفْ عِلْمَ يَقِينِ طَهَارَتِهِمْ؟ وَكُلُّ أَحَدٍ يُصَلِّي لِنَفْسِهِ، وَلَا يُبْطِلُ صَلَاةَ الْمَأْمُومِ - إِنْ صَحَّتْ - بُطْلَانُ صَلَاةِ الْإِمَامِ، وَلَا يُصِحُّ صَلَاةَ الْمَأْمُومِ - إِنْ بَطَلَتْ - صِحَّةُ صَلَاةِ الْإِمَامِ.

L7581 Whoever transgresses this is in contradiction, for the Hanafis and Malikis do not differ—as we mean—that if the Imam experiences a hadath while overpowered—such as unconsciousness—his ritual purity is invalidated.

وَمَنْ تَعَدَّى هَذَا فَهُوَ مُنَاقِضٌ، لِأَنَّهُمْ لَا يَخْتَلِفُونَ - نَعْنِي الْحَنَفِيِّينَ، وَالْمَالِكِيِّينَ - فِي أَنَّ الْإِمَامَ إِنْ أَحْدَثَ مَغْلُوبًا فَإِنَّ طَهَارَتَهُ قَدْ انْتَقَضَتْ.

L7582 The Malikis said: And his prayer has also become invalid.

قَالَ الْمَالِكِيُّونَ: وَصَلَاتُهُ أَيْضًا قَدْ بَطَلَتْ.

L7583 Then they do not differ that the prayer of those behind him was not invalidated, nor was their ritual purity. Thus, the claim that the follower's prayer is contingent upon the Imam's prayer – or that it becomes invalid by its invalidation – is refuted, though they are proponents of analogical reasoning by their own assertion.

ثُمَّ لَا يَخْتَلِفُونَ: أَنَّ صَلَاةَ مَنْ خَلْفَهُ لَمْ تَنْتَقِضْ وَلَا طَهَارَتَهُمْ، فَبَطَلَ أَنْ تَكُونَ صَلَاةُ الْمَأْمُومِ مُتَعَلِّقَةً بِصَلَاةِ الْإِمَامِ، وَأَنْ تَفْسُدَ بِفَسَادِهَا، وَهُمْ أَصْحَابُ قِيَاسٍ بِزَعْمِهِمْ.

L7584 They are in unanimous agreement: if the follower's prayer becomes invalid, the validity of the imam's prayer does not rectify it. Why then do they not apply their foundational principle consistently by asserting: "Similarly, if the follower's prayer is valid, the invalidity of the imam's prayer does not invalidate it"? If any analogy were ever valid, would this not be the most valid analogy on earth?

وَهُمْ لَا يَخْتَلِفُونَ: فِي أَنَّ صَلَاةَ الْمَأْمُومِ إِنْ فَسَدَتْ فَإِنَّهُ لَا يُصْلِحُهَا صَلَاحُ صَلَاةِ الْإِمَامِ، فَهَلَّا طَرَدُوا أَصْلَهُمْ فَقَالُوا: فَكَذَلِكَ إِنْ صَحَّتْ صَلَاةُ الْمَأْمُومِ لَمْ يُفْسِدْهَا فَسَادُ صَلَاةِ الْإِمَامِ؟ فَلَوْ صَحَّ قِيَاسٌ يَوْمًا، لَكَانَ هَذَا أَصَحَّ قِيَاسٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ؟

Rahman ibn Abd Allah ibn Dinar narrated from Zayd ibn Aslam from Ata ibn Yasar from Abu Hurairah: That the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "They lead the prayer for you. If they are correct, it is for you, and if they err, it is for you and upon them." Ali said: "Our reliance in this is what Abdullah ibn Rabi' narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Ishaq ibn al-Sulaym narrated to us." Ibn al-A'rabi narrated: Abu Dawud al-Sijistani narrated: Uthman ibn Abi Shaybah narrated: Yazid ibn Harun narrated: from Hammad ibn Salamah from Ziyad al-A'lam from Abu Bakrah: "Allah's Messenger - peace be upon him - entered the Fajr prayer, pronounced the takbir, then motioned for them to remain where they were. He returned with water dripping from his head, led them in prayer, and upon completing it said: 'I am but a human like you - I had been in a state of janabah (major impurity).'" Ali remarked: "They considered their prayer valid behind him despite his being in janabah - peace be upon him." Ali added: "It was narrated to us through Hisham ibn Urwah from his father that Umar ibn al-Khattab led people in prayer while in janabah, so he repeated it, but we have not received reports that the people repeated it." From Ma'mar through al-Zuhri from Salim ibn Abdullah ibn Umar: "His father led people in Asr prayer without wudu (ablution), so he repeated it, but his companions did not repeat it." From Ibrahim al-Nakha'i, al-Hasan, and Sa'id ibn Jubayr regarding one who leads prayer without purification: "He must repeat it while they need not repeat," without distinguishing between forgetfulness and intentionality. Ata said: "They do not repeat prayers behind one lacking wudu, but must repeat behind one in janabah" - this is baseless. It was narrated to us from Ali ibn Abi Talib: "Does he repeat, and do they repeat?" No valid authority exists in anyone's opinion except that of the Messenger of Allah - peace be upon him - particularly when Umar and Ibn Umar contradicted this position. Even if this were authentically attributed to Ali—which it is not, due to the chain containing Abbad ibn Kathir (a rejected narrator) and Ghalib ibn Ubaydillah (an unknown narrator)—it would hold no weight.[18]

L7588–7590 And 'Ubayd Allāh ibn Zaḥr from 'Alī ibn Zayd—both of whom are weak.

The contradictory narrators reported from Ibrāhīm ibn Muḥammad ibn Abī Yaḥyā (who is a fabricator) from an unnamed individual (who is unknown) from Abū Jābir al-Bayāḍī (who is a fabricator) from Sa'īd ibn al-Musayyib regarding people praying behind someone who is not in a state of ritual purity due to his forgetfulness: "They must repeat." Even if this were authentic, it would be a mursal (a narration lacking a complete chain), carrying no authority. How could this be valid when the chain contains two fabricators and an unknown narrator? Thus, it is concluded. The narration from 'Umar and Ibn 'Umar—regarding which no valid disagreement from any of the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them) exists—is of the highest authenticity.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَأَمَّا الْأَلْثَغُ، وَالْأَلْكَنُ، وَالْأَعْجَمِيُّ اللِّسَانِ، وَاللَّحَّانُ: فَصَلَاةُ مَنْ ائْتَمَّ بِهِمْ جَائِزَةٌ.

L7591 Ali said: As for the one with a lisp, the stutterer, the non-Arabic speaker, and the one who frequently errs in recitation, the prayer of whoever follows them is valid.

لِقَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {لا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلا وُسْعَهَا} [البقرة: ٢٨٦]

L7592 Because of Allah's statement, the Most High: "He does not burden a soul beyond what it can bear" [Al-Baqarah: 286][19]

فَلَمْ يُكَلَّفُوا إلَّا مَا يَقْدِرُونَ عَلَيْهِ، لَا مَا لَا يَقْدِرُونَ عَلَيْهِ، فَقَدْ أَدَّوْا صَلَاتَهُمْ كَمَا أُمِرُوا، وَمَنْ أَدَّى صَلَاتَهُ كَمَا أُمِرَ فَهُوَ مُحْسِنٌ.

L7593 They were only obligated to what they were capable of, not what they were incapable of. Thus, they fulfilled their prayer as they were commanded, and whoever fulfills his prayer as he was commanded is a doer of good.

قَالَ تَعَالَى: {مَا عَلَى الْمُحْسِنِينَ مِنْ سَبِيلٍ} [التوبة: ٩١] . وَالْعَجَبُ كُلُّ الْعَجَبِ مِمَّنْ يُجِيزُ صَلَاةَ الْأَلْثَغِ وَاللَّحَّانِ وَالْأَلْكَنِ لِنَفْسِهِ - وَيُبْطِلُ صَلَاةَ مَنْ ائْتَمَّ بِهِمْ فِي الصَّلَاةِ، وَهُمْ - مَعَ ذَلِكَ - يُبْطِلُونَ صَلَاةَ مَنْ صَلَّى وَهُوَ جُنُبٌ نَاسِيًا، وَيُجِيزُونَ صَلَاةَ مَنْ ائْتَمَّ بِهِ وَهُوَ لَا صَلَاةَ لَهُ وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L7594 He, the Exalted, said: "There is no blame upon the doers of good" [Quran 9:91]. It is utterly astonishing that those who permit the prayer of one with a lisp, one who habitually errs in pronunciation, or one with unclear speech when praying alone—yet invalidate the prayer of those who follow them as leaders. Moreover, they invalidate the prayer of one who prays while in a state of major ritual impurity due to forgetfulness, yet permit the prayer of one who follows him when he himself has no valid prayer. And success is from Allah, the Exalted.[20]

A Jurisprudential Issue: Whether a Minor Can Lead

L7595

[19] Qur'an references (L7592): Qur'an 2:286 (Al-Baqarah).

Prayers

L7596 490. Issue: It is not permissible for one who has not reached puberty to lead prayer, whether in an obligatory or voluntary prayer, nor is their adhan permissible.

٤٩٠ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَا تَجُوزُ إمَامَةُ مَنْ لَمْ يَبْلُغْ الْحُلُمَ، لَا فِي فَرِيضَةٍ، وَلَا نَافِلَةٍ، وَلَا أَذَانُهُ؟ .

L7597 Al-Shāfiʿī said: It is permissible for him to lead in obligatory and voluntary prayers, and his Adhan is permissible. Mālik said: It is permissible for him to lead in voluntary prayers but not in obligatory prayers. ʿAlī said: Those who permitted his leading in prayer cited as evidence the narration reported to us by ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ, who narrated from ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-Malik, who narrated from Muḥammad ibn Bakr, who narrated from Abū Dāwūd, who narrated from Mūsā ibn Ismāʿīl, who narrated from Ḥammād—that is, ibn Salamah—from Ayyūb—that is, al-Sikhtiyānī—from ʿAmr ibn Salamah al-Jarmī, who said: We were in a settlement where people passed by us on their way to the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). When they returned, they would pass by us and inform us, saying: "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said such-and-such." I was a boy with a strong memory, so I memorized much Quran from this. Later, my father went as a delegate to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) with a group of his people. He taught them the prayer and said: "Let the most proficient in Quran recitation among you lead you in prayer." I was the most proficient due to what I had memorized, so they appointed me to lead them. I wore a small cloak, and when I prostrated, it would ride up, exposing me. A woman among them said: "Cover the private parts of your reciter!" They bought me an Omani shirt, and I never rejoiced over anything after embracing Islam as much as I rejoiced over it. I led them in prayer when I was seven or eight years old.

وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ: تَجُوزُ إمَامَتُهُ فِي الْفَرِيضَةِ وَالنَّافِلَةِ، وَيَجُوزُ أَذَانُهُ؟ وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: تَجُوزُ إمَامَتُهُ فِي النَّافِلَةِ وَلَا تَجُوزُ فِي الْفَرِيضَةِ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: احْتَجَّ مَنْ أَجَازَ إمَامَتَهُ بِمَا حَدَّثَنَاهُ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا عُمَرُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَكْرٍ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا مُوسَى بْنُ إسْمَاعِيلَ ثنا حَمَّادٌ هُوَ ابْنُ سَلَمَةَ - أَنَا أَيُّوبُ هُوَ السِّخْتِيَانِيُّ - عَنْ «عَمْرِو بْنِ سَلَمَةَ الْجَرْمِيِّ قَالَ: كُنَّا بِحَاضِرٍ يَمُرُّ بِنَا النَّاسُ إذَا أَتَوْا النَّبِيَّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَكَانُوا إذَا رَجَعُوا مَرُّوا بِنَا فَأَخْبَرُونَا: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ كَذَا وَقَالَ كَذَا، وَكُنْت غُلَامًا حَافِظًا، فَحَفِظْتُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ قُرْآنًا كَثِيرًا، فَانْطَلَقَ أَبِي وَافِدًا إلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي نَفَرٍ مِنْ قَوْمِهِ فَعَلَّمَهُمْ الصَّلَاةَ، وَقَالَ: يَؤُمُّكُمْ أَقْرَؤُكُمْ فَكُنْتُ أَقْرَأَهُمْ لِمَا كُنْتُ أَحْفَظُ، فَقَدَّمُونِي فَكُنْتُ أَؤُمُّهُمْ، وَعَلَيَّ بُرْدَةٌ لِي صَغِيرَةٌ، فَكُنْتُ إذَا سَجَدْتُ تَكَشَّفَتْ عَنِّي، فَقَالَتْ امْرَأَةٌ مِنْ النِّسَاءِ: وَارُوا عَنَّا عَوْرَةَ قَارِئِكُمْ؟ فَاشْتَرَوْا لِي قَمِيصًا عُمَانِيًّا، فَمَا فَرِحْتُ بِشَيْءٍ بَعْدَ الْإِسْلَامِ مَا فَرِحْتُ بِهِ فَكُنْتُ أَؤُمُّهُمْ وَأَنَا ابْنُ سَبْعِ سِنِينَ أَوْ ثَمَانِ سِنِينَ؟»

L7598–7599 Ali said: This was the action of ʿAmr ibn Salama and a group of the Companions with him, with no opposing Companion known against them—may Allah be pleased with them. So where are the Hanafis and Malikis: those who censure others for opposing a Companion when such opposition aligns with their own adherence? Yet they are the ones who abandon it the most.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَهَذَا فِعْلُ عَمْرِو بْنِ سَلَمَةَ، وَطَائِفَةٍ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ مَعَهُ، لَا يُعْرَفُ لَهُمْ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -، مُخَالِفٌ فَأَيْنَ الْحَنَفِيُّونَ، وَالْمَالِكِيُّونَ: الْمُشَنِّعُونَ بِخِلَافِ الصَّاحِبِ إذَا وَافَقَ تَقْلِيدَهُمْ؟ وَهُمْ أَتْرَكُ النَّاسِ لَهُ.

L7600 Especially those among them who said, "Verily, that in which no disagreement is known constitutes consensus." We have found that 'Amr ibn Salama was a Companion of the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—and participated in a delegation to him alongside his father.

L7601 Ali said: As for us, we have no need for anything beyond what the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—brought forth, whether through tacit approval, explicit statement, or practical example. Had we known that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—recognized this matter and approved it, we would have adhered to it. But when no narrated precedent exists regarding it, the obligatory course when disputes arise is to refer our differences to what Allah has mandated we return to: the Quran and the Sunnah. We found that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—said: "When prayer time arrives, let one of you give the call to prayer, and let the most Quranically knowledgeable among you lead you in prayer." Thus, the caller is commanded to give the call to prayer, and the imam is commanded to lead the prayer, by the explicit wording of this report.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَأَمَّا نَحْنُ فَلَا حَاجَةَ عِنْدَنَا فِي غَيْرِ مَا جَاءَ بِهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِنْ إقْرَارٍ، أَوْ قَوْلٍ، أَوْ عَمَلٍ، وَلَوْ عَلِمْنَا أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - عَرَفَ هَذَا وَأَقَرَّهُ لَقُلْنَا بِهِ، فَأَمَّا إذَا لَمْ يَأْتِ بِذَلِكَ أَثَرٌ فَالْوَاجِبُ عِنْدَ التَّنَازُعِ أَنْ يُرَدَّ مَا اخْتَلَفْنَا فِيهِ إلَى مَا افْتَرَضَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْنَا الرَّدَّ إلَيْهِ مِنْ الْقُرْآنِ وَالسُّنَّةِ -: فَوَجَدْنَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَدْ قَالَ: «إذَا حَضَرَتْ الصَّلَاةُ فَلْيُؤَذِّنْ لَكُمْ أَحَدُكُمْ وَلْيَؤُمَّكُمْ أَقْرَؤُكُمْ» فَكَانَ الْمُؤَذِّنُ مَأْمُورًا بِالْأَذَانِ، وَالْإِمَامُ مَأْمُورًا بِالْإِمَامَةِ، بِنَصِّ هَذَا الْخَبَرِ.

L7602 We have established that the Prophet (peace be upon him) said: "The pen is lifted from the minor until he experiences a wet dream."

L7603 Thus, it is established that he is neither commanded nor obligated.

فَصَحَّ أَنَّهُ غَيْرُ مَأْمُورٍ وَلَا مُكَلَّفٍ.

L7604 If such is the case, then he is not the one commanded to perform the call to prayer (adhan) nor to lead the prayer. Since he is not commanded to do either, these two acts are only valid when performed by one who is commanded to perform them, not by someone not commanded. Whoever follows in prayer someone who is not commanded to be followed - while being aware of his condition - his prayer is invalid. If he does not know that the imam has not reached puberty and assumes him to be an adult, then the prayer of the one being followed is valid, like one who prays behind someone in a state of major impurity (junub) or a disbeliever (kāfir) without knowing about them - there is no difference between them. And success comes only from Allah. As for the distinction between a minor leading obligatory prayers and leading voluntary prayers - this is an utterly baseless assertion, for it is a claim without evidence.

فَإِذْ هُوَ كَذَلِكَ فَلَيْسَ هُوَ الْمَأْمُورُ بِالْأَذَانِ، وَلَا بِالْإِمَامَةِ، وَإِذْ لَيْسَ مَأْمُورًا بِهِمَا فَلَا يُجْزِئَانِ إلَّا مِنْ مَأْمُورٍ بِهِمَا، لَا مِمَّنْ لَمْ يُؤْمَرْ بِهِمَا، وَمَنْ ائْتَمَّ بِمَنْ لَمْ يُؤْمَرْ أَنْ يُؤْتَمَّ بِهِ - وَهُوَ عَالِمٌ بِحَالِهِ - فَصَلَاتُهُ بَاطِلٌ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَعْلَمْ بِأَنَّهُ لَمْ يَبْلُغْ، وَظَنَّهُ رَجُلًا بَالِغًا -: فَصَلَاةُ الْمُؤْتَمِّ بِهِ تَامَّةٌ، كَمَنْ صَلَّى خَلْفَ جُنُبٍ، أَوْ كَافِرٍ - لَا يَعْلَمُ بِهِمَا - وَلَا فَرْقَ وَبِاَللَّهِ التَّوْفِيقُ؟ وَأَمَّا الْفَرْقُ بَيْنَ إمَامَةِ مَنْ لَمْ يَبْلُغْ فِي الْفَرِيضَةِ وَبَيْنَ إمَامَتِهِ فِي النَّافِلَةِ -: فَكَلَامٌ لَا وَجْهَ لَهُ أَصْلًا؛ لِأَنَّهُ دَعْوَى بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ

The issue of the woman's prayer with women and men.

[مَسْأَلَةُ صَلَاةُ الْمَرْأَةِ بِالنِّسَاءِ وَالرِّجَال]

Issue 491:

٤٩١ - مَسْأَلَةٌ:

A woman leading women in prayer is permissible, but she may not lead men in prayer. This is the opinion of Abū Ḥanīfah and al-Shāfiʿī. However, Abū Ḥanīfah disliked it though he permitted it, while al-Shāfiʿī asserted: "Rather, it is the Sunnah." Did Mālik prohibit it?

وَصَلَاةُ الْمَرْأَةِ بِالنِّسَاءِ جَائِزَةٌ، وَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ تَؤُمَّ الرِّجَالَ؟ وَهُوَ قَوْلُ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، وَالشَّافِعِيِّ - إِلَّا أَنَّ أَبَا حَنِيفَةَ كَرِهَ ذَلِكَ، وَأَجَازَ ذَلِكَ -: وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ: بَلْ هِيَ السُّنَّةُ - وَمَنَعَ مَالِكٌ مِنْ ذَلِكَ؟

Ali said: As for preventing women from leading men in prayer, it is because the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—stated that a woman invalidates a man's prayer and that her position in prayer is behind the men. The imam must stand in front of the followers or, if there is no one else with the imam, to the left of the follower.

If a woman positions herself ahead of a man during prayer, it invalidates both his prayer and hers.

فَلَوْ تَقَدَّمَتِ الْمَرْأَةُ أَمَامَ الرَّجُلِ لَقَطَعَتْ صَلَاتَهُ، وَصَلَاتَهَا.

Similarly, if she prays beside him due to exceeding the place she was commanded to pray in, then she has prayed contrary to what she was commanded. As for her leading women in prayer: a woman does not invalidate another woman's prayer if she prays in front of her or beside her, for no Quranic verse or Sunnah prohibits this, and it is an act of goodness. Allah the Exalted has said: {And do good} [22: Al-Hajj: 77], which constitutes cooperation in righteousness and piety. Likewise, if women give the call to prayer and establish it, this is commendable for the reasons we stated.

middle of them. Ali said: We know of no valid argument whatsoever against preventing her from taking the forward position, and her ruling according to us is to stand ahead of the women. We know of no valid argument whatsoever for those who prohibited her from leading women in prayer.

L7617 Especially since it is the opinion of a group of the Companions - as we have mentioned - with no opponent known from the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them) whatsoever. They revere this when it aligns with their own desires, deeming it contrary to consensus, yet find it easy to oppose the Companions when it does not align with their desires. And success comes only from Allah, the Most High.

L7618 Issue: If the Imam breaks his ablution or mentions that he is not ritually pure and then exits the prayer.

L7619 492 – Issue:

L7620–7622 If the imam invalidates his ritual state or mentions being ritually impure and exits, appointing a deputy is commendable. If he does not appoint a deputy, one among them must step forward to complete the prayer with them—this is obligatory. If he signals to them to wait for him? Then it becomes incumbent upon them to wait until he returns to complete their prayer with them, after which he completes his own prayer. As for waiting for him, this is based on what we previously mentioned regarding the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) when he was in a state of major impurity: he exited, gestured for them to remain in place, then returned after performing ablution and led them in prayer. As for appointing deputies, this is based on our earlier mention of the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) departing for Quba, where the Muslims designated Abu Bakr to lead. When the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) arrived, Abu Bakr sensed his presence and stepped back, allowing the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) to come forward and lead the people in prayer. Since congregational prayer is obligatory for people as we established earlier, they must have an imam: either... Either by the Imam designating a deputy, by the congregation appointing one of their own, or by one of them assuming leadership. And Abu Hanifa said: If the Imam commits an invalidating act while prostrating, L7625 If he exits the mosque before appointing a successor, does the prayer of all become invalid? Ali said: These are utterly corrupt and confused opinions bearing no trace of the splendor of truth. I wish I knew—if one invalidates his ablution while prostrating, then raises his head without saying “Allah is greatest”—is he in prayer or not? Does his imamate over them remain? It must be one of two scenarios. If they say he remains in prayer with his imamate intact, they make him pray and lead without ablution—contradicting their own corrupt principle that prayer behind an imam in a state of impurity (whether the follower is forgetful or aware) is invalid. We then ask: Since he remains in prayer as their imam, what is his fault if his subsequent “Allah is greatest” invalidates his prayer and theirs? This is hostility toward Allah’s remembrance and the essence of your claim that uttering “Praise be to Allah, Lord of the worlds” with his tongue during his prayer after sneezing invalidates it, while sitting through tashahhud to accuse a chaste woman or intentionally passing wind does not! Glory be to Allah! How repugnant are these statements which it is impermissible to accept—unless uttered solely by Allah’s Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, from whom alone we take prayer, religion, and Allah’s remembrance? Nothing is lawful for us except as he commanded. If they say he is no longer in prayer nor their imam, we reply: Since his ritual impurity removed him from imamate and the ritual purity essential for prayer, what harm could his saying “Allah is greatest” possibly cause to invalidate his prayer and theirs? Similarly, what of his exit from the mosque?

In this statement, there is no small measure of absurdity. The mosque of Bayt al-Maqdis measures eight hundred cubits in length and some more, while indeed there are mosques whose width is merely three cubits or so, with a similar length. We praise Allah for sparing us from such statements repugnant to sound intellect. ʿAlī said: If one appoints as successor someone who entered at that moment—whether they had not yet uttered the takbīr, had already uttered it, joined him at the start of his prayer, or if they designated someone of this description, or if he himself stepped forward—all this is permissible. For appointing an imam to complete the obligatory prayer with them, as we stated, is due to the obligation of congregational prayer incumbent upon them. If the successor missed even one rakʿah of the prayer and was appointed during the second rakʿah, he should begin by completing that rakʿah with them. When he prostrates the two prostrations of that rakʿah, he signals them to sit and rises for his second rakʿah. Upon completing it, he sits and recites the Tashahhud, then stands—and they stand with him—to complete the remaining two rakʿahs (or one rakʿah if it is Maghrib). If it is Fajr, the procedure is exactly the same. When he completes his Tashahhud, he recites the salutation, and they recite it with him. If he missed two rakʿahs and was appointed during the sitting posture, he utters the takbīr, and they stand with him after completing their Tashahhud as swiftly as possible. He performs the two remaining rakʿahs while they remain with him. Once they sit, he rises to complete his remaining prayer, then recites the Tashahhud, recites the salutation, and they recite it with him. If this occurs during the sitting posture of Fajr, the procedure is the same. If he missed three rakʿahs and was appointed at the start of the fourth, he prays it. Upon rising from the final prostration, he stands while they sit. He then performs one rakʿah, sits and recites the Tashahhud, stands to complete his remaining prayer, then sits, recites the Tashahhud, recites the salutation, and they recite it with him. In summary, he prays only his own prayer—not as he would if he were a congregant—for he is the imam. The imam does not follow anyone in his prayer but is followed. As for them, they follow him in actions they do not intend to perform, such as an extra standing or third prostration. Each individual prays for themselves, L7628–7630 If the deputy imam is positioned at the rear of the rows, he is obligated to walk toward any direction within the first row while maintaining his orientation toward the Qiblah—even if moving sideways—until reaching the imam’s position. This is because the imam’s obligation, in the absence of necessity, is to stand ahead of the followers, who must remain behind him without exception. Thus, the deputy is required to walk to the position he has been commanded to occupy. He may not deviate from keeping his face directed toward the Qiblah’s direction. the Sacred Mosque, except in cases of unavoidable necessity when no alternative is available—and all success lies with Allah the Exalted.

Issue: It is impermissible for anyone to lead the prayer while looking at what he is reciting from in the Mus’haf.

٤٩٣ - مَسْأَلَةٌ:

L7633 It is not permissible for anyone to lead prayer while looking at what he recites from the Mushaf, neither in an obligatory prayer nor a voluntary one. If one does so knowing it is impermissible, his prayer is invalidated, and the prayer of whoever follows him is invalidated if the follower is aware of his state and knows this is impermissible. Ali said: “Whoever does not memorize the Quran, Allah the Exalted has not obligated him to recite what he does not memorize, for that is not within his capability.”

وَلَا يَحِلُّ لِأَحَدٍ أَنْ يَؤُمَّ وَهُوَ يَنْظُرُ مَا يَقْرَأُ بِهِ فِي الْمُصْحَفِ، لَا فِي فَرِيضَةٍ وَلَا نَافِلَةٍ، فَإِنْ فَعَلَ عَالِمًا بِأَنَّ ذَلِكَ لَا يَجُوزُ بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ، وَصَلَاةُ مَنْ ائْتَمَّ بِهِ عَالِمًا بِحَالِهِ، عَالِمًا بِأَنَّ ذَلِكَ لَا يَجُوزُ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: مَنْ لَا يَحْفَظُ الْقُرْآنَ فَلَمْ يُكَلِّفْهُ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى قِرَاءَةَ مَا لَا يَحْفَظُ، لِأَنَّهُ لَيْسَ ذَلِكَ فِي وُسْعِهِ.

L7634 The Most High said: “Allah does not burden a soul beyond its capacity” [Al-Baqarah: 286].[23]

قَالَ تَعَالَى: {لا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلا وُسْعَهَا} [البقرة: ٢٨٦]

L7635 If he is not legally obligated to do that, yet undertakes what he is exempt from, it is invalid. His looking into the muṣḥaf [Quranic codex] is an action for which no textual evidence exists permitting it during prayer.

فَإِذَا لَمْ يَكُنْ مُكَلَّفًا ذَلِكَ فَتَكَلَّفَهُ مَا سَقَطَ عَنْهُ: بَاطِلٌ، وَنَظَرُهُ فِي الْمُصْحَفِ عَمَلٌ لَمْ يَأْتِ بِإِبَاحَتِهِ فِي الصَّلَاةِ نَصٌّ.

L7636 And he (peace be upon him) said: “Verily, prayer entails [complete] preoccupation." Similarly, the prayer of one who prays while leaning on a staff or against a wall due to weakness preventing him from standing remains valid, because such an act was not commanded. The ruling for one in this condition is that he should pray seated, and he must not introduce into his prayer any act not commanded by the Lawgiver.

L7637 If that were a merit, the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—would have been most deserving of it. Yet he did not do so; rather, he prayed sitting when unable to stand and instructed those incapable to do so. Therefore, praying while relying on support contradicts the command of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

L7638 And he (peace be upon him) said: "Whoever does a deed not in accordance with our command, it is rejected."

L7639 And this is the view of Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyab, al-Ḥasan, and others among them.

L7640 Case: If someone forgets a prescribed prayer and finds an imam leading a different prayer in congregation.

L7641 Issue 494:

L7642–7644 Whoever forgets an obligatory prayer - regardless of which prayer it is - and finds an imam praying another prayer - regardless of which prayer it is - in congregation: it becomes necessarily incumbent upon him to join and pray the missed prayer, which suffices him. We do not mind the difference in intention between the imam and the one following in prayer. It is permissible to pray an obligatory prayer behind someone performing voluntary worship, or voluntary prayers behind someone performing an obligatory prayer, or an obligatory prayer behind someone performing another obligatory prayer. Is all of this not commendable and in accordance with the Sunnah? If a person finds a congregation praying Tarāwīḥ in Ramadan while having not yet prayed the Isha prayer, let him pray his obligatory prayer with them by intending his obligation. When the imam concludes the prayer and he has not yet completed his own prayer, he should not conclude it but rather remain standing. If the imam rises for two additional rak'ahs, he should likewise rise and follow him in them, then conclude with the same salutation as the imam. The Imam—and similarly, if he mentioned a missed prayer—may validly lead two or more congregations in dispersed mosques with one prayer that is obligatory for them. All these prayers are supererogatory for him except the first prayer he performed.

وَمَنْ نَسِيَ صَلَاةَ فَرْضٍ - أَيَّ صَلَاةٍ كَانَتْ - فَوَجَدَ إمَامًا يُصَلِّي صَلَاةً أُخْرَى - أَيَّ صَلَاةٍ كَانَتْ - فِي جَمَاعَةٍ: فَفَرْضٌ عَلَيْهِ وَلَا بُدَّ أَنْ يَدْخُلَ فَيُصَلِّي الَّتِي فَاتَتْهُ، وَتُجْزِئُهُ، وَلَا نُبَالِي بِاخْتِلَافِ نِيَّةِ الْإِمَامِ وَالْمَأْمُومِ وَجَائِزٌ صَلَاةُ الْفَرْضِ خَلْفَ الْمُتَنَفِّلِ: وَالْمُتَنَفِّلِ خَلْفَ مَنْ يُصَلِّي الْفَرْضَ، وَصَلَاةُ فَرْضٍ خَلْفَ مَنْ يُصَلِّي صَلَاةَ فَرْضٍ أُخْرَى، كُلُّ ذَلِكَ حَسَنٌ، وَسُنَّةٌ؟ وَلَوْ وَجَدَ الْمَرْءُ جَمَاعَةً تُصَلِّي التَّرَاوِيحَ فِي رَمَضَانَ، وَلَمْ يَكُنْ صَلَّى الْعِشَاءَ الْآخِرَةَ، فَلْيُصَلِّهَا مَعَهُمْ، يَنْوِي فَرْضَهُ، فَإِذَا سَلَّمَ الْإِمَامُ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ هُوَ أَتَمَّ صَلَاتَهُ فَلَا يُسَلِّمُ، بَلْ يَقُومُ، فَإِنْ قَامَ الْإِمَامُ إلَى الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ: قَامَ هُوَ أَيْضًا فَائْتَمَّ بِهِ فِيهِمَا، ثُمَّ يُسَلِّمُ

L7645 Similarly, if someone prays an obligatory prayer in congregation, it is permissible for them to lead another congregation for that same prayer—and one congregation after another. If someone misses Fajr and finds people praying Dhuhr, they should pray two rak'ahs with them intending Fajr, then conclude with salām. They then pray the remaining two rak'ahs with the intention of Dhuhr, then completed their Dhuhr. This procedure applies to every prayer according to what we have mentioned. This is the opinion of Al-Shāfiʿī and Abū Sulaymān.

وَكَذَلِكَ مَنْ صَلَّى صَلَاةَ فَرْضٍ فِي جَمَاعَةٍ فَجَائِزٌ لَهُ أَنْ يَؤُمَّ فِي تِلْكَ الصَّلَاةِ جَمَاعَةً أُخْرَى وَجَمَاعَةً بَعْدَ جَمَاعَةٍ.؟ وَمَنْ فَاتَتْهُ الصُّبْحُ فَوَجَدَ قَوْمًا يُصَلُّونَ الظُّهْرَ صَلَّى مَعَهُمْ رَكْعَتَيْنِ يَنْوِي بِهِمَا الصُّبْحَ، ثُمَّ سَلَّمَ، وَصَلَّى الْبَاقِيَتَيْنِ بِنِيَّةِ الظُّهْرِ، ثُمَّ أَتَمَّ ظُهْرَهُ، وَهَكَذَا يَعْمَلُ فِي كُلِّ صَلَاةٍ عَلَى حَسْبِ مَا ذَكَرْنَا: وَهَذَا قَوْلُ الشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ.

L7646 Abu Hanifa and Malik said: It is not permissible for the intention of the Imam and the ma'moom to differ.

L7647 Ali said: How astonishing it is that the Ḥanafīs permit ablution for prayer and the ritual bath from major impurity without any intention, or with the intention of merely cooling off.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: إِنَّ مِنْ الْعَجَبِ أَنْ يَكُونَ الْحَنِيفِيُّونَ يُجِيزُونَ الْوُضُوءَ لِلصَّلَاةِ وَالْغُسْلَ مِنْ الْجَنَابَةِ بِغَيْرِ نِيَّةٍ، أَوْ بِنِيَّةِ التَّبَرُّدِ.

L7648 Among them are those who permit fasting Ramadan with the intention to break it and abandoning the fast entirely. All of them allow fasting with a voluntary intention that suffices for one's obligatory duty, and with an intention to break the fast until the sun passes its zenith. Thus, they invalidate intentions in matters where Allah the Exalted and His Messenger—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—have mandated them, then require intentions here where neither Allah the Exalted nor His Messenger—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—have obligated them.

L7649 Among the Malikis are those who consider the Friday bath and entering the public bathhouse sufficient as substitutes for the ritual bath for major impurity (janabah), thereby omitting the intention where it is obligatory and imposing it where neither Allah the Exalted nor His Messenger—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—have made it obligatory.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَإِنَّمَا يَجِبُ الْكَلَامُ فِي وُجُوبِ اتِّفَاقِ نِيَّةِ الْإِمَامِ وَالْمَأْمُومِ، أَوْ فِي سُقُوطِ وُجُوبِهِ، فَإِذَا سَقَطَ وُجُوبُهُ صَحَّتْ الْمَسَائِلُ الَّتِي ذَكَرْنَا كُلُّهَا، لِأَنَّهَا مَبْنِيَّةٌ عَلَى هَذَا الْأَصْلِ، وَمُنْتَجَةٌ مِنْهُ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَنَقُولُ وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ: إنَّهُ لَمْ يَأْتِ قَطُّ: قُرْآنٌ، وَلَا سُنَّةٌ، وَلَا إجْمَاعٌ، وَلَا قِيَاسٌ: يُوجِبُ اتِّفَاقَ نِيَّةِ الْإِمَامِ وَالْمَأْمُومِ، وَكُلُّ شَرِيعَةٍ لَمْ يُوجِبْهَا قُرْآنٌ، وَلَا سُنَّةٌ، وَلَا إجْمَاعٌ، فَهِيَ غَيْرُ وَاجِبَةٍ، وَهَذِهِ شَرِيعَةٌ لَمْ يُوجِبْهَا شَيْءٌ مِمَّا ذَكَرْنَا، فَهِيَ بَاطِلٌ؟

L7650 Ali said: The discussion must address whether the alignment of intention between the imam and the follower is obligatory or whether this obligation is waived. If the obligation is waived, do all the issues we mentioned hold true, since they are derived from this foundational principle?

Ali said: We say, and success is from Allah, the Exalted: There has never been any Qur'an, Sunnah, consensus, or qiyas (analogical reasoning) that obligates alignment of intention between the imam and the follower. Every ruling not obligated by the Qur'an, Sunnah, or consensus is non-binding. Since this ruling is not obligated by any of these sources, is it invalid?

L7651–7652 The evidence establishes that this obligation ceases, and is it not sufficient for its cessation that there is no evidence for its obligation? 'Alī said: It is impossible that Allah the Exalted would require us to match the intention of the follower from among us with the intention of the imam, based on Allah's statement: "Allah does not burden any soul beyond its capacity" (al-Baqarah 2:286).[24]

وَلَيْسَ فِي وُسْعِنَا عِلْمُ مَا غُيِّبَ عَنَّا مِنْ نِيَّةِ الْإِمَامِ حَتَّى نُوَافِقَهَا، وَإِنَّمَا عَلَيْنَا مَا يَسَعُنَا وَنَقْدِرُ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ الْقَصْدِ بِنِيَّاتِنَا تَأْدِيَةَ مَا أُمِرْنَا بِهِ كَمَا أُمِرْنَا، وَهَذَا بُرْهَانٌ ضَرُورِيٌّ سَمْعِيٌّ وَعَقْلِيٌّ وَبُرْهَانٌ آخَرُ: وَهُوَ قَوْلُ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {لا تُكَلَّفُ إِلا نَفْسَكَ} [النساء: ٨٤] وَهَذَا نَصٌّ جَلِيٌّ كَافٍ فِي إبْطَالِ قَوْلِهِمْ فَإِنْ قَالُوا: قَدْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «إنَّمَا جُعِلَ الْإِمَامُ لِيُؤْتَمَّ بِهِ» ؟ قُلْنَا: نَعَمْ، وَقَدْ بَيَّنَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي هَذَا الْخَبَرِ نَفْسِهِ - الْمَوَاضِعَ الَّتِي يَلْزَمُ الِائْتِمَامَ بِالْإِمَامِ فِيهَا، وَهِيَ قَوْلُهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «فَإِذَا كَبَّرَ فَكَبِّرُوا، وَإِذَا رَكَعَ فَارْكَعُوا، وَإِذَا سَجَدَ فَاسْجُدُوا، وَإِذَا صَلَّى قَاعِدًا فَصَلُّوا قُعُودًا»

L7653 It is not within our capacity to know what is concealed from us regarding the Imam's intention to the extent that we might conform to it. Our obligation is limited to what we can undertake and are capable of—namely, directing our intentions to fulfill what we have been commanded, as we have been commanded. This constitutes a necessary textual and rational proof. Another proof is Allah's statement, the Exalted: "No soul is burdened except with its own responsibility" (Quran 4:84). This is a clear and sufficient textual evidence that explicitly invalidates their claim. If they argue: "Did the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—not say: 'The Imam is appointed to be followed'?" We respond: Yes, and the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—himself clarified in this very narration the specific instances where following the Imam is obligatory, as he—peace and blessings be upon him—stated: *"When he says 'Allahu Akbar,' say

'Allahu Akbar'; when he bows, bow; when he prostrates, prostrate; and if he prays seated, pray seated."*[25]

فَهَاهُنَا أَمَرَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِالِائْتِمَامِ فِيهِ، لَا فِي النِّيَّةِ الَّتِي لَا سَبِيلَ إِلَى مَعْرِفَتِهَا لِغَيْرِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى، ثُمَّ لِنَاوِيهَا وَحْدَهُ؟ وَالْعَجَبُ كُلُّ الْعَجَبِ أَنَّ الْمُحْتَجِّينَ بِهَذَا الْخَبَرِ فِيمَا لَيْسَ فِيهِ مِنْهُ أَثَرٌ - مِنْ إِيجَابِ مُوَافَقَةِ نِيَّةِ الْمَأْمُومِ لِنِيَّةِ الْإِمَامِ -: أَوَّلُ عَاصِينَ لِهَذَا الْخَبَرِ -: فَيَقُولُونَ: لَا يَقْتَدِي الْمَأْمُومُ بِالْإِمَامِ فِي قَوْلِ " سَمِعَ اللَّهُ لِمَنْ حَمِدَهُ " فَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ: هَذَا؟ قَالُوا: لَمْ يَذْكُرْ النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - ذَلِكَ؟ فَقِيلَ لَهُمْ: وَلَا نَهَى عَنْهُ، وَلَا ذَكَرَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - أَيْضًا مُوَافَقَةَ نِيَّةِ الْمَأْمُومِ لِلْإِمَامِ، لَا فِي هَذَا وَلَا فِي غَيْرِهِ.

L7654 Here, he—peace be upon him—commanded following the Imam in prayer, not concerning the intention, which none can know except Allah the Exalted, then the one who intends it alone. The utmost wonder is that those who cite this report to support what has no basis in it—the obligation of the follower's intention conforming to the Imam's intention—are the first to disobey this very report. They say: "The follower does not follow the Imam in saying 'Sami'a Allāhu li-man ḥamidah (Allah hears those who praise Him)'." When they are asked: "What about this?" They reply: "The Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—did not mention that." It is then said to them: "Nor did he prohibit it, nor did he—peace be upon him—ever mention the conformity of the follower's intention to the Imam's intention, neither in this nor in any other matter."

ثُمَّ خَالَفَهُ الْمَالِكِيُّونَ فِي أَمْرِهِ بِأَنْ نُصَلِّيَ قُعُودًا إِذَا صَلَّى قَاعِدًا، فَأَيُّ عَجَبٍ أَعْجَبُ مِنْ احْتِجَاجِهِمْ بِخَبَرٍ يُخَالِفُونَ نَصَّ مَا فِيهِ وَيُوجِبُونَ بِهِ مَا لَيْسَ فِيهِ؟ نَعُوذُ بِاَللَّهِ مِنْ مِثْلِ هَذَا؟

L7655 Then the Malikis opposed him concerning his command that we pray seated if he prays seated. What astonishment could surpass their reliance on a narration whose explicit text they contradict, imposing through it obligations absent from its text? We seek refuge in Allah from such conduct!

وَقَالَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «إِنَّمَا الْأَعْمَالُ بِالنِّيَّاتِ، وَإِنَّمَا لِكُلِّ امْرِئٍ مَا نَوَى»

L7656–7657 The Prophet (peace be upon him) said: "Verily, deeds are judged by intentions, and verily to each person is only what they intended."

فَنَصَّ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - نَصًّا جَلِيًّا عَلَى أَنَّ لِكُلِّ أَحَدٍ مَا نَوَى.

L7658 He (peace be upon him) explicitly declared with clarity that every person has what they intended.

فَصَحَّ يَقِينًا أَنَّ لِلْإِمَامِ نِيَّتَهُ، وَلِلْمَأْمُومِ نِيَّتَهُ، لَا تَعَلُّقَ لِإِحْدَاهُمَا بِالْأُخْرَى، وَمَا عَدَا هَذَا فَبَاطِلٌ بَحْتٌ لَا شَكَّ فِيهِ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى نَتَأَيَّدُ؟ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ ثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَى أَنَا هُشَيْمٌ عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ «أَنَّ

L7659 It is thus conclusively established that the Imam has his own intention and the follower has his own intention, with no connection between them. Whatever contradicts this is utterly null and void, without doubt—and in Allah the Exalted do we seek support?—It was narrated to us by Abdullah ibn Yusuf, who narrated from Ahmad ibn Fath, who narrated from Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa, who narrated from Ahmad ibn Muhammad, who narrated from Ahmad ibn Ali, who narrated from Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj, who narrated from Yahya ibn Yahya, who said: Hushaym narrated to us from Mansur, from Amr ibn

L7660 And via his chain to Muslim in his Ṣaḥīḥ: Muḥammad ibn ʿAbbād narrated to us, Sufyān—that is, Ibn ʿUyaynah—narrated to us from ʿAmr ibn Dīnār from Jābir ibn ʿAbd Allāh: "Muʿādh ibn Jabal used to pray behind the Prophet (ﷺ), then return to lead his people in prayer. One night, he prayed ʿIshā' with the Prophet (ﷺ), then came to his people and led them. He commenced reciting Sūrah al-Baqarah, so a man withdrew, uttered the salām, prayed alone, and left. They said to him, 'Have you turned hypocrite, O so-and-so?' He replied, 'No, by Allah! I will certainly go to the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ).' He said, 'O Messenger of Allah, we are people who work with water-carrying camels by day. Muʿādh prayed ʿIshā' with you, then came and began reciting Sūrah al-Baqarah.' The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) turned to Muʿādh and said, 'O Muʿādh, are you trying to cause hardship? Recite such-and-such and such-and-such.'"

وَبِهِ إِلَى مُسْلِمٍ: ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبَّادٍ ثنا سُفْيَانُ هُوَ ابْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ «أَنَّ مُعَاذَ بْنَ جَبَلٍ كَانَ يُصَلِّي مَعَ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - ثُمَّ يَأْتِي فَيَؤُمُّ قَوْمَهُ، فَصَلَّى لَيْلَةً مَعَ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - الْعِشَاءَ، ثُمَّ أَتَى قَوْمَهُ فَأَمَّهُمْ، فَافْتَتَحَ بِسُورَةِ الْبَقَرَةِ فَانْحَرَفَ رَجُلٌ فَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ صَلَّى وَحْدَهُ وَانْصَرَفَ، فَقَالُوا لَهُ: أَنَافَقْتَ يَا فُلَانُ؟ قَالَ: لَا وَاللَّهِ، وَلَآتِيَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، إِنَّا أَصْحَابُ نَوَاضِحَ نَعْمَلُ بِالنَّهَارِ، وَإِنَّ مُعَاذًا صَلَّى مَعَكَ الْعِشَاءَ ثُمَّ أَتَى فَافْتَتَحَ بِسُورَةِ الْبَقَرَةِ فَأَقْبَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - عَلَى مُعَاذٍ فَقَالَ: يَا مُعَاذُ، أَفَتَّانٌ أَنْتَ؟ اقْرَأْ بِكَذَا وَاقْرَأْ بِكَذَا» .

L7661 Is this not the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) who knew about the matter, acknowledged him in his state, and did not disapprove of it? Abdullah ibn Rabee' narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Ishaq narrated to us: Ibn al-A'rabi narrated to us: Abu Dawud narrated to us: Ubaydullah ibn Umar ibn Maysarah narrated to us: Yahya ibn Sa'eed—he is al-Qattan—from Muhammad ibn Ajlan: Ubaydullah ibn Miqsam narrated to us from Jabir ibn Abdullah: "Mu'adh ibn Jabal would pray with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), then go to his people and lead them in prayer."

L7662–7664 Ali said: We have only cited this narration because some of those not restrained by religion from lying said: "Did not..." [the statement is incomplete in the original]. Does anyone narrate this wording except 'Amr ibn Dīnār? We demonstrated to him that it was indeed narrated by 'Ubayd Allāh ibn Miqsam – unanimously recognized as trustworthy. Moreover, even if 'Amr alone narrated it, what then? No two Muslims disagree that 'Amr is the piercing star in reliability, precision, and exemplary leadership. Without doubt, he surpasses Abū Ḥanīfah and Mālik – who contradict these Sunnahs with their opinions in which they erred – for ʻAmr met the Companions and learned directly from them. The lowest of ʻAmr's ranks is that he is counted among the teachers of Mālik and Abū Ḥanīfah, such as al-Zuhrī, Nāfiʻ, Ḥammād ibn Abī Sulaymān, and others. Yet those who narrated from ʻAmr include greater figures than Mālik, Abū Ḥanīfah, and their peers like Ayyūb, Manṣūr, Shuʻbah, Ḥammād ibn Zayd, Sufyān, Ibn Jurayj, and others. How can this be, when what has been established here surpasses even the action of Muʻādh?

L7665 As narrated by Yunus ibn Abdullah from Ahmad ibn Abdullah ibn Abd al-Rahim, from Ahmad ibn Khalid, from Muhammad ibn Abd al-Salam al-Khushani, from Muhammad ibn Bashshar, from Yahya ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān, via al-Ashʿath ibn Abd al-Malik al-Ḥumrānī, from al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī, from Abu Bakrah: He prayed the Prayer during Fear with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). The Prophet (peace be upon him) led those behind him in two units, then those who arrived after the first two units had passed. Thus, the Prophet's prayer amounted to four units in total, while these latter worshippers completed two units.

Some formed rows behind him while others faced the enemy. He prayed two rak'ahs, then said the salām. Those who had prayed with him departed to relieve their companions [guarding against the enemy]. Then the others came to form rows behind him, and he prayed two rak'ahs with them before saying the salām. Thus, Allah's Messenger – peace and blessings be upon him – prayed four rak'ahs, while his companions prayed two rak'ahs each group." Did Al-Hasan issue fatwas based on this?

This Abu Musa is trustworthy; Sufyan and al-Husayn ibn Ali al-Ju‘fi narrated from him. Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us: Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us: Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us: Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah narrated to us: Affan - that is, Ibn Muslim - narrated to us: Aban - that is, Ibn Yazid al-Attar - narrated to us: Yahya ibn Abi Kathir narrated from Abu Salamah ibn Abd al-Rahman ibn Awf from Jabir, who said: “We advanced with the Messenger of Allah - peace be upon him - until we reached Dhat al-Riqa‘,” and he mentioned the hadith. He said: “Then the prayer was announced. He prayed two rak‘ahs with one group, then they withdrew, and he prayed two rak‘ahs with the other group. Jabir said: Thus, the Prophet - peace be upon him - prayed four rak‘ahs, while the people prayed two rak‘ahs.” Ali said: This is a hadith that Yahya heard from Abu Salamah, and Abu Salamah heard it from Jabir. We have transmitted it through multiple chains in this manner, contenting ourselves with this for brevity. This constitutes the final practice of the Messenger of Allah - peace be upon him - as Abu Bakrah witnessed it, his conversion to Islam having occurred during the campaign of al-Ta’if after the conquest of Mecca and the battle of Hunayn. Yet some have resorted to the stratagems employed by the disgraced fabricator who shows no fear of Allah in his speech, claiming: “Jabir’s narration does not mention that he - peace be upon him - uttered the Salam between the two rak‘ahs and the two rak‘ahs?” Ali said: Let it be said to him: “You speak falsely. We have transmitted through Qatadah’s chain from Sulayman al-Yashkuri from Jabir that he - peace be upon him - indeed pronounced the Salam between them.” They objected: “But Qutayba’s reception from Sulayman has been criticized?” We responded: You yourselves assert that a mursal narration holds the status of a musnad, yet now you cling to invalid pretexts regarding this musnad by alleging - though this allegation lacks validity - that it is mursal. This is truly remarkable, particularly as Abu Bakrah explicitly clarified... In his narration, it is established that the Prophet (peace be upon him) uttered the tasleem between the two rak'ahs and the two rak'ahs. Has anyone ever narrated that he (peace be upon him) did not utter the tasleem between the two rak'ahs and the two rak'ahs? Had it been authenticated that he (peace be upon him) omitted the tasleem between the two rak'ahs and the two rak'ahs, this would have been far more damning for the opponents.[26]

لِأَنَّهُمْ إِنَّمَا هُمْ مُقَلِّدُو أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، وَمَالِكٍ وَأَبُو حَنِيفَةَ يَرَى عَلَى مَنْ صَلَّى أَرْبَعًا وَهُوَ مُسَافِرٌ: أَنَّ صَلَاتَهُ فَاسِدَةٌ، إِلَّا أَنْ يَجْلِسَ فِي الِاثْنَتَيْنِ مِقْدَارَ التَّشَهُّدِ فَتَصِحُّ صَلَاتُهُ، وَتَكُونُ الرَّكْعَتَانِ اللَّتَانِ يَقُومُ إِلَيْهِمَا تَطَوُّعًا.

L7672 Because they are merely followers of Abū Ḥanīfa and Mālik. Abū Ḥanīfa holds the view that if someone prays four rak'ahs while traveling, his prayer is invalid unless he sits after two rak'ahs for the duration of the tashahhud, thereby validating his prayer. The two rak'ahs he stands to perform afterward are voluntary.

فَإِنْ كَانَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - لَمْ يَقْعُدْ بَيْنَ الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ مِقْدَارَ التَّشَهُّدِ فَصَلَاتُهُ عِنْدَهُمْ فَاسِدَةٌ، فَإِنْ أَقْدَمُوا عَلَى هَذَا الْقَوْلِ كَفَرُوا بِلَا مِرْيَةٍ.

L7673 If he (peace be upon him) did not sit between the two rak'ahs for the duration of the tashahhud, his prayer is invalid in their view. If they were to act upon this opinion, they would undoubtedly become disbelievers without any doubt.

وَإِنْ كَانَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - قَعَدَ بَيْنَ الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ مِقْدَارَ التَّشَهُّدِ، فَقَدْ صَارَتْ الطَّائِفَةُ الثَّانِيَةُ مُصَلِّيَةً فَرْضَهُمْ خَلْفَهُ، وَهُوَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - مُتَنَفِّلٌ، وَهَذَا قَوْلُنَا لَا قَوْلُهُمْ؟ وَأَمَّا الْمَالِكِيُّونَ فَإِنَّهُمْ يَقُولُونَ: إِنَّ الْمُسَافِرَ إِنْ صَلَّى أَرْبَعًا: فَقَدْ أَسَاءَ فِي صَلَاتِهِ وَعَلَيْهِ أَنْ يُعِيدَهَا فِي الْوَقْتِ. فَإِنْ قَالُوا: هَذَا فِي صَلَاةِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - كَفَرُوا بِلَا مِرْيَةٍ، وَإِنْ قَالُوا: بَلْ سَلَّمَ بَيْنَ الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ وَالرَّكْعَتَيْنِ: أَقَرُّوا بِأَنَّ الطَّائِفَةَ الثَّانِيَةَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - صَلَّوْا فَرْضَهُمْ خَلْفَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - وَهُوَ مُتَنَفِّلٌ وَهَذَا إِجْمَاعٌ صَحِيحٌ مِنْ جَمِيعِ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - مَعَ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِمَّنْ حَضَرَ، وَلَا يَخْفَى مِثْلُ هَذَا عَلَى مَنْ غَابَ، وَكُلُّهُمْ مُسَلِّمٌ لِأَمْرِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -؟ وَقَدْ لَجَأَ بَعْضُ

L7674 If he—peace be upon him—sat between the two rak'ahs for the duration of the tashahhud, the second group had performed their obligatory prayer behind him while he was engaged in a voluntary prayer—and this is our position, not theirs. As for the Malikis, they assert that if a traveler prays four rak'ahs, he has erred in his prayer and must repeat it during the prayer's time. If they claim this applies to the prayer of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—they have undoubtedly committed disbelief without doubt. If they say instead that he concluded the prayer after each set of two rak'ahs, they acknowledge that the second group—may Allah be pleased with them—performed their obligatory prayer behind him—peace be upon him—while he was engaged in a voluntary prayer. This constitutes a sound consensus among all the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—who were present with the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. Such a matter would not have been concealed from those absent, and all of them submitted to his command—peace be upon him. Some misguided followers of Malik resorted to claiming this was specific to the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—because in following him in voluntary prayer lies some blessing not found in following others in obligatory prayer. Ali said: "This wretched one fled from acknowledging the truth and resorted to lying against Allah the Exalted by claiming specificity for the Prophet—peace be upon him—in matters he never declared specific to himself."

الْمَفْتُونِينَ مِنْ مُقَلِّدِي مَالِكٍ إِلَى أَنْ قَالَ: هَذَا خَاصٌّ بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -، لِأَنَّ فِي الِائْتِمَامِ بِهِ مِنْ الْبَرَكَةِ فِي النَّافِلَةِ مَا لَيْسَ فِي الِائْتِمَامِ بِغَيْرِهِ فِي الْفَرِيضَةِ؟ -: قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَرَّ هَذَا الْبَائِسُ مِنْ الْإِذْعَانِ لِلْحَقِّ إلَى الْكَذِبِ عَلَى اللَّهِ تَعَالَى فِي دَعْوَاهُ الْخُصُوصَ فِيمَا لَمْ يَقُلْ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - قَطُّ: إنَّهُ خُصُوصٌ لَهُ.

L7675 Rather, it has been authentically reported from him—peace be upon him—through the chain of narration of Mālik ibn al-Ḥuwayrith that he said, "Pray as you see me pray."

بَلْ قَدْ صَحَّ عَنْهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - مِنْ طَرِيقِ مَالِكِ بْنِ الْحُوَيْرِثِ أَنَّهُ قَالَ «صَلُّوا كَمَا تَرَوْنِي أُصَلِّي» .

L7678 And never has anyone ever said that what is permissible with him—peace be upon him—in prayer is impermissible with others, except these predecessors, in support of their corrupt blind imitation.

وَمَا قَالَ قَطُّ أَحَدٌ: إنَّهُ يَجُوزُ مَعَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - فِي الصَّلَاةِ مَا لَا يَجُوزُ مَعَ غَيْرِهِ، إلَّا هَؤُلَاءِ الْمُقَدِّمُونَ، نَصْرًا لِتَقْلِيدِهِمْ الْفَاسِدِ

L7679 We seek refuge with Allah from being forsaken. Ali said: They raised objections regarding the narration of Mu'adh concerning things we will mention, though we are free from that need due to the narrations of Abu Bakrah and Jabir. Yet supporting the truth is a virtue, and suppressing falsehood is a means to Allah, the Exalted.

L7680 Some of them said: It is not permissible for the Imam's intention and the follower's intention to differ, based on what has been reported through the chain of Ibn Sakhbar al-Jurjānī from Abū Ṣāliḥ ʿAbdullāh ibn Ṣāliḥ, the scribe of al-Layth, from al-Layth, from ʿAbdullāh ibn ʿAyyāsh ibn ʿAbbās al-Qitbānī, from his father, from Abū Salama, from Abū Hurayra, from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), who said: "When the iqāmah is called, there is no prayer except the one for which the iqāmah has been called." ʿAlī said: This is a report that is not authentic, because its narrator, Abū Ṣāliḥ, is discarded.

L7681 The authentic part of this report is what was narrated by Ayyub al-Sikhtiyānī, Ibn Jurayj ibn Salamah, Warqa' ibn 'Amr, and Zakariyya ibn Ishaq—all of them from 'Amr ibn Dinar, from 'Aṭā' ibn Yasār, from Abū Hurayrah, from the Prophet (peace be upon him), he said: "When the prayer is established, there is no prayer except the obligatory one."

L7682–7683 We have indeed mentioned it with its chain of transmission at the beginning of the Book of Prayer from this compendium of ours.

L7684 Moreover, if the wording of Ṣāliḥ were authentic, it would serve as evidence against them, not in their favor, because they contradict it. This is because the Mālikīs and Ḥanafīs unanimously agree that if the iqāmah for Fajr prayer has been called, whoever has neither performed Witr nor prayed the two rakʿahs of Fajr should pray them before joining the congregational prayer. Exalted is He who enabled them to cite unreliable narrations in invalidating what is authentically established of them.

L7685 Then there is no blame upon them for differing from what they themselves cited as evidence where such differing is impermissible? Moreover, they approve of the permissibility of performing voluntary prayers behind one praying the obligatory prayer during Dhuhr and Asr, yet they are the first to contradict their own authentication of baseless content from the hadith of Abu Salih? As for us, had this report been authentic, we would have adhered to it and utilized alongside it all that has been authenticated from other narrations—including the hadiths of Muʿadh, Jabir, Abu Bakrah, and Abu Dharr—without abandoning any of them for another consideration. Some of them mentioned a report—which we have narrated through the chain of 'Amr ibn Yahya al-Mazini from Muʿadh ibn Rifaʿah from a man of Banu Salamah among the Companions of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) named Sulaym—that he came to the Prophet (peace be upon him) and said: "O Messenger of Allah, we are occupied with our work all day and return at dusk, yet Muʿadh prolongs the prayer for us?" Thereupon the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: “O Muʿadh! Do not be a source of trial! Either shorten [the prayer] for your people or pray with me.”

L7686–7688 They claimed from this that Muʾadh used to deem the prayer he performed with the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) as a voluntary prayer? ʾAlī said: This is an interpretation upon which it is unlawful to uphold speech, for six reasons. First: It is a falsehood and a claim without evidence – something one is not incapable of fabricating if unrestrained by piety or shame. Second: This report is unsound because its chain is disconnected, for Muʾādh ibn Rifāʾah neither met the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) nor encountered the one who complained to Allah’s Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) about Muʾādh. Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad al-Ṭalamankī narrated to us; Ibn Mufarrij narrated to us; Muḥammad ibn Ayyūb narrated to us; Aḥmad ibn... ʿAmr ibn ʿAbd al-Khāliq al-Bazzār narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Maʿmar narrated to us: Abū Bakr—who is ʿAbd al-Kabīr ibn ʿAbd al-Majīd al-Ḥanafī—narrated from Usāmah ibn Zayd, who said: I heard Muʿādh ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Khubayb relate: I heard Jābir ibn ʿAbd Allāh say: Muʿādh [ibn Jabal]—and he narrated the ḥadīth—in which Sulaym said to the Messenger of Allāh (peace and blessings be upon him), “I am a man who works all day, and when evening comes, I am drowsy. Muʿādh would arrive late, delaying us, so when he was detained, I prayed [without waiting].” He continued the ḥadīth, which mentions: Was Sulaym, the one involved in this incident, killed during the Battle of Uḥud? The third point is that the Messenger of Allāh (peace and blessings be upon him) said: “Once the prayer has commenced, no prayer is valid except the obligatory one.”

L7689 Allah, the Exalted, says: “And hasten to forgiveness from your Lord” [Āl ʿImrān: 133].[28]

L7690 Then Muʿadh—who was among the most learned in this nation regarding religious matters—would squander his obligatory prayer that was explicitly required of him, neglecting to perform it and instead engaging in volun-

فَادَّعَوْا مِنْ هَذَا أَنَّ مُعَاذًا كَانَ يَجْعَلُ الَّتِي يُصَلِّي مَعَ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - نَافِلَةً؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا تَأْوِيلٌ لَا يَحِلُّ الْقَوْلُ بِهِ، لِوُجُوهٍ سِتَّةٍ -: أَحَدُهَا - أَنَّهُ كَذِبٌ وَدَعْوَى بِلَا دَلِيلٍ، وَهَذَا لَا يَعْجِزُ عَنْهُ مَنْ لَا يَحْجُزُهُ عَنْهُ تَقْوَى أَوْ حَيَاءٌ؟ وَالثَّانِي - أَنَّ هَذَا خَبَرٌ لَا يَصِحُّ، لِأَنَّهُ مُنْقَطِعٌ، لِأَنَّ مُعَاذَ بْنَ رِفَاعَةَ لَمْ يُدْرِكْ النَّبِيَّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَلَا أَدْرَكَ هَذَا الَّذِي شَكَا إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِمُعَاذٍ؟ -: حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ الطَّلَمَنْكِيُّ ثنا ابْنُ مُفَرِّجٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ أَيُّوبَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَمْرِو بْنِ عَبْدِ الْخَالِقِ الْبَزَّارُ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مَعْمَرٍ ثنا أَبُو بَكْرٍ هُوَ عَبْدُ الْكَبِيرِ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَجِيدِ الْحَنَفِيُّ - عَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ: سَمِعْت مُعَاذَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ خُبَيْبٍ قَالَ سَمِعْت جَابِرَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ كَانَ مُعَاذٌ - فَذَكَرَ الْحَدِيثَ - وَفِيهِ: «أَنَّ سُلَيْمًا قَالَ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إنِّي رَجُلٌ أَعْمَلُ نَهَارِي حَتَّى إذَا أَمْسَيْتُ أَمْسَيْتُ نَاعِسًا، فَيَأْتِينَا مُعَاذٌ وَقَدْ أَبْطَأَ عَلَيْنَا، فَلَمَّا احْتَبَسَ صَلَّيْتُ» وَذَكَرَ الْحَدِيثَ - وَفِيهِ: أَنَّ سُلَيْمًا صَاحِبَ هَذِهِ الْقِصَّةِ قُتِلَ يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ؟ وَالثَّالِثُ - أَنْ يَكُونَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَقُولُ: «إذَا أُقِيمَتْ الصَّلَاةُ فَلَا صَلَاةَ إلَّا الْمَكْتُوبَةَ» .

وَيَقُولُ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {وَسَارِعُوا إِلَى مَغْفِرَةٍ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ} [آل عمران: ١٣٣]

tary prayers, even after the obligatory prayer had commenced, to the extent that he missed it entirely—especially while being in the presence of Allah's Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him!

L7691 If only I knew: To whom would Mu'adh delay his obligatory prayer until he could pray it with him, choosing to pray with him instead of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—in adherence to the opinions of Abu Hanifa and Malik? Is this not clear misguidance? Allah the Exalted has absolved Mu'adh of such a notion in the judgment of every possessor of sound reason.

فَلَيْتَ شِعْرِي، إِلَى مَنْ كَانَ يُؤَخِّرُ مُعَاذٌ صَلَاةَ فَرْضِهِ حَتَّى يُصَلِّيَهَا مَعَهُ رَاغِبًا عَنْ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَهَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - اتِّبَاعًا لِرَأْيِ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ وَمَالِكٍ؟ أَلَّا إِنَّ هَذَا هُوَ الضَّلَالُ الْمُبِينُ، قَدْ نَزَّهَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى مُعَاذًا عَنْهُ عِنْدَ كُلِّ ذِي مُسْكَةٍ عَقْلٍ؟

L7692 The fourth point is that this absurd interpretation—which they shamelessly attributed to Mu'ādh (may Allah be pleased with him)—is also invalid according to them. It entails a situation where the time for an obligatory prayer arrives, and some attendees who have not yet performed that prayer intend to perform it with the imam but intend it solely as a voluntary prayer. In any case, they ascribed to Mu'ādh what is invalid both in their view and in the view of others. This is a vile trial that obliterates reason and religion, and we seek refuge in Allah from abandonment. What comfort do they find in baselessly attributing to Mu'ādh what they themselves deem invalid?

وَالرَّابِعُ - أَنَّ هَذَا التَّأْوِيلَ السَّخِيفَ الَّذِي لَمْ يَسْتَحْيُوا مِنْ أَنْ يَنْسُبُوهُ إِلَى مُعَاذٍ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ -: لَا يَجُوزُ عِنْدَهُمْ أَيْضًا، وَهُوَ أَنْ تَحْضُرَ صَلَاةُ فَرْضٍ فَيَنْوِيَ بَعْضُ الْحَاضِرِينَ مِمَّنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ صَلَّى بَعْدُ تِلْكَ الصَّلَاةَ - أَنْ يُصَلِّيَهَا مَعَ الْإِمَامِ لَا يَنْوِي بِهَا إِلَّا التَّطَوُّعَ فَفِي كُلِّ حَالٍ قَدْ نَسَبُوا إِلَى مُعَاذٍ مَا لَا يَحِلُّ عِنْدَهُمْ وَلَا عِنْدَ غَيْرِهِمْ، وَهَذِهِ فِتْنَةُ سُوءٍ مُذْهِبَةٌ لِلْعَقْلِ وَالدِّينِ، وَنَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ الْخِذْلَانِ، فَأَيُّ رَاحَةٍ لَهُمْ فِي أَنْ يَنْسُبُوا إِلَى مُعَاذٍ مَا لَا يَحِلُّ عِنْدَهُمْ بِلَا مَعْنًى؟

L7693–7695 The fifth point is that it should be said to them: Since you permitted for Mu'adh what is not permissible in your view—that he pray a supererogatory prayer behind the Messenger of Allah (may Allah bless him and grant him peace) while Mu'adh had not yet performed that obligatory prayer, and the Prophet (peace be upon him) was performing his obligatory prayer—then what distinction exists in the divine law, or in reason, between praying a supererogatory prayer behind one performing an obligatory prayer and what you prohibited? From it is the obligatory prayer behind one praying voluntarily, and both cases involve a discrepancy between the Imam's intention and the follower's—is there no distinction? Why do they not analogize one to the other? Why do they not analogize the permissibility of performing obligatory prayer behind a voluntary prayer leader among the Imams to the permissibility of performing obligatory Hajj behind someone performing Hajj voluntarily among the Imams—standing where he stands, departing when he departs, and following him in his Hajj? If any analogy were valid, this would be among the best and soundest analogies, and they are the people of analogy as they claim. But is this the extent of their knowledge in what they have preoccupied themselves with, neglecting the Prophetic traditions? What then of their neglect in seeking the traditions and upholding them—praise be to Allah for His immense favor? Ali said: Some of them here have obscured the matter with statements resembling the words of the delirious, such as saying: The distinction between them is that some causes of voluntary acts are causes of obligatory acts, and that whoever begins a prayer without intending anything specific is included in a voluntary prayer. Ali said: This is speech that even its speaker does not comprehend, let alone the listener. The rightful place for its speaker is the maristan (asylum) and treatment for his mental condition. It should be said to him: Make this speech a proof for equating the two matters. Moreover, he has spoken falsehood and lies. Rather, whoever begins a prayer without intending anything specific is not praying and has nothing, according to the saying of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him: "Each person will have only what they intended."

وَالْخَامِسُ - أَنْ يُقَالَ لَهُمْ: إِذْ جَوَّزْتُمْ لِمُعَاذٍ مَا لَا يَجُوزُ عِنْدَكُمْ مِنْ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ نَافِلَةً خَلْفَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَمُعَاذٌ لَمْ يُصَلِّ ذَلِكَ الْفَرْضَ بَعْدُ، وَهُوَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - يُصَلِّي فَرْضَهُ -: فَأَيُّ فَرْقٍ فِي شَرِيعَةٍ، أَوْ فِي مَعْقُولٍ بَيْنَ صَلَاةِ نَافِلَةٍ خَلْفَ مُصَلٍّ فَرِيضَةً، وَبَيْنَ مَا مَنَعْتُمْ مِنْهُ مِنْ صَلَاةِ فَرْضٍ خَلْفَ الْمُصَلِّي نَافِلَةً، وَكِلَاهُمَا اخْتِلَافُ نِيَّةِ الْإِمَامِ مَعَ الْمَأْمُومِ، وَلَا فَرْقَ؟ فَهَلَّا قَاسُوا أَحَدَهُمَا عَلَى الْآخَرِ؟ وَهَلَّا قَاسُوا جَوَازَ صَلَاةِ الْفَرِيضَةِ خَلْفَ الْمُتَنَفِّلِ مِنْ الْأَئِمَّةِ عَلَى جَوَازِ حَجِّ الْفَرِيضَةِ خَلْفَ

الْحَاجّ تَطَوُّعًا مِنْ الْأَئِمَّةِ، يَقِفُ بِوُقُوفِهِ وَيَدْفَعُ بِدَفْعِهِ وَيأْتَمُّ بِهِ فِي حَجِّهِ؟ فَلَوْ كَانَ شَيْءٌ مِنْ الْقِيَاسِ حَقًّا لَكَانَ هَذَا مِنْ أَحْسَنِ الْقِيَاسِ وَأَصَحِّهِ، وَهُمْ أَهْلُ قِيَاسٍ بِزَعْمِهِمْ، وَلَكِنْ هَذَا مِقْدَارُ عِلْمِهِمْ فِيمَا شَغَلُوا بِهِ أَنْفُسَهُمْ وَتَرَكُوا السُّنَنَ؟ فَكَيْفَ بِمَا لَا يَشْتَغِلُونَ بِهِ مِنْ طَلَبِ السُّنَنِ وَالِاعْتِنَاءِ بِهَا - وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ عَلَى عَظِيمِ نِعْمَتِهِ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَمَوَّهَ بَعْضُهُمْ هُنَا بِكَلَامٍ يُشْبِهُ كَلَامَ الْمَمْرُورِينَ وَهُوَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: الْفَرْقُ بَيْنَهُمَا: أَنَّ بَعْضَ سَبَبِ التَّطَوُّعِ سَبَبُ الْفَرِيضَةِ، وَأَنَّ مَنْ ابْتَدَأَ صَلَاةً لَا يَنْوِي بِهَا شَيْئًا كَانَ دَاخِلًا فِي نَافِلَةٍ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: هَذَا كَلَامٌ لَا يَفْهَمُهُ قَائِلُهُ فَكَيْفَ سَامِعُهُ وَحَقُّ قَائِلِهِ سُكْنَى الْمَارَسْتَانِ وَمُعَانَاةُ دِمَاغِهِ وَيُقَالُ لَهُ: اجْعَلْ هَذَا الْكَلَامَ حُجَّةً فِي الْمُسَاوَاةِ بَيْنَ الْأَمْرَيْنِ؟ وَأَيْضًا: فَقَدْ قَالَ الْبَاطِلَ وَالْكَذِبَ، بَلْ مَنْ ابْتَدَأَ صَلَاةً لَا يَنْوِي بِهَا شَيْئًا فَلَيْسَ مُصَلِّيًا وَلَا شَيْءَ لَهُ، لِقَوْلِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «وَإِنَّمَا لِكُلِّ امْرِئٍ مَا نَوَى» .

L7696 Therefore, we affirm that the speech of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) is more deserving of being followed than the speech of this fraudulent one with his delirious ramblings.

فَنَحْنُ نَدِينُ بِأَنَّ كَلَامَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَحَقُّ بِالِاتِّبَاعِ مِنْ كَلَامِ هَذَا الْمُمَخْرِقِ بِالْهَذَيَانِ؟

L7697 Then, if this hadith they cited through Mu'adh ibn Rifa'ah's chain were authentic, they would have no valid grounds to rely on it, for its meaning is unequivocal. The Prophet's statement—peace be upon him—"Either you shorten the prayer for your people when leading them or confine your prayer to being with me," would mean: do not lead them in prayer unless you shorten it for them, and limit yourself to praying solely with me. Does this not convey the unequivocal meaning of the wording, leaving no room for alternative interpretations? Some have misleadingly conflated the matter with a report we narrated via Qatadah from 'Āmir al-Aḥwal from 'Amr ibn

ثُمَّ لَوْ صَحَّ هَذَا الْحَدِيثُ الَّذِي ذَكَرُوهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ مُعَاذِ بْنِ رِفَاعَةَ لَمَا كَانَ لَهُمْ فِيهِ مُتَعَلَّقٌ أَصْلًا، لِأَنَّهُ وَاضِحُ الْمَعْنَى، وَكَانَ يَكُونُ قَوْلُهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «إِمَّا أَنْ تُخَفِّفَ عَنْ قَوْمِكَ أَوْ اجْعَلْ صَلَاتَكَ مَعِي» أَيْ لَا تُصَلِّ بِهِمْ إِذَا لَمْ تُخَفِّفْ بِهِمْ، وَاقْتَصِرْ عَلَى أَنْ تَكُونَ صَلَاتُك مَعِي فَقَطْ، هَذَا مُقْتَضَى ذَلِكَ اللَّفْظِ الَّذِي لَا يَحْتَمِلُ سِوَاهُ؟ وَمَوَّهَ بَعْضُهُمْ بِخَبَرٍ رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ عَامِرٍ الْأَحْوَلِ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ خَالِدٍ

Shu'ayb from Khālid ibn Ayman al-Ma'āfirī, who said: "The residents of al-'Awālī would pray in their homes and later join the Prophet—peace be upon him—in prayer. The Prophet—peace be upon him—then forbade them from repeating the same prayer twice in one day."

بْنِ أَيْمَنَ الْمَعَافِرِيِّ قَالَ: «وَكَانَ أَهْلُ الْعَوَالِي يُصَلُّونَ فِي مَنَازِلِهِمْ وَيُصَلُّونَ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَنَهَاهُمْ النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَنْ يُعِيدُوا الصَّلَاةَ فِي يَوْمٍ مَرَّتَيْنِ.»

L7698–7699 Another report regarding what he wrote to Abū Sulaymān Dāwūd ibn Shādh ibn Dāwūd al-Miṣrī, who said: "'Abd al-Ghanī ibn Sa'īd al-Azdī al-Ḥāfiẓ narrated to us; Hishām ibn Muḥammad ibn Qurrah al-Ru'aynī narrated to us; Abū Ja'far Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad ibn Salamah al-Ṭaḥāwī said: He said: Al-Ḥusayn ibn Naṣr narrated to us; he said: I heard Yazīd ibn Hārūn saying: I am [narrating] from al-Ḥusayn the teacher, from 'Amr ibn Shu'ayb, from Sulaymān ibn Yasār, who said: 'I came to Ibn 'Umar at the paved area while they were praying. I said: "Will you not pray with them¿' He replied: "I have already prayed in my dwelling. Verily, the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—forbade that an obligatory prayer be performed twice in a single day."'"

وَخَبَرٍ آخَرَ فِيمَا كَتَبَ بِهِ إِلَى أَبُو سُلَيْمَانَ دَاوُد بْنُ شَاذِ بْنُ دَاوُد الْمِصْرِيُّ قَالَ: ثنا عَبْدُ الْغَنِيِّ بْنُ سَعِيدِ الْأَزْدِيُّ الْحَافِظُ ثنا هِشَامُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ قُرَّةَ الرُّعَيْنِيُّ ثنا أَبُو جَعْفَرٍ أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سَلَامَةَ الطَّحَاوِيُّ قَالَ: ثنا الْحُسَيْنُ بْنُ نَصْرٍ قَالَ: سَمِعْت يَزِيدَ بْنِ هَارُونَ يَقُولُ: أَنَا الْحُسَيْنُ الْمُعَلِّمُ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ «سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ يَسَارٍ قَالَ: أَتَيْتُ ابْنَ عُمَرَ عَلَى الْبَلَاطِ وَهُمْ يُصَلُّونَ، فَقُلْتُ: أَلَا تُصَلِّي مَعَهُمْ؟ قَالَ: قَدْ صَلَّيْتُ فِي رَحْلِي إنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - نَهَى أَنْ تُصَلَّى فَرِيضَةٌ فِي يَوْمٍ مَرَّتَيْنِ»

L7700 He said: "Was Mu'adh's prayer during the time when it was permissible to pray twice a day, then was that abrogated?"

قَالَ: فَكَانَتْ صَلَاةُ مُعَاذٍ إذْ كَانَ مُبَاحًا أَنْ تُصَلِّيَ الصَّلَاةَ مَرَّتَيْنِ فِي الْيَوْمِ، ثُمَّ نُسِخَ ذَلِكَ؟

L7701 Ali said: As for the ḥadīth of Ibn 'Umar, it is authentic. As for the ḥadīth of Khālid ibn Ayman, it is discarded because it is mursal. Then they have no valid proof in either of them: the first reason is that the one who narrated this has lied.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: أَمَّا حَدِيثُ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: فَصَحِيحٌ، وَأَمَّا حَدِيثُ خَالِدِ بْنِ أَيْمَنَ: فَسَاقِطٌ، لِأَنَّهُ مُرْسَلٌ. ثُمَّ لَا حُجَّةَ لَهُمْ فِي شَيْءٍ مِنْهُمَا -: أَوَّلُ ذَلِكَ: أَنَّ قَائِلَ هَذَا قَدْ كَذَبَ،

L7702 It has never been permissible to count a single prayer as fulfilling two obligatory prayers, and there is no disagreement that Allah the Exalted ordained only five prayers on the Night of Ascension as obligations, except for the disagreement concerning Witr alone. It is authentically established that the Prophet (peace be upon him) reported that He said to him: "They are five and they are fifty: _'My word is not altered with Me'_ (Qaf 50:29)."[29]

وَمَا كَانَ قَطُّ مُبَاحًا أَنْ تُصَلِّيَ صَلَاةً وَاحِدَةً عَلَى أَنَّهَا فَرْضُ مَرَّتَيْنِ، وَلَا خِلَافَ فِي أَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى لَمْ يَفْرِضْ لَيْلَةَ الْإِسْرَاءِ إلَّا خَمْسَ صَلَوَاتٍ فَقَطْ، حَاشَا مَا اخْتَلَفُوا فِيهِ مِنْ الْوِتْرِ فَقَطْ، وَصَحَّ «أَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - أَخْبَرَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ لَهُ: هُنَّ خَمْسٌ وَهُنَّ خَمْسُونَ {مَا يُبَدَّلُ الْقَوْلُ لَدَيَّ} [ق: ٢٩] »

[29] Qur'an references (L7702): Qur'an 50:29 (Qaf).

L7703 Thus, all that which this obfuscator has obscured is invalidated. Another aspect—the meaning of the ḥadīth is unified and true. It has never been permissible, nor have we ever said—and we seek refuge in Allah from this—that a prayer is performed twice in one day. Rather, we have said: The obligatory prayer is performed behind one engaged in voluntary prayer, as the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and his companions (may Allah be pleased with them) did. The voluntary prayer is performed behind one engaged in obligatory prayer, as the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) commanded, and as they likewise validate along with us.

وَتُؤَدَّى الْفَرِيضَةُ خَلْفَ مُؤَدِّي فَرِيضَةٍ أُخْرَى، كَمَا أَخْبَرَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: بِأَنَّ «الْأَعْمَالَ بِالنِّيَّاتِ وَلِكُلِّ امْرِئٍ مَا نَوَى» ، وَلَمْ يَنْهَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - عَنْ ذَلِكَ قَطُّ وَلَا أَحَدٌ مِنْ أَصْحَابِهِ، حَتَّى حَدَثَ مَا حَدَثَ

L7704 The obligatory prayer is performed behind one performing another obligatory prayer, as he (peace be upon him) informed: "Actions are judged by intentions, and every person will have what he intended." Neither he (peace be upon him) nor any of his Companions ever forbade that, until the events that occurred took place.

L7705–7707 As for those who permit a prayer to be performed twice in a day, they are the Malikis who assert: the repetition of prayer within the time, and that whoever remembers [having missed] a prayer during another [prayer] should perform the one he is currently in, then the one he remembered, then— "He prays what he prayed, but as for us, we do not? The astonishment lies in their citing Ibn ʿUmar while opposing him in this very issue. Some of them uttered words matching the ugliness of their previous statements—even surpassing them—by saying: 'This action of Muʿādh occurred only due to the absence of those who memorized the Quran at that time.' ʿAlī said: 'Had the speaker of this delusion feared Allah or felt shame over falsehood, he would not have supported falsehood with what is more false than it.'"

L7708 If he had recognized the status of the Companions and their rank in knowledge, he would not have said this, for we observe the Zanjī, the Turk, the Saqlabī, the Byzantine, and the Jew embracing Islam. No week elapses without a woman among them and a man having learned Umm al-Qur'ān, Qul Huwa Allāhu Aḥad, and what they need to perform their prayers.[30]

[30] Qur'an references (L7708): Qur'an 112:1 (Al-Ikhlas).

وَلَمْ يَسْتَحِ هَذَا الْجَاهِلُ الْوَقَّاحُ أَنْ يَنْسُبَ إِلَى حَيٍّ عَظِيمٍ مِنْ أَحْيَاءِ الْأَنْصَارِ، وَحَيٍّ آخَرَ صَغِيرٍ مِنْهُمْ، وَهُمْ بَنُو سَلَمَةَ، وَبَنُو أَدَى قَدْ أَسْلَمَ مِنْهُمْ - قَبْلَ الْهِجْرَةِ بِعَامَيْنِ وَأَشْهُرٍ - ثَلَاثَةُ رِجَالٍ، وَأَسْلَمَ جُمْهُورُهُمْ قَبْلَ الْهِجْرَةِ بِدَهْرٍ -: أَنَّهُمْ بَقُوا الْمُدَّةَ الطَّوِيلَةَ الَّتِي ذَكَرْنَا بَعْدَ إِسْلَامِهِمْ لَمْ يَهْتَبِلُوا بِصَلَاتِهِمْ، وَلَا تَعَلَّمُوا سُورَةً يُصَلُّونَ بِهَا، وَهُمْ أَهْلُ الْعَرَبِيَّةِ وَالْبَصَائِرِ فِي الدِّينِ: اللَّهُمَّ الْعَنْ مَنْ لَا يَسْتَحْيِي مِنَ الْمُجَاهَرَةِ بِالْبَاطِلِ وَالْكَذِبِ الْمَفْضُوحِ؟

L7709 This ignorant and shameless one felt no restraint in attributing to a great tribe among the Ansar and another smaller tribe among them—Banu Salama and Banu Adi, from whom three men had embraced Islam two years and months before the Hijrah, while the majority of them had converted to Islam long before the Hijrah—that they remained throughout the extended period we mentioned after their conversion neglecting their prayers, nor learning a surah to pray with, despite being masters of Arabic language and possessors of religious insight. O Allah, curse those who feel no shame in openly proclaiming falsehood and blatant lies!

L7710 Let the people of ignorance know that among those who prayed in the mosque of Banī Salamah—where Muʿādh ibn Jabal led the prayers—were thirty participants of ʿAqabah and forty-three veterans of Badr, besides others.

أَفَمَا كَانَ فِي جَمِيعِ هَؤُلَاءِ الْفُضَلَاءِ أَحَدٌ يُحْسِنُ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ مَا يُصَلِّي بِهِ؟ مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ كَانَ.

L7711 Was there not among all these distinguished individuals a single person proficient in reciting from the Qur'an what suffices to lead prayer? What Allah wills, comes to pass.

وَكَانَ مِنْ جُمْلَتِهِمْ: جَابِرُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ وَوَالِدُهُ، وَكَعْبُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ، وَأَبُو الْيَسَرِ وَالْحُبَابُ بْنُ الْمُنْذِرِ، وَمُعَاذٌ، وَمُعَوِّذٌ، وَخَلَّادٌ بَنُو عَمْرِو بْنِ الْجَمُوحِ، وَعُقْبَةُ بْنُ عَامِرِ بْنِ نَابِئٍ وَبِشْرُ بْنُ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ مَعْرُورٍ، وَجَبَّارُ بْنُ صَخْرٍ، وَغَيْرُهُمْ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْعِلْمِ وَالْفَضْلِ وَقَدْ رُوِّينَا مِنْ أَصَحِّ طَرِيقٍ عَنْ كَعْبِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ: «مَا هَاجَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - حَتَّى حَفِظْتُ سُورًا مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ» ؟ ثُمَّ إِنَّ هَذِهِ الْكِذْبَةَ الَّتِي قَالَهَا هَذَا الْجَاهِلُ دَعْوَى افْتَرَاهَا لَمْ يَجِدْهَا قَطُّ فِي شَيْءٍ مِنَ الرِّوَايَاتِ السَّقِيمَةِ فَكَيْفَ الصَّحِيحَةِ؟ وَمَا كَانَ هَكَذَا فَلَا وَجْهَ لِلشُّغْلِ بِهَا إِلَّا فَضِيحَةُ قَائِلِهَا فَقَطْ، ثُمَّ تَحْذِيرُ الضُّعَفَاءِ مِنْهُ، وَالتَّقَرُّبُ إِلَى اللَّهِ تَعَالَى بِذَلِكَ؟

L7712–7714 Among their number were: Jabir ibn Abdullah and his father, Ka'b ibn Malik, Abu al-Yusr, al-Hubab ibn al-Mundhir, Mu'adh, Mu'awwadh, and Khallad, the sons of Amr ibn al-Jamuh, Uqbah ibn Amir ibn Nābi', Bishr ibn al-Bara' ibn Ma'rur, Jabbar ibn Sakhr, and others among the people of knowledge and virtue. It has been narrated to us through the most authentic chain from Kaʿb ibn Mālik, who said: "Did the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—not emigrate until I had memorized surahs from the Qur'an?" As for this lie uttered by this ignorant person, it is a fabricated claim he invented—he never found it in any of the weak narrations, so how much less in the authentic ones? Since this is the case, there is no reason to engage with it except to expose its speaker's disgrace alone, then warn the vulnerable against him, and seek nearness to Allah the Exalted through these actions.

L7715 The third point is: It should be said to him—"Suppose this lie were as you claim. Would this be permissible according to you? Is it lawful in your view that if a community embraces Islam with none among them reciting any part of the Quran except one person, this single individual should pray with others and then lead them in that prayer?" If they answer: "No," then it is said to them: "What benefit do you derive from inferring a lie that provides no gain in patching the corruption of your imitation?" Then it is said to them: "Interpret it however you wish: Did not the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) teach him the ruling and endorse it? By what justification do you nullify the action and judgment of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)?"

Some of them attempted to justify the narrations of Jabir and Abu Bakra with similar disgraceful acts, arguing: "Perhaps this occurred before prayers were shortened, or during a journey where prayer shortening was not required?" We responded: "This is ignorance and another falsehood. Abu Bakra, who embraced Islam late, never witnessed fear in Medina, nor the prayer of fear, nor anything resembling it. That incident"—as Jabir stated—"occurred at Nakhlah and Dhat al-Riqa', both locations being more than three days away from Medina."

وَالثَّالِثُ: أَنْ يُقَالَ لَهُ: هَبْكَ أَنَّ هَذِهِ الْكِذْبَةَ كَمَا ذَكَرْتَ، أَيَجُوزُ ذَلِكَ عِنْدَكُمْ؟ وَهَلْ يَحِلُّ لَدَيْكُمْ أَنْ تُسْلِمَ طَائِفَةٌ فَلَا يَكُونُ فِيهِمْ مَنْ يَقْرَأُ شَيْئًا مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ إِلَّا وَاحِدٌ فَيُصَلِّي ذَلِكَ الْوَاحِدُ مَعَ غَيْرِهِمْ ثُمَّ يَؤُمُّهُمْ فِي تِلْكَ الصَّلَاةِ؟ فَمِنْ قَوْلِهِمْ: لَا، فَيُقَالُ لَهُمْ: فَأَيُّ رَاحَةٍ لَكُمْ فِي اسْتِنْبَاطِ كَذِبٍ لَا تَنْتَفِعُونَ بِهِ فِي تَرْقِيعِ فَاسِدِ تَقْلِيدِكُمْ؟ ثُمَّ يُقَالُ لَهُمْ: احْمِلُوهُ عَلَى مَا شِئْتُمْ، أَلَيْسَ قَدْ عَلَّمَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَأَقَرَّهُ؟ فَبِأَيِّ وَجْهٍ تُبْطِلُونَ فِعْلَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَحُكْمَهُ؟ وَقَدْ تَعَلَّلَ بَعْضُهُمْ فِي حَدِيثِ جَابِرٍ وَأَبِي بَكْرَةَ بِنَحْوِ هَذِهِ الْفَضَائِحِ فَقَالَ: لَعَلَّ هَذَا كَانَ قَبْلَ أَنْ تُقْصَرَ الصَّلَاةُ، أَوْ فِي سَفَرٍ لَا تُقْصَرُ الصَّلَاةُ فِي مِثْلِهِ؟ فَقُلْنَا: هَذَا جَهْلٌ وَكَذِبٌ آخَرُ، أَبُو بَكْرَةَ مُتَأَخِّرُ الْإِسْلَامِ، لَمْ يَشْهَدْ بِالْمَدِينَةِ قَطُّ خَوْفًا، وَلَا صَلَاةَ خَوْفٍ، وَلَا فِيمَا يَقْرُبُ مِنْهَا، وَإِنَّمَا كَانَ ذَلِكَ - قَالَ جَابِرٌ -: بِنَخْلٍ، وَبِذَاتِ الرِّقَاعِ، فَكِلَا الْمَوْضِعَيْنِ عَلَى أَزْيَدَ مِنْ ثَلَاثَةِ أَيَّامٍ مِنَ الْمَدِينَةِ.

L7716 It has been authentically established from Aisha—may Allah be pleased with her—that prayer was instituted in Mecca as two units at a time. When Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—migrated, the resident prayers were perfected while the travel prayers remained unchanged. Thus, every disgraceful act they contrived to invalidate the truths of the unanimously agreed-upon Sunnah became void! This was moreover the practice of the Companions after Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him. We have been narrated through Hammad ibn Salamah's chain from Dawud ibn Abi Hind, from Ammar al-Anazi: A governor appointed by Umar ibn al-Khattab in Kaskar would lead people in two units of prayer, conclude with salutation, then pray another two units and conclude again. When Umar learned of this, the governor wrote: "I saw myself traveling away from my family without being in enemy territory, so I deemed it proper to lead people in two units, conclude, then pray another two units and conclude." Umar ibn al-Khattab wrote back: "You have acted rightly."

وَقَدْ صَحَّ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا -: أَنَّ الصَّلَاةَ أُنْزِلَتْ بِمَكَّةَ: رَكْعَتَيْنِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ، فَلَمَّا هَاجَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أُتِمَّتْ صَلَاةُ الْحَضَرِ، وَأُقِرَّتْ صَلَاةُ السَّفَرِ؟ فَبَطَلَ كُلُّ عَارٍ أَتَوْا بِهِ فِي إِبْطَالِ الْحَقَائِقِ مِنَ السُّنَنِ الْمُجْتَمَعِ عَلَيْهَا؟ ثُمَّ هُوَ فِعْلُ الصَّحَابَةِ بَعْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ دَاوُد بْنِ أَبِي هِنْدٍ عَنْ عَمَّارٍ الْعَنَزِيِّ: أَنَّ عَامِلًا لِعُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ كَانَ بِكَسْكَرَ فَكَانَ يُصَلِّي بِالنَّاسِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ يُسَلِّمُ، ثُمَّ يُصَلِّي رَكْعَتَيْنِ أُخْرَيَيْنِ ثُمَّ يُسَلِّمُ؟ فَبَلَغَ ذَلِكَ عُمَرَ، فَكَتَبَ إِلَى عُمَرَ

إِنِّي رَأَيْتِنِي شَاخِصًا عَنْ أَهْلِي وَلَمْ أَرَنِي بِحَضْرَةِ عَدُوٍّ فَرَأَيْت أَنْ أُصَلِّيَ بِالنَّاسِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ أُسَلِّمَ ثُمَّ أُصَلِّي رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ أُسَلِّمَ، فَكَتَبَ إِلَيْهِ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ: أَنْ قَدْ أَحْسَنْت؟

L7717–7718 From the narration of Humaid ibn Hilal: Abdullah ibn al-Samit reported to me, saying: We were with al-Hakam ibn Amr al-Ghifari—a companion of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him—on a military expedition. He led us in the dawn prayer with a short spear positioned in front of him. When a donkey passed before the rows, he made them repeat the prayer, stating: "I had something screening me"—referring to the spear—"but I made them repeat the prayer for those who lacked a screen before them." The narrator mentioned the hadith: "How could this companion of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, lead a voluntary prayer for those performing an obligatory one?"

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ حُمَيْدِ بْنِ هِلَالٍ أَخْبَرَنِي عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ: كُنَّا مَعَ الْحَكَمِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو الْغِفَارِيِّ - هُوَ صَاحِبُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي جَيْشٍ، وَهُوَ يُصَلِّي بِنَا صَلَاةَ الصُّبْحِ، وَبَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ عَنَزَةٌ، فَمَرَّ حِمَارٌ بَيْنَ يَدَيْ الصُّفُوفِ فَأَعَادَ بِهِمْ الصَّلَاةَ، وَقَالَ: قَدْ كَانَ بَيْنَ يَدَيَّ مَا يَسْتُرُنِي - يَعْنِي الْعَنَزَةَ - وَلَكِنِّي أَعَدْت لِمَنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ مَا يَسْتُرُهُ - وَذَكَرَ الْحَدِيثَ: فَهَذَا صَاحِبُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - صَلَّى نَافِلَةً بِمَنْ يُؤَدِّي فَرِيضَةً؟ وَعَنْ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ دَاوُد بْنِ أَبِي هِنْدٍ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ الْخُرَاسَانِيِّ: أَنَّ أَبَا الدَّرْدَاءِ أَتَى مَسْجِدَ دِمَشْقَ وَهُمْ يُصَلُّونَ الْعِشَاءَ وَهُوَ يُرِيدُ الْمَغْرِبَ، فَصَلَّى مَعَهُمْ فَلَمَّا قَضَى الصَّلَاةَ قَامَ فَصَلَّى رَكْعَةً، فَجَعَلَ ثَلَاثًا لِلْمَغْرِبِ وَرَكْعَتَيْنِ تَطَوُّعًا.

From Hammad ibn Salama, from Dawud ibn Abi Hind, from Ata al-Khurasani: Abu al-Darda entered the mosque of Damascus while the people were praying Isha, though he intended to pray Maghrib. He prayed Isha with them. After finishing Isha, he stood and prayed one rak'ah. He combined it with two more rak'ahs to complete the three required for Maghrib, followed by two voluntary rak'ahs.

L7719 This narration is transmitted through Qatādah's chain, and he added to it: "Then he prayed the ʿIshā' prayer?"

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ قَتَادَةَ هَذَا الْخَبَرَ، وَزَادَ فِيهِ: ثُمَّ صَلَّى الْعِشَاءَ؟

L7720 From Ma'mar from Qatadah from Anas ibn Malik: Regarding someone who attends the Taraweeh prayers during Ramadan without having prayed Isha, when two rak'ahs remain for the congregation, he asked: "Should they be counted as part of the Isha prayer?"

وَعَنْ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ: فِيمَنْ أَتَى التَّرَاوِيحَ فِي شَهْرِ رَمَضَانَ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ صَلَّى الْعِشَاءَ وَقَدْ بَقِيَ لِلنَّاسِ رَكْعَتَانِ قَالَ: اجْعَلْهُمَا مِنْ الْعِشَاءِ؟

L7721 It is reported from 'Aṭā' that he said: "Whoever prays with a group intending Dhuhr (ritually) while they aim for Asr - he has [validity for] what he intended, and they have [validity for] what they intended." And 'Aṭā' himself would act upon this ruling.

وَعَنْ عَطَاءٍ قَالَ: مَنْ صَلَّى مَعَ قَوْمٍ هُوَ يَنْوِي الظُّهْرَ وَهُمْ يُرِيدُونَ الْعَصْرَ، قَالَ: لَهُ مَا نَوَى، وَلَهُمْ مَا نَوَوْا، وَكَانَ يَفْعَلُ ذَلِكَ.

L7722 And is there a similar ruling from Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī? And from Ṭāwūs: Whoever finds the people praying the Night Prayer (Qiyām) while he has not prayed ʿIshā’, let him pray ʿIshā’ with them and count it as his obligatory prayer.

وَعَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ مِثْلُ ذَلِكَ؟ وَعَنْ طَاوُسٍ: مِنْ وَجَدَ النَّاسَ يُصَلُّونَ الْقِيَامَ وَهُوَ لَمْ يُصَلِّ الْعِشَاءَ فَلْيُصَلِّهَا مَعَهُمْ، وَلْيَعْتَدَّهَا الْمَكْتُوبَةَ؟

L7723 Ibn Jurayj narrated it from ʿAṭā’, Ḥammād ibn Abī Sulaymān narrated it from Ibrāhīm, and ʿAbdullāh ibn Ṭāwūs narrated it from his father. And was it narrated by these trustworthy ones?

وَرَوَى ذَلِكَ ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ، وَحَمَّادِ بْنِ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، وَعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ طَاوُسٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ، وَرَوَاهُ عَنْ هَؤُلَاءِ الثِّقَاتِ؟

L7724 Ali said: We do not know of any opposition at all against those of the Companions we have mentioned—may Allah be pleased with them—and they honor this when it conforms to their taqlīd. This statement of ours is the view of Al-Awzaʿī, Al-Shāfiʿī, Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, Abū Sulaymān, and the majority of hadith scholars. And success is by Allah, the Exalted.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: مَا نَعْلَمُ لِمَنْ ذَكَرْنَا مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - مُخَالِفًا أَصْلًا، وَهُمْ يُعَظِّمُونَ هَذَا إذَا وَافَقَ تَقْلِيدَهُمْ وَقَوْلُنَا هَذَا: هُوَ قَوْلُ الْأَوْزَاعِيِّ، وَالشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَحْمَدَ بْنِ حَنْبَلٍ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَجُمْهُورِ أَصْحَابِ الْحَدِيثِ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ

L7725 Issue: Someone arrived at a mosque where the obligatory congregational prayer, led by a permanent imam, had already been performed in it, and he had not prayed it.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ أَتَى مَسْجِدًا قَدْ صُلِّيَتْ بِهِ صَلَاةُ فَرْضٍ جَمَاعَةٌ بِإِمَامٍ رَاتِبٍ وَهُوَ لَمْ يَكُنْ صَلَّاهَا]

٤٩٥ - مَسْأَلَةٌ:

L7727–7729 And whoever arrives at a mosque where an obligatory congregational prayer has already been performed with a regular imam - while he himself had not prayed it - should pray it in congregation. The adhan previously performed there suffices him, as does the iqamah. If they repeat the adhan and iqamah, it is commendable, for he is commanded to observe congregational prayer. As for the adhan... The iqamah: Does it apply to everyone who prays that prayer in that mosque—whether they witnessed both or came after them both? Is this the opinion of Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Abu Sulayman, and others? Malik said: No other congregation may pray there unless it has no designated imam.

وَمَنْ أَتَى مَسْجِدًا قَدْ صُلِّيَتْ بِهِ صَلَاةُ فَرْضٍ جَمَاعَةٌ بِإِمَامٍ رَاتِبٍ وَهُوَ لَمْ يَكُنْ صَلَّاهَا: فَلْيُصَلِّهَا فِي جَمَاعَةٍ، وَيُجْزِئُهُ الْأَذَانُ الَّذِي أُذِّنَ فِيهِ قَبْلُ، وَكَذَلِكَ الْإِقَامَةُ، وَلَوْ أَعَادُوا أَذَانًا وَإِقَامَةً: فَحَسَنٌ، لِأَنَّهُ مَأْمُورٌ بِصَلَاةِ الْجَمَاعَةِ، وَأَمَّا الْأَذَانُ وَالْإِقَامَةُ: فَإِنَّهُ لِكُلِّ مَنْ صَلَّى تِلْكَ الصَّلَاةَ فِي ذَلِكَ الْمَسْجِدِ مِمَّنْ شَهِدَهُمَا أَوْ مِمَّنْ جَاءَ بَعْدَهُمَا؟ وَهُوَ قَوْلُ أَحْمَدَ بْنِ حَنْبَلٍ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَغَيْرِهِمَا؟ وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: لَا تُصَلَّى فِيهِ جَمَاعَةٌ أُخْرَى إلَّا أَنْ لَا يَكُونَ لَهُ إمَامٌ رَاتِبٌ.

L7730 His followers argued in support of him by citing his statement: “Is this not undeniably sufficient to prevent the people of desires from acting thus?”

وَاحْتَجَّ لَهُ مُقَلِّدُوهُ بِأَنَّهُ قَالَ هَذَا قَطْعًا لِأَنْ يَفْعَلَ ذَلِكَ أَهْلُ الْأَهْوَاءِ؟

L7731 Ali said: “Whoever among the people of desires refuses to pray behind our imams, they perform prayers in their homes and do not consider them [valid] in the mosque - whether initiated independently or in congregation - with an imam not from among them."

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَمَنْ كَانَ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْأَهْوَاءِ لَا يَرَى الصَّلَاةَ خَلْفَ أَئِمَّتِنَا فَإِنَّهُمْ يُصَلُّونَهَا فِي مَنَازِلِهِمْ، وَلَا يَعْتَدُّونَ بِهَا فِي الْمَسْجِدِ مُبْتَدَأَةً أَوْ غَيْرَ مُبْتَدَأَةٍ مَعَ إِمَامٍ مِنْ غَيْرِهِمْ.

L7732 This precaution has no justification; rather, they only achieved hastily preventing what Allah the Exalted obligated—the performance of prayer in congregation—out of fear of a matter scarcely existing among those who care little for their own precautions. Indeed, Yunus ibn ʻAbdullah the judge informed me, saying: "When Muḥammad ibn Baqī ibn Zarb the judge entered a mosque whose regular imam had already led the prayer—while he himself had not yet prayed that prayer—he would lead those with him in congregation in a corner of the mosque." ʻAlī commented: "Intentionally going to a corner of the mosque for this purpose is another oddity."

فَهَذَا الِاحْتِيَاطُ لَا وَجْهَ لَهُ، بَلْ مَا حَصَلُوا إِلَّا عَلَى اسْتِعْجَالِ الْمَنْعِ مِمَّا أَوْجَبَهُ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى مِنْ أَدَاءِ الصَّلَاةِ فِي جَمَاعَةٍ خَوْفًا مِنْ أَمْرٍ لَا يَكَادُ يُوجَدُ مِمَّنْ لَا يُبَالِي بِاحْتِيَاطِهِمْ؟ وَلَقَدْ أَخْبَرَنِي يُونُسُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ الْقَاضِي قَالَ: كَانَ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَقِيِّ بْنِ زَرْبٍ الْقَاضِي إِذَا دَخَلَ مَسْجِدًا قَدْ جَمَعَ فِيهِ إِمَامُهُ الرَّاتِبُ - وَهُوَ لَمْ يَكُنْ صَلَّى تِلْكَ الصَّلَاةَ بَعْدُ - جَمَعَ بِمَنْ مَعَهُ فِي نَاحِيَةِ الْمَسْجِدِ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: الْقَصْدُ إِلَى نَاحِيَةِ الْمَسْجِدِ بِذَلِكَ عَجَبٌ آخَرُ

L7733 Ali said: "As for us, whoever delays attending congregational prayer without a valid excuse—but due to heedlessness, personal desire, or enmity toward the Imam—we forbid him. If he desists, otherwise we destroy his house, as the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) stated."

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَأَمَّا نَحْنُ فَإِنَّ مَنْ تَأَخَّرَ عَنْ صَلَاةِ الْجَمَاعَةِ لِغَيْرِ عُذْرٍ، لَكِنْ قِلَّةَ اهْتِبَالٍ، أَوْ لِهَوًى، أَوْ لِعَدَاوَةٍ مَعَ الْإِمَامِ -: فَإِنَّنَا نَنْهَاهُ، فَإِنْ انْتَهَى وَإِلَّا أَحْرَقْنَا مَنْزِلَهُ، كَمَا قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.

L7734 How astonishing that the Malikis say: "If they pray it in congregation in it, it suffices them." O Allah! O Muslims! What comfort do they find in preventing a congregational prayer that surpasses individual prayer by twenty-seven degrees? Yet according to their doctrine, it remains valid for those who prayed it. What choice could be more corrupt than this?

وَالْعَجَبُ أَنَّ الْمَالِكِيِّينَ يَقُولُونَ: فَإِنْ صَلَّوْهَا فِيهِ جَمَاعَةً أَجْزَأَتْهُمْ فَيَا لِلَّهِ وَيَا لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ أَيُّ رَاحَةٍ لَهُمْ فِي مَنْعِهِمْ مِنْ صَلَاةِ جَمَاعَةٍ تَفْضُلُ صَلَاةَ الْمُنْفَرِدِ بِسَبْعٍ وَعِشْرِينَ دَرَجَةً؟ وَهِيَ عِنْدَهُمْ جَائِزَةٌ عَمَّنْ صَلَّاهَا فَأَيُّ اخْتِيَارٍ أَفْسَدُ مِنْ هَذَا؟

L7735 It has been narrated to us from Sufyān al-Thawrī from Yūnus ibn ʻUbayd from al-Jaʻd Abu ʻUthmān who said: Anas ibn Mālik came to us at dawn when we had already prayed, so he performed the iqāmah and led his companions in prayer. It has also been narrated to us that he was with about ten of his companions, so he gave the adhān, performed the iqāmah, then led them in prayer.

L7736 It was also narrated to us through the chain of Maʿmar and Ḥammād ibn Salamah, from Abū ʿUthmān, from Anas - and Ḥammād named him - saying: "In the mosque of Banū Rifāʿah?"

وَرُوِّينَا أَيْضًا: مِنْ طَرِيقِ مَعْمَرٍ وَحَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ أَبِي عُثْمَانَ عَنْ أَنَسٍ وَسَمَّاهُ حَمَّادٌ فَقَالَ: فِي مَسْجِدِ بَنِي رِفَاعَةَ؟

L7737–7738 From Ibn Jurayj: I asked ʿAṭāʾ, “If a group enters the Mosque of Makkah at times other than the [prescribed] prayers, whether at night or during the day, can one of them lead them in prayer?” He replied, “Yes, and what is wrong with that?”

وَعَنْ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ قُلْت لِعَطَاءٍ: نَفَرٌ دَخَلُوا مَسْجِدَ مَكَّةَ خِلَافَ الصَّلَاةِ لَيْلًا أَوْ نَهَارًا، أَيَؤُمُّهُمْ أَحَدُهُمْ؟ قَالَ: نَعَمْ، وَمَا بَأْسُ ذَلِكَ؟

L7739 From Sufyan al-Thawri, from Abdullah ibn Yazid: Ibrahim led me as an imam in prayer in a mosque where prayer had already been performed. He positioned me to his right without any adhan or iqamah. From Ma’mar: I accompanied Ayyub al-Sikhtiyani from Mecca to Basra. We came to a mosque of the people of water where prayer had already been performed. Ayyub gave the adhan and iqamah, then stepped forward and led us in prayer? From Hammad ibn Salama, from Uthman al-Batti, who said: I entered a mosque with al-Hasan al-Basri and Thabit al-Bunani where its residents had already prayed. Thabit gave the adhan and iqamah, and al-Hasan stepped forward and led us in prayer. I said, “O Abu Sa’id, is there no objection to this?” He replied, “What is the harm in it?”

وَعَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ: أَمَّنِي إبْرَاهِيمُ فِي مَسْجِدٍ قَدْ صُلِّيَ فِيهِ، فَأَقَامَنِي عَنْ يَمِينِهِ بِغَيْرِ أَذَانٍ وَلَا إقَامَةٍ وَعَنْ مَعْمَرٍ صَحِبْت أَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيَّ مِنْ مَكَّةَ إلَى الْبَصْرَةِ، فَأَتَيْنَا مَسْجِدَ أَهْلِ مَاءٍ قَدْ صُلِّيَ فِيهِ، فَأَذَّنَ أَيُّوبُ وَأَقَامَ ثُمَّ تَقَدَّمَ فَصَلَّى بِنَا؟ وَعَنْ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ عُثْمَانَ الْبَتِّيِّ قَالَ: دَخَلْت مَعَ الْحَسَنِ الْبَصْرِيِّ وَثَابِتٍ الْبُنَانِيِّ مَسْجِدًا قَدْ صَلَّى فِيهِ أَهْلُهُ، فَأَذَّنَ ثَابِتٌ وَأَقَامَ، وَتَقَدَّمَ الْحَسَنُ فَصَلَّى بِنَا، فَقُلْت: يَا أَبَا سَعِيدٍ: أَمَا يُكْرَهُ هَذَا؟ قَالَ: وَمَا بَأْسُهُ

L7740 Ali said, “This is among those matters in which no differing opinion from the Companions is known to be attributed to Anas—may Allah be pleased with them.”

L7741 It has been narrated to us through the chain of Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah: Abdah ibn Sulayman narrated to us from Sa’id ibn Abi Arubah from Sulayman (who is Ibn al-Aswad al-Naji) from Abu al-Mutawakkil (who is Ali ibn Dawud al-Naji) from Abu Sa’id al-Khudri, who said: “A man arrived after the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) had prayed. He asked: ’Which of you will undertake this?’ A man stood and prayed with him.”[31]

وَرُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ أَبِي بَكْرِ بْنِ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: ثنا عَبْدَةُ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي عَرُوبَةَ عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ هُوَ ابْنُ الْأَسْوَدِ النَّاجِي عَنْ أَبِي الْمُتَوَكِّلِ هُوَ عَلِيُّ بْنُ دَاوُد النَّاجِي عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ «جَاءَ رَجُلٌ وَقَدْ صَلَّى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَقَالَ: أَيُّكُمْ يَتَّجِرُ عَلَى هَذَا، فَقَامَ رَجُلٌ فَصَلَّى مَعَهُ»

L7742 Ali said: Had they obtained something like this, they would have flown with it in every flight path.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: لَوْ ظَفِرُوا بِمِثْلِ هَذَا لَطَارُوا بِهِ كُلَّ مَطَارٍ

[31] Hadith references (L7741): Jami at-Tirmidhi 220.

L7745 If two or more people enter and find the imam during part of the prayer, they should pray with him. When the imam concludes the prayer, it is preferable for those who need to complete what they missed to do so with an imam from among themselves leading them, because they are commanded to pray in congregation. Had there not been a textual ruling instructing them to make it up individually, that would not suffice. It was narrated to us from ʿAbd al-Razzāq, from Muʿtamir ibn Sulaymān al-Taymī, from Layth, who said: "I entered the mosque with Ibn Sābiṭ accompanied by a group of people while the imam was in prostration. Some of us prostrated, while others prepared themselves for prostration. When the imam concluded the prayer, Ibn Sābiṭ led his companions in prayer. I mentioned this to ʿAṭāʾ, and he said: 'That is how it should be.' I said: 'This is not practiced among us.' He replied: 'They must separate.'"

وَإِنْ دَخَلَ اثْنَانِ فَصَاعِدًا فَوَجَدُوا الْإِمَامَ فِي بَعْضِ صَلَاتِهِ فَإِنَّهُمْ يُصَلُّونَ مَعَهُ، فَإِذَا سَلَّمَ فَالْأَفْضَلُ لِلَّذِينَ يُتِمُّونَ مَا فَاتَهُمْ أَنْ يَقْضُوهُ بِإِمَامٍ يَؤُمُّهُمْ مِنْهُمْ، لِأَنَّهُمْ مَأْمُورُونَ بِالصَّلَاةِ جَمَاعَةً، وَلَوْلَا نَصٌّ وَرَدَ بِأَنْ يَقْضُوا فُرَادَى لَمَا أَجْزَأَ ذَلِكَ -: وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ مُعْتَمِرِ بْنِ سُلَيْمَانَ التَّيْمِيِّ عَنْ لَيْثٍ قَالَ: دَخَلْت مَعَ ابْنِ سَابِطٍ فِي أُنَاسٍ الْمَسْجِدَ وَالْإِمَامُ سَاجِدٌ فَسَجَدَ بَعْضُنَا وَتَهَيَّأَ بَعْضُنَا لِلسُّجُودِ، فَلَمَّا سَلَّمَ الْإِمَامُ قَامَ ابْنُ سَابِطٍ بِأَصْحَابِهِ، فَذَكَرْت ذَلِكَ لِعَطَاءٍ؟ فَقَالَ: كَذَلِكَ يَنْبَغِي، فَقُلْت: إنَّ هَذَا لَا يُفْعَلُ عِنْدَنَا. قَالَ: يَفْرُقُونَ.

Ali said: This clarifies that the people persisted in following the actions of the subsequent tyrannical rulers. Narrated by Ma'mar from Qatadah: What about a group that enters the mosque and catches up with one rak'ah alongside the imam? He said: They should rise and complete what remains incumbent upon them, with one of them leading the prayer while standing in the same row alongside them.

[The Ruling on Mosques] [The Issue of the Prayer Niches in Mosques]

[حُكْمُ الْمَسَاجِدِ] [مَسْأَلَةٌ الْمَحَارِيبُ فِي الْمَسَاجِدِ]

Issue: The Ruling on Mosques

مَسْأَلَةٌ حُكْمُ الْمَسَاجِدِ:

The prayer niches in mosques are disliked, it is obligatory to sweep them, and it is recommended to perfume them with fragrance. It is recommended for those free from the need to earn or engage in worldly affairs to frequent the mosque. Ali said: "As for the prayer niches, they are an innovation, for indeed the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) used to stand alone, and the first row would form behind him." Abd al-Rahman al-Hamdani narrated to us: Ibrahim ibn Ahmad al-Balkhi narrated to us: al-Farbari narrated to us: al-Bukhari narrated to us: Saʿid ibn ʿUfair narrated to us: al-Layth, who is Ibn Saʿd, narrated to me: ʿUqayl narrated to me from Ibn Shihab: Anas ibn Malik reported to me: “While the Muslims were in the Fajr prayer on Monday, with Abu Bakr leading them, they were suddenly met with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) lifting the curtain of ‘Aisha’s chamber. He looked at them as they stood in rows during the prayer and smiled. Abu Bakr stepped back on his heels to join the row, thinking that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) intended to come out for the prayer. The Muslims were about to become distracted in their prayer out of joy at seeing the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). He gestured to them with his hand: ’Complete your prayer,’ then entered the chamber and lowered the curtain.”

وَتُكْرَهُ الْمَحَارِيبُ فِي الْمَسَاجِدِ، وَوَاجِبٌ كَنْسُهَا، وَيُسْتَحَبُّ أَنْ تُطَيَّبَ بِالطِّيبِ -: وَيُسْتَحَبُّ مُلَازَمَةُ الْمَسْجِدِ لِمَنْ هُوَ فِي غِنًى عَنْ الْكَسْبِ وَالتَّصَرُّفِ؟ وَقَالَ عَلِيٌّ: أَمَّا الْمَحَارِيبُ فَمُحْدَثَةٌ، وَإِنَّمَا كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَقِفُ وَحْدَهُ وَيَصُفُّ الصَّفُّ الْأَوَّلُ خَلْفَهُ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ الْهَمْدَانِيُّ ثنا إبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ الْبَلْخِيُّ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا سَعِيدُ بْنُ عُفَيْرٍ ثنا اللَّيْثُ هُوَ ابْنُ سَعْدٍ - حَدَّثَنِي عُقَيْلٌ عَنْ ابْنِ

شِهَابٍ أَخْبَرَنِي أَنَسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ «أَنَّ الْمُسْلِمِينَ بَيْنَا هُمْ فِي صَلاَةِ الْفَجْرِ مِنْ يَوْمِ الاِثْنَيْنِ وَأَبُو بَكْرٍ يُصَلِّي بِهِمْ، لَمْ يَفْجَأْهُمْ إِلَّا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَدْ كَشَفَ سَجْفَ حُجْرَةِ عَائِشَةَ فَنَظَرَ إِلَيْهِمْ وَهُمْ صُفُوفٌ فِي الصَّلاَةِ ثُمَّ تَبَسَّمَ، فَنَكَصَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ عَلَى عَقِبَيْهِ لِيَصِلَ الصَّفَّ، وَظَنَّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يُرِيدُ أَنْ يَخْرُجَ إِلَى الصَّلاَةِ، وَهَمَّ الْمُسْلِمُونَ أَنْ يَفْتَتِنُوا فِي صَلاَتِهِمْ فَرَحًا بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَأَشَارَ إِلَيْهِمْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِيَدِهِ: أَنْ أَتِمُّوا صَلاَتَكُمْ، ثُمَّ دَخَلَ الْحُجْرَةَ وَأَرْخَى السِّتْرَ» .

L7752 Ali said: “If Abu Bakr had been in a prayer niche, he would not have seen the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) when he lifted the curtain—and this was on the day of his death (peace be upon him).”

L7753–7754 It has been narrated to us from ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib that he disliked the mihrab in the mosque. From Sufyān al-Thawrī, from Manṣūr ibn al-Muʿtamir, from Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī: he disliked praying in the imam’s niche. Sufyān said: “And we too dislike it.” From al-Muʿtamir ibn Sulaymān al-Taymī, from his father, who said: “I saw al-Ḥasan come to Thābit al-Bunānī. When the prayer time arrived, Thābit said: ’Lead us, O Abā Saʿīd.’ Al-Ḥasan replied: ’Rather, you are more deserving.’ Thābit said: ’By Allah, I will never precede you,’ so al-Ḥasan led the prayer but avoided praying in the niche.” Al-Muʿtamir said: “I saw my father and Layth ibn Abī Sulaym avoiding it.” From Wakīʿ: “There will be in later times people whose lives will be shortened. They will adorn their mosques and construct altars for them like the altars of the Christians. When they do this, calamity will be sent down upon them.” This is the opinion of Muḥammad ibn Jarīr al-Ṭabarī and others. As for sweeping mosques, Allah Almighty says: “In houses which Allah has ordered to be raised and in which His name is remembered. Therein glorify Him

L7755 It is astonishing that one would permit coming to the mosque before sunset for the Maghrib prayer and after the sun passes its zenith for the Friday prayer, yet simultaneously deem it disliked to come early for other prayers before their prescribed times. It has been narrated to us by Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ on the authority of ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-Malik, from Muḥammad ibn Bakr, from Abū Dāwūd, from Muḥammad ibn al-ʿAlāʾ, from Ḥusayn ibn ʿAlī al-Juʿfī, from Zāʾidah, from Hishām ibn ʿUrwah, from his father, from ʿĀʾishah, the Mother of the Believers, who said: “The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—commanded that mosques be built in residential areas (al-dūr), purified and kept clean.” ʿAlī said: “Al-dūr refers to neighborhoods and suburbs. For example, one says: ‘The quarter of Banū ʿAbd al-Ashhal’ and ‘The quarter of Banū al-Najjār,’ meaning the residential area of each group among them.”

وَالْعَجَبُ مِمَّنْ يُجِيزُ الْمَجِيءَ إِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ قَبْلَ غُرُوبِ الشَّمْسِ لِصَلَاةِ الْمَغْرِبِ وَقَبْلَ الزَّوَالِ لِصَلَاةِ الْجُمُعَةِ - ثُمَّ يَكْرَهُ الْمَجِيءَ إِلَى سَائِرِ الصَّلَوَاتِ قَبْلَ أَوْقَاتِهَا -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا عُمَرُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَكْرٍ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْعَلَاءِ حَدَّثَنَا حُسَيْنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ هُوَ الْجُعْفِيُّ عَنْ زَائِدَةَ عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أُمِّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ قَالَتْ: «أَمَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِبِنَاءِ الْمَسَاجِدِ فِي الدُّورِ، وَأَنْ تُطَيَّبَ وَتُنَظَّفَ» قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: الدُّورُ هِيَ الْمَحَلَّاتُ، وَالْأَرْبَاضُ، تَقُولُ: دَارُ بَنِي عَبْدِ الْأَشْهَلِ، وَدَارُ بَنِي النَّجَّارِ تُرِيدُ: مَحَلَّةَ كُلِّ طَائِفَةٍ مِنْهُمْ.

L7756–7758 Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us; Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah narrated to us; Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated to us: I am Isḥāq ibn Ibrāhīm is the son of Rāhawayh—I am ʿĀʾidh ibn Ḥabīb; Ḥumayd al-Ṭawīl narrated to us from Anas, who said: “The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) saw phlegm on the qiblah wall of the mosque. He became so angry that his face reddened. A woman from the Anṣār stood up, scraped it off, and applied khalūq perfume in its place. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) then said: ’How splendid this is!’”[33]

Question: Speaking in the mosque about worldly matters that involve no sin.

[مَسْأَلَةُ التَّحَدُّثُ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ بِمَا لَا إِثْمَ فِيهِ مِنْ أُمُورِ الدُّنْيَا]

L7760 Issue 498: Conversing in the mosque about worldly matters that involve no sin is permissible, and the remembrance of Allah the Exalted is superior.

L7761 Reciting poetry in the mosque is permissible, and teaching children and others within it is permissible. Residing and spending the night there are permissible as long as it does not inconvenience the worshippers. Bringing an animal into it is permissible if necessary. Holding legal judgments and disputes within it – all such matters are permissible. Passing through it is permissible, except that whoever carries arrows in it must secure their metal tips. If they fail to do so, are they liable for retaliation for any harm caused by them?

Abdul Rahman ibn Abdullah Al-Hamdani narrated to us: Ibrahim ibn Ahmad narrated to us: Al-Farabri narrated to us: Al-Bukhari narrated to us: Zakariya ibn Yahya narrated to us: Abdullah ibn Numayr narrated to us: Hisham ibn Urwah narrated from his father, from Aisha, who said: "Sa'd ibn Mu'adh was wounded in the forearm vein during the Battle of the Trench. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) set up a tent for him in the mosque to visit him from close by. Suddenly – while there was a tent in the mosque belonging to the Banu Ghifar – blood began flowing toward them. They exclaimed: 'O people of the tent, what is this coming from your direction?' They discovered Sa'd's wound gushing blood, and he died from it."

Reported by Al-Bukhari via Musaddad narrated to us, Yahya ibn Sa'id al-Qattan narrated to us, from Ubayd Allah ibn Umar, on the authority of Nafi', on the authority of Abdullah ibn Umar: "that he (Abdullah ibn Umar) used to sleep in the mosque as a young, unmarried man."

L7764–7766 Narrated from Mālik, from Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Nawfal, from ʿUrwah, from Zaynab bint... Their voices rose until the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)—while he was in his house—heard them. He came out to them and called: “O Ka‘b, deduct from this debt of yours,” gesturing to him—indicating half. He replied: “I have done so, O Messenger of Allah.” He said: “Rise and settle it.”[34]

And he (peace be upon him) "prayed while carrying Umamah, the daughter of Abi al-As ibn al-Rabi', and her mother was Zaynab, the daughter of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)"? And with it to Al-Bukhari: Musa ibn Isma'il narrated to us, from 'Abd al-Wahid, from Abu Burdah—who is Burayd ibn 'Abdullah—that he heard Abu Burdah—who is Burayd's grandfather 'Amir ibn Abi Musa—from his father, from the Prophet (peace be upon him), who said: "Whoever walks through any of our mosques or markets carrying arrows should cover their tips with his palm, so as not to injure a Muslim."

It has been narrated to us from Ibn ʿUmar, Al-Ḥasan, and Al-Shaʿbī concerning the permissibility of passing through the mosque?

وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، وَالْحَسَنِ، وَالشَّعْبِيِّ: إبَاحَةَ التَّطَرُّقِ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ؟ .

[مَسْأَلَةٌ دُخُولُ الْمُشْرِكِينَ فِي جَمِيعِ الْمَسَاجِدِ حَاشَا حَرَمَ مَكَّةَ كُلَّهُ]

A legal issue: The permissibility of polytheists entering all other mosques, except for the Haram in Mecca in its entirety.

499 - Question:

٤٩٩ - مَسْأَلَةٌ:

The entry of polytheists into all mosques is permitted, except for the entirety of Mecca's Haram - the mosque and other areas - for it is entirely impermissible for a disbeliever to enter it.

وَدُخُولُ الْمُشْرِكِينَ فِي جَمِيعِ الْمَسَاجِدِ: جَائِزٌ، حَاشَا حَرَمَ مَكَّةَ كُلَّهُ - الْمَسْجِدَ وَغَيْرَهُ - فَلَا يَحِلُّ أَلْبَتَّةَ أَنْ يَدْخُلَهُ كَافِرٌ.

This is the opinion of Al-Shafi'i and Abu Sulayman. Abu Hanifa said: "There is no harm in a Jew or Christian entering it," but he forbade followers of other religions from entering mosques. Malik held it reprehensible for any disbeliever to enter any part of the mosques.

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ الشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ: لَا بَأْسَ أَنْ يَدْخُلَهُ الْيَهُودِيُّ، وَالنَّصْرَانِيُّ، وَمَنَعَ مِنْهُ سَائِرَ الْأَدْيَانِ وَكَرِهَ مَالِكٌ دُخُولَ أَحَدٍ مِنْ الْكُفَّارِ فِي شَيْءٍ مِنْ الْمَسَاجِدِ.

Allah, the Exalted, said: "Indeed, the polytheists are impure; so let them not approach the Sacred Mosque after this year of theirs." [Surah At-Tawbah (9:28)][36]

L7780 Ali ibn Abi Talib said: Allah specially designated the Sacred Mosque; thus, it is impermissible to extend it to other places without explicit textual evidence. The Haram precinct existed prior to the mosque's construction, and additions were later made to it.

L7781 The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "The entire earth has been made a place of worship and a means of purification for me."

L7782–7784 Is it correct that the entire Ḥaram is the Sacred Mosque? ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh narrated to us: Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad narrated to us: al-Firabrī narrated to us: al-Bukhārī narrated to us: ʿAbd Allāh ibn Yūsuf narrated to us: al-Layth narrated to us: Saʿīd ibn Abī Saʿīd reported, having heard Abū Hurayrah say: "The Messenger of Allāh sent [text incomplete]." The Prophet of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—sent horses toward Najd, which returned with a man from Banu Hanifah named Thumamah ibn Uthal. They tied him to a pillar of the mosque. The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—approached him and said, "What is your stance, O Thumamah?" He replied, "I have a proposition, O Muhammad. If you kill me, you will kill a man whose killing will lead to bloodshed. If you grant favor, you will favor a grateful man. If you seek wealth, demand whatever you wish." The narration continues. The Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—ordered his release on the third day. Thumamah went to a nearby palm tree close to the mosque, performed ghusl, then entered the mosque and proclaimed, "I testify that there is no deity but Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah. O Muhammad, by Allah, no face on earth was more detestable to me than yours, yet now your face has become the most beloved to me. By Allah, no religion was more hateful to me than yours, yet now your religion has become the most beloved to me." The narration continues. Does this not invalidate Malik's opinion?

[36] Qur'an references (L7779): Qur'an 9:28 (At-Tawbah).

قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {إِنَّمَا الْمُشْرِكُونَ نَجَسٌ فَلا يَقْرَبُوا الْمَسْجِدَ الْحَرَامَ بَعْدَ عَامِهِمْ هَذَا} [التوبة: ٢٨]

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: خَصَّ اللَّهُ الْمَسْجِدَ الْحَرَامَ، فَلَا يَجُوزُ تَعَدِّيهِ إِلَى غَيْرِهِ بِغَيْرِ نَصٍّ، وَقَدْ كَانَ الْحَرَمُ قَبْلَ بُنْيَانِ الْمَسْجِدِ وَقَدْ زِيدَ فِيهِ.

وَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «جُعِلَتْ لِي الْأَرْضُ مَسْجِدًا وَطَهُورًا» .

وَأَمَّا قَوْلُ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ فَإِنَّهُ قَالَ: إِنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى قَدْ فَرَّقَ بَيْنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ وَبَيْنَ سَائِرِ الْكُفَّارِ -: فَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {لَمْ يَكُنِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ مُنْفَكِّينَ} [البينة: ١]

L7785 As for the statement of Abū Ḥanīfa, he said: "Indeed, Allah the Exalted has differentiated between the polytheists and the rest of the disbelievers," as Allah the Exalted said: "The disbelievers from the People of the Scripture and the polytheists would not desist..." [Al-Bayyinah: 1].[37]

وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {إِنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَالَّذِينَ هَادُوا وَالصَّابِئِينَ وَالنَّصَارَى وَالْمَجُوسَ وَالَّذِينَ أَشْرَكُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَهُمْ} [الحج: ١٧]

L7786 And He, the Most High, said: "Indeed, those who believed, the Jews, the Sabians, the Christians, the Zoroastrians, and the polytheists—Allah will decisively distinguish between them" [Al-Hajj: 17].[38]

قَالَ: وَالْمُشْرِكُ: هُوَ مَنْ جَعَلَ لِلَّهِ شَرِيكًا، لَا مَنْ لَمْ يَجْعَلْ لَهُ شَرِيكًا؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: لَا حُجَّةَ لَهُ غَيْرَ مَا ذَكَرْنَا فَأَمَّا تَعَلُّقُهُ بِالْآيَتَيْنِ فَلَا حُجَّةَ لَهُ فِيهِمَا، لِأَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى قَالَ: {فِيهِمَا فَاكِهَةٌ وَنَخْلٌ وَرُمَّانٌ} [الرحمن: ٦٨] وَالرُّمَّانُ مِنْ الْفَاكِهَةِ.

L7787 He said: The polytheist is one who ascribes a partner to Allah, not one who does not ascribe a partner to Him? 'Ali said: There is no proof for him other than what we have mentioned. As for his reliance on the two verses, there is no proof for him in them, because Allah the Exalted said: "In both are fruits, date palms, and pomegranates" [Ar-Rahman: 68], and the pomegranate is among the fruits.[39]

وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {مَنْ كَانَ عَدُوًّا لِلَّهِ وَمَلَائِكَتِهِ وَرُسُلِهِ وَجِبْرِيلَ وَمِيكَالَ} [البقرة: ٩٨] وَهُمَا مِنْ الْمَلَائِكَةِ؟

L7788 And He, the Exalted, said: "Whoever is an enemy to Allah, His angels, His messengers, Gabriel, and Michael" [Al-Baqarah:98]. Are these two not among the angels?[40]

وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {وَإِذْ أَخَذْنَا مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِيثَاقَهُمْ وَمِنْكَ وَمِنْ نُوحٍ وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ وَمُوسَى وَعِيسَى} [الأحزاب: ٧] وَهَؤُلَاءِ مِنْ النَّبِيِّينَ؟ إلَّا أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَكُونُ مَا احْتَجَّ بِهِ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ حُجَّةً: إنْ لَمْ يَأْتِ بُرْهَانٌ بِأَنَّ الْيَهُودَ، وَالنَّصَارَى، وَالْمَجُوسَ، وَالصَّابِئِينَ: مُشْرِكُونَ، لِأَنَّهُ لَا يُحْمَلُ شَيْءٌ مَعْطُوفٌ عَلَى شَيْءٍ إلَّا أَنَّهُ غَيْرُهُ، حَتَّى يَأْتِيَ بُرْهَانٌ بِأَنَّهُ هُوَ أَوْ بَعْضُهُ فَنَقُولُ وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ -: إنَّ أَوَّلَ مُخَالِفٍ لِنَصِّ الْآيَتَيْنِ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ، لِأَنَّ الْمَجُوسَ عِنْدَهُ: مُشْرِكُونَ، وَقَدْ فَرَّقَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى فِي الذِّكْرِ بَيْنَ الْمَجُوسِ، وَبَيْنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ - فَبَطَلَ تَعَلُّقُهُ بِعَطْفِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى إحْدَى الطَّائِفَتَيْنِ عَلَى الْأُخْرَى؟ ثُمَّ وَجَدْنَا اللَّهَ تَعَالَى قَدْ قَالَ: {إِنَّ اللَّهَ لا يَغْفِرُ أَنْ يُشْرَكَ بِهِ وَيَغْفِرُ مَا دُونَ ذَلِكَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ} [النساء: ٤٨]

L7789–7790 And He, the Exalted, said: {And [remember] when We took from the prophets their covenant, and from you [O Muhammad], and from Noah, Abraham, Moses, and Jesus} [Al-Aḥzāb: 7]. Are these not among the prophets? However, Abū Ḥanīfah's evidence is only valid if no proof is established that the Jews, Christians, Zoroastrians, and Sabians are polytheists. This is because a conjoined element is not assumed to be the same as what it is conjoined to; rather, it is distinct unless evidence proves it is the same or part of it. Therefore, we say—and success comes only from Allah, the Exalted—the first to oppose the explicit text of these two verses is Abū Ḥanīfah. For he considers the Zoroastrians polytheists, while Allah, the Exalted, distinguishes in the Scripture between Zoroastrians and polytheists. Does this not invalidate his reliance on Allah's conjoining of one group to the other? Furthermore,

L7791 If there were here a disbelief that is not polytheism, it would be forgiven for whom Allah the Exalted wills—unlike polytheism. Would any Muslim say this? Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us from Ahmad ibn Fath from Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa from Ahmad ibn Muhammad from Ahmad ibn Ali from Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj from Ishaq ibn Rahawayh from Jarir ibn Abdul Hamid from al-A'mash from Abu Wa'il from Amr ibn Shurahbil, who said: Abdullah ibn Mas'ud reported: A man asked, "O Messenger of Allah, which sin is greatest in Allah's sight?" He replied: "That you set up a rival to Allah while He created you." The man asked: "Then which?" He said: "That you kill your child for fear they would share your food."[42]

L7792–7794 And through him to Muslim: I am ʿAmr ibn Muḥammad ibn Bukayr al-Nāqid. Ismāʿīl ibn ʿUlayyah related to us from Saʿīd... Al-Jurayri narrated to us from Abd al-Rahman ibn Abi Bakrah from his father, who said: We were in the presence of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) when he said, "Shall I not inform you of the gravest of major sins?"—repeating it three times—"[They are] associating partners with Allah, disobedience to parents, and bearing false witness or uttering falsehood."[43]

وَبِهِ إِلَى مُسْلِمٍ: حَدَّثَنِي هَارُونُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ الْأَيْلِيُّ ثنا ابْنُ وَهْبٍ أَخْبَرَنِي سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ بِلَالٍ عَنْ ثَوْرِ بْنِ زَيْدٍ عَنْ أَبِي الْغَيْثِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: «اجْتَنِبُوا السَّبْعَ الْمُوبِقَاتِ، قِيلَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، وَمَا هُنَّ؟ قَالَ: الشِّرْكُ بِاللَّهِ، وَالسِّحْرُ، وَقَتْلُ النَّفْسِ الَّتِي حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ، وَأَكْلُ مَالِ الْيَتِيمِ، وَأَكْلُ الرِّبَا وَالتَّوَلِّي يَوْمَ الزَّحْفِ، وَقَذْفُ الْمُحْصَنَاتِ الْغَافِلَاتِ الْمُؤْمِنَاتِ»

L7795 And by this chain to Muslim: Harun ibn Sa'id al-Ayli narrated to us, Ibn Wahb narrated to us, Sulayman ibn Bilal narrated to me from Thawr ibn Zayd from Abu al-Ghayth from Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: "Avoid the seven ruinous sins." They asked: "O Messenger of Allah, what are they?" He said: "Associating partners with Allah, sorcery, killing a soul Allah has forbidden except by right, consuming the property of an orphan, consuming usury, fleeing from the battlefield, and falsely accusing chaste, unaware believing women of adultery."[4445]

L7796 Ali said: If there were here a form of disbelief that is not polytheism, then that disbelief would fall outside the major sins, and disobedience to parents and bearing false witness would be more severe than it. Yet no Muslim would ever say this!

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَلَوْ كَانَ هَاهُنَا كُفْرٌ لَيْسَ شِرْكًا لَكَانَ ذَلِكَ الْكُفْرُ خَارِجًا عَنْ الْكَبَائِرِ، وَلَكَانَ عُقُوقُ الْوَالِدَيْنِ، وَشَهَادَةُ الزُّورِ، أَعْظَمُ مِنْهُ، وَهَذَا لَا يَقُولُهُ مُسْلِمٌ؟

L7797–7799 Thus, it is established that every disbelief constitutes polytheism, and every polytheism constitutes disbelief, and that these are two sharʿī terms which God Almighty has applied to a single meaning. As for his argument that a polytheist is only one who attributes partners to God, this is refuted on two counts: First, Christians attribute to God Almighty a partner who creates as He creates, yet he claims they are not polytheists - does this not constitute an evident contradiction? Second, Brahmins, those who assert the world's eternity and that it has one eternally pre-existent Creator, and those claiming prophethood for ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib, al-Mughīrah, and Buzaygh - none of them attribute partners to God Almighty. as a partner (while they, according to Abū Ḥanīfah, are polytheists)—and is this not a clear contradiction?

فَصَحَّ أَنَّ كُلَّ كُفْرٍ شِرْكٌ، وَكُلَّ شِرْكٍ كُفْرٌ، وَأَنَّهُمَا اسْمَانِ شَرْعِيَّانِ أَوْقَعَهُمَا اللَّهُ تَعَالَى عَلَى مَعْنًى وَاحِدٍ؟ ؟ وَأَمَّا حُجَّتُهُ بِأَنَّ الْمُشْرِكَ هُوَ مَنْ جَعَلَ لِلَّهِ شَرِيكًا فَقَطْ: فَهِيَ مُنْتَقِضَةٌ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ وَجْهَيْنِ -: أَحَدُهُمَا: أَنَّ النَّصَارَى يَجْعَلُونَ لِلَّهِ تَعَالَى شَرِيكًا يَخْلُقُ كَخَلْقِهِ، وَهُوَ يَقُولُ: إنَّهُمْ لَيْسُوا مُشْرِكِينَ وَهَذَا تَنَاقُضٌ ظَاهِرٌ؟ وَالثَّانِي: أَنَّ الْبَرَاهِمَةَ، وَالْقَائِلِينَ بِأَنَّ الْعَالَمَ لَمْ يَزَلْ، وَأَنَّ لَهُ خَالِقًا وَاحِدًا لَمْ يَزَلْ، وَالْقَائِلِينَ بِنُبُوَّةِ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ وَالْمُغِيرَةِ وَبُزَيْغٍ كُلُّهُمْ لَا يَجْعَلُونَ لِلَّهِ تَعَالَى شَرِيكًا وَهُمْ عِنْدَ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ مُشْرِكُونَ، وَهُوَ تَنَاقُضٌ ظَاهِرٌ؟

L7800 A third perspective is that if the polytheist were none other than one to whom the linguistic term "polytheism" applies—specifically, one who attributes only a partner to Allah the Exalted—then disbelief would necessarily be restricted to those who reject Allah the Exalted and deny Him in totality, not those who acknowledge Him without repudiation. This would entail that disbelievers could only be the atheists/naturalists [al-dahriyyah] alone, and that Jews, Christians, Magians, and Brahmins would not be disbelievers.

وَوَجْهٌ ثَالِثٌ: وَهُوَ أَنَّهُ لَمْ يَكُنْ الْمُشْرِكُ إلَّا مَا وَقَعَ عَلَيْهِ اسْمُ التَّشْرِيكِ فِي اللُّغَةِ -: وَهُوَ مَنْ جَعَلَ لِلَّهِ تَعَالَى شَرِيكًا فَقَطْ -: لَوَجَبَ أَنْ لَا يَكُونَ الْكُفْرُ إلَّا مَنْ كَفَرَ بِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى وَأَنْكَرَهُ جُمْلَةً، لَا مَنْ أَقَرَّ بِهِ وَلَمْ يَجْحَدْهُ، فَيَلْزَمُ مِنْ هَذَا أَنْ لَا يَكُونَ الْكُفَّارُ إلَّا الدَّهْرِيَّةُ فَقَطْ، وَأَنْ لَا يَكُونَ الْيَهُودُ، وَلَا النَّصَارَى، وَلَا الْمَجُوسُ، وَلَا الْبَرَاهِمَةُ.

L7801 Disbelievers: because they all affirm Allah, the Most High, and he does not assert this, nor does any Muslim exist on the face of the earth.

[44]Hadith references (L7795): Sahih Muslim 89.

[45]Qur'an references (L7795): Qur'an 6:151 (Al-An'am); Qur'an 17:33 (Al-Isra); Qur'an 25:68 (Al-Furqan).

مَنْ أَنْكَرَ شَيْئًا مِنْ دِينِ اللَّهِ الْإِسْلَامِ يَكُونُ بِإِنْكَارِهِ مُعَانِدًا لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بَعْدَ بُلُوغِ النِّذَارَةِ إِلَيْهِ، وَبِاللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

Or it must be that everyone who covers something is a disbeliever, for "disbelief" in the linguistic sense is "covering." Since all of this is invalid, it has been established that these two terms are names Allah the Exalted transferred from their linguistic meaning to designate anyone who denies any aspect of Allah's religion, which is Islam, such that their denial becomes an act of defiance toward the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) after the warning has reached them. And success is by Allah the Exalted alone.

A Question Regarding Urination in the Mosque

L7812

L7813 502 – Issue: It is impermissible to urinate in the mosque. If someone urinates in it, they must pour a bucketful of water over the affected area. It is also impermissible to spit. If someone spits in it, they must cover their spittle.

L7814 It is not permissible to build a mosque with gold or silver, except specifically the Sacred Mosque. ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ narrated from Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah, from Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb, from Qutaybah ibn Saʿīd, from Abū ʿAwānah, from Qatādah, from Anas, who said: The Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—said: "Phlegm in the mosque is a misdeed, and its expiation is to bury it."

L7815 Is it reported that such a statement is attributed to Abu Ubaydah ibn al-Jarrah and Muʿawiyah? From ʿAbd al-Rahman ibn ʿAbd Allah, from Ibrahim ibn Ahmad, from al-Farbari, from al-Bukhari, from Abu al-Yaman, from Shuʿayb, from al-Zuhri, who informed me that ʿUbayd Allah ibn ʿAbd Allah ibn ʿUtbah reported: Abu Hurayrah said, "A Bedouin stood and urinated in the mosque, so the people moved toward him. The Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—said to them: 'Leave him, and pour a bucket of water over his urine, or a large container of water. You were sent to ease, not to burden.'"

Ibn ʿAbbās remarked: "You will certainly adorn them with ornamentation, just as the Jews and Christians adorned theirs."

L7819 Abd al-Rahman ibn Abd Allah narrated to us: Ibrahim ibn Ahmad narrated to us: al-Firabrī narrated to us: al-Bukhari narrated to us: Amr ibn al-Abbas narrated to us: Abd al-Rahman—who is Ibn Mahdi—narrated to us: Sufyan al-Thawri narrated from Wasil from Abu Wa'il, who said: I sat with Shaybah—meaning Ibn Uthman ibn Abi Talhah al-Hajabi—who said: Umar sat with me in this council of yours and said, "I resolved not to leave any gold or silver in it except that I would distribute it among the Muslims." I said, "You will not do that." He asked, "Why?" I replied, "Your two predecessors in leadership did not do it." He said, "They are the two men to be followed."

L7820 It has been narrated from Abu al-Darda: "If you adorn your Qurans and embellish your mosques, then will destruction not befall you?" And from Ali ibn Abi Talib that he said: "When people decorate their mosques, their deeds become corrupted." He would pass by a plastered mosque belonging to Taym and say: "This is the place of worship of Taym." And from Umar ibn al-Khattab that he said to someone who intended to build a mosque: "Do not paint it red nor yellow."

L7821 The issue of constructing a mosque upon a privately owned house that is not part of the mosque.

[مَسْأَلَةُ بِنَاءُ مَسْجِدٍ عَلَيْهِ بَيْتٌ مُتَمَلَّكٌ لَيْسَ مِنْ الْمَسْجِدِ]

L7822 Issue 503: It is impermissible to build a mosque above an owned house that is not part of the mosque, nor to build a mosque beneath an owned house that is separate from it. Whoever does this, none of it becomes a mosque, and it remains the property of its builder as it was [before]. The evidence for this is that air cannot be owned, as it cannot be confined or fixed in place. Allah the Exalted said: "And [know] that the mosques belong to Allah" (Al-Jinn 18). Thus, a mosque cannot exist unless it is free from the ownership of anyone except Allah the Exalted, who has no partner.[46]

٥٠٣ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَا يَحِلُّ بِنَاءُ مَسْجِدٍ عَلَيْهِ بَيْتٌ مُتَمَلَّكٌ لَيْسَ مِنْ الْمَسْجِدِ، وَلَا بِنَاءُ مَسْجِدٍ تَحْتَهُ بَيْتٌ مُتَمَلَّكٌ لَيْسَ مِنْهُ، فَمَنْ فَعَلَ ذَلِكَ فَلَيْسَ شَيْءٌ مِنْ ذَلِكَ مَسْجِدًا، وَهُوَ بَاقٍ عَلَى مِلْكِ بَانِيهِ كَمَا كَانَ؟ بُرْهَانُ ذَلِكَ -: أَنَّ الْهَوَاءَ لَا يُتَمَلَّكُ، لِأَنَّهُ لَا يُضْبَطُ وَلَا يَسْتَقِرُّ؟ وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {وَأَنَّ الْمَسَاجِدَ لِلَّهِ} [الجن: ١٨] فَلَا يَكُونُ مَسْجِدًا إلَّا خَارِجًا عَنْ مِلْكِ كُلِّ أَحَدٍ دُونَ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ

L7823 Therefore, since this is the case, every house owned by a person grants him the right to elevate it as he wishes. He cannot be compelled to remove the air above his property from his ownership, and the rightful judgment pertaining to it belongs solely to him—not to any person nor anyone else.

فَإِذْ ذَلِكَ كَذَلِكَ فَكُلُّ بَيْتٍ مُتَمَلَّكٍ لِإِنْسَانٍ فَلَهُ أَنْ يُعَلِّيَهُ مَا شَاءَ، وَلَا يَقْدِرُ عَلَى إخْرَاجِ الْهَوَاءِ الَّذِي عَلَيْهِ عَنْ مِلْكِهِ، وَحُكْمُهُ الْوَاجِبُ لَهُ، لَا إلَى إنْسَانٍ وَلَا غَيْرِهِ.

L7824–7826 Similarly, if a mosque is built on land and the air/space is stipulated for his use to do therein as he wishes, then it is not... He cannot dispose of it from his ownership except by a void condition.

وَكَذَلِكَ إذَا بَنَى عَلَى الْأَرْضِ مَسْجِدًا وَشَرَطَ الْهَوَاءَ لَهُ يَعْمَلُ فِيهِ مَا شَاءَ: فَلَمْ يُخْرِجْهُ عَنْ مِلْكِهِ إلَّا بِشَرْطٍ فَاسِدٍ.

L7827 The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "Every condition that is not in the Book of Allah is void."[47] وَقَدْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «كُلُّ شَرْطٍ لَيْسَ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ فَهُوَ بَاطِلٌ» .

L7828 Moreover, if someone constructs a mosque on land while retaining the airspace for himself - if the roof belongs to him, then such a mosque has no roof, for a building cannot fundamentally exist without a roof by definition.

وَأَيْضًا: فَإِذَا عَمِلَ مَسْجِدًا عَلَى الْأَرْضِ وَأَبْقَى الْهَوَاءَ لِنَفْسِهِ: فَإِنْ كَانَ السَّقْفُ لَهُ؟ فَهَذَا مَسْجِدٌ لَا سَقْفَ لَهُ، وَلَا يَكُونُ بِنَاءٌ بِلَا سَقْفٍ أَصْلًا.

L7829 If the roof belongs to the mosque, it is not permissible for him to dispose of it by building upon it.

وَإِنْ كَانَ السَّقْفُ لِلْمَسْجِدِ؟ فَلَا يَحِلُّ لَهُ التَّصَرُّفُ عَلَيْهِ بِالْبِنَاءِ.

L7830 If the mosque is on an upper floor and its ceiling belongs to the mosque, then this is a mosque without land, and this is invalid.

L7831 If the property belongs to the mosque, he has no right to it, for he has merely kept for himself a house without a roof, and this is absurd. Additionally, if the mosque is on a lower level, it is impermissible for him to build anything atop its walls, and stipulating such a condition is invalid, as it is a condition not found in the Book of Allah.

[46] Qur'an references (L7822): Qur'an 72:18 (Al-Jinn).
[47] Hadith references (L7827): Sunan Ibn Majah 2521.

If the mosque is elevated, he has the right to demolish its walls whenever he wishes, for this entails the demolition of the mosque and its cessation. It is impermissible to prevent him from doing so, as that constitutes preventing him from disposing of his property, and such prevention is unlawful.

An Issue Regarding Selling in the Mosques

504 – Issue: Selling is permissible in mosques. Allah, the Most High, said: “And Allah has permitted selling” [Quran 2:275]. No prohibition against this has been reported except through the chain of ʿAmr ibn Shuʿayb, from his father, from his grandfather – and this narration is found in the latter’s scroll.[48]

Issue Concerning the Middle Prayer

505 - Issue: What is the middle prayer? The middle prayer is the Asr prayer. People have differed regarding that matter - it has been authentically reported from Zayd ibn Thabit and Usamah ibn Zayd that it is the Zuhr prayer.

And it has also been narrated from Abū Saʿīd al-Khudrī.

It has also been narrated from Aisha, the Mother of the Believers, Abu Hurairah, and Ibn Umar, with differences in their narrations. It has also been narrated from a number of the Prophet’s Companions, peace and blessings be upon him.

From Abu Musa Al-Ash’ari: that it [the prayer time] is Fajr.

[48] Qur’an references (L7834): Qur’an 2:275 (Al-Baqarah).

فَإِنْ كَانَ لِلْمَسْجِدِ فَلَا حَقَّ لَهُ فِيهِ، فَإِنَّمَا أَبْقَى لِنَفْسِهِ بَيْتًا بِلَا سَقْفٍ، وَهَذَا مُحَالٌ؟ ؟ وَأَيْضًا: فَإِنْ كَانَ الْمَسْجِدُ سُفْلًا؟ فَلَا يَحِلُّ لَهُ أَنْ يَبْنِيَ عَلَى رُءُوسِ حِيطَانِهِ شَيْئًا، وَاشْتِرَاطُ ذَلِكَ بَاطِلٌ؛ لِأَنَّهُ شَرْطٌ لَيْسَ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ.

وَإِنْ كَانَ الْمَسْجِدُ عُلْوًا، فَلَهُ هَدْمُ حِيطَانِهِ مَتَى شَاءَ، وَفِي ذَلِكَ هَدْمُ الْمَسْجِدِ وَانْكِفَاؤُهُ وَلَا يَحِلُّ مَنْعُهُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ؛ لِأَنَّهُ مَنْعٌ لَهُ مِنْ التَّصَرُّفِ فِي مَالِهِ، وَهَذَا لَا يَحِلُّ.

[مَسْأَلَةُ الْبَيْعُ فِي الْمَسَاجِدِ]

٥٠٤ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَالْبَيْعُ جَائِزٌ فِي الْمَسَاجِدِ قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {وَأَحَلَّ اللَّهُ الْبَيْعَ} [البقرة: ٢٧٥] وَلَمْ يَأْتِ نَهْيٌ عَنْ ذَلِكَ إلَّا مِنْ طَرِيقِ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ، وَهِيَ صَحِيفَتُهُ.

[مَسْأَلَةُ الصَّلَاةُ الْوُسْطَى]

٥٠٥ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: الصَّلَاةُ الْوُسْطَى؟ وَالصَّلَاةُ الْوُسْطَى: هِيَ الْعَصْرُ، وَاخْتَلَفَ النَّاسُ فِي ذَلِكَ -: فَصَحَّ عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ، وَأُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ: أَنَّهَا الظُّهْرُ.

وَرُوِيَ أَيْضًا عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ

وَرُوِيَ أَيْضًا عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أُمِّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ، وَأَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، وَابْنِ عُمَرَ بِاخْتِلَافٍ عَنْهُمْ؟ وَرُوِيَ أَيْضًا عَنْ جُمْلَةٍ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.

وَعَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى الْأَشْعَرِيِّ: أَنَّهَا الصُّبْحُ.

وَعَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، وَابْنِ عُمَرَ بِاخْتِلَافٍ عَنْهُمَا.

And from Ibn Abbas and Ibn Umar with a difference from them both.

وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ وَلَمْ يَصِحَّ عَنْهُ؟

And from ʿAlī—but was it not authenticated from him?

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ: طَاوُسٍ، وَعَطَاءٍ وَمُجَاهِدٍ، وَعِكْرِمَةَ، وَهُوَ قَوْلُ مَالِكٍ.

And it is the opinion of Ṭāwus, ʿAṭāʾ, Mujāhid, and ʿIkrimah, and also of Mālik.

وَعَنْ بَعْضِ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - أَنَّهَا الْمَغْرِبُ.

It is narrated from some of the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—that it is the Maghrib.

وَرُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ.

We have narrated it via the chain (ṭarīq) of Qatadah, from Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib.

وَقَدْ ذَكَرَ بَعْضُ الْعُلَمَاءِ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: هِيَ الْعَتَمَةُ؟ وَذَهَبَ الْجُمْهُورُ إِلَى أَنَّهَا الْعَصْرُ؟ وَاحْتَجَّ مَنْ ذَهَبَ إِلَى أَنَّهَا الظُّهْرُ -: بِمَا رُوِّينَاهُ عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ بِإِسْنَادٍ صَحِيحٍ قَالَ: «كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يُصَلِّي الظُّهْرَ بِالْهَاجِرَةِ، وَالنَّاسُ فِي قَائِلَتِهِمْ وَأَسْوَاقِهِمْ، وَلَمْ يَكُنْ يُصَلِّي وَرَاءَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إِلَّا الصَّفُّ وَالصَّفَّانِ، فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {حَافِظُوا عَلَى الصَّلَوَاتِ وَالصَّلاةِ الْوُسْطَى} [البقرة: ٢٣٨] فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: لَيَنْتَهِيَنَّ أَقْوَامٌ أَوْ لَأُحَرِّقَنَّ بُيُوتَهُمْ» ؟ قَالَ زَيْدُ بْنُ ثَابِتٍ: قَبْلَهَا: صَلَاتَانِ وَبَعْدَهَا: صَلَاتَانِ.

Some scholars mentioned that it is the ʻAtamah (night prayer). The majority held the view that it is the ʻAsr (afternoon prayer). Those who maintained it to be Dhuhr (noon prayer) cited as evidence what we have narrated from Zayd ibn Thabit with an authentic chain of transmission, where he said: "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) used to pray Dhuhr during the intense heat, while people were in their midday rest and in the markets. None prayed behind the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) except one or two rows. Then Allah the Exalted revealed: {Guard strictly the prayers, and the middle prayer} [Al-Baqarah 2:238]. Thereupon, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'Let people stop, or I will burn their houses!'" Zayd ibn Thabit added: "Two prayers precede it, and two follow it."[49]

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: لَيْسَ فِي هَذَا بَيَانٌ جَلِيٌّ بِأَنَّهَا الظُّهْرُ؟ وَاحْتَجَّ مَنْ ذَهَبَ إِلَى أَنَّهَا الْمَغْرِبُ بِأَنَّ أَوَّلَ الصَّلَوَاتِ فُرِضَتْ الظُّهْرُ، فَهِيَ الْأُولَى، وَبِذَلِكَ سُمِّيَتْ الْأُولَى، وَبَعْدَهَا الْعَصْرُ، صَلَاتَانِ لِلنَّهَارِ، فَالْمَغْرِبُ هِيَ الْوُسْطَى، وَبِأَنَّ بَعْضَ الْفُقَهَاءِ لَمْ يَجْعَلْ لَهَا إِلَّا وَقْتًا وَاحِدًا؟

Ali said: Is there not in this a clear indication that it refers to the Zuhr prayer? Those who held the view that it refers to Maghrib argued that the first prayer ordained was Zuhr, hence its name "the First." After it comes Asr—these two being the daytime prayers—so Maghrib is the middle prayer. They also argued that some jurists assigned it only a single time.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَلَيْسَ فِي هَذَا حُجَّةٌ لِأَنَّهُمْ أَبَدًا خَمْسٌ مِنْ أَيِّ وَجْهٍ عَدَدْتَهُمْ، فَالثَّالِثَةُ هِيَ الْوُسْطَى، وَ

Ali said: There is no valid argument in this, for they are perpetually five in number from whichever angle you count. The third is the middle prayer, and whoever assigns it a single time has erred, since the authentic text confirms it has two prayer times like all other prayers. We do not recognize any credible argument from those who claim it refers to "the late night prayer (Isha)" that we should give weight to. Those who argued it refers to the dawn prayer cited: "It is prayed during night's darkness intermingled with day's brightness." Ali said: This holds no merit, for the Maghrib prayer shares this characteristic. The mere existence of this shared quality does not indicate that either of them is the middle prayer.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا لَا حُجَّةَ فِيهِ، لِأَنَّهَا خَمْسٌ أَبَدًا بِالْعَدَدِ مِنْ حَيْثُ شِئْت، فَالثَّالِثَةُ الْوُسْطَى، وَمَنْ جَعَلَ لَهَا وَقْتًا وَاحِدًا فَقَدْ أَخْطَأَ، إذْ قَدْ صَحَّ النَّصُّ بِأَنَّ لَهَا وَقْتَيْنِ كَسَائِرِ الصَّلَوَاتِ؟ وَمَا نَعْلَمُ لِمَنْ ذَهَبَ إلَى أَنَّهَا: " الْعَتَمَةُ " حُجَّةً نَشْتَغِلُ بِهَا؟ وَاحْتَجَّ مَنْ قَالَ: إنَّهَا الصُّبْحُ بِأَنْ قَالَ: إنَّهَا تُصَلَّى فِي سَوَادٍ مِنْ اللَّيْلِ وَبَيَاضٍ مِنْ النَّهَارِ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا لَا شَيْءَ، لِأَنَّ الْمَغْرِبَ تُشَارِكُهَا فِي هَذِهِ الصِّفَةِ، وَلَيْسَ فِي كَوْنِهَا كَذَلِكَ بَيَانٌ بِأَنَّ إحْدَاهُمَا الصَّلَاةُ الْوُسْطَى.

L7849–7850 They said: It has been authentically reported from the Messenger of Allah—may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him—that he said: "Whoever prays the dawn prayer in congregation, it is as if he stood in prayer the entire night; and whoever prays the Isha prayer in congregation, it is as if he stood in prayer half the night."

وَقَالُوا: قَدْ صَحَّ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَنَّهُ قَالَ: «مَنْ صَلَّى الصُّبْحَ فِي جَمَاعَةٍ فَكَأَنَّمَا قَامَ لَيْلَةً، وَمَنْ صَلَّى الْعِشَاءَ الْآخِرَةَ فِي جَمَاعَةٍ فَكَأَنَّمَا قَامَ نِصْفَ لَيْلَةٍ»

L7851 Ali said: There is no preference in this for it over the noon prayer (Dhuhr), nor over the afternoon prayer (Asr), nor over the sunset prayer (Maghrib). Rather, it only indicates preference over the late evening prayer (Isha). This does not clarify that it is the middle prayer.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: لَيْسَ فِي هَذَا تَفْضِيلٌ لَهَا عَلَى الظُّهْرِ، وَلَا عَلَى الْعَصْرِ، وَلَا عَلَى الْمَغْرِبِ، وَإِنَّمَا فِيهِ تَفْضِيلُهَا عَلَى الْعَتَمَةِ فَقَطْ، وَلَيْسَ فِي هَذَا بَيَانٌ: أَنَّهَا الصَّلَاةُ الْوُسْطَى.

L7852 It has been authentically reported from the Prophet—may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him—: "Whoever misses the Asr Prayer, it is as though he has been robbed of his family and wealth."

وَقَدْ صَحَّ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «مَنْ فَاتَهُ صَلَاةُ الْعَصْرِ فَكَأَنَّمَا وُتِرَ أَهْلَهُ وَمَالَهُ»

L7853 They mentioned the saying of the Messenger of Allah—may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him—"Angels take turns among you by night and angels by day. They gather during the Fajr Prayer and the Asr Prayer."

وَذَكَرُوا قَوْلَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «يَتَعَاقَبُ فِيكُمْ مَلَائِكَةٌ بِاللَّيْلِ وَمَلَائِكَةٌ بِالنَّهَارِ، يَجْتَمِعُونَ فِي صَلَاةِ الصُّبْحِ وَصَلَاةِ الْعَصْرِ»

L7854 Ali said: The Asr prayer has shared with it in this, and there is no explicit indication in this that one of the two is the middle prayer.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: قَدْ شَارَكَهَا فِي هَذَا صَلَاةُ الْعَصْرِ، وَلَيْسَ فِي هَذَا بَيَانٌ بِأَنَّ إحْدَاهُمَا هِيَ الصَّلَاةُ الْوُسْطَى.

L7855 The same applies to the Prophet's statement—peace be upon him—"If you can avoid being prevented from observing the prayer before sunrise and the prayer before sunset, then do so."

وَكَذَلِكَ الْقَوْلُ فِي قَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «إِنْ اسْتَطَعْتُمْ أَنْ لَا تُغْلَبُوا عَلَى صَلَاةٍ قَبْلَ طُلُوعِ الشَّمْسِ وَصَلَاةٍ قَبْلَ غُرُوبِهَا فَافْعَلُوا» .

L7856 "Whoever prays the two prayers during the cool times—Fajr and Asr—will enter Paradise without fail."

«وَمَنْ صَلَّى الْبَرْدَيْنِ دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ» وَلَا فَرْقَ.

L7857–7858 They mentioned the words of Allah, the Most High: {And the dawn prayer. Indeed, the dawn prayer is witnessed} [Al-Isra: 78]. This contains no clarification that the prayer is the middle one, for He, the Most High, commanded in this verse prayers other than the dawn prayer, just as He commanded the dawn prayer itself. He, the Most High, said: {Establish prayer from the sun's decline until night's darkness and the dawn prayer. Indeed, the dawn prayer is witnessed} [Al-Isra: 78]. Thus, the command applies to all these prayers equally.[50]

وَذَكَرُوا قَوْلَ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {وَقُرْآنَ الْفَجْرِ إِنَّ قُرْآنَ الْفَجْرِ كَانَ مَشْهُودًا} [الإسراء: ٧٨] وَهَذَا لَا بَيَانَ فِيهِ بِأَنَّهَا الْوُسْطَى، لِأَنَّهُ تَعَالَى أَمَرَ فِي هَذِهِ الْآيَةِ بِغَيْرِ الصُّبْحِ كَمَا أَمَرَ بِصَلَاةِ الصُّبْحِ قَالَ تَعَالَى: {أَقِمِ الصَّلَاةَ لِدُلُوكِ الشَّمْسِ إِلَى غَسَقِ اللَّيْلِ وَقُرْآنَ الْفَجْرِ إِنَّ قُرْآنَ الْفَجْرِ كَانَ مَشْهُودًا} [الإسراء: ٧٨] فَالْأَمْرُ بِجَمِيعِهَا سَوَاءٌ.

L7859 It has been authentically established that the angels rotate in shifts during the Fajr and ʿAṣr prayers. Thus, the recitation in the ʿAṣr prayer is witnessed by angels, just as in the Fajr prayer, and there is no difference between them in this regard.

وَقَدْ صَحَّ أَنَّ الْمَلَائِكَةَ تَتَعَاقَبُ فِي الصُّبْحِ وَالْعَصْرِ، فَقُرْآنُ الْعَصْرِ مَشْهُودٌ كَقُرْآنِ الْفَجْرِ وَلَا فَرْقَ.

L7860 There is no indication in the statement of the Exalted: "And the recitation of Fajr—indeed, the Fajr recitation is witnessed" [17:78] that the recitation in prayers other than Fajr is not witnessed. Allah is far above such a claim! Rather, all prayers are undoubtedly witnessed.[51]

وَلَيْسَ فِي قَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: {وَقُرْآنَ الْفَجْرِ إِنَّ قُرْآنَ الْفَجْرِ كَانَ مَشْهُودًا} [الإسراء: ٧٨] دَلِيلٌ أَنَّ قُرْآنَ غَيْرِ الْفَجْرِ مِنْ الصَّلَوَاتِ لَيْسَ مَشْهُودًا، حَاشَا لِلَّهِ مِنْ هَذَا بَلْ كُلُّهَا مَشْهُودٌ بِلَا شَكٍّ.

L7861 They argued that it is the most difficult of prayers for worshippers: in winter due to the cold, and in summer due to sleepiness and the shortness of nights.

وَاحْتَجُّوا بِأَنَّهَا أَصْعَبُ الصَّلَوَاتِ عَلَى الْمُصَلِّينَ، فِي الشِّتَاءِ: لِلْبَرْدِ، وَفِي الصَّيْفِ: لِلنَّوْمِ، وَقِصَرِ اللَّيَالِي.

L7862 Ali said: "There is absolutely no evidence in this to suggest it is the middle prayer. As for the Dhuhr prayer, the heat intensifies during it to the extent that it becomes the most difficult of prayers" - just as Zayd ibn Thabit had stated.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا لَا دَلِيلَ فِيهِ أَصْلًا عَلَى أَنَّهَا الْوُسْطَى، وَالظُّهْرُ يَشْتَدُّ فِيهَا الْحَرُّ حَتَّى تَكُونَ أَصْعَبَ الصَّلَوَاتِ، كَمَا قَالَ زَيْدُ بْنُ ثَابِتٍ.

L7863 Ali said: This is all they have cited as evidence. There is no valid proof in any of it. Rather, these [claims] are false conjectures, for the Almighty has said: “They follow nothing but conjecture, and indeed conjecture cannot substitute for the truth in the slightest.” [An-Najm: 28][52]

L7864 And he (peace be upon him) said: “Beware of suspicion, for indeed suspicion is the falsest of speech.”

L7865 It is impermissible to inform about the intent of Allah, the Exalted, based on false conjecture; may Allah protect us from such a thing.

L7866 A group of people said: “Let us designate every prayer as the middle prayer.” Ali said: “This is impermissible, for Allah the Exalted has singled out this designation for one specific prayer. It is therefore unlawful to apply it to more than one prayer or to a prayer other than the one Allah the Exalted intended. Thus, whoever does this after conclusive evidence has been established against him will be attributing a falsehood to Allah the Exalted.”

L7867–7868 Ali said: Therefore, it became obligatory to seek the divine intent of Allah the Exalted concerning the middle prayer through the clarification of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), not through others.

L7869 Allah, the Exalted, said: “So that you may clarify to the people what has been sent down to them” [Surah An-Nahl (16:44)][53]

L7870 So we looked into that—and found what was narrated to us by Abd al-Rahman ibn Abd Allah; he narrated to us Ibrahim ibn Ahmad; he narrated to us Al-Farbari; he narrated to us Al-Bukhari; he narrated to us Abdullah ibn Muhammad (he is Al-Musnadi); he narrated to us Abd al-Rahman; he narrated to us Yahya ibn Sa’id (he is Al-Qattan).

L7871 Al-Musnadi said: Yazid narrated to us, then Yazid and Yahya jointly narrated, saying: from Hisham, the son of Hassan, from Muḥammad ibn Sīrīn, from ʿUbaydah al-Salmānī, from ʿAlī, who said: “The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said on the Day of the Trench: ’They distracted us from the middle prayer until the sun had set. May Allah fill their graves and their homes (or their bellies) with fire.”’

L7872 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us; Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us; Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us; Muhammad ibn al-Muthanna narrated to us; Muhammad ibn Ja‘far and Ibn Abi Adi narrated to us. They both said: Shu‘bah narrated to us, saying: I heard Qatadah from Abu Hassan—he is Muslim al-Ajrad—from ʿAbīdah al-Salmānī from Ali, who said: “The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said on the Day of the Trench: ’They distracted us from the Middle Prayer until the sun set. May Allah fill their homes and graves with fire.”’ This is the wording of Ibn Abi Adi. The wording of Muhammad ibn Ja‘far is: “their graves, their homes, or their bellies with fire.”

L7873–7875 Narrated to us Yahya ibn Abd al-Rahman ibn Mas’ud; Ahmad ibn Duhaym narrated to us; Ibrahim ibn Hammad narrated to us; Ismail ibn Ishaq narrated to us; Muhammad ibn Abi Bakr al-Muqaddami narrated to us; Yahya ibn Sa’id al-Qattan and Abd al-Rahman ibn Mahdi narrated to us from Sufyan al-Thawri, from Asim ibn Abi al-Najud, from Zirr ibn Hubaysh, who said: I said to ‘Ubaydah, “Ask ‘Ali about the middle prayer.” So he asked him, and he replied, “We used to consider it the Fajr Prayer until I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) say on the Day of the Confederates: ‘They distracted us from the middle prayer, Asr. May Allah fill their hearts, bellies, or homes with fire.’”

L7876 Ali said: “And we have also transmitted it through the chain of Hammad ibn Zayd from ’Asim ibn Bahdala from Zirr from ’Ali ibn Abi Talib from the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. We have also transmitted it through the chain via Muslim from Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah, Zuhayr ibn Harb, and Abu Kurayb, who said: Abu Mu’awiyah narrated to us from al-A’mash from Abu al-Duha from Shutayr ibn Shakl from ’Ali from the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. Shutayr is a trustworthy Tabi’i, and his father was one of the Companions. Shutayr heard this from ’Ali. We have also transmitted it through additional chains.”

L7877 These are conspicuous narrations from which there is no room to depart, and this is the opinion of a group of the Salaf, as we will mention later, if Allah the Exalted wills. ʻAli said: Some opponents sought pretext by citing what we have narrated through the chain of Ibn Jurayj from Nāfiʻ: that Ḥafṣa, the Mother of the Believers, wrote in her own handwriting in her copy of the Qur'an: "Preserve the prayers, the middle prayer, and the ʻAṣr prayer, and stand devoutly before Allah."

وَبِمَا رُوِّينَاهُ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ دَاوُد بْنِ قَيْسٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ رَافِعٍ: أَنَّ أُمَّ سَلَمَةَ أُمَّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ أَمَرَتْهُ أَنْ يَنْسَخَ لَهَا مُصْحَفًا، وَأَمَرَتْهُ أَنْ يَكْتُبَ فِيهِ إذَا بَلَغَ إلَى هَذَا الْمَكَانِ حَافِظُوا عَلَى الصَّلَوَاتِ وَالصَّلَاةِ الْوُسْطَى وَصَلَاةِ الْعَصْرِ وَقُومُوا لِلَّهِ قَانِتِينَ.

L7878 And by what we have narrated from Abd al-Razzaq from Dawud ibn Qays from Abdullah ibn Rafi': that Umm Salamah, the Mother of the Believers, commanded him to copy a Mushaf for her, and she ordered him to write in it when he reached this place: "Guard strictly the prayers, the middle prayer, and the Asr prayer, and stand before Allah in devout obedience."

L7879–7881 From Malik, from Zayd ibn Aslam, from al-Qaʿqāʿ ibn Ḥakīm, from Abū Yūnus - the freed slave of ʿĀ'ishah, the Mother of the Believers - that she dictated to him in a Muṣḥaf which he transcribed for her: "Guard the prayers, and the middle prayer, and the ʿAṣr prayer; and stand before Allah in devout obedience." And she said: "I heard it from the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him."

وَعَنْ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ: «كَانَ فِي مُصْحَفِ عَائِشَةَ أُمِّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ: حَافِظُوا عَلَى الصَّلَوَاتِ وَالصَّلَاةِ الْوُسْطَى - وَصَلَاةِ الْعَصْرِ - وَقُومُوا لِلَّهِ قَانِتِينَ» .

L7882 From Hammad ibn Salamah from Hisham ibn Urwah from his father: "In the muṣḥaf of Aisha, the Mother of the Believers, it was written: 'Guard the prayers and the middle prayer (and the Asr prayer) and stand before Allah in humble obedience.'"[54]

وَعَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانِ عَنْ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ عَنْ هُبَيْرَةَ بْنِ يَرِيمَ سَمِعْت ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ يَقُولُ: " حَافِظُوا عَلَى الصَّلَوَاتِ وَالصَّلَاةِ الْوُسْطَى وَصَلَاةِ الْعَصْرِ "

L7883 And from Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān from Shuʿbah from Abū Isḥāq from Hubayrah ibn Yarīm, who said: "I heard Ibn ʿAbbās say: 'Preserve the prayers—the middle prayer and the ʿAṣr prayer.'"[55]

وَعَنْ إسْرَائِيلَ عَنْ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ بْنِ عُمَيْرٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ أَبِي لَيْلَى قَالَ: كَانَ أُبَيّ بْنُ كَعْبٍ يَقْرَؤُهَا: عَلَى الصَّلَوَاتِ وَالصَّلَاةِ الْوُسْطَى وَصَلَاةِ الْعَصْرِ.

L7884 From Isra'il, from ʻAbd al-Malik ibn ʻUmair, from ʻAbd al-Rahman ibn Abi Layla, who said: Ubayy ibn Kaʿb would recite it as: "Upon the prayers, the middle prayer, and the ʻAsr prayer."

[54] Qur'an references (L7882): Qur'an 2:238 (Al-Baqarah).
[55] Qur'an references (L7883): Qur'an 2:238 (Al-Baqarah).

L7885 They said, “Does this indicate that it is not the ʿAṣr Prayer?”

قَالُوا: فَدَلَّ هَذَا عَلَى أَنَّهَا لَيْسَتْ صَلَاةَ الْعَصْرِ؟

L7886 Ali said: This is an objection that is utterly invalid, for none of it originates from the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him. Rather, it is attributed solely to Hafsa, Umm Salama, and Aisha—the Mothers of the Believers—as well as Ibn Abbas and Ubayy ibn Ka‘b, with the exception of Aisha’s report alone.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: هَذَا اعْتِرَاضٌ فِي غَايَةِ الْفَسَادِ، لِأَنَّهُ كُلَّهُ لَيْسَ مِنْهُ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - شَيْءٌ، وَإِنَّمَا هُوَ مَوْقُوفٌ عَلَى حَفْصَةَ، وَأُمِّ سَلَمَةَ، وَعَائِشَةَ: أُمَّهَاتِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ - وَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، وَأُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ، حَاشَا رِوَايَةَ عَائِشَةَ فَقَطْ.

L7887 Is it impermissible to contradict the explicit text of the Messenger of Allah’s speech (peace be upon him) with the words of others?

وَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُعَارَضَ نَصُّ كَلَامِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِكَلَامِ غَيْرِهِ؟

L7888–7890 If they weaken those narrations, it is said to them: “These narrations are the weak ones, and all of this is impermissible.” Then we say to them: “Your reliance upon this addition - which you unanimously agree with us that none may recite it nor write it in their mus’haf - is astonishing. This demonstrates that these are narrations lacking evidentiary basis. Whatever comes from those below the rank of Allah’s Messenger - peace and blessings be upon him - contains no proof, for Allah the Exalted did not command...” Disputing by reverting to anything other than His Book and the Sunnah of His Messenger—may Allah’s peace and blessings be upon him—instead of them constitutes disobedience to Allah the Exalted and a violation of His command. This is a sufficient proof. Then another proof follows: that the narration has conflicted from these mentioned Companions. Assuming we grant you all that you desire in the meaning of this additional wording found in these narrations—namely, that we were narrated the report of Umm Salamah through the chain of Waki‘ from Dawud ibn Qays from ‘Abdullah ibn Rafi‘: that Umm Salamah, the Mother of the Believers, wrote a copy of the Qur’an and said, “Write ‘Guard the prayers and the middle prayer, the ‘Asr prayer’ like this without a ‘waw’?” As for the report of Ibn ‘Abbas, we were narrated it through the chain of Waki‘ from Shu‘bah from Abu Ishaq al-Sabi‘i from Hubayrah ibn Yarim, who said: I heard Ibn ‘Abbas say, “Guard the prayers and the middle prayer, the ‘Asr prayer”—like this without a ‘waw’?

فَإِنْ وَهَّنُوا تِلْكَ الرِّوَايَاتِ قِيلَ لَهُمْ: هَذِهِ الرِّوَايَاتُ هِيَ الْوَاهِيَةُ وَهَذَا كُلُّهُ لَا يَجُوزُ؟ ثُمَّ نَقُولُ لَهُمْ: مِنْ الْعَجَبِ احْتِجَاجُكُمْ بِهَذِهِ الزِّيَادَةِ الَّتِي أَنْتُمْ مُجْمِعُونَ مَعَنَا عَلَى أَنَّهَا لَا يَحِلُّ لِأَحَدٍ أَنْ يَقْرَأَ بِهَا، وَلَا أَنْ يَكْتُبَهَا فِي مُصْحَفِهِ، وَفِي هَذَا بَيَانٌ أَنَّهَا رِوَايَاتٌ لَا تَقُومُ بِهَا حُجَّةٌ وَكُلُّ مَا كَانَ عَمَّنْ دُونَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَلَا حُجَّةَ فِيهِ، لِأَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى لَمْ يَأْمُرْ عِنْدَ التَّنَازُعِ بِالرَّدِّ إلَى أَحَدٍ غَيْرِ كِتَابِهِ وَسُنَّةِ رَسُولِهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لَا إلَى غَيْرِهِمَا فَقَدْ عَصَى اللَّهَ تَعَالَى، وَخَالَفَ أَمْرَهُ، فَهَذَا بُرْهَانٌ كَافٍ ثُمَّ آخَرُ، وَهُوَ: أَنَّ الرِّوَايَةَ قَدْ تَعَارَضَتْ عَنْ هَؤُلَاءِ الصَّحَابَةِ الْمَذْكُورِينَ -: عَلَى أَنْ نُسَلِّمَ لَكُمْ كُلَّ مَا تُرِيدُونَ فِي مَعْنَى هَذِهِ اللَّفْظَةِ الزَّائِدَةِ الَّتِي فِي هَذِهِ - الْآثَارِ - وَهِيَ أَنَّنَا رُوِّينَا خَبَرَ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ مِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ دَاوُد بْنِ قَيْسٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ رَافِعٍ: أَنَّ أُمَّ سَلَمَةَ أُمَّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ كَتَبَتْ مُصْحَفًا فَقَالَتْ: اُكْتُبْ " حَافِظُوا عَلَى الصَّلَوَاتِ وَالصَّلَاةِ الْوُسْطَى صَلَاةِ الْعَصْرِ هَكَذَا بِلَا وَاوٍ؟ وَأَمَّا خَبَرُ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ فَرُوِّيناهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ السَّبِيعِيِّ عَنْ هُبَيْرَةَ بْنِ يَرِيمَ قَالَ: سَمِعْت ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ يَقُولُ: حَافِظُوا عَلَى

Thus, Waki‘ and ‘Abd al-Razzaq differed regarding the narration of Umm Salamah from Dawud ibn Qays.[56]

وَاخْتَلَفَ وَكِيعٌ، وَيَحْيَى عَلَى شُعْبَةَ فِي حَدِيثِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، وَلَيْسَ وَكِيعٌ دُونَ يَحْيَى وَلَا دُونَ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ؟ وَأَمَّا خَبَرُ أُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ فَرُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ إِسْمَاعِيلَ بْنِ إِسْحَاقَ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ عَنْ مَجْلُوبٍ أَبِي جَعْفَرٍ عَنْ خَالِدٍ الْحَذَّاءَ عَنْ أَبِي قِلَابَةَ قَالَ: فِي قِرَاءَةِ أُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ صَلَاةُ الْوُسْطَى صَلَاةُ الْعَصْرِ فَلَيْسَتْ هَذِهِ الرِّوَايَةُ دُونَ الْأُولَى، فَقَدْ اُخْتُلِفَ عَلَى أُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ أَيْضًا؟

L7891 Waki‘ and Yaḥyā differed from Shu‘bah regarding the ḥadīth of Ibn ‘Abbās. Is Waki‘ inferior to Yaḥyā or to ‘Abd al-Razzāq? As for the report of Ubayy ibn Ka‘b, we have narrated it through the chain of Ismā‘īl ibn Isḥāq, from Muḥammad ibn Abī Bakr, from Majlūb Abī Ja‘far, from Khālid al-Ḥadhā’, from Abū Qilābah, who said: “In the recitation of Ubayy ibn Ka‘b, ‘the middle prayer is the ‘Aṣr prayer.’” This narration is not inferior to the first one. For disagreement has also arisen regarding Ubayy ibn Ka‘b’s report.

L7892 As for the narration of Aisha, we have indeed received it through the chain of transmission of Abd al-Rahman ibn Mahdi from Abu Sahl Muhammad ibn Amr al-Ansari, from Muhammad ibn Abi Bakr, from Aisha, the Mother of the Believers, who said: “Is the middle prayer the Asr prayer?” This is the most authentic narration from Aisha—Abu Sahl Muhammad ibn Amr al-Ansari is trustworthy. Ibn Mahdi, Waki’, Ma’mar, Abdullah ibn al-Mubarak, and others narrated from him.

فَبَطَلَ التَّعَلُّقُ بِشَيْءٍ مِمَّا ذَكَرْنَا قَبْلُ، إِذْ لَيْسَ بَعْضُ مَا رُوِيَ عَنْ هَؤُلَاءِ الْمَذْكُورِينَ بِأُولَى مِنْ بَعْضٍ، وَالْوَاجِبُ الرُّجُوعُ إِلَى مَا صَحَّ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي ذَلِكَ، وَقَدْ ذَكَرْنَا أَنَّهُ لَمْ يَصِحَّ عَنْهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - إِلَّا أَنَّ الصَّلَاةَ الْوُسْطَى: صَلَاةُ الْعَصْرِ؟ فَإِنْ قِيلَ: فَكَيْفَ تَصْنَعُونَ أَنْتُمْ فِي هَذِهِ الرِّوَايَاتِ الَّتِي أُورِدَتْ عَنْ حَفْصَةَ، وَعَائِشَةَ، وَأُمِّ سَلَمَةَ، وَأُبَيٍّ، وَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ -: الَّتِي فِيهَا " وَصَلَاةُ الْعَصْرِ " وَالَّتِي فِيهَا " صَلَاةُ الْعَصْرِ " عَنْهُمْ " بِلَا وَاوٍ " حَاشَا حَفْصَةَ وَكَيْفَ تَقُولُونَ فِي الْقِرَاءَةِ بِهَذِهِ

L7893–7895 Thus, reliance on anything we have previously mentioned is invalidated, since some of what has been narrated from these cited scholars is not reliable. The preferable opinion among some is that the obligation lies in reverting to what has been authentically established from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—regarding this matter. We have mentioned that nothing authentically established from him—peace be upon him—exists except that the middle prayer is the ‘Asr prayer? If it is asked: How do you deal with these narrations transmitted from Hafsah, ‘Ā’ishah, Umm Salamah, Ubayy, and Ibn ‘Abbās—those containing “and the ‘Asr prayer” and those stating “the ‘Asr prayer” from them without the conjunction “and”—except for Hafsah’s narration? And how do you justify recitation with this variant addition when it is not permissible to recite it today? Our response—and success comes only from Allah the Exalted—is that the perceived discrepancy in these narrations is not a true discrepancy. Rather, the meaning remains consistent whether the conjunction "and" is included or omitted, as it links one attribute to another. No other interpretation is permissible.

As Allah the Exalted said: {But [Muhammad is] the Messenger of Allah and the seal of the prophets} [Al-Ahzab: 40]. Thus, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) is the Last of the Prophets.[57]

And just as you say: Honor your brothers and Abu Zayd, the generous and of noble lineage, the brother of Muhammad—for Abu Zayd is indeed of noble lineage and Muhammad's brother.

So his statement "and the Asr prayer" is an explanation of the middle prayer. Therefore, it is the middle prayer, and it is the Asr prayer.

As for his statement—peace be upon him—"They distracted us from the middle prayer, the Asr prayer," this does not admit any interpretation at all. It therefore necessitates understanding his statement—peace be upon him—"and the middle prayer and the Asr prayer" as a conjunction of one attribute to another, which is unavoidable. What further confirms the validity of this interpretation from their own statements is what we have cited from them directly: "And the middle prayer is the Asr prayer."

The authentic narration from 'Aisha establishes that the prayer in question is the 'Asr prayer. She herself reported the revelation of the verse concerning it: "and the 'Asr prayer." Thus, it was confirmed that she recognized this as an attribute specific to the 'Asr prayer, for she heard the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—recite it in this manner. Through this clarification, the inconsistency attributed to them was resolved, their statements became harmonized, and all narrations from Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—on this matter were validated, with any contradiction being negated. Far be it from Allah that any inconsistency could emanate from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

L7901–7902 Whoever refuses this will not attain what he desires, and it becomes necessary to recognize inconsistency in the narrations transmitted from them, with none of that being more authoritative than another. Both narrations must be invalidated together, and what is authentically reported from the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—on that matter remains sound. Objections against it, based on narrations that caused confusion for their transmitters—whether through what is susceptible to interpretation as claimed by the opponent or through what is unambiguous yet conforms to our position—are invalidated. All praise is due to Allah.

L7903 As for reciting with this addition, it is impermissible. Allah forbid that the Mothers of the Believers, Ubayy, and Ibn Abbas would add to the Quran what is not in it. The ruling on this matter is that those words were originally revealed but their wording was abrogated—as narrated to us by Hammam, who narrated to us from Ibn Mufarrij, who narrated to us from Ibn al-A'rabi, from al-Dabari, from Abd al-Razzaq, from Ibn Jurayj, who reported: Abd al-Malik ibn Abd al-Rahman reported to me from his mother Umm Humayd bint Abd al-Rahman, who said: I asked Aisha, the Mother of the Believers, about the middle prayer. She replied: "We used to recite it in the first mode during the time of Allah's Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him): 'Guard strictly the prayers and the middle prayer and the Asr prayer, and stand before Allah in devout obedience.'"

L7904 Abdullah ibn Yusuf → Ahmad ibn Fath → Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa → Ahmad ibn Muhammad → Ahmad ibn Ali → Muslim ibn Al-Hajjaj → Ishaq ibn Ibrahim (Ibn Rāhawayh) → Yahya ibn Adam → Al-Fudayl ibn Marzuq → Shaqiq ibn Uqbah → Al-Bara' ibn Azib, who said: "This verse was revealed: 'Guard strictly the prayers and the Asr prayer.' We recited it as Allah willed, then Allah the Exalted abrogated it, and there was revealed: 'Guard strictly the prayers, and the middle prayer' [Quran 2:238]. A man sitting with his companion Shaqiq said: 'Then it is the Asr prayer.' Al-Bara' said: 'I have L7905 Ali said: So the abrogation of this wording was confirmed, and its ruling remained like that of the Stoning Verse. And success comes only from Allah, the Most High.

L7906 And is it possible that those we mentioned among the Mothers of the Believers affirmed it in the sense of exegetical interpretation? And Allah knows best?

L7907 Ali said: A group from the Salaf maintained this opinion—as we have narrated via Yahya ibn Sa'id al-Qattan from Sulayman al-Taymi from Abu Salih al-Samman from Abu Hurayrah—that he said: The middle prayer is the Asr prayer.

L7908–7909 From the narration chain of Isma'il ibn Ishaq: Ali ibn Abdullah—who is Ibn al-Madini—narrated to us, Bishr ibn al-Mufaddal narrated to us, Abdullah ibn Uthman narrated to us from Abd al-Rahman ibn Nafi': Abu Hurairah was asked about the middle prayer. He said to the one who asked him: "Do you not recite the Quran?" The man replied: "Yes, indeed." Abu Hurairah said: "Then I will recite to you from this Quran until you understand it. Allah the Exalted says: {Establish prayer at the decline of the sun until the darkness of the night} [17:78]—this is Maghrib. And He says: {And after the Isha prayer} [24:58]—this is Isha. And He says: {And the Quran at dawn—indeed, the Quran at dawn is witnessed} [17:78]—this is the dawn prayer." Then he said: {Guard the prayers and the middle prayer} [2:238]—this is Asr, this is Asr.[59]

L7912 And from al-Qāsim ibn Muḥammad from ʿĀ'ishah—is it the same as that? And from Sufyān ibn ʿUyaynah from Misʿar ibn Kidām from Salama ibn Kuhayl from Abī al-Aḥwaṣ from ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib regarding the middle prayer? He said: It is the prayer that the son of Dāwūd neglected: meaning the ʿAṣr prayer.

The Issue of Raising the Voice With the Takbīr Immediately After Each Prayer

[مَسْأَلَةُ رَفْعُ الصَّوْتِ بِالتَّكْبِيرِ إِثْرَ كُلِّ صَلَاةٍ]

٥٠٦ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَرَفْعُ الصَّوْتِ بِالتَّكْبِيرِ إِثْرَ كُلِّ صَلَاةٍ: حَسَنٌ؟ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ ثنا ابْنُ أَبِي عُمَرَ ثنا سُفْيَانُ بْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ عَنْ أَبِي مَعْبَدٍ مَوْلَى ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ وَهُوَ جَدُّ عَمْرٍو - قَالَ سَمِعْته يُحَدِّثُ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ " مَا كُنَّا نَعْرِفُ انْقِضَاءَ صَلَاةِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إلَّا بِالتَّكْبِيرِ "

Ali said: If it is said, "Did Abu Ma'bad forget this hadith and deny it?" We respond: So what of it? 'Amr is the most reliable of trustworthy narrators, and no human is exempt from forgetfulness. The conclusive evidence has been established through the narration of the trustworthy narrator.

[مَسْأَلَةُ جُلُوسُ الْإِمَامِ فِي مُصَلَّاهُ بَعْدَ سَلَامِهِ]

507 – Issue. The Imam remaining in his prayer place after his concluding salutation is recommended, permissible, and not disliked. If he rises immediately upon giving the salutation, is it still considered recommended? – Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us, from Ahmad ibn Fath, from Abd al-Wahhab ibn Isa, from Ahmad ibn Muhammad, from Ahmad ibn Ali, from Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj, from Abu Kamil Fudayl ibn Husayn al-Jahdari. From Abu Awanah from Hilal ibn Abi Humaid from Abd al-Rahman ibn Abi Layla from al-Bara' ibn Azib, who said: "I attentively observed the prayer with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) and found his standing, his bowing, his straightening after bowing, his prostration, his sitting between the two prostrations, his prostration, his sitting, and his sitting

L7929 Numerous authenticated reports supported by chains of transmission indicate this, through the chain reaching Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb: From Yaʿqūb ibn Ibrāhīm, who said: Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān reported to us from Sufyān al-Thawrī; Yaʿlā ibn ʿAṭāʾ reported to me from Jābir ibn Yazīd ibn al-Aswad from his father: "He prayed the dawn prayer with the Messenger of Allah – may Allah bless him and grant him peace. When he prayed, he turned away."

L7930 Ali said: Both practices are transmitted from the Salaf—it has been narrated to us that Abū Bakr al-Ṣiddīq (may Allah be pleased with him), when he concluded the salām, would behave as if he were standing on hot coals until he stood up. Contrary to that, it has been narrated from Ibn Masʿūd that he was asked about a man praying the obligatory prayer: "May he perform voluntary prayers in the same spot?" He replied, "Yes," and he made no distinction between an imam and a non-imam.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَكِلَا الْأَمْرَيْنِ مَأْثُورٌ عَنْ السَّلَفِ -: رُوِّينَا عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرٍ الصِّدِّيقِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ -: أَنَّهُ كَانَ إذَا سَلَّمَ كَأَنَّهُ عَلَى الرَّضْفِ حَتَّى يَقُومَ وَرُوِّينَا خِلَافَ ذَلِكَ عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ: أَنَّهُ سُئِلَ عَنْ الرَّجُلِ يُصَلِّي الْمَكْتُوبَةَ: أَيَتَطَوَّعُ فِي مَكَانِهِ؟ قَالَ: نَعَمْ، وَلَمْ يُفَرِّقْ بَيْنَ إمَامٍ وَغَيْرِ إمَامٍ؟ .

L7931 And from Sufyan al-Thawri from 'Ubayd Allah ibn 'Umar from Nafi' from Ibn 'Umar that he would lead them in prayer, then perform supererogatory prayers in the same place.

L7932 From Ibn Jurayj, from ʿAṭāʾ, who said: "Was the Imam in the habit of sitting after he gave the salutation?" And from Ibrāhīm ibn Maysarah: Ṭāwūs was asked, "Should a man move from his place after performing the prescribed prayer to offer supererogatory prayers?" He replied, "Are you teaching Allah about your religion?" [al-Hujurat 49:16].[60]

L7934–7936 508 - Issue: Whoever finds the Imam sitting at the end of his prayer before uttering the Taslim, it is obligatory upon him to join him - whether he hopes to catch the prayer from its beginning in a different mosque or not. If he finds the Imam has already uttered the Taslim, then if he hopes to catch any portion of the congregational prayer in another mosque without hardship in... His intention being present, the obligation upon him is to undertake it.

L7937 And is it not permissible to hasten to prayer even if one knows it has already begun? Abd al-Rahman ibn Abd Allah ibn Khalid narrated from Ibrahim ibn Ahmad, who narrated from al-Farabri, who narrated from al-Bukhari, who narrated from Abu Nu'aym (al-Fadl ibn Dukayn), who narrated from Shayban, who narrated from Yahya (Ibn Abi Kathir), who narrated from Abdullah ibn Abi Qatadah, who narrated from his father, who said: "While we were praying with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), he heard the commotion of people. When he concluded the prayer, he asked: 'What is your situation?' They replied: 'We hurried to join the prayer.' He said: 'Do not do so. When you come to prayer, you must remain calm. Pray what you catch up with and complete what you miss.'"

L7938 And from him to Al-Bukhari: Adam narrated to us, Ibn Abi Dhi'b narrated to us, Al-Zuhri narrated to me from Sa'id ibn Al-Musayyib from Abu Hurayrah from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) who said: "When you hear the iqamah, walk to the prayer with calmness and dignity. Pray whatever you catch up with, and complete whatever you miss."

L7939 This is a general principle regarding whatever portion of the prayer one catches, whether little or much. These two narrations are additional to the report stating: "Whoever catches one rak'ah of the prayer with the Imam has فَهَذَا عُمُومٌ لِمَا أَدْرَكَهُ الْمَرْءُ مِنْ الصَّلَاةِ، قَلَّ أَمْ كَثُرَ، وَهَذَانِ الْخَبَرَانِ زَائِدَانِ عَلَى الْخَبَرِ الَّذِي فِيهِ «مَنْ أَدْرَكَ مِنْ الصَّلَاةِ مَعَ الْإِمَامِ رَكْعَةً فَقَدْ أَدْرَكَ الصَّلَاةَ» وَلَا يَحِلُّ تَرْكُ الْأَخْذِ بِالزِّيَادَةِ.

L7940 It has been narrated from Ibn Mas'ud that he encountered a group sitting during the final part of their prayer, so he asked: "Have you caught up [with the prayer], if Allah wills?" From Shaqīq ibn Salamah: "Whoever catches the Tashahhud has caught the prayer." Al-Hasan said: "If one encounters them in prostration, he prostrates with them." From Ibn Jurayj: I asked 'Aṭā': "If someone hears the iqāmah or adhān while performing an obligatory prayer, should he stop his prayer to join the congregation?" He replied: "If he believes he can catch part of the obligatory prayer, then yes." From Sa'īd ibn Jubayr: He came to a people who had already prayed, then heard a mu'adhin and went out toward him.

L7941–7942 It has been narrated to us that Al-Aswad ibn Yazid also did the same. From Ibn Jurayj, from 'Ata', from Abu Hurayrah: "When one of you proceeds to prayer, let him walk with measured steps, for he is in a state of prayer. Whatever part of the prayer he catches, let him pray it, and whatever he misses, let him make it up afterward." 'Ata' said, "Indeed, I practice this myself." From Thabit al-Bunani, who said: "The prayer was called while Anas ibn Malik had his hand on my shoulder, walking with shortened strides. We reached the mosque having missed one rak'ah. We prayed with the Imam and made up what we had missed. Anas said to me, 'O Thabit, did my action distress you?' I replied, 'Yes.' He said, 'My brother Zayd ibn Thabit did the same to me.'" From Abu Dharr: "Whoever sets out to attend the prayer, and the iqamah is called while he is en route, let him neither rush nor go faster than his initial pace. Whatever part of the prayer he catches, let him pray with the Imam, and whatever he misses, let him make it up afterward."

L7943 Sufyan ibn Ziyad reported that Al-Zubayr encountered him while he was hastening to the mosque. Al-Zubayr said to him: "Moderate your pace, for you are engaged in prayer. Do you not take a single step except that Allah elevates you thereby a degree or erases through it a sin?" Ali mentioned the narration of a man who arrived breathless from exertion and declared: "Allah is the Greatest in greatness."

If they turn to their left, it is permissible, with neither sin nor reprehensibility in that? ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Khālid narrated to us: Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad narrated to us: al-Farbarī narrated to us: al-Bukhārī narrated to us: Ḥafṣ ibn ʿUmar narrated to us: Shuʿbah informed me, reporting that Ashʿath ibn Sulaym heard his father relay from Masrūq, from ʿĀ'ishah, who said: "Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him) liked starting with the right when donning his sandals, combing his hair, and in all his affairs."

He said, "As for me, I saw the Messenger of Allah – peace and blessings be upon him – turn away to his right." From Al-Hajjaj ibn Al-Minhal, from Abu Awanah, from Al-A'mash, from Umarah ibn Umayr, from Al-Aswad ibn Yazid, from Ibn Mas'ud: "I saw the Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—most often turn to depart from his left side." L7950 A case of finding the Imam in rukūʿ (bowing) or sujūd (prostrating).

L7951 Issue 510: If someone finds the imam bowing, prostrating, or sitting, it is absolutely impermissible for them to pronounce the takbīr while standing. Instead, they must pronounce the takbīr without exception in the same posture in which they find their imam—two takbīrs are obligatory without exception: one for initiating the prayer, and the second for the posture in which they are present.

L7952 Based on the statement of the Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—"The imam is appointed solely to be followed."

L7953 And due to his saying - peace be upon him -: "Pray what you catch up with and complete what you miss." He (peace be upon him) commanded following the imam, and following him means that a person does not contradict him in all his actions. Whoever says the Takbīr while standing when the imam is not standing has failed to follow him, thus praying in a manner contrary to what was commanded. It is impermissible to make up missed standing or other acts except after the completion of the imam's prayer, not before that. Success is from Allah, the Exalted.

[The Prayer of the Traveler] [Issue: The Fajr prayer always consists of two rak'ahs, whether during travel or residence.]

L7956 Issue: The Dawn Prayer [Fajr] consists of two rak'ahs during travel and when settled—always—and similarly in times of fear.

L7957 The Maghrib prayer remains three rakʿahs at all times—whether one is settled, traveling, or in a state of danger.

L7958 The number of rak'ahs does not differ except in Dhuhr, Asr, and Isha (al-ʿAtamah). Each consists of four rak'ahs when resident for the healthy and the sick. They are two rak'ahs during travel and one rak'ah in fearful circumstances.

L7959 All of this is a certain consensus, except that these prayers are one rakʿah in the state of fear, regarding which there is a difference of opinion.

٥١٠ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ وَجَدَ الْإِمَامَ رَاكِعًا أَوْ سَاجِدًا أَوْ جَالِسًا فَلَا يَجُوزُ أَلْبَتَّةَ أَنْ يُكَبِّرَ قَائِمًا، لَكِنْ يُكَبِّرُ وَهُوَ فِي الْحَالِ الَّتِي يَجِدُ إمَامَهُ عَلَيْهَا وَلَا بُدَّ، تَكْبِيرَتَيْنِ وَلَا بُدَّ، إحْدَاهُمَا لِلْإِحْرَامِ بِالصَّلَاةِ، وَالثَّانِيَةِ لِلْحَالِ الَّتِي هُوَ فِيهَا.

[صَلَاةُ الْمُسَافِرِ] [مَسْأَلَةٌ صَلَاةُ الصُّبْحِ رَكْعَتَانِ فِي السَّفَرِ وَالْحَضَرِ أَبَدًا]

مَسْأَلَةٌ: صَلَاةُ الصُّبْحِ رَكْعَتَانِ فِي السَّفَرِ وَالْحَضَرِ أَبَدًا، وَفِي الْخَوْفِ كَذَلِكَ.

وَصَلَاةُ الْمَغْرِبِ ثَلَاثُ رَكَعَاتٍ فِي الْحَضَرِ، وَالسَّفَرِ، وَالْخَوْفِ أَبَدًا.

وَلَا يَخْتَلِفُ عَدَدُ الرَّكَعَاتِ إلَّا فِي الظُّهْرِ وَالْعَصْرِ وَالْعَتَمَةِ، فَإِنَّهَا أَرْبَعُ رَكَعَاتٍ فِي الْحَضَرِ لِلصَّحِيحِ، وَالْمَرِيضِ، وَرَكْعَتَانِ فِي السَّفَرِ، وَفِي الْخَوْفِ رَكْعَةٌ.

كُلُّ هَذَا إجْمَاعٌ مُتَيَقَّنٌ، إلَّا كَوْنُ هَذِهِ الصَّلَوَاتِ رَكْعَةً فِي الْخَوْفِ فَفِيهِ خِلَافٌ.

٥١٢ - مَسْأَلَةٌ:

وَكَوْنُ الصَّلَوَاتِ الْمَذْكُورَةِ فِي السَّفَرِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ فَرْضٌ - سَوَاءٌ كَانَ سَفَرَ طَاعَةٍ أَوْ مَعْصِيَةٍ، أَوْ لَا طَاعَةَ وَلَا مَعْصِيَةَ، أَمْنًا كَانَ أَوْ خَوْفًا - فَمَنْ أَتَمَّهَا أَرْبَعًا عَامِدًا، فَإِنْ كَانَ عَالِمًا بِأَنَّ ذَلِكَ لَا يَجُوزُ بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ، وَإِنْ كَانَ سَاهِيًا سَجَدَ لِلسَّهْوِ بَعْدَ السَّلَامِ فَقَطْ

L7961 The fact that the prescribed prayers during travel are shortened to two rak'ahs is an obligation—whether the journey is for obedience, disobedience, neither obedience nor disobedience, in security or in fear. Whoever intentionally prays them as four rak'ahs: if they are aware that this is impermissible, their prayer becomes invalid. If they did so forgetfully, they must perform the prostration for forgetfulness only after the salām.

L7962–7964 As for shortening each prayer from the mentioned prayers to one rak'ah during travel in a state of fear, it is permissible. Whoever prays them as two rak'ahs, that is commendable, and whoever prays them as one rak'ah, that is also commendable. Abu Hanifa said: Shortening the prayer in every journey—whether for obedience or sin—is obligatory. Whoever completes them, if he does not sit after the two rak'ahs for the duration of the Tashahhud, his prayer is invalid, and he must repeat it perpetually. Malik said: Whoever completes the prayer during travel must repeat it within the prayer's designated time. Al-Shafi'i said: Shortening is permissible, and whoever wishes may complete the prayer. According to Malik and Al-Shafi'i, there is no shortening except only in permissible travel. Abu Hanifah, Malik, and al-Shafi'i did not hold the view of shortening prayer to a single rak'ah during times of fear whatsoever; rather, it remains strictly two rak'ahs. The evidence for the validity of our position is what was narrated to us by Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah—from Ibrahim ibn Ahmad, from al-Farbari, from al-Bukhari, from Musaddad, from Yazid ibn Zurai', from Ma'mar, from al-Zuhri, from Urwah, from Aisha, who said: "Prayer was initially prescribed as two rak'ahs. Then when the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—emigrated, it was prescribed as four rak'ahs, while the prayer during travel remained as originally established."

[61] Qur'an references (L7971): Qur'an 4:101 (An-Nisa).

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَصَحَّ أَنَّ الصَّلَاةَ فَرَضَهَا اللَّهُ تَعَالَى رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ بَلَغَهَا فِي الْحَضَرِ بَعْدَ الْهِجْرَةِ أَرْبَعًا، وَأَقَرَّ صَلَاةَ السَّفَرِ عَلَى رَكْعَتَيْنِ.

L7972 Ali said: It was established that Allah, Exalted is He, obligated the prayer as two rak'ahs. Then He extended it to four for residents after the Hijrah, and kept the prayer during travel as two rak'ahs.

وَصَحَّ أَنَّ صَلَاةَ السَّفَرِ: رَكْعَتَانِ بِقَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -، فَإِذْ قَدْ صَحَّ هَذَا فَهِيَ رَكْعَتَانِ لَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يَتَعَدَّى ذَلِكَ، وَمَنْ تَعَدَّاهُ فَلَمْ يُصَلِّ كَمَا أَمَرَ، فَلَا صَلَاةَ لَهُ، إذَا كَانَ عَالِمًا بِذَلِكَ.

L7973 It has been established that the traveler's prayer consists of two rak'ahs according to the Prophet's statement (peace be upon him). Since this is confirmed, the prayer is two rak'ahs. It is impermissible to exceed this. Whoever exceeds it and fails to pray as commanded - his prayer is invalid if he knowingly disregarded this ruling.

وَلَمْ يَخُصَّ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - سَفَرًا مِنْ سَفَرٍ، بَلْ عَمَّ، فَلَا يَجُوزُ لِأَحَدٍ تَخْصِيصُ ذَلِكَ، وَلَمْ يَجُزْ رَدُّ صَدَقَةِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى الَّتِي أَمَرَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِقَبُولِهَا، فَيَكُونُ مَنْ لَا يَقْبَلُهَا عَاصِيًا

L7974 He (peace be upon him) did not specify one journey over another but spoke generally. Therefore, it is not permissible for anyone to specify that, nor is it permissible to reject the charity of Allah the Exalted - which he (peace be upon him) commanded to be accepted - thus making whoever refuses to accept it a transgressor.

L7975–7977 Those who restrict certain journeys to this ruling argue that travel for sinful purposes is prohibited, thus it should have no legal consideration. We responded: As for it being prohibited, yes, it is prohibited, but it remains a journey, so the rulings of travel apply. You claim it is prohibited, yet you permit tayammum during such travel when water is unavailable, allow prayer therein, and consider it obligatory. What distinction can you draw between permitting prayer and tayammum for it, yet prohibiting its performance as two rak'ahs as Allah Almighty decreed for travel? There is no valid distinction! Similarly, adultery is prohibited, yet it requires the same ritual bathing as lawful intercourse, because it entails janāba. The same applies to exceeding [divinely ordained limits]... A circumcision for a circumcision—does this necessitate applying the ruling governing major ritual impurity and exceeding the limits of circumcision? As they opined regarding one who fought against highway robbery and sustained injuries preventing him from standing: he is granted the same concession to pray seated as one who fought in Allah's cause, with no distinction between them, due to the universal applicability of the Prophet's (peace be upon him) statement: "Pray standing, and whoever cannot, then seated."

L7978 If it is said to us: "You assert that whoever prays while not on the right path—whether riding, fighting, or walking—has no valid prayer. What then distinguishes this case?" We reply: Indeed, those individuals performed impermissible actions within their prayers, thereby invalidating them. As for the worshiper who prays two units or one unit in their prayer, they did not perform any invalidating actions apart from them. But those you mentioned walked impermissible walks during prayer and fought impermissible fights within it. The utmost astonishment is directed at the Maliki scholars who, having invoked Allah's general rulings regarding travel and the general rulings of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—regarding travel—{And your Lord is not forgetful} [19:64]—then restricted them with their own opinions, refusing to recognize the shortening of prayers during sinful travel. Yet they approached what Allah specifically designated, where He nullified the general ruling—such as His categorical prohibition of carrion, then stated: {But whoever is compelled by necessity, without willful disobedience or transgression, then your Lord is Forgiving, Merciful} [6:145].[62]

L7979 And His statement: {But whoever is compelled by extreme hunger—without intending to sin—then Allah is truly All-Forgiving, Most Merciful} [Al-Mā'idah: 3]. They claimed through their personal interpretations that consuming carrion and pork is permissible for the compelled person, even if he is actively intending to sin, acting aggressively, persistently transgressing, cutting off roads as a highway robber, lying in wait for groups of Muslims to raid their wealth and shed their blood—and this is truly astounding.[63]

L7980 Some of them cited as proof in this by saying: "It is forbidden for him to kill himself." So we said to them: "Why would he kill himself? Rather, he should now repent from his corrupt intention, and it becomes lawful for him to eat carrion from his time. Is repentance not obligatory for him and inevitable?" Abū Sulaymān and our companions said: "Prayers are not shortened except during Ḥajj, jihad, or ʿUmrah."

L7981–7983 And this is the statement of a group of the predecessors: As narrated to us through the chain of Muhammad ibn Abi Adiyy, from Shuʿbah, from al-

فَإِنْ قِيلَ لَنَا: فَإِنَّكُمْ تَقُولُونَ: مَنْ صَلَّى فِي غَيْرِ سَبِيلِ الْحَقِّ رَاكِبًا أَوْ مُقَاتِلًا أَوْ مَاشِيًا فَلَا صَلَاةَ لَهُ فَمَا الْفَرْقُ؟ قُلْنَا: نَعَمْ، إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ فَعَلُوا فِي صَلَاتِهِمْ حَرَكَاتٍ لَا يَحِلُّ لَهُمْ فِعْلُهَا، فَبِذَلِكَ بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُمْ وَلَمْ يَفْعَلْ الْمُصَلِّي رَكْعَتَيْنِ أَوْ رَكْعَةً فِي صَلَاتِهِ شَيْئًا غَيْرَهَا، وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ ذَكَرْتُمْ فَمَشَوْا مَشْيًا مُحَرَّمًا فِي الصَّلَاةِ، وَقَاتَلُوا فِيهَا قِتَالًا مُحَرَّمًا؟ وَالْعَجَبُ كُلُّ الْعَجَبِ مِنْ الْمَالِكِيِّينَ الَّذِينَ أَتَوْا إلَى عُمُومِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى لِلسَّفَرِ، وَعُمُومِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لِلسَّفَرِ - {وَمَا كَانَ رَبُّكَ نَسِيًّا} [مريم: ٦٤]- فَخَصُّوهُ بِآرَائِهِمْ وَلَمْ يَرَوْا قَصْرَ الصَّلَاةِ فِي سَفَرِ مَعْصِيَةٍ ثُمَّ أَتَوْا إلَى مَا خَصَّهُ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى وَأَبْطَلَ فِيهِ الْعُمُومَ، مِنْ تَحْرِيمِهِ الْمَيْتَةَ جُمْلَةً، ثُمَّ قَالَ {فَمَنِ اضْطُرَّ غَيْرَ بَاغٍ وَلا عَادٍ فَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ} [الأنعام: ١٤٥] .

[62] Qur'an references (L7978): Qur'an 19:64 (Maryam); Qur'an 6:145 (Al-An'am).

A‘mash, from ‘Umarah ibn ‘Umayr, from al-Aswad, from Ibn Mas‘ud, who said: “Does no one shorten the prayer except a pilgrim or one engaged in jihad?” From Tawus: He would inquire about shortening the prayer and say: “When we departed as Hajj pilgrims or those performing ‘Umrah, we prayed two rak‘ahs.” From Ibrahim al-Taymi: He held the view that shortening was only permissible during Hajj, ‘Umrah, or jihad. They cited as evidence the statement of Allah the Exalted: {When you travel through the land, there is no blame upon you for shortening the prayers if you fear that those who disbelieve may persecute you} [al-Nisā’ 4:101].[64]

حَاجٌّ، أَوْ مُجَاهِدٌ؟ وَعَنْ طَاوُسٍ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَسْأَلُ عَنْ قَصْرِ الصَّلَاةِ؟ فَيَقُولُ: إِذَا خَرَجْنَا حُجَّاجًا أَوْ عُمَّارًا صَلَّيْنَا رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَعَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ التَّيْمِيِّ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ لَا يَرَى الْقَصْرَ إِلَّا فِي: حَجٍّ، أَوْ عُمْرَةٍ، أَوْ جِهَادٍ وَاحْتَجُّوا بِقَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {وَإِذَا ضَرَبْتُمْ فِي الأَرْضِ فَلَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ أَنْ تَقْصُرُوا مِنَ الصَّلاةِ إِنْ خِفْتُمْ أَنْ يَفْتِنَكُمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا} [النساء: ١٠١] .

L7984 They said: He (peace and blessings be upon him) did not pray two rak’ahs except during Hajj, Umrah, or jihad. Ali said: If only this verse had been revealed and he (peace be upon him) had acted upon it, their statement would hold. But since it was conveyed through his own words (peace be upon him): “Two rak’ahs during travel,” and he commanded acceptance of Allah’s grant in this matter – does this not constitute an addition to what is in the verse and to his own practice (peace be upon him)? Is it impermissible to abandon adherence to the additional legislation? The Shafi’i scholars argued for their view that the traveler may choose between two or four rak’ahs using this verse, as it states “there is no blame” – phrasing that indicates permissibility rather than obligation. They also cited a narration we transmitted via the chain of Abd al-Rahman ibn al-Aswad: From Aisha that she performed Umrah with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) from Medina to Mecca. When they arrived in Mecca, she said: “O Messenger of Allah, may my father and mother be ransomed for you! I shortened the prayers and completed them, and I broke my fast and fasted.” He replied: “You have done well, O Aisha.”

وَقَالُوا: لَمْ يُصَلِّ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - رَكْعَتَيْنِ إِلَّا فِي: حَجٍّ، أَوْ عُمْرَةٍ أَوْ جِهَادٍ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: لَوْ لَمْ يَرِدْ إِلَّا هَذِهِ الْآيَةُ وَفَعَلَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - لَكَانَ مَا قَالُوا، لَكِنْ لَمَّا وَرَدَ عَلَى لِسَانِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: رَكْعَتَانِ فِي السَّفَرِ، وَأَمَرَ بِقَبُولِ صَدَقَةِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى بِذَلِكَ -: كَانَ هَذَا زَائِدًا عَلَى مَا فِي الْآيَةِ وَعَلَى عَمَلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -، وَلَا يَحِلُّ تَرْكُ الْأَخْذِ بِالشَّرْعِ الزَّائِدِ؟ وَاحْتَجَّ الشَّافِعِيُّونَ فِي قَوْلِهِمْ: إِنَّ الْمُسَافِرَ مُخَيَّرٌ بَيْنَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ أَوْ أَرْبَعِ رَكَعَاتٍ -: بِهَذِهِ الْآيَةِ، وَأَنَّهَا جَاءَتْ بِلَفْظِ لَا جُنَاحَ وَهَذَا يُوجِبُ الْإِبَاحَةَ لَا الْفَرْضَ؟ وَبِخَبَرٍ رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ الْأَسْوَدِ «عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّهَا اعْتَمَرَتْ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِنْ الْمَدِينَةِ إِلَى مَكَّةَ، فَلَمَّا قَدِمَتْ مَكَّةَ قَالَتْ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، بِأَبِي أَنْتَ وَأُمِّي قَصَرْتُ وَأَتْمَمْتُ، وَأَفْطَرْتُ وَصُمْتُ قَالَ: أَحْسَنْتِ يَا عَائِشَةُ» .

L7985 And through the narration of ‘Aṭā’ from ‘Ā’ishah: “The Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—would travel and complete the prayer and shorten it.”

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ عَطَاءٍ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ «كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يُسَافِرُ فَيُتِمُّ الصَّلَاةَ وَيَقْصُرُ» .

L7986 And that ‘Uthmān performed the complete prayer in Mina in the presence of all the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—and they performed وَبِأَنَّ عُثْمَانَ أَتَمَّ الصَّلَاةَ بِمِنًى بِحَضْرَةِ جَمِيعِ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - فَأَتَمُّوهَا مَعَهُ؟ وَبِأَنَّ عَائِشَةَ - وَهِيَ رَوَتْ «فُرِضَتْ الصَّلَاةُ رَكْعَتَيْنِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ» كَانَتْ تُتِمُّ فِي السَّفَرِ.

[64]Qur’an references (L7981): Qur’an 4:101 (An-Nisa).

it completely with him. And that ʿĀʾishah—who narrated, "The prayer was ordained as two rakʿahs each"—used to perform the complete prayer during travel.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: هَذَا كُلُّ مَا احْتَجُّوا بِهِ، وَكُلُّهُ لَا حُجَّةَ لَهُمْ فِيهِ -: أَمَّا الْآيَةُ فَإِنَّهَا لَمْ تَنْزِلْ فِي الْقَصْرِ الْمَذْكُورِ، بَلْ فِي غَيْرِهِ عَلَى مَا نُبَيِّنُ بَعْدَ هَذَا، إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى.

L7987–7989 Ali said: This is all they have cited as evidence, and none of it constitutes proof for them. As for the verse, it was not revealed concerning the aforementioned shortened prayers, but rather concerning another matter, as we shall expound after this, if— Allah the Most High has willed.

وَأَمَّا الْحَدِيثَانِ فَلَا خَيْرَ فِيهِمَا -: أَمَّا الَّذِي مِنْ طَرِيقِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ الْأَسْوَدِ فَانْفَرَدَ بِهِ الْعَلَاءُ بْنُ زُهَيْرٍ الْأَزْدِيُّ، لَمْ يَرْوِهِ غَيْرُهُ، وَهُوَ مَجْهُولٌ.

L7990 As for the two ḥadīths, there is no good in them—as for the one transmitted through ʻAbd al-Raḥmān ibn al-Aswad, it was solely narrated by al-ʻAlā' ibn Zuhayr al-Azdī, with no other narrator reporting it, and he is unknown.

L7991 As for the ḥadīth of ʻAṭā', it was uniquely narrated by al-Mughīrah ibn Ziyād—no one else transmitted it. Concerning him, Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal said: "He is weak; every ḥadīth he narrated is rejected." As for the action of ʻUthmān and ʻĀ'ishah—may Allah be pleased with them—they offered an interpretation that other Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—opposed regarding that interpretation.

L7992 As Ahmad ibn Umar al-Ghadiri narrated to us through Abu Dharr al-Harawi through Abdullah ibn Ahmad ibn Hamawayh al-Sarakhsi through Ibrahim ibn Khuzaym through Abd ibn Humaid through Abd al-Razzaq from Ma'mar from al-Zuhri from Urwah from Aisha - he mentioned the report, wherein al-Zuhri said: I said to Urwah, "What was Aisha's action in completing prayers during travel when you know Allah the Exalted has ordained them as two rak'ahs, two rak'ahs?" - and he mentioned the report, wherein al-Zuhri said: I said to Urwah, "What was Aisha's action in completing prayers during travel when you know Allah the Exalted has ordained them as two rak'ahs, two rak'ahs?"

قَالَ: تَأَوَّلَتْ مِنْ ذَلِكَ مَا تَأَوَّلَ عُثْمَانُ مِنْ إِتْمَامِ الصَّلَاةِ بِمِنًى وَرُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ قَالَ: بَلَغَنِي أَنَّ عُثْمَانَ إِنَّمَا صَلَّاهَا أَرْبَعًا - يَعْنِي بِمِنًى - لِأَنَّهُ أَزْمَعَ أَنْ يُقِيمَ بَعْدَ الْحَجِّ.

L7993 She said: She interpreted it in the same way as ʻUthman did regarding completing the prayer in full at Mina. It was narrated to us through ʻAbd al-Razzāq's chain from al-Zuhrī, who said: It reached me that ʻUthman prayed it as four units (meaning in Mina) because he resolved to reside there after the Hajj.

L7994 Therefore, those among the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—who used to complete with him did so because they stayed as he stayed. Yet some groups among the Companions opposed those two. As conveyed through the chain of ʻAbd al-Razzāq, from ʻAbd Allāh ibn ʻUmar, from Nāfiʻ, from Ibn ʻUmar: When he prayed four rak'ahs with the Imam in Mina, he would return to his residence, pray two rak'ahs there, and then repeat them. Through another chain of ʻAbd al-Razzāq, from Saʻīd ibn al-Sā'ib ibn Yasār: Dawūd ibn Abī ʻĀṣim reported to me, saying, "I asked Ibn ʻUmar about the traveler's prayer in Mina."

فَعَلَى هَذَا أَتَمَّ مَعَهُ مَنْ كَانَ يُتِمُّ مَعَهُ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -، لِأَنَّهُمْ أَقَامُوا بِإِقَامَتِهِ وَقَدْ خَالَفَهُمَا مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ طَوَائِفُ -: كَمَا رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ إذَا صَلَّى مَعَ الْإِمَامِ بِمِنًى أَرْبَعَ رَكَعَاتٍ انْصَرَفَ إلَى مَنْزِلِهِ فَصَلَّى فِيهِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ أَعَادَهَا وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ السَّائِبِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ حَدَّثَنِي دَاوُد بْنُ أَبِي عَاصِمٍ قَالَ: سَأَلْت ابْنَ عُمَرَ عَنْ صَلَاةِ السَّفَرِ بِمِنًى؟

L7995–7996 He said: "I heard that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—used to pray two rak'ahs, two rak'ahs in Mina. So pray if you wish, or omit." From the chain of Abd al-Warith ibn Saʻid at-Tannuri: Abu at-Tayyah narrated to us from Muwarriq al-ʻIjli from Safwan ibn Muhriz: I said to Ibn Umar: "Tell me about the prayer during travel." He said: "Do you fear that you will lie about me?" I said: "No." He said: "Two rak'ahs. Whoever opposes the Sunnah has disbelieved." From the chain of Saʻid ibn Mansur: Marwan ibn Muʻawiyah—he is al-Fazari—narrated to us from Humayd ibn Ali al-ʻUqayli from ad-Dahhak ibn Muzahim, who said: Ibn Abbas said: "Whoever prays four rak'ahs during travel is like one who prays two rak'ahs while settled."

فَقَالَ: " سَمِعْت «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - كَانَ يُصَلِّي بِمِنًى رَكْعَتَيْنِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ» فَصَلِّ إنْ شِئْت أَوْ دَعْ؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ عَبْدِ الْوَارِثِ بْنِ سَعِيدٍ التَّنُّورِيِّ: ثنا أَبُو التَّيَّاحِ عَنْ مُوَرِّقٍ الْعِجْلِيِّ عَنْ صَفْوَانَ بْنِ مُحْرِزٍ قُلْت لِابْنِ عُمَرَ: حَدِّثْنِي عَنْ صَلَاةِ السَّفَرِ، قَالَ: أَتَخْشَى أَنْ تَكْذِبَ عَلَيَّ، قُلْت: لَا، قَالَ: رَكْعَتَانِ، مَنْ خَالَفَ السُّنَّةَ كَفَرَ؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ سَعِيدِ بْنِ مَنْصُورٍ: ثنا مَرْوَانُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ هُوَ الْفَزَارِيّ - ثنا حُمَيْدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ الْعُقَيْلِيُّ عَنْ الضَّحَّاكِ بْنِ مُزَاحِمٍ قَالَ: قَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ: مَنْ صَلَّى فِي السَّفَرِ أَرْبَعًا كَمَنْ صَلَّى فِي الْحَضَرِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ.

L7997 From the narration of Sufyan ibn ʿUyaynah, from Jaʿfar ibn Muḥammad, from his father, who said: ʿUthman fell ill while in Mina, so ʿAli came to him, and it was said to him: "Lead the people in prayer?" He replied: "If you wish, I will lead you in the prayer of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—meaning two rakʿahs." They said: "No, only the prayer of the Commander of the Believers"—referring to ʿUthman—"four rakʿahs." But ʿUthman refused their request.

L7998 And likewise from those after them: We have been narrated from ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz—when the act of completing prayers during travel (for whoever wishes to do so) was mentioned to him—he said: “No. Prayer during travel is two rakʿahs, two that are obligatory—nothing else is valid.”

L7999 When the Companions differed, the obligation is to refer their disputed matter back to the Quran and the Sunnah. As for the Malikis and the Hanafis, they have contradicted themselves here in the worst contradiction, for when they adhere to a Companion’s opinion while contradicting his narration, they assert: “He knows best what he narrated, and it is impermissible to presume that he contradicted the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—except due to knowledge he possessed, which he deemed more authoritative than what he narrated.”

فَإِذَا اخْتَلَفَ الصَّحَابَةُ فَالْوَاجِبُ رَدُّ مَا تَنَازَعُوا فِيهِ إِلَى الْقُرْآنِ وَالسُّنَّةِ؟ وَأَمَّا الْمَالِكِيُّونَ، وَالْحَنَفِيُّونَ فَقَدْ تَنَاقَضُوا هَهُنَا أَقْبَحَ تَنَاقُضٍ، لِأَنَّهُمْ إِذَا تَعَلَّقُوا بِقَوْلِ صَاحِبٍ وَخَالَفُوا رِوَايَتَهُ قَالُوا: هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا رَوَى، وَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُظَنَّ بِهِ أَنَّهُ خَالَفَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إِلَّا لِعِلْمٍ كَانَ عِنْدَهُ رَآهُ أَوْلَى مِمَّا رَوَى.

L8000 Here, they adopted the narration of ʻA'ishah while disregarding her practice, espousing the worst of what they condemn in others. They claimed that ʻUthman, ʻA'ishah, and their companions performed invalid prayers—do they have to repeat them perpetually or within the prayer time? ʻAli said: As for our view that the prayer during fear consists of one rakʻah, this is based on what ʻAbdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us; ʻAbd al-Wahhab ibn ʻIsa narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us; Ahmad ibn ʻAli narrated to us; Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us; Yahya ibn Yahya, Saʻid ibn Mansur, Abu al-Rabiʻ al-Zahrani, and Qutaybah—all of them narrated from Abu ʻAwana, from Bukayr ibn al-Akhnas, from Mujahid, from Ibn ʻAbbas, who said: "Allah ordained prayer through your Prophet's tongue—peace and blessings be upon him—as four rakʻahs for residents, two rakʻahs during travel, and one rakʻah in times of fear."[1]

L8001–8002 We have also narrated it through the chains of Ḥudhayfah, Jābir, Zayd ibn Thābit, Abū Hurayrah, and Ibn ʿUmar—all of them from the Messenger of Allāh, peace and blessings be upon him—with chains of transmission of the utmost authenticity. And Allāh the Exalted said: "When you travel through the land, there is no blame on you if you shorten the prayer, if you fear that the disbelievers may persecute you" [An-Nisā' 4:101].[2]

L8003 He wrote to Hisham ibn Saʻid al-Khayr, who said: ʻAbd al-Jabbar ibn Ahmad al-Muqri al-Tawil narrated to us; al-Hasan ibn al-Husayn ibn ʻAbdawayh al-Najirami narrated to us; Jaʻfar ibn Muhammad ibn al-Hasan al-Asfahani narrated to us; Abu Bishr Yunus ibn Habib ibn ʻAbd al-Qadir narrated to us; Abu Dawud al-Tayalisi narrated to us; al-Masʻudi (he is ʻAbd al-Rahman ibn ʻAbd Allah) narrated to us from Yazid al-Faqir (he is Yazid ibn Suhayb), who said: I asked Jabir ibn ʻAbd Allah about the two rakʻahs during travel: "Are they shortened?" Jabir said: "No. The two rakʻahs during travel are not a shortening. Shortening is one rakʻah during battle." ʻAli said: "By this verse, we hold that the prayer of fear in travel may be one rak'ah if one wishes, or two rak'ahs if preferred, for it is mentioned in the Quran with the wording 'there is no blame' rather than a command or obligation. People prayed these with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) sometimes as one rak'ah and sometimes as two rak'ahs. Thus, this remains a matter of choice, as Jabir (may Allah be pleased with him) stated."

L8004 Legal Case: He left his place of residence, walked a mile, and ascended further.

L8005 513 - Issue: Whoever departs from the houses of their city, village, or place of residence and walks a mile or more must pray two Rak'ahs without fail upon reaching the mile. If they walk less than a mile, do they pray four Rak'ahs? 'Ali said: "People have differed regarding this"—as we have narrated via the chain of Hammād ibn Salamah from Ayyūb al-Sikhtiyānī from Abī Qilābah from Abī al-Muhallab: that 'Uthmān ibn 'Affān (may Allah be pleased with him) wrote: "It has reached me that some men set out—either for tax collection, trade, or conscription—and then do not complete the prayer. You must not do this, for only those who are journeying resolutely or in the presence of an enemy may shorten the prayer."

L8006–8008 And from the chain of Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān, from Saʿīd ibn Abī ʿArūbah, from Qatādah, from ʿAyyāsh ibn ʿAbdullāh ibn Abī Rabīʿah al-Makhzūmī: that ʿUthmān ibn ʿAffān wrote to his officials: Neither the traveler, nor the merchant, nor the procrastinator may pray the two rak'ahs: only those who have provisions and a waterskin may pray them.

L8009 Ali said: "The second: is he the owner of the estate?" Ali said: "This is how it is in my book, and its correct version according to me is: Abdullah ibn Ayyash ibn Abi Rabīʿah."

L8010 From the chain of Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah, from Ali ibn Mushir, from Abu Ishaq al-Shaybani, from Qays ibn Muslim, from Tariq ibn Shihab, from Abdullah ibn Mas'ud, who said: "Let not this large number of yours in your prayer deceive you, for is it not from your city?" And from Abd al-Razzaq, from Ma'mar, from al-A'mash, from Ibrahim al-Taymi, from his father, who said: "I was with Hudhayfah in al-Mada'in and sought his permission to visit my family in Kufa. He permitted me but stipulated that I must not break my fast nor pray two rak'ahs until I returned to him, and between them were over sixty miles." These are chains of transmission of utmost soundness.

L8011 It is narrated from Hudhayfah that one should not shorten prayers toward Al-Sawad, and between Al-Kufah and Al-Sawad are seventy miles.

L8012 From Mu'adh ibn Jabal and 'Uqbah ibn 'Amir: Let none of you tread with your livestock upon mountain ridges or valley floors while claiming, "We are travelers!" No, nor is it valid. The shortening of prayers applies only to one who stays overnight during travel, journeying from one horizon to another. Via the chain of Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah, from Abu al-Ahwas, from 'Asim, from Ibn Sirin, who said: They would ask, "Is the travel in which prayers are shortened that which requires carrying provisions and waterskins?" From Abu Wa'il Shuqayq ibn Salamah: He was asked about shortening prayers from Kufa to Wasit. He replied, "Prayers are not shortened for that journey," and the distance between them is one hundred and fifty miles. Another opinion is narrated through Ibn Jurayj, who reported from Nafi': The shortest journey for which Ibn 'Umar shortened prayers was to his property in Khaybar—a three consecutive days' journey. He did not shorten prayers for any distance shorter than that.

وَعَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ، وَعُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ: لَا يَطَأُ أَحَدُكُمْ بِمَاشِيَتِهِ أَحْدَابَ الْجِبَالِ، وَبُطُونَ الْأَوْدِيَةِ، وَتَزْعُمُونَ أَنَّكُمْ سَفْرٌ، لَا وَلَا كَرَامَةَ، إنَّمَا التَّقْصِيرُ فِي السَّفَرِ الْبَاتِّ، مِنْ الْأُفُقِ إلَى الْأُفُقِ؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ أَبِي بَكْرِ بْنِ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ عَنْ أَبِي الْأَحْوَصِ عَنْ عَاصِمٍ عَنْ ابْنِ سِيرِينَ قَالَ: كَانُوا يَقُولُونَ: السَّفَرُ الَّذِي تُقْصَرُ فِيهِ الصَّلَاةُ: الَّذِي يُحْمَلُ فِيهِ الزَّادُ وَالْمَزَادُ؟ وَعَنْ أَبِي وَائِلٍ شُقَيْقِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ: أَنَّهُ سُئِلَ عَنْ قَصْرِ الصَّلَاةِ مِنْ الْكُوفَةِ إلَى وَاسِطَ؟ فَقَالَ: لَا تُقْصَرُ الصَّلَاةُ فِي ذَلِكَ، وَبَيْنَهُمَا مِائَةُ مِيلٍ وَخَمْسُونَ مِيلًا؟ فَهُنَا قَوْلٌ -: وَرُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي نَافِعٌ: أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ أَدْنَى مَا يُقْصِرُ الصَّلَاةَ إلَيْهِ: مَالٌ لَهُ بِخَيْبَرَ، وَهِيَ مَسِيرَةُ ثَلَاثٍ فَوَاصِلَ لَمْ يَكُنْ يُقْصِرُ فِيمَا دُونَهُ.

L8013 And through the chain of Ḥammād ibn Salamah from Ayyūb al-Sakhtiyānī and Ḥumayd - both from Nāfi' from Ibn 'Umar - that he would shorten prayers between Medina and Khaybar, a distance equivalent to that of Ahwāz from Basra. He did not shorten prayers for distances shorter than this.

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ، وَحُمَيْدٍ، كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّهُ كَانَ يُقْصِرُ الصَّلَاةَ فِيمَا بَيْنَ الْمَدِينَةِ، وَخَيْبَرَ، وَهِيَ كَقَدْرِ الْأَهْوَازِ مِنْ الْبَصْرَةِ، لَا يَقْصُرُ فِيمَا دُونَ ذَلِكَ؟

L8014–8015 Ali said: Between Medina and Khaybar is like between Basra and Ahwaz - it being a single hundred miles excluding four miles. This is among the matters disputed in opinions narrated from Ibn Umar, and later also via Nafi', who transmitted from Ibn Umar.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: بَيْنَ الْمَدِينَةِ، وَخَيْبَرَ كَمَا بَيْنَ الْبَصْرَةِ، وَالْأَهْوَازِ -: وَهُوَ مِائَةُ مِيلٍ وَاحِدَةٌ غَيْرُ أَرْبَعَةِ أَمْيَالٍ وَهَذَا مِمَّا اُخْتُلِفَ فِيهِ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، ثُمَّ عَنْ نَافِعٍ أَيْضًا عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ.

L8016 It has been transmitted to us from Al-Ḥasan ibn Ḥayy that he said: There is no shortening of prayer for a distance less than eighty-two Roman miles, as is the distance between Kufa and Baghdad.

وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ الْحَسَنِ بْنِ حَيٍّ: أَنَّهُ قَالَ: لَا قَصْرَ فِي أَقَلَّ مِنْ اثْنَيْنِ وَثَمَانِينَ مِيلًا، كَمَا بَيْنَ الْكُوفَةِ، وَبَغْدَادَ

L8017 From the narration of Waki’ from Sa’id ibn ’Ubayd al-Ta’i from ’Ali ibn Rabi’ah al-Walibi al-Asadi, who said: I asked Ibn ’Umar about shortening prayers. He said: “Are you a pilgrim, someone performing ’Umrah, or someone on a military expedition?” I said: “No, but one of us has an estate in al-Sawād.” He said: “Do you know al-Suwaydā?” I said: “I have heard of it but have not seen it.” He said: “It is three days and two nights and one night for someone hastening. When we set out to it, we shortened prayers.” ’Ali said: “From Medina to al-Suwaydā—: seventy-two miles, twenty-four farsakhs.” This is another narration.

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ الطَّائِيِّ عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ رَبِيعَةَ الْوَالِبِيِّ الْأَسَدِيِّ قَالَ: سَأَلْت ابْنَ عُمَرَ عَنْ تَقْصِيرِ الصَّلَاةِ؟ فَقَالَ: حَاجٌّ، أَوْ مُعْتَمِرٌ، أَوْ غَازٍ؟ قُلْت: لَا، وَلَكِنَّ أَحَدَنَا تَكُونُ لَهُ الضَّيْعَةُ بِالسَّوَادِ، فَقَالَ: تَعْرِفُ السُّوَيْدَاءَ؟ قُلْت: سَمِعْت بِهَا وَلَمْ أَرَهَا، قَالَ: فَإِنَّهَا ثَلَاثٌ وَلَيْلَتَانِ وَلَيْلَةٌ لِلْمُسْرِعِ، إذَا خَرَجْنَا إلَيْهَا قَصَرْنَا قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: مِنْ الْمَدِينَةِ إلَى السُّوَيْدَاءِ -: اثْنَانِ وَسَبْعُونَ مِيلًا، أَرْبَعَةٌ وَعِشْرُونَ فَرْسَخًا؟ فَهَذِهِ رِوَايَةٌ أُخْرَى عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ.

L8018 From the chain of Abd al-Razzaq via Isra’il via Ibrahim ibn Abd al-A’la, who said: I heard Suwayd ibn Ghaflah say: “When you travel three days, shorten the prayer?” From Abd al-Razzaq via Abu Hanifah and Sufyan al-Thawri - both from Hammad from Abu Sulayman from Ibrahim al-Nakhaʿī - that he spoke regarding the shortening of prayers. Abu Hanifah stated in his narration: “Three days’ travel,” while Sufyan stated in his narration: “To the vicinity of al-Mada’in,” meaning from Kufah - being approximately over sixty miles, neither exceeding sixty-three nor falling below sixty-one? Abu Hanifah takes both these criteria together.

L8019 And he explained the three as: the movement of feet, burdens, and camels. Sufyān al-Thawrī said: “There is no prayer shortening for less than a three-day journey,” and have we not found him specifying the three?

وَقَالَ فِي تَفْسِيرِ الثَّلَاثِ: سَيْرُ الْأَقْدَامِ وَالثِّقَلِ وَالْإِبِلِ وَقَالَ سُفْيَانُ الثَّوْرِيُّ: لَا قَصْرَ فِي أَقَلَّ مِنْ مَسِيرَةِ ثَلَاثٍ، وَلَمْ نَجِدْ عَنْهُ تَحْدِيدَ الثَّلَاثِ؟

L8020–8021 From Hammad ibn Abi Sulayman, from Sa’id ibn Jubayr regarding the shortening of prayers: [Is it valid] for a journey of three [units]? Through the chain of Al-Hajjaj ibn Al-Minhal: Yazid ibn Ibrahim narrated to us, saying: I heard Al-Hasan Al-Basri state: “The shortening of prayers does not apply for less than a journey spanning two nights." Through the chain of Waki' from Ar-Rabi' ibn Subayh from Al-Hasan: "Prayers are not shortened except for two nights." But we found no specification from him regarding the two nights? From Ma'mar from Qatadah from Al-Hasan similarly. He said: This is the position Qatadah adopts. From Sufyan Ath-Thawri from Yunus ibn 'Ubayd from Al-Hasan likewise, except he stated: "A journey of two days?" We found no clarification of the two days from Qatadah or Az-Zuhri. From Waki' from Sufyan Ath-Thawri from Mansur ibn Al-Mu'tamir from Mujahid from Ibn Abbas, who said: "If you travel for a day until Isha time, perform the complete prayer. If you extend beyond that, shorten it." Through Al-Hajjaj ibn Al-Minhal: Abu 'Awanah narrated to us from Mansur—ibn Al-Mu'tamir—from Mujahid from Ibn Abbas, who said: "A traveler does not shorten prayers for a journey lasting a day until Isha time, unless the journey is longer than that."

L8022 This is among the matters subject to differing reports from Ibn ʿAbbās. From the narration of Wakīʿ on the authority of Hishām ibn al-Ghāzī Rabīʿah al-Jurashī on the authority of ʿAṭāʾ ibn Abī Rabāḥ: I said to Ibn ʿAbbās: "May I shorten prayers as far as ʿArafah?" He replied: "No, but to Ṭāʾif and ʿUsfān," which constitutes forty-eight Islamic miles. From Maʿmar: Ayyūb informed me on the authority of Nāfiʿ that Ibn ʿUmar used to shorten prayers when traveling four burd. This is among the matters subject to differing reports from Ibn ʿUmar, as previously mentioned. This is the position adopted by al-Layth and Mālik in the most well-known of Mālik's reports from him (Ibn ʿUmar).

L8023–8024 He said: If there is a land with no prescribed travel distance, then there is no shortening of prayers in less than a day and a night due to the hardship of travel. He said: This is the scenario I most prefer for shortening prayers.

L8025 He is reported to have said: "Prayer is not shortened except for a journey of forty-five miles or more." Another narration states: "Prayer is not shortened except for a journey of forty-two miles or more."

L8026 It is narrated from him: There is no shortening of prayers except for forty miles or more. It is also narrated from him by Ismāʿīl ibn Abī Uways: There تُقْصَرُ الصَّلَاةُ فِي أَقَلَّ مِنْ مَسِيرَةِ لَيْلَتَيْنِ؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ الرَّبِيعِ بْنِ صُبَيْحٍ عَنْ الْحَسَنِ: لَا تُقْصَرُ الصَّلَاةُ إِلَّا فِي لَيْلَتَيْنِ، وَلَمْ نَجِدْ عَنْهُ تَحْدِيدَ اللَّيْلَتَيْنِ؟ وَعَنْ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ الْحَسَنِ مِثْلُهُ، قَالَ: وَبِهِ يَأْخُذُ قَتَادَةُ وَعَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ يُونُسَ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ عَنْ الْحَسَنِ مِثْلُهُ، إِلَّا أَنَّهُ قَالَ: مَسِيرَةُ يَوْمَيْنِ؟ وَلَمْ نَجِدْ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ، وَلَا عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ: تَحْدِيدَ الْيَوْمَيْنِ وَعَنْ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ مَنْصُورِ بْنِ الْمُعْتَمِرِ عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ: إذَا سَافَرْت يَوْمًا إلَى الْعِشَاءِ فَأَتِمَّ، فَإِنْ زِدْت فَقَصْرٌ؟ وَعَنْ الْحَجَّاجِ بْنِ الْمِنْهَالِ: ثنا أَبُو عَوَانَةَ عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ هُوَ ابْنُ الْمُعْتَمِرِ - عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ: لَا يَقْصُرُ الْمُسَافِرُ عَنْ مَسِيرَةِ يَوْمٍ إلَى الْعَتَمَةِ، إلَّا فِي أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ذَلِكَ.

وَهَذَا مِمَّا اُخْتُلِفَ فِيهِ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ الْغَازِ رَبِيعَةَ الْجُرَشِيِّ عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ أَبِي رَبَاحٍ: قُلْت لِابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: أَقْصُرُ إلَى عَرَفَةَ؟ قَالَ: لَا، وَلَكِنْ إلَى الطَّائِفِ وَعُسْفَانَ، فَذَلِكَ ثَمَانِيَةٌ وَأَرْبَعُونَ مِيلًا وَعَنْ مَعْمَرٍ أَخْبَرَنِي أَيُّوبُ عَنْ نَافِعٍ: أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ يَقْصُرُ الصَّلَاةَ مَسِيرَةَ أَرْبَعَةِ بُرُدٍ؟ وَهَذَا مِمَّا اُخْتُلِفَ فِيهِ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ كَمَا ذَكَرْنَا؟ وَبِهَذَا يَأْخُذُ اللَّيْثُ، وَمَالِكٌ فِي أَشْهَرِ أَقْوَالِهِ عَنْهُ.

وَقَالَ: فَإِنْ كَانَتْ أَرْضٌ لَا أَمْيَالَ فِيهَا فَلَا - قَصْرَ فِي أَقَلَّ مِنْ يَوْمٍ وَلَيْلَةٍ لِلثِّقَلِ قَالَ: وَهَذَا أَحَبُّ مَا تُقْصَرُ فِيهِ الصَّلَاةُ إلَيَّ.

وَقَدْ ذُكِرَ عَنْهُ: لَا قَصْرَ إلَّا فِي خَمْسَةٍ وَأَرْبَعِينَ مِيلًا فَصَاعِدًا؟ وَرُوِيَ عَنْهُ: أَنَّهُ لَا قَصْرَ إلَّا فِي اثْنَيْنِ وَأَرْبَعِينَ مِيلًا فَصَاعِدًا.

is no shortening of prayers except for thirty-six miles or more. Ismāʿīl ibn Isḥāq al-Qāḍī mentioned these narrations from him in his renowned book al-Mabsuṭ.

وَرُوِيَ عَنْهُ: لَا قَصْرَ إِلَّا فِي أَرْبَعِينَ مِيلًا فَصَاعِدًا. وَرَوَى عَنْهُ إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ أَبِي أُوَيْسٍ: لَا قَصْرَ إِلَّا فِي سِتَّةٍ وَثَلَاثِينَ مِيلًا فَصَاعِدًا - ذَكَرَ هَذِهِ الرِّوَايَاتِ عَنْهُ: إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ إِسْحَاقَ الْقَاضِي فِي كِتَابِهِ الْمَعْرُوفِ بِالْمَبْسُوطِ.

L8027 He ruled that the people of Mecca—specifically during Hajj—should shorten their prayers (qasr) when traveling to Mina and locations beyond it, a distance of four Islamic miles (approximately 6.4 kilometers).

وَرَأَى لِأَهْلِ مَكَّةَ خَاصَّةً فِي الْحَجِّ خَاصَّةً -: أَنْ يَقْصُرُوا الصَّلَاةَ إِلَى مِنًى فَمَا فَوْقَهَا، وَهِيَ أَرْبَعَةُ أَمْيَالٍ.

L8028 Ibn al-Qasim narrated from him concerning one who traveled three miles—like shepherds and others—and interpreted [the law], then broke the fast during Ramadan? The one from whom he narrated said: Nothing is obligatory upon him except fulfilling the compensatory fast alone.

وَرَوَى عَنْهُ ابْنُ الْقَاسِمِ: أَنَّهُ قَالَ فِيمَنْ خَرَجَ ثَلَاثَةَ أَمْيَالٍ - كَالرِّعَاءِ وَغَيْرِهِمْ - فَتَأَوَّلَ فَأَفْطَرَ فِي رَمَضَانَ؟ فَلَا شَيْءَ عَلَيْهِ إِلَّا الْقَضَاءُ فَقَطْ

L8029 It has been reported to us from al-Shāfiʿī: There is no shortening [of prayers] for less than forty-six miles by the Hashimi mile. Here are also other opinions: as we have been narrated through the chain of Wakīʿ from Shuʿbah from Shubayl from Abī Jamrah al-Ḍubaʿī, who said: I asked Ibn ʿAbbās, "May I shorten prayers when going to al-Ubullah?" He responded, "Do you depart and return within a day?" I said, "Yes." He said, "No, unless it is a day that allows [for travel]." And from Sufyān ibn ʿUyaynah from ʿAmr ibn Dīnār from ʿAṭāʾ: I asked Ibn ʿAbbās, "May I shorten prayers when traveling to Minā or ʿArafāt?" He said, "No, but [when traveling] to al-Ṭāʾif, Jeddah, or ʿUsfān. If you reach where your grazing livestock or family are situated, then perform the full prayer." ʿAlī said: From ʿUsfān to Mecca via the broken path of al-Ḥulafāʾ is thirty-two miles.

وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ الشَّافِعِيِّ: لَا قَصْرَ فِي أَقَلَّ مِنْ سِتَّةٍ وَأَرْبَعِينَ مِيلًا بِالْهَاشِمِيِّ وَهَهُنَا أَقْوَالٌ أُخَرُ أَيْضًا -: كَمَا رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ شُبَيْلٍ عَنْ أَبِي جَمْرَةَ الضُّبَعِيِّ قَالَ: قُلْت لِابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: أَقْصُرُ إلَى الْأُبُلَّةِ؟ قَالَ: تَذْهَبُ وَتَجِيءُ فِي يَوْمٍ؟ قُلْت: نَعَمْ، قَالَ: لَا، إلَّا يَوْمٌ مُتَاحٌ؟ وَعَنْ سُفْيَانَ بْنِ عُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ، قُلْت لِابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: أَقْصُرُ إلَى مِنًى أَوْ عَرَفَةَ؟ قَالَ: لَا، وَلَكِنْ إلَى الطَّائِفِ، أَوْ جُدَّةَ، أَوْ عُسْفَانَ، فَإِذَا وَرَدْت عَلَى مَاشِيَةٍ لَك، أَوْ أَهْلٍ: فَأَتِمَّ الصَّلَاةَ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: مِنْ عُسْفَانَ إلَى مَكَّةَ بِتَكْسِيرِ الْحُلُفَاءِ اثْنَانِ وَثَلَاثُونَ مِيلًا.

L8030 The trusted sources informed us that the distance from Jeddah to Makkah is forty miles.

وَأَخْبَرَنَا الثِّقَاتُ أَنَّ مِنْ جُدَّةَ إلَى مَكَّةَ: أَرْبَعِينَ مِيلًا.

L8031–8032 Narrated by Waki', on the authority of Hishām ibn al-Ghāzz, from Nāfi', from Ibn 'Umar: "Prayer is not shortened except on a complete day." Narrated by Mālik, from Ibn Shihāb, from Sālim ibn 'Abd Allāh ibn 'Umar, that he traveled to Raym and shortened the prayer. 'Abd al-Razzāq said: "It is thirty miles from Medina."

وَعَنْ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ الْغَازِ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: لَا تُقْصَرُ الصَّلَاةُ إلَّا فِي يَوْمٍ تَامٍّ؟ وَعَنْ مَالِكٍ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّهُ سَافَرَ إلَى رِيمٍ فَقَصَرَ الصَّلَاةَ. قَالَ عَبْدُ الرَّزَّاقِ: وَهِيَ عَلَى ثَلَاثِينَ مِيلًا مِنْ الْمَدِينَةِ.

L8033 From ʻIkrimah: If you depart and spend the night away from your family, shorten the prayer. But if you reach your family, then complete the prayer. Al-Awzaʻi also holds this opinion, stating: There is no shortening except on a full day. We have not found any specification of the day from these authorities. Through Malik's chain from Nafiʻ from Ibn ʻUmar: He set out for Dhat al-Nusub. I used to travel the distance of a barid with Ibn ʻUmar, yet he would not shorten the prayer. ʻAbd al-Razzaq said: Dhat al-Nusub is eighteen miles from Medina.

L8034 Through the narration of Muḥammad ibn Jaʻfar: Shuʻbah narrated to us from Khubayb ibn ʻAbd al-Raḥmān from Ḥafṣ ibn ʻĀṣim ibn ʻUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb, who said: I went out with ʻAbdullāh ibn ʻUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb to Dhāt al-Nuṣub—located eighteen miles from Medina—and when he arrived there, did he shorten the prayer?

L8035 From the narration of Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah: Hushaym narrated to us, from Juwaybir, from Al-Dahhak, from Al-Nazzal ibn Sabrah: That Ali ibn Abi Talib went out to Al-Nukhaylah and prayed Dhuhr there as two rak'ahs, and Asr as two rak'ahs, then returned that very day, saying: "I wanted to teach you the Sunnah of your Prophet—may Allah bless him and grant him peace."

L8036–8038 From the narration of Waki': Ḥammād ibn Zayd narrated to us from Anas ibn Sīrīn, who said: I went out with Anas ibn Mālik to his land in Badhq Sīrīn - which lies at a distance of five leagues - where he led us in the ʻAṣr prayer aboard a ship moving with us along the Tigris River. Sitting on a mat, he prayed two rakʻahs with us, then concluded the prayer? Then he prayed another two rakʻahs with us and concluded the prayer. From the narration of Al-Bazzāz: Muḥammad ibn Al-Muthannā narrated to us from ʻAbdur-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī from Shuʻbah from Yazīd ibn Khumayr from Ḥabīb ibn ʻUbayd from Jubayr ibn Nufayr from Ibn As-Simṭ - he is Shuraḥbīl - that he He came to a land called "Dawmat"—located a dozen or so miles from Homs—and prayed two rak'ahs. I said to him, "Are you praying two rak'ahs?" He replied, "I saw 'Umar pray two rak'ahs at Dhu al-Hulayfah, and he said, 'I do as I saw the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—doing.'"

L8039 From Muhammad ibn Bashshar: Muhammad ibn Abi Adiy narrated to us, Shu‘bah narrated to us from Yazid ibn Khumayr from Habib ibn ‘Ubayd from Jubayr ibn Nufayr, who said: Ibn al-Simt—who is Shurahbil—went out to a land called “Dawmīn,” thirteen miles from Homs, and he would shorten the prayer. He said: “I saw ‘Umar ibn al-Khattab pray two rak‘ahs at Dhu al-Hulayfah, so I asked him. He replied: ’I do as I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) do.”’ We also narrated it through Muslim’s chain reaching Shurahbil, who narrates from Ibn ‘Umar.

وَعَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ بَشَّارٍ: ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ أَبِي عَدِيٍّ ثنا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ خُمَيْرٍ عَنْ حَبِيبِ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ عَنْ جُبَيْرِ بْنِ نُفَيْرٍ قَالَ: خَرَجَ ابْنُ السِّمْطِ هُوَ شُرَحْبِيلُ - إِلَى أَرْضٍ يُقَالُ لَهَا " دَوْمِينُ " - مِنْ حِمْصٍ عَلَى ثَلَاثَةَ عَشَرَ مِيلًا، فَكَانَ يَقْصُرُ الصَّلَاةَ، وَقَالَ: «رَأَيْتُ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ يُصَلِّي بِذِي الْحُلَيْفَةِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ فَسَأَلْتُهُ؟ فَقَالَ: أَفْعَلُ كَمَا رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَفْعَلُ» . وَرُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ مُسْلِمٍ أَيْضًا بِإِسْنَادِهِ إِلَى شُرَحْبِيلَ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ.

L8040 Ali said: If this were on the Hajj route, would he not have asked him—nor would I deny that?

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: لَوْ كَانَ هَذَا فِي طَرِيقِ الْحَجِّ لَمْ يَسْأَلْهُ وَلَا أُنْكِرُ ذَلِكَ؟

L8041 And from the narration of Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shaybah: Ismā‘īl ibn ‘Ulayyah narrated to us from al-Jurayrī from Abū al-Ward ibn Thumāmah from al-Lajlāj, who said: We would travel with ‘Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb three miles, whereupon he would perform the prayer concisely, break the fast, and shorten the prayer.

L8042 And through the chain of Muhammad ibn Bishar: Abu Amir al-Aqadi narrated to us, from Shubah, who said: I heard Muyassar ibn Imran ibn Umayr narrating from his father from his grandfather: that he went out with Abdullah ibn Masud—while riding behind him on his mule as a companion—on a journey of four farsakhs. He prayed the Dhuhr prayer as two rak’ahs and the Asr prayer as two rak’ahs.

L8043 Shu‘bah said: Muyassar ibn ‘Imrān informed me of this, and his father ‘Imrān ibn ‘Umayr was a witness. ‘Alī said: This ‘Umayr was the client of ‘Abdullāh ibn Mas‘ūd.

L8047 From the chain of Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah: Waki‘ narrated to us; Mis‘ar—he is Ibn Kidam—narrated to us, from Muharib ibn Dithar, who said: I heard Ibn ‘Umar say, “Indeed, I travel during a time of the day and shorten, meaning the prayer.”

L8050 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us through Ahmad ibn Fath, who narrated through Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa, who narrated through Ahmad ibn Muhammad, who narrated through Ahmad ibn Ali, who narrated through Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj, who narrated through Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah and Muhammad ibn Bashar - both narrating from Ghundar, who is Muhammad ibn Ja‘far - from Shu‘bah, from Yahya ibn Yazid al-Huna’i, who said: I asked Anas ibn Malik about shortening prayers. He responded: “Whenever Allah’s Messenger - peace and blessings be upon him - traveled three miles or three farsakhs” - Shu‘bah was uncertain [about the exact unit] - “he would pray two rak‘ahs.”

L8051 Ali said: It is not permissible for Anas, when questioned, to answer except with what he himself holds. And through the chain of Abu Dawud al-Sijistani: That Dihyah ibn Khalifah al-Kalbi broke his fast during travel from Fustat to a village three miles distant from it.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: لَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُجِيبَ أَنَسٌ إذَا سُئِلَ إلَّا بِمَا يَقُولُ بِهِ؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ أَبِي دَاوُد السِّجِسْتَانِيِّ: أَنَّ دِحْيَةَ بْنَ خَلِيفَةَ الْكَلْبِيَّ أَفْطَرَ فِي مَسِيرٍ لَهُ مِنْ الْفُسْطَاطِ إلَى قَرْيَةٍ عَلَى ثَلَاثَةِ أَمْيَالٍ مِنْهَا.

L8052 And through the chain of Muḥammad ibn Bashshār: Abū Dāwūd al-Ṭayālisī narrated to us, from Shuʿbah, from Qays ibn Muslim, from Saʿīd ibn Jubayr, who said: “I had land at a distance of two farsakhs, and I did not know whether to shorten the prayer to it or to complete it.”

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ بَشَّارٍ: ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد الطَّيَالِسِيُّ ثنا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ مُسْلِمٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ قَالَ: لَقَدْ كَانَتْ لِي أَرْضٌ عَلَى رَأْسِ فَرْسَخَيْنِ فَلَمْ أَدْرِ أَأَقْصُرُ الصَّلَاةَ إِلَيْهَا أَمْ أُتِمُّهَا؟

L8053–8054 And through the chain of Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah: Hatim ibn Ismaʿil narrated to us from ʿAbd al-Rahman ibn Harmalah, who said: I asked Saʿid ibn al-Musayyib: “Do I shorten the prayer and break the fast within a day’s journey from Medina?” He said: “Yes,” and this chain is as luminous as the sun. And through the chain of Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah: ʿAbd al-Rahman ibn Mahdi narrated to us from Zamʿah (he is ibn Salih) from ʿAmr ibn Dinar, from Abu al-Shaʿtha’ (he is Jabir ibn Zayd) who said: “Is the prayer shortened for a journey of six miles?” And through the chain of Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah: Wakiʿ narrated to us from Zakariyya ibn Abi Za’idah that he heard al-Shaʿbi say: “If I were to go out to the Monastery of the Foxes, would I shorten the prayer?” And from al-Qasim ibn Muhammad and Salim: They instructed a Meccan man to shorten the prayer from Mecca to Mina, without distinguishing between Hajj and other than it, nor between a Meccan and a non-Meccan.

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ أَبِي بَكْرِ بْنِ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: ثنا حَاتِمُ بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ حَرْمَلَةَ قَالَ: سَأَلْت سَعِيدَ بْنَ الْمُسَيِّبِ: أَأَقْصُرُ الصَّلَاةَ وَأُفْطِرُ فِي بَرِيدٍ مِنْ الْمَدِينَةِ؟ قَالَ: نَعَمْ، وَهَذَا إِسْنَادٌ كَالشَّمْسِ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ أَبِي بَكْرِ بْنِ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ ثنا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ مَهْدِيٍّ عَنْ زَمْعَةَ هُوَ ابْنُ صَالِحٍ - عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ عَنْ أَبِي الشَّعْثَاءِ هُوَ جَابِرُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ - قَالَ: يُقْصَرُ فِي مَسِيرَةِ سِتَّةِ أَمْيَالٍ؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ أَبِي بَكْرِ بْنِ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: ثنا وَكِيعٌ عَنْ زَكَرِيَّاءَ بْنِ أَبِي زَائِدَةَ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ الشَّعْبِيَّ يَقُولُ: لَوْ خَرَجْت إلَى دَيْرِ الثَّعَالِبِ لَقَصَرْت؟ وَعَنْ الْقَاسِمِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَسَالِمٍ: أَنَّهُمَا أَمَرَا رَجُلًا مَكِّيًّا بِالْقَصْرِ مِنْ مَكَّةَ إلَى مِنًى، وَلَمْ يَخُصَّا حَجًّا مِنْ غَيْرِهِ، وَلَا مَكِّيًّا مِنْ غَيْرِهِ.

L8055 It has been authentically reported from Kulthūm ibn Hāni’, ʿAbdullāh ibn Muḥayriz, and Qabīṣah ibn Dhu’ayb that shortening the four-rakʿah prayers is permissible for a distance of thirteen to nineteen miles.

وَصَحَّ عَنْ كُلْثُومِ بْنِ هَانِئٍ، وَعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مُحَيْرِيزٍ، وَقَبِيصَةِ بْنِ ذُؤَيْبٍ: الْقَصْرُ فِي بِضْعَةَ عَشَرَ مِيلًا.

L8056 We affirm all this, and so do our companions regarding travel: if it is a mile or more for Hajj, Umrah, jihad, or breaking the fast in every journey. Ali said: He understood this from the Companions we have cited—Umar ibn al-Khattab, Ali ibn Abi Talib, Dihyah ibn Khalifah, Abdullah ibn Masʿud, Ibn Umar, Anas, and Shurahbil ibn as-Simt.

L8057 And among the Followers, known as the Tabiʿīn: Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib, Al-Shaʿbī, Jābir ibn Zayd, Al-Qāsim ibn Muḥammad, Sālim ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn ʿUmar, Qabīṣah ibn Dhuʾayb, ʿAbd Allāh ibn Muḥayriz, Kulthūm ibn Hāniʾ, Anas ibn Sīrīn, and others.

وَمِنْ التَّابِعِينَ: سَعِيدُ بْنُ الْمُسَيِّبِ، وَالشَّعْبِيُّ، وَجَابِرُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ، وَالْقَاسِمُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَسَالِمُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ، وَقَبِيصَةُ بْنُ ذُؤَيْبٍ، وَعَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُحَيْرِيزٍ، وَكُلْثُومُ بْنُ هَانِئٍ، وَأَنَسُ بْنُ سِيرِينَ، وَغَيْرُهُمْ.

L8058–8060 Sa'id ibn Jubayr hesitated regarding that matter. Among those who held this view is Mālik in some of his positions—as we previously mentioned from him concerning one who breaks the fast through interpretive reasoning—and regarding the Meccan resident shortening prayers at Mina and Arafah. Ali remarked: "We meticulously scrutinized the narrations in these chapters because we observed the Mālikīs and Shāfiʿīs attempting to assert claims of consensus over their rulings." Rather, a prominent figure among these and another prominent figure among these have assailed that position.

L8061 One of them said: "I have not found anyone who held a position less than shortening (qasr) in what we have stated. Thus, it constitutes consensus." The other said: "Our position aligns with the view of Ibn Abbas and Ibn Umar, with no dissent among the Companions. We sought reward by dispelling the falsehood attributed to them from those misled by it, citing only widely recognized narrations evident to scholars of transmission – those found in circulated books even among the youngest students of hadith. How then could it be obscure to established scholars? All praise belongs to Allah, Lord of the worlds."

فَقَالَ أَحَدُهُمَا: لَمْ أَجِدْ أَحَدًا قَالَ بِأَقَلَّ مِنْ - الْقَصْرِ فِيمَا قُلْنَا بِهِ، فَهُوَ إِجْمَاعٌ وَقَالَ الْآخَرُ: قَوْلُنَا هُوَ قَوْلُ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ وَابْنِ عُمَرَ، وَلَا مُخَالِفَ لَهُمَا مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ فَاحْتَسَبْنَا الْأَجْرَ فِي إِزَالَةِ ظُلْمَةِ كَذِبِهِمَا عَنْ الْمُغْتَرِّ بِهِمَا، وَلَمْ نُورِدْ إِلَّا رِوَايَةً مَشْهُورَةً ظَاهِرَةً عِنْدَ الْعُلَمَاءِ بِالنَّقْلِ، وَفِي الْكُتُبِ الْمُتَدَاوَلَةِ عِنْدَ صِبْيَانِ الْمُحَدِّثِينَ، فَكَيْفَ أَهْلُ الْعِلْمِ؟ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ.

L8062 Ali said: As for those who have specified the distance requiring prayer shortening during travel—whether measured as journeys between horizons, provisions carried with waterskins, or quantified as ninety-six miles, eighty-two miles, seventy-two miles, sixty-three miles, sixty-one miles, forty-eight miles, forty-five miles, forty miles, or thirty-six miles—they have no proof at all nor any basis, neither from the Quran, nor from an authentic or weak hadith, nor from consensus, analogy, sound reasoning, nor even from a Companion's opinion with none among them opposing him. Since this is so, such claims deserve no consideration. We then ask those who restrict prayer shortening and exemption from fasting to any of these measures: Which specific mile do they mean? We then progressively reduce this mile—by knots, intervals, or handspans—continually diminishing it. They must either impose arbitrary rulings in religion or abandon their position. Thus, all these assertions collapse entirely, and all praise belongs to Allah, Lord of the worlds?

L8063–8064 Nor do they have any valid basis for reliance on Ibn Abbas and Ibn Umar due to several considerations. One of these is that other Companions besides them—may Allah be pleased with them—disagreed with them.

وَالثَّانِي: أَنَّهُ لَيْسَ التَّحْدِيدُ بِالْأَمْيَالِ فِي ذَلِكَ مِنْ قَوْلِهِمَا، وَإِنَّمَا هُوَ مِنْ قَوْلِ مَنْ دُونَهُمَا.

L8065 The second is that the specification by miles in that matter is not from the opinion of the two of them, but rather from the opinion of others besides them.

وَالثَّالِثُ: أَنَّهُ قَدْ اُخْتُلِفَ عَنْهُمَا أَشَدُّ الِاخْتِلَافِ كَمَا أَوْرَدْنَا.

L8066 The third [point] is that the most severe degree of disagreement has arisen regarding them both, as we have presented.

فَرَوَى حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ، وَحُمَيْدٍ كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ نَافِعٍ، وَوَافَقَهُمَا ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ عَنْ نَافِعٍ: أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ لَا يَقْصُرُ فِي أَقَلَّ مِنْ سِتَّةٍ وَتِسْعِينَ مِيلًا وَرَوَى مَعْمَرٌ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ عَنْ نَافِعٍ: أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ يَقْصُرُ فِي أَرْبَعَةِ بُرُدٍ، وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ أَنَّهُ مَنَعَ مِنْ الْقَصْرِ فِي أَقَلَّ؟ وَرَوَى هِشَامُ بْنُ الْغَازِ عَنْ نَافِعٍ: أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ قَالَ: لَا يَقْصُرُ الصَّلَاةَ إلَّا فِي الْيَوْمِ التَّامِّ

L8067 Hammad ibn Salamah narrated from Ayyub al-Sakhtiyani and Humaid—both from Nafi‘—and Ibn Jurayj also narrated from Nafi‘, corroborating their account: that Ibn ‘Umar would not shorten prayers for less than ninety-six miles. Ma‘mar narrated from Ayyub from Nafi‘: that Ibn ‘Umar would shorten prayers in four burud, but did he mention prohibiting shortening for less? Hisham ibn al-Ghāzī narrated from Nafi‘: that Ibn ‘Umar said, “One should not shorten prayers except on a complete day.”

وَرَوَى مَالِكٌ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْهُ: أَنَّهُ لَا يُقْصَرُ فِي الْبَرِيدِ.

L8068 Mālik reported from Nāfiʿ, who narrated from him [Ibn ʿUmar], that prayer is not shortened within the distance of a barīd.

وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: ذَاتُ النُّصْبِ، وَرِيمٌ: كِلْتَاهُمَا مِنْ الْمَدِينَةِ عَلَى نَحْوِ أَرْبَعَةِ بُرُدٍ، وَرَوَى عَنْهُ عَلِيُّ بْنُ رَبِيعَةَ الْوَالِبِيُّ: لَا قَصْرَ فِي أَقَلَّ مِنْ اثْنَيْنِ وَسَبْعِينَ مِيلًا.

L8069 Mālik said: Dhāt al-Nuṣb and Rīm—both being located approximately four burud (a unit of distance) from Medina. ʿAlī ibn Rabīʿah al-Wālibī narrated from him that he said: There is no shortening of prayer for a journey less than seventy-two mil (Islamic miles).

وَرَوَى عَنْهُ ابْنُهُ سَالِمُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ - وَهُوَ أَجَلُّ مِنْ نَافِعٍ -: أَنَّهُ قَصَرَ إلَى ثَلَاثِينَ مِيلًا.

L8070 His son Salim ibn Abdullah—who is more eminent than Nafi‘—narrated from him that he shortened the prayer for a journey of thirty miles.

L8071 And it was narrated from him by his nephew Hafs ibn ʾAsim—who is more eminent than Nafi' and more knowledgeable about him—that he shortened prayers up to eighteen miles. And it was narrated from him by Shurahbil ibn al-Simt, Muhammad ibn Zayd ibn Khalda, Muharib ibn Dithar, and Jabala ibn Suhaym—all of whom are imams—that he shortened prayers within four miles, within three miles, within one mile, and in a journey of an hour's duration.

وَرَوَى عَنْهُ ابْنُ أَخِيهِ حَفْصُ بْنُ عَاصِمٍ - وَهُوَ أَجَلُّ مِنْ نَافِعٍ وَأَعْلَمُ بِهِ: أَنَّهُ قَصَرَ إِلَى ثَمَانِيَةَ عَشَرَ مِيلًا؟ وَرَوَى عَنْهُ شُرَحْبِيلُ بْنُ السِّمْطِ، وَمُحَمَّدُ بْنُ زَيْدِ بْنِ خَلْدَةَ، وَمُحَارِبُ بْنُ دِثَارٍ، وَجَبَلَةُ بْنُ سُحَيْمٍ - وَكُلُّهُمْ أَئِمَّةٌ -: الْقَصْرَ فِي أَرْبَعَةِ أَمْيَالٍ، وَفِي ثَلَاثَةِ أَمْيَالٍ، وَفِي مِيلٍ وَاحِدٍ، وَفِي سَفَرِ سَاعَةٍ.

L8072 The maximum distance of an hour's journey is between two and three miles.

وَأَقْصَى مَا يَكُونُ سَفَرُ السَّاعَةِ مِنْ مِيلَيْنِ إِلَى ثَلَاثَةٍ.

L8073 As for Ibn Abbas, Ata narrated from him: The shortening of prayers is permitted when traveling to Usfan, which is thirty-two Roman miles. If you arrive where there are people or livestock, then complete the prayer, and do not shorten prayers while traveling to Arafah or Mina.

وَأَمَّا ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ فَرَوَى عَنْهُ عَطَاءٌ: الْقَصْرَ إِلَى عُسْفَانَ، وَهِيَ اثْنَانِ وَثَلَاثُونَ مِيلًا، وَإِذَا وَرَدْت عَلَى أَهْلٍ أَوْ مَاشِيَةٍ فَأَتِمَّ، وَلَا تَقْصُرْ إِلَى عَرَفَةَ وَلَا مِنًى.

L8074–8075 Mujāhid narrated from him: There is no shortening [of prayers] on a day until the ʿAtamah prayer, but only in what exceeds that. Abū Jamrah al-Ḍubaʿī narrated from him: There is no shortening except on a day when travel is undertaken. Mālik contradicted him [the narrator] regarding his ruling that ʿAṭāʾ should not shorten prayers when traveling to Minā or ʿArafah, though ʿAṭāʾ was a Meccan. It is illogical for some of his statements to be considered authoritative while the majority of his opinions are not. Mālik and al-Shāfiʿī also opposed him in his ruling: If you arrive where your family or livestock reside, perform the prayer in full.

وَرَوَى عَنْهُ مُجَاهِدٌ: لَا قَصْرَ فِي يَوْمٍ إِلَى الْعَتَمَةِ، لَكِنْ فِيمَا زَادَ عَلَى ذَلِكَ وَرَوَى عَنْهُ أَبُو جَمْرَةَ الضُّبَعِيُّ: لَا قَصْرَ إِلَّا فِي يَوْمٍ مُتَاحٍ. وَقَدْ خَالَفَهُ مَالِكٌ فِي أَمْرِهِ عَطَاءً: أَنْ لَا يَقْصُرَ إِلَى مِنًى وَلَا إِلَى عَرَفَةَ، وَعَطَاءٌ مَكِّيٌّ، فَمِنْ الْبَاطِلِ أَنْ يَكُونَ بَعْضُ قَوْلِهِ حُجَّةً وَجُمْهُورُ قَوْلِهِ لَيْسَ حُجَّةً وَخَالَفَهُ أَيْضًا مَالِكٌ، وَالشَّافِعِيُّ فِي قَوْلِهِ: إذَا قَدِمْت عَلَى أَهْلٍ أَوْ مَاشِيَةٍ فَأَتِمَّ الصَّلَاةَ.

L8076 The opinions of Mālik and al-Shāfiʿī thus came to be outside the scope of definitively concluding that the specification originated from any of the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—nor was there any clear evidence from any of the Successors that they defined what entails shortening in that manner.

فَحَصَلَ قَوْلُ مَالِكٍ، وَالشَّافِعِيِّ: خَارِجًا عَنْ أَنْ يَقْطَعَ بِأَنَّهُ تَحْدِيدُ أَحَدٍ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -، وَلَا وُجِدَ بَيِّنًا عَنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ التَّابِعِينَ أَنَّهُ حَدَّ مَا فِيهِ الْقَصْرُ بِذَلِكَ.

L8077 And perhaps the specification—mentioned in the ḥadīth of Ibn ʿAbbās—excludes ʿAṭāʾ, referring specifically to Hishām ibn Rabīʿah.

L8078 The narration of Nāfiʿ from Ibn ʿUmar does not state that he prohibited shortening prayers in less than four burud [a traditional distance unit of approximately 12-16 km]. Thus, the opinions of those who defined that limit using the specified miles are conclusively nullified, and success is with Allah, the Exalted.

L8079 Then we returned to the opinion of those who set the limit at three days except with a mahram, two days except with a mahram, a day with something extra except with a mahram, a complete day except with a mahram, or a day and a night except with a mahram. We found no foundational basis for those who set it at a day with an added portion, so this opinion was discarded. We then examined the remaining opinions and found no basis for them except the authentic hadith from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) through narrations transmitted by Abū Saʿīd al-Khudrī, Abū Hurayrah, and Ibn ʿUmar regarding "the prohibition against a woman traveling." In some narrations it states three days except with a mahram, in others two nights except with a mahram, in others a day and a night except with a mahram, and in others a day except with a mahram.

L8080–8081 So, has every group we mentioned relied [on an opinion]? As for those who relied on two nights or a day and a night—they have no basis whatsoever because the hadith specifies one day and three days. Thus, there is no reason to rely on two days or a day and a night instead of these other two numbers [of days].

L8082–8084 The only possible dispute here would be to base an argument on the greater number mentioned in that hadith or the lesser number cited within it. As for relying on a quantity explicitly stated in the text as being either less or more than what is mentioned, there is absolutely no basis for this. Thus, these two opinions are also invalidated. We then considered the view of those who based their argument on three or the day. Now, among the arguments of those who based their position on the day was their statement: "It is the least amount mentioned in that hadith," thereby establishing it as the defining limit for travel, such that what falls below it differs from it. It is therefore obligatory that this be the limit for that which is shortened. They said: "Whoever adopted our limit has implemented the rulings for two

L8085 Ali said: So we said to them: Bring something. If your reliance is only on the day—because it is the shortest duration mentioned in the hadith—then it is not as you claimed, for you were either ignorant or acted deliberately. This hadith was narrated by Bishr ibn al-Mufaḍḍal from Suhayl ibn Abī Ṣāliḥ from his father from Abū Hurayrah, who said: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to travel a day and night's journey unless accompanied by her mahram."

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَقُلْنَا لَهُمْ: تَأْتُوا بِشَيْءٍ فَإِنْ كُنْتُمْ إِنَّمَا تَعَلَّقْتُمْ بِالْيَوْمِ، لِأَنَّهُ أَقَلُّ مَا ذُكِرَ فِي الْحَدِيثِ -: فَلَيْسَ كَمَا قُلْتُمْ، وَقَدْ جَهِلْتُمْ أَوْ تَعَمَّدْتُمْ فَإِنَّ هَذَا الْحَدِيثَ رَوَاهُ بِشْرُ بْنُ الْمُفَضَّلِ عَنْ سُهَيْلِ بْنِ أَبِي صَالِحٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «لَا يَحِلُّ لِامْرَأَةٍ تُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ أَنْ تُسَافِرَ يَوْمًا وَلَيْلَةً إِلَّا وَمَعَهَا ذُو مَحْرَمٍ مِنْهَا» ".

L8086 Mālik narrated it from Saʿīd ibn Abī Saʿīd al-Maqburī from his father from Abū Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: "It is unlawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to undertake a journey of a day and a night unless accompanied by a mahram."

وَرَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْمَقْبُرِيِّ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: «لَا يَحِلُّ لِامْرَأَةٍ تُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ تُسَافِرُ يَوْمًا وَلَيْلَةً إِلَّا مَعَ ذِي مَحْرَمٍ مِنْهَا» ".

L8087 And it was narrated by Al-Layth ibn Sa'd from Saʿīd ibn Abī Saʿīd al-Maqburī from his father: that Abu Hurayrah said: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "It is not lawful for a Muslim woman to travel a night's journey unless she is accompanied by a mahram relative of hers."

وَرَوَاهُ اللَّيْثُ بْنُ سَعْدٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْمَقْبُرِيِّ عَنْ أَبِيهِ: أَنَّ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «لَا يَحِلُّ لِامْرَأَةٍ مُسْلِمَةٍ تُسَافِرُ لَيْلَةً إِلَّا وَمَعَهَا رَجُلٌ ذُو حُرْمَةٍ مِنْهَا» .

L8088 It was narrated by Ibn Abi Dhi'b from Sa'id ibn Abi Sa'id al-Maqburī from his father from Abū Hurayrah from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to travel a day's journey unless accompanied by a mahram."[3]

L8089 It was narrated by Jarīr ibn Ḥāzim from Suhayl ibn Abī Ṣāliḥ from Saʿīd ibn Abī Saʿīd al-Maqburī from Abū Hurayrah, who said: The Messenger of [3] Hadith references (L8088): Sahih Muslim 1339b.

Allāh—peace and blessings of Allāh be upon him—mentioned the ḥadīth containing the phrase: "to travel a distance of one barīd (approximately twelve miles)." However, there is uncertainty whether Saʿīd actually met Abū Hurayrah and directly heard from him. The narrators disagreed regarding the chains of transmission from Abū Hurayrah, then from Saʿīd ibn Abī Saʿīd, and from Suhayl ibn Abī Ṣāliḥ, as we have cited.

L8090–8092 Ibn Abbas narrated this hadith without any inconsistency in it, nor was there disagreement from him - as Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us, who heard from Ahmad ibn Fath, who heard from Abdul-Wahhab ibn Isa, who heard from... Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us from Ahmad ibn Ali, from Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj, from Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah and Zuhayr ibn Harb (both of whom narrated from Sufyan ibn Uyaynah), from Amr ibn Dinar, from Abu Maʿbad (the freed slave of Ibn Abbas), who said: "I heard Ibn Abbas say: I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) say: 'A man must not seclude himself with a woman unless she has a mahram with her, and a woman must not travel except with a mahram.'"[4]

L8093 In his narration, Ibn Abbas encompassed every journey shorter than a day and shorter than a barīd, along with those exceeding both. Every journey, whether short or long, universally governs what is in all other hadiths, and all that exists in other hadiths forms a portion of what is contained in this narration of Ibn Abbas. Thus, it encompasses all of them and unifies them entirely. It is improper to extend beyond its rulings to other matters. Therefore, the argument of those who rely on the day is invalidated, and success is by Allah, the Exalted.

L8094 Then we examined the statement of those who defined that as three days and found them relying on the mention of three in this ḥadīth and on what is authentically reported from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—regarding his statement about wiping: "For the traveler, three days including their nights, and for the non-traveler, a day and a night." We found they did not bolster their argument with anything else whatsoever.

تُسَافِرَ بَرِيدًا " وَسَعِيدٌ أَدْرَكَ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ وَسَمِعَ مِنْهُ؟ فَاخْتَلَفَ الرُّوَاةُ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، ثُمَّ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ، وَعَنْ سُهَيْلِ بْنِ أَبِي صَالِحٍ كَمَا أَوْرَدْنَا.

[4] Hadith references (L8090): Sahih Muslim 1341a; Bulugh al-Maram 718; Riyad as-Salihin 990.

L8095 Ali said: They said, “Whoever adheres to the three is certain of correctness, because if he (peace be upon him) mentioned his prohibition against her traveling for three days before prohibiting her traveling for a day or less, then the narration that mentions the day is the one to be followed, while his prohibition against her traveling for three days remains unabrogated; indeed, firmly established as it was.”

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَقَالُوا: مَنْ تَعَلَّقَ بِالثَّلَاثِ كَانَ عَلَى يَقِينٍ مِنْ الصَّوَابِ، لِأَنَّهُ إنْ كَانَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - ذَكَرَ نَهْيَهُ عَنْ سَفَرِهَا ثَلَاثًا قَبْلَ نَهْيِهِ عَنْ سَفَرِهَا يَوْمًا أَوْ أَقَلَّ مِنْ يَوْمٍ -: فَالْخَبَرُ الَّذِي ذُكِرَ فِيهِ الْيَوْمُ هُوَ الْوَاجِبُ أَنْ يُعْمَلَ بِهِ، وَيَبْقَى نَهْيُهُ عَنْ سَفَرِهَا ثَلَاثًا غَيْرَ مَنْسُوخٍ، بَلْ ثَابِتٌ كَمَا كَانَ.

L8096–8098 If it is mentioned that he prohibited her from traveling for three days after prohibiting her from traveling for a day or less, then is his prohibition of traveling for three days the abrogating ruling that supersedes his prohibition of her traveling for less than three days? They said: We are certain of the validity of prohibiting her from traveling for three days unless she is with a mahram, but we doubt the validity of prohibiting her from traveling for less than three days. Thus, it is impermissible to abandon certainty for doubt. Ali said: This is specious reasoning – corrupt in three aspects: One of them is that a prohibition has been established against traveling for more than three days (and nights).

وَإِنْ كَانَ ذُكِرَ نَهْيُهُ عَنْ سَفَرِهَا ثَلَاثًا بَعْدَ نَهْيِهِ عَنْ سَفَرِهَا يَوْمًا أَوْ أَقَلَّ مِنْ يَوْمٍ -: فَنَهْيُهُ عَنْ السَّفَرِ ثَلَاثًا هُوَ النَّاسِخُ لِنَهْيِهِ إيَّاهَا عَنْ السَّفَرِ أَقَلَّ مِنْ ثَلَاثٍ؟ قَالُوا: فَنَحْنُ عَلَى يَقِينٍ مِنْ صِحَّةِ حُكْمِ النَّهْيِ عَنْ السَّفَرِ ثَلَاثًا إلَّا مَعَ ذِي مَحْرَمٍ وَعَلَى شَكٍّ مِنْ صِحَّةِ النَّهْيِ لَهَا عَمَّا دُونَ الثَّلَاثِ، فَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُتْرَكَ الْيَقِينُ لِلشَّكِّ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا تَمْوِيهٌ فَاسِدٌ مِنْ وُجُوهٍ ثَلَاثَةٍ -: أَحَدُهَا: أَنَّهُ قَدْ جَاءَ النَّهْيُ أَنْ تُسَافِرَ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ثَلَاثٍ.

L8099 It has been narrated to us through numerous chains of the highest authenticity from Ubayd Allah ibn Umar, from Nāfi‘, from Ibn Umar, who reported: The Messenger of Allah - may Allah’s peace and blessings be upon him - said: “A woman shall not travel beyond three except accompanied by a mahram.”

رُوِّينَا ذَلِكَ مِنْ طُرُقٍ كَثِيرَةٍ فِي غَايَةِ الصِّحَّةِ عَنْ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «لَا تُسَافِرُ الْمَرْأَةُ فَوْقَ ثَلَاثٍ إلَّا وَمَعَهَا ذُو مَحْرَمٍ» .

L8100 Narrated by Qatadah from Qazaʿah from Abu Sa’id al-Khudri that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: “A woman must not travel for more than three nights unless accompanied by a mahram.”

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ قَزَعَةَ عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: «لَا تُسَافِرُ الْمَرْأَةُ فَوْقَ ثَلَاثِ لَيَالٍ إلَّا مَعَ ذِي مَحْرَمٍ» .

L8101 Through the chain of Abu Mu’awiyah and Waki’, from al-A’mash, from Abu Salih al-Sammān, from Abu Sa’id al-Khudri, who said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: It is not permissible for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to undertake a journey exceeding three days or more unless she is accompanied by her brother, father, husband, son, or a mahram from her relatives.

L8102 If the mention of three in some narrations excludes what is less than three—which has also been mentioned in some narrations regarding the ruling of three—then the mention of what exceeds three in these narrations would also exclude three, even if three is mentioned in some narrations concerning the ruling of what exceeds three. Otherwise, are the people merely playing games, arbitrarily enforcing invalid rulings? They would be obliged to claim they are certain of the validity of the ruling concerning what exceeds three and its remaining non-abrogated, while doubting the validity of maintaining the prohibition against three—just as they equated three and what is below it as utterly equivalent, with no distinction whatsoever. They said: "No one has ever distinguished between three and what exceeds three." It was then replied to them: "You have asserted something invalid. It is authentically established from ʿIkrimah that the travel limit a woman may undertake applies to more than three, not three."

L8103–8105 How could this be? For it is invalid to regard a statement—uttered by two Followers and two jurists from the major cities, about which there was disagreement concerning a position held by one Companion while other Companions opposed his view—as constituting a consensus unless... What of one who has neither religion nor shame? How then? Since it has been reported from Ibn Umar that he counted seventy-two miles to Al-Suwayda as a three-day journey, his stipulation—as narrated from him—that no shortening of prayers is permitted for journeys shorter than ninety-six miles implies that this exceeds three days. For there is a difference of twenty-four miles between the two numbers, and it is impossible for both these numbers to correspond to three equal days.

L8106 The second aspect is that this opinion is contradicted by the view of those who set the limit at one day. They argue: We are certain of the validity of our application of his prohibition—peace be upon him—against her traveling a day without a non-mahram and her prohibition from more than that. For whether the prohibition on her traveling three days was the first or the last, she is also prohibited from the day. Delaying the prohibition on her traveling three days does not abrogate his earlier prohibition—peace be upon him—against what is less than three days. You are certain of violating his prohibition—peace be upon him—against her traveling less than three days, and opposing his command—peace be upon him—without certainty of abrogation is impermissible. Thus, the two opinions conflict. The third aspect is that the ḥadīth of Ibn ʿAbbās, which we mentioned, is decisive over all these narrations, and all of them are part of its content. Is it not impermissible to contradict what is in it fundamentally? For whoever acts upon it has acted upon all the mentioned narrations, and whoever acts upon any of those narrations—excluding the others—has opposed the prohibition of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—and this is not permissible.

السَّلَامُ - لَهَا عَمَّا دُونَ الثَّلَاثِ، وَخِلَافُ أَمْرِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِغَيْرِ يَقِينٍ لِلنَّسْخِ لَا يَحِلُّ، فَتَعَارَضَ الْقَوْلَانِ وَالثَّالِثُ: أَنَّ حَدِيثَ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ الَّذِي ذَكَرْنَا: قَاضٍ عَلَى جَمِيعِ هَذِهِ الْأَحَادِيثِ، وَكُلُّهَا بَعْضُ مَا فِيهِ، فَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُخَالَفَ مَا فِيهِ أَصْلًا؟ لِأَنَّ مَنْ عَمِلَ بِهِ فَقَدْ عَمِلَ بِجَمِيعِ الْأَحَادِيثِ الْمَذْكُورَةِ، وَمَنْ عَمِلَ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ تِلْكَ الْأَحَادِيثِ - دُونَ سَائِرِهَا - فَقَدْ خَالَفَ نَهْيَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -، وَهَذَا لَا يَجُوزُ؟

L8107 Ali said: Then, even if the narrations do not conflict, there is nothing in the hadith prohibiting a woman from traveling for any duration except with a mahram, nor in the hadith concerning the duration for wiping over khuffs for travelers and residents—no mention exists at all, neither by explicit text nor by derived evidence—regarding the duration in which one shortens prayers and breaks the fast, nor does one shorten prayers or break the fast in a period shorter than that duration.

L8108 It is remarkable that Allah, the Exalted, mentioned the shortening of prayers during travel in times of fear.

وَمِنْ الْعَجَبِ أَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى -: ذَكَرَ الْقَصْرَ فِي الضَّرْبِ فِي الْأَرْضِ مَعَ الْخَوْفِ.

L8109–8111 He mentioned breaking the fast during travel and illness, and dry ablution when water is unavailable during travel and illness: They made these rulings—the prohibition of a woman from traveling without a mahram and the ruling on the traveler's wiping during ablution—as evidence for matters requiring prayer shortening and fast-breaking, as opposed to what necessitates neither shortening nor breaking. Did they not consider this a basis to distinguish travel requiring tayammum from travel not requiring it? If they argue: "We analogized cases where prayer is shortened and where it is not to situations where a woman travels without a mahram versus with one, and to what a resident must wipe over versus what he need not," we counter: "Why this approach? What common legal cause (ʿillah) unites these two matters, or what resemblance exists between them? Why did you not analogize the duration which—if a traveler intends to reside for it—requires him to offer full prayers during it? Can anyone not arbitrarily analogize one ruling to another based on opinion? Why did you not analogize cases requiring prayer shortening to those not requiring tayammum? This would be more valid if analogy holds—or to your allowance for riders to perform voluntary (nafl) prayers atop their mounts?"

ثُمَّ نَقُولُ لَهُمْ: أَخْبِرُونَا عَنْ قَوْلِكُمْ: إِنْ سَافَرَ ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ قَصَرَ وَأَفْطَرَ، وَإِنْ سَافَرَ أَقَلَّ لَمْ يَقْصُرْ وَلَمْ يُفْطِرْ -: مَا هَذِهِ الثَّلَاثَةُ الْأَيَّامُ؟ أَمِنْ أَيَّامِ حُزَيْرَانَ؟ أَمْ مِنْ أَيَّامِ كَانُونَ الْأَوَّلِ فَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا؟ وَهَذِهِ الْأَيَّامُ الَّتِي قُلْتُمْ، أَسَيْرُ الْعَسَاكِرِ؟ أَمْ سَيْرُ الرِّفَاقِ عَلَى الْإِبِلِ، أَوْ عَلَى الْحَمِيرِ، أَوْ عَلَى الْبِغَالِ، أَمْ سَيْرُ الرَّاكِبِ الْمُجِدِّ؟ أَمْ سَيْرُ الْبَرِيدِ؟ أَمْ مَشْيُ الرَّجَّالَةِ.

L8112 Then we say to them: Inform us about your statement that if one travels three days, he shortens prayers and breaks the fast, and if he travels less, he does not shorten prayers nor break the fast. What are these three days? Are they from the days of Huzayran, or the days of Kanun al-Awwal, or what lies between them? And these days you specified—are they the travel of armies, the travel of caravans on camels, donkeys, or mules, the travel of a diligent rider, the travel of couriers, or the walking of foot travelers?

L8113–8115 We know with certainty that the walking of an elderly weak pedestrian through mud and rugged terrain, or in intense heat, differs from the riding of one mounted on a capable mule during spring on level ground, and that this one walks in one day what the other cannot walk in ten days. Inform us about these days: How are they? Is the walking from daybreak until nightfall? Or until the time of Asr, or slightly after that, or slightly before? Or does it encompass day and night together? Explain this to us. Inform us: How did you set these days as sixty-three miles with twenty-one miles each day? Why did you not set them as seventy-two miles with twenty-four miles each day? Or thirty-two miles each day? Or twenty miles each day? Or thirty-five miles each day? Or what is between that? Travelers traverse all these distances, and they cannot specify any part of what we have mentioned (to the exclusion of the rest) except through an invalid personal opinion.

وَهَكَذَا يُقَالُ لِمَنْ قَدَّرَ ذَلِكَ بِيَوْمٍ، أَوْ بِلَيْلَةٍ، أَوْ بِيَوْمٍ، أَوْ بِيَوْمَيْنِ، وَلَا فَرْقَ؟ فَإِنْ قَالُوا: هَذَا الِاعْتِرَاضُ يَلْزَمُكُمْ أَنْ تُدْخِلُوهُ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي أَمْرِهِ الْمَرْأَةَ أَنْ لَا تُسَافِرَ ثَلَاثًا أَوْ لَيْلَتَيْنِ، أَوْ يَوْمًا وَلَيْلَةً أَوْ يَوْمًا إِلَّا مَعَ ذِي مَحْرَمٍ، وَفِي تَحْدِيدِهِ - عَلَيْهِ

L8116 And likewise, it is said to those who define this as a day, a night, a day, or two days—is there no distinction? If they argue: "Does this objection compel you to apply it to the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—regarding his ruling that a woman must not travel three days, two nights, a day and night, or a day except with a mahram, and his stipulation—peace be upon him—of the traveler's concession of wiping [over footwear] for three days and the resident's [limit] for a day and night?" We reply—granting no honor to whoever among you asserts this—: "Rather, the difference between the stipulation of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—and your stipulation is immense. This is because you have not linked the days you set as a limit for what necessitates prayer shortening or breaking the fast—or the day and night similarly, which some of you have designated as a limit—to the traveler's journey for which shortening prayers is ordained within that measure. Instead, every faction among you has set a territorial distance limit, with no reduction, for you unanimously agree that one who walks three days—each day covering eighteen or twenty miles—does not qualify for prayer shortening. Yet if someone walks thirty miles in a day and night, he is not obligated to shorten prayers."

السَّلَامُ - مَسْحَ الْمُسَافِرِ ثَلَاثًا وَالْمُقِيمِ يَوْمًا وَلَيْلَةً؟ قُلْنَا - وَلَا كَرَامَةَ لِقَائِلِ هَذَا مِنْكُمْ -: بَلْ بَيْنَ تَحْدِيدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَتَحْدِيدِكُمْ أَعْظَمُ الْفَرْقِ، وَهُوَ أَنَّكُمْ لَمْ تَكِلُوا الْأَيَّامَ الَّتِي جَعَلْتُمُوهَا - حَدًّا لِمَا يَقْصُرُ فِيهِ وَمَا يُفْطِرُ، أَوْ الْيَوْمُ وَاللَّيْلَةُ كَذَلِكَ، الَّتِي جَعَلَهَا مِنْكُمْ مَنْ جَعَلَهَا حَدًّا -: إلَى مَشْيِ الْمُسَافِرِ الْمَأْمُورِ بِالْقَصْرِ أَوْ الْفِطْرِ فِي ذَلِكَ الْمِقْدَارِ؟ بَلْ كُلُّ طَائِفَةٍ مِنْكُمْ جَعَلَتْ لِذَلِكَ حَدًّا مِنْ مَسَاحَةِ الْأَرْضِ لَا يَنْقُصُ مِنْهَا شَيْءٌ، لِأَنَّكُمْ مُجْمِعُونَ عَلَى أَنَّ مَنْ مَشَى ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ ثَمَانِيَةَ عَشَرَ مِيلًا، أَوْ عِشْرِينَ مِيلًا لَا يَقْصُرُ، فَإِنْ مَشَى يَوْمًا وَلَيْلَةً ثَلَاثِينَ مِيلًا فَإِنَّهُ لَا يَقْصُرُ.

L8117 You have agreed that whoever walks three days, each day a barīd without any reason, or combines that walking into a single day, does not shorten the prayer? And you, O obfuscators who cite the three nights in the two ḥadīths, have agreed that if one walks sixty-three mīl within his day, he shortens the prayer and breaks the fast.

L8118 Even if one does not travel except for part of a day – and this is very possible, indeed common among people – the command of the Messenger of Allah – peace be upon him – is not the same for a woman: she may not travel three days or a day unless accompanied by a _mahram_.

L8119 His command—peace be upon him—to the traveler is to wipe (masḥ) for three days including their nights, then to remove them, because these days are left to the circumstances of the traveler and female traveler, in accordance with the general scope of his statement—peace be upon him—for had he intended something else, he would have clarified it to his Ummah.

وَأَمْرُهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - الْمُسَافِرَ ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ بِلَيَالِيهِنَّ بِالْمَسْحِ ثُمَّ يَخْلَعُ، لِأَنَّ هَذِهِ الْأَيَّامَ مَوْكُولَةٌ إلَى حَالَةِ الْمُسَافِرِ وَالْمُسَافِرَةِ، عَلَى عُمُومِ قَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - الَّذِي لَوْ أَرَادَ غَيْرَهُ لَبَيَّنَهُ لِأُمَّتِهِ.

L8120 If a woman traveling intends to journey a mile or more, it would not be permissible for her to depart without a mahram, except in cases of necessity?

فَلَوْ أَنَّ مُسَافِرَةً خَرَجَتْ تُرِيدُ سَفَرَ مِيلٍ فَصَاعِدًا لَمْ يَجُزْ لَهَا أَنْ تَخْرُجَهُ إلَّا مَعَ ذِي مَحْرَمٍ إلَّا لِضَرُورَةٍ؟

L8121–8122 If a traveler were to undertake a journey of three miles, walking one mile daily, would he be permitted to wipe? And if he traveled one day, stayed the next, and traveled a third day, he would be permitted to wipe for the three days as they are.

وَلَوْ أَنَّ مُسَافِرًا سَافَرَ سَفَرًا يَكُونُ ثَلَاثَةَ أَمْيَالٍ يَمْشِي فِي كُلِّ يَوْمٍ مِيلًا لَكَانَ لَهُ أَنْ يَمْسَحَ؟ وَلَوْ سَافَرَ يَوْمًا وَأَقَامَ آخَرَ وَسَافَرَ ثَالِثًا لَكَانَ لَهُ أَنْ يَمْسَحَ الْأَيَّامَ الثَّلَاثَةَ كَمَا هِيَ.

L8123 Even if nothing had been reported from him—peace be upon him—except the report of three alone, the ruling would remain that if a woman travels on a journey the measure of her capacity in it being that she cannot walk except two or three miles of her daytime, it would not be permissible for her except with a maḥram.

وَحَتَّى لَوْ لَمْ يَأْتِ عَنْهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - إلَّا خَبَرُ الثَّلَاثِ فَقَطْ لَكَانَ الْقَوْلُ: أَنَّ الْمَرْأَةَ إنْ خَرَجَتْ فِي سَفَرٍ مِقْدَارَ قُوَّتِهَا فِيهِ أَنْ لَا تَمْشِيَ إلَّا مِيلَيْنِ مِنْ نَهَارِهَا أَوْ ثَلَاثَةً -: لَمَا حَلَّ، لَهَا إلَّا مَعَ ذِي مَحْرَمٍ.

L8124 If her strength allowed her to walk fifty miles (approximately 2 km each) every day, she would be permitted to travel a distance of one hundred miles with her mahram but not alone.

فَلَوْ كَانَ مِقْدَارُ قُوَّتِهَا أَنْ تَمْشِيَ خَمْسِينَ مِيلًا كُلَّ يَوْمٍ لَكَانَ لَهَا أَنْ تُسَافِرَ مَسَافَةَ مِائَةِ مِيلٍ مَعَ ذِي مَحْرَمٍ لَكِنْ وَحْدَهَا.

L8125 The definition established by him—peace be upon him—in these narrations is rational, comprehensible, and precise, not quantified by a confined land area, but by what inherently constitutes a three-day journey or a day's journey with no increase beyond that. What you have defined is entirely irrational, incomprehensible, and fundamentally imprecise by any measure, thus exposing the disparity between your claim and the statement of Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—and conclusively demonstrating the invalidity of all these assertions without ambiguity. They possess no foundation—not in the Quran, nor in any authentic or defective Sunnah, nor in consensus, analogy, rational deduction, nor even in the statement of a Companion whose own position is not self-contradicted—how then could others among them not contradict him? Such assertions are undoubtedly false, for all narrations transmitted from Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—are entirely true in their apparent meaning and implications. Whoever contradicts any part of them contradicts the truth—particularly Mālik's distinction between a Meccan departing to Minā or ʿArafah during Hajj (where he shortens prayers) and people from all other lands traveling the same distance without shortening prayers. This differentiation is unknown from any Companion or successor before him. Some of his adherents argued for it by stating: "This is solely because Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—said, 'O people of Mecca, complete your prayers, for we are travelers,' yet he did not say this regarding Minā."

L8126–8127 Ali said: This is not authentically established from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—at all. Rather, is it not preserved from Umar—may Allah be pleased with him? Even if it were authentic, it would not constitute proof for them. For by excluding the ruling for Mecca's residents at Mina from the general rulings of travel based on their stated reasoning, they would be obligated to require Mina's residents to shorten prayers both in Mina and Mecca. This is because the Prophet—peace be upon him—did not command Mina's residents: "Perform complete prayers." If they argue: "It is established that residents do not shorten prayers," we respond: "You speak truth. It is equally established that journeys treated as residence require full prayers. If the distance between Mecca and Mina were considered one of the two mentioned types of travel, would not this distance then apply uniformly across all Allah's lands without distinction? For by textual and rational criteria, there exists only 'travel' or 'residence'—no third category." Some later scholars attempted to define this by hardship. Ali said: We reject this as invalid, for hardship varies. We find those for whom walking three miles is so arduous they can scarcely endure it—a very common case, nearly predominant. Conversely, others ride in springtime litters for a month or more—comfortably attended, experiencing no hardship. Thus this quantitative definition fails. Ali said: Let us now state—with Allah's help and empowerment—to clarify the travel permitting shortened prayers and broken fasts. We declare—success comes from Allah the Exalted—as Allah Almighty says: "When you travel through the land, there is no blame upon you for shortening the prayers if you fear persecution from those who disbelieve" [4:101].[5]

L8128 Umar, Aisha, and Ibn Abbas said: "Allah the Exalted ordained the prayer on the tongue of His Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—as two rak'ahs during journey." Neither Allah the Exalted, nor His Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—nor all Muslims collectively specified any particular journey. Thus, no one may specify it except through scriptural evidence or an indisputable consensus. If it is said: "Rather, one neither shortens prayers nor breaks the fast except in a journey in which all Muslims have unanimously agreed to shorten and break the fast?"

L8129–8130 We said to them: "Do not shorten prayers nor break your fast except during pilgrimage, minor pilgrimage, or jihad," yet this is not your actual position. Had you asserted this, you would have restricted the Quran and the Sunnah without proof, thereby obligating yourselves in all other legal matters to derive nothing from them—neither by Quran nor by Sunnah—unless people unanimously agree upon what they have already agreed. This would dismantle all your juristic schools entirely. Rather, it constitutes rebellion against Islam and authorization to oppose Allah—Exalted is He—and His Messenger—peace be upon him—in the entirety of the religion, except until people unanimously agree on a matter. Yet this very stance is itself a departure from consensus. The truth lies in the obligation to adhere to the Quran and the Prophetic traditions until a valid text or consensus establishes that a specific aspect is specified or abrogated, at which point one adheres to what has been validated. For Allah—Exalted is He—sent His Prophet—peace be upon him—solely to be obeyed.

L8131 Allah the Exalted said: "We sent no messenger except to be obeyed by Allah's permission" [An-Nisā': 64]. Allah did not send him to be disobeyed until people unanimously obey him. Rather, obedience to him is obligatory before anyone obeys him.[6]

L8132 Before anyone opposed him—but when a ruling is issued—no Muslim would contradict this, until those who violated it did so. Travel (safar) is departing from one's place of residence, and similarly journeying through the land. No one among the people of the language—the one in which we are addressed and by which the Quran was revealed—contests this except him. Thus, it is impermissible to deviate from this ruling except where an authentic text explicitly exempts. Then we found the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—going out to Al-Baqīʿ to bury the dead, and going out to an open area to relieve himself while people were with him. They neither shortened their prayers nor broke their fasts, and neither did he. Thus, this act was excluded from being termed safar and from having the rulings of safar. Therefore, it is not permissible for us to apply the term safar or its rulings except to what those recognized as linguistic authorities have named as safar. We did not find this applicable to anything less than a mile.

L8133 It has been transmitted to us from Ibn ʿUmar that he said: "If I were to depart a mile, I would shorten the prayer." Therefore, we have established the term 'travel' and the ruling of travel pertaining to breaking the fast and shortening prayers to a distance of a mile and beyond, since we have not found any Arab linguist nor knowledgeable legal scholar who assigned the designation of 'travel' to anything less than this. This constitutes sound evidence—and success comes only from Allah, the Exalted.

L8134 If it is said: Why have you not established three miles—as [the distance] between Medina and Dhu'l-Hulayfah—as the limit for shortening prayers and breaking the fast, since you have found no evidence from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—that he shortened prayers or broke the fast in less than that?

L8135–8136 We said: And we did not find the Prophet—peace be upon him—prohibiting breaking the fast or shortening prayers in less than that. Rather, we found him—peace be upon him—to have been obligated by his Lord, the Exalted, to break the fast absolutely during travel, and to have established prayer during travel as two rakʿahs without restriction. Thus, what we have stated is confirmed—and all praise belongs to Allah, the Exalted.

L8137 The mile is what the Arabs designated as a mile, and it cannot amount to less than two thousand cubits? If it is said: "Had this remained unknown to Ibn Abbas, to Uthman, and to those among the Followers and jurists who were unaware of it," then it is from those matters through which the trial intensifies.

L8138 We said: ʿUmar, Ibn ʿUmar, Anas, and others among the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—and the Successors knew it.

L8139 Then we turn your argument back on you: We say to the Hanafis: Had your opinion in this matter been correct, it would not have been hidden from Uthmān, nor from Ibn Mas'ūd, nor from Ibn 'Abbās, nor from those who do not hold your opinion among the Companions, Followers, and jurists like Mālik, al-Layth, al-Awzā'ī, and others who do not acknowledge your view - especially regarding an issue involving such grave trial? And we say to the Malikis: Had your opinion been correct, it would not have been hidden from all those we mentioned among the Companions, Followers, and jurists - particularly concerning a matter of such grave trial? Yet this binding consequence applies to the mentioned schools, not to us, for they consider this consequence valid - and whoever establishes something becomes bound by it.

L8140 As for us, we do not validate this corrupt imposition; rather, in our view, it is whisperings and misguidance. It suffices us to follow what Allah, the Exalted, and His Messenger (peace be upon him) have said. Those who recognize it do so, and those who are ignorant of it remain so. There is no divine law disputed by people except that some of the Salaf knew it and affirmed it, while others were ignorant of it and did not affirm it. And success is from Allah, the Exalted.

وَأَمَّا نَحْنُ فَلَا نُحَقِّقُ هَذَا الْإِلْزَامَ الْفَاسِدَ بَلْ هُوَ عِنْدَنَا وَسْوَاسٌ وَضَلَالٌ، وَإِنَّمَا حَسْبُنَا اتِّبَاعُ مَا قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى وَرَسُولُهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -، عَرَفَهُ مَنْ عَرَفَهُ، وَجَهِلَهُ مَنْ جَهِلَهُ، وَمَا مِنْ شَرِيعَةٍ اخْتَلَفَ النَّاسُ فِيهَا إلَّا قَدْ عَلِمَهَا بَعْضُ السَّلَفِ وَقَالَ بِهَا، وَجَهِلَهَا بَعْضُهُمْ فَلَمْ يَقُلْ بِهَا - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ

L8141 Ali said: And some of them have presented a deceptive argument by saying: "What is astonishing is that the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—did not ask the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—about this significant ruling, which is the prescribed travel threshold wherein prayers are shortened and the fast is broken in Ramadan?"

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَقَدْ مَوَّهَ بَعْضُهُمْ بِأَنْ قَالَ: إنَّ مِنْ الْعَجَبِ تَرْكَ سُؤَالِ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - عَنْ هَذِهِ الْعَظِيمَةِ، وَهِيَ حَدُّ السَّفَرِ الَّذِي تُقْصَرُ فِيهِ الصَّلَاةُ وَيُفْطَرُ فِيهِ فِي رَمَضَانَ؟

L8142–8143 We said: This is the greatest proof, the most supreme evidence, and the clearest argument for anyone with even the slightest understanding and discernment - that there exists absolutely no defined limit for that matter except what is linguistically termed as "safar" in the Arabic language with which he - peace be upon him - addressed them. For had there been a specific measure for travel other than what we mentioned, he - peace be upon him - would never have entirely neglected to clarify it, nor would they have neglected to ask him - peace be upon him - about it, nor would they have agreed to abandon conveying its precise definition to us. Thus, the ambiguity is wholly dispelled - praise be to Allah - and it becomes manifest through this that all of them were satisfied with the clear textual ruling, and that whoever defines a specific limit for this matter is merely pursuing a delusion in which he erred. Ali said: Both groups have agreed that when one departs from the houses of the village intending either three days or four burd, he may shorten the prayer.

فَقُلْنَا: هَذَا أَعْظَمُ بُرْهَانٍ، وَأَجَلُّ دَلِيلٍ، وَأَوْضَحُ حُجَّةٍ لِكُلِّ مَنْ لَهُ أَدْنَى فَهْمٍ وَتَمْيِيزٍ -: عَلَى أَنَّهُ لَا حَدَّ لِذَلِكَ أَصْلًا إلَّا مَا سُمِّيَ سَفَرًا فِي لُغَةِ الْعَرَبِ الَّتِي بِهَا خَاطَبَهُمْ - عَلَيْهِ

السَّلَامُ -، إذْ لَوْ كَانَ لِمِقْدَارِ السَّفَرِ حَدٌّ غَيْرُ مَا ذَكَرْنَا لَمَا أَغْفَلَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بَيَانَهُ أَلْبَتَّةَ، وَلَا أَغْفَلُوا هُمْ سُؤَالَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - عَنْهُ، وَلَا اتَّفَقُوا عَلَى تَرْكِ نَقْلِ تَحْدِيدِهِ فِي ذَلِكَ إلَيْنَا، فَارْتَفَعَ الْإِشْكَالُ جُمْلَةً، وَلِلَّهِ الْحَمْدُ، وَلَاحَ بِذَلِكَ أَنَّ الْجَمِيعَ مِنْهُمْ قَنَعُوا بِالنَّصِّ الْجَلِيِّ، وَإِنَّ كُلَّ مَنْ حَدَّ فِي ذَلِكَ حَدًّا فَإِنَّمَا هُوَ وَهْمٌ أَخْطَأَ فِيهِ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَقَدْ اتَّفَقَ الْفَرِيقَانِ عَلَى أَنَّهُ إذَا فَارَقَ بُيُوتَ الْقَرْيَةِ وَهُوَ يُرِيدُ: إمَّا ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ وَإِمَّا أَرْبَعَةَ بُرُدٍ -: أَنَّهُ يَقْصُرُ الصَّلَاةَ.

L8144 We ask them: Is he in a travel in which prayer is shortened, or is he not yet in a travel in which prayer is shortened, but rather intends to undertake a travel in which prayer will be shortened later, while uncertain whether he will reach it or not? This must necessarily be one of the two scenarios. If they say: He is not yet in a travel in which prayer is shortened, but intends to undertake it while uncertain whether he will reach it or not, they thereby acknowledge that they have permitted him to shorten prayers despite him not being in a travel in which prayer is shortened, due to his intention to undertake such a travel. Consequently, they become obligated to permit him to shorten prayers within his home and outside it between the houses of his village, due to his intention to undertake a travel in which prayer is shortened, with no distinction in this regard.

L8145 And this opinion was held by ʿAṭāʾ, Anas ibn Mālik, and others besides these two. However, these scholars acknowledge that he is not on a journey, then they command him to shorten the prayer, and this is not permissible at all.

وَقَدْ قَالَ بِهَذَا الْقَوْلِ: عَطَاءٌ، وَأَنَسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ، وَغَيْرُهُمَا، إلَّا أَنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ يُقِرُّونَ أَنَّهُ لَيْسَ فِي سَفَرٍ، ثُمَّ يَأْمُرُونَهُ بِالْقَصْرِ، وَهَذَا لَا يَحِلُّ أَصْلًا

L8146 And if they say: “But he is on a journey wherein prayer is shortened?” they have demolished all they built, invalidated their principle and school of thought, and admitted that both short and long journeys require prayer shortening—since one might depart before reaching the distance they stipulate. As for us: whatever lies within less than a mile (as per the historical Islamic mile) from the last houses of his village retains the ruling of residence—prayer is not shortened nor is the fast broken therein. When he reaches the mile, he is then considered a traveler wherein prayer is shortened and fasting is broken. From that point onward, he shortens prayers and breaks the fast.

قَرْيَتِهِ لَهُ حُكْمُ الْحَضَرِ، فَلَا يُقْصَرُ فِيهِ وَلَا يُفْطَرُ، فَإِذَا بَلَغَ الْمِيلَ فَحِينَئِذٍ صَارَ فِي سَفَرٍ تُقْصَرُ فِيهِ الصَّلَاةُ وَيُفْطَرُ فِيهِ، فَمِنْ حِينَئِذٍ يَقْصُرُ وَيُفْطِرُ.

L8147–8149 Similarly, if he returns and is on less than a mile, he must complete the prayer, because he is no longer on a journey—in which shortening would still apply. Issue:

وَكَذَلِكَ إِذَا رَجَعَ فَكَانَ عَلَى أَقَلَّ مِنْ مِيلٍ فَإِنَّهُ يُتِمُّ، لِأَنَّهُ لَيْسَ فِي سَفَرٍ - يَقْصُرُ فِيهِ بَعْدُ مَسْأَلَةٌ:

L8150 It is the same whether one travels by land, sea, or river. All of that is as we have mentioned, because it is travel, and there is no difference.

وَسَوَاءٌ سَافَرَ فِي بَرٍّ، أَوْ بَحْرٍ، أَوْ نَهْرٍ، كُلُّ ذَلِكَ كَمَا ذَكَرْنَا، لِأَنَّهُ سَفَرٌ وَلَا فَرْقَ؟

L8151 Issue: If someone travels and stays in one place for twenty days including their nights, should he perform shortened prayers?

[مَسْأَلَةٌ سَافَرَ فَأَقَامَ فِي مَكَانٍ وَاحِدٍ عِشْرِينَ يَوْمًا بِلَيَالِيهَا هَلْ يَقْصُرُ الصَّلَاةَ]

L8152 515 - Issue: If a person travels for jihad, Hajj, Umrah, or other such journeys and resides in one place for twenty days including their nights, he shortens the prayers. If he stays longer, he must perform them in full—even if this applies to only a single prayer? Then, by the assistance of Allah the Exalted, we have firmly established that travel for jihad, Hajj, Umrah, acts of obedience, acts of disobedience, or travel that is neither for obedience nor disobedience—all such journeys are treated identically with regard to the ruling on shortening prayers.

٥١٥ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: فَإِنْ سَافَرَ الْمَرْءُ فِي جِهَادٍ، أَوْ حَجٍّ، أَوْ عُمْرَةٍ، أَوْ غَيْرِ ذَلِكَ مِنَ الْأَسْفَارِ -: فَأَقَامَ فِي مَكَانٍ وَاحِدٍ عِشْرِينَ يَوْمًا بِلَيَالِيهَا: قَصَرَ، وَإِنْ أَقَامَ أَكْثَرَ: أَتَمَّ - وَلَوْ فِي صَلَاةٍ وَاحِدَةٍ؟ ثُمَّ ثَبَتْنَا بِعَوْنِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى عَلَى أَنَّ سَفَرَ الْجِهَادِ، وَسَفَرَ الْحَجِّ، وَسَفَرَ الْعُمْرَةِ، وَسَفَرَ الطَّاعَةِ، وَسَفَرَ الْمَعْصِيَةِ، وَسَفَرَ مَا لَيْسَ طَاعَةً وَلَا مَعْصِيَةً -: كُلُّ ذَلِكَ سَفَرٌ، حُكْمُهُ كُلُّهُ فِي الْقَصْرِ وَاحِدٌ.

L8153 Indeed, whoever stays in a location for twenty days with their nights or less must shorten the prayers without exception—whether he intended to reside there or not. If he extends his stay beyond that by even the duration of a single prayer or more, he must complete the prayers without exception. This applies specifically to prayers. As for fasting during Ramadan, it differs: if one stays a day and a night during a journey without traveling during that period, he is obligated to renew his intention to fast. Similarly, if he alights and intends to stay overnight and the following day, he is obligated to intend and observe the fast. If he arrives at his estate, livestock, or a house and settles there, he must complete the prayers. When he departs a mile or more, he must shorten the prayers. Ali said: “People differed regarding this.” It has been narrated to us from Ibn Umar that if he resolved to stay fifteen days, he would complete the prayers.

عَلِيٌّ: وَاخْتَلَفَ النَّاسُ فِي هَذَا -: فَرُوِّينَا عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ إِذَا أَجْمَعَ عَلَى إِقَامَةِ خَمْسَةَ عَشَرَ يَوْمًا: أَتَمَّ الصَّلَاةَ.

L8154 We have also narrated it from Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib, and Abū Ḥanīfah states this position, as do his companions.

وَرُوِّينَاهُ أَيْضًا عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ وَبِهِ يَقُولُ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ، وَأَصْحَابُهُ.

L8155 And it has been narrated to us through the chain of Abū Dāwūd: narrated to us Muḥammad ibn al-ʿAlāʾ, narrated to us Ḥafṣ ibn Ghiyāth, narrated to us ʿĀṣim, narrated to us ʿIkrimah, narrated to us Ibn ʿAbbās: “The Messenger of Allāh (peace and blessings be upon him) stayed in Makkah for seventeen days, shortening the prayer.”

وَرُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ أَبِي دَاوُد ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْعَلَاءِ ثنا حَفْصُ بْنُ غِيَاثٍ ثنا عَاصِمٌ عَنْ عِكْرِمَةَ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَقَامَ بِمَكَّةَ سَبْعَ عَشَرَةَ يَقْصُرُ الصَّلَاةَ» ".

L8156–8157 Ibn Abbas said: Whoever stays seventeen in Mecca must shorten the prayer, and whoever stays longer must complete it. It is reported from Al-Awza’i: If one resolves to stay thirteen nights, he must complete the prayer, but if he intends less, he must shorten it. Another statement is reported from Ibn Umar: If you resolve to stay twelve nights, then complete the prayer. It is reported from Ali ibn Abi Talib: If you stay ten, then complete the prayer.

قَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ مَنْ أَقَامَ سَبْعَ عَشَرَةَ بِمَكَّةَ: قَصَرَ، وَمَنْ أَقَامَ فَزَادَ: أَتَمَّ؟ وَرُوِيَ عَنْ الْأَوْزَاعِيِّ: إذَا أَجْمَعَ إقَامَةَ ثَلَاثَ عَشْرَةَ لَيْلَةً: أَتَمَّ، فَإِنْ نَوَى أَقَلَّ: قَصَرَ؟ وَعَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَوْلٌ آخَرُ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقُولُ: إذَا أَجْمَعْتَ إقَامَةَ ثِنْتَيْ عَشْرَةَ لَيْلَةً فَأَتِمَّ الصَّلَاةَ؟ وَعَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ: إذَا أَقَمْت عَشْرًا فَأَتِمَّ الصَّلَاةَ.

L8158 And by it hold Sufyān al-Thawrī, al-Ḥasan ibn Ḥayy, and Ḥumayd al-Ru’āsī, Sufyān al-Thawrī’s associate.

وَبِهِ يَأْخُذُ سُفْيَانُ الثَّوْرِيُّ، وَالْحَسَنُ بْنُ حَيٍّ، وَحُمَيْدُ الرُّؤَاسِيُّ صَاحِبُهُ.

L8159 Another opinion from Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyab states: When you have established four, pray four.

وَعَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ قَوْلٌ آخَرُ وَهُوَ: إذَا أَقَمْت أَرْبَعًا فَصَلِّ أَرْبَعًا.

L8160 This is the position held by Mālik, al-Shāfiʿī, and al-Layth, except that they stipulate one must intend to stay for four days. If he does not form this intention, he may shorten the prayer, even if he remains for a year?

وَبِهِ يَأْخُذُ مَالِكٌ، وَالشَّافِعِيُّ، وَاللَّيْثُ، إلَّا أَنَّهُمْ يَشْتَرِطُونَ أَنْ يَنْوِيَ إقَامَةَ أَرْبَعٍ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَنْوِهَا: قَصَرَ، وَإِنْ بَقِيَ حَوْلًا؟

L8161 And from Sa’id ibn al-Musayyib is another opinion, which states: If you stay three days, then perform the prayer in full. Through the chain of Waki‘ from Shu‘bah from Abu Bishr (he is Ja‘far ibn Abi Waḥshiyyah) from Sa‘id ibn Jubayr: If one intends to stay for more than fifteen days, they must perform the prayer in full.

L8162–8164 Another opinion is narrated from Sa‘īd ibn Jubayr: “When you settle in a land, complete the prayer?" From Maʿmar, from al-Aʿmash, from Abū Wāʾil, who said: "We were with Masrūq in Silsilah for two years while he was an official there, and he prayed with us two rakʿahs, two rakʿahs until he concluded?" From Wakīʿ, from Abū Shuʿbah, from Abū al-Tayyāḥ al-Ḍubaʿī, from Abū al-Minhāl al-ʿAnazī, who said: "I said to Ibn ʿAbbās, ʿI reside in Medina for a year without preparing for travel?' He said, 'Pray two rakʿahs.'" From Wakīʿ, from al-ʿUmarī, from Nāfiʿ, from Ibn ʿUmar: "He resided in Azerbaijan for six months and was stranded." Upon them was the snow—so would he pray two rakʿahs? ʿAlī said: The ruler does not intend departure before fifteen nights without doubt, and likewise one whom the snow has confined, becoming certain it will not melt until summer's onset. Ibn ʿAbbās instructed someone who informed him he was staying a year without intending travel to shorten prayers. From al-Ḥasan and Qatādah: The traveler shortens prayers unless returning to his home or entering one of the garrison towns of the Muslims. ʿAlī said: The followers of Abū Ḥanīfah argued that their statement represents the majority opinion, and that it is agreed upon that when a traveler intends to stay for such a duration, he must perform complete prayers, and he does not abandon the ruling of shortening except by consensus. ʿAlī said: This is false, for we have cited from Saʿīd ibn Jubayr that he would shorten prayers when intending to stay beyond fifteen days, while differing reports exist about Ibn ʿUmar himself.

L8165 Ibn Abbas and others opposed him as we mentioned, thus invalidating their argument, as it lacks proof. The followers of Malik and Al-Shafiʿi argued in their favor, citing the authentic report transmitted through Al-ʿAla' ibn Al-Hadrami that the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—said, "A Muhajir may stay three days after completing the pilgrimage rites." They argued that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—disapproved of the Muhajirun residing in Makkah, which had been their homelands, for they were expelled from it for the sake of Allah's Face, the Mighty and Majestic, so they would meet their Lord as strangers distant from their homelands for the sake of His Face, the Mighty and Majestic. He then L8166–8168 They said: Thus, the three days were outside the scope of the reprehensible residence, while whatever exceeded them was included within the reprehensible residence? We know no argument whatsoever for their position, and this contains no proof for them, for neither an explicit textual ruling nor any indication in this report specifies the duration which, if… If the traveler performs prayer in full, he is in fact under the same ruling as the Muhajir. What then necessitates analogizing the traveler's stay to the Muhajir's stay? This would only hold if legal analogy were valid – but how can that be when it is entirely baseless? Moreover, the traveler is permitted to stay three days or longer without any dislike in any of that, whereas it is disliked for the Muhajir to remain in Mecca after completing his pilgrimage rites for more than three days. What relation exists between a disliked stay and a permissible one, if they were just to themselves? Furthermore, according to their view, exceeding three days for the Muhajir falls under the ruling of being a traveler, not a legal resident, while exceeding three days for the traveler constitutes a valid stay. This precludes analogizing one to the other. If such analogy were applied, the traveler would be obliged to shorten prayers beyond three days rather than complete them – contrary to their stated opinion. Additionally, even staying for the duration of one additional prayer beyond three days is considered disliked. Thus, by their logic – if they analogize the traveler to this ruling – he ought to perform prayers in full even if he intends to stay for the duration of one extra prayer beyond three days.

قَالُوا: فَكَانَتْ الثَّلَاثُ خَارِجَةً عَنْ الْإِقَامَةِ الْمَكْرُوهَةِ لَهُمْ، وَكَانَ مَا زَادَ عَنْهَا دَاخِلًا فِي الْإِقَامَةِ الْمَكْرُوهَةِ؟ مَا نَعْلَمُ لَهُمْ حُجَّةً غَيْرَ هَذَا أَصْلًا وَهَذَا لَا حُجَّةَ لَهُمْ فِيهِ، لِأَنَّهُ لَيْسَ فِي هَذَا الْخَبَرِ نَصٌّ وَلَا إشَارَةٌ إلَى الْمُدَّةِ الَّتِي إذَا أَقَامَهَا الْمُسَافِرُ أَتَمَّ، وَإِنَّمَا هُوَ فِي حُكْمِ الْمُهَاجِرِ، فَمَا الَّذِي أَوْجَبَ أَنْ يُقَاسَ الْمُسَافِرُ يُقِيمُ عَلَى الْمُهَاجِرِ يُقِيمُ؟ هَذَا لَوْ كَانَ الْقِيَاسُ حَقًّا، وَكَيْفَ وَكُلُّهُ بَاطِلٌ؟ وَأَيْضًا: فَإِنَّ الْمُسَافِرَ مُبَاحٌ لَهُ أَنْ يُقِيمَ ثَلَاثًا وَأَكْثَرَ مِنْ ثَلَاثٍ، لَا كَرَاهِيَةَ فِي شَيْءٍ مِنْ ذَلِكَ، وَأَمَّا الْمُهَاجِرُ فَمَكْرُوهٌ لَهُ أَنْ يُقِيمَ بِمَكَّةَ بَعْدَ انْقِضَاءِ نُسُكِهِ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ثَلَاثٍ، فَأَيُّ نِسْبَةٍ بَيْنَ إقَامَةٍ مَكْرُوهَةٍ وَإِقَامَةٍ مُبَاحَةٍ لَوْ أَنْصَفُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ؟ وَأَيْضًا: فَإِنَّ مَا زَادَ عَلَى الثَّلَاثَةِ الْأَيَّامِ لِلْمُهَاجِرِ دَاخِلٌ عِنْدَهُمْ فِي حُكْمِ أَنْ يَكُونَ مُسَافِرًا لَا مُقِيمًا، وَمَا زَادَ عَلَى الثَّلَاثَةِ لِلْمُسَافِرِ فَإِقَامَةٌ صَحِيحَةٌ، وَهَذَا مَانِعٌ مِنْ أَنْ يُقَاسَ أَحَدُهُمَا عَلَى الْآخَرِ، وَلَوْ قِيسَ أَحَدُهُمَا عَلَى الْآخَرِ لَوَجَبَ أَنْ يَقْصُرَ الْمُسَافِرُ فِيمَا زَادَ عَلَى الثَّلَاثِ، لَا أَنْ يُتِمَّ، بِخِلَافِ قَوْلِهِمْ؟ وَأَيْضًا: فَإِنَّ إقَامَةَ قَدْرِ صَلَاةٍ وَاحِدَةٍ زَائِدَةٍ عَلَى الثَّلَاثَةِ مَكْرُوهَةٌ، فَيَنْبَغِي عِنْدَهُمْ - إذَا قَاسُوا عَلَيْهِ الْمُسَافِرَ - أَنْ يُتِمَّ وَلَوْ نَوَى زِيَادَةَ صَلَاةٍ عَلَى الثَّلَاثَةِ الْأَيَّامِ.

L8169 And did Abu Thawr say this? Thus their claim stands invalidated in every circumstance, and all opinions are stripped bare of substantiation. Therefore, it is incumbent upon us to clarify the proof for the soundness of our position through the aid of Allah, the Most High, and His power.

L8170 Ali said: As for residing during jihad, Hajj, or ʿUmrah, Allah the Exalted prescribed prayer shortening only with journeying through the land, and the قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: أَمَّا الْإِقَامَةُ فِي الْجِهَادِ، وَالْحَجِّ، وَالْعُمْرَةِ، فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى لَمْ يَجْعَلْ الْقَصْرَ إلَّا مَعَ الضَّرْبِ فِي الْأَرْضِ، وَلَمْ يَجْعَلْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - الْقَصْرَ إلَّا مَعَ السَّفَرِ، لَا مَعَ الْإِقَامَةِ، وَبِالضَّرُورَةِ نَدْرِي أَنَّ حَالَ السَّفَرِ غَيْرُ حَالِ الْإِقَامَةِ، وَأَنَّ السَّفَرَ إنَّمَا هُوَ التَّنَقُّلُ فِي غَيْرِ دَارِ الْإِقَامَةِ وَأَنَّ الْإِقَامَةَ هِيَ السُّكُونُ وَتَرْكُ النُّقْلَةِ وَالتَّنَقُّلِ فِي دَارِ الْإِقَامَةِ، هَذَا حُكْمُ الشَّرِيعَةِ وَالطَّبِيعَةِ مَعًا. فَإِذْ ذَلِكَ كَذَلِكَ فَالْمُقِيمُ فِي مَكَانٍ وَاحِدٍ مُقِيمٌ غَيْرُ مُسَافِرٍ بِلَا شَكٍّ، فَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يَخْرُجَ عَنْ حَالِ الْإِقَامَةِ وَحُكْمِهَا فِي الصِّيَامِ وَالْإِتْمَامِ إلَّا بِنَصٍّ.

Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—prescribed shortening only during travel, not during residence. By necessity, we understand that the state of travel differs from the state of residence: travel entails moving outside one's abode of residence, while residence means settling and refraining from changing one's dwelling or moving about within the abode of residence. This is the ruling of both divine law and human nature. Since this is so, one staying in a single place is a resident without doubt, not a traveler. It is therefore impermissible to depart from the rulings governing residence in fasting and completing prayers except by an explicit scriptural text.

L8171–8173 It has been authentically established by the consensus of scholars of transmission that the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—halted during his travel and remained for the remainder of the daytime and the following night, then departed on the second day. It is also established that he—peace be upon him—shortened prayers during the remainder of that daytime and the night between the two days of his relocation. This stay was exempt from the rulings of residency requiring full prayers and fasting. Were it not for... In that case, would a resident for an hour have the ruling of residency? Similarly, whoever comes to his farm, livestock, or property and settles there is considered a resident, so the ruling of residency applies to him as stated by Ibn Abbas, since we have not found a text regarding such a situation that would transfer it away from the ruling of residency.

وَهُوَ أَيْضًا قَوْلُ الزُّهْرِيِّ، وَأَحْمَدَ بْنِ حَنْبَلٍ.

L8174 This is likewise the view of al-Zuhri and Ahmad ibn Hanbal.

L8175 We have not found from him—peace be upon him—that he ever stayed a day and night during his journey without traveling in either the day or the night while shortening prayers and not fasting, except only in Hajj, Umrah, and Jihad. This necessitates our earlier conclusion: whoever stays during their journey for a day and night without departing in either period must perform complete prayers and fast.

L8176 Similarly, whoever begins traveling at night and halts during the day may shorten the remainder of his night and his day that lies between the two nights of his movement.

وَكَذَلِكَ مَنْ مَشَى لَيْلًا وَيَنْزِلُ نَهَارًا فَإِنَّهُ يَقْصُرُ بَاقِيَ لَيْلَتِهِ وَيَوْمِهِ الَّذِي بَيْنَ لَيْلَتَيْ حَرَكَتِهِ.

L8177 And this is an opinion that has been narrated from Rabiʿah.

وَهَذَا قَوْلٌ رُوِيَ عَنْ رَبِيعَةَ.

L8178 We ask those who reject this ruling concerning a traveler in a journey where prayer is shortened according to their scholars: If one intends to stay [beyond the period permitting shortened prayers] while traveling—without stopping or settling—but is compelled by extreme fear to pray his obligatory prayer either mounted and moving or to dismount for it, then resume traveling: must he perform the shortened prayer or complete it? Among their rulings is that he performs the shortened prayer. Thus, it is established that travel is defined by being in motion.

L8179 Then we ask them about a traveler who intends to settle and is not relocating: should he perform complete prayers or shorten them? Among their opinions is that he should complete them, for it is established that settling entails remaining stationary, not moving between locations.

ثُمَّ نَسْأَلُهُمْ عَمَّنْ نَوَى إِقَامَةً وَهُوَ نَازِلٌ غَيْرُ مَاشٍ: أَيُتِمُّ أَمْ يَقْصُرُ؟ فَمِنْ قَوْلِهِمْ: يُتِمُّ، فَقَدْ صَحَّ أَنَّ الْإِقَامَةَ هِيَ السُّكُونُ لَا الْمَشْيُ مُتَنَقِّلًا.

L8180 And this is precisely our view—and all praise is due to Allah, the Exalted.

وَهَذَا نَفْسُ قَوْلِنَا - وَلِلَّهِ تَعَالَى الْحَمْدُ؟

L8181 As for jihad and Hajj: Abdullah ibn Rabiʿah said: Muhammad ibn Ishaq ibn Sulaym narrated to us, Ibn al-Aʿrābī narrated to us, Abu Dawud narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Hanbal narrated to us, Abdur-Razzaq narrated to us: Maʿmar narrated from Yahya ibn Abi Kathir, from Muhammad ibn Abdur-Rahman ibn Thawbān, from Jabir ibn Abdullah, who said: "The Messenger of Allah—ṣallā Allāhu ʿalayhi wa-sallam—stayed in Tabuk for twenty days while shortening the prayers."[7]

وَأَمَّا الْجِهَادُ، وَالْحَجُّ -: فَإِنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ رَبِيعٍ قَالَ: ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ إِسْحَاقَ بْنِ السُّلَيْمِ ثنا ابْنُ الْأَعْرَابِيِّ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ حَنْبَلٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الرَّزَّاقِ أَنَا مَعْمَرٌ عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ أَبِي كَثِيرٍ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ ثَوْبَانَ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: «أَقَامَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِتَبُوكَ عِشْرِينَ يَوْمًا يَقْصُرُ الصَّلَاةَ» .

L8182–8183 Ali said: Muhammad ibn Abd al-Rahman ibn Thawban is trustworthy, and the remaining narrators of this report are too renowned to be questioned about them? This is the most widely transmitted report from the Prophet (peace be upon him) concerning his stay in Tabuk. Thus this measure of residence exceeded all other periods through this report.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ ثَوْبَانَ ثِقَةٌ، وَبَاقِي رُوَاةِ الْخَبَرِ أَشْهَرُ مِنْ أَنْ يُسْأَلَ عَنْهُمْ؟ وَهَذَا أَكْثَرُ مَا رُوِيَ عَنْهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - فِي إِقَامَتِهِ بِتَبُوكَ، فَخَرَجَ هَذَا الْمِقْدَارُ مِنْ الْإِقَامَةِ عَنْ سَائِرِ الْأَوْقَاتِ بِهَذَا الْخَبَرِ.

وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ، وَمَالِكٌ: يَقْصُرُ مَا دَامَ مُقِيمًا فِي دَارِ الْحَرْبِ.

L8184 Abu Hanifah and Malik said: One may shorten prayers as long as one resides in the abode of war (Dār al-Ḥarb).

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا خَطَأٌ، لِمَا ذَكَرْنَا مِنْ أَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى لَمْ يَجْعَلْ وَلَا رَسُولُهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - الصَّلَاةَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ إلَّا فِي السَّفَرِ، وَأَنَّ الْإِقَامَةَ خِلَافُ السَّفَرِ لِمَا ذَكَرْنَا.

L8185 Ali said: This is erroneous, for the reasons we have stated—that neither Allah, the Exalted, nor His Messenger (peace be upon him) has prescribed the prayer as two units except during travel, and that settling [in one place] is distinct from travel, as we have explained.

وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ، وَأَبُو سُلَيْمَانَ: كَقَوْلِنَا فِي الْجِهَادِ.

L8186 Al-Shafi'i and Abu Sulayman said: "As our stated position on jihad."

وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ مِثْلَ قَوْلِنَا نَصًّا إلَّا أَنَّهُ خَالَفَ فِي الْمُدَّةِ.

L8187 A statement corresponding to our opinion has been explicitly narrated to us from Ibn Abbas, except that he differed regarding the duration.

وَأَمَّا الْحَجُّ، وَالْعُمْرَةُ: فَلِمَا حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ ثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَى أَنَا هُشَيْمٌ عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ «خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِنْ الْمَدِينَةِ إلَى مَكَّةَ فَصَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ حَتَّى رَجَعَ، قَالَ: كَمْ أَقَامَ بِمَكَّةَ؟ قَالَ: عَشْرًا» .

L8188 As for Hajj and Umrah: Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us from Ahmad ibn Fath, who narrated to us from Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa, who narrated to us from Ahmad ibn Muhammad, who narrated to us from Ahmad ibn Ali, who narrated to us from Muslim ibn Al-Hajjaj, who narrated to us from Yahya ibn Yahya via Hushaym via Yahya ibn Abi Ishaq via Anas ibn Malik, who said: "We departed with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) from Medina to Mecca, and he prayed two rak'ahs each time until he returned." Someone asked: "How long did he stay in Mecca?" Anas replied: "Ten days."

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ خَالِدٍ ثنا إبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا مُوسَى بْنُ إسْمَاعِيلَ قَالَ: ثنا وُهَيْبٌ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي الْعَالِيَةِ الْبَرَاءِ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا - قَالَ: «قَدِمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَأَصْحَابُهُ لِصُبْحِ رَابِعَةٍ يُلَبُّونَ بِالْحَجِّ» وَذَكَرَ الْحَدِيثَ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَإِذْ قَدِمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - صُبْحَ رَابِعَةٍ مِنْ ذِي الْحِجَّةِ، فَبِالضَّرُورَةِ نَعْلَمُ: أَنَّهُ أَقَامَ بِمَكَّةَ ذَلِكَ الْيَوْمَ الرَّابِعَ مِنْ ذِي الْحِجَّةِ، وَالثَّانِي وَهُوَ الْخَامِسُ مِنْ ذِي الْحِجَّةِ، وَالثَّالِثُ وَهُوَ السَّادِسُ مِنْ ذِي الْحِجَّةِ، وَالرَّابِعُ وَهُوَ السَّابِعُ مِنْ ذِي الْحِجَّةِ.

L8189–8191 Abd al-Rahman ibn Abd Allah ibn Khalid narrated to us: Ibrahim ibn Ahmad narrated to us: al-Farbari narrated to us: al-Bukhari narrated to us: Musa ibn Ismail said: Wuhayb narrated to us from Ayyub al-Sakhtiyani from Abu al-Aliyah al-Barāʾ from Ibn Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them both) who said: "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) and his companions arrived at the dawn of the fourth day, reciting the Talbiyah of Hajj," and he related the hadith. Ali said: When the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—arrived on the morning of the fourth of Dhu al-Hijjah, it necessarily follows that he remained in Mecca four days: that fourth day of Dhu al-Hijjah, the second day which was the fifth of Dhu al-Hijjah, the third day which was the sixth of Dhu al-Hijjah, and the fourth day which was the seventh of Dhu al-Hijjah.

L8192–8194 And that he—peace be upon him—set out to Mina on the eighth day of Dhū al-Ḥijjah, before the Ẓuhr prayer. This is a matter uncontested among anyone in the Ummah. Thus, four days and four nights were fully completed for him (peace be upon him) in Mecca, as he resided there with the intention of establishing residency for this duration, unquestionably.

وَأَنَّهُ خَرَجَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - إلَى مِنًى قَبْلَ صَلَاةِ الظُّهْرِ مِنْ الْيَوْمِ الثَّامِنِ مِنْ ذِي الْحِجَّةِ، هَذَا مَا لَا خِلَافَ فِيهِ بَيْنَ أَحَدٍ مِنْ الْأُمَّةِ، فَتَمَّتْ لَهُ بِمَكَّةَ أَرْبَعَةُ أَيَّامٍ وَأَرْبَعُ لَيَالٍ كَمَلًا، أَقَامَهَا - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - نَاوِيًا لِلْإِقَامَةِ هَذِهِ الْمُدَّةَ بِهَا بِلَا شَكٍّ.

L8195 Then he went out to Mina on the eighth day of Dhū al-Ḥijjah, as we mentioned. This nullifies the claim of those who say: "If one intends to stay four days, one must complete it," for he - peace and blessings be upon him - undoubtedly intended to stay for this duration yet did not complete it.

L8196 Then he (peace be upon him) was in Mina on the eighth day of Dhul-Hijjah and spent there the night of the Day of Arafah.

ثُمَّ كَانَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِمِنًى الْيَوْمَ الثَّامِنِ مِنْ ذِي الْحِجَّةِ، وَبَاتَ بِهَا لَيْلَةَ يَوْمِ عَرَفَةَ.

L8197 Then he arrived at Arafah undoubtedly on the ninth day of Dhul-Hijjah and remained there until the beginning of the tenth night. He then proceeded to Muzdalifah, where he spent the tenth night.

ثُمَّ أَتَى إلَى عَرَفَةَ بِلَا شَكٍّ فِي الْيَوْمِ التَّاسِعِ مِنْ ذِي الْحِجَّةِ، فَبَقِيَ هُنَالِكَ إلَى أَوَّلِ اللَّيْلَةِ الْعَاشِرَةِ، ثُمَّ نَهَضَ إلَى مُزْدَلِفَةَ فَبَاتَ بِهَا اللَّيْلَةَ الْعَاشِرَةَ.

L8198 Then, on the morning of the tenth day, he proceeded to Mina and remained there. Thereafter, he proceeded to Mecca to perform Tawaf al-Ifadah, either on the tenth day or during the night preceding the eleventh day, with no doubt that it is one of the two [options].

ثُمَّ نَهَضَ فِي صَبَاحِ الْيَوْمِ الْعَاشِرِ إلَى مِنًى، فَكَانَ بِهَا، وَنَهَضَ إلَى مَكَّةَ فَطَافَ طَوَافَ الْإِفَاضَةِ إمَّا فِي الْيَوْمِ الْعَاشِرِ وَإِمَّا فِي اللَّيْلَةِ الْحَادِيَةَ عَشْرَةَ، بِلَا شَكٍّ فِي أَحَدِ الْأَمْرَيْنِ.

L8199 Then he returned to Mina and stayed there for three days, departing on the fourth day after stoning the Jamarat following midday. His stay—peace be upon him—in Mina lasted four days excluding half a day.

ثُمَّ رَجَعَ إلَى مِنًى فَأَقَامَ بِهَا ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ، وَدَفَعَ مِنْهَا فِي آخِرِ الْيَوْمِ الرَّابِعِ بَعْدَ رَمْيِ الْجِمَارِ بَعْدَ زَوَالِ الشَّمْسِ، وَكَانَتْ إقَامَتُهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِمِنًى أَرْبَعَةَ أَيَّامٍ غَيْرَ نِصْفِ يَوْمٍ.

L8200 Then he came to Mecca and spent the fourteenth night at Abtah, performed the Farewell Tawaf there, then set out for Medina at the end of that night. Thus, he—peace be upon him—completed ten full nights across Mecca, Mina, ʿArafah, and Muzdalifah—as Anas stated—thereby confirming our position. Some of his companions were performing Tamattuʿ alongside him, while he himself—peace be upon him—was observing Qirān.

ثُمَّ أَتَى إلَى مَكَّةَ فَبَاتَ اللَّيْلَةَ الرَّابِعَةَ عَشْرَةَ بِالْأَبْطَحِ، وَطَافَ بِهَا طَوَافَ الْوَدَاعِ، ثُمَّ نَهَضَ فِي آخِرِ لَيْلَتِهِ تِلْكَ إلَى الْمَدِينَةِ، فَكَمُلَ لَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِمَكَّةَ، وَمِنًى، وَعَرَفَةَ، وَمُزْدَلِفَةَ: عَشْرُ لَيَالٍ كَمَلًا كَمَا قَالَ أَنَسٌ، فَصَحَّ قَوْلُنَا، وَكَانَ مَعَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - مُتَمَتِّعُونَ، وَكَانَ هُوَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - قَارِنًا.

L8201 Thus, what we have stated concerning Hajj and Umrah is correct, and all praise is due to Allah. This residency has emerged with this ruling in Hajj and Umrah because it has differed in legal status from all other types of residency, and all praise is due to Allah, the Exalted.

فَصَحَّ مَا قُلْنَاهُ فِي الْحَجِّ وَالْعُمْرَةِ، وَلِلَّهِ الْحَمْدُ، فَخَرَجَتْ هَذِهِ الْإِقَامَةُ بِهَذَا الْأَثَرِ فِي الْحَجِّ وَالْعُمْرَةِ حَيْثُ أَقَامَ عَنْ حُكْمِ سَائِرِ الْإِقَامَاتِ، وَلِلَّهِ تَعَالَى الْحَمْدُ.

فَإِنْ قِيلَ: أَلَيْسَ قَدْ رَوَيْتُمْ مِنْ طَرِيقِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ وَعِمْرَانَ بْنِ الْحُصَيْنِ رِوَايَاتٍ مُخْتَلِفَةً -: فِي بَعْضِهَا «أَقَامَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِمَكَّةَ تِسْعَ عَشْرَةَ وَفِي بَعْضِهَا ثَمَانِ عَشْرَةَ وَفِي بَعْضِهَا سَبْعَ عَشْرَةَ.

L8202 If it is said: Have you not narrated through the chain of Ibn Abbas and Imran ibn al-Husayn differing reports—in some of them, "The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, stayed in Makkah nineteen days," in others eighteen days, and in others seventeen days?

L8203–8204 And in some instances fifteen days he would shorten the prayer¿' We said: Yes. Ibn Abbas clarified that this occurred during the year of the Conquest, and he (peace be upon him) was engaged in jihad in the abode of war, because a group from the people of Mecca: such as Ṣafwān and others, had a period of truce that had not yet expired.

وَمَالِكُ بْنُ عَوْفٍ فِي هَوَازِنَ قَدْ جُمِعَتْ لَهُ الْعَسَاكِرُ بِحُنَيْنٍ عَلَى بِضْعَةَ عَشَرَ مِيلًا.

L8205 And Malik ibn Awf in Hawazin—the armies had been gathered for him at Hunayn over a distance of about a dozen miles.

وَخَالِدُ بْنُ سُفْيَانَ الْهُذَلِيُّ عَلَى أَقَلَّ مِنْ ذَلِكَ يَجْمَعُ هُذَيْلًا لِحَرْبِهِ.

L8206 Khalid ibn Sufyan al-Hudhaliyy, with fewer than that, is rallying Hudhayl for his war.

وَالْكُفَّارُ مُحِيطُونَ بِهِ مُحَارِبُونَ لَهُ -: فَالْقَصْرُ وَاجِبٌ بَعْدُ فِي أَكْثَرَ مِنْ هَذِهِ الْإِقَامَةِ.

L8207 If disbelievers are surrounding him and waging war against him, shortening prayers remains obligatory even if the residence exceeds this period of stay.

وَهُوَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - يَتَرَدَّدُ مِنْ مَكَّةَ إلَى حُنَيْنٍ.

L8208 He, peace be upon him, would travel back and forth from Mecca to Ḥunayn.

ثُمَّ إلَى مَكَّةَ مُعْتَمِرًا، ثُمَّ إلَى الطَّائِفِ.

L8209 Then to Mecca for Umrah, then to Al-Taif.

وَهُوَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - يُوَجِّهُ السَّرَايَا إلَى مَنْ حَوْلَ مَكَّةَ مِنْ قَبَائِلِ الْعَرَبِ، كَبَنِي كِنَانَةَ، وَغَيْرِهِمْ.

L8210 He - peace be upon him - dispatched military expeditions to the Arab tribes surrounding Mecca, such as Banu Kinanah.

فَهَذَا قَوْلُنَا، وَمَا دَخَلَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - مَكَّةَ قَطُّ مِنْ حِينِ خَرَجَ عَنْهَا مُهَاجِرًا إلَّا فِي عُمْرَةِ الْقَضَاءِ، أَقَامَ بِهَا ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ فَقَطْ.

L8211 This is our position, and he—peace be upon him—never at all entered Mecca since the time he emigrated from it except during the Compensatory Umrah (Umrah al-Qaḍāʾ), during which he stayed there for only three days.

وَلَمَّا أَخَذَهَا بِالْقَهْرِ - كَمَا ذَكَرْنَا - فِي

L8212 Then, when he seized it through rebellion—as we have mentioned—in the capacity of a muḥārib (rebel).

ثُمَّ حِينَ فَتَحَهَا كَمَا ذَكَرْنَا مُحَارِبًا.

L8213 Then, during the Farewell Pilgrimage, he resided there as we have outlined, with no further additions.

ثُمَّ فِي حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ: أَقَامَ بِهَا كَمَا وَصَفْنَا، وَلَا مَزِيدَ.

L8214 Ali said: As for our statement that this residing does not take effect except after entering the first territory of war and after assuming ihram—this is because one intending jihad, while remaining within the abode of Islam, is not actively engaged in jihad. Rather, he is merely intending jihad and aspiring to it. He is but a traveler like all travelers, except for the reward of his intention alone. Similarly, until he assumes ihram, he is not yet performing Hajj rites nor Umrah rites, but merely intends to perform Hajj or Umrah. Is there then no difference [between him] and other travelers?

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَأَمَّا قَوْلُنَا: إِنَّ هَذِهِ الْإِقَامَةَ لَا تَكُونُ إِلَّا بَعْدَ الدُّخُولِ فِي أَوَّلِ دَارِ الْحَرْبِ وَبَعْدَ الْإِحْرَامِ -: فَلِأَنَّ الْقَاصِدَ إِلَى الْجِهَادِ مَا دَامَ فِي دَارِ الْإِسْلَامِ فَلَيْسَ فِي حَالِ جِهَادٍ، وَلَكِنَّهُ مُرِيدٌ لِلْجِهَادِ وَقَاصِدٌ إِلَيْهِ، وَإِنَّمَا هُوَ مُسَافِرٌ كَسَائِرِ الْمُسَافِرِينَ، إِلَّا أَجْرَ نِيَّتِهِ فَقَطْ، وَهُوَ مَا لَمْ يُحْرِمْ فَلَيْسَ بَعْدُ فِي عَمَلِ حَجٍّ وَلَا عَمَلِ عُمْرَةٍ، لَكِنَّهُ مُرِيدٌ لِأَنْ يَحُجَّ، أَوْ لِأَنْ يَعْتَمِرَ، فَهُوَ كَسَائِرِ مَنْ يُسَافِرُ وَلَا فَرْقَ؟

L8215–8219 Ali said: "All of this is no proof for them, because the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) did not say when he established." I was in Mecca for days: I only shortened [the prayers] from four units because I was on Hajj, not because I was in Mecca. Nor did he say, when he stayed in Tabuk for twenty days shortening the prayers, "I shortened them solely because I was engaged in jihad."

[قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَكُلُّ هَذَا لَا حُجَّةَ لَهُمْ فِيهِ، لِأَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لَمْ يَقُلْ - إِذْ أَقَامَ بِمَكَّةَ أَيَّامًا: إِنِّي إِنَّمَا قَصَرْتُ أَرْبَعًا، لِأَنِّي فِي حَجٍّ، وَلَا لِأَنِّي فِي مَكَّةَ. وَلَا قَالَ - إِذْ أَقَامَ بِتَبُوكَ عِشْرِينَ يَوْمًا يَقْصُرُ: إِنِّي إِنَّمَا قَصَرْتُ لِأَنِّي فِي جِهَادٍ.

L8220 Whoever says any of this has attributed to him (peace be upon him) what he did not say, and this is not permissible.

فَمَنْ قَالَ: شَيْئًا مِنْ هَذَا فَقَدْ قَوَّلَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - مَا لَمْ يَقُلْ، وَهَذَا لَا يَحِلُّ.

L8221 Thus, it became definitively established that were it not for the Prophet—peace be upon him—staying in Tabuk for twenty days while shortening prayers, and in Mecca for fewer days while shortening prayers, then prayer shortening would only be permissible on days when one is traveling, and anyone residing for a day would be obligated to complete them.

فَصَحَّ يَقِينًا أَنَّهُ لَوْلَا مُقَامُ النَّبِيِّ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - فِي تَبُوكَ عِشْرِينَ يَوْمًا يَقْصُرُ، وَبِمَكَّةَ دُونَ ذَلِكَ يَقْصُرُ -: لَكَانَ لَا يَجُوزُ الْقَصْرُ إِلَّا فِي يَوْمٍ يَكُونُ فِيهِ الْمَرْءُ مُسَافِرًا، وَلَكَانَ مُقِيمُ يَوْمٍ يَلْزَمُهُ الْإِتْمَامُ.

L8222 However, when he—peace be upon him—resided in Tabuk for twenty days and shortened the prayers, this confirmed that if a traveler stays twenty days, the rulings of travel apply during that period. If he stays longer or intends to stay longer, there is no proof whatsoever to exclude this from the rulings of residency. There is no distinction between those who restrict residency while engaged in jihad to twenty days with shortened prayers and those who specifically apply this ruling to Tabuk rather than other locations. All of this is invalid, and it is impermissible to adopt such a view, as it lacks support from any textual evidence in the Quran or Sunnah. And success comes only from Allah, the Most High.

يَوْمًا يَقْصُرُ فِيهَا، وَبَيْنَ مَنْ خَصَّ بِذَلِكَ بِتَبُوكَ دُونَ سَائِرِ الْأَمَاكِنِ، وَهَذَا كُلُّهُ بَاطِلٌ لَا يَجُوزُ الْقَوْلُ بِهِ، إذْ لَمْ يَأْتِ بِهِ نَصُّ قُرْآنٍ وَلَا سُنَّةٍ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L8223 Fasting must differ from that ruling, as there is absolutely no textual basis for it, and analogical reasoning is impermissible. Thus, whoever intends to stay for a day during Ramadan must fast [and success is from Allah, the Most High].

وَوَجَبَ أَنْ يَكُونَ الصَّوْمُ بِخِلَافِ ذَلِكَ؛ لِأَنَّهُ لَمْ يَأْتِ فِيهِ نَصٌّ أَصْلًا، وَالْقِيَاسُ لَا يَجُوزُ، فَمَنْ نَوَى إقَامَةَ يَوْمٍ فِي رَمَضَانَ فَإِنَّهُ يَصُومُ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ] .

L8224 Ali said: Abu Hanifah and Al-Shafi'i said: If one stays in a place while intending to depart tomorrow or today, he may shorten prayers and break the fast, even if he remains in that manner for years.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ، وَالشَّافِعِيُّ: إنْ أَقَامَ فِي مَكَان يَنْوِي خُرُوجًا غَدًا أَوْ الْيَوْمَ فَإِنَّهُ يَقْصُرُ وَيُفْطِرُ وَلَوْ أَقَامَ كَذَلِكَ أَعْوَامًا.

L8225 Abu Hanifah said: Similarly, if one intends to depart on a journey extending to fifteen days or more, he must break the fast and shorten the prayers.

قَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ: وَكَذَلِكَ لَوْ نَوَى خُرُوجًا مَا بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ خَمْسَةَ عَشَرَ يَوْمًا فَإِنَّهُ يُفْطِرُ وَيَقْصُرُ.

L8226 Mālik said: One may break the fast and shorten prayers even if intending to stay three days, for he then breaks the fast and shortens prayers. If he resolves, "I will depart today or tomorrow," he may shorten prayers - even if he remains in this state for years.

وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: يَقْصُرُ وَيُفْطِرُ وَإِنْ نَوَى إقَامَةَ ثَلَاثَةِ أَيَّامٍ فَإِنَّهُ يُفْطِرُ وَيَقْصُرُ، وَإِنْ نَوَى: أَخْرُجُ الْيَوْمَ، أَخْرُجُ غَدًا: قَصَرَ، وَلَوْ بَقِيَ كَذَلِكَ أَعْوَامًا -؟

L8227–8229 Ali said: "Among the most astonishing wonders is Abu Hanifah's omission of the intention when Allah the Exalted obligated it in ablution for prayer, the ritual bath for major impurity, and menstruation, yet in Ramadan, he upholds the intention to break the fast until just before the sun passes its zenith." One permits all of that regarding the sun without intention. Then one obligates intention as an obligation in the iqāmah where neither Allah the Exalted nor His Messenger (peace be upon him) has imposed it, nor has any speculative reasoning necessitated it. ʿAlī said: "The proof validating our position [that the ruling applies to iqāmah for specific durations] we mentioned—whether intention for iqāmah existed there or not—is that intentions are only obligatory by divine requirement in acts Allah the Exalted has commanded. Thus they cannot be validly performed without intention. As for an act neither Allah nor His Messenger (peace be upon him) has obligated, intention holds no meaning in it, since no Quranic injunction, Prophetic precedent, analogical reasoning, or scholarly consensus (ijmāʿ) requires it there."

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَمِنْ الْعَجَبِ الْعَجِيبِ إسْقَاطُ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ النِّيَّةَ حِينَ افْتَرَضَهَا اللَّهُ تَعَالَى مِنْ الْوُضُوءِ لِلصَّلَاةِ، وَغُسْلِ الْجَنَابَةِ، وَالْحَيْضِ وَبَقَائِهِ فِي رَمَضَانَ يَنْوِي الْفِطْرَ إلَى قُبَيْلِ زَوَالِ الشَّمْسِ، وَيُجِيزُ كُلَّ ذَلِكَ بِلَا نِيَّةٍ -: ثُمَّ يُوجِبُ النِّيَّةَ فَرْضًا فِي الْإِقَامَةِ، حَيْثُ لَمْ يُوجِبْهَا اللَّهُ تَعَالَى وَلَا رَسُولُهُ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَلَا أَوْجَبَهَا بُرْهَانٌ نَظَرِيٌّ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَبُرْهَانُ صِحَّةِ قَوْلِنَا -: أَنَّ الْحُكْمَ [لِلْإِقَامَةِ لِلْمُدَدِ] الَّتِي ذَكَرْنَا - كَانَتْ هُنَالِكَ نِيَّةٌ لِإِقَامَةٍ أَوْ لَمْ تَكُنْ - فَهُوَ أَنَّ النِّيَّاتِ إنَّمَا تَجِبُ فَرْضًا فِي الْأَعْمَالِ الَّتِي أَمَرَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى بِهَا فَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ تُؤَدَّى بِلَا نِيَّةٍ وَأَمَّا عَمَلٌ لَمْ يُوجِبْهُ اللَّهُ وَلَا رَسُولُهُ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَلَا مَعْنَى لِلنِّيَّةِ فِيهِ، إذْ لَمْ يُوجِبْهَا هُنَالِكَ قُرْآنٌ، وَلَا سُنَّةٌ، وَلَا نَظَرٌ، وَلَا إجْمَاعٌ.

وَالْإِقَامَةُ لَيْسَتْ عَمَلًا مَأْمُورًا بِهِ، وَكَذَلِكَ السَّفَرُ، وَإِنَّمَا هُمَا حَالَانِ أَوْجَبَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى فِيهِمَا الْعَمَلَ الَّذِي أَمَرَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى بِهِ فِيهِمَا، فَذَلِكَ الْعَمَلُ هُوَ الْمُحْتَاجُ إِلَى النِّيَّةِ، لَا الْحَالُ.

L8230 Neither residence nor traveling is an action that is commanded. Rather, they are two states for which Allah, the Exalted, has made obligatory the actions He commanded within these states. Therefore, the action is what requires the intention, not the state itself.

وَهُمْ مُوَافِقُونَ لَنَا: أَنَّ السَّفَرَ لَا يَحْتَاجُ إِلَى نِيَّةٍ.

L8231 They are in agreement with us: travel does not require niyyah.

وَلَوْ أَنَّ امْرَأً خَرَجَ لَا يُرِيدُ سَفَرًا فَدَفَعَتْهُ ضَرُورَاتٌ لَمْ يَقْصِدْ لَهَا حَتَّى صَارَ مِنْ مَنْزِلِهِ عَلَى ثَلَاثِ لَيَالٍ، أَوْ سِيرَ بِهِ مَأْسُورًا أَوْ مُكْرَهًا مَحْمُولًا مُجْبَرًا فَإِنَّهُ يَقْصُرُ وَيُفْطِرُ.

L8232 If a person leaves without intending to travel, but necessities he did not intend arise until he becomes three nights away from his residence, or is taken captive, coerced, carried against his will, or forced, he may shorten prayers and break his fast.

وَكَذَلِكَ يَقُولُونَ فِيمَنْ أُقِيمَ بِهِ كُرْهًا فَطَالَتْ بِهِ مُدَّتُهُ فَإِنَّهُ يُتِمُّ وَيَصُومُ، وَكَذَلِكَ يَقُولُونَ فِيمَنْ اُضْطُرَّ لِلْخَوْفِ إِلَى الصَّلَاةِ رَاكِبًا أَوْ مَاشِيًا، فَذَلِكَ الْخَوْفُ وَتِلْكَ الضَّرُورَةُ لَا يُحْتَاجُ فِيهَا إِلَى نِيَّةٍ.

L8233 Similarly, they rule regarding someone subjected to coercion whose period is prolonged: he must complete [his prayers] and fast. Likewise, they rule regarding someone compelled by fear to pray while he is riding or walking: in that fear and that necessity, no intention is required for those acts.

وَكَذَلِكَ النَّوْمُ لَا يَحْتَاجُ إِلَى نِيَّةٍ، وَلَهُ حُكْمٌ فِي إِسْقَاطِ الْوُضُوءِ وَإِيجَابِ تَجْدِيدِهِ وَغَيْرِ ذَلِكَ.

L8234 Similarly, sleep does not require intention, and it has a ruling concerning the invalidation of ablution, the obligation to renew it, and other such matters.

وَكَذَلِكَ الْإِجْنَابُ لَا يَحْتَاجُ إِلَى نِيَّةٍ، وَهُوَ يُوجِبُ الْغُسْلَ.

L8235 Similarly, major ritual impurity does not require intention, but it obligates ghusl.

وَكَذَلِكَ الْحَدَثُ لَا يَحْتَاجُ إِلَى نِيَّةٍ، وَهُوَ يُوجِبُ حُكْمَ الْوُضُوءِ وَالِاسْتِنْجَاءِ، فَكُلُّ عَمَلٍ لَمْ يُؤْمَرْ بِهِ لَكِنْ أُمِرَ فِيهِ بِأَعْمَالٍ مَوْصُوفَةٍ فَهُوَ لَا يَحْتَاجُ إِلَى نِيَّةٍ.

L8236 Similarly, ritual impurity (ḥadath) does not require intention, yet it necessitates the ruling of ablution and istinjāʾ (cleansing after relieving oneself). Therefore, any act not commanded in itself, but in which specific actions are prescribed, does not require intention.

وَمِنْ جُمْلَةِ هَذِهِ الْأَعْمَالِ هِيَ الْإِقَامَةُ وَالسَّفَرُ، فَلَا يُحْتَاجُ فِيهِمَا إِلَى نِيَّةٍ أَصْلًا، لَكِنْ مَتَى وُجِدَا وَجَبَ لِكُلِّ وَاحِدٍ مِنْهُمَا الْحُكْمُ الَّذِي أَمَرَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى بِهِ فِيهِ وَلَا مَزِيدَ - وَبِاللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L8237–8238 Among these categories of acts are residence and travel, for there is absolutely no need for intention in either. However, whenever they occur, the ruling ordained by Allah the Exalted for each becomes obligatory, and no addition—and success comes from Allah, the Exalted.

وَهَذَا قَوْلُ الشَّافِعِيِّ وَأَصْحَابِنَا.

L8239 This is the position of Al-Shafi'i and our companions.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ ابْتَدَأَ صَلَاةً وَهُوَ مُقِيمٌ ثُمَّ نَوَى فِيهَا السَّفَرَ]

٥١٦ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ ابْتَدَأَ صَلَاةً وَهُوَ مُقِيمٌ ثُمَّ نَوَى فِيهَا السَّفَرَ، أَوْ ابْتَدَأَهَا وَهُوَ مُسَافِرٌ ثُمَّ نَوَى فِيهَا أَنْ يُقِيمَ -: أَتَمَّ فِي كِلَا الْحَالَيْنِ.

بُرْهَانُ ذَلِكَ -: مَا ذَكَرْنَاهُ مِنْ أَنَّ الْإِقَامَةَ غَيْرُ السَّفَرِ وَأَنَّهُ لَا يَخْرُجُ عَنْ حُكْمِ الْإِقَامَةِ مِمَّا هُوَ إِقَامَةٌ إِلَّا مَا أَخْرَجَهُ نَصٌّ.

فَهُوَ إِذَا نَوَى فِي الصَّلَاةِ سَفَرًا فَلَمْ يُسَافِرْ بَعْدُ، بَلْ هُوَ مُقِيمٌ، فَلَهُ حُكْمُ الْإِقَامَةِ.

وَإِذَا افْتَتَحَهَا وَهُوَ مُسَافِرٌ فَنَوَى فِيهَا الْإِقَامَةَ فَهُوَ مُقِيمٌ بَعْدُ لَا مُسَافِرٌ، فَلَهُ أَيْضًا حُكْمُ الْإِقَامَةِ.

إِذْ إِنَّمَا كَانَ لَهُ حُكْمُ السَّفَرِ بِالنَّصِّ الْمُخْرِجِ لِتِلْكَ الْحَالِ عَنْ حُكْمِ الْإِقَامَةِ، فَإِذَا بَطَلَتْ تِلْكَ الْحَالُ بِبُطْلَانِ نِيَّتِهِ صَارَ فِي حَالِ الْإِقَامَةِ - وَبِاللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ ذَكَرَ وَهُوَ فِي سَفَرٍ صَلَاةً نَسِيَهَا أَوْ نَامَ عَنْهَا فِي إِقَامَتِهِ]

٥١٧ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ ذَكَرَ وَهُوَ فِي سَفَرٍ صَلَاةً نَسِيَهَا أَوْ نَامَ عَنْهَا فِي إِقَامَتِهِ صَلَّاهَا رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَلَا بُدَّ، فَإِنْ ذَكَرَ فِي الْحَضَرِ صَلَاةً نَسِيَهَا فِي سَفَرٍ صَلَّاهَا أَرْبَعًا وَلَا بُدَّ.

وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ: يُصَلِّيهَا فِي كِلْتَا الْحَالَتَيْنِ: أَرْبَعًا؟ وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: يُصَلِّيهَا إِذَا نَسِيَهَا فِي السَّفَرِ فَذَكَرَهَا فِي الْحَضَرِ: رَكْعَتَيْنِ

Issue: One begins a prayer while being a resident (non-traveler), then forms the intention to travel during it.

516 – Issue: If a person begins prayer in a state of residency and then forms the intention to travel during it, or begins prayer in a state of travel and then forms the intention to reside during it—they must complete the prayer in full in both cases.

The proof for this is what we have previously stated: that settled abode is distinct from travel, and that one does not cease to be governed by the rulings of settled abode in matters constituting settled abode, except what a legal text has explicitly excluded.

If he intended during the prayer to travel but has not yet traveled and remains settled, then the ruling applicable to residents applies to him.

If he initiates the prayer while traveling and then intends during the prayer to settle temporarily (iqāmah), he is thereafter considered a resident, not a traveler, and he is also subject to the rulings of residency.

For the ruling of travel applied to him only by the textual evidence that removes that situation from the ruling of residency. Thus, when that situation ceases due to the abandonment of his intention, he comes under the ruling of residency—and success is from Allah, the Most High.

A legal issue concerning someone who, while traveling, remembers a prayer he had forgotten or slept through during his settled state [i.e., prior to traveling].

517 – Issue: If a person remembers a prayer he forgot or slept through during travel while in residence, he must pray it as two rakʿahs obligatorily. If he remembers a prayer he forgot during travel while in residence, he must pray it as four rakʿahs obligatorily.

Al-Shāfiʿī said: He prays it in both states: four rakʿahs? Mālik said: When he forgets it during travel and remembers it while resident, he prays it as two rakʿahs.

L8249 And if he forgets it while resident and remembers it during travel, he prays it as four rak’ahs.

وَإِذَا نَسِيَهَا فِي الْحَضَرِ فَذَكَرَهَا فِي السَّفَرِ صَلَّاهَا: أَرْبَعًا.

L8250 The argument of al-Shāfiʿī: that the original ruling is completion, and shortening is merely a concession? ʿAlī said: This is an error and an unsupported claim. If we wished to counter him, we would say: Rather, the original ruling is shortening, as ʿĀ’ishah (may Allah be pleased with her) said: “The prayer was ordained as two units, then the resident prayer was extended while the travel prayer was kept in its original form.”

حُجَّةُ الشَّافِعِيِّ: أَنَّ - الْأَصْلَ الْإِتْمَامُ، وَإِنَّمَا الْقَصْرُ رُخْصَةٌ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا خَطَأٌ، وَدَعْوَى بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ، وَلَوْ أَرَدْنَا مُعَارَضَتَهُ لَقُلْنَا: بَلْ الْأَصْلُ الْقَصْرُ، كَمَا قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا - " فُرِضَتْ الصَّلَاةُ رَكْعَتَيْنِ فَزِيدَ فِي صَلَاةِ الْحَضَرِ وَأُقِرَّتْ صَلَاةُ السَّفَرِ عَلَى الْحَالَةِ الْأُولَى ".

L8251 But we do not condone disorder; rather, we assert: Indeed, the traveler’s prayer is a foundational principle, and the resident’s prayer is a foundational principle. Neither is a branch of the other. Thus, this view is invalidated.

وَلَكِنَّا لَا نَرْضَى بِالشَّغَبِ، بَلْ نَقُولُ: إنَّ صَلَاةَ السَّفَرِ أَصْلٌ، وَصَلَاةَ الْإِقَامَةِ أَصْلٌ، لَيْسَتْ إحْدَاهُمَا فَرْعًا لِلْأُخْرَى، فَبَطَلَ هَذَا الْقَوْلُ.

L8252–8253 Malik cited as evidence that the prayer, when missed, is to be performed only as it was obligated.

وَاحْتَجَّ مَالِكٌ بِأَنَّ الصَّلَاةَ إنَّمَا تُؤَدَّى كَمَا لَزِمَتْ إذَا فَاتَتْ.

L8254 Ali said: “This too is an unsubstantiated claim, for anything of this nature is erroneous. He is the foremost to violate this foundational principle and undermine it in every instance, except here where it is a contradiction. This is because he asserts: ’Whoever misses the Friday prayer should only pray it as four rakʿahs.’” قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا أَيْضًا دَعْوَى بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ، وَمَا كَانَ هَكَذَا فَهُوَ خَطَأٌ، وَهُوَ أَوَّلُ مَنْ يُخَالِفُ هَذَا الْأَصْلَ وَيَهْدِمُهُ فِي كُلِّ مَوْضِعٍ، إلَّا هُنَا فَإِنَّهُ تَنَاقُضٌ، وَذَلِكَ أَنَّهُ يَقُولُ: مَنْ فَاتَتْهُ صَلَاةُ الْجُمُعَةِ فَإِنَّهُ لَا يُصَلِّيهَا إلَّا أَرْبَعَ رَكَعَاتٍ.

L8255 Whoever missed prayers during their illness—prayers whose ruling, if performed during illness, obligates praying seated, lying down, or nodding—must pray them standing if remembered in a state of health.

وَمَنْ فَاتَتْهُ فِي حَالِ مَرَضِهِ صَلَوَاتٌ كَانَ حُكْمُهَا لَوْ صَلَّاهَا أَنْ يُصَلِّيَهَا قَاعِدًا أَوْ مُضْطَجِعًا أَوْ مُومِئًا فَذَكَرَهَا فِي صِحَّتِهِ -: فَإِنَّهُ لَا يُصَلِّيهَا إلَّا قَائِمًا.

L8256 Whoever, during the aforementioned illness, remembers a prayer he missed while healthy, the ruling is that he should pray it standing. For indeed, he should not pray it except sitting or lying down.

وَمَنْ ذَكَرَ فِي حَالِ الْمَرَضِ الْمَذْكُورِ صَلَاةً فَاتَتْهُ فِي صِحَّتِهِ كَانَ حُكْمُهَا أَنْ يُصَلِّيَهَا قَائِمًا فَإِنَّهُ لَا يُصَلِّيهَا إلَّا قَاعِدًا أَوْ مُضْطَجِعًا.

L8257 “Whoever, in a state of fear, prays a prayer he had forgotten to perform during a state of safety—whether riding or walking—must perform it riding or walking.”

وَمَنْ صَلَّى فِي حَالِ خَوْفٍ رَاكِبًا أَوْ مَاشِيًا صَلَاةً نَسِيَهَا فِي حَالِ الْأَمْنِ فَإِنَّهُ يُؤَدِّيهَا رَاكِبًا أَوْ مَاشِيًا.

L8258 Whoever remembers a prayer during safe circumstances that they had forgotten during circumstances of danger—where, had they prayed it at that time, they would have done so while riding or walking—must pray it dismounted and standing.

وَمَنْ ذَكَرَ فِي حَالِ الْأَمْنِ صَلَاةً نَسِيَهَا فِي حَالِ الْخَوْفِ حَيْثُ لَوْ صَلَّاهَا لَصَلَّاهَا رَاكِبًا أَوْ مَاشِيًا فَإِنَّهُ لَا يُصَلِّيهَا إِلَّا نَازِلًا قَائِمًا.

L8259 And whoever forgets a prayer that—had he prayed it during its prescribed time, he would not have prayed it except in a state of wuḍūʾ—then remembers it while in a state of tayammum: he must pray it in a state of tayammum.

وَمَنْ نَسِيَ صَلَاةً لَوْ صَلَّاهَا فِي وَقْتِهَا لَمْ يُصَلِّهَا إِلَّا مُتَوَضِّئًا فَذَكَرَهَا فِي حَالِ تَيَمُّمٍ: صَلَّاهَا مُتَيَمِّمًا.

L8260 If someone forgot a prayer that - had they prayed it during its prescribed time - they would only have performed it with tayammum (dry ablution), then remembered it with water available, they must not pray it except with wudu (ritual ablution).

وَلَوْ نَسِيَ صَلَاةً لَوْ صَلَّاهَا فِي وَقْتِهَا لَمْ يُصَلِّهَا إِلَّا مُتَيَمِّمًا فَذَكَرَهَا وَالْمَاءُ مَعَهُ فَإِنَّهُ لَا يُصَلِّيهَا إِلَّا مُتَوَضِّئًا.

L8261 The people, by their own claim, are proponents of qiyas [legal analogy], and this is the extent of their analogy.

وَالْقَوْمُ أَصْحَابُ قِيَاسٍ بِزَعْمِهِمْ، وَهَذَا مِقْدَارُ قِيَاسِهِمْ

L8262 As for us, our proof in this matter is the statement of Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—: "Whoever forgets a prayer or sleeps through it, let him pray it when he remembers." He—peace be upon him—indeed designated its time as the moment of its performance, not the time when it was forgotten or slept through. Thus, is every prayer performed during travel necessarily a prayer in the state of travel, and every prayer performed in residency necessarily a prayer in the state of residency?

وَأَمَّا نَحْنُ فَإِنَّ حُجَّتَنَا فِي هَذَا إِنَّمَا هُوَ قَوْلُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «مَنْ نَسِيَ صَلَاةً أَوْ نَامَ عَنْهَا فَلْيُصَلِّهَا إِذَا ذَكَرَهَا» فَإِنَّمَا جَعَلَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - وَقْتَهَا وَقْتَ أَدَائِهَا لَا الْوَقْتَ الَّذِي نَسِيَهَا فِيهِ أَوْ نَامَ عَنْهَا، فَكُلُّ صَلَاةٍ تُؤَدَّى فِي سَفَرٍ فَهِيَ صَلَاةُ سَفَرٍ، وَكُلُّ صَلَاةٍ تُؤَدَّى فِي حَضَرٍ فَهِيَ صَلَاةُ حَضَرٍ وَلَا بُدَّ؟

L8263–8264 If it is said: "Indeed, in this narration there is: 'just as he used to pray it at its time,'" we respond: This is invalid, for this is a fabricated phrase that has never come through any chain of acceptable quality.

فَإِنْ قِيلَ: فَإِنَّ فِي هَذَا الْخَبَرِ «كَمَا كَانَ يُصَلِّيهَا لِوَقْتِهَا» . قُلْنَا: هَذَا بَاطِلٌ، وَهَذِهِ لَفْظَةٌ مَوْضُوعَةٌ لَمْ تَأْتِ قَطُّ مِنْ طَرِيقٍ فِيهَا خَيْرٌ

L8265 Ali said: As for our statement: If one forgets a prayer during travel and remembers it while resident, he must pray it only as four units—this is the position of Al-Awzaʿī, Al-Shāfiʿī, and others besides them.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَأَمَّا قَوْلُنَا: إِنْ نَسِيَ صَلَاةً فِي سَفَرٍ فَذَكَرَهَا فِي حَضَرٍ فَإِنَّهُ لَا يُصَلِّيهَا إِلَّا أَرْبَعًا -: فَهُوَ قَوْلُ الْأَوْزَاعِيِّ، وَالشَّافِعِيِّ، وَغَيْرِهِمَا.

L8266 As for our statement: If one forgets it while resident then remembers it during travel, he should perform it in the travel format—this is a view narrated from al-Ḥasan. And success is from Allah, the Exalted.

وَأَمَّا قَوْلُنَا: إِنْ نَسِيَهَا فِي حَضَرٍ فَذَكَرَهَا فِي سَفَرٍ فَإِنَّهُ يُصَلِّيهَا سَفَرِيَّةً -: فَهُوَ قَوْلٌ رُوِيَ عَنْ الْحَسَنِ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ

L8267 Ash-Shāfiʿī said: No one should perform the shortened prayer except for one who has formed the intention to shorten it at the time of the opening takbīr (takbīrat al-iḥrām).

وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ: لَا يَقْصُرُ إِلَّا مَنْ نَوَى الْقَصْرَ فِي تَكْبِيرَةِ الْإِحْرَامِ.

L8268 Ali said: This is incorrect because Al-Shafi'i contradicted himself by not requiring the intention for completing prayers. This follows his principle - whose error we have already clarified - that the default position in his view is completing full prayers, considering shortening as an extraneous addition? We have established that the traveler's prayer consists of two rak'ahs, requiring one to intend only Dhuhr, Asr, or Isha (Atamah).

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا خَطَأٌ، لِأَنَّ الشَّافِعِيَّ قَدْ تَنَاقَضَ، فَلَمْ يَرَ النِّيَّةَ لِلْإِتْمَامِ، وَهَذَا عَلَى أَصْلِهِ الَّذِي قَدْ بَيَّنَّا خَطَأَهُ فِيهِ، مِنْ أَنَّ الْأَصْلَ عِنْدَهُ الْإِتْمَامُ، وَالْقَصْرُ دَخِيلٌ؟ وَقَدْ بَيَّنَّا أَنَّ صَلَاةَ السَّفَرِ رَكْعَتَانِ، فَلَا يَلْزَمُهُ إِلَّا أَنْ يَنْوِيَ الظُّهْرَ، أَوْ الْعَصْرَ، أَوْ الْعَتَمَةَ فَقَطْ.

L8269 Then, if he is settled, the prayer is four rak'ahs, and if he is a traveler, it is two rak'ahs, without fail.

ثُمَّ إِنْ كَانَ مُقِيمًا فَهِيَ أَرْبَعٌ، وَإِنْ كَانَ مُسَافِرًا فَهِيَ رَكْعَتَانِ وَلَا بُدَّ

L8270 It is invalid to impose the requirement of intention in one of the two juristic positions while excluding the other—and divine assistance comes solely from Allah, the Exalted.

وَمِنْ الْبَاطِلِ إِلْزَامُهُ النِّيَّةَ فِي أَحَدِ الْوَجْهَيْنِ دُونَ الْآخَرِ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L8271 Issue: A traveler prayed behind a resident imam.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ مُسَافِرٌ صَلَّى بِصَلَاةِ إمَامٍ مُقِيمٍ]

L8272 518 – Legal Ruling: If a traveler prays following a resident imam's prayer, he must shorten [his prayer] without exception. If a resident prays following a traveler's prayer, he must complete it without exception. Each individual prays for himself, and the leadership of either one over the other in prayer is permissible, there being no distinction.

٥١٨ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: فَإِنْ صَلَّى مُسَافِرٌ بِصَلَاةِ إمَامٍ مُقِيمٍ قَصَرَ وَلَا بُدَّ، وَإِنْ صَلَّى مُقِيمٌ بِصَلَاةِ مُسَافِرٍ أَتَمَّ وَلَا بُدَّ، وَكُلُّ أَحَدٍ يُصَلِّي لِنَفْسِهِ، وَإِمَامَةُ كُلِّ وَاحِدٍ مِنْهُمَا لِلْآخَرِ جَائِزَةٌ وَلَا فَرْقَ؟

L8273 It has been narrated to us through the chain of Abd al-Razzaq from Sa'id ibn al-Sa'ib from Dawud ibn Abi Asim, who said: "I asked Ibn Umar about prayer during travel. He replied: 'Two rak'ahs.' I said: 'What is your view while we are here in Mina?' He said: 'Woe to you! Have you heard from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) and believed in him?' I said: 'Yes.' He said: 'He used to pray two rak'ahs, so pray two rak'ahs if you wish or omit them.'" This constitutes an explicit clarification of Ibn Umar's command that the traveler should pray only two rak'ahs behind the resident prayer leader.

رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ السَّائِبِ عَنْ دَاوُد بْنِ أَبِي عَاصِمٍ قَالَ: «سَأَلْتُ ابْنَ عُمَرَ عَنْ الصَّلَاةِ فِي السَّفَرِ؟ فَقَالَ: رَكْعَتَانِ؟ قُلْتُ: كَيْفَ تَرَى وَنَحْنُ هَهُنَا بِمِنًى؟ قَالَ: وَيْحَك سَمِعْتَ بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَآمَنْتَ بِهِ؟ قُلْتُ: نَعَمْ؟ قَالَ فَإِنَّهُ كَانَ يُصَلِّي رَكْعَتَيْنِ فَصَلِّ رَكْعَتَيْنِ إنْ شِئْت أَوْ دَعْ -» وَهَذَا بَيَانٌ جَلِيٌّ بِأَمْرِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ الْمُسَافِرَ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ خَلْفَ الْمُقِيمِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ فَقَطْ

L8275–8276 He said: My father, when he caught one rakʿah of the resident's prayer as a traveler, would pray another one to it, and when he caught two rakʿahs, he deemed them sufficient? ʿAlī said: Tamīm ibn Ḥadhlam is among the senior companions of Ibn Masʿūd—may Allāh be pleased with him.

قَالَ: كَانَ أَبِي إِذَا أَدْرَكَ مِنْ صَلَاةِ الْمُقِيمِ رَكْعَةً - وَهُوَ مُسَافِرٌ - صَلَّى إِلَيْهَا أُخْرَى، وَإِذَا أَدْرَكَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ اجْتَزَأَ بِهِمَا؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: تَمِيمُ بْنُ حَذْلَمٍ مِنْ كِبَارِ أَصْحَابِ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ -.

L8277 From Shuʿbah, from Maṭar ibn Fīl, from al-Shaʿbī, who said: If one is a traveler and catches two rakʿahs of the resident prayer, are they considered valid for him? From Shuʿbah, from Sulaymān al-Taymī, who said: I heard Ṭāwūs being asked about a traveler who catches two rakʿahs of the residents' prayer. He said: "They are sufficient for him." ʿAlī said: The evidence for the soundness of our view is what has been authentically reported from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) - that Allah the Exalted ordained through his words the resident prayer as four rakʿahs and the traveler's prayer as two rakʿahs.

He—peace be upon him—did not distinguish between a follower, a leader, and one praying alone. {And your Lord is not forgetful} [Maryam 19:64].[8]

L8280 Ali said: What is astonishing is the stance of the Malikis, Shafiʿis, and Ḥanafis who assert that a resident praying behind a traveler must complete the prayer and does not adopt the imam's ruling regarding shortening it, whereas indeed a traveler praying behind a resident must adopt the imam's ruling regarding completing it.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَالْعَجَبُ مِنْ الْمَالِكِيِّينَ، وَالشَّافِعِيِّينَ، وَالْحَنَفِيِّينَ الْقَائِلِينَ: بِأَنَّ الْمُقِيمَ خَلْفَ الْمُسَافِرِ يُتِمُّ وَلَا يَنْتَقِلُ إلَى حُكْمِ إمَامِهِ فِي التَّقْصِيرِ، وَإِنَّ الْمُسَافِرَ خَلْفَ الْمُقِيمِ يَنْتَقِلُ إلَى حُكْمِ إمَامِهِ فِي الْإِتْمَامِ.

L8281–8283 They allege—according to their dubious claim—that they are the proponents of legal analogy (qiyās), though were any valid analogy to exist in existence, it would indeed be this one. The most valid analogy that exists, but this is among matters where they abandoned the Qur'an, the Sunnah, and analogy. I found no argument for them except that some of them said: "When a traveler intends to settle at the start of his prayer, he becomes obligated to complete it, while a resident who intends to travel at the start of his prayer does not shorten it." They said: "If one alters his intention toward completing prayers due to his imam's ruling, should he not instead adhere to it?" 'Ali responded: "This analogy is utterly invalid, for there is no connection or resemblance between shifting intention from travel to settlement and following a resident imam. Rather, equating these two matters is manifestly baseless." Some of them cited the Prophet's statement (peace be upon him): 'The imam is appointed only to be followed.' We countered: 'Then you should require residents following a traveling imam to follow him!' One of them argued: 'There is a report: "Complete your prayers, for we are travelers."' We replied: "If this were authentic, it would contradict your position, for it indicates travelers generally shorten prayers without distinguishing between imam and follower. Thus, the ruling here requires travelers to shorten prayers absolutely, and residents to complete them absolutely—neither considering their imam's status. Success comes only from Allah, the Exalted."

Prayer of Fear

[صَلَاةُ الْخَوْفِ]

A case: If someone intends to pray and fear of an enemy arises, and they are three or more in number.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ أَرَادَ الصَّلَاةَ فَحَضَرَهُ خَوْفٌ مِنْ عَدُوٍّ وَهُمْ ثَلَاثَةٌ فَصَاعِدًا]

L8286–8288 519 - Issue: If someone is present amidst fear from an unjust disbelieving enemy, or a rebel from among the Muslims, or from a flood, fire, snake, predatory beast, or other such dangers—and they are three people or more—then their leader may choose between fourteen ways, all of which are authentically reported from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). We have elucidated these with utmost clarity and exhaustive detail in another book, and all praise is due to Allah, Lord of the worlds. We have composed this book for the layperson, the novice, and as a reminder for the scholar. Here, we shall mention some of those ways that are easier to memorize, simpler to comprehend, and are not difficult to implement—and with Allah alone is success. If they are traveling, then if he wills, he should pray two rakʿahs with one group, then conclude with salām and they conclude with salām. Thereafter, another group may come, and he prays two rakʿahs with them, then concludes with salām and they conclude with salām. If they are residents, he prays four rakʿahs with each group. For the Dawn Prayer, he prays two rakʿahs with each group. For the Sunset Prayer, he prays [...] A group prays three rak'ahs: the first is the imam's obligatory prayer, and the second his supererogatory prayer. If he wishes, even during travel, he may pray one rak'ah with each group. That group then performs the taslīm, which suffices for both. The imam may either say the taslīm himself or refrain. He then prays one rak'ah with the remaining group, after which he and they perform the taslīm, and this suffices for them all.

٥١٩ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: مَنْ حَضَرَهُ خَوْفٌ مِنْ عَدُوٍّ ظَالِمٍ كَافِرٍ، أَوْ بَاغٍ مِنْ الْمُسْلِمِينَ، أَوْ مِنْ سَيْلٍ، أَوْ مِنْ نَارٍ، أَوْ مِنْ حَنَشٍ، أَوْ سَبُعٍ، أَوْ غَيْرِ ذَلِكَ وَهُمْ فِي ثَلَاثَةٍ فَصَاعِدًا -: فَأَمِيرُهُمْ مُخَيَّرٌ بَيْنَ أَرْبَعَةَ عَشَرَ وَجْهًا، كُلُّهَا صَحَّ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ - قَدْ بَيَّنَّاهَا غَايَةَ الْبَيَانِ وَالتَّقَصِّي فِي غَيْرِ هَذَا الْكِتَابِ، وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ؟ وَإِنَّمَا كَتَبْنَا كِتَابَنَا هَذَا لِلْعَامِّيِّ وَالْمُبْتَدِئِ وَتَذْكِرَةً لِلْعَالِمِ، فَنَذْكُرُ هَهُنَا بَعْضَ تِلْكَ الْوُجُوهِ، مِمَّا يَقْرُبُ حِفْظُهُ وَيَسْهُلُ فَهْمُهُ، وَلَا يَضْعُفُ فِعْلُهُ، وَبِاللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ؟ فَإِنْ كَانَ فِي سَفَرٍ، فَإِنْ شَاءَ صَلَّى بِطَائِفَةٍ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ سَلَّمَ وَسَلَّمُوا، ثُمَّ تَأْتِي طَائِفَةٌ أُخْرَى فَيُصَلِّي بِهِمْ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ يُسَلِّمُ وَيُسَلِّمُونَ، وَإِنْ كَانَ فِي حَضَرٍ صَلَّى بِكُلِّ طَائِفَةٍ أَرْبَعَ رَكَعَاتٍ، وَإِنْ كَانَتْ الصُّبْحُ صَلَّى بِكُلِّ طَائِفَةٍ رَكْعَتَيْنِ، وَإِنْ كَانَتْ الْمَغْرِبُ صَلَّى بِكُلِّ طَائِفَةٍ ثَلَاثَ رَكَعَاتٍ، الْأُولَى فَرْضُ الْإِمَامِ، وَالثَّانِيَةُ تَطَوُّعٌ لَهُ وَإِنْ شَاءَ فِي السَّفَرِ أَيْضًا صَلَّى بِكُلِّ طَائِفَةٍ رَكْعَةً ثُمَّ تُسَلِّمُ تِلْكَ الطَّائِفَةُ وَيُجْزِئُهُمَا، وَإِنْ شَاءَ هُوَ سَلَّمَ، وَإِنْ شَاءَ لَمْ يُسَلِّمْ، وَيُصَلِّي بِالْأُخْرَى رَكْعَةً وَيُسَلِّمُ وَيُسَلِّمُونَ وَيُجْزِئُهُمْ.

If the group wishes to complete the rakʿah while the imam is standing, they may do so, then perform the second rakʿah in the same manner. If it is the Fajr prayer, he prays one rakʿah with the first group, then he must necessarily pause, and they complete one rakʿah and say the salām. Then the second group arrives, and he leads them in the second rakʿah. When he sits, they stand and complete one rakʿah, then he says the salām, and they say it after him. If it is the Maghrib prayer, he prays two rakʿahs with the first group. When he sits, they stand and complete one rakʿah and say the salām. Then the other group arrives, and he leads them in the remaining rakʿah. When he sits again, they pray one rakʿah, then sit and recite the Tashahhud, then pray the third rakʿah. Then he says the salām, and they say it after him. If one is alone during travel, he may choose between two rakʿahs or one rakʿah, which suffices him. As for Fajr, it must be two rakʿahs without exception; Maghrib must be three without exception; and while not traveling, it must be four without exception. This ruling applies equally whether the fear arises from a rightful pursuit or a wrongful one.

L8290 Allah, the Exalted, said: {When you travel through the land, there is no blame upon you for shortening the prayer if you fear persecution by those who disbelieve. Indeed, the disbelievers are ever your manifest enemies} [An-Nisā': 101]. {When you are among them and lead the prayer for them, let a group stand with you, taking their weapons. When they have prostrated, let them remain behind you, and let another group, who have not yet prayed, come forward to pray with you, taking their caution and weapons} [An-Nisā': 102].[10]

L8291 This verse, by its generality, entails the attributes we have explicitly stated. Then, whatever is authentically reported from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—it is not permissible for anyone to turn away from any part of it. Allah the Exalted has commanded His Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—to say: "Say, 'Indeed, my Lord has guided me to a straight path—a religion of uprightness, the way of Abraham, the hanif, who was not among the polytheists.'" [Al-An'am 6:161].[11]

L8292–8293 And He, the Exalted, said: "Who would turn away from the religion of Abraham except one who fools himself?" [Al-Baqarah: 130].[12]

L8294 Every thing done by the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—is part of his religious practice, and his religious practice is that of Abraham—peace be upon him. We mentioned briefly earlier in the chapter on one who forgets a prayer and finds a congregation praying—as narrated in the ḥadīth of Abū Bakra and Jābir—that he prays another prayer: "The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—led one group in two units during the prayer during fear, then concluded. He then led another group in two units and concluded."

L8295 We have mentioned those among the early predecessors who stated that, making its repetition unnecessary, and this was the final action of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—because Abu Bakrah witnessed it with him, and he only embraced Islam on the day of Ta'if. After Ta'if, the Prophet—peace be upon him—did not undertake any military expedition except Tabuk only.

L8296 Therefore, these are the finest descriptions of the fear prayer due to the reasons we have mentioned.

L8297 Al-Shafi'i and Ahmad ibn Hanbal held this opinion.

L8298 We have also mentioned the ḥadīth of Ibn ʻAbbās: "Allah prescribed prayer through your Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—as four rakʻahs in settled residence, two rakʻahs during travel, and one rakʻah in times of fear." This was transmitted to us by ʻAbdullāh ibn Rabīʻ who narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Muʻāwiyah narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Shuʻayb stated: I am ʻAmr ibn ʻAlī who narrated to us: Yaḥyā ibn Saʻīd al-Qaṭṭān narrated to us: Sufyān al-Thawrī narrated to me: Ashʻath ibn Sulaym—who is Ibn Abī al-Shaʻthā'—narrated to me from al-Aswad ibn Hilāl from Thaʻlabah ibn Zuḥdam who said: "We were with Saʻīd ibn al-ʻĀṣ in Ṭabaristān when he asked: 'Which of you prayed the Fear Prayer with Allah's Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him)?' Ḥudhayfah responded: 'I did.' Ḥudhayfah then stood and arranged the people behind him in two rows—one row behind him and another row facing the enemy. He prayed one rakʻah with those directly behind him. Then the front row moved to the position of the rear row, and the rear row came forward. He prayed another rakʻah with them, and they did not make up [any remaining prayer]."

L8299 Sufyan said: Ar-Rukayn ibn ar-Rabīʻ narrated to me, on the authority of al-Qāsim ibn Ḥassān, on the authority of Zayd ibn Thābit, on the authority of the Prophet (peace be upon him) - similar to the prayer of Ḥudhayfah.

L8300 Ali said: Al-Aswad ibn Hilal is a trustworthy, well-known figure, and Tha'labah ibn Zuhdam is one of the Companions, a Hanzali. Tha'labah came as part of a delegation to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, heard from him, and narrated from him.

L8301–8303 And this has also been authenticated as a Musnad through the chain of Yazīd فَهَذِهِ أَفْضَلُ صِفَاتِ صَلَاةِ الْخَوْفِ لِمَا ذَكَرْنَا.

قَالَ سُفْيَانُ: وَحَدَّثَنِي الرُّكَيْنُ بْنُ الرَّبِيعِ عَنْ الْقَاسِمِ بْنِ حَسَّانَ عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِثْلَ صَلَاةِ حُذَيْفَةَ.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: الْأَسْوَدُ بْنُ هِلَالٍ ثِقَةٌ مَشْهُورٌ، وَثَعْلَبَةُ بْنُ زَهْدَمٍ أَحَدُ الصَّحَابَةِ حَنْظَلِيٌّ وَفَدَ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَسَمِعَ مِنْهُ وَرَوَى عَنْهُ.

ibn Zurayʿ and Abū Dāwūd al-Ṭayālisī, both of them from... Abd al-Rahman ibn Abd Allah al-Mas'udi reported from Yazid al-Faqir, from Jabir, from the Prophet (peace be upon him). Jabir further reported that the shortening [qasr] mentioned in the verse pertains to this fear, not the two-unit prayer during travel.

وَصَحَّ هَذَا أَيْضًا مُسْنَدًا مِنْ طَرِيقِ يَزِيدَ بْنِ زُرَيْعٍ، وَأَبِي دَاوُد الطَّيَالِسِيِّ كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ الْمَسْعُودِيِّ عَنْ يَزِيدَ الْفَقِيرِ عَنْ جَابِرٍ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَأَخْبَرَ جَابِرٌ أَنَّ الْقَصْرَ الْمَذْكُورَ فِي الْآيَةِ عِنْدَ الْخَوْفِ هُوَ هَذَا؟ لَا كَوْنُ الصَّلَاةِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ فِي السَّفَرِ

L8304 It has also been authenticated—through the chain of al-Zuhri from ʿUbayd Allāh ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn ʿUtbah ibn Masʿūd from Ibn ʿAbbās from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. It has also been narrated from Ibn ʿUmar.

وَصَحَّ أَيْضًا: مِنْ طَرِيقِ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُتْبَةَ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَرُوِيَ أَيْضًا عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ.

L8305 Thus, these are mass-transmitted and mutually corroborating narrations, and the majority of the Salaf upheld this position.

فَهَذِهِ آثَارٌ مُتَظَاهِرَةٌ مُتَوَاتِرَةٌ، وَقَالَ بِهَذَا جُمْهُورٌ مِنْ السَّلَفِ.

L8306 It was narrated from Hudhayfah during the days of ʿUthmān—may Allah be pleased with him—and the Companions with him, with none rejecting this, and from Jābir and others. It was narrated to us from Abū Hurayrah that he led those with him in the Prayer of Fear, praying one rakʿah with each group, though he neither completed nor ordered its completion. From Ibn ʿAbbās: "Does one gesture symbolically for a single rakʿah during combat?" From al-Ḥasan: "Abū Mūsā al-Ashʿarī prayed one rakʿah in the Prayer of Fear." From Maʿmar, from ʿAbdullāh ibn Ṭāwūs, from his father, who said: "When engaged in close combat, is it merely a single rakʿah gestured symbolically in whatever direction one faces—whether mounted or on foot?"

L8307 From Sufyan al-Thawri, through Yunus ibn ʿUbayd, from al-Hasan, who said regarding the prayer during pursuit: one rakʿah. Through the narration of Saʿid ibn ʿAbd al-ʿAziz, from Makhul, concerning the prayer in fear: If people cannot pray on the ground, they should pray two rakʿahs on the backs of mounts. If they cannot, then one rakʿah with its two prostrations. If they remain unable, should they delay [prayer] to a place where they are safe? ʿAli said: As for delaying it beyond its prescribed time, this is entirely impermissible, for neither Allah the Exalted nor His Messenger—peace and يَحِلُّ أَلْبَتَّةَ؛ لِأَنَّهُ لَمْ يَسْمَحِ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى فِي تَأْخِيرِهَا وَلَا رَسُولُهُ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -. قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {فَإِنْ خِفْتُمْ فَرِجَالا أَوْ رُكْبَانًا} [البقرة: ٢٣٩] .

L8308–8310 Sufyan al-Thawri said: Salim ibn ’Ajlan al-Aftas narrated to me, saying: “I heard Sa’id ibn Jubayr.” He said: How can there be shortening [of prayer] when they pray two rak’ahs? Rather, it is each rak’ah individually, performing it with abbreviated gestures wherever one’s face is directed. From Shu‘bah, from Abī Maslamah—he being Sa‘īd ibn Yazīd—from Abī Naḍrah, from Jābir ibn Ghurāb: We were arrayed in battle formation against the enemy in Persia, our faces toward the east. Hārim ibn Ḥayyān said: Let each of you pray one rak’ah beneath his shield wherever his face is directed. From ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī, from Shu‘bah, who said: I asked al-Ḥakam ibn ‘Utaybah, Ḥammād ibn Abī Sulaymān, and Qatādah about the prayer during armed engagement. They said: One rak’ah wherever one’s face is directed. From Wakī‘, from Shu‘bah, from al-Mughīrah ibn Miqsam, from Ibrāhīm—a statement similar to that of al-Ḥakam, Ḥammād, and Qatādah.

L8311 On the authority of Abu Awanah, on the authority of Abu Bishr, on the authority of Mujahid concerning Allah’s statement: “But if you fear, then [pray] on foot or riding” [Al-Baqarah 2:239], he said: In the presence of the enemy, one may pray while riding or on foot, gesturing in the direction he faces, and a single rak‘ah suffices him.[14] وَعَنْ أَبِي عَوَانَةَ عَنْ أَبِي بِشْرٍ عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ فِي قَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {فَإِنْ خِفْتُمْ فَرِجَالا أَوْ رُكْبَانًا} [البقرة: ٢٣٩] قَالَ: فِي الْعَدُوِّ يُصَلِّي رَاكِبًا وَرَاجِلًا يُومِئُ حَيْثُ كَانَ وَجْهُهُ، وَالرَّكْعَةُ الْوَاحِدَةُ تُجْزِئُهُ.

L8312 And do Sufyān al-Thawrī and Isḥāq ibn Rāhawayh not say the same? ʿAlī said: “These two practices are the most beloved actions to us, without us turning away from the rest of what has been authentically reported from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) regarding that matter. We seek refuge with Allah from this!”

وَبِهِ يَقُولُ سُفْيَانُ الثَّوْرِيُّ، وَإِسْحَاقُ بْنُ رَاهْوَيْهِ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَانِ الْعَمَلَانِ أَحَبُّ الْعَمَلِ إلَيْنَا، مِنْ غَيْرِ أَنْ نَرْغَبَ عَنْ سَائِرِ مَا صَحَّ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي ذَلِكَ، وَمَعَاذَ اللَّهِ مِنْ هَذَا.

L8313 However, we have inclined toward these two due to the ease for every layperson and scholar to act upon them, and due to the large number of narrators who transmitted them from the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him.

L8314 And due to the multitude of those who upheld these two positions among the Companions and the Followers, and due to the mass transmission of the report concerning them from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—and because they align with the Qur'an?

L8315–8316 Some of those who care not for lying—out of partisan zeal for their ruinous blind adherence—declared: "In our view, the matter is that they have passed judgment." ʿAlī said: "This is a total abandonment of modesty and an open pursuit of lying."

L8317 There is no distinction between one who made this statement and one who said: "According to our position, did they complete four rakʿahs?" or who declared: "We have not found in the foundational sources any prayer consisting of one rakʿah?" We responded to them: "Nor did you find in the foundational sources an Imam leading two parties in prayer, nor prayer directed away from the qiblah, nor prayer where the follower compensates for missed portions before his Imam completes the prayer, nor prayer where the follower stands idly—neither praying with his Imam nor completing his own prayer. Yet all this you deem permissible in the prayer of fear. Nor did you find anything of the religion except what Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—conveyed from Allah the Exalted. Are the foundational sources anything other than the Qur'an and the Sunnah?"

L8318 If it is said: It has been reported through Hudhayfa's narration that he commanded making up a rakʿah, we respond: This was solely narrated by Al-Ḥajjāj ibn Arṭāʾah, who is rejected; it is impermissible to narrate from him. Furthermore, even if the report were authentic, it would not invalidate the narration of trustworthy ones that they did not make up the rakʿah. Rather, would all that not be permissible?

L8319 Some of them said: "It has been reported from Ḥudhayfa that the prayer of fear consists of two rakʿahs and four prostrations." We replied: "This is from the narration of Yaḥyā al-Ḥimmānī, who is weak, from Sharīk, who is L8320 From Hudhayfah: He said to Saʿid, "Instruct a group of your companions to pray with you and another group to remain behind you. Then lead them in two rakʿahs and four prostrations, for this is how we describe the Imam's prayer with them."

- عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ: أَنَّهُ قَالَ لِسَعِيدٍ: مُرْ طَائِفَةً مِنْ أَصْحَابِك فَيُصَلُّونَ مَعَكَ، وَطَائِفَةً خَلْفَكُمْ، فَتُصَلِّي بِهِمْ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَأَرْبَعَ سَجَدَاتٍ؟ وَهَكَذَا نَقُولُ: فِي صَلَاةِ الْإِمَامِ بِهِمْ

L8321 Some of them asked: "Has it been authentically reported from the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—that 'prayers during the night and day are performed two by two?'" We replied: "Yes, except in cases where a textual proof specifies fewer than two units—such as the Witr Prayer and the Prayer in Times of Fear—or more than two units, like Dhuhr, ʿAṣr, and ʿIshāʾ."

وَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ: قَدْ صَحَّ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «صَلَاةُ اللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ مَثْنَى مَثْنَى» ؟ قُلْنَا: نَعَمْ، إلَّا مَا جَاءَ نَصٌّ فِيهِ أَنَّهُ أَقَلُّ مِنْ مَثْنَى، كَالْوِتْرِ، وَصَلَاةِ الْخَوْفِ أَوْ أَكْثَرُ مِنْ مَثْنَى، كَالظُّهْرِ، وَالْعَصْرِ، وَالْعِشَاءِ.

L8322 Some of them said: "Has Al-Butayrāʾ been prohibited?"

وَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ: قَدْ نُهِيَ عَنْ " الْبُتَيْرَاءِ "؟

L8323–8324 Ali said, "This is a lie and a fabricated report."

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذِهِ كِذْبَةٌ وَخَبَرٌ مَوْضُوعٌ.

L8325 We do not know of "the shortened prayer" in any matter of the religion—and all praise belongs to Allah. Some of them said: "You permit the Imam to pray with them one rak'ah and conclude with the salām if he wills, or connect it to another rak'ah by the second group if he wills. And we know with certainty that whatever a person may choose to perform or omit is a voluntary act, not an obligation. Since this is so, it is impossible to join his obligatory prayer with a voluntary one without separating them with a salām." Ali said: "What they mentioned only applies where there is no explicit text. When a text exists, all such reasoning becomes invalid—it is impermissible to use it to oppose Allah the Exalted and His Messenger—peace be upon him."

وَمَا نَدْرِي " الْبُتَيْرَاءَ " فِي شَيْءٍ مِنْ الدِّينِ - وَلِلَّهِ الْحَمْدُ وَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ: أَنْتُمْ تُجِيزُونَ لِلْإِمَامِ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ بِهِمْ إنْ شَاءَ رَكْعَةً وَيُسَلِّمَ، وَإِنْ شَاءَ وَصَلَهَا بِأُخْرَى بِالطَّائِفَةِ الثَّانِيَةِ، وَبِيَقِينٍ نَدْرِي أَنَّ مَا كَانَ لِلْمَرْءِ فِعْلُهُ وَتَرْكُهُ فَهُوَ تَطَوُّعٌ لَا فَرْضٌ، وَإِذْ ذَلِكَ كَذَلِكَ فَمُحَالٌ أَنْ يَصِلَ فَرْضَهُ بِتَطَوُّعٍ لَا يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَهُمَا سَلَامٌ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: إنَّمَا يَكُونُ مَا ذَكَرُوا فِيمَا لَمْ يَأْتِ بِهِ نَصٌّ، وَأَمَّا إذَا جَاءَ النَّصُّ فَالنَّظَرُ كُلُّهُ بَاطِلٌ، لَا يَحِلُّ بِهِ مُعَارِضَةُ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى وَرَسُولِهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.

L8326 Then we say to them: According to both your view and ours, is not one performing the obligatory prayer—whether as an imām or individually—given the choice to recite a surah alongside Umm al-Qur'ān (al-Fātiḥah), whether a long surah if he wishes or a short one if he wishes, or to limit himself to Umm al-Qur'ān alone if he wishes, or to recite one tasbīḥ each in his bowing and prostration if he wishes, or to prolong them? They answer: Yes.

ثُمَّ نَقُولُ لَهُمْ: أَلَيْسَ مُصَلِّي الْفَرْضِ مِنْ إمَامٍ أَوْ مُنْفَرِدٍ - عِنْدَكُمْ وَعِنْدَنَا - مُخَيَّرًا بَيْنَ أَنْ يَقْرَأَ مَعَ " أُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ " سُورَةً إنْ شَاءَ طَوِيلَةً وَإِنْ شَاءَ قَصِيرَةً وَإِنْ شَاءَ اقْتَصَرَ عَلَى "

L8327 So we said to them: Have you permitted here what you yourselves deem invalid and illogical—that one's obligation is fulfilled through what you consider voluntary, which he may choose to perform or abandon? ʿAlī said: It is not as they claimed. Rather, all of this is good which contains righteousness. If one prolongs [the prayer], it is an obligation he has fulfilled; if one does not prolong it, it is an obligation he has fulfilled. If one prays a single rakʿah in the prayer of fear, that is his obligation, and if he prays two rakʿahs, those are his obligations.

فَقُلْنَا لَهُمْ: فَقَدْ أَبَحْتُمْ هَهُنَا مَا قَدْ حَكَمْتُمْ بِأَنَّهُ بَاطِلٌ وَمُحَالٌ مَنْ صِلَتُهُ فَرِيضَةٌ بِمَا هُوَ عِنْدَكُمْ تَطَوُّعٌ إِنْ شَاءَ فَعَلَهُ وَإِنْ شَاءَ تَرَكَهُ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَلَيْسَ كَمَا قَالُوا، بَلْ كُلُّ هَذَا خَيْرٌ فِيهِ الْبِرُّ، فَإِنَّ طَوَّلَ فَفَرْضٌ أَدَّاهُ، وَإِنْ لَمْ يُطَوِّلْ فَفَرْضٌ أَدَّاهُ، وَإِنْ كَانَ صَلَّى رَكْعَةً فِي الْخَوْفِ فَهِيَ فَرْضُهُ، وَإِنْ صَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ فَهُمَا فَرْضُهُ.

L8328 As he did—peace be upon him—and as he commanded: "He does not speak from [his own] desire" (53:3); "It is nothing but a revelation inspired" (53:4); "He is not questioned about what He does, and they are questioned" (21:23).[15]

كَمَا فَعَلَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - وَكَمَا أَمَرَ {وَمَا يَنْطِقُ عَنِ الْهَوَى} [النجم: ٣] {إِنْ هُوَ إِلا وَحْيٌ يُوحَى} [النجم: ٤] {لا يُسْأَلُ عَمَّا يَفْعَلُ وَهُمْ يُسْأَلُونَ} [الأنبياء: ٢٣]

L8329 Ali said, "Regarding the other valid juristic viewpoints not mentioned, Ali ibn Abi Talib (may Allah be pleased with him) adopted some of them, along with Abu Musa al-Ash'ari, Ibn Umar, and a group of the Followers and jurists (may Allah be pleased with them)."

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ وَسَائِرُ الْوُجُوهِ الصِّحَاحِ الَّتِي لَمْ تُذْكَرْ أَخَذَ بِبَعْضِهَا عَلِيُّ بْنُ أَبِي طَالِبٍ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - وَأَبُو مُوسَى الْأَشْعَرِيُّ، وَابْنُ عُمَرَ، وَجَمَاعَةٌ مِنَ التَّابِعِينَ وَالْفُقَهَاءِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -.

L8330 In this matter are statements that have neither been authentically established from nor narrated at all from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—but were narrated from those below the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. From the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—: ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Samurah ibn Ḥabīb ibn ʿAbd Shams and al-Ḥakam ibn ʿAmr al-Ghifārī.

L8333 Among these is a statement we narrated from Sahl ibn Abi Hathmah—to which Mālik reverted after previously holding some of the opinions authentically reported from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him)—which states: The Imam arranges his companions into two contingents—one behind him and the other facing the enemy. The Imam prays one rak'ah with the contingent accompanying him, including its two prostrations. When he rises for the second rak'ah, he remains standing while this contingent completes the remaining rak'ah for themselves. They then say the taslīm, rise, and stand positioned opposite the enemy, while the Imam remains standing in the second rak'ah throughout. The second contingent—which has not yet prayed—then comes to form rows behind the Imam and pronounces the takbīr. He prays the second rak'ah with them, including its two prostrations—this being their first rak'ah and his second. The Imam then sits for the tashahhud and says the taslīm. When he completes the taslīm, this second contingent rises to fulfill the rak'ah remaining for them.

الْإِمَامُ أَصْحَابَهُ طَائِفَتَيْنِ، إِحْدَاهُمَا خَلْفَهُ، وَالثَّانِيَةُ مُوَاجِهَةُ الْعَدُوِّ، فَيُصَلِّي الْإِمَامُ بِالطَّائِفَةِ الَّتِي مَعَهُ رَكْعَةً بِسَجْدَتَيْهَا، فَإِذَا قَامَ إِلَى الرَّكْعَةِ الثَّانِيَةِ ثَبَتَ وَاقِفًا وَأَتَمَّتْ هَذِهِ الطَّائِفَةُ لِأَنْفُسِهَا الرَّكْعَةَ الَّتِي بَقِيَتْ عَلَيْهَا، ثُمَّ سَلَّمَتْ وَنَهَضَتْ فَوَقَفَتْ بِإِزَاءِ الْعَدُوِّ، وَالْإِمَامُ فِي كُلِّ ذَلِكَ وَاقِفٌ فِي الرَّكْعَةِ الثَّانِيَةِ، وَتَأْتِي الطَّائِفَةُ الثَّانِيَةُ الَّتِي لَمْ تُصَلِّ فَتَصُفَّ خَلْفَ الْإِمَامِ وَتُكَبِّرُ، فَيُصَلِّي بِهِمْ الرَّكْعَةَ الثَّانِيَةَ بِسَجْدَتَيْهَا، هِيَ لَهُمْ أُولَى، وَهِيَ لِلْإِمَامِ ثَانِيَةٌ، ثُمَّ يَجْلِسُ الْإِمَامُ وَيَتَشَهَّدُ وَيُسَلِّمُ، فَإِذَا سَلَّمَ قَامَتْ هَذِهِ الطَّائِفَةُ الثَّانِيَةُ فَقَضَتْ الرَّكْعَةَ الَّتِي لَهَا؟

L8334 Ali said: This aforementioned practice—the concurrent performance of the first group's makeup prayer while the Imam remains standing, and the second group's makeup prayer after the Imam has concluded the prayer with Taslīm—has never occurred in this form whatsoever in any authentic narration originating from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.

L8335 This contradicts the apparent meaning of the Qur'an, for Allah the Exalted said: "Then let another group who have not yet prayed come forward and pray with you" [al-Nisā': 102], since the group did not pray part of their prayer with him. Whatever contradicts the apparent meaning of the Qur'an without an explicit textual statement from the Prophet's clarification (peace be upon him) is impermissible to adopt, and this opinion is supported by neither analogy nor rational consideration. And following Sahl ibn Abī Ḥathmah (may Allah be pleased with him) holds no greater validity than following those Companions who opposed him—whom we have already mentioned—such as ʿAmr, Ibn ʿAmr, Abū Mūsā, Jābir, Ibn ʿAbbās, al-Ḥakam ibn ʿAmr, Ḥudhayfah, Thaʿlabah ibn Zahdam, Anas, ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Samurah, and others.[16]

فَإِنْ قِيلَ: إِنَّ سَهْلَ بْنَ أَبِي حَثْمَةَ رَوَى بَعْضَ تِلْكَ الْأَعْمَالِ وَخَالَفَهُ.

L8336 If it is said, “Indeed, Sahl ibn Abī Ḥathma narrated some of those practices, and he contradicted him,”...

وَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُظَنَّ بِهِ أَنَّهُ خَالَفَ مَا حَضَرَ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إِلَّا لِأَمْرٍ عَلِمَهُ هُوَ نَاسِخٌ لِمَا رَوَاهُ؟ قُلْنَا: هَذَا بَاطِلٌ، وَحُكْمٌ بِالظَّنِّ، وَتَرْكٌ لِلْيَقِينِ، وَإِضَافَةٌ إِلَى الصَّاحِبِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - مَا لَا يَحِلُّ أَنْ يُظَنَّ بِهِ، مِنْ أَنَّهُ رَوَى لَنَا الْمَنْسُوخَ وَكَتَمَ النَّاسِخَ.

L8337–8339 Is it permissible to presume that he contradicted what he witnessed with the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—except for a matter that abrogates what he narrated, which he was aware of? We said: This is invalid—a ruling based on conjecture, an abandonment of certainty, and an attribution to the Companion, may Allah be pleased with him. That which it is not permissible to suspect him of is that he narrated the abrogated text to us while concealing the abrogating one.

L8340 There is no difference between your statement and that of one who says: “It is not valid about him that he contradicts what he narrated.” The consideration applies only to what is narrated from him (what is attributed to him), not to what he himself reported from the Prophet - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. He adduced evidence that it is impermissible to contradict the ruling of the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَلَسْنَا نَقُولُ: بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ هَذَيْنِ الْقَوْلَيْنِ، بَلْ نَقُولُ: إِنَّ الْحَقَّ أَخْذُ رِوَايَةِ الرَّاوِي، لَا أَخْذُ رَأْيِهِ، إِذْ قَدْ يَتَأَوَّلُ فِيهِمْ، وَقَدْ يَنْسَى، وَلَا يَجُوزُ أَلْبَتَّةَ أَنْ يَكْتُمَ النَّاسِخَ وَيَرْوِي الْمَنْسُوخَ؟ وَلَا يَجُوزُ لَهُمْ أَنْ يُوهِمُوا هَهُنَا بِعَمَلِ أَهْلِ الْمَدِينَةِ؛ لِأَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ، وَعُبَيْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُتْبَةَ، وَالزُّهْرِيَّ: مُخَالِفُونَ لِاخْتِيَارِ مَالِكٍ، وَمَا وَجَدْنَا مَا اخْتَارَهُ مَالِكٌ عَنْ أَحَدٍ قَبْلَهُ إِلَّا عَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ أَبِي حَثْمَةَ وَحْدَهُ - وَبِاللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ -: وَمِنْهَا قَوْلٌ رُوِّينَاهُ عَنْ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُتْبَةَ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ، أَخَذَ بِهِ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ وَأَصْحَابُهُ إِلَّا أَنَّ أَبَا يُوسُفَ رَجَعَ عَنْهُ -: وَهُوَ أَنْ يُصَفِّهِمُ الْإِمَامُ صَفَّيْنِ: طَائِفَةٌ خَلْفَهُ، وَطَائِفَةٌ بِإِزَاءِ الْعَدُوِّ -: فَيُصَلِّي بِالَّتِي خَلْفَهُ رَكْعَةً بِسَجْدَتَيْهَا، فَإِذَا قَامَ إِلَى الرَّكْعَةِ الثَّانِيَةِ وَقَفَ، وَنَهَضَتْ الطَّائِفَةُ الَّتِي صَلَّتْ مَعَهُ فَوَقَفُوا بِإِزَاءِ الْعَدُوِّ، وَهُمْ فِي صَلَاتِهِمْ بَعْدُ.

L8341 Ali said: We do not hold either of these two opinions. Rather, we affirm that the truth lies in accepting the narrator’s transmission, not his personal opinion, for he might interpret among them or forget. Is it entirely impermissible for him to conceal the abrogating ruling and narrate the abrogated one? Nor should they be deluded into following the practice of the people of Medina here, for Ibn Umar, Ubayd Allah ibn Abd Allah ibn Utbah, and al-Zuhri opposed Malik’s preference. We have not found what Malik chose from anyone before him except Sahl ibn Abi Hathmah alone—and success is from Allah, the Exalted. Among them is an opinion we have transmitted from Ubayd Allah ibn Utbah ibn Mas‘ud and Ibrahim al-Nakha‘i, which Abu Hanifah and his followers adopted, though Abu Yusuf later retracted from it. It holds that the Imam should arrange them in two rows: one group behind him and another group facing the enemy. He prays one rak‘ah with its two prostrations with the group behind him. When he stands for the second rak‘ah and pauses, the group that prayed with him rises and takes position facing the enemy while still in prayer.

L8342 Then the group that had been facing the enemy arrives and recites the Takbīr behind the Imam. The Imam leads them in his second Rakʿah (which is their first). When he sits and recites the Tashahhud, he performs the Taslīm. The second group - who prayed the second Rakʿah with him while in their prayer - then rises to stand facing the enemy.

L8343 Then the group that had prayed the first rak’ah with the Imam came, returned to the place where they had prayed with him, completed the remaining rak’ah there, gave the salutation, and then came to stand positioned opposite the enemy.

وَتَرْجِعُ الطَّائِفَةُ الثَّانِيَةُ إِلَى الْمَكَانِ الَّذِي صَلَّتْ فِيهِ مَعَ الْإِمَامِ، فَتَقْضِي فِيهِ الرَّكْعَةَ الَّتِي بَقِيَتْ لَهَا.

L8344 The second group returns to the place where they prayed with the Imam and makes up the remaining rak’ah that had been left for them there.

إِلَّا أَنَّ أَبَا حَنِيفَةَ زَادَ مِنْ قِبَلِ رَأْيِهِ زِيَادَةً لَا تُعْرَفُ مِنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ الْأُمَّةِ قَبْلَهُ -: وَهِيَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: تَقْضِي الطَّائِفَةُ الْأُولَى الرَّكْعَةَ الَّتِي بَقِيَتْ عَلَيْهَا بِلَا قِرَاءَةِ شَيْءٍ مِنْ الْقُرْآنِ فِيهَا.

L8345–8347 Except that Abū Ḥanīfah added, based on his own opinion, an addition unknown to anyone in the Ummah before him—and it is that he... He said: The first group completes the remaining rakʿah they owe, without reciting anything from the Quran during it.

وَتَقْضِي الطَّائِفَةُ الثَّانِيَةُ الرَّكْعَةَ الَّتِي بَقِيَتْ عَلَيْهَا بِقِرَاءَةِ الْقُرْآنِ فِيهَا وَلَا بُدَّ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا عَمَلٌ لَمْ يَأْتِ قَطُّ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَلَا عَنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -، وَذَلِكَ أَنَّ فِيهِ مِمَّا قَدْ يُخَالِفُ كُلَّ أَثَرٍ جَاءَ فِي صَلَاةِ الْخَوْفِ، تَأْخِيرُ الطَّائِفَتَيْنِ مَعًا إتْمَامَ الرَّكْعَةِ الْبَاقِيَةِ لَهُمَا إلَى أَنْ يُسَلِّمَ الْإِمَامُ، فَتَبْتَدِئُ أُولَاهُمَا بِالْقَضَاءِ، ثُمَّ لَا تَقْضِي الثَّانِيَةُ إلَّا حَتَّى تُسَلِّمَ الْأُولَى.

L8348 The second group must complete the remaining rakʿah incumbent upon them by reciting the Qur’an within it—this is necessary. ʿAlī said that this is an action never reported from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) nor from any of the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them), for it contains that which may contradict every narration concerning the prayer of fear (ṣalāt al-khawf): delaying both groups from completing their remaining rakʿah until the Imam says the salām. The first group then begins making it up; then the second group does not make it up until the first has said the salām.

L8349 And in it, among the matters that contradict all transmitted reports concerning the prayer during combat is: each group’s return specifically to the place where they prayed with the Imam—after having moved from it to confront the enemy—in order to perform the second rakʿah.

L8350 If it is said: “Has anything similar been narrated from Ibn Masʿūd?” We reply: You have uttered falsehood and false claims. What is transmitted from Ibn Mas‘ūd—through a weak chain—is a report stating both groups initiated prayer together with the Imam simultaneously, and that the group which prayed last commenced their compensatory prayer before the other group. This is not found in Abū Ḥanīfah’s opinion, yet you magnify disagreement with a Companion—especially when no opposing view is narrated from any other Companion. If they argue: “We chose sequential prayer initiation by groups in compliance with the verse,” we counter: You have opposed the verse by obligating each group to pray their remaining obligations after the Imam completes his prayer, when Allah says: “Let them pray with you” [Quran 4:102]. Thus you oppose the Quran, all Prophetic narrations—both sound and weak—and all Companions’ positions without consideration or analogy. Some cited a rare opinion claiming: “The Imam must maintain justice between them. Just as the first group prayed first, they should compensate first.” ‘Alī said: “This is invalid—it constitutes injustice and partiality. True justice and equalization is that if one group prayed first, the subsequent group compensates first, allowing each their due share of precedence and deferment.” Others remarked: “We have never witnessed a follower initiating compensatory prayer before his Imam concludes prayer.”[17]

فَإِنْ قِيلَ: قَدْ رُوِيَ نَحْوُ هَذَا عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ؟ قُلْنَا: قُلْتُمْ الْبَاطِلَ وَالْكَذِبَ، إنَّمَا جَاءَ عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ - مِنْ طَرِيقٍ وَاهِيَةٍ - خَبَرٌ فِيهِ ابْتِدَاءُ الطَّائِفَتَيْنِ مَعًا بِالصَّلَاةِ مَعًا مَعَ الْإِمَامِ، وَأَنَّ الطَّائِفَةَ الَّتِي صَلَّتْ آخِرًا هِيَ بَدَأَتْ بِالْقَضَاءِ قَبْلَ الثَّانِيَةِ، وَلَيْسَ هَذَا فِي قَوْلِ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، وَأَنْتُمْ تُعَظِّمُونَ خِلَافَ الصَّاحِبِ، لَا سِيَّمَا إذَا لَمْ يُرْوَ عَنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ خِلَافُهُ؟ فَإِنْ قَالُوا: إنَّمَا تَخَيَّرْنَا ابْتِدَاءَ طَائِفَةٍ بَعْدَ طَائِفَةٍ اتِّبَاعًا لِلْآيَةِ؟ قُلْنَا: فَقَدْ خَالَفْتُمْ الْآيَةَ فِي إيجَابِكُمْ صَلَاةَ كُلِّ طَائِفَةٍ مَا بَقِيَ عَلَيْهَا بَعْدَ تَمَامِ صَلَاةِ الْإِمَامِ، وَإِنَّمَا قَالَ تَعَالَى: {فَلْيُصَلُّوا مَعَكَ} [النساء: ١٠٢] فَخَالَفْتُمْ الْقُرْآنَ، وَجَمِيعَ الْآثَارِ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - صَحِيحِهَا وَسَقِيمِهَا، وَجَمِيعَ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - بِلَا نَظَرٍ وَلَا قِيَاسٍ وَاحْتَجَّ بَعْضُهُمْ بِنَادِرَةٍ، وَهِيَ: أَنَّهُ قَالَ: يَلْزَمُ الْإِمَامُ الْعَدْلَ بَيْنَهُمْ، فَكَمَا صَلَّتْ الطَّائِفَةُ الْوَاحِدَةُ أَوَّلًا فَكَذَلِكَ تَقْضِي أَوَّلًا؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا بَاطِلٌ، بَلْ هُوَ الْجَوْرُ وَالْمُحَابَاةُ، بَلْ الْعَدْلُ وَالتَّسْوِيَةُ هُوَ أَنَّهُ إذَا صَلَّتْ الْوَاحِدَةُ أَوَّلًا أَنْ تَقْضِيَ الثَّانِيَةُ أَوَّلًا، فَتَأْخُذَ كُلُّ طَائِفَةٍ بِحَظِّهَا مِنْ التَّقَدُّمِ وَبِحَظِّهَا مِنْ التَّأَخُّرِ وَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ: لَمْ نَرَ قَطُّ مَأْمُومًا بَدَأَ بِالْقَضَاءِ قَبْلَ تَمَامِ صَلَاةِ إمَامِهِ؟

L8351–8352 They were told: Have you not seen a follower abandoning his imam’s prayer, proceeding to his work and remaining standing for a long duration after his imam’s prayer is completed without making up what he missed—while you assert this without textual proof or sound analogy, yet condemn those who followed the Quran and the Sunnah? Is this not clear misguidance—particularly Abu Hanifa’s division regarding the makeup prayer of two groups, one with recitation and the other without? This was never known from anyone before him, nor supported by sound opinion or analogy. Among these is the view held by Abu Yusuf in the latter of his two positions, which is also the opinion of Hasan al-Lu'lu'ī: that the prayer of fear is not performed after the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him.

فَقِيلَ لَهُمْ: وَلَا رَأَيْتُمْ قَطُّ مَأْمُومًا يَتْرُكُ صَلَاةَ إمَامِهِ وَيَمْضِي إلَى شُغْلِهِ وَيَقِفُ بُرْهَةً طَوِيلَةً بَعْدَ تَمَامِ صَلَاةِ إمَامِهِ لَا يَقْضِي مَا فَاتَهُ مِنْهَا، وَأَنْتُمْ تَقُولُونَ: بِهَذَا بِغَيْرِ نَصٍّ وَلَا قِيَاسٍ، ثُمَّ تَعِيبُونَ مِنْ اتَّبَعَ الْقُرْآنَ وَالسُّنَنَ أَلَا ذَلِكَ هُوَ الضَّلَالُ الْمُبِينُ لَا سِيَّمَا تَقْسِيمُ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ فِي قَضَاءِ الطَّائِفَتَيْنِ، إحْدَاهُمَا بِقِرَاءَةٍ وَالْأُخْرَى بِغَيْرِ قِرَاءَةٍ، فَمَا عُرِفَ هَذَا عَنْ أَحَدٍ قَبْلَهُ، وَلَا يُؤَيِّدُهُ رَأْيٌ سَدِيدٌ، وَلَا قِيَاسٌ؟ وَمِنْهَا قَوْلٌ ذَهَبَ إلَيْهِ أَبُو يُوسُفَ

فِي آخِرِ قَوْلَيْهِ، وَهُوَ قَوْلُ الْحَسَنِ اللُّؤْلُؤِيِّ، وَهُوَ: أَنْ لَا تُصَلَّى صَلَاةُ الْخَوْفِ بَعْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.

L8353 Ali said: "This contradicts the words of Allah the Exalted: 'There has certainly been for you in the Messenger of Allah an excellent example' [Al-Ahzab: 21]."[18]

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَهَذَا خِلَافُ قَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ} [الأحزاب: ٢١].

L8354 Ali said: But except that one who says the validity of marriage by [reciting] a surah from the Qur'an is specifically for the Prophet (may Allah bless him and grant him peace), and that prayer while seated is likewise—how can he disapprove of Abu Yusuf's statement here? Among these opinions is a view we transmitted from al-Ḍaḥḥāk ibn Muzāḥim, Mujāhid, al-Ḥakam ibn ʿUtbah, and Isḥāq ibn Rāhawayh: that only two takbīrs suffice in the prayer of fear. It was also transmitted to us from al-Ḥakam and Mujāhid that a single takbīr suffices in the prayer of fear.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: إِلَّا أَنَّ مَنْ قَالَ: إِنَّ النِّكَاحَ بِسُورَةٍ مِنْ الْقُرْآنِ خَاصٌّ لِلنَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَالصَّلَاةَ جَالِسًا كَذَلِكَ -: لَا يَقْدِرُ أَنْ يُنْكِرَ عَلَى أَبِي يُوسُفَ قَوْلَهُ هَهُنَا؟ وَمِنْهَا قَوْلٌ رُوِّينَاهُ عَنْ الضَّحَّاكِ بْنِ مُزَاحِمٍ، وَمُجَاهِدٍ، وَالْحَكَمِ بْنِ عُتْبَةَ، وَإِسْحَاقَ بْنِ رَاهْوَيْهِ، وَهُوَ: أَنَّ تَكْبِيرَتَيْنِ فَقَطْ تُجْزِئَانِ فِي صَلَاةِ الْخَوْفِ وَرُوِّينَا أَيْضًا عَنْ الْحَكَمِ، وَمُجَاهِدٍ: تَكْبِيرَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ تُجْزِئُ فِي صَلَاةِ الْخَوْفِ

L8355–8357 This is an error because there is no textual evidence to support it—and success comes only from Allah, the Exalted. If someone asks: How can you affirm all these forms of the Prayer of Fear when you narrate from Zayd ibn Thabit that "Allah's Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him) prayed the Prayer of Fear once without leading us in prayer before or after it"? We respond: Even if this report were authentic, it would weigh more heavily against you. For you would be challenged: What evidence do you possess that the specific form you chose aligns with the actual practice performed by Allah's Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him) during that prayer—especially so if the objector is a Hanafi or Maliki? The preferred rulings of these two groups have never been transmitted from Allah's Messenger. How can this hold water when the hadith itself is rejected? It is solely narrated by Yahya al-Himmani—a weak narrator—from Sharik al-Qadi, who engaged in tadlis (intentional omission of a weak narrator in the chain) and does not... His narration is cited as evidence. How could a person of faith permit himself to oppose the hadiths of all the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—through such a disgraceful act? They witnessed the Prayer of Fear with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, on multiple occasions: once at Dhī Qarad, once at Dhāt al-Riqāʿ, once in Najd, once between Ḍajanān and ʿUsfān, once in the land of Juhaynah, once at Nakhl, once at ʿUsfān, once on the day of Muḥārib and Thaʿlabah, and once either at Ṭāʾif or Tabūk.

L8358 It is possible to pray them twice in a day for Dhuhr and Asr, and was this not reported from the Companions by the senior Successors and the trustworthy, firmly established ones? And do we not seek refuge in Allah from abandonment? Ali said: "We said: 'The prayer in every state of fear is with a single rakʿah,' based on the generality of Ibn ʿAbbas's hadith: 'Prayer was ordained by the tongue of your Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—as four rakʿahs when resident, two when traveling, and one in fear.' It is not permissible to specify his ruling—peace be upon him—with baseless assumptions. And success is from Allah, the Exalted."

L8359 Issue: One who fears a claimant with a valid right against him is not permitted to perform the prayer of fear.

L8360 520 - Issue: Is it not permissible for one fearing a claimant demanding rightful dues to pray the prayer of fear with two groups, nor to pray at all with three groups or more? This is because praying it with two groups entails each group performing an action in their prayer that is prohibited for them if they are a rebel group.

L8361 Whoever performs in his prayer an act he was not commanded to do has no prayer, for did he not pray as he was commanded? Similarly, one who prays while riding, walking, engaged in combat, facing away from the qiblah, or sitting out of fear of a rightful claimant—since in all these cases he performed an act prohibited in his prayer. But if he is wrongfully pursued and performs such acts in his prayer, is that permitted? The Prophet (peace be upon him) never prayed with three groups, and had he not prayed with two groups, it would not have been permissible—because he performed an action during prayer. No act is permissible during prayer except what the text permits, according to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him): "Verily prayer demands full attention." A single person with the imam constitutes a group and congregational prayer. Whoever prays as we described while fleeing from a disbeliever or rebel invalidates his prayer, unless his walking during prayer is intended for combat maneuvering or joining a faction—in which case his prayer is valid.

وَلَا يَجُوزُ عَمَلٌ فِي الصَّلَاةِ، إِلَّا مَا أَبَاحَهُ النَّصُّ، لِقَوْلِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «إِنَّ فِي الصَّلَاةِ لَشُغْلًا» . وَالْوَاحِدُ مَعَ الْإِمَامِ طَائِفَةٌ وَصَلَاةُ جَمَاعَةٍ وَمَنْ صَلَّى كَمَا ذَكَرْنَا هَارِبًا عَنْ كَافِرٍ أَوْ عَنْ بَاغٍ بَطَلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ أَيْضًا، إِلَّا أَنْ يَنْوِيَ فِي مَشْيِهِ ذَلِكَ تَحَرُّفًا لِقِتَالٍ أَوْ تَحَيُّزًا إِلَى فِئَةٍ فَتُجْزِئُهُ صَلَاتُهُ حِينَئِذٍ.

L8362–8363 Because Allah the Exalted has said: "When you encounter the disbelievers advancing in battle, do not turn your backs to them" [Al-Anfāl 8:15], "And whoever turns his back to them on that day, unless strategically repositioning for combat or withdrawing to join another contingent, has indeed drawn upon himself wrath from Allah" [Al-Anfāl 8:16]. Thus, whoever turns his back to the disbelievers and the unjust aggressors whom it is obligatory to fight, without intending to regroup with a contingent or tactically adjust his position, has committed a forbidden act in his battle conduct and thereby failed to fulfill the command as ordained. And with Allah the Exalted lies all success.[19]

لِأَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى قَالَ: {إِذَا لَقِيتُمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا زَحْفًا فَلا تُوَلُّوهُمُ الأَدْبَارَ} [الأنفال: ١٥] {وَمَنْ يُوَلِّهِمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ دُبُرَهُ إِلا مُتَحَرِّفًا لِقِتَالٍ أَوْ مُتَحَيِّزًا إِلَى فِئَةٍ فَقَدْ بَاءَ بِغَضَبٍ مِنَ اللَّهِ} [الأنفال: ١٦] فَمَنْ وَلِيَ الْكُفَّارَ ظَهْرَهُ وَالْبُغَاةَ الْمُفْتَرَضُ قِتَالُهُمْ لَا يَنْوِي تَحَيُّزًا وَلَا تَحَرُّفًا -: فَقَدْ عَمِلَ فِي صَلَاتِهِ عَمَلًا مُحَرَّمًا عَلَيْهِ، فَلَمْ يُصَلِّ كَمَا أُمِرَ - وَبِاللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L8364 As for one fleeing from predators, fire, snakes, the insane, aggressive animals, floods, fear of thirst, fear of missing the group, loss of provisions, or straying from the path—his prayer remains complete, for he has done nothing in such circumstances except what he was commanded to do. And with Allah, the Exalted, lies all success.

L8365 ## The Friday Prayer (Jumuʿah)

[صَلَاة الْجُمُعَة]

L8366 ## A question on the time of Friday.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ وَقْت الْجُمُعَة]

L8367 521 – Issue: The Friday Prayer is the Dhuhr of Friday. It is impermissible to pray it except after zawāl, and its latest permissible time is the end of the Dhuhr prayer's time on other days.

٥٢١ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: الْجُمُعَةُ، هِيَ ظُهْرُ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ، وَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ تُصَلَّى إِلَّا بَعْدَ الزَّوَالِ، وَآخِرُ وَقْتِهَا: آخِرُ وَقْتِ الظُّهْرِ فِي سَائِرِ الْأَيَّامِ.

L8368 It was narrated to us from ʿAbdullāh ibn Sīlān, who said: I attended the Friday prayer with Abū Bakr al-Ṣiddīq, and he performed his prayer and delivered his sermon before midday. Then I attended the Friday prayer with ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb, and he performed his prayer and delivered his sermon when the sun began to decline.

L8369–8371 From Waki‘, from Shu‘bah, from ‘Amr ibn Murrah, from ‘Abdullah ibn Salamah, who said: Ibn Mas‘ud led us in the Friday prayer during forenoon, stating: “Did I hasten the prayer for you out of fear of the heat affecting you?” Through another narration in Malik ibn Anas’s Muwatta, from his uncle Abu Suhayl ibn Malik, from his father, who said: “I would see the decorated carpet of ‘Aqil ibn Abi Talib laid against the mosque’s western wall. When the wall’s shadow had completely covered the entire carpet, ‘Umar ibn al-Khattab would emerge and pray. After the Friday prayer, should we then take the forenoon rest?” ‘Ali remarked: “This indicates that ‘Umar’s Friday prayer (may Allah be pleased with him) occurred before midday, for as long as any part of the shadow remained on the western side, it was before midday. Once the sun passed its zenith, the shadow inevitably shifted to the eastern side.” From Malik, from ‘Amr ibn Yahya al-Mazini, from Ibn Abi Salit: that ‘Uthman ibn ‘Affan... He prayed the Friday prayer in Medina and the Asr prayer in Malal. Ibn Abī Salīṭ said: “We would pray the Friday prayer with Uthman and depart while there was no shadow on the wall.” Ali said: “Between Medina and Malal are twenty-two miles. It is absolutely impermissible for the sun to decline, after which one delivers the sermon, prays the Friday prayer, and then walks this distance before the sun turns yellow, except for one who treads the path of military expeditions or rushes like a timed courier. Is it not more appropriate for this to be the case?” This has also been narrated to us from Ibn al-Zubayr.

L8373 Ali said: Where are the hypocrites? They claim to follow the practice of the Companions - may Allah be pleased with them all - yet they become condemners of the Companion when he opposes their emulation? This was the practice of Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman, Ibn Mas'ud, Ibn al-Zubayr, and a group of the Followers. But these people do not care what they say in defending their emulation. As for us, our evidence lies in what Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us, Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us, Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us, Yahya ibn Yahya reported: Waki' narrated to us from Ya'la ibn al-Harith al-Muharibi, from Iyas ibn Salama ibn al-Akwa', from his father, who said: "We used to pray the Friday prayer with the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings be upon him - when the sun passed its zenith, then we would return tracing the shade."[20]

L8374–8376 Abdullah ibn Rabiʿ narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated to us: I, Harun ibn Abdullah, narrated to us: Yahya ibn Adam narrated to us: Hasan ibn ʿAyyash narrated to us: Jaʿfar ibn Muhammad narrated to us: from his father: from... Jabir ibn Abdullah said, "We used to pray the Friday prayer with the Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—then return to water our camels." I asked, "At what time?" The Prophet replied, "At the sun's zenith."

L8377 And through him to Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb: Qutaybah ibn Sa'eed narrated to us from Malik from Sumayy from Abu Salih from Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "Whoever performs the major ablution on Friday and goes early, it is as though he has sacrificed a she-camel. Whoever goes early in the second period, it is as though he has sacrificed a cow. Whoever goes early in the third period, it is as though he has sacrificed a ram. Whoever goes early in the fourth period, it is as though he has sacrificed a hen. Whoever goes early in the fifth period, it is as though he has sacrificed an egg. When the Imam emerges, the angels are present to listen to the sermon."

L8378 Yunus ibn Abdullah narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Abdullah ibn Abdur-Rahim narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Khalid narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Abdus-Salam al-Khushani narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Bashshar narrated to us: Safwan ibn Isa narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Ajlan narrated from his father from Abu Hurairah, who said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "The likeness of one who goes early to Friday prayer is as one who offers a camel, then as one who offers a cow, then as one who offers a sheep, then as one who offers a chicken, then as one who offers a sparrow, then as one who offers an egg. When the Imam comes forth and sits down, the scrolls of deeds are rolled up."

L8379 And it has been narrated to us similarly through the chain of al-Layth ibn Sa'd, from Sumayy, from Abū Ṣāliḥ, from Abū Hurairah, from the Prophet—may Allah bless him and grant him peace.

L8380 Ali said: In these two hadiths lies the merit of arriving early to the mosque at the day's beginning (before noon) to await Friday prayer, and the invalidation of those who prohibit this. They claim: "All these merits pertain to a single hour." This is false, for the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—designated them as distinct hours: the second, the third, the fourth, and the fifth. Thus, it is impermissible for anyone to assert: "It is one hour." Moreover—the levels of merit cease with the Imam's departure, which occurs solely before the prayer call. Yet they allege: "That hour coincides with the call to prayer." Hasn't the falsity of their claim thereby become evident?

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَفِي هَذَيْنِ الْحَدِيثَيْنِ -: فَضْلُ التَّبْكِيرِ فِي أَوَّلِ النَّهَارِ إلَى الْمَسْجِدِ لِانْتِظَارِ الْجُمُعَةِ؟ وَبُطْلَانُ قَوْلِ مَنْ مَنَعَ مِنْ ذَلِكَ، وَقَالَ: إنَّ هَذِهِ الْفَضَائِلَ كُلَّهَا إنَّمَا هِيَ لِسَاعَةٍ وَاحِدَةٍ، وَهَذَا بَاطِلٌ، لِأَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - جَعَلَهَا سَاعَاتٍ مُتَغَايِرَاتٍ ثَانِيَةً، وَثَالِثَةً، وَرَابِعَةً، وَخَامِسَةً، فَلَا يَحِلُّ لِأَحَدٍ أَنْ يَقُولَ: إنَّهَا سَاعَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ؟ وَأَيْضًا - فَإِنَّ دَرَجَ الْفَضْلِ يَنْقَطِعُ بِخُرُوجِ الْإِمَامِ، وَخُرُوجُهُ إنَّمَا هُوَ قَبْلَ النِّدَاءِ، وَهُمْ يَقُولُونَ: إنَّ تِلْكَ السَّاعَةَ مَعَ النِّدَاءِ، فَظَهَرَ فَسَادُ قَوْلِهِمْ؟

L8381–8382 In both sources, it is stated that the Friday prayer is after zawal (when the sun begins to decline), because Imam Mālik, citing Sumayy, mentioned five liturgical periods.

L8383–8385 Muḥammad ibn al-ʻAjlān added from his father from Abū Hurayrah, and al-Layth from Sumayy from Abī Ṣāliḥ from Abū Hurayrah: “the sixth hour,” and he mentioned that the scrolls are rolled up [by divine command] upon the Imam’s departure. Thus, it is confirmed that his departure occurs after the sixth hour, which is the beginning of the sun’s decline and the time of Ẓuhr prayer. If it is said: «You have narrated from Salamah ibn al-Akwaʻ: ‹We used to pray Jumuʻah with the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—then return and find no shade from the walls to shelter us›?» We reply: Yes, but Salamah did not negate the existence of shade entirely; he only negated shade they could shelter in. This indicates the brevity of the sermon and the prayer being conducted promptly at the start of the sun’s decline. Similarly, the statement of Sahl ibn Saʻd: «We would not nap nor eat lunch except after the Jumuʻah prayer»—does this not indicate that it occurred before the sun’s decline? We have also narrated from Ibn ʻAbbās: «ʻUmar came out to us when the sun had declined»—and delivered the sermon, meaning for Jumuʻah. From Abū Isḥāq al-Sabīʻī: «I witnessed ʻAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib praying Jumuʻah when the sun had declined?» Mālik differentiated between the end time of Jumuʻah and the end time of Ẓuhr prayer, holding that it aligns with our view in [text incomplete]. That the first time of Dhuhr is the beginning of the time of Dhuhr, and this is an opinion for which there is no evidence of its validity. Since it is the midday prayer of the day, it is not permissible to differentiate between the end of its time due to differences in the days—and success is from Allah, the Most High.

L8386 Issue: The Friday prayer, when two or more perform it, consists of two rak’ahs with audible recitation.

L8387 522 – Issue: The Friday prayer, when performed by two or more people, consists of two rakʻahs, with the imam reciting audibly during them.

L8388 And whoever prays the two by himself must pray them as four rak’ahs, reciting silently in all of them, because this prayer is the Dhuhr prayer.

L8389 We have mentioned in the chapter on the obligation to shorten prayers in our book the narration of Umar: “The Friday prayer is two units, and the L8390 Abū Muḥammad said: Some people have held the view that it is two rakʿahs for the solitary worshiper and the congregation based on this narration. ʿAlī said: This is erroneous, because "al-Jumuʿah" is an Islamic name for the day, which did not exist in the pre-Islamic period. The day of Jumuʿah was called "al-ʿUrūbah" in the pre-Islamic period. It was named "the day of Jumuʿah" in Islam because gathering occurs in it for prayer—a name taken from the gathering. Therefore, the Friday prayer does not occur except in congregation; otherwise, it is not a Friday prayer. They [the two rakʿahs] are but Ẓuhr, and Ẓuhr is four [rakʿahs], as we have previously established.

وَقَدْ ثَبَتَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَجْهَرُ فِيهَا، وَهُوَ عَمَلُ أَهْلِ الْإِسْلَامِ، نَقْلُ كَوَافٍ مِنْ عَهْدِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - إِلَى الْيَوْمِ فِي شَرْقِ الْأَرْضِ وَغَرْبِهَا؟ وَأَمَّا الْعَدَدُ الَّذِي يُصَلِّيهِ الْإِمَامُ فِيهِ جُمُعَةَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ كَمَا ذَكَرْنَا -: فَقَدْ اُخْتُلِفَ فِيهِ -: فَرُوِّينَا عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْعَزِيزِ: الْجُمُعَةُ تَكُونُ بِخَمْسِينَ رَجُلًا فَصَاعِدًا.

L8391 It has been established from the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—that he would recite aloud in them, and this is the practice of the people of Islam, transmitted by sufficient numbers from his era—peace be upon him—until today in the east and west of the earth. As for the number [of attendees] required for the Imam to lead the Friday prayer in which it comprises two rakʿahs, as we mentioned—there has been disagreement concerning it. It has been narrated to us from ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz: "The Friday prayer is valid with fifty men or more."

وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ: لَا جُمُعَةَ إِلَّا بِأَرْبَعِينَ رَجُلًا: أَحْرَارًا، مُقِيمِينَ، عُقَلَاءَ، بَالِغِينَ - فَصَاعِدًا.

L8392 Al-Shafi'i said: There is no Friday prayer except with at least forty men: free, resident, sane, and adult.

وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ بَعْضِ النَّاسِ: ثَلَاثِينَ رَجُلًا.

L8393 And it has been narrated to us through multiple sources from certain individuals: thirty male narrators.

وَعَنْ غَيْرِهِ: عِشْرِينَ رَجُلًا.

L8394 And from other narrators besides him, twenty men.

وَعَنْ عِكْرِمَةَ: سَبْعَةَ رِجَالٍ لَا أَقَلَّ.

L8395 And from Ikrimah: No fewer than seven men.

L8396–8398 And from Abū Ḥanīfa, al-Layth ibn Saʿd, Zufar, and Muḥammad ibn al-Ḥasan: If there are three… If there are three men, with the Imam as their fourth, they prayed the Friday prayer with a sermon and two rakʿahs. Can it not be performed with fewer [participants]? From al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī: If there are two men, with the Imam as their third, they prayed the Friday prayer with a sermon and two rakʿahs.

L8399 It is one of the two positions of Sufyān al-Thawrī on this matter, the opinion of Abū Yūsuf, and the opinion of Abū Thawr. It is narrated from Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī—if one person is present with the Imam, they perform the Friday prayer with a sermon followed by two rakʿahs.

وَهُوَ أَحَدُ قَوْلَيْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ وَقَوْلِ أَبِي يُوسُفَ، وَأَبِي ثَوْرٍ وَعَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ: إِذَا كَانَ وَاحِدٌ مَعَ الْإِمَامِ صَلَّيَا الْجُمُعَةَ بِخُطْبَةِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ.

L8400 This is the opinion of al-Hasan ibn Hayy, Abu Sulayman, and all our companions, and this is the view we adopt. Ali said: As for those who set the number at fifty, they cited a hadith stating: "Friday prayer is obligatory for fifty people if they have an imam leading them." However, this report is unreliable because it is transmitted through al-Qasim ibn Abd al-Rahman from Abu Umamah, and this al-Qasim is a weak narrator.

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ الْحَسَنِ بْنِ حَيٍّ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَجَمِيعِ أَصْحَابِنَا، وَبِهِ نَقُولُ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَأَمَّا مَنْ حَدَّ خَمْسِينَ فَإِنَّهُمْ ذَكَرُوا حَدِيثًا فِيهِ «عَلَى الْخَمْسِينَ جُمُعَةٌ إِذَا كَانَ عَلَيْهِمْ إِمَامٌ» . وَهَذَا خَبَرٌ لَا يَصِحُّ؛ لِأَنَّهُ عَنْ الْقَاسِمِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ، وَالْقَاسِمُ هَذَا ضَعِيفٌ.

L8401 As for those who stipulated thirty, they cited a mursal report via the chain of Abū Muḥammad al-Azdī—who is unknown—: "If thirty men gather, they should appoint one man to lead them in the Jumuʿah prayer."

وَأَمَّا مَنْ حَدَّ بِثَلَاثِينَ فَإِنَّهُمْ ذَكَرُوا خَبَرًا مُرْسَلًا مِنْ طَرِيقِ أَبِي مُحَمَّدٍ الْأَزْدِيِّ - وَهُوَ مَجْهُولٌ - «إِذَا اجْتَمَعَ ثَلَاثُونَ رَجُلًا فَلْيُؤَمِّرُوا رَجُلًا يُصَلِّي بِهِمْ الْجُمُعَةَ» .

L8402 As for those who adhere to the opinion of Abū Ḥanīfa and al-Layth, they cited a ḥadīth narrated via Muʿāwiyah ibn Yaḥyā from Muʿāwiyah ibn Saʿīd from al-Zuhrī from Umm ʿAbdullāh al-Dawsīyah—who met the Prophet (peace be upon him)—that he said: "The Friday prayer is obligatory in every village, even if there are only four people in it?" This cannot be used as proof, for Muʿāwiyah ibn Yaḥyā and Muʿāwiyah ibn Saʿīd are unknown narrators.

وَأَمَّا مَنْ قَالَ بِقَوْلِ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، وَاللَّيْثِ: فَذَكَرُوا حَدِيثًا مِنْ طَرِيقِ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنِ يَحْيَى عَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنِ سَعِيدٍ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ أُمِّ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ الدَّوْسِيَّةِ وَقَدْ أَدْرَكَتْ النَّبِيَّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَنَّهُ قَالَ: «الْجُمُعَةُ وَاجِبَةٌ فِي كُلِّ قَرْيَةٍ وَإِنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ فِيهِمْ إلَّا أَرْبَعَةٌ؟» . وَهَذَا لَا يَجُوزُ الِاحْتِجَاجُ بِهِ؛ لِأَنَّ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنَ يَحْيَى، ومُعَاوِيَةَ بْنَ سَعِيدٍ: مَجْهُولَانِ

L8403–8405 Moreover, Abu Hanifa is the first to contradict this report, as he does not hold Friday prayers in villages, but only in cities. All these narrations are inauthentic, and even if authenticated, none would constitute valid evidence, because is there any mention in them of dispensing with Friday prayer for fewer than the stipulated number? A weak narration is reported from Rūḥ ibn Ghutayf—who is unknown—stating: "When they reached two hundred, the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—led them in Friday prayer." If they adhere to the larger number, this narration specifies the larger number, but if they adopt the smaller, we shall mention—God, the Exalted, willing—a narration citing a lesser number. As for al-Shāfiʿī: he cited a sound narration reported via al-Zuhrī from Ibn Kaʿb ibn Mālik from his father: that whenever he heard the Friday call, he would pray for mercy upon Abū Umāmah Asʿad ibn Zurārah. His son questioned him about this, so he replied: "He was the first to lead us in Friday prayer at Hazm of the volcanic field of Banī Bayāḍah, in a depression known as the Depression of al-Khaḍimāt, when we numbered forty men."

وَأَيْضًا -: فَإِنَّ أَبَا حَنِيفَةَ أَوَّلُ مَنْ يُخَالِفُ هَذَا الْخَبَرَ، لِأَنَّهُ لَا يَرَى الْجُمُعَةَ فِي الْقُرَى، لَكِنْ فِي الْأَمْصَارِ فَقَطْ فَكُلُّ هَذِهِ آثَارٌ لَا تَصِحُّ، ثُمَّ لَوْ صَحَّتْ لَمَا كَانَ فِي شَيْءٍ مِنْهَا حُجَّةٌ، لِأَنَّهُ لَيْسَ فِي شَيْءٍ مِنْهَا إسْقَاطُ الْجُمُعَةِ عَنْ أَقَلَّ مِنْ الْعَدَدِ الْمَذْكُورِ؟ وَقَدْ رُوِيَ حَدِيثٌ سَاقِطٌ عَنْ رَوْحِ بْنِ غُطَيْفٍ - وَهُوَ مَجْهُولٌ «لَمَّا بَلَغُوا مِائَتَيْنِ جَمَّعَ بِهِمْ النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -» فَإِنْ أَخَذُوا بِالْأَكْثَرِ فَهَذَا الْخَبَرُ هُوَ الْأَكْثَرُ، وَإِنْ أَخَذُوا بِالْأَقَلِّ

L8406 Ali said: There is no valid argument for him in this, because the Messenger of God—peace and blessings be upon him—did not say that "Friday prayer is not permissible with fewer than this number." But then, is Friday prayer obligatory with forty men, more than forty, or fewer than forty? Those who upheld the opinion of Abu Yusuf argued based on what Abdullah ibn Rubayʿ narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Muʿawiyah narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated to us: I, ʿUbaydullah ibn Saʿid, narrated from Yahya (who is al-Qattan) from Hisham (who is al-Dastuwa'i) from Qatadah from Abu Nadhrah from Abu Saʿid al-Khudri from the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—who said: "When there are three people, let one of them lead them in prayer. The most deserving of leading them is the most proficient in Quranic recitation." This is an authentic report.[21]

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَلَا حُجَّةَ لَهُ فِي هَذَا، لِأَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لَمْ يَقُلْ: إِنَّهُ لَا تَجُوزُ الْجُمُعَةُ بِأَقَلَّ مِنْ هَذَا الْعَدَدِ، نَعَمْ وَالْجُمُعَةُ وَاجِبَةٌ بِأَرْبَعِينَ رَجُلًا وَبِأَكْثَرَ مِنْ أَرْبَعِينَ وَبِأَقَلَّ مِنْ أَرْبَعِينَ؟ وَاحْتَجَّ مَنْ قَالَ: بِقَوْلِ أَبِي يُوسُفَ بِمَا حَدَّثَنَاهُ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رُبَيْعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ عَنْ يَحْيَى هُوَ الْقَطَّانِ - عَنْ هِشَامٍ هُوَ الدَّسْتُوَائِيُّ - ثنا قَتَادَةُ عَنْ أَبِي نَضْرَةَ عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: «إِذَا كَانُوا ثَلَاثَةً فَلْيَؤُمَّهُمْ أَحَدُهُمْ، وَأَحَقُّهُمْ بِالْإِمَامَةِ أَقْرَؤُهُمْ» . وَهَذَا خَبَرٌ صَحِيحٌ

L8407 However, they have no proof for that, because the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—did not say: "There is no congregational prayer or Friday prayer with fewer than three people?"

، إِلَّا أَنَّهُ لَا حُجَّةَ لَهُمْ فِيهِ، لِأَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لَمْ يَقُلْ: إِنَّهُ لَا تَكُونُ جَمَاعَةٌ وَلَا جُمُعَةٌ بِأَقَلَّ مِنْ ثَلَاثَةٍ؟

L8408–8409 As for our evidence, it is what we previously mentioned from the narration of Mālik ibn al-Ḥuwayrith that the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—said to him: "When you two travel, give the call to prayer and establish it, and let the oldest of you two lead the prayer." Thus, the Prophet—peace be upon him—established for two individuals the ruling of congregational prayer in prayer. If someone were to say: "When two people have no third with them, the ruling for the imam is that the congregant stands to the right of the imam. If they are three, it is said: 'The two stand to the right and left of the imam,'" and it has been said: "Rather, behind the imam," while there is no disagreement regarding four: that the three stand behind the imam—so we found the ruling for four differs from that of two? We respond: What follows from this? Yes, it is as you say regarding the positions of standing, except that the obligation of congregational prayer applies to them both by your own admission. The ruling concerning the difference in the congregant's position provides no evidence at all regarding the ruling of the Friday prayer. Allah the Exalted has decreed on the tongue of His Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—that the Friday prayer consists of two rakʿahs.

الْإِمَامِ، فَوَجَدْنَا حُكْمَ الْأَرْبَعَةِ غَيْرَ حُكْمِ الِاثْنَيْنِ؟ قُلْنَا: فَكَانَ مَاذَا؟ نَعَمْ، هُوَ كَمَا تَقُولُونَ: فِي مَوَاضِعِ الْوُقُوفِ، إِلَّا أَنَّ حُكْمَ الْجَمَاعَةِ وَاجِبٌ لَهُمَا بِإِقْرَارِكُمْ، وَلَيْسَ فِي حُكْمِ اخْتِلَافِ مَوْقِفِ الْمَأْمُومِ دَلِيلٌ عَلَى حُكْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ أَصْلًا؟ وَقَدْ حَكَمَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى عَلَى لِسَانِ رَسُولِهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِأَنَّ صَلَاةَ الْجُمُعَةِ رَكْعَتَانِ.

L8410 The Almighty, Glorified and Exalted, said: _"O you who have believed, when the call is made for the prayer on the day of Jumu'ah, hasten to the remembrance of Allah and abandon trade"_ [Al-Jumu'ah 9]. Therefore, it is impermissible for anyone to deviate from this command and ruling except one for whom there exists a clear text or an indisputable consensus affirming his exemption from it. This applies solely to the individual alone—and success is attained only through Allah, the Exalted.[22]

L8411 If a person begins the prayer alone with none beside him, then another or more join him—whether they come immediately after his takbīr or at any point between that and his bowing in the first rakʿah—he must establish it as the Friday prayer and perform two rakʿahs. For it has now become the Friday prayer, whose rightful form is to be two rakʿahs. He is capable of rendering it two rakʿahs by intending it as the Friday prayer, and it is the Dhuhr of his day.

L8412 If he arrived after he had bowed, then between that moment until he concludes with the salutation, he must discontinue the prayer and restart it as the Friday prayer consisting of two units. This is necessary because the Friday prayer has become incumbent upon him, and there is no means for him to fulfill what has become incumbent upon him of that except by terminating his current prayer, whose validity has been nullified. And with Allah, the Exalted, lies success.

فَإِنْ جَاءَهُ بَعْدَ أَنْ رَكَعَ فَمَا بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ إِلَى أَنْ يُسَلِّمَ -: فَيَقْطَعُ الصَّلَاةَ وَيَبْتَدِئُهَا صَلَاةَ جُمُعَةٍ، لَا بُدَّ مِنْ ذَلِكَ، لِأَنَّهُ قَدْ لَزِمَتْهُ الْجُمُعَةُ رَكْعَتَيْنِ، وَلَا سَبِيلَ لَهُ إِلَى أَدَاءِ مَا لَزِمَهُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ إِلَّا بِقَطْعِ صَلَاتِهِ الَّتِي قَدْ بَطَلَ حُكْمُهَا - وَبِاللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L8413–8414 The traveler during his travel, the resident, the slave, and the free person are equally obligated to perform the Friday prayer.

L8415 Issue: The obligation of Friday prayer is equally incumbent upon the cases we mentioned: the traveler during his journey, the slave, the free person, and the resident. All those we mentioned may lead it as imams, whether a regular [imam] or a non-regular one. Prisoners and those in hiding perform it as two rakʿahs in congregational prayer with a sermon, like all other people. It is performed in every village, whether small or large, regardless of whether governmental authority exists there or not. Is it permissible to conduct Friday prayer in two or more mosques within the same village? Abū Ḥanīfah, Mālik, and al-Shāfiʿī held that Friday prayer is not obligatory for a slave or a traveler.

L8416–8418 Those who imitated them in that matter cited weak narrations as evidence—unreliable ones: one is mursal [disconnected], the second contains Huraym who is unknown, and the third includes al-Ḥakam ibn ʿAmr and Ḍirār ibn ʿAmr, both of whom are unknown. Is it permissible to cite such [narrations] as evidence? Had we wished, we could have countered them with what we narrated via the chain of ʿAbd al-Razzāq from Ibn Jurayj, who said: "It reached me that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—gathered his companions during a journey and delivered a sermon while leaning on a staff." But to Allah belongs all praise—we are sufficiently provided by sound narrations over unsound ones. They argued that "the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—did not recite aloud during the Ẓuhr prayer at ʿArafah, though it was a Friday." ʿAlī said: This is a grave presumption. No one has ever reported that he—peace be upon him—did not recite aloud in it. Whoever asserts this conclusively is lying against Allah the Exalted and His Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—for pursuing matters beyond his knowledge? ʿAṭāʾ and others said: If the Day of ʿArafah coincides with Friday, should the Imam recite aloud? ʿAlī said: There is no dispute that he—peace be upon him—delivered the sermon and prayed two rakʿahs, which constitute the Jumuʿah prayer. Even if their claim that he—peace be upon him—did not recite aloud were valid, it would still lack evidential weight whatsoever. Because audible recitation is not obligatory, whoever recites silently in a prayer requiring audible recitation or audibly in a prayer requiring silent recitation, their prayer remains complete, as we have previously explained. Some of them have resorted to claiming consensus on this matter, yet this is a matter where lying comes easily to those who assert it.

L8419 It has been narrated to us from Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal—may Allah have mercy on him—that he said: "Whoever claims consensus has lied." Muḥammad ibn Saʿīd ibn Nabāt narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn ʿAbd al-Baṣīr narrated to us, Qāsim ibn Aṣbagh narrated to us, Muḥammad ibn Waḍḍāḥ and Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd al-Salām al-Khushanī narrated to us. Ibn Waḍḍāḥ said: Mūsā ibn Muʿāwiyah narrated to us, Wakīʿ narrated to us. Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd al-Salām al-Khushanī said: Muḥammad ibn al-Muthannā narrated to us, ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī narrated to us. Then both Wakīʿ and ʿAbd al-Raḥmān concurred—each transmitting from Shuʿbah, from ʿAṭāʾ ibn Abī Maymūnah, from Abū Rāfiʿ, from Abū Hurayrah—that they wrote to ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb asking him about the Friday Prayer while they were in Bahrain? He wrote to them: "Perform the Friday Prayer wherever you are." Wakīʿ said: "Indeed, he wrote."

وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ أَحْمَدَ بْنِ حَنْبَلٍ - رَحِمَهُ اللَّهُ - أَنَّهُ قَالَ: مَنْ ادَّعَى الْإِجْمَاعَ كَذَبَ -: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ سَعِيدِ بْنِ نَبَاتٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْبَصِيرِ ثنا قَاسِمُ بْنُ أَصْبَغَ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ وَضَّاحٍ، وَمُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ السَّلَامِ الْخُشَنِيُّ -: قَالَ ابْنُ وَضَّاحٍ: ثنا مُوسَى بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا وَكِيعٌ -: وَقَالَ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ السَّلَامِ الْخُشَنِيُّ: ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْمُثَنَّى ثنا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ مَهْدِيٍّ -: ثُمَّ اتَّفَقَ وَكِيعٌ، وَعَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ أَبِي مَيْمُونَةَ عَنْ أَبِي رَافِعٍ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ: أَنَّهُمْ كَتَبُوا إِلَى عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ يَسْأَلُونَهُ عَنْ الْجُمُعَةِ وَهُمْ بِالْبَحْرَيْنِ؟ فَكَتَبَ إِلَيْهِمْ: أَنْ جَمِّعُوا حَيْثُمَا كُنْتُمْ؟ وَقَالَ وَكِيعٌ: إِنَّهُ كَتَبَ.

L8420–8422 On the authority of Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shaybah: Abū Khālid al-Aḥmar narrated to us from ʿAbdullāh ibn Yazīd who said: I asked Sa'id ibn al-Musayyib: "Upon whom is the Friday prayer obligatory?" He said: "Whoever hears the adhan."

وَعَنْ أَبِي بَكْرِ بْنِ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: ثنا أَبُو خَالِدٍ الْأَحْمَرُ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ قَالَ: سَأَلْت سَعِيدَ بْنَ الْمُسَيِّبِ: عَلَى مَنْ تَجِبُ الْجُمُعَةُ؟ قَالَ: عَلَى مَنْ سَمِعَ النِّدَاءَ

L8423 From Al-Qa'nabi, from Dawud ibn Qays: I heard Amr ibn Shu'ayb, and he was asked, "O Abu Ibrahim, upon whom is the Friday prayer obligatory?" He replied, "Upon whoever hears the call to prayer." Sa'id and Amr applied it generally, stating, "Everyone who hears the call to prayer," and did not exclude slaves or travelers, unlike others besides them.

وَعَنْ الْقَعْنَبِيِّ عَنْ دَاوُد بْنِ قَيْسٍ سَمِعْت عَمْرَو بْنَ شُعَيْبٍ وَقِيلَ لَهُ: يَا أَبَا إبْرَاهِيمَ، عَلَى مَنْ تَجِبُ الْجُمُعَةُ؟ قَالَ: عَلَى مَنْ سَمِعَ النِّدَاءَ فَعَمَّمَ سَعِيدٌ، وَعَمْرٌو: كُلُّ مَنْ سَمِعَ النِّدَاءَ، وَلَمْ يَخُصَّا عَبْدًا، وَلَا مُسَافِرًا، مِنْ غَيْرِهِمَا.

L8424 From Abd al-Razzaq, from Sa'id ibn al-Sa'ib ibn Yasar: Salih ibn Sa'd al-Makki narrated to us that he was with Umar ibn Abd al-Aziz while staying in al-Suwayda during his governorship over al-Hijaz. When Friday arrived, they prepared a seating platform for him on al-Batha. Then the muezzin performed the adhan for the prayer. Umar ibn Abd al-Aziz came out to them and sat upon that platform. They then performed another adhan, after which he delivered the sermon. The iqama was called, and he led them in two rak'ahs, reciting the Quran aloud in both. He then said to them: "The Imam leads the congregation wherever he is."

L8425 A similar report is narrated from Al-Zuhri. He said: If a traveler is asked about entering a village on Friday and alighting in it, [the answer is]: If he hears the adhān, he should attend the Jumuʿah prayer.

وَعَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ مِثْلُ ذَلِكَ، وَقَالَ، إِذَا سُئِلَ عَنْ الْمُسَافِرِ يَدْخُلُ قَرْيَةً يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ فَيَنْزِلُ فِيهَا؟ قَالَ: إِذَا سَمِعَ الْأَذَانَ فَلْيَشْهَدْ الْجُمُعَةَ

L8426–8428 From the chain of Ḥammād ibn Salamah, from Abū Makīn, from ʿIkrimah, who said: If seven travelers gather [for prayer], Allah is praised, He is extolled, and a sermon is delivered for Jumuʿah, Eid al-Adha, and Eid al-Fitr. From the chain of Abd al-Razzaq, from Ma'mar, from Qatadah: Any slave who was paying the land tax must attend Friday prayer. If there was no land tax upon him or his master's work prevented him, there is no Friday upon him.

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ أَبِي مَكِينٍ عَنْ عِكْرِمَةَ قَالَ: إِذَا كَانُوا سَبْعَةً فِي سَفَرٍ فَجَمَعُوا - يُحْمَدُ اللَّهُ وَيُثْنَى عَلَيْهِ وَيُخْطَبُ فِي الْجُمُعَةِ، وَالْأَضْحَى وَالْفِطْرِ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ: أَيُّمَا عَبْدٍ كَانَ يُؤَدِّي الْخَرَاجَ فَعَلَيْهِ أَنْ يَشْهَدَ الْجُمُعَةَ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ عَلَيْهِ خَرَاجٌ أَوْ شَغَلَهُ عَمَلُ سَيِّدِهِ فَلَا جُمُعَةَ عَلَيْهِ.

L8429 Ali said: The alleged distinction between a slave subject to _kharaj_ and one who is not is merely a claim without proof. Their lie in the claim of _ijmaʿ_ has indeed become evident.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: الْفَرْقُ بَيْنَ عَبْدٍ عَلَيْهِ الْخَرَاجُ، وَبَيْنَ عَبْدٍ لَا خَرَاجَ عَلَيْهِ: دَعْوَى بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ فَقَدْ ظَهَرَ كَذِبُهُمْ فِي دَعْوَى الْإِجْمَاعِ

L8430 They resorted to saying: "It was reported from ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib that Friday prayer is not obligatory for a traveler," and from Anas that "he remained in Nīsābūr for a year or two and would not perform Friday prayer."

فَلَجَئُوا إِلَى أَنْ قَالُوا: رُوِيَ عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ: لَا جُمُعَةَ عَلَى مُسَافِرٍ وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ بِنِيسَابُورَ سَنَةً أَوْ سَنَتَيْنِ فَكَانَ لَا يَجْمَعُ.

L8431 And from ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Samurah: that he stayed in Kabul for one or two winters and did not combine prayers.

وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ بِكَابُلَ شِتْوَةً أَوْ شِتْوَتَيْنِ فَكَانَ لَا يَجْمَعُ.

L8432 Ali said: We have established three authorities from the assertion of consensus whom you have also contradicted, for ʿAbd al-Raḥmān and Anas—may Allah be pleased with them—did not combine prayers, whereas these people assert: A traveler may combine prayers with the congregation, and it suffices for him.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: حَصَلْنَا مِنْ دَعْوَى الْإِجْمَاعِ عَلَى ثَلَاثَةٍ قَدْ خَالَفْتُمُوهُمْ أَيْضًا؛ لِأَنَّ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ، وَأَنَسًا - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا - كَانَا لَا يَجْمَعَانِ، وَهَؤُلَاءِ يَقُولُونَ: يَجْمَعُ الْمُسَافِرُ مَعَ النَّاسِ وَيُجْزِئُهُ.

L8433 Ali held the opinion to appoint a deputy who would lead the Eid prayer in the mosque as four rak'ahs for the weak among them, while they themselves did not hold this opinion.

وَرَأَى عَلِيٌّ أَنْ يَسْتَخْلِفَ بِالنَّاسِ مَنْ يُصَلِّي بِضُعَفَائِهِمْ صَلَاةَ الْعِيدِ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ أَرْبَعَ رَكَعَاتٍ، وَهُمْ لَا يَقُولُونَ: بِهَذَا.

L8434 And this is Umar ibn al-Khattab regarding the Friday prayer in general. Ali said, "Allah the Exalted said: {O you who believe, when the call is made for prayer on the day of Friday, hasten to the remembrance of Allah and leave off trade} [Al-Jumu'ah: 9]." Ali said: "This address makes it impermissible to exclude a traveler or a slave without an explicit text from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Similarly, concerning the statement of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, his ruling, and his practice: is the prayer during times of fear one rak'ah? As for a traveler or a slave leading the Friday prayer, Abu Hanifah, Al-Shafi'i, Abu Sulayman, and their companions ruled it permissible, while Malik prohibited it—and this is erroneous."[23]

وَهَذَا عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ يَرَى الْجُمُعَةَ عُمُومًا قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا نُودِيَ لِلصَّلَاةِ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ فَاسْعَوْا إِلَى ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ وَذَرُوا الْبَيْعَ} [الجمعة: ٩]-: قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: فَهَذَا خِطَابٌ لَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يَخْرُجَ مِنْهُ مُسَافِرٌ وَلَا عَبْدٌ بِغَيْرِ نَصٍّ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَكَذَلِكَ قَوْلُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَحُكْمُهُ وَفِعْلُهُ أَنَّ صَلَاةَ الْخَوْفِ رَكْعَةٌ؟ وَأَمَّا إِمَامَةُ الْمُسَافِرِ، وَالْعَبْدِ فِي الْجُمُعَةِ -: فَإِنَّ أَبَا حَنِيفَةَ، وَالشَّافِعِيَّ، وَأَبَا سُلَيْمَانَ، وَأَصْحَابَهُمْ قَالُوا: يَجُوزُ ذَلِكَ، وَمَنَعَ مَالِكٌ مِنْ ذَلِكَ -: وَهُوَ خَطَأٌ.

L8435–8437 The first point is his statement: "Indeed, if a traveler and a slave attend the Friday prayer, it counts as a Friday prayer for them. What then distinguishes this from permitting their leading of it, given the Prophet's (peace be upon him) saying: 'Let the eldest among you lead you' and 'The most Quranic among them should lead the people'? He (peace be upon him) did not specify Friday prayer as distinct from other prayers, nor a traveler compared to a resident, nor a slave compared to a free resident. No report from any Companion ever indicates prohibiting a slave from leading prayer in Friday and regular prayers. Rather, it is authentically established that a black owned slave of Uthman (may Allah be pleased with him) was appointed as his governor over al-Rabadhah, and Abū Dharr (may Allah be pleased with him) would pray behind him." Others besides him among the Companions upheld Friday prayer and other prayers, since Friday prayer was held in Rabadhah. As for our statement: "Whether there was a political authority present or not"—those present among our opponents concur with us in this except Abu Hanifah, and is this not a long-standing disagreement? We have stated: It is impermissible to particularize the generality of Allah's command regarding congregational prayer without an explicit text, and there is no distinction between the Imam leading Friday prayer and its congregation, and the Imam leading other prayers and their congregations. From where then did they derive attributing Friday prayer specifically to the political authority, excluding others? As for our assertion: "Friday prayer is valid in any village, small or large"—it is authentically reported from Ali (may Allah be pleased with him): "There is no Friday prayer nor observance of Tashreeq days except in a central city with a Friday mosque (jāmiʿ)." We have mentioned Umar's divergence from this view and their disagreements with Ali in multiple instances.

أَوَّلُ ذَلِكَ - قَوْلُهُ: إِنَّ الْمُسَافِرَ وَالْعَبْدَ إِذَا حَضَرَا الْجُمُعَةَ كَانَتْ لَهُمَا جُمُعَةً فَمَا الْفَرْقُ بَيْنَ هَذَا وَبَيْنَ جَوَازِ إِمَامَتِهِمَا فِيهَا مَعَ قَوْلِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «وَلْيَؤُمَّكُمْ أَكْبَرُكُمْ» وَ «يَؤُمُّ الْقَوْمَ أَقْرَؤُهُمْ» ؟ فَلَمْ يَخُصَّ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - جُمُعَةً مِنْ غَيْرِهَا، وَلَا مُسَافِرًا، وَلَا عَبْدًا مِنْ حُرٍّ مُقِيمٍ، وَلَا جَاءَ قَطُّ عَنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ مَنْعُ الْعَبْدِ مِنْ الْإِمَامَةِ فِيهِمَا، بَلْ قَدْ صَحَّ أَنَّهُ كَانَ عَبْدٌ لِعُثْمَانَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - أَسْوَدُ مَمْلُوكٌ أَمِيرًا لَهُ عَلَى الرَّبَذَةِ يُصَلِّي خَلْفَهُ أَبُو ذَرٍّ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - وَغَيْرُهُ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ الْجُمُعَةَ وَغَيْرَهَا؛ لِأَنَّ الرَّبَذَةَ بِهَا جُمُعَةٌ؟ وَأَمَّا قَوْلُنَا: كَانَ هُنَالِكَ سُلْطَانٌ أَوْ لَمْ يَكُنْ -: فَالْحَاضِرُونَ مِنْ مُخَالِفِينَا مُوَافِقُونَ لَنَا فِي ذَلِكَ إلَّا أَبَا حَنِيفَةَ، وَفِي هَذَا خِلَافٌ قَدِيمٌ؟ وَقَدْ قُلْنَا: لَا يَجُوزُ تَخْصِيصُ عُمُومِ أَمْرِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى بِالتَّجْمِيعِ بِغَيْرِ نَصٍّ جَلِيٍّ وَلَا فَرْقَ بَيْنَ الْإِمَامِ فِي الْجُمُعَةِ وَالْجَمَاعَةِ فِيهَا وَبَيْنَ الْإِمَامِ فِي سَائِرِ الصَّلَوَاتِ وَالْجَمَاعَةِ فِيهَا، فَمِنْ أَيْنَ وَقَعَ لَهُمْ رَدُّ

L8438 Malik said: "The Friday prayer is only held in a village with contiguous buildings?" Ali remarked: "This is an unsupported specification, and it is also invalid, for three households constitute a village with contiguous buildings. Otherwise, he would have to specify the minimum number below which the term 'village' does not apply—and this is impossible to determine."

وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: لَا تَكُونُ الْجُمُعَةُ إلَّا فِي قَرْيَةٍ مُتَّصِلَةِ الْبُنْيَانِ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: هَذَا تَحْدِيدٌ لَا دَلِيلَ عَلَيْهِ، وَهُوَ أَيْضًا فَاسِدٌ، لِأَنَّ ثَلَاثَةَ دُورٍ قَرْيَةٌ مُتَّصِلَةُ الْبُنْيَانِ، وَإِلَّا فَلَا بُدَّ لَهُ مِنْ تَحْدِيدِ الْعَدَدِ الَّذِي لَا يَقَعُ اسْمُ قَرْيَةٍ عَلَى أَقَلَّ مِنْهُ، وَهَذَا مَا لَا سَبِيلَ إلَيْهِ.

L8439 Some Hanafis said: "If that were the case, would the transmission have been continuous?" It is replied to them: "Yes, it indeed was, until blind adherents severed it by deviating from the truth. We witnessed in the island of Majorca that people gathered in its villages, until some blind adherents of Malik severed it, thereby incurring the sin of forbidding Friday prayer."

L8440 It has been narrated to us that Ibn ʿUmar would pass by the people of the water sources while they were collecting water, so he did not forbid them from doing so.

وَرُوِّينَا أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ يَمُرُّ عَلَى أَهْلِ الْمِيَاهِ وَهُمْ يَجْمَعُونَ فَلَا يَنْهَاهُمْ عَنْ ذَلِكَ.

L8441–8443 It is reported that ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz ordered those responsible for water sources to gather and ordered the people of every... A village whose inhabitants do not relocate by having an amir appointed over them to unite them. It is said to them: Had your claim been true and correct, it would have come through mutawātir transmission. It would not have been acceptable for Ibn Umar to be ignorant of it, nor his father Umar before him, nor az-Zuhri and others. There is no proof in the statement of anyone apart from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him).

L8444 As for our statement: “Friday prayer is permissible in two or more mosques within a village”—the companions of Abū Ḥanīfah ruled according to Abū Yūsuf’s opinion that Friday prayer is not valid except in one location within the town, unless there are two banks separated by a river, in which case it becomes permissible to hold Friday prayer on each bank.

L8445 They narrated from Abū Ḥanīfah, Muḥammad ibn al-Ḥasan, and Abū Yūsuf also that the Friday prayer suffices in two locations within the city but does not suffice in three locations. Both these doctrinal positions are absurd because their absurdity has no end, for they lack corroboration from the Quran, the Sunnah, a Companion’s statement, consensus, or analogical reasoning. They also narrated from Muḥammad ibn al-Ḥasan that the Friday prayer suffices in three locations within the city.

وَرَوَوْا عَنْ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، وَمُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْحَسَنِ، وَأَبِي يُوسُفَ أَيْضًا: أَنَّ الْجُمُعَةَ تُجْزِئُ فِي مَوْضِعَيْنِ فِي الْمِصْرِ، وَلَا تُجْزِئُ فِي ثَلَاثَةِ مَوَاضِعَ؟ وَكِلَا هَذَيْنِ الْمَذْهَبَيْنِ مِنَ السُّخْفِ حَيْثُ لَا نِهَايَةَ لَهُ لِأَنَّهُ لَا يُعَضِّدُهُمَا قُرْآنٌ، وَلَا سُنَّةٌ، وَلَا قَوْلُ صَاحِبٍ، وَلَا إِجْمَاعٌ وَلَا قِيَاسٌ وَقَدْ رَوَوْا عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْحَسَنِ: أَنَّهَا تُجْزِئُ فِي ثَلَاثَةِ مَوَاضِعَ مِنَ الْمِصْرِ.

L8446 If they say: “Ali prayed the Eid prayer in the musalla and appointed someone as his deputy to lead the prayer for the weak in the mosque, thus there are two locations—can this be called a valid opinion?” We respond to them: Then you should say: Indeed, the Jumuʿah prayer is not valid except in the musalla.

فَإِنْ قَالُوا: صَلَّى عَلِيٌّ الْعِيدَ فِي الْمُصَلَّى وَاسْتَخْلَفَ مَنْ صَلَّى بِالضُّعَفَاءِ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ، فَهُمَا مَوْضِعَانِ وَهَذَا لَا يُقَالُ: رَأْيًا؟ قُلْنَا لَهُمْ: فَقُولُوا: إِنَّهُ لَا تُجْزِئُ الْجُمُعَةُ إِلَّا فِي الْمُصَلَّى.

L8447 And in the congregational mosque only; otherwise, you have opposed it, just as you opposed it in this very report, since he - may Allah be pleased with him - ordered the one he appointed as his successor to lead them in the Eid prayer with four units. So you said: “This is irregular.” Then it is said to you: “Rather, the irregularity is what you have permitted, and the established practice is what you have rejected.” Allah the Exalted has not made your opinions a measure for the Ummah nor a standard in His religion. Why did you not say regarding this report, as you say regarding the report of the withheld-milk sheep (musarrah) and others: “This is contrary to the verse,” because Allah the Exalted generalized the obligation of hastening to Friday prayer for all believers? Thus, specifying it would be an inconsistency with the Quran by an irregular, weakly transmitted report which claims this obligation applies only in a town with a congregational mosque?

L8448 Mālik and al-Shāfiʿī prohibited combining prayers at two separate locations within the city.

وَمَنَعَ مَالِكٌ، وَالشَّافِعِيُّ: مِنَ التَّجْمِيعِ فِي مَوْضِعَيْنِ فِي الْمِصْرِ.

L8449–8451 We have observed the Mālikīs stipulating that the distance between congregational mosques must not be less than three miles—and this is truly astonishing. We do not know where this limitation originated, nor how it entered into their rulings. Could the intellect of one endowed with reason ever be made into a religion? We seek refuge in Allah from being forsaken.

وَرَأَيْنَا الْمُنْتَسِبِينَ إِلَى مَالِكٍ يَحُدُّونَ فِي أَنْ لَا يَكُونَ بَيْنَ الْجَامِعِينَ أَقَلُّ مِنْ ثَلَاثَةِ أَمْيَالٍ وَهَذَا عَجَبٌ عَجِيبٌ، وَلَا نَدْرِي مِنْ أَيْنَ جَاءَ هَذَا التَّحْدِيدُ؟ وَلَا كَيْفَ دَخَلَ فِي عَقْلِ ذِي عَقْلٍ حَتَّى يَجْعَلَهُ دِينًا؟ نَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ الْخِذْلَانِ.

L8452 Allah the Exalted said: {When the call is made for the prayer on the day of Jumu'ah, proceed to the remembrance of Allah and leave off trade. That is best for you} [Al-Jumu'ah: 9]. He, the Mighty and Majestic, did not specify "one location," "two locations," "the lesser," or "the greater." {And your Lord is not forgetful} [Maryam: 64].[24]

قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {إِذَا نُودِيَ لِلصَّلَاةِ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ فَاسْعَوْا إِلَى ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ وَذَرُوا الْبَيْعَ ذَلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ} [الجمعة: ٩] فَلَمْ يَقُلْ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ: فِي مَوْضِعٍ وَلَا مَوْضِعَيْنِ وَلَا أَقَلَّ، وَلَا أَكْثَرَ {وَمَا كَانَ رَبُّكَ نَسِيًّا} [مريم: ٦٤] .

L8453 "If they say, 'The people of al-ʿAwālī would attend the Friday prayer with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.'" فَإِنْ قَالُوا: قَدْ كَانَ أَهْلُ الْعَوَالِي يَشْهَدُونَ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - الْجُمُعَةَ.

L8454 We said: Yes, and indeed the people of Dhul-Hulayfa used to gather with him (peace be upon him) as well. This was narrated to us through Al-Zuhri's narration, though this is not obligatory according to your view. They used to attend all prayers with him (peace be upon him), yet this does not indicate that the rest of their people did not perform congregational prayers in their mosques. No textual evidence ever stated they refrained from gathering their entire community in their mosques, nor do they ever restrict this? Among the decisive proofs validating our position is that Allah the Exalted only obligated in the Quran the hastening to Friday prayer when its call is made, not before. By necessity, one situated approximately half a mile or two-thirds of a mile away would not catch the prayer at all if departing at the time Allah commanded them to go.

قُلْنَا: نَعَمْ وَقَدْ كَانَ أَهْلُ ذِي الْحُلَيْفَةِ يَجْمَعُونَ مَعَهُ أَيْضًا - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -، رُوِّينَا ذَلِكَ مِنْ طَرِيقِ الزُّهْرِيِّ، وَلَا يَلْزَمُ هَذَا عِنْدَكُمْ، وَقَدْ كَانُوا يَشْهَدُونَ مَعَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - سَائِرَ الصَّلَوَاتِ، وَلَمْ يَكُنْ ذَلِكَ دَلِيلًا عَلَى أَنَّ سَائِرَ قَوْمِهِمْ لَا يُصَلُّونَ الْجَمَاعَاتِ فِي مَسَاجِدِهِمْ، وَلَمْ يَأْتِ قَطُّ نَصٌّ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا لَا يَجْمَعُونَ سَائِرَ قَوْمِهِمْ فِي مَسَاجِدِهِمْ، وَلَا يَحُدُّونَ هَذَا أَبَدًا؟ وَمِنْ الْبُرْهَانِ الْقَاطِعِ عَلَى صِحَّةِ قَوْلِنَا: أَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى إنَّمَا افْتَرَضَ فِي الْقُرْآنِ السَّعْيَ إلَى صَلَاةِ الْجُمُعَةِ إذَا نُودِيَ لَهَا، لَا قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ، وَبِالضَّرُورَةِ أَنَّ مَنْ كَانَ عَلَى نَحْوِ نِصْفِ مِيلٍ، أَوْ ثُلُثَيْ مِيلٍ لَا يُدْرِكُ الصَّلَاةَ أَصْلًا إذَا رَاحَ إلَيْهَا فِي الْوَقْتِ الَّذِي أَمَرَهُ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى بِالرَّوَاحِ إلَيْهَا.

L8455 It is necessarily established that every group must have a mosque where they gather when they go to it at the time they were commanded to go, so they may catch the sermon and prayer. Whoever says otherwise has made going obligatory at a time when it is not obligatory, and this is a contradiction and an obligation of what they do not deem obligatory.

[24] Qur'an references (L8452): Qur'an 62:9 (Al-Jumu'ah); Qur'an 19:64 (Maryam).

وَمِنْ أَعْظَمِ الْبُرْهَانِ عَلَيْهِمْ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَتَى الْمَدِينَةَ وَإِنَّمَا هِيَ قُرًى صِغَارٌ مُفَرَّقَةٌ، بَنُو مَالِكِ بْنِ النَّجَّارِ فِي قَرْيَتِهِمْ حَوَالِي دُورِهِمْ أَمْوَالُهُمْ وَنَخْلُهُمْ، وَبَنُو عَدِيِّ بْنِ النَّجَّارِ فِي دَارِهِمْ كَذَلِكَ، وَبَنُو مَازِنِ بْنِ النَّجَّارِ كَذَلِكَ، وَبَنُو سَالِمٍ كَذَلِكَ، وَبَنُو سَاعِدَةَ كَذَلِكَ، وَبَنُو الْحَارِثِ بْنِ الْخَزْرَجِ كَذَلِكَ، وَبَنُو عَمْرِو بْنِ عَوْفٍ كَذَلِكَ، وَبَنُو عَبْدِ الْأَشْهَلِ كَذَلِكَ، وَسَائِرِ بُطُونِ الْأَنْصَارِ كَذَلِكَ، فَبَنَى مَسْجِدَهُ فِي بَنِي مَالِكِ بْنِ النَّجَّارِ، وَجَمَعَ فِيهِ فِي قَرْيَةٍ لَيْسَتْ بِالْكَبِيرَةِ، وَلَا مِصْرَ هُنَالِكَ.

L8456 Among the greatest proofs against them is that when the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—came to Medina, it was nothing but small, scattered villages. The Banu Malik ibn al-Najjar were in their village with their properties and palm groves around their dwellings. The same applied to the Banu Adiyy ibn al-Najjar in their dwellings, the Banu Mazin ibn al-Najjar, the Banu Salim, the Banu Sa'idah, the Banu al-Harith ibn al-Khazraj, the Banu Amr ibn Awf, the Banu Abd al-Ashhal, and the rest of the clans of the Ansar. He built his mosque among the Banu Malik ibn al-Najjar and assembled people in it within a village that was neither large nor a city there.

فَبَطَلَ قَوْلُ مَنْ ادَّعَى أَنْ لَا جُمُعَةَ إِلَّا فِي مِصْرٍ، وَهَذَا أَمْرٌ لَا يَجْهَلُهُ أَحَدٌ لَا مُؤْمِنٌ وَلَا كَافِرٌ، بَلْ هُوَ نَقْلُ الْكَوَافِّ مِنْ شَرْقِ الْأَرْضِ إِلَى غَرْبِهَا، وَبِاللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L8457 The claim that there is no Friday prayer except in a major city is invalidated, for this is a matter none are ignorant of—neither believer nor disbeliever. Rather, it is the universal transmission from the east of the earth to its west, and success is from Allah, the Exalted.

وَقَوْلُ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ، " حَيْثُمَا كُنْتُمْ " إِبَاحَةٌ لِلتَّجْمِيعِ فِي جَمِيعِ الْمَسَاجِدِ؟ وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: إِذَا كَانَ الْمَسْجِدُ تُجْمَعُ فِيهِ لِلصَّلَاةِ فَلْتُصَلَّ فِيهِ الْجُمُعَةَ.

L8458–8459 Does the statement of Umar ibn al-Khattab ("Wherever you are") indicate the permissibility of combining prayers in all mosques? We have been narrated from Amr ibn Dinar that he said: If a mosque is designated for prayer gatherings, perform Jumu'ah prayer there.

L8460 And from the narration of Abd al-Razzaq via Ibn Jurayj: I asked Ata ibn Abi Rabah, "What do you think about the people of Basra when the main mosque cannot accommodate them - what do they do?" He replied, "Every community has a mosque where they gather, and that suffices for them."

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَبِهِ نَأْخُذُ؟

L8461 This is the view of Abū Sulaymān; do we adopt it?

[مَسْأَلَةٌ لَيْسَ لِلسَّيِّدِ مَنْعُ عَبْدِهِ مِنْ حُضُورِ الْجُمُعَةِ]

Issue: The master does not have the right to prevent his slave from attending the Friday congregational prayer (Jumu'ah).

٥٢٤ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَيْسَ لِلسَّيِّدِ مَنْعُ عَبْدِهِ مِنْ حُضُورِ الْجُمُعَةِ، لِأَنَّهُ إذْ قَدْ ثَبَتَ أَنَّهُ مَدْعُوٌّ إلَيْهَا فَسَعْيُهُ إلَيْهَا فَرْضٌ، كَمَا أَنَّ الصَّلَاةَ فَرْضٌ وَلَا فَرْقَ.

L8463 Issue 524: A master may not prevent his slave from attending the Friday prayer, because it is established that the slave is summoned to it, making his effort to attend obligatory - just as prayer itself is obligatory, with no difference.

L8464 It is not permissible for him to prevent [her] from any of her obligatory acts. Allah, the Exalted, said: "Behold! The curse of Allah is upon the wrongdoers [Hud: 18] who hinder [others] from the path of Allah" [Hud: 19].[25]

L8465 The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "There is no obedience [to anyone] in sin; obedience is only [owed] in what is right."

L8466 Issue: There is no obligation of Friday prayer upon one excused due to illness.

L8467 525 - Issue: Friday prayer is not obligatory upon someone excused due to illness or other valid reasons, nor upon women. If those who are excused or women attend, they should pray it as two rak'ahs.

L8468 The Friday prayer, like all other prayers, is obligatory upon those obligated to perform other congregational prayers. Valid excuses that nullify the obligation are the same as those nullifying obligations for other prayers, with no distinction. If a person with a valid excuse attends it, the excuse is invalidated, thereby making them one of those required to perform it. It is two units, as the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) stated. Even if a man with a valid excuse prays it alongside his wife, he prays two units. Similarly, if women pray it in congregation, they pray two units.

L8469 A Question Regarding Attendance at Jumuʿah Prayer.

L8470 526 - Issue: Attendance at the Friday congregational prayer (Ṣalāt al-Jumuʿah) is obligatory for one who resides within such a distance that if the sun declines from its zenith and he has performed ablution beforehand, he enters the road immediately after the sun begins to decline and walks at a normal pace, thereby arriving in time to catch even the Salām - whether وَلَا يَحِلُّ لَهُ مَنْعُهُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ مِنْ فَرَائِضِهِ، قَالَ تَعَالَى: {أَلا لَعْنَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَى الظَّالِمِينَ} [هود: ١٨] {الَّذِينَ يَصُدُّونَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ} [هود: ١٩] .

وَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «لَا طَاعَةَ فِي مَعْصِيَةٍ إِنَّمَا الطَّاعَةُ فِي الطَّاعَةِ» .

[مَسْأَلَةٌ لَا جُمُعَةَ عَلَى مَعْذُورٍ بِمَرَضٍ]

لِأَنَّ الْجُمُعَةَ كَسَائِرِ الصَّلَوَاتِ تَجِبُ عَلَى مَنْ وَجَبَتْ عَلَيْهِ سَائِرُ الصَّلَوَاتِ فِي الْجَمَاعَاتِ - وَيُسْقِطُ الْإِجَابَةَ مِنْ الْأَعْذَارِ مَا يُسْقِطُ الْإِجَابَةَ إلَى غَيْرِهَا وَلَا فَرْقَ فَإِنْ حَضَرَهَا الْمَعْذُورُ فَقَدْ سَقَطَ الْعُذْرُ، فَصَارَ مِنْ أَهْلِهَا وَهِيَ رَكْعَتَانِ كَمَا قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَلَوْ صَلَّاهَا الرَّجُلُ الْمَعْذُورُ بِامْرَأَتِهِ صَلَّاهَا رَكْعَتَيْنِ، وَكَذَلِكَ لَوْ صَلَّاهَا النِّسَاءُ فِي جَمَاعَةٍ.

٥٢٦ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَيَلْزَمُ الْمَجِيءُ إلَى الْجُمُعَةِ مَنْ كَانَ مِنْهَا بِحَيْثُ إذَا زَالَتْ الشَّمْسُ وَقَدْ تَوَضَّأَ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ دَخَلَ الطَّرِيقَ إثْرَ أَوَّلِ الزَّوَالِ وَمَشَى مُتَرَسِّلًا وَيُدْرِكُ مِنْهَا وَلَوْ السَّلَامَ، سَوَاءٌ سَمِعَ النِّدَاءَ أَوْ لَمْ يَسْمَعْ، فَمَنْ كَانَ بِحَيْثُ إنْ فَعَلَ مَا ذَكَرْنَا لَمْ يُدْرِكْ مِنْهَا وَلَا السَّلَامَ لَمْ يَلْزَمْهُ الْمَجِيءُ إلَيْهَا، سَمِعَ النِّدَاءَ أَوْ لَمْ يَسْمَعْ، وَهُوَ قَوْلُ رَبِيعَةَ.

he heard the call to prayer or not. As for one who resides at such a distance that even if he acts as we have described, he would not reach any part of the prayer, not even the Salām, then it is not incumbent upon him to attend - whether he heard the call or not. This is the opinion of Rabīʿah.

L8471–8473 The excuse for missing the Friday prayer is the same as the excuse for missing the rest of the obligatory prayers, as previously stated. Previously, people differed regarding this matter. We have received reports from Ibn Jurayj via Sulaymān ibn Mūsā that Muʿāwiyah, during his sermon from the pulpit, would command those within two *faʾ*s to attend the Friday prayer—and they were twenty-four miles from Damascus.

وَعَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَأْمُرُ مَنْ كَانَ عَلَى خَمْسَةَ عَشَرَ مِيلًا بِحُضُورِ الْجُمُعَةِ، وَعَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ وَقَتَادَةَ: تَجِبُ الْجُمُعَةُ عَلَى كُلِّ مَنْ كَانَ مِنَ الْجَامِعِ بِمِقْدَارِ ذِي الْحُلَيْفَةِ مِنَ الْمَدِينَةِ، وَقَالَ إِبْرَاهِيمُ النَّخَعِيُّ: تُؤْتَى الْجُمُعَةُ مِنْ فَرْسَخَيْنِ وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، وَأَنَسٍ، وَابْنِ عُمَرَ، وَنَافِعٍ، وَعِكْرِمَةَ، وَالْحَكَمِ، وَعَطَاءٍ، وَعَنِ الْحَسَنِ، وَقَتَادَةَ، وَأَبِي ثَوْرٍ: تُؤْتَى الْجُمُعَةُ مِنْ حَيْثُ إِذَا صَلَّاهَا ثُمَّ خَرَجَ أَدْرَكَهُ اللَّيْلُ فِي مَنْزِلِهِ، وَهُوَ قَوْلُ الْأَوْزَاعِيِّ.

L8474 From Mu’adh ibn Jabal: He would command those within fifteen miles to attend Friday prayer. From al-Zuhri and Qatadah: Friday prayer is obligatory for everyone within a distance from the mosque equal to that of Dhul-Hulaifah from Medina. Ibrahim al-Nakha’i said: Friday prayer is to be attended from two parasangs. From Abu Hurairah, Anas, Ibn Umar, Nafi’, Ikrimah, al-Hakam, and ’Ata’; and from al-Hasan, Qatadah, and Abu Thawr: Friday prayer is to be attended from a distance such that if one prays it and departs, nightfall would overtake him at his home. This is the opinion of al-Awza’i.

وَرُوِيَ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ، وَعَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيَّبِ، وَعَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ: تَجِبُ الْجُمُعَةُ عَلَى مَنْ سَمِعَ النِّدَاءَ، وَأَنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عَمْرٍو كَانَ يَكُونُ مِنَ الطَّائِفِ عَلَى ثَلَاثَةِ أَمْيَالٍ فَلَا يَأْتِي الْجُمُعَةَ.

L8475 It has been narrated from ʿAbdullāh ibn ʿAmr ibn al-ʿĀṣ, from Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib, and from ʿAmr ibn Shuʿayb that the Friday prayer is obligatory upon whoever hears the call to prayer, and that ʿAbdullāh ibn ʿAmr would be three miles from Ṭāʾif, so he would not attend the Friday prayer.

وَبِهِ يَقُولُ أَحْمَدُ بْنُ حَنْبَلٍ، وَإِسْحَاقُ بْنُ رَاهْوَيْهِ.

L8476 And by this, Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal and Isḥāq ibn Rāhawayh hold this view.

وَعَنِ ابْنِ الْمُنْكَدِرِ: تُؤْتَى الْجُمُعَةُ عَلَى أَرْبَعَةِ أَمْيَالٍ؟ وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ، وَاللَّيْثُ: تَجِبُ الْجُمُعَةُ عَلَى مَنْ كَانَ مِنَ الْمِصْرِ عَلَى ثَلَاثَةِ أَمْيَالٍ، وَلَا تَجِبُ عَلَى مَنْ كَانَ عَلَى أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ذَلِكَ؟ وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ: تَجِبُ عَلَى أَهْلِ الْمِصْرِ وَإِنْ عَظُمَ، وَأَمَّا مَنْ كَانَ خَارِجَ الْمِصْرِ، فَمَنْ كَانَ

L8477 From Ibn al-Munkadir: “Is Friday prayer to be attended within four miles?” Malik and al-Layth said: “Friday prayer is obligatory upon whoever is from the town within three miles, and it is not obligatory upon whoever is beyond that distance.” Al-Shāfiʿī said: “It is obligatory upon the residents of the town even if it is large. As for those outside the town, whoever is within hearing range of the call to prayer must respond, while whoever is beyond hearing range is not obligated to attend Friday prayer." Abū Ḥanīfa and his companions said: "Friday prayer is binding upon all residents of the town—whether they hear the call or not—and it does not bind those outside the town, whether they hear the call or not."

بِحَيْثُ يَسْمَعُ النِّدَاءَ فَعَلَيْهِ أَنْ يُجِيبَ وَمَنْ كَانَ بِحَيْثُ لَا يَسْمَعُ النِّدَاءَ لَمْ تَلْزَمْهُ الْجُمُعَةُ؟ وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ وَأَصْحَابُهُ: تَلْزَمُ الْجُمُعَةُ جَمِيعَ أَهْلِ الْمِصْرِ - سَمِعُوا النِّدَاءَ أَوْ لَمْ يَسْمَعُوا - وَلَا تَلْزَمُ مَنْ كَانَ خَارِجَ الْمِصْرِ، سَمِعَ النِّدَاءَ أَوْ لَمْ يَسْمَعْ؟

L8478–8479 Ali said: None of these assertions have any valid evidence—neither from the Quran, nor from a Sunnah (whether sound or weak), nor from an un-opposed statement of a Companion, nor from Ijmaʿ (consensus), nor from Qiyas (analogical reasoning), let alone the statement of Abū Ḥanīfah and his companions.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: كُلُّ هَذِهِ الْأَقْوَالِ لَا حُجَّةَ لِقَائِلِهَا، لَا مِنْ قُرْآنٍ، وَلَا سُنَّةٍ صَحِيحَةٍ وَلَا سَقِيمَةٍ، وَلَا قَوْلِ صَاحِبٍ لَا مُخَالِفَ لَهُ، وَلَا إجْمَاعٍ، وَلَا قِيَاسٍ لَا سِيَّمَا قَوْلُ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ وَأَصْحَابِهِ.

L8480 If it is argued that this distance is limited to three miles based on the fact that the inhabitants of al-ʿAwālī used to perform Jumuʿah prayer with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), we respond: It has been narrated that the people of Dhū al-Ḥulayfah—which lies beyond three miles—attended Jumuʿah prayer with him (peace be upon him). This provides no evidence that he (peace be upon him) imposed this as an obligation upon them. Rather, it has been reported that they were permitted not to pray it with him.

فَإِنْ تَعَلَّقَ مِنْ يَحُدُّ ذَلِكَ بِثَلَاثَةِ أَمْيَالٍ بِأَنَّ أَهْلَ الْعَوَالِي كَانُوا يُجَمِّعُونَ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -؟ قُلْنَا: وَقَدْ رُوِيَ أَنَّ أَهْلَ ذِي الْحُلَيْفَةِ كَانُوا يُجَمِّعُونَ مَعَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -، وَهِيَ عَلَى أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ثَلَاثَةِ أَمْيَالٍ، وَلَيْسَ فِي ذَلِكَ دَلِيلٌ عَلَى أَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - أَوْجَبَ ذَلِكَ عَلَيْهِمْ فَرْضًا، بَلْ قَدْ رُوِيَ أَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - أَذِنَ لَهُمْ فِي أَنْ لَا يُصَلُّوهَا مَعَهُ.

L8481 This has been authentically reported from Uthmān—may Allah be pleased with him—as narrated through the chain of Mālik from al-Zuhrī from Abū ʿUbayd, the client of Ibn Azhar, who said: "I attended Eid with Uthmān ibn ʿAffān. He prayed, then delivered the sermon and said: 'Two Eids have coincided for you on this day. Whoever among the people of Al-ʿĀliyah wishes to wait for Friday prayer, let him wait. Whoever wishes to return, let him return—for I have permitted him.'" ʿAlī remarked: "Had he considered this an obligation upon them, he would not have permitted them to abandon it."

وَقَدْ صَحَّ ذَلِكَ عَنْ عُثْمَانَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ -: كَمَا رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ مَالِكٍ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي عُبَيْدٍ مَوْلَى ابْنِ أَزْهَرَ قَالَ: شَهِدْت الْعِيدَ مَعَ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ عَفَّانَ فَصَلَّى ثُمَّ خَطَبَ فَقَالَ: إنَّهُ قَدْ اجْتَمَعَ لَكُمْ فِي يَوْمِكُمْ هَذَا عِيدَانِ، فَمَنْ أَحَبَّ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْعَالِيَةِ أَنْ يَنْتَظِرَ الْجُمُعَةَ فَلْيَنْتَظِرْهَا، وَمَنْ أَحَبَّ أَنْ يَرْجِعَ فَلْيَرْجِعْ، فَقَدْ أَذِنْت لَهُ؟ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: لَوْ كَانَ ذَلِكَ عِنْدَهُ فَرْضًا عَلَيْهِمْ لَمَا أَذِنَ لَهُمْ فِي تَرْكِهَا.

L8482–8484 As for those who say it is obligatory upon whoever hears the call - the call may indeed not be heard due to the faintness of the muezzin's voice, the wind carrying it to another direction, or an elevated barrier rising between him and one who is extremely close. Yet it may be heard across many miles when the muezzin is in a minaret, the village lies on a mountain, the muezzin is strong-voiced, and the wind carries his sound. We necessarily know that the Messenger of Allah's statement - peace and blessings be upon him: "Do you hear the call?" He said: "Yes." He said: "Respond" - refers to commanding him to answer only for the prayer to which he is called, not one who is certain he will not catch any part of it. This is something known with certainty, and this clarifies his report—peace be upon him—that he was on the verge of burning the homes of those who stayed away from congregational prayer without an excuse.

وَأَمَّا مَنْ قَالَ: تَجِبُ عَلَى مَنْ سَمِعَ النِّدَاءَ -: فَإِنَّ النِّدَاءَ قَدْ لَا يَسْمَعُهُ لِخَفَاءِ صَوْتِ الْمُؤَذِّنِ - أَوْ لِحَمْلِ الرِّيحِ لَهُ إلَى جِهَةٍ أُخْرَى، أَوْ لِحَوَالَةِ رَابِيَةٍ مِنْ الْأَرْضِ دُونَهُ مَنْ كَانَ

L8485 Since they have differed in this manner, the authority to which one must refer is what Allah has obligated in the Quran and Sunnah: We find that Allah, the Exalted, has said: {O you who believe, when the call is made for prayer on Friday, hasten to the remembrance of Allah and abandon trade} [al-Jumuʿah: 9].[26]

فَإِذْ قَدْ اخْتَلَفُوا هَذَا الِاخْتِلَافَ فَالْمَرْجُوعُ إلَيْهِ مَا افْتَرَضَ اللَّهُ الرُّجُوعَ إلَيْهِ مِنْ الْقُرْآنِ وَالسُّنَّةِ؟ -: فَوَجَدْنَا اللَّهَ تَعَالَى قَدْ قَالَ: {يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا نُودِيَ لِلصَّلَاةِ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ فَاسْعَوْا إِلَى ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ وَذَرُوا الْبَيْعَ} [الجمعة: ٩] .

L8486 Allah the Exalted obligated proceeding to it [the prayer] when the call to commence it is made, not before that. He did not stipulate [the obligation] for those who heard the call versus those who did not hear it. The call to commence it occurs only when the sun has passed its zenith. Whoever commands people to depart before that as an obligation has thus obligated what Allah the Exalted did not prescribe in the Verse, nor did His Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him).

L8487 It is conclusively established that He, the Exalted, commanded going to it [the prayer] after the sun's zenith, not before. Thus, it is confirmed that before that time, it is a virtuous act, not an obligation—like one who sacrificed a camel, a cow, a ram, or what has been mentioned alongside them. It is confirmed that the Prophet's instruction—may Allah's blessings and peace be upon him—is for whoever walks to the prayer with calmness and dignity, and that the hastening mentioned in the Quran refers to walking, not running.

فَصَحَّ يَقِينًا أَنَّهُ تَعَالَى أَمَرَ بِالرَّوَاحِ إلَيْهَا إثْرَ زَوَالِ الشَّمْسِ، لَا قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ، فَصَحَّ أَنَّهُ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ فَضِيلَةٌ لَا فَرِيضَةٌ، كَمَنْ قَرَّبَ بَدَنَةً، أَوْ بَقَرَةً، أَوْ كَبْشًا، أَوْ مَا ذُكِرَ مَعَهَا وَقَدْ صَحَّ أَمْرُ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مَنْ مَشَى إلَى الصَّلَاةِ بِالسَّكِينَةِ وَالْوَقَارِ، وَالسَّعْيِ الْمَذْكُورِ فِي الْقُرْآنِ إنَّمَا هُوَ الْمَشْيُ لَا الْجَرْيُ.

L8488 It has been authentically established that the enjoined striving is solely to catch the prayer in its time, not for exertion that does not result in catching it. The Prophet (peace be upon him) said: “Pray what you catch, and make up what you miss.”

L8489 Thus, our statement is correct with unwavering certainty—and divine enablement is by Allah, the Most High.

L8490 Issue: The Imam begins the khutbah on the day of Jumu‘ah after the adhan has concluded.

L8491 527 – Issue: After the call to prayer and its completion, does the Imam commence with the sermon, delivering two sermons while standing and sitting between them for a sitting? The sermon is not obligatory. If an Imam leads the prayer without delivering a sermon, he must perform two rak’ahs recited aloud without fail.

L8492–8494 We recommend that he deliver both sermons from the highest point of the pulpit, facing the people directly, praising Allah the Exalted, sending blessings upon His Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him), reminding them of the Hereafter, and instructing them in what is incumbent upon them in their religion. Whatever he delivers that qualifies as a sermon has sufficed him, even if he were to deliver a sermon with a chapter of the Quran that he recites, for that is commendable. If he did not greet the people upon entering, he should greet them when standing on the pulpit. It has been reported to us from Abu Bakr and Umar that they used to greet when seated on the pulpit. Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us, Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Al-Hajjaj narrated to us, Abu Kamil Al-Jaḥdarī narrated to us, Khalid ibn Al-Harith narrated to us, Ubaydullah ibn Umar narrated to us from Nafi’ from Ibn Umar, who said: “Allah’s Messenger - peace be upon him - would deliver the Friday sermon standing, then sit, then stand again, as people do today.”

L8495 It has been narrated to us from ‘Uthmān and Mu‘āwiyah that they both delivered sermons while seated together.

L8496 Abū Muḥammad said: Allāh the Exalted stated: “There has certainly been for you in the Messenger of Allāh an excellent example" [al-Aḥzāb:21]. Thus, emulation of his actions (peace be upon him) serves as an example for us, but is his action not considered an obligation? As for Abū Ḥanīfah and Mālik, they asserted: The sermon is obligatory, and the Friday prayer is not valid without it. Standing during the sermon is also obligatory. They cited as evidence the practice of the Messenger of Allāh (peace be upon him).[27]

L8497 The two contradicted each other, stating: If he delivers the sermon while sitting, it suffices him; and if he delivers only one sermon, it suffices him; and if he does not deliver a sermon, it does not suffice him. It is authentically established from Jābir that he said: "Whoever claims to you that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) delivered a sermon while sitting has certainly lied."

L8498 Abu Muhammad said: It is invalid that some of his actions (peace be upon him) are obligatory (farḍ) while others are not.

L8499 Al-Shafi'i said: If he delivers only one sermon, his prayer is invalid.

ثُمَّ تَنَاقَضَا فَقَالَا: إنْ خَطَبَ جَالِسًا أَجْزَأَهُ، وَإِنْ خَطَبَ خُطْبَةً وَاحِدَةً أَجْزَأَهُ، وَإِنْ لَمْ يَخْطُبْ لَمْ يُجْزِهِ، وَقَدْ صَحَّ عَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّهُ قَالَ " مَنْ أَخْبَرَك أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - خَطَبَ جَالِسًا فَقَدْ كَذَبَ ".

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: مِنْ الْبَاطِلِ أَنْ يَكُونَ بَعْضُ فِعْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - فَرْضًا وَبَعْضُهُ غَيْرَ فَرْضٍ.

وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ: إنْ خَطَبَ خُطْبَةً وَاحِدَةً لَمْ تُجْزِهِ الصَّلَاةُ.

[27] Qur'an references (L8496): Qur'an 33:21 (Al-Ahzab).

L8500 He then contradicted himself by permitting Friday prayer for anyone who delivers the sermon while seated. The criticism against him in this matter parallels the criticism against Abū Ḥanīfah and Mālik regarding their permission of Friday prayer with one sermon - is there no difference?

ثُمَّ تَنَاقَضَ فَأَجَازَ الْجُمُعَةَ لِمَنْ خَطَبَ قَاعِدًا، وَالْقَوْلُ عَلَيْهِ فِي ذَلِكَ كَالْقَوْلِ عَلَى أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، وَمَالِكٍ فِي إِجَازَتِهِمَا الْجُمُعَةَ بِخُطْبَةٍ وَاحِدَةٍ وَلَا فَرْقَ؟

L8501–8503 Aṭāʾ, Ṭāwūs, and Mujāhid ruled: Whoever fails to attend the Friday sermon has not validly performed the [Friday] prayer except... four, because the sermon substitutes for the two rak'ahs.

وَقَالَ عَطَاءٌ، وَطَاوُسٌ، وَمُجَاهِدٌ: مَنْ لَمْ يُدْرِكْ الْخُطْبَةَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ لَمْ يُصَلِّهَا إِلَّا أَرْبَعًا، لِأَنَّ الْخُطْبَةَ أُقِيمَتْ مَقَامَ الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ.

L8504 It has been narrated to us through the chain of Al-Khushanī: Muḥammad ibn Al-Muthannā narrated from Abū ʿĀṣim Aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk ibn Makhlad, who narrated from Ḥanẓalah ibn Abī Sufyān Al-Jumaḥī Al-Makkī, who said: I heard Ṭāwus and ʿAṭāʾ saying, "Whoever does not catch the sermon should pray four rakʿahs."

And from the chain of Muḥammad ibn Al-Muthannā: Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd Al-Qaṭṭān narrated from Abū Yūnus Al-Ḥasan ibn Yazīd, who said: I heard Mujāhid saying, "If you do not catch the Friday sermon, pray four rakʿahs."

رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ الْخُشَنِيِّ: ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْمُثَنَّى ثنا أَبُو عَاصِمٍ الضَّحَّاكُ بْنُ مَخْلَدٍ عَنْ حَنْظَلَةَ بْنِ أَبِي سُفْيَانَ الْجُمَحِيِّ الْمَكِّيِّ قَالَ: سَمِعْت طَاوُسًا، وَعَطَاءً يَقُولَانِ: مَنْ لَمْ يُدْرِكْ الْخُطْبَةَ صَلَّى أَرْبَعًا وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْمُثَنَّى: ثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانِ عَنْ أَبِي يُونُسَ الْحَسَنِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ سَمِعْت مُجَاهِدًا يَقُولُ: إذَا لَمْ تُدْرِكْ الْخُطْبَةَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ فَصَلِّ أَرْبَعًا.

L8505 It has been narrated to us through the chain of ʿAbd al-Razzāq from al-Awzāʿī from ʿAmr ibn Shuʿayb: that ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb said, "The sermon takes the place of the two rakʿahs. Thus whoever misses the sermon must pray four rakʿahs?" Abū Muḥammad said: The Ḥanafīs and Mālikīs assert, "A mursal report is equivalent to an authenticated (musnad) report and even stronger." Consequently, they are bound to accept ʿUmar's position here; otherwise, have they not contradicted themselves? Abū Muḥammad said: Whoever argues for the obligation of the sermon by claiming it was instituted in lieu of the two rakʿahs must necessarily adopt the opinion of these scholars, otherwise he has indeed contradicted himself. Some of them argued for the obligation of the sermon by citing Allah's statement: {When they see commerce or amusement, they scatter toward it and leave you standing} [al-Jumuʿah 62:11].[1]

وَرُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ الْأَوْزَاعِيِّ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ: أَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ: الْخُطْبَةُ مَوْضِعُ الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ، فَمَنْ فَاتَتْهُ الْخُطْبَةُ صَلَّى أَرْبَعًا؟ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: الْحَنَفِيُّونَ، وَالْمَالِكِيُّونَ يَقُولُونَ: الْمُرْسَلُ كَالْمُسْنَدِ وَأَقْوَى، فَيَلْزَمُهُمْ الْأَخْذُ بِقَوْلِ عُمَرَ هَهُنَا، وَإِلَّا فَقَدْ تَنَاقَضُوا؟ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: مَنْ احْتَجَّ فِي إيجَابِ فَرْضِ الْخُطْبَةِ بِأَنَّهَا جُعِلَتْ بَدَلًا عَنْ الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ لَزِمَهُ أَنْ يَقُولَ بِقَوْلِ هَؤُلَاءِ، وَإِلَّا فَقَدْ تَنَاقَضَ وَاحْتَجَّ بَعْضُهُمْ فِي إيجَابِ الْخُطْبَةِ بِقَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {وَإِذَا رَأَوْا تِجَارَةً أَوْ لَهْوًا انْفَضُّوا إِلَيْهَا وَتَرَكُوكَ قَائِمًا} [الجمعة: ١١].

L8506 Abū Muḥammad said: This argument of theirs holds no benefit in validating their opinion. It merely indicates that they left him standing, and this is our position. It serves as a rebuttal against those who claim they left him—peace be upon him—sitting, a claim no one actually makes. Does Allah's condemnation of their abandoning His Prophet—peace be upon him—while he was standing establish an obligation to stand during the sermon or an obligation for the sermon itself? If, as they claim, this were the case, it would necessitate that whoever delivers the sermon sitting invalidates the Friday prayer for himself and his congregation. Yet none of them assert this, thus demonstrating that their citation of the verse undermines their stance and invalidates their claims—if it were truly about obligating standing. The verse contains no indication whatsoever of obligating the sermon itself; it merely states that the sermon is to be delivered standing. Should they claim consensus, let what we have narrated from Saʿīd ibn Abī ʿArūbah, from Qatādah, from al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī, be expedited: "Whoever does not deliver the sermon on Friday prays two rakʿahs regardless of circumstances."

قَاعِدًا، وَهَذَا لَا يَقُولُهُ أَحَدٌ، وَلَيْسَ فِي إِنْكَارِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى لِتَرْكِهِمْ لِنَبِيِّهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - قَائِمًا -: إِيجَابٌ لِفَرْضِ الْقِيَامِ فِي الْخُطْبَةِ، وَلَا لِفَرْضِ الْخُطْبَةِ؟ فَإِنْ كَانَ ذَلِكَ عِنْدَهُمْ كَمَا يَقُولُونَ فَيَلْزَمُهُمْ أَنَّ مَنْ خَطَبَ قَاعِدًا فَلَا جُمُعَةَ لَهُ وَلَا لَهُمْ، وَهَذَا لَا يَقُولُهُ أَحَدٌ مِنْهُمْ، فَظَهَرَ أَنَّ احْتِجَاجَهُمْ بِالْآيَةِ عَلَيْهِمْ، وَأَنَّهَا مُبْطِلَةٌ لِأَقْوَالِهِمْ فِي ذَلِكَ لَوْ كَانَتْ عَلَى إِيجَابِ الْقِيَامِ، وَلَيْسَ فِيهَا أَثَرٌ بِوَجْهٍ مِنَ الْوُجُوهِ عَلَى إِيجَابِ الْخُطْبَةِ، إِنَّمَا فِيهَا أَنَّ الْخُطْبَةَ تَكُونُ قِيَامًا فَقَطْ؟ فَإِنِ ادَّعَوْا إِجْمَاعًا تُعْجَلُ مَا رُوِّينَاهُ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي عَرُوبَةَ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنِ الْحَسَنِ الْبَصْرِيِّ: مَنْ لَمْ يَخْطُبْ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ صَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ عَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ.

L8507–8508 Ibn Sīrīn also said: Some of them—in line with their habitual practice of lying against Allah, the Exalted—dared to claim that Allah's statement, {So proceed to the remembrance of Allah} [62:9], refers solely to the sermon, citing this as evidence to confirm its obligatory nature. Abū Muḥammad responded: Who is this audacious person to assert that Allah, the Exalted, intended the "remembrance" mentioned here to mean the sermon? Rather, the beginning and end of the verse refute his false supposition, for Allah, the Exalted, explicitly states: {When the call is made for prayer on the Day of Jumuʿah, then proceed to the remembrance of Allah} [62:9].[2] وَقَدْ قَالَهُ أَيْضًا ابْنُ سِيرِينَ: وَقَدْ أَقْدَمَ بَعْضُهُمْ - بِجَارِي عَادَتِهِمْ فِي الْكَذِبِ عَلَى اللَّهِ تَعَالَى - فَقَالَ: إِنَّ قَوْلَ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {فَاسْعَوْا إِلَى ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ} [الجمعة: ٩] إِنَّمَا مُرَادُهُ إِلَى الْخُطْبَةِ وَجَعَلَ هَذَا حُجَّةً فِي إِيجَابِ فَرْضِهَا؟ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: وَمَنْ لِهَذَا الْمُقْدِمِ أَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى أَرَادَ بِالذِّكْرِ الْمَذْكُورِ فِيهَا الْخُطْبَةَ؟ بَلْ أَوَّلُ الْآيَةِ وَآخِرُهَا يُكَذِّبَانِ ظَنَّهُ الْفَاسِدَ، لِأَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى إِنَّمَا قَالَ: {إِذَا نُودِيَ لِلصَّلَاةِ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ فَاسْعَوْا إِلَى ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ} [الجمعة: ٩] .

L8509 Then He, may He be exalted and glorified, said: "When the prayer is concluded, go forth throughout the land and seek the bounty of Allah, and remember Allah abundantly." [Surah Al-Jumu'ah 10][3] ثُمَّ قَالَ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ: {فَإِذَا قُضِيَتِ الصَّلَاةُ فَانْتَشِرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَابْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِ اللَّهِ وَاذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا} [الجمعة: ١٠] .

L8510 Thus, it is confirmed that Allah obligated hastening to prayer only when the call for it is made, commanded dispersal once it is concluded, and mentioned it frequently.

فَصَحَّ أَنَّ اللَّهَ إِنَّمَا افْتَرَضَ السَّعْيَ إِلَى الصَّلَاةِ إِذَا نُودِيَ لَهَا، وَأَمَرَ إِذَا قُضِيَتْ بِالِانْتِشَارِ وَذَكَرَهُ كَثِيرًا.

L8511 It has thus been confirmed with certainty that the remembrance commanded to be sought through prescribed striving is the prayer itself, and the remembrance of Allah the Exalted within it through takbīr, tasbīḥ, glorification, recitation, and tashahhud—nothing besides this? Had the claim of this ignorant person been valid, then one who missed the sermon entirely yet attended the prayer would not have fulfilled the prescribed striving Allah the Exalted obligated upon him—yet they themselves do not uphold this position. Indeed, a more righteous scholar among them has affirmed this truth. Let them not repeat their falsehood in asserting consensus while misleading the weak—and success comes solely from Allah, the Exalted.

فَصَحَّ يَقِينًا أَنَّ الذِّكْرَ الْمَأْمُورَ بِالسَّعْيِ لَهُ هُوَ الصَّلَاةُ، وَذِكْرُ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى فِيهَا بِالتَّكْبِيرِ، وَالتَّسْبِيحِ وَالتَّمْجِيدِ، وَالْقِرَاءَةِ، وَالتَّشَهُّدِ لَا غَيْرِ ذَلِكَ؟ وَلَوْ كَانَ مَا قَالَهُ هَذَا الْجَاهِلُ لَكَانَ مَنْ لَمْ يُدْرِكْ الْخُطْبَةَ وَلَا شَيْئًا مِنْهَا وَأَدْرَكَ الصَّلَاةَ غَيْرَ مُؤَدٍّ لِمَا افْتَرَضَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى عَلَيْهِ مِنْ السَّعْيِ، وَهُمْ لَا يَقُولُونَ هَذَا، وَقَدْ قَالَهُ مَنْ هُوَ خَيْرٌ مِنْهُمْ، فَلَا يَكْذِبُونَ ثَانِيَةً فِي دَعْوَى الْإِجْمَاعِ مُمَوِّهِينَ عَلَى الضُّعَفَاءِ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L8512 If they say: “He (peace be upon him) never performed the prayer except with one sermon?” We respond: “Nor did he (peace be upon him) ever perform it except with two sermons, standing to deliver them and sitting between them. Therefore, consider all of this obligatory, for the Friday prayer is invalid without them. Nor did he (peace be upon him) ever pray except by raising his hands during the first _takbīr_. Thus, you must invalidate the prayer by omitting that.”

فَإِنْ قَالُوا: لَمْ يُصَلِّهَا - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - قَطُّ إلَّا بِخُطْبَةٍ؟ قُلْنَا: وَلَا صَلَّاهَا - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - قَطُّ إلَّا بِخُطْبَتَيْنِ قَائِمًا يَجْلِسُ بَيْنَهُمَا، فَاجْعَلُوا كُلَّ ذَلِكَ فَرْضًا لَا تَصِحُّ الْجُمُعَةُ إلَّا بِهِ، وَلَا صَلَّى - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - قَطُّ إلَّا رَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ فِي التَّكْبِيرَةِ الْأُولَى، فَأَبْطِلُوا الصَّلَاةَ بِتَرْكِ ذَلِكَ

L8513 As for our statement—that anything designated as a sermon is an emulation of the outward action of the Messenger of Allah (may Allah bless him and grant him peace)—...

L8514 Abu Hanifah said: A takbīrah suffices. This constitutes an abrogation on his part, given his ruling that the sermon is obligatory (farḍ), for a takbīrah is not termed a sermon. It is said to them: If this is permissible according to your view, why does the takbīrat al-ihrām not suffice in place of the sermon, since it is a form of dhikr?

وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ: تُجْزِئُ تَكْبِيرَةٌ، وَهَذَا نَقْضٌ مِنْهُ لِإِيجَابِهِ الْخُطْبَةَ فَرْضًا، لِأَنَّ التَّكْبِيرَةَ لَا تُسَمَّى خُطْبَةً، وَيُقَالُ لَهُمْ: إذَا جَازَ هَذَا عِنْدَكُمْ فَلِمَ لَا أَجْزَأَتْ عَنْ الْخُطْبَةِ تَكْبِيرَةُ الْإِحْرَامِ فَهِيَ ذِكْرٌ؟

L8515–8516 Malik said: “The sermon is any significant speech.” Abu Muhammad said: This is not a definition of the sermon, though he considers it obligatory. Whoever imposes an obligation must define it precisely so their followers may know it without ambiguity; otherwise, they have neglected their obligation. As for delivering the Friday sermon atop the pulpit, this is how the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—acted, as authenticated by mass-transmitted (mutawatir) narrations. They must also make this practice obligatory, because since the pulpit was established, did the

وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ -: الْخُطْبَةُ: كُلُّ كَلَامٍ ذِي بَالٍ؟ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: لَيْسَ هَذَا حَدًّا لِلْخُطْبَةِ، وَهُوَ يَرَاهَا فَرْضًا، وَمَنْ أَوْجَبَ فَرْضًا فَوَاجِبٌ عَلَيْهِ تَحْدِيدُهُ، حَتَّى يَعْلَمَهُ مُتَّبِعُوهُ عِلْمًا لَا إشْكَالَ فِيهِ، وَإِلَّا فَقَدْ جَهِلُوا فَرْضَهُمْ وَأَمَّا خُطْبَتُهَا عَلَى أَعْلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فَهَكَذَا فَعَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - صَحَّتْ بِذَلِكَ الْآثَارُ الْمُتَوَاتِرَةُ وَكَانَ يَلْزَمُهُمْ أَنْ يَجْعَلُوا هَذَا

Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—ever deliver the Friday sermon except upon it? As for our statement, "If he delivers the sermon with a recited surah," this is commendable.

L8517 We have been narrated through the chain of Imam Muslim: Muhammad ibn Bishār related to me; Muhammad ibn Ja'far narrated to us; Shu'bah narrated to us from Khubayb ibn 'Abd al-Raḥmān from 'Abdullāh ibn Muḥammad ibn Mu'āwiyah from the daughter of Ḥārithah ibn al-Nu'mān, who said: "I did not memorize Surah Qāf except from the mouth of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) as he would recite it in his sermons every Friday. Our oven and the oven of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) were one and the same."

L8518 ## An Issue Concerning Prolonging the Friday Sermon

L8519 528 - Issue: It is not permissible to prolong the sermon. If one recites a surah with a prostration verse or a verse requiring prostration during it, it is recommended for him to step down [from the pulpit] and prostrate along with the people. If he does not do so, there is no harm. It has been narrated to us via the chain of Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj: Shurayh ibn Yunus narrated to me, from Abd al-Rahman ibn Abd al-Malik ibn Abjar, from his father, from Wasil ibn Hayyan, who said: Abu Wa'il said: Ammar ibn Yasir delivered a sermon to us, making it concise and eloquent. When he stepped down, we said: "O Abu al-Yaqẓān, you have been eloquent and concise. If only you had paused [to elaborate]!" He replied: "I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) say: 'The length of a man's prayer and the brevity of his sermon are a sign of his religious understanding. Therefore, prolong the prayer and shorten the sermon, for indeed some eloquence is akin to magic.'"[4]

L8520 Through the chain of Waki' from Ismā'īl ibn Abī Khālid from Qays ibn Abī Ḥāzim, who said: Ibn Mas'ūd said: "Perfect this prayer and shorten these sermons."

L8521–8522 Abu Muhammad said: I witnessed Ibn Ma‘dan in the Great Mosque of Cordoba. He prolonged the sermon so extensively that some dignitaries informed me he had urinated in his garments.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: شَهِدْت ابْنَ مَعْدَان فِي جَامِعِ قُرْطُبَةَ قَدْ أَطَالَ الْخُطْبَةَ، حَتَّى أَخْبَرَنِي بَعْضُ وُجُوهِ النَّاسِ أَنَّهُ بَالَ فِي ثِيَابِهِ.

Abdullah ibn Rubay narrated to us: Ibn al-Salim the judge narrated to us: Ibn al-A’rabi narrated to us: Abu Dawud narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Salih narrated to us: Ibn Wahb narrated to us: Amr ibn al-Harith informed me from Sa’id ibn Abi Hilal from Iyad ibn Abdullah ibn Sa’d ibn Abi Sarh from Abu Sa’id al-Khudri, who said: “The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—recited Surah Ṣād on the pulpit. When he reached the prostration verse, he descended and prostrated, and the people prostrated with him.”

L8524 And via the narration of Ḥammād ibn Salamah, from ʿAlī ibn Zayd, from Ṣafwān ibn Muḥriz: that Abū Mūsā al-Ashʿarī recited Sūrah al-Ḥajj on the minbar in Basra and prostrated with the people in two sajdahs.

L8525 Through the chain of Malik, from Hisham ibn Urwah, from his father: That Umar ibn al-Khattab recited the prostration verse while on the pulpit on Friday, then descended and prostrated, and they prostrated with him. Then he recited it on the following Friday, and they prepared to prostrate. Umar said: “Be at ease! Has Allah not ordained it upon us unless we choose to?”

L8526 And through the chain of Al-Bukhari: Ibrāhīm ibn Mūsá narrated to us: I [Hishām ibn Yūsuf] relate that Ibn Jurayj informed them, saying: “Abū Bakr ibn Abī Mulaykah informed me, from ’Uthmān ibn ’Abd al-Raḥmān al-Taymī, from Rabī’ah ibn ’Abd Allāh ibn al-Hudayr - and he was among the best of people - that he witnessed ’Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb recite Sūrah al-Naḥl from the pulpit during Friday prayer. When he reached the prostration verse, he descended and prostrated, and the people prostrated with him. When the following Friday came, he recited it again. Upon reaching the prostration verse, he declared: ’O people, we are merely passing by the prostration (verse). Whoever prostrates has done rightly, and whoever does not prostrate incurs no blame.’ Thus, ’Umar did not prostrate.”

ibn Abi al-Najud, from Zirr ibn Hubaysh, that Ammar ibn Yasir recited on Friday on the pulpit “When the sky is split apart” [Al-Inshiqaq: 1], then he descended and performed the prostration of recitation (sujūd al-tilāwah).[5]

L8528–8529 From the narration through the chain of Shu’bah from Abū Isḥāq al-Sabīʿī: Al-Ḍaḥḥāk ibn Qays would deliver sermons and recite Sūrah Ṣād in the presence of the Companions. None in Medina, Basra, or Kufa rejected this practice. No disagreement is recorded from the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—regarding this matter. Moreover, the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—performed prostration during the well-known Quranic prostrations. Then where is their claim to be following the practice of the Companions?

An Issue Regarding Speech and the Imam Delivering the Friday Khutbah.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ الْكَلَام وَالْإِمَام يخطب يَوْم الْجُمُعَة]

L8530

L8531 529. Issue: It is obligatory upon everyone attending the Friday prayer—whether they heard the sermon or not—to refrain entirely from speaking during the Imam’s sermon, except for the following: offering the greeting of peace if entering at that time; returning the greeting to one who offers it upon entering; praising Allah the Exalted if sneezing; saying “Yarḥamuk Allāh” to one who sneezes if they praise Allah; replying to the one who says “Yarḥamuk Allāh” with “Yahdīkum Allāh wa yuṣliḥa bālakum”; sending blessings upon the Prophet (peace be upon him) when the Imam instructs to do so; saying “Āmīn” to his supplication; initiating communication with the Imam concerning a pressing need; and responding to the Imam only if he has initiated speech with someone regarding a specific matter.

L8532 It is not permissible for anyone to say to a person speaking at that time: “Be silent,” but one may gesture to him, wink at him, or throw pebbles at him. Whoever speaks with other than what we have mentioned, being mindful and aware of the prohibition, has no valid Friday prayer. If the preacher includes in his sermon anything other than the remembrance of Allah the Exalted or the prescribed supplication, speech becomes permissible at that time. Similarly, if the imam sits between the two sermons, speech is permissible then, as well as between the sermon and the commencement of prayer. Touching pebbles during the sermon is impermissible. Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah narrated: Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated: Isḥāq ibn Rāhawayh informed us: Jarīr—that is, Ibn ʿAbd al-Ḥamīd—from Manṣūr ibn al-Muʿtamir from Abū Maʿshar Ziyād ibn Kulaib from Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī from ʿAlqamah from al-Qarthāʾ al-Ḍabbī—who was among the early Qurʾān reciters—from Salmān al-Fārisī, who said: The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "No man purifies himself on Friday as commanded, then proceeds to the Friday prayer and remains silent until he completes his prayer, except that it will be an expiation for the sins committed since the previous Friday."

He was in Mecca when Kuraib arrived while the Imam was delivering the Friday sermon. He said to him: “You have held back the people - they have departed.” He replied: “Do not rush until we disperse.” When he completed his prayer, Ibn Umar said to him: “As for your companion, he is a donkey. And as for you - do you think your Friday prayer counts?”

L8541 From the path of Waki‘ through his father, from Ibrāhīm ibn Muhājir, from Ibrāhīm al-Nakha‘ī: A man asked ʿAbdullāh ibn Masʿūd to recite a verse while the Imam was delivering the khutbah. When the prayer concluded, he said, “Is this the share you gained from your prayer?” Abū Muḥammad said: These are three Companions—with no opposing view known from the other Companions (may Allah be pleased with them)—and all of them invalidate the prayer of whoever speaks intentionally during the khutbah.

L8542 By this we say, and it is incumbent upon him to repeat it within the prescribed time, for he did not pray it. It is surprising that one would claim: “The meaning of this is that his reward has been invalidated!” Abu Muhammad said: “If his reward is invalidated, is his deed not invalidated without doubt?”

وَبِهِ نَقُولُ، وَعَلَيْهِ إِعَادَتُهَا فِي الْوَقْتِ، لِأَنَّهُ لَمْ يُصَلِّهَا وَالْعَجَبُ مِمَّنْ قَالَ: مَعْنَى هَذَا أَنَّهُ بَطَلَ أَجْرُهُ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: وَإِذَا بَطَلَ أَجْرُهُ فَقَدْ بَطَلَ عَمَلُهُ بِلَا شَكٍّ؟

L8543 From Maʿmar, from Ayyūb al-Sakhtiyānī, from Nāfiʿ: Ibn ʿUmar pelted two men who were speaking on Friday with pebbles. He saw a beggar soliciting alms on Friday and pelted him, and would gesture to a man on Friday, indicating: “Be silent!” As for when the imam includes in his sermon praise of someone whom Muslims have no need to praise, a supplication containing transgression and superfluous speech, or condemnation of the undeserving—this is not part of the sermon. Therefore, it is impermissible to heed this; rather, changing it becomes obligatory if possible.

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ عَنْ نَافِعٍ: أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ حَصَبَ رَجُلَيْنِ كَانَا يَتَكَلَّمَانِ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ، وَأَنَّهُ رَأَى سَائِلًا يَسْأَلُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ فَحَصَبَهُ، وَأَنَّهُ كَانَ يُومِئُ إِلَى الرَّجُلِ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ: أَنْ اُسْكُتْ؟ وَأَمَّا إِذَا أَدْخَلَ الْإِمَامُ فِي خُطْبَتِهِ مَدْحَ مَنْ لَا حَاجَةَ بِالْمُسْلِمِينَ إِلَى مَدْحِهِ، أَوْ دُعَاءً فِيهِ بَغْيٌ وَفُضُولٌ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ، أَوْ ذَمَّ مَنْ لَا يَسْتَحِقُّ -: فَلَيْسَ هَذَا مِنَ الْخُطْبَةِ، فَلَا يَجُوزُ الْإِنْصَاتُ لِذَلِكَ، بَلْ تَغْيِيرُهُ وَاجِبٌ إِنْ أَمْكَنَ

L8544 It has been narrated to us through the chain of Sufyan al-Thawri from Mujalid, who said: I saw al-Shaʿbi and Abu Burdah ibn Abi Musa al-Ashʿari speaking while al-Hajjaj was delivering the sermon when he said, “May Allah curse, may Allah curse!” I asked: “Are you two speaking during the sermon?” They replied: “We were not ordered to remain silent for such a thing.” From al-Muʿtamir ibn Sulayman al-Taymi, from Ismaʿil ibn Abi Khalid, who said: I saw Ibrahim al-Nakhaʿi speaking while the Imam was delivering the sermon during the time of al-Hajjaj.

L8548 Regarding the initiation of the Salām and its response, Abdullāh ibn Rubayʿ narrated to us, saying: From ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-Malik, from Muḥammad ibn Bakr, from Abū Dāwūd, from Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, from Bishr, who is Ibn al-Mufaḍḍal, from Muḥammad ibn ʿAjlān, from al-Maqburī (Saʿīd ibn Abī Saʿīd), from Abū Hurayrah, who said: The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—said, “When one of you arrives at a gathering, let him offer Salām, and when he intends to rise, let him likewise offer Salām. For the first is no more deserving than the last.” Allah the Exalted said, “When you are greeted with a salutation, respond with one better than it or return it [at least] in kind” (Quran 4:86).[9][10]

L8549 As for praising the sneezer and responding to him, Abdullah ibn Rubay‘ narrated to us: from Umar ibn Abd al-Malik, from Muhammad ibn Bakr, from Abu Dawud, from Uthman ibn Abi Shaybah, from Jarir, from Mansur, from Hilal ibn Yasaf, from Salim ibn Ubayd, who said: He heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) say: “When one of you sneezes, let him praise Allah. Those near him should say: ’May Allah have mercy on you,’ and let him respond to them: ’May Allah forgive us and you.”’

وَأَمَّا حَمْدُ الْعَاطِسِ وَتَشْمِيتُهُ فَإِنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ رُبَيِّعٍ حَدَّثَنَا قَالَ: ثنا عُمَرُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَكْرٍ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ ثنا جَرِيرٌ عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ عَنْ هِلَالِ بْنِ يَسَافٍ عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ قَالَ: إنَّهُ سَمِعَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: «إذَا عَطَسَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَحْمَدْ اللَّهَ، وَلْيَقُلْ لَهُ مَنْ عِنْدَهُ: يَرْحَمُكَ اللَّهُ، وَلْيَرُدَّ عَلَيْهِمْ: يَغْفِرُ اللَّهُ لَنَا وَلَكُمْ» .

L8550 It has been said that between Hilāl ibn Yasāf and Sālim ibn ʿUbayd: Khālid ibn ʿArfajah.

وَقَدْ قِيلَ: إنَّ بَيْنَ هِلَالِ بْنِ يَسَافٍ وَبَيْنَ سَالِمِ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ: خَالِدَ بْنَ عَرْفَجَةَ

L8551 In his narration to Abu Dawud: Musa ibn Isma‘il narrated to us. ‘Abd al-‘Aziz (the son of ‘Abd Allah ibn Abi Salamah) narrated from ‘Abd Allah ibn Dinar from Abu Salih from Abu Hurayrah from the Prophet (peace be upon him), who said: “When one of you sneezes, let him say: All praise is due to Allah in every situation. Let his brother or companion say: May Allah have mercy on you. He should then respond: May Allah guide you all and rectify your affairs.”[11]

وَبِهِ إلَى أَبِي دَاوُد: ثنا مُوسَى بْنُ إسْمَاعِيلَ قَالَ عَبْدُ الْعَزِيزِ هُوَ ابْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ - عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ دِينَارٍ عَنْ أَبِي صَالِحٍ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: «إذَا عَطَسَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَقُلْ: الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ عَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ، وَلْيَقُلْ أَخُوهُ أَوْ صَاحِبُهُ: يَرْحَمُكَ اللَّهُ، وَيَقُولُ هُوَ: يَهْدِيكُمْ اللَّهُ وَيُصْلِحُ بَالَكُمْ» .

L8552–8553 Abu Muhammad said: If it is said: The prohibition against speaking and the command to maintain silence during the sermon have been established, as have the injunction to offer greetings, respond to them, say “Praise be to Allah” (Alhamdulillah) when sneezing, respond with “May Allah have mercy on you” (Yarhamuk-Allah) to that, and the reply—yet some say: except during the sermon—while you hold that silence is required during the sermon except for offering greetings, responding to them, praising Allah, responding to sneezes, and their replies—then how do you justify prioritizing your exceptions and favoring your application of prophetic narrations over the exceptions of others and their application of the same narrations? This is especially so since you have agreed with us that all such acts are impermissible during prayer.

اسْتِثْنَاءِ غَيْرِكُمْ وَاسْتِعْمَالِهِ لِلْأَخْبَارِ، لَا سِيَّمَا وَقَدْ أَجْمَعْتُمْ مَعَنَا عَلَى أَنَّ كُلَّ ذَلِكَ لَا يَجُوزُ فِي الصَّلَاةِ؟

L8554 We said—and divine enablement is solely from Allah, the Exalted—that it has been narrated from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—regarding prayer: "No human speech is permissible during it." Analogizing the sermon to prayer is invalid, since it is not mandated by the Qur'an, the Sunnah, nor by Ijma (consensus).

قُلْنَا وَبِاللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ: قَدْ جَاءَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي الصَّلَاةِ أَنَّهُ «لَا يَصْلُحُ فِيهَا شَيْءٌ مِنْ كَلَامِ النَّاسِ» وَالْقِيَاسُ لِلْخُطْبَةِ عَلَى الصَّلَاةِ بَاطِلٌ، إذْ لَمْ يُوجِبْهُ قُرْآنٌ، وَلَا سُنَّةٌ، وَلَا إجْمَاعٌ.

L8555 We examined this matter and found that in the sermon, it is permissible for the preacher to initiate speech and receive responses, and for the one petitioning Allah to initiate conversation with the preacher's response to him, as we shall explain later. None of this is obligatory but rather permissible.

فَنَظَرْنَا فِي ذَلِكَ فَوَجَدْنَا الْخُطْبَةَ يَجُوزُ فِيهَا ابْتِدَاءُ الْخَطِيبِ بِالْكَلَامِ وَمُجَاوَبَتِهِ، وَابْتِدَاءُ ذِي الْحَاجَةِ لِلَّهِ بِالْمُكَالَمَةِ وَجَوَابِ الْخَطِيبِ لَهُ، عَلَى مَا نَذْكُرُ بَعْدَ هَذَا، وَكُلُّ هَذَا لَيْسَ هُوَ فَرْضًا، بَلْ هُوَ مُبَاحٌ.

L8556 It is permissible for someone entering a mosque to begin a supererogatory prayer there.

وَيَجُوزُ فِيهَا ابْتِدَاءُ الدَّاخِلِ بِالصَّلَاةِ تَطَوُّعًا.

L8557–8559 It is validated that the commanded speech takes precedence over silence during it, for it is among the impossible and inconceivable matters—utterly impermissible—that permissible speech would be allowed while neglecting the obligatory speech which it is unlawful to omit. Through Allah the Exalted we seek strength.

I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, a stranger has come to ask about his religion, for he does not know what his religion is.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) turned to me, interrupted his sermon, and came to me. A chair was brought—I noticed its legs were made of iron—and the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) sat upon it. He then began teaching me from what Allah (the Almighty and Majestic) had taught him. Afterward, he returned to his sermon and completed it."

L8561 Abū Muḥammad said: This Abū Rifāʿah is Tamīm al-ʿAdawī; he was a Companion.

وَقَدْ ذَكَرْنَا قَبْلَ هَذَا الْبَابِ فِي الْمُتَّصِلِ بِهِ كَلَامَ عُمَرَ مَعَ النَّاسِ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فِي أَنَّ السُّجُودَ لَيْسَ فَرْضًا.

L8562 We have previously mentioned before this chapter, in the one connected to it, Umar's speech with the people on the pulpit concerning that prostration is not an obligation.

وَذَكَرْنَا قَبْلُ كَلَامَ عُمَرَ مَعَ عُثْمَانَ بِحَضْرَةِ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - وَكَلَامَ عُثْمَانَ مَعَهُ وَعُمَرُ يَخْطُبُ فِي أَمْرِ غُسْلِ الْجُمُعَةِ وَإِنْكَارِ تَرْكِهِ، لَا يُنْكِرُ الْكَلَامَ فِي كُلِّ ذَلِكَ أَحَدٌ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ، حَتَّى نَشَأَ مَنْ لَا يَعْتَدُّ بِهِ مَعَ مَنْ ذَكَرْنَا.

L8563 We previously mentioned the conversation between Umar and Uthman in the presence of the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—and Uthman's remarks to him during Umar's sermon regarding the obligation of the Friday ritual bath and the rejection of neglecting it. None of the Companions disputed the validity of that entire discourse, until there arose those who were not deemed authoritative, in contrast to those we have mentioned.

وَالْعَجِيبُ أَنَّ بَعْضَهُمْ - مِمَّنْ يَنْتَسِبُ إِلَى الْعِلْمِ بِزَعْمِهِمْ - قَالَ: لَعَلَّ هَذَا قَبْلَ نَسْخِ الْكَلَامِ فِي الصَّلَاةِ أَوْ قَالَ: فِي الْخُطْبَةِ

L8564 What is strange is that some of them—among those who falsely assert affiliation with scholarly knowledge—said: "Perhaps this was before the abrogation of speech during prayer or during the sermon."

L8565 I wish I knew where he found the copy of the speech we mentioned in the sermon.

فَلَيْتَ شِعْرِي أَيْنَ وَجَدَ نَسْخَ الْكَلَامِ الَّذِي ذَكَرْنَا فِي الْخُطْبَةِ؟

L8566 What is it that introduced prayer into the sermon? It has no role in the sermon's rulings.

وَمَا الَّذِي أَدْخَلَ الصَّلَاةَ فِي الْخُطْبَةِ؟ وَلَيْسَ لَهَا شَيْءٌ فِي أَحْكَامِهَا.

L8567–8569 If the preacher were to deliver the sermon without ablution, that would not harm his sermon, and he delivers it towards a direction other than the qiblah. How much more significant is prayer than the sermon, if only they understood? We seek refuge in Allah from misguidance—and religion is not based on "perhaps." Through the narration of Waki' from Al-Faḍl ibn Dalham from Al-Ḥasan, who said: He should offer the Salam, respond to the Salam, and say "Yarḥamuka Allāh (May Allah have mercy on you)" to one who sneezes, while the Imam is delivering the sermon.

L8570 From Waki', via Sufyān al-Thawrī, via al-Mughīrah ibn Miqsam, via Ibrāhīm al-Nakha'ī: the same chain as the previous one.

وَعَنْ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ الْمُغِيرَةِ بْنِ مِقْسَمٍ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ مِثْلُهُ.

L8571 From Al-Sha'bi and Salim ibn 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar, they both said: Respond to the greeting of peace during Friday prayer and listen attentively.

وَعَنْ الشَّعْبِيِّ، وَسَالِمِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَا: رُدَّ السَّلَامَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَاسْمَعْ.

L8572 Al-Qasim ibn Muhammad and Muhammad ibn Ali said: He must revoke within himself.

وَقَالَ الْقَاسِمُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَمُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ: يَرُدُّ فِي نَفْسِهِ.

L8573 Shu'bah narrated: I asked Ḥammād ibn Abī Sulaymān and al-Ḥakam ibn 'Utaybah about a man who arrives on Friday after the Imam has emerged [to lead the prayer]. They both said: He should greet [others], they respond to him, and if he sneezes, they say yarḥamukallāh to him, and he responds with yahdīkumullāh.

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ شُعْبَةَ قَالَ: سَأَلْت حَمَّادَ بْنَ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَالْحَكَمَ بْنَ عُتَيْبَةَ عَنْ رَجُلٍ جَاءَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ، وَقَدْ خَرَجَ الْإِمَامُ؟ فَقَالَا جَمِيعًا: يُسَلِّمُ وَيَرُدُّونَ عَلَيْهِ، وَإِنْ عَطَسَ شَمَّتُوهُ، وَيَرُدُّ عَلَيْهِمْ؟

L8574 From Abd al-Razzaq, from Ibn Jurayj, from Ata, who said: If a man sneezes during the Friday sermon while the Imam is delivering it and praises Allah the Exalted, or if he says the salām while you hear him and simultaneously hear the sermon, then say "Yarhamuk Allah" silently within yourself and respond to him inwardly. But if you cannot hear the sermon, say "Yarhamuk Allah" aloud and respond to him audibly so he can hear. From Ma'mar, from al-Hasan al-Basri and Qatadah, both of whom said regarding a man who says the salām while hearing the sermon: He should respond and make his reply audible.

وَعِنْدَ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ قَالَ: إذَا عَطَسَ الرَّجُلُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَالْإِمَامُ يَخْطُبُ فَحَمِدَ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى، أَوْ سَلَّمَ وَأَنْت تَسْمَعُهُ وَتَسْمَعُ الْخُطْبَةَ فَشَمِّتْهُ فِي نَفْسِك، وَرُدَّ عَلَيْهِ فِي نَفْسِك، فَإِنْ كُنْت لَا تَسْمَعُ الْخُطْبَةَ فَشَمِّتْهُ وَأَسْمِعْهُ، وَرُدَّ عَلَيْهِ، وَأَسْمِعْهُ؟ وَعَنْ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ الْحَسَنِ الْبَصْرِيِّ وَقَتَادَةَ قَالَا جَمِيعًا فِي الرَّجُلِ يُسَلِّمُ وَهُوَ يَسْمَعُ الْخُطْبَةَ: أَنَّهُ يَرُدُّ وَيُسْمِعُهُ.

From Ḥammād ibn Salamah, from Ziyād al-Aʿlam, from al-Ḥasan: He did not deem it objectionable for a man to offer the greeting (Salam) or respond to the greeting while the Imam is delivering the sermon.

This is the opinion of al-Shāfiʿī, ʿAbd al-Razzāq, Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, Isḥāq ibn Rāhawayh, Abū Sulaymān, and their companions.

Sitting with knees drawn to the chest and arms wrapped around them on Friday while the Imam is delivering the khutbah.

Issue 530: It is permissible to sit with knees drawn up during the Friday prayer while the Imam delivers the sermon, and to drink water, and give charity, and hand one's fellow Muslim what he needs, for all these are good deeds and no prohibition has been reported regarding any of them.

And He, the Exalted, said: "And do good" [Al-Hajj: 77]. If it had been disliked or forbidden, He would certainly have made that clear. Allah, the Most High, said through His Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—: "And your Lord is not forgetful" [Maryam: 64].[12]

The prohibition against sitting in the posture of iḥtibāʾ (with legs drawn up and wrapped in a garment) while the Imam is delivering the sermon has been transmitted through the chain of Abu Marḥūm ʿAbd al-Raḥīm ibn Maymūn from Sahl ibn Muʿādh ibn Anas al-Juhanī.

This Abu Marhum is unknown; no one we know of transmitted from him except Saʿīd ibn Abī Ayyūb.

It has been narrated to us from Ibn ʿUmar that he would sit in iḥtibā (a posture with arms wrapped around the knees) on Friday while the Imam was delivering the sermon. Likewise, Anas ibn Mālik, Shurayḥ, Ṣaʿṣaʿah ibn Ṣuḥān, Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib, Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī, Makhūl, Ismāʿīl ibn Muḥammad ibn Saʿd ibn Abī Waqqāṣ, and Nuʿaym ibn Salāmah did the same. No dis-

L8585 It has been reported to us from Ṭāwus that it is permissible to drink water on Friday while the imam is delivering the sermon.

after you prayed them with the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—?"' These are mutually supporting, successively transmitted narrations from a group of the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—through the most authentic chains, compelling definitive certainty regarding the command of the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—that whoever comes on Friday while the Imam is delivering the sermon should pray two rak'ahs. Abu Sa'id prayed them with the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—and after him in the presence of the Companions, with no known opposition or denial from them except from Marwan's security forces, who uttered falsehood and acted falsely during the sermon, manifesting innovation and seeking to abolish a Sunnah and suppress a right. Who is more astonishing in circumstance than one who follows them while abandoning the Companions? People have narrated through Malik and others from 'Amir ibn 'Abd Allah ibn al-Zubayr from 'Amr ibn Sulaym al-Zuraqi from Abu Qatadah from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—who said: "When one of you enters the mosque, let him perform two rak'ahs before sitting."[15] مَا صَلَّيْتُمُوهَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -؟ " فَهَذِهِ آثَارٌ مُتَظَاهِرَةٌ مُتَوَاتِرَةٌ عَنْ جَمَاعَةٍ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - بِأَصَحِّ أَسَانِيدَ تُوجِبُ الْعِلْمَ بِأَمْرِهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مَنْ جَاءَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَالْإِمَامُ يَخْطُبُ بِأَنْ يُصَلِّيَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ، وَصَلَّاهُمَا أَبُو سَعِيدٍ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَبَعْدَهُ بِحَضْرَةِ الصَّحَابَةِ لَا يُعْرَفُ لَهُ مِنْهُمْ مُخَالِفٌ، وَلَا عَلَيْهِ مُنْكِرٌ، إلَّا شُرَطَ مَرْوَانَ الَّذِينَ تَكَلَّمُوا بِالْبَاطِلِ وَعَمِلُوا الْبَاطِلَ فِي الْخُطْبَةِ، فَأَظْهَرُوا بِدْعَةً وَرَامُوا إمَاتَةَ سُنَّةٍ وَإِطْفَاءَ حَقٍّ، فَمَنْ أَعْجَبُ شَأْنًا مِمَّنْ يَقْتَدِي بِهِمْ وَيَدَعُ الصَّحَابَةَ؟ وَقَدْ رَوَى النَّاسُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ مَالِكٍ وَغَيْرِهِ عَنْ عَامِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ سُلَيْمٍ الزُّرَقِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي قَتَادَةَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: «إذَا دَخَلَ أَحَدُكُمْ الْمَسْجِدَ فَلْيَرْكَعْ رَكْعَتَيْنِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَجْلِسَ» .

L8602 He (peace and blessings be upon him) spoke generally without restriction, so none may restrict except what the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) specified regarding those who find the Imam establishing the obligatory prayer or having entered it. Is this not the case? Glory to Him who facilitated these people in reversing truths, for they said: "Whoever arrives while the Imam is delivering the sermon should not perform rak'ah, and whoever arrives while the Imam is praying the obligatory prayer without having performed Witr or the two Fajr rak'ahs should abandon the obligatory prayer and occupy himself with voluntary prayer." Thus they entirely inverted the command of Allah's Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him).

فَعَمَّ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - وَلَمْ يَخُصَّ فَلَا يَحِلُّ لِأَحَدٍ أَنْ يَخُصَّ إلَّا مَا خَصَّهُ النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِمَّنْ يَجِدُ الْإِمَامَ يُقِيمُ لِصَلَاةِ الْفَرْضِ، أَوْ قَدْ دَخَلَ فِيهَا؟ وَسُبْحَانَ مَنْ يَسَّرَ هَؤُلَاءِ لِعَكْسِ الْحَقَائِقِ، فَقَالُوا: مَنْ جَاءَ وَالْإِمَامُ يَخْطُبُ فَلَا يَرْكَعْ، وَمَنْ جَاءَ وَالْإِمَامُ يُصَلِّي الْفَرْضَ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ أَوْتَرَ وَلَا رَكَعَ رَكْعَتَيْ الْفَجْرِ فَلْيَتْرُكْ الْفَرِيضَةَ وَلْيَشْتَغِلْ بِالنَّافِلَةِ فَعَكَسُوا أَمْرَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - عَكْسًا.

L8603 Were it not for the proof we previously mentioned—that there is no obligation except the five [prayers]—these two rak'ahs would have been obligatory. However, they are of the utmost emphasis, for no Sunnahs are more empha-

L8604–8606 And it was narrated to us through the chain of ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī: Sufyān al-Thawrī narrated to us from Abū Nahīk from Simāk ibn Salamah said: A man asked Ibn ʿAbbās, “What about praying while the Imam is delivering the sermon?” He replied, “Would it not be good if people were to do it?” From Abū Nuʿaym al-Faḍl ibn Dukayn: Buraid ibn ʿAbdullāh ibn Abī Burdah ibn Abī Mūsā al-Ashʿarī narrated to us: “I saw al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī enter on Friday while Ibn Hubayrah was delivering the sermon. He performed two rakʿahs at the rear of the mosque, then sat down.”

L8607 From Wakiʿ, from ʿImrān ibn Ḥudayr, from Abī Mijlaz, who said: “If you come for Friday prayer when the Imam has already emerged, then you may pray two rakʿahs if you wish.” This is the position of Sufyān ibn ʿUyaynah, Maḥūl, ʿAbdullāh ibn Yazīd al-Muqriʾ, al-Ḥumaydī, Abī Thawr, Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, Isḥāq ibn Rāhawayh, and the majority of Hadith scholars.

وَعَنْ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُدَيْرٍ عَنْ أَبِي مِجْلَزٍ قَالَ: إذَا جِئْت يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَقَدْ خَرَجَ الْإِمَامُ فَإِنْ شِئْت صَلَّيْت رَكْعَتَيْنِ؟ وَهُوَ قَوْلُ سُفْيَانَ بْنِ عُيَيْنَةَ، وَمَكْحُولٍ، وَعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ الْمُقْرِئِ، وَالْحُمَيْدِيِّ، وَأَبِي ثَوْرٍ، وَأَحْمَدَ بْنِ حَنْبَلٍ، وَإِسْحَاقَ بْنِ رَاهْوَيْهِ، وَجُمْهُورِ أَصْحَابِ الْحَدِيثِ.

L8608 And it is the opinion of Al-Shafi’i, Abu Sulayman, and the followers of both.

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ الشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَأَصْحَابِهِمَا

L8609 Al-Awzāʿī said: If he prays the two Sunnah rakʿahs in his home, he remains seated; but if he does not pray them in his home, he performs their rakʿahs in the mosque while the Imam is delivering the sermon.

وَقَالَ الْأَوْزَاعِيُّ: إنْ كَانَ صَلَّاهُمَا فِي بَيْتِهِ جَلَسَ، وَإِنْ كَانَ لَمْ يُصَلِّهِمَا فِي بَيْتِهِ رَكَعَهُمَا فِي الْمَسْجِدِ وَالْإِمَامُ يَخْطُبُ.

L8610 Abu Hanifah and Malik said: He does not perform the two rak’ahs. Malik said: If he begins them, he must complete them. Abu Muhammad said: If the two are right, why should he not initiate them? For one should hasten to do good. But if they are erroneous and not permissible, then it is impermissible to persist in error, and this suffices as an answer.

L8611 Someone who heard from both of them cited a weak Ḥadīth as evidence—we narrated it through the chain of Mu’awiyah ibn Salih from Abu al-Zahriyyah, who said: “We were with Abdullah ibn Busr, the companion of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), and he said: ’A man came stepping over people on Friday while the Prophet (peace be upon him) was delivering the sermon. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said to him: ”Sit down, for you have disturbed.“”

فَقَالَ: «جَاءَ رَجُلٌ يَتَخَطَّى رِقَابَ النَّاسِ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَالنَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَخْطُبُ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - اجْلِسْ فَقَدْ آذَيْتَ» .

L8612–8613 Abu Muhammad said: There is no valid proof for them in this matter due to four reasons: First, it is unreliable as it is transmitted solely through Muʿāwiyah ibn Ṣāliḥ - with no other transmitter - and he is weak. Second, even if the ḥadīth were authentic, it contains no explicit statement that he did not perform the two rakʿahs. It is plausible that he performed them then stepped over [the rows], and equally plausible that he did not perform them. Since the report neither confirms that he performed them nor confirms that he did not perform them, there is no argument either for them or against them in it.

L8614 It is impermissible to introduce falsely into the report what is not contained within it, for would not one who does so be among the liars? Third: Even if the report were authentic and stated that he did not bow, it could have occurred either before the Prophet’s command—peace and blessings be upon him—to those arriving while the Imam is in the act of bowing during the sermon, or after it. Since it does not clarify either of the two interpretations, is there any valid proof in it for them or against them? Fourth: Even if the report were authentic and confirmed in it that he did not bow.

L8615 It has been established that this occurred after his command—peace be upon him—that whoever arrives while the Imam is delivering the sermon should perform a rak’ah, and none of those actions are valid on his part. This is due to their having an argument in the matter, for we did not state these two rak’ahs to be obligatory, but rather affirmed them as a recommended practice whose omission is disliked—with no prohibition against performing them. Thus their reliance on this invalid report becomes entirely void—success comes only through Allah, the Exalted—while his command—peace be upon him—to pray them remains uncontested. Some sought justification through a narration we transmitted through the chain of Yahya ibn Sa’id al-Qattan, from Muhammad ibn ’Ajlan, from ’Iyad ibn ’Abdullah ibn Sa’d ibn Abi

Sarh, from Abu Sa'id al-Khudri: "A man entered the mosque"—whereupon he related the hadith.

عَجْلَانَ عَنْ عِيَاضِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِي سَرْحٍ عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ " أَنَّ رَجُلًا دَخَلَ الْمَسْجِدَ " فَذَكَرَ الْحَدِيثَ.

L8616–8618 And in it (the narration): "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) instructed him to pray two rak'ahs, then said: 'This man entered the mosque in shabby attire, so I instructed him to pray two rak'ahs while hoping someone would take notice of him so that charity might be given to him.'" They said: "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) only instructed him to pray the two rak'ahs so he would be noticed and charity would be given to him." Abu Muhammad said: This hadith stands as one of the greatest evidences against them, for it contains the command of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) concerning the two prayers. In any case, no valid criticism can be raised against the hadith of Jabir that we have mentioned.

وَفِيهِ -: «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَمَرَهُ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ، ثُمَّ قَالَ: إِنَّ هَذَا دَخَلَ الْمَسْجِدَ فِي هَيْئَةٍ بَذَّةٍ فَأَمَرْتُهُ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَأَنَا أَرْجُو أَنْ يَفْطُنَ لَهُ رَجُلٌ فَيَتَصَدَّقَ عَلَيْهِ» ؟ قَالُوا: فَإِنَّمَا أَمَرَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِالرَّكْعَتَيْنِ لِيُفْطَنَ فَيُتَصَدَّقَ عَلَيْهِ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: وَهَذَا الْحَدِيثُ مِنْ أَعْظَمِ الْحُجَجِ عَلَيْهِمْ، لِأَنَّ فِيهِ أَمْرَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِصَلَاتِهِمَا، وَعَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ فَلَيْسَ اعْتِرَاضٌ عَلَى حَدِيثِ جَابِرٍ الَّذِي ذَكَرْنَاهُ.

L8619 In it is his saying (peace be upon him): "Whoever comes on the day of Friday while the Imam is delivering the sermon or has come out, let him perform two rakʿahs."

L8620 Then we say to them: Tell us, did the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) command him concerning that matter based on truth or falsehood? If they say: "Based on falsehood," then they have committed disbelief.

ثُمَّ نَقُولُ لَهُمْ: قُولُوا لَنَا: هَلْ أَمَرَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِنْ ذَلِكَ بِحَقٍّ أَمْ بِبَاطِلٍ؟ فَإِنْ قَالُوا: بِبَاطِلٍ، كَفَرُوا.

L8621 And if they say, "By truth," they invalidate their own school of thought, and they are obligated to uphold the truth which the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—commanded. It is confirmed that their assertion and the command are true in all circumstances, since he—peace be upon him—does not enjoin any matter except with truth.

وَإِنْ قَالُوا: بِحَقٍّ أَبْطَلُوا مَذْهَبَهُمْ، وَلَزِمَهُمْ الْأَمْرُ بِالْحَقِّ الَّذِي أَمَرَ بِهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَصَحَّ أَنَّهُمَا حَقٌّ عَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ، إذْ لَا يَأْمُرُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِوَجْهٍ مِنْ الْوُجُوهِ إلَّا بِحَقٍّ.

L8622 Then we say to them: Since you have made this assertion, do you yourselves adhere to it by commanding one who enters in humble attire while the Imam delivers the Friday sermon to perform two rak'ahs so he may be noticed and thus have charity bestowed upon him? Or do you not maintain this position? If they say, "We command him to do so," they have forsaken their doctrine.

ثُمَّ نَقُولُ لَهُمْ: إذْ قُلْتُمْ هَذَا فَتَقُولُونَ أَنْتُمْ بِهِ فَتَأْمُرُونَ مَنْ دَخَلَ بِهَيْئَةٍ بَذَّةٍ وَالْإِمَامُ يَخْطُبُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ بِأَنْ يَرْكَعَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ لِيُفْطَنَ لَهُ فَيُتَصَدَّقَ عَلَيْهِ؟ أَمْ لَا تَرَوْنَ ذَلِكَ؟ إنْ قَالُوا: نَأْمُرُهُ بِذَلِكَ تَرَكُوا مَذْهَبَهُمْ.

L8623 If they say, “We do not instruct him to do that,” it is said to them: “What comfort do you find in directing the established narration toward interpretations you oppose, while you are contravening the narration in any case? Is this not merely misleading the weak, the deluded, and the deprived—leading them to imagine you have nullified the ruling of the narration and thereby validated your own claim? The matter is contrary to this; rather, it condemns you—and Allah suffices us, for He is the Best Trustee.” Some of them said: “Since initiating voluntary prayers is impermissible for one already in the mosque, it is likewise impermissible for one who enters it.”

وَإِنْ قَالُوا: لَسْنَا نَأْمُرُهُ بِذَلِكَ؟ قِيلَ لَهُمْ: فَأَيُّ رَاحَةٍ لَكُمْ فِي تَوْجِيهِكُمْ لِلْخَبَرِ الثَّابِتِ وُجُوهًا أَنْتُمْ مُخَالِفُونَ لَهَا، وَعَاصُونَ لِلْخَبَرِ عَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ؟ وَهَلْ هَهُنَا إِلَّا إِيهَامُ الضُّعَفَاءِ الْمُغْتَرِّينَ الْمَحْرُومِينَ أَنَّكُمْ أَبْطَلْتُمْ حُكْمَ الْخَبَرِ وَصَحَّحْتُمْ بِذَلِكَ قَوْلَكُمْ؟ وَالْأَمْرُ فِي ذَلِكَ بِالضِّدِّ، بَلْ هُوَ عَلَيْكُمْ - وَحَسْبُنَا اللَّهُ وَنِعْمَ الْوَكِيلُ وَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ: لَمَّا لَمْ يَجُزْ ابْتِدَاءُ التَّطَوُّعِ لِمَنْ كَانَ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ لَمْ يَجُزْ لِمَنْ دَخَلَ الْمَسْجِدَ.

L8624 Abu Muhammad said: This is a corrupt claim which Allah the Exalted did not permit, nor did His Messenger—peace be upon him—decree it. Rather, he indeed differentiated between them by instructing those present to remain silent and listen, and instructing the one entering to pray. Thus, whoever opposes this opposes Allah and His Messenger—peace be upon him. Therefore, is voluntary prayer permissible for those in the mosque before the Imam begins the sermon, and for the one entering before the iqamah (call to commence prayer) is proclaimed?

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: وَهَذِهِ دَعْوَى فَاسِدَةٌ لَمْ يَأْذَنْ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى بِهَا، وَلَا قَضَاهَا رَسُولُهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -، بَلْ قَدْ فَرَّقَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بَيْنَهُمَا، بِأَنْ أَمَرَ مَنْ حَضَرَ بِالْإِنْصَاتِ وَالِاسْتِمَاعِ، وَأَمَرَ الدَّاخِلَ بِالصَّلَاةِ، فَالْمُعْتَرِضُ عَلَى هَذَا مُخَالِفٌ لِلَّهِ وَلِرَسُولِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -، فَالْمُتَطَوِّعُ جَائِزٌ لِمَنْ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ مَا لَمْ يَبْدَأْ الْإِمَامُ بِالْخُطْبَةِ وَلِمَنْ دَخَلَ مَا لَمْ تُقَمْ الْإِقَامَةُ لِلصَّلَاةِ؟

L8625–8626 A legal issue concerning speaking on Friday and after the khutbah, and the mu’adhdhin’s call to prayer (Adhan) on Friday and after the khutbah.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ الْكَلَامُ وَالْمُؤَذِّنُ يُؤَذِّنُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَبَعْدَ الْخُطْبَةِ]

L8627 Issue: Speaking is permissible for everyone during the Friday adhan, until the khatib begins the sermon.

مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَالْكَلَامُ مُبَاحٌ لِكُلِّ أَحَدٍ مَا دَامَ الْمُؤَذِّنُ يُؤَذِّنُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ مَا لَمْ يَبْدَأْ الْخَطِيبُ بِالْخُطْبَةِ.

L8628 Speaking is permissible after the sermon until the Imam utters the Takbir (Allahu Akbar) to commence the prayer.

وَالْكَلَامُ جَائِزٌ بَعْدَ الْخُطْبَةِ إلَى أَنْ يُكَبِّرَ الْإِمَامُ.

L8629 Speech is permissible during the imam’s sitting between the two sermons, for speaking of permissible matters is allowed unless prohibited by textual evidence. The textual evidence only prohibits speech during the imam’s sermon, as we mentioned previously. It was narrated to us by Muḥammad ibn Saʿīd ibn Nabāt, who narrated to us: ʿAbdullāh ibn Naṣr narrated to us, Qāsim ibn Aṣbagh narrated to us, Ibn Waḍḍāḥ narrated to us, Mūsā ibn

He would speak to him, then proceed to the musalla and pray.”

L8630 From the chain of Hammad ibn Salamah: I, Ali ibn Zayd, from Sa’id ibn al-Musayyib, that when Abu Bakr al-Siddiq sat on the pulpit on Friday, Bilal said to him: “O Abu Bakr?” He replied: “At your service.” Bilal said: “Did you free me for Allah’s sake or for yourself?” Abu Bakr said: “Rather, for Allah the Exalted.” Bilal said: “Then grant me permission to strive in the path of Allah the Exalted.” He permitted him, so he went to Syria and died there, may Allah be pleased with him.

From Sufyān ibn ʿUyaynah from Misʿar ibn Kidām from ʿImrān ibn Mūsā from Abū al-Ṣaʿbah, who said: ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb said to a man on Friday while ʿUmar was on the pulpit, “Did you purchase for us? L8632–8633 And from Hushaym ibn Bashir, who narrated that Muḥammad ibn Qays informed him: I heard Mūsā ibn Ṭalḥah ibn ʿUbaydillāh say: I saw ʿUthmān ibn ʿAffān sitting on the minbar on Friday while the muʾadhdhin was calling the adhān, and he was asking the people about their prices and news.

And from Qatādah, from Bakr ibn ʿAbdullāh al-Muzanī, similar to it.

And from Ḥammād ibn Salamah, from Iyās ibn Muʿāwiyah: the same.

Al-Hasan said: There is no harm in speaking during the imam's sitting between the two sermons.

A ruling on someone who had a nosebleed while the Imam was delivering the sermon and needed to leave.

Issue 533: If someone suffers a nosebleed while the Imam is delivering the sermon and needs to leave, they should exit. The same applies to anyone who experiences something that necessitates departure.

There is no meaning in seeking the Imam's permission, as Allah, Exalted and Majestic, said: "He has not imposed any hardship on you in religion" [Al-Ḥajj: 78].[16]

And He, the Exalted, said: "Allah desires ease for you, not hardship" [Al-Baqarah: 185].[17]

And has there not come a definitive text obligating the seeking of the imam's permission in that matter?

To those who deem this obligatory, it is said: If the imam does not permit him, do you suppose he would remain without ablution? Or would he defile the mosque with blood? Or would he neglect what he is not permitted to neglect regarding himself, his wealth, or his family? Far be it from God that this should occur!

وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ بِكُمُ الْيُسْرَ وَلا يُرِيدُ بِكُمُ الْعُسْرَ} [البقرة: ١٨٥] .

وَلَمْ يَأْتِ نَصٌّ بِإِيجَابِ اسْتِئْذَانِ الْإِمَامِ فِي ذَلِكَ؟

وَيُقَالُ لِمَنْ أَوْجَبَ ذَلِكَ: فَإِنْ لَمْ يَأْذَنْ لَهُ الْإِمَامُ، أَتَرَاهُ يَبْقَى بِلَا وُضُوءٍ؟ أَوْ هُوَ يُلَوِّثُ الْمَسْجِدَ بِالدَّمِ؟ أَوْ يُضَيِّعُ مَا لَا يَجُوزُ لَهُ تَضْيِيعُهُ مِنْ نَفْسِهِ أَوْ مَالِهِ أَوْ أَهْلِهِ؟ وَمَعَاذَ اللَّهِ مِنْ هَذَا؟

[مَسْأَلَةٌ ذَكَرَ فِي الْخُطْبَةِ صَلَاةَ فَرْضٍ نَسِيَهَا أَوْ نَامَ عَنْهَا] day sermon an obligatory prayer he had forgotten or slept through.

L8645–8647 534 - Issue: Whoever remembers during the sermon an obligatory prayer he had forgotten or slept through, let him stand and pray it, whether he is a jurist or not, due to the statement of the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings be upon him -: "Whoever sleeps through a prayer or forgets it, let him pray it when he remembers it." We have indeed mentioned it with its chain of transmission (isnād) earlier.

L8648 Some people have distinguished in this matter between the jurist and others—yet this is an error not required by the Quran, the Sunnah, deductive reasoning, or rational principle. Rather, the evidence is even more binding upon the jurist to ensure he does not neglect his religion through it in relation to others.

L8649 If it is said: "An ignorant person sees it and assumes the prayer is a permissible voluntary prayer at that time?" We said: We are not surprised by one who chooses to contravene the command of Allah's Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him) and neglect his obligatory duty out of fear that others might err. Perhaps others may or may not assume that. Indeed, Allah the Exalted has said: {No soul is burdened except with its own} [an-Nisā': 84].[18]

L8650 And He, the Exalted, said: "Your responsibility is yourselves. Those who have strayed will not harm you when you are guided" (Surah Al-Mā'idah 5:105).[19]

L8651 A case where one did not attain from the Friday prayer except one rak'ah or only the sitting.

L8652 535 – Issue: Whoever does not catch with the Imam during the Friday prayer except one rak'ah or only the sitting, he should join the Imam and complete it by adding another rak'ah. If he catches one rak'ah with the Imam, he must complete the prayer; but if he only catches the sitting, he should pray two rak'ahs instead.

وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْفُسَكُمْ لا يَضُرُّكُمْ مَنْ ضَلَّ إِذَا اهْتَدَيْتُمْ} [المائدة: ١٠٥] .

L8653 And according to it, Abū Ḥanīfah and Abū Sulaymān said.

وَبِهِ قَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ، وَأَبُو سُلَيْمَانَ.

L8654 Malik and Al-Shāfiʿī said: If one catches a rakʿah, he must make up another rakʿah to it. But if he catches only the rising from the bowing position in the rakʿah or what comes after it, he must pray the full four rakʿahs.

وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ وَالشَّافِعِيُّ: إِنْ أَدْرَكَ رَكْعَةً قَضَى إِلَيْهَا أُخْرَى، فَإِنْ لَمْ يُدْرِكْ إِلَّا رَفْعَ الرَّأْسِ مِنْ الرَّكْعَةِ فَمَا بَعْدَهُ صَلَّى أَرْبَعًا.

L8655 Atā, Tāwus, and Mujāhid said—and it is also narrated from ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb—that whoever does not catch any part of the sermon should pray four [rakʿahs].

وَقَالَ عَطَاءٌ، وَطَاوُسٌ، وَمُجَاهِدٌ - وَرُوِّينَاهُ أَيْضًا عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ: مَنْ لَمْ يُدْرِكْ شَيْئًا مِنْ الْخُطْبَةِ صَلَّى أَرْبَعًا.

L8656 Those who upheld this opinion argued that the khutbah is deemed equivalent to the two rakʿahs. Consequently, this would necessitate that whoever misses the first khutbah but attends the second khutbah must make up one rakʿah—despite this position lacking any textual basis in the Qur'an or Sunnah?

وَاحْتَجَّ مَنْ ذَهَبَ إِلَى هَذَا بِأَنَّ الْخُطْبَةَ جُعِلَتْ بِإِزَاءِ الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ، فَيَلْزَمُ مَنْ قَالَ بِهَذَا: أَنَّ مَنْ فَاتَتْهُ الْخُطْبَةُ الْأُولَى وَأَدْرَكَ الثَّانِيَةَ أَنْ يَقْضِيَ رَكْعَةً وَاحِدَةً، مَعَ أَنَّ هَذَا الْقَوْلَ لَمْ يَأْتِ بِهِ نَصُّ قُرْآنٍ وَلَا سُنَّةٍ؟

L8657 Malik and Al-Shāfiʿī cited as evidence the statement of Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—: "Whoever joins the Imam in one rakʿah has indeed successfully caught up with the prayer."

وَاحْتَجَّ مَالِكٌ، وَالشَّافِعِيُّ بِقَوْلِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «مَنْ أَدْرَكَ مَعَ الْإِمَامِ رَكْعَةً وَاحِدَةً فَقَدْ أَدْرَكَ الصَّلَاةَ» .

L8658–8659 Abu Muhammad said: This is an authentic report, and does it not contain [the statement] that whoever catches less than a rak'ah has not joined the prayer?

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: وَهَذَا خَبَرٌ صَحِيحٌ، وَلَيْسَ فِيهِ: أَنَّ مَنْ أَدْرَكَ أَقَلَّ مِنْ رَكْعَةٍ لَمْ يُدْرِكْ الصَّلَاةَ؟

L8660 Rather, it has been authentically established from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—as narrated to us by Muḥammad ibn Saʿīd ibn Nabāt, who narrated to us from Isḥāq ibn Ismāʿīl al-Naḍrī, who narrated to us from ʿĪsā ibn Ḥabīb, who narrated to us from ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Yazīd al-Muqriʾ, who narrated to us from his grandfather Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd Allāh, who narrated to us from Sufyān ibn ʿUyaynah, from al-Zuhrī, from Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib, from Abū Hurayrah, who said: The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "When you come to prayer, do not come hurrying; come to it walking. Upon you is tranquility. Pray whatever part of the prayer you reach, and complete what you miss."

بَلْ قَدْ صَحَّ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مَا حَدَّثَنَاهُ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ سَعِيدِ بْنِ نَبَاتٍ ثنا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ النَّضْرِيُّ ثنا عِيسَى بْنُ حَبِيبٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ الْمُقْرِئُ ثنا جَدِّي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ثنا سُفْيَانُ بْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «إِذَا أَتَيْتُمْ الصَّلَاةَ فَلَا تَأْتُوهَا وَأَنْتُمْ تَسْعَوْنَ، وَأْتُوهَا وَأَنْتُمْ تَمْشُونَ، عَلَيْكُمْ السَّكِينَةُ، فَمَا أَدْرَكْتُمْ فَصَلُّوا وَمَا فَاتَكُمْ فَاقْضُوا» .

L8661 Narrated by Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah, Ibrahim ibn Ahmad al-Balkhi, al-Farbarī, al-Bukhari, Abu Nu'aym, Shayban from Yahya—Ibn Abi Kathir—from Abdullah ibn Abi Qatadah from his father, who said: "While we were praying with the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—he heard the clamor of approaching men. When he finished praying, he said: 'What is your situation?' They replied: 'We hurried to reach the prayer.' He said: 'Do not do that. When you come to prayer, maintain calmness. Pray whatever portion you catch up with, and make up what you have missed.'" حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ثنا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ الْبَلْخِيُّ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا أَبُو نُعَيْمٍ ثنا شَيْبَانُ عَنْ يَحْيَى هُوَ ابْنُ أَبِي كَثِيرٍ - عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي قَتَادَةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: «بَيْنَمَا نَحْنُ نُصَلِّي مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إِذْ سَمِعَ جَلَبَةَ رِجَالٍ فَلَمَّا صَلَّى قَالَ: مَا شَأْنُكُمْ؟ قَالُوا: اسْتَعْجَلْنَا إِلَى الصَّلَاةِ، قَالَ: فَلَا تَفْعَلُوا إِذَا أَتَيْتُمْ الصَّلَاةَ فَعَلَيْكُمْ السَّكِينَةَ، فَمَا أَدْرَكْتُمْ فَصَلُّوا وَمَا فَاتَكُمْ فَأَتِمُّوا» .

L8662 The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) instructed him to pray with the imam whatever portion of the prayer he caught up with, and he (peace be upon him) applied the ruling universally without exception, designating him as "one who has attained" regarding the part of the prayer he joined. Thus, whoever finds the imam seated or prostrating must align with him in that state and adhere to his leadership, thereby unquestionably entering the congregational prayer. He must make up what he missed and complete that prayer, as only two rak'ahs had eluded him. Since the Friday prayer consists of two rak'ahs, it is performed solely as two.

L8663 These two reports are additional to the one stating "Whoever catches a rak'ah," and the additional reports must not be disregarded. And success is from Allah, the Exalted.

وَهَذَانِ الْخَبَرَانِ زَائِدَانِ عَلَى الَّذِي فِيهِ " مَنْ أَدْرَكَ رَكْعَةً " وَالزِّيَادَةُ لَا يَجُوزُ تَرْكُهَا - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L8664–8666 It has been narrated to us via Shu'bah, who said: I asked al-Ḥakam ibn 'Utaybah about a man who joins the imam on Friday while the congregation is seated. He replied: "He should pray two rak'ahs." Shu'bah said: So we said to him: "He did not transmit this ruling from Ibrāhīm [al-Nakha'ī]." Except Ḥammād? Al-Ḥakam said: "And who is like Ḥammād?" From Ma'mar, from Ḥammād ibn Abī Sulaymān, who said: "If one finds them sitting during the final part of the Friday prayer, he prays two rak'ahs." Abū Muḥammad said: "Except that the Ḥanafīs have contradicted themselves here, for among their principles—which they made into a religion—is that the opinion of a Companion recognized as such from among the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them), if there is a contrary opinion, is it not impermissible to oppose him? Yet it has been narrated to us from Ma'mar; from Ayyūb

رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ شُعْبَةَ قَالَ: سَأَلْت الْحَكَمَ بْنَ عُتَيْبَةَ عَنْ الرَّجُلِ يُدْرِكُ الْإِمَامَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ وَهُمْ جُلُوسٌ؟ قَالَ: يُصَلِّي رَكْعَتَيْنِ، قَالَ شُعْبَةُ: فَقُلْنَا لَهُ: مَا قَالَ هَذَا عَنْ إبْرَاهِيمَ إلَّا حَمَّادٌ؟ قَالَ الْحَكَمُ: وَمَنْ مِثْلُ حَمَّادٍ؟ وَعَنْ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ حَمَّادِ بْنِ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ قَالَ: إنْ أَدْرَكَهُمْ جُلُوسًا فِي آخِرِ الصَّلَاةِ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ صَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ؟ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: إلَّا أَنَّ الْحَنَفِيِّينَ قَدْ تَنَاقَضُوا هَهُنَا، لِأَنَّ مِنْ أُصُولِهِمْ - الَّتِي جَعَلُوهَا دِينًا - أَنَّ قَوْلَ الصَّاحِبِ الَّذِي يُعْرَفُ لَهُ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - مُخَالِفٌ فَإِنَّهُ لَا يَحِلُّ خِلَافُهُ؟ وَقَدْ رُوِّينَا عَنْ

مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ: إِذَا أَدْرَكَ الرَّجُلُ رَكْعَةً يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ صَلَّى إِلَيْهَا أُخْرَى، وَإِنْ وَجَدَ الْقَوْمَ جُلُوسًا صَلَّى أَرْبَعًا؟ وَعَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ عَنْ أَبِي الْأَحْوَصِ عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ: مَنْ أَدْرَكَ الرَّكْعَةَ فَقَدْ أَدْرَكَ الْجُمُعَةَ، وَمَنْ لَمْ يُدْرِكْ الرَّكْعَةَ فَلْيُصَلِّ أَرْبَعًا.

al-Sikhtiyānī; from Nāfiʿ; from Ibn ʿUmar, who said: ’If a man catches one rakʿah of the Friday prayer, he adds another to it. But if he finds the people sitting, he prays four rakʿahs.’” From Sufyān al-Thawrī; from Abū Isḥāq; from Abū al-Aḥwaṣ; from Ibn Masʿūd: “Whoever catches the rakʿah has caught the Friday prayer, and whoever does not catch the rakʿah should pray four rakʿahs.”

وَلَا يُعْرَفُ لَهُمَا مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - مُخَالِفٌ.

L8667 No opposition to the two of them is recorded from the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—.

نَعَمْ، وَقَدْ رُوِيَتْ فِيهِ آثَارٌ - لَيْسَتْ بِأَضْعَفَ مِنْ حَدِيثِ الْوُضُوءِ بِالنَّبِيذِ، وَالْوُضُوءِ مِنْ الْقَهْقَهَةِ فِي الصَّلَاةِ، وَالْوُضُوءِ وَالْبِنَاءِ مِنْ الرُّعَافِ وَالْقَيْءِ، فَخَالَفُوهَا إذْ خَالَفَهَا أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ - مِنْ طَرِيقِ الْحَجَّاجِ بْنِ أَرْطَاةَ مِنْ طَرِيقِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، وَمِنْ طَرِيقٍ غَيْرِهِ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ مُسْنَدَيْنِ وَهَذَا مِمَّا تَنَاقَضُوا فِيهِ؟

L8668 Yes, and narrations (āthār) have been transmitted concerning it—no weaker than the narration about ablution with nabīdh, ablution [invalidated] by loud laughter during prayer, and ablution and resuming [prayer] after a nose-bleed or vomiting—yet they opposed them when Abū Ḥanīfah opposed them. These come through al-Ḥajjāj ibn Arṭāʾs chain from Ibn ʿUmar, and through another chain: al-Zuhrī → Abū Salama → Abū Hurayrah, both being musnad. Is this not among the matters in which they contradicted themselves?

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: وَأَمَّا نَحْنُ فَلَا حُجَّةَ عِنْدَنَا فِي أَحَدٍ دُونَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَلَوْ صَحَّ فِي هَذَا أَثَرٌ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لَقُلْنَا بِهِ وَلَمْ نَتَعَدَّهُ

L8669 Abū Muḥammad said: As for us, we recognize no proof in anyone besides the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). Had there been a sound narration from the Prophet (peace be upon him) regarding this matter, we would have affirmed it and not deviated from it.

[مَسْأَلَةُ الْغُسْلُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ]

A Jurisprudential Question: The Ritual Bath on Friday.

٥٣٦ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَالْغُسْلُ وَاجِبٌ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ لِلْيَوْمِ لَا لِلصَّلَاةِ وَكَذَلِكَ الطِّيبُ، وَالسِّوَاكُ، وَقَدْ ذَكَرْنَا كُلَّ ذَلِكَ فَأَغْنَى عَنْ تَرْدَادِهِ، إذْ قَدْ تَقَصَّيْنَاهُ فِي كِتَابِ الطَّهَارَةِ، مِنْ دِيوَانِنَا هَذَا وَلِلَّهِ الْحَمْدُ وَلَا يَتَطَيَّبُ لَهَا الْمُحْرِمُ وَلَا الْمَرْأَةُ، لِمَا ذَكَرْنَا فِي كِتَابِنَا هَذَا فِي النِّسَاءِ يَحْضُرُونَ صَلَاةَ الْجَمَاعَةِ، وَلِأَنَّ الْمُحْرِمَ مَنْهِيٌّ عَنْ إحْدَاثِ التَّطَيُّبِ، عَلَى مَا نَذْكُرُ فِي كِتَابِ الْحَجِّ إنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى.

536 - Issue: Bathing is obligatory on Friday for the day itself, not for the prayer. Similarly, [the rulings] apply to perfume and the siwak. We have already mentioned all of this, rendering repetition unnecessary, as we have detailed it in the Book of Purification within this compilation of ours—all praise is due to Allah. Neither one in iḥrām nor a woman may apply perfume for it, due to what we have mentioned in this book regarding women attending congregational prayers, and because the one in iḥrām is prohibited from [initiating actions restricted during consecration]. Perfuming, as we shall mention in the Book of Hajj if Allah, the Exalted, wills.

L8674 The ghusl and siwak obligate the one in a state of ritual consecration and the woman, just as they obligate the man. Whoever is unable to use water must perform tayammum, as we have mentioned regarding tayammum from this treatise of ours—and all praise belongs to Allah, the Exalted.

وَيَلْزَمُ الْغُسْلُ، وَالسِّوَاكُ: الْمُحْرِمَ، وَالْمَرْأَةَ كَمَا يَلْزَمُ الرَّجُلَ، فَمَنْ عَجَزَ عَنْ الْمَاءِ تَيَمَّمَ، لِمَا قَدْ ذَكَرْنَاهُ فِي التَّيَمُّمِ مِنْ دِيوَانِنَا هَذَا - وَلِلَّهِ تَعَالَى الْحَمْدُ

Issue: The mosque became overcrowded, and the congregational rows became connected on Friday.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ ضَاقَ الْمَسْجِدُ وَاتَّصَلَتْ الصُّفُوفُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ]

L8675

L8676

537 – Issue: If the mosque becomes overcrowded, the courtyards fill completely, and the prayer rows become continuous, Friday prayer and other congregational prayers may be performed in adjacent houses, shops connected to the rows, and upon the mosque's roof—provided these locations are directly opposite the rows behind the Imam, not opposite the Imam himself or those before him in the slightest. If a great or small river, trench, or wall stands as a barrier between a worshiper and either the Imam or the prayer rows, this causes no harm; he may pray Friday prayer with the Imam's prayer.

Narration: ʻAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʻAbd Allāh narrated to us: Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad narrated to us: Al-Farbarī narrated to us: Al-Bukhārī narrated to us: Muḥammad—that is, Ibn Sallām—narrated to us: ʻAbdah narrated from Yaḥyā ibn Saʻīd al-Anṣārī from ʻAmrah from ʻĀ'ishah, the Mother of the Believers, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh (peace and blessings of Allāh be upon him) would pray at night in his chamber. The chamber's wall was low, so people saw the Prophet's silhouette (peace and blessings of Allāh be upon him). Some stood to pray in alignment with his prayer." He mentioned the remainder of the ḥadīth.

Abū Muḥammad said: The ruling regarding prayer leadership is the same for Friday prayer and other prayers, voluntary and obligatory, for neither the Qur'ān nor the Sunnah has established any distinction between the conditions of imamate in this matter, nor has any text prohibited following the imam when the rows are properly connected. It is therefore impermissible to prohibit this practice based on invalid reasoning. It is authentically reported from the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—that he said: "The earth has been made a place of prostration and a means of purification for me. So wherever the time for prayer finds you, pray there."

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: حُكْمُ الْإِمَامَةِ سَوَاءٌ فِي الْجُمُعَةِ وَغَيْرِهَا، وَالنَّافِلَةِ وَالْفَرِيضَةِ، لِأَنَّهُ لَمْ يَأْتِ قُرْآنٌ وَلَا سُنَّةٌ بِالْفَرْقِ بَيْنَ أَحْوَالِ الْإِمَامَةِ فِي ذَلِكَ، وَلَا جَاءَ نَصٌّ بِالْمَنْعِ مِنْ الِائْتِمَامِ بِالْإِمَامِ إذَا اتَّصَلَتْ الصُّفُوفُ، فَلَا يَجُوزُ الْمَنْعُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ بِالرَّأْيِ الْفَاسِدِ؟ وَصَحَّ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «جُعِلَتْ لِي الْأَرْضُ مَسْجِدًا وَطَهُورًا، فَحَيْثُمَا أَدْرَكَتْكَ الصَّلَاةُ فَصَلِّ»

L8678 It is not permissible to prevent anyone from praying in any place, except a place where the text stipulates a prohibition against prayer therein, thereby making it an exception to this general ruling.

فَلَا يَحِلُّ أَنْ يُمْنَعَ أَحَدٌ مِنْ الصَّلَاةِ فِي مَوْضِعٍ إلَّا مَوْضِعًا جَاءَ النَّصُّ بِالْمَنْعِ مِنْ الصَّلَاةِ فِيهِ، فَيَكُونُ مُسْتَثْنًى مِنْ هَذِهِ الْجُمْلَةِ.

L8679 It has been reported to us from al-Qāsim ibn Muḥammad from ʿĀ’ishah, the Mother of the Believers—may Allah the Exalted be pleased with her—that she used to pray in her home in conjunction with the imam’s prayer while he was in the mosque.

رُوِّينَا عَنْ الْقَاسِمِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أُمِّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى عَنْهَا -: أَنَّهَا كَانَتْ تُصَلِّي فِي بَيْتِهَا بِصَلَاةِ الْإِمَامِ وَهُوَ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ؟

L8680–8681 This has been clarified in the eclipse prayer, as a woman prayed in her home following the Prophet’s prayer while he led the people. Through the chain of Hammad ibn Salamah, Jabalah ibn Abi Sulayman al-Shaqari reported: I saw Anas ibn Malik praying in the house of Abu Abdullah at the small gate overlooking the mosque, from where he observed their bowing and prostration? From al-Mu’tamir ibn Sulayman, from his father, from Abu Mijlaz, who said: A woman may pray following the imam’s prayer even if there is a street or a wall between them, after she hears the takbir.

وَقَدْ جَاءَ ذَلِكَ مُبَيَّنًا فِي صَلَاةِ الْكُسُوفِ، إذْ صَلَّتْ فِي بَيْتِهَا بِصَلَاةِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِالنَّاسِ؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ أَخْبَرَنِي جَبَلَةُ بْنُ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ الشَّقَرِيُّ قَالَ: رَأَيْت أَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ يُصَلِّي فِي دَارِ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ فِي الْبَابِ الصَّغِيرِ الَّذِي يُشْرِفُ عَلَى الْمَسْجِدِ يَرَى رُكُوعَهُمْ وَسُجُودَهُمْ؟ وَعَنْ الْمُعْتَمِرِ بْنِ سُلَيْمَانَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ أَبِي مِجْلَزٍ قَالَ: تُصَلِّي الْمَرْأَةُ بِصَلَاةِ الْإِمَامِ وَإِنْ كَانَ بَيْنَهُمَا طَرِيقٌ أَوْ جِدَارٌ بَعْدَ أَنْ تَسْمَعَ التَّكْبِيرَ.

L8682 From Hammad ibn Salamah, from Hisham ibn Urwah, from his father: He came to the mosque on Friday when it was full, so he entered the house of Humaid ibn Abd al-Rahman ibn Awf. The pathway existed between him and the mosque, and he prayed with them while seeing their bowing and prostration.

وَعَنْ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ: أَنَّهُ جَاءَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ إلَى الْمَسْجِدِ وَقَدْ امْتَلَأَ فَدَخَلَ دَارَ حُمَيْدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ، وَالطَّرِيقُ بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ الْمَسْجِدِ، فَصَلَّى مَعَهُمْ وَهُوَ يَرَى رُكُوعَهُمْ وَسُجُودَهُمْ.

L8683 From Al-Naḍr ibn Anas that he prayed the Friday prayer in the tailor’s shop on Friday, in the public square where tents are sold.

وَعَنْ النَّضْرِ بْنِ أَنَسٍ أَنَّهُ صَلَّى فِي بَيْتِ الْخَيَّاطِ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ فِي الرَّحْبَةِ الَّتِي تُبَاعُ فِيهَا الْقِبَابُ.

L8684 From Hammad ibn Salama, from Thabit al-Bunani, who said: “I came, and Al-Hasan al-Basri on Friday while people were [gathered] on the walls and edges [of the mosque]. I said to him: ’O Abu Sa‘id, do you hope for these people?’ He replied: ’I hope they will be equal in reward.”’ Malik said: “The Friday prayer specifically should not be held in a partitioned area during the Imam’s prayer in the mosque. As for the remaining obligatory prayers, there is no harm in that for them.”

وَهَذَا لَا نَعْلَمُهُ عَنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ، وَلَا يُعَضِّدُ هَذَا الْقَوْلَ قُرْآنٌ، وَلَا سُنَّةٌ صَحِيحَةٌ وَلَا سَقِيمَةٌ، وَلَا قِيَاسٌ، وَلَا رَأْيٌ سَدِيدٌ وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ: إنْ كَانَ بَيْنَ الْإِمَامِ وَالْمَأْمُومِ نَهْرٌ صَغِيرٌ أَجْزَأَتْهُ صَلَاتُهُ، فَإِنْ كَانَ كَبِيرًا لَمْ تُجْزِهِ.

L8685 We do not know of this from any of the Companions, nor is this opinion supported by the Qur'an, nor any sound or weak Sunnah, nor analogy, nor sound opinion. Abū Ḥanīfah said: If there is a small river between the imam and the congregant, his prayer is valid, but if it is a large river, his prayer is not valid.

وَهَذَا كَلَامٌ سَاقِطٌ، لَا يُعَضِّدُهُ قُرْآنٌ وَلَا سُنَّةٌ صَحِيحَةٌ وَلَا سَقِيمَةٌ، وَلَا قَوْلُ صَاحِبٍ، وَلَا رَأْيٌ سَدِيدٌ؟ وَحَدُّ النَّهْرِ الْكَبِيرِ بِمَا يُمْكِنُ أَنْ تَجْرِيَ فِيهِ السُّفُنُ

L8686–8688 This is baseless speech, supported neither by the Quran, nor a sound Sunnah, nor a weak Sunnah, nor the statement of a Companion. Nor any sound judgment? And the definition of a major river is that in which ships can sail.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: لَيْتَ شِعْرِي أَيُّ السُّفُنِ؟ وَفِي السُّفُنِ مَا يَحْمِلُ أَلْفَ وَسْقٍ، وَفِيهَا زُوَيْرِقٌ صَغِيرٌ يَحْمِلُ ثَلَاثَةً أَوْ أَرْبَعَةً فَقَطْ.

L8689 Abu Muhammad said: If only I knew—that is, the ships? For among the ships are those that carry a thousand wasq, and among them is a small zuwayriq that carries only three or four.

وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: مَنْ صَلَّى بِصَلَاةِ الْإِمَامِ وَبَيْنَهُمَا طَرِيقٌ أَوْ جُدُرٌ أَوْ نَهْرٌ فَلَا يَأْتَمُّ بِهِ - فَلَمْ يُفَرِّقْ بَيْنَ نَهْرٍ صَغِيرٍ وَكَبِيرٍ

L8690 We have been narrated from ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb that he said: "Whoever prays following the imam's prayer with a road, structural barriers, or a river between them should not follow him in prayer." He made no distinction between a small river and a large one.

وَرُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ شُعْبَةَ: ثنا قَتَادَةُ قَالَ: قَالَ لِي زُرَارَةُ بْنُ أَوْفَى سَمِعْت أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ يَقُولُ: لَا جُمُعَةَ لِمَنْ صَلَّى فِي الرَّحْبَةِ - وَبِهِ يَقُولُ زُرَارَةُ.

L8691 And it was conveyed to us via Shuʿbah's transmission: Qatādah narrated to us, stating: Zurārah ibn Awfā said to me, "I heard Abū Hurayrah declare: There is no validity to the Friday prayer for anyone who prays in the public square." Zurārah also upholds this opinion.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: لَوْ كَانَ تَقْلِيدًا لَكَانَ هَذَا - لِصِحَّةِ إسْنَادِهِ - أَوْلَى مِنْ تَقْلِيدِ مَالِكٍ، وَأَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ صَهْبَانَ عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ: أَنَّهُ رَأَى قَوْمًا يُصَلُّونَ فِي رَحْبَةِ الْمَسْجِدِ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ، فَقَالَ: لَا جُمُعَةَ لَهُمْ، قُلْت: لِمَ؟ قَالَ: لِأَنَّهُمْ يَقْدِرُونَ عَلَى أَنْ يَدْخُلُوا فَلَا يَفْعَلُونَ.

L8692 Abū Muḥammad said: If this were following a school, then—due to the soundness of its chain of transmission—this would hold greater validity than following Mālik and Abū Ḥanīfah. And from ʿUqbah ibn Ṣahbān, from Abū Bakrah: he saw people praying in the open area of the mosque on Friday and declared, "They have no valid Friday prayer." I asked, "Why?" He replied, "Because they are capable of entering [the congregation] yet refrain from doing so."

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: هَذَا كَمَا قَالَ لِمَنْ قَدَرَ عَلَى أَنْ يَصِلَ الصَّفَّ فَلَمْ يَفْعَلْ

L8693 Abu Muhammad said: This is just as he stated concerning one who was capable of properly aligning with the prayer row but failed to do so.

L8694 Indeed, all amazement is directed at those who permit prayer in places where the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) established a prohibition—such as graveyards, camel resting places, and bathhouses—yet forbid prayer in locations where no textual prohibition exists, such as a restricted area or where there is a large river between them. All of this is as you can observe, and success is by Allah, the Exalted.

وَإِنَّ الْعَجَبَ كُلَّهُ مِمَّنْ يُجِيزُ الصَّلَاةَ حَيْثُ صَحَّ نَهْيُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - عَنْ الصَّلَاةِ فِيهِ كَالْمَقْبَرَةِ، وَمَعْطِنِ الْإِبِلِ، وَالْحَمَّامِ، ثُمَّ يَمْنَعُ مِنْهَا حَيْثُ لَا نَصَّ فِي الْمَنْعِ مِنْهَا، كَالْمَوْضِعِ الْمَحْجُورِ، أَوْ بَيْنَهَا نَهْرٌ كَبِيرٌ وَكُلُّ هَذَا كَمَا تَرَى وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ

A jurisprudential issue concerning one who was jostled on Friday.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ مِنْ زُوحِمَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ]

538 - Issue: If someone is pressed tightly on Friday or other days, if he can prostrate however possible—even with a gesture—and similarly bow with a gesture, it suffices. If he is entirely unable, he remains standing as he is. When the crowding subsides, he prays two rakʿahs, and this is sufficient for him.

٥٣٨ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ زُوحِمَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ أَوْ غَيْرِهِ فَإِنْ قَدَرَ عَلَى السُّجُودِ كَيْفَ أَمْكَنَهُ وَلَوْ إيمَاءً وَعَلَى الرُّكُوعِ كَذَلِكَ -: أَجْزَأَهُ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَقْدِرْ أَصْلًا وَقَفَ كَمَا هُوَ، فَإِذَا خَفَّ الْأَمْرُ صَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَأَجْزَأَهُ.

In reference to the statement of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him): "When I command you regarding a matter, then do from it what you are able to."

لِقَوْلِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «إذَا أَمَرْتُكُمْ بِأَمْرٍ فَأْتُوا مِنْهُ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ» .

And due to the saying of Allah, the Exalted: {Allah does not burden a soul beyond its capacity} [Al-Baqarah: 286]. There is no distinction between inability to perform bowing and prostration due to illness, fear, or being prevented by overcrowding. The Salaf performed the Friday prayer with gestures in the mosque since the Banu Umayyah would delay the prayer until near sunset.[20]

وَلِقَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {لا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلا وُسْعَهَا} [البقرة: ٢٨٦] وَلَا فَرْقَ بَيْنَ الْعَجْزِ عَنْ الرُّكُوعِ وَالسُّجُودِ بِمَرَضٍ أَوْ بِخَوْفٍ أَوْ بِمَنْعِ زِحَامٍ وَقَدْ صَلَّى السَّلَفُ الْجُمُعَةَ إيمَاءً فِي الْمَسْجِدِ، إذْ كَانَ بَنُو أُمَيَّةَ يُؤَخِّرُونَ الصَّلَاةَ إلَى قُرْبِ غُرُوبِ الشَّمْسِ

A case in which two or more arrive and the Friday prayer has been missed.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ جَاءَ اثْنَانِ فَصَاعِدًا وَقَدْ فَاتَتْ الْجُمُعَةُ]

Issue: If two or more [people] arrive and the Friday prayer has been missed, they should pray it as a Friday prayer, because of what we stated: that it is two rakʿahs in congregation.

مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَإِنْ جَاءَ اثْنَانِ فَصَاعِدًا وَقَدْ فَاتَتْ الْجُمُعَةُ صَلَّوْهَا جُمُعَةً، لِمَا ذَكَرْنَا مِنْ أَنَّهَا رَكْعَتَانِ فِي الْجَمَاعَةِ

A legal issue: If he was in the city and went to Friday Prayer from the beginning of the day...

[مَسْأَلَةٌ كَانَ بِالْمِصْرِ فَرَاحَ إلَى الْجُمُعَةِ مِنْ أَوَّلِ النَّهَارِ]

[20] Qur'an references (L8698): Qur'an 2:286 (Al-Baqarah).

L8703 540. Issue: For one who is within the city and goes to the Friday prayer from the beginning of the day, this is commendable as we previously mentioned. Similarly, for one situated outside the city or village at less than a mile, if at a mile or beyond, he must pray in his place. It is not permissible for him to come to the mosque except specifically the Sacred Mosque (Mecca), the Mosque of Medina, and the Mosque of Bayt al-Maqdis. Traveling to these despite distance is a virtuous act, based on what Ahmad ibn Muḥammad al-Ṭalamankī narrated to us: Ibn Mufarrij narrated to us, Muḥammad ibn Ayyūb al-Ṣamūt narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn ʿAmr ibn ʿAbd al-Khāliq al-Bazzār narrated to us, Muḥammad ibn Maʿmar narrated to us, Rūḥ - that is Ibn ʿUbādah - narrated to us, Muḥammad ibn Abī Ḥafṣah narrated from al-Zuhrī, from Abū Salamah ibn ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAwf, from Abū Hurayrah, that Allah's Messenger - peace and blessings be upon him - said: "Journeying is only to three mosques: the Sacred Mosque, the Mosque of Medina, and the Mosque of Ilyā'."

L8704 Abū Muḥammad said: A journey is travel. We have previously clarified that travel is one mīl or more, and with Allah, the Exalted, is success.

The Issue of Prayer in the Prayer Chamber

L8707 Issue: Prayer within the prayer enclosure (maqsurah) is permissible, and the sin lies upon the one who prevents entry—not upon the one granted unrestricted access to it. Rather, it is obligatory for whoever is able to enter it to connect the prayer rows therein, for completing the rows is an obligation as we previously established. Thus, whoever grants unrestricted permission regarding this matter—their right is upheld, and no rightful claim incumbent upon them is denied. But whoever is prevented—their right is withheld, and the one who obstructs this right is unjust. No sin burdens the prevented person, in accordance with Allah's declaration: "Allah does not charge a soul except [with that within] its capacity" (Al-Baqarah 2:286).[21]

مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَالصَّلَاةُ فِي الْمَقْصُورَةِ جَائِزَةٌ، وَالْإِثْمُ عَلَى الْمَانِعِ لَا عَلَى الْمُطْلَقِ لَهُ دُخُولُهَا، بَلْ الْفَرْضُ عَلَى مَنْ أَمْكَنَهُ دُخُولُهَا أَنْ يَصِلَ الصُّفُوفَ فِيهَا، لِأَنَّ إِكْمَالَ الصُّفُوفِ فَرْضٌ كَمَا قَدَّمْنَا فَمَنْ أَطْلَقَ عَلَى ذَلِكَ فَحَقُّهُ أَطْلَقَ لَهُ، وَحَقٌّ عَلَيْهِ لَمْ يُمْنَعْ مِنْهُ، وَمَنْ مُنِعَ فَحَقُّهُ مُنِعَ مِنْهُ وَالْمَانِعُ مِنَ الْحَقِّ ظَالِمٌ، وَلَا إِثْمَ عَلَى الْمَمْنُوعِ، لِقَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {لا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلا وُسْعَهَا} [البقرة: ٢٨٦]

Issue: The Sale During the Time of Friday Prayer

[مَسْأَلَةُ الْبَيْعُ وَقْت صَلَاة الْجُمُعَةِ]

L8708

L8709 It is impermissible to engage in selling from the moment the sun reaches its zenith and begins its westward decline and inclination until the Friday prayer is concluded.

٥٤٢ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَا يَحِلُّ الْبَيْعُ مِنْ أَثَرِ اسْتِوَاءِ الشَّمْسِ، وَمِنْ أَوَّلِ أَخْذِهَا فِي الزَّوَالِ وَالْمَيْلِ إِلَى أَنْ تُقْضَى صَلَاةُ الْجُمُعَةِ

L8710 If a village's people are prevented from Friday prayer, or if one resides among disbelievers with no Muslim with him, then the timeframe is until he prays the Dhuhr of his day, or they pray it—all of them or some. If he does not pray, then until the beginning of the time for Asr enters.

فَإِنْ كَانَتْ قَرْيَةٌ قَدْ مُنِعَ أَهْلُهَا الْجُمُعَةَ أَوْ كَانَ سَاكِنًا بَيْنَ الْكُفَّارِ، وَلَا مُسْلِمَ مَعَهُ: فَإِلَى أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ ظُهْرَ يَوْمِهِ، أَوْ يُصَلُّوا ذَلِكَ كُلُّهُمْ أَوْ بَعْضُهُمْ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يُصَلِّ: فَإِلَى أَنْ يَدْخُلَ أَوَّلُ وَقْتِ الْعَصْرِ.

L8711 If the sale occurs, it is permanently annulled at that time, and the expiry of the time period does not validate it, whether the transaction was between Muslims, a Muslim and a non-Muslim, or non-Muslims.

وَيُفْسَخُ الْبَيْعُ حِينَئِذٍ أَبَدًا إِنْ وَقَعَ وَلَا يُصَحِّحُهُ خُرُوجُ الْوَقْتِ، سَوَاءٌ كَانَ التَّبَايُعُ مِنْ مُسْلِمِينَ، أَوْ مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ وَكَافِرٍ، أَوْ مِنْ كَافِرِينَ.

L8712 Are the following not prohibited at that time: marriage, agency contracts, salam contracts, or transactions not constituting sales? Did Mālik similarly state this regarding sales involving a Muslim, marriage, lease contracts, and salam contracts, while permitting gifts, loans, and charitable giving? Abū Ḥanīfah and Al-Shāfiʿī said: Sales, marriage, leasing, and salam contracts—all of these are permissible during the aforementioned time.

L8713 Allah the Exalted said: O you who have believed, when the call to prayer is made on the Day of Jumu'ah, hasten to the remembrance of Allah and leave off business transactions. That is better for you, if you know. [Al-Jumu'ah: 9] When the prayer is concluded, go forth into the land and seek from the bounty of Allah. [Al-Jumu'ah: 10][22]

قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا نُودِيَ لِلصَّلَاةِ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ فَاسْعَوْا إِلَى ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ وَذَرُوا الْبَيْعَ ذَلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ} [الجمعة: ٩] {فَإِذَا قُضِيَتِ الصَّلَاةُ فَانْتَشِرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَابْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِ اللَّهِ} [الجمعة: ١٠]

L8714–8716 The time of the call to prayer is the start of the sun's decline. Thus, Allah, the Exalted, has forbidden trade until the prayer concludes and permitted it afterward. This aligns with the declaration of Allah, the Mighty and Majestic. He, the Exalted, has not prohibited marriage, rental contracts, salam contracts, nor what is not... A sale: {And never is your Lord forgetful} [Maryam: 64]. And {These are the boundaries of Allah, so do not transgress them} [al-Baqarah: 229].[23]

L8717 All these actions we have mentioned are permissible even while one is proceeding to prayer without being preoccupied with it, for they do not hinder proceeding to prayer.

L8718 The contradiction in Mālik's statement and its invalidity thus became apparent. If he attributed the cause of all that to preoccupation, we would ask them about one who was not preoccupied—rather, one who sold, gave in marriage, or leased while proceeding to Friday prayer or while in the mosque awaiting the prayer. Given their assertion that "it is annulled," their attribution of cause to preoccupation collapses. If they do not base it on preoccupation, they have analogized without a legal cause—invalid according to proponents of analogy, let alone its opponents! Should he claim, "Marriage is a sale," we respond: This is invalid, for neither Allah the Exalted nor His Messenger—peace be upon him—has ever at any point called it a sale.

L8719 We ask them about someone who swore an oath not to sell—if he then marries or rents out property, does he break his oath? According to their school, he does not break his oath. However, Abū Ḥanīfah and Al-Shāfiʿī reasoned that the prohibition of such acts is solely to avoid distraction from attending the Friday Prayer.

L8720 Abu Muhammad said: This is a false claim and a statement about Allah, the Exalted, without knowledge. It is not permissible for anyone to assert Allah's intent unless He, the Exalted, or His Messenger (peace be upon him) has explicitly conveyed it.

L8721 If Allah the Exalted had willed that, He would have clarified it and not left us dependent on the error of Abū Ḥanīfah's speculative opinion and assumption. Indeed, the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—said: "Beware of assumption, for verily assumption is the falsest of speech."

بَيْعًا {وَمَا كَانَ رَبُّكَ نَسِيًّا} [مريم: ٦٤] . وَ {تِلْكَ حُدُودُ اللَّهِ فَلا تَعْتَدُوهَا} [البقرة: ٢٢٩] .

وَنَسْأَلُهُمْ عَمَّنْ حَلَفَ أَنْ لَا يَبِيعَ: فَنَكَحَ أَوْ أَجَرَ؟ فَمِنْ قَوْلِهِمْ: لَا يَحْنَثُ وَاعْتَلَّ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ، وَالشَّافِعِيُّ: بِأَنَّ النَّهْيَ عَنْ ذَلِكَ إنَّمَا هُوَ لِلتَّشَاغُلِ عَنْ الْجُمُعَةِ فَقَطْ

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: وَهَذِهِ دَعْوَى كَاذِبَةٌ، وَقَوْلٌ عَلَى اللَّهِ تَعَالَى بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ، وَهَذَا لَا يَحِلُّ لِأَحَدٍ أَنْ يُخْبِرَ عَنْ مُرَادِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى بِغَيْرِ أَنْ يُخْبِرَ بِذَلِكَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى أَوْ رَسُولُهُ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.

[23] Qur'an references (L8714): Qur'an 19:64 (Maryam); Qur'an 2:229 (Al-Baqarah).

L8722 And He, the Exalted, said: “And that you associate partners with Allah [in] what He has not sent down any authority, and that you say against Allah what you do not know.” [Al-A’raf: 33][24] وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {وَأَنْ تُشْرِكُوا بِاللَّهِ مَا لَمْ يُنَزِّلْ بِهِ سُلْطَانًا وَأَنْ تَقُولُوا عَلَى اللَّهِ مَا لا تَعْلَمُونَ} [الأعراف: ٣٣] .

L8723–8725 If they say, “We have known that,” we respond, “How did you come to know this?” If you were to claim it is a necessity, you would be lying, for we are not compelled by necessity to know it, and the innate nature is one. If they claim a proof, they should be asked for it—they have no means to do so, leaving only conjecture. They said, “We are prohibited from selling during prayer. If a man were to sell during his prayer, would the sale be valid?” We replied, “A sale is not permissible at all during prayer, for if it is done intentionally...” If he invalidates his prayer, he is no longer in prayer at that moment. If he is not in prayer, his sale is valid. Moreover, if he erroneously believed he was not in prayer and sold [something], married [someone], contracted a marriage for another, or performed acts that invalidate prayer, all such acts are invalid because the state of prayer he is in—a legally confirmed state—prohibits them. Thus, anything conflicting with this state is invalid.

فَإِنْ قَالُوا: قَدْ عَلِمْنَا ذَلِكَ؟ قُلْنَا: وَمِنْ أَيْنَ عَلِمْتُمُوهُ؟ فَإِنْ ادَّعَيْتُمْ ضَرُورَةً كَذَبْتُمْ، لِأَنَّنَا غَيْرُ مُضْطَرِّينَ إِلَى عِلْمِ ذَلِكَ، وَالطَّبِيعَةُ وَاحِدَةٌ، وَإِنْ ادَّعَوْا دَلِيلًا سُئِلُوهُ، وَلَا سَبِيلَ لَهُمْ إِلَيْهِ، فَلَمْ يَبْقَ إِلَّا الظَّنُّ وَقَالُوا: نَحْنُ مَنْهِيُّونَ عَنْ الْبَيْعِ فِي الصَّلَاةِ، وَلَوْ بَاعَ امْرُؤٌ فِي صَلَاتِهِ: نَفَذَ الْبَيْعُ؟ فَقُلْنَا لَهُمْ: إنَّ الْبَيْعَ لَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يَكُونَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ أَصْلًا؛ لِأَنَّهُ إذَا وَقَعَ عَمْدًا أَبْطَلَهَا، فَلَيْسَ حِينَئِذٍ فِي صَلَاةٍ، وَإِذَا لَمْ يَكُنْ فِي صَلَاةٍ فَبَيْعُهُ جَائِزٌ، وَإِنْ ظَنَّ أَنَّهُ لَيْسَ فِي صَلَاةٍ فَبَاعَ، أَوْ نَكَحَ، أَوْ أَنْكَحَ، أَوْ عَمِلَ مَا لَا يَجُوزُ فِي الصَّلَاةِ فَهُوَ كُلُّهُ بَاطِلٌ؛ لِأَنَّ الْحَالَ الَّتِي هُوَ فِيهَا مَانِعَةٌ مِنْ ذَلِكَ، وَهِيَ حَالٌ ثَابِتَةٌ، فَمَا ضَادَّهَا فَبَاطِلٌ.

L8726 Similarly, if someone sells, marries, divorces, or manumits [a slave] when only the time required to commence prayer with the takbīr remains—and he is mindful of this—then all such acts are invalid, because they are prohibited.

وَكَذَلِكَ مَنْ بَاعَ، أَوْ نَكَحَ، أَوْ طَلَّقَ، أَوْ أَعْتَقَ، وَلَمْ يَبْقَ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ الْوَقْتِ إلَّا مِقْدَارُ إحْرَامِهِ بِالتَّكْبِيرِ - وَهُوَ ذَاكِرٌ لِذَلِكَ - فَهُوَ كُلُّهُ بَاطِلٌ، لِأَنَّهُ مَنْهِيٌّ عَنْ كُلِّ ذَلِكَ.

L8727 And he (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: “Whoever performs an act not in accordance with our command, it is rejected.” Thus, anyone who performs an action contrary to what he has been commanded, then it is rejected by the explicit juridical ruling of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him).[25]

وَقَالَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «مَنْ عَمِلَ عَمَلًا لَيْسَ عَلَيْهِ أَمْرُنَا فَهُوَ رَدٌّ» فَكُلُّ مَنْ عَمِلَ أَمْرًا بِخِلَافِ مَا أُمِرَ بِهِ فَهُوَ مَرْدُودٌ بِنَصِّ حُكْمِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.

L8728 It has been narrated to us via ʿIkrimah from Ibn ʿAbbās: “Transactions are impermissible on the day of Jumuʿah when the prayer is announced to commence. Once the prayer has concluded, you may buy and sell.”

رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ عِكْرِمَةَ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ " لَا يَصْلُحُ الْبَيْعُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ حِينَ يُنَادَى بِالصَّلَاةِ فَإِذَا قُضِيَتْ الصَّلَاةُ فَاشْتَرِ وَبِعْ ".

[24] Qur’an references (L8722): Qur’an 7:33 (Al-A’raf).

[25] Hadith references (L8727): Sahih Muslim 1718b; Riyad as-Salihin 1647; Riyad as-Salihin 169.

L8729 From Al-Qāsim ibn Muḥammad: Did he rescind a sale that occurred during the aforementioned time? Abū Muḥammad said: This is where the Shāfiʿīs and Ḥanafīs contradicted themselves, for they do not permit opposing the position of a Companion when no opposing Companion is known—yet this is a situation where no opposition to Ibn ʿAbbās from the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them) is recognized? The Mālikīs also contradicted themselves, for they interpreted Allah's command "And abandon trade" [62:9] as a prohibition, yet did not interpret His command to provide for divorced women as obligatory.[26]

L8730 They said, "The term dhar (leave) is only used to denote prohibition." We replied, "This is false, for He, the Exalted, has said: Then leave them in their vain discourse, playing [Quran 6:91]. In this instance, it serves as a warning, not a prohibition."[27]

L8731 As for our preventing the disbelievers from engaging in trade at that time, it is due to the statement of the Exalted: "And fight them until there is no religious discord and religion is wholly for Allah" [Al-Anfal: 39]. Thus, it is necessarily obligatory to judge between the disbelievers according to the rulings applicable to the people of Islam.[28]

L8732 And He, the Exalted, said: "Judge between them by what Allah has revealed" [Al-Māʾidah 5:49].[29]

[The Prayer of the Two Eids] [The Ruling on Work and Selling During the Two Eids]

L8735 543 - Issue: The two Eids are Eid al-Fitr following Ramadan, which is the first day of Shawwāl, and Eid al-Adḥā, which is the tenth day of Dhū al-Ḥijjah. Muslims have no other Eid besides these two. However, Friday is also [a distinct day], along with the three days following Eid al-Adḥā. This is because Allah the Exalted has not designated any Eid for them other than ٥٤٣ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: هُمَا عِيدُ الْفِطْرِ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ، وَهُوَ: أَوَّلُ يَوْمٍ مِنْ شَوَّالٍ، وَيَوْمُ الْأَضْحَى: وَهُوَ الْيَوْمُ الْعَاشِرُ مِنْ ذِي الْحِجَّةِ، لَيْسَ لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ عِيدٌ غَيْرُهُمَا، إلَّا يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ. وَثَلَاثَةُ أَيَّامٍ بَعْدَ يَوْمِ الْأَضْحَى؛ لِأَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى لَمْ يَجْعَلْ لَهُمْ عِيدًا غَيْرَ مَا ذَكَرْنَا، وَلَا رَسُولُهُ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.

[صَلَاةُ الْعِيدَيْنِ] [مَسْأَلَةٌ الْعَمَلُ وَالْبَيْعُ فِي الْعِيدَيْنِ]

what we have mentioned, nor did His Messenger—peace be upon him—designate any.

وَلَا خِلَافَ بَيْنَ أَهْلِ الْإِسْلَامِ فِي ذَلِكَ، وَلَا يَحْرُمُ الْعَمَلُ، وَلَا الْبَيْعُ فِي شَيْءٍ مِنْ هَذِهِ الْأَيَّامِ: لِأَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى لَمْ يَمْنَعْ مِنْ ذَلِكَ، وَلَا رَسُولُهُ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَلَا خِلَافَ أَيْضًا بَيْنَ أَهْلِ الْإِسْلَامِ فِي هَذَا؟ وَسُنَّةُ صَلَاةِ الْعِيدَيْنِ: أَنْ يَبْرُزَ أَهْلُ كُلِّ قَرْيَةٍ أَوْ مَدِينَةٍ إلَى فَضَاءٍ وَاسِعٍ بِحَضْرَةِ مَنَازِلِهِمْ ضَحْوَةً إثْرَ ابْيِضَاضِ الشَّمْسِ، وَحِينَ ابْتِدَاءِ جَوَازِ التَّطَوُّعِ.

L8736 There is no disagreement among the people of Islam regarding that, nor is work or trade prohibited on any of these days, because Allah the Exalted has not forbidden it, nor has His Messenger—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—nor is there any disagreement among the people of Islam regarding this as well. The Sunnah of the prayers for the two Eids is that the people of every village or city proceed to a spacious open area in the vicinity of their dwellings in the forenoon after the sun has whitened [risen sufficiently], and at the time when voluntary prayers first become permissible.

وَفِي الثَّانِيَةِ " اقْتَرَبَتْ السَّاعَةُ " أَوْ " سَبِّحْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ الْأَعْلَى ".

L8737 The Imam arrives and proceeds forward without the adhan or iqamah. He leads the people in two rak'ahs, reciting aloud in both. In each rak'ah, he recites Al-Fatihah (the Opening) and a surah. It is recommended to recite Surah Qaf in the first rak'ah.

L8738 And in the second rak'ah, 'The Hour has drawn near' or 'Glorify the name of your Lord, the Most High.'

L8739 Have you heard the tidings of the Overwhelming Event?

وَمَا قَرَأَ مِنْ الْقُرْآنِ مَعَ (أُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ) أَجْزَأَهُ.

L8740 And whatever portion of the Qur'an one recites along with (Umm al-Qur'an, Al-Fatihah) suffices him.

وَيُكَبِّرُ فِي الرَّكْعَةِ الْأُولَى إثْرَ تَكْبِيرَةِ الْإِحْرَامِ: سَبْعَ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ مُتَّصِلَةٍ قَبْلَ قِرَاءَةِ الْقُرْآنِ (أُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ) وَيُكَبِّرُ فِي أَوَّلِ الثَّانِيَةِ إثْرَ تَكْبِيرَةِ الْقِيَامِ: خَمْسَ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ.

L8741 In the first rakʿah, after the Takbīrat al-Iḥrām, one utters seven consecutive Takbīrs before reciting the Qurʾān (Umm al-Qurʾān). In the second rakʿah, after the Takbīr of rising, one utters five Takbīrs.

يَجْهَرُ بِجَمِيعِهِنَّ قَبْلَ قِرَاءَتِهِ (أُمَّ الْقُرْآنِ) .

L8742 He should recite all of them aloud before reciting Umm al-Qur'an (the Mother of the Quran).

وَلَا يَرْفَعُ - يَدَيْهِ فِي شَيْءٍ مِنْهَا إلَّا حَيْثُ يَرْفَعُ فِي سَائِرِ الصَّلَوَاتِ فَقَطْ.

L8743 He does not raise his hands during any part of it except in the specific instances where they are raised in other prayers.

وَلَا يُكَبِّرُ بَعْدَ الْقِرَاءَةِ إلَّا تَكْبِيرَةَ الرُّكُوعِ فَقَطْ.

L8744 And one does not recite the takbīr after the recitation except the takbīr of bowing alone.

L8745 When the Imam concludes the prayer with the salutation, he rises to deliver two Khutbahs to the people, sitting briefly between them. When he completes both, the congregation disperses.

فَإِذَا سَلَّمَ الْإِمَامُ قَامَ فَخَطَبَ النَّاسَ خُطْبَتَيْنِ يَجْلِسُ بَيْنَهُمَا جِلْسَةً، فَإِذَا أَتَمَّهُمَا افْتَرَقَ النَّاسُ.

L8746–8748 If he delivers the sermon before the prayer, it is not valid as a sermon, nor is it obligatory to listen to him attentively. There is no disagreement on this except in specific cases we shall mention—if God the Exalted wills—: Among them: what is recited along with the Mother of the Quran and in the manner of saying "Allahu Akbar" (Takbir).

فَإِنْ خَطَبَ قَبْلَ الصَّلَاةِ فَلَيْسَتْ خُطْبَةً، وَلَا يَجِبُ الْإِنْصَاتُ لَهُ، كُلُّ هَذَا لَا خِلَافَ فِيهِ إِلَّا فِي مَوَاضِعَ نَذْكُرُهَا إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى؟ -: مِنْهَا -: مَا يُقْرَأُ مَعَ (أُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ) وَفِي صِفَةِ التَّكْبِيرِ

L8749 The Umayyads introduced delaying the departure to the Eid prayer, advancing the sermon before the prayer, and initiating the adhan and iqāmah. As for what is recited alongside the Opening of the Quran (Sūrah Al-Fātiḥah), Abū Ḥanīfah said: "I dislike restricting oneself to a specific sūrah."

وَأَحْدَثَ بَنُو أُمَيَّةَ: تَأْخِيرَ الْخُرُوجِ إِلَى الْعِيدِ، وَتَقْدِيمَ الْخُطْبَةِ قَبْلَ الصَّلَاةِ وَالْأَذَانِ وَالْإِقَامَةِ فَأَمَّا الَّذِي يُقْرَأُ مَعَ " أُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ ": فَإِنَّ أَبَا حَنِيفَةَ قَالَ: أَكْرَهُ أَنْ يَقْتَصِرَ عَلَى سُورَةٍ بِعَيْنِهَا.

L8750 We have observed that the Malikis do not recite anything alongside Umm al-Qur'ān except "By the sun and its brightness" and "Exalt the name of your Lord, the Most High." These two opinions are invalid: even though prayers performed in this manner remain permissible.

وَشَاهَدْنَا الْمَالِكِيِّينَ لَا يَقْرَءُونَ مَعَ " أُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ " " إِلَّا " " وَالشَّمْسِ وَضُحَاهَا "، وَ " سَبِّحْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ الْأَعْلَى ". وَهَذَانِ الِاخْتِيَارَانِ: فَاسِدَانِ، وَإِنْ كَانَتْ الصَّلَاةُ كَذَلِكَ جَائِزَةً.

L8751 We only disapprove of choosing that because it contradicts what has been authentically established from the Messenger of Allah—may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

L8752 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us, Abd al-Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us, Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us, Yahya ibn Yahya narrated to us: "I recited to Malik, from Damrah ibn Sa'id al-Mazini, from Ubaydullah ibn Abdullah ibn Utbah ibn Mas'ud: 'Umar ibn al-Khattab asked Abu Waqid al-Laythi: "What did the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—recite during Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha?" He replied: "He would recite _Qāf. By the Glorious Quran_ and _The Hour has drawn near_."'"

L8753 Abu Muhammad said: 'Ubaydullah met Abu Waqid al-Laythi and heard from him. His name was al-Harith ibn ʻAwf. Is there nothing else authentically established from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) besides this? What was narrated to us by ʻAbdullah ibn Rabiʻ: Muhammad ibn Muʻawiyah narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Shuʻayb narrated to us; Mahmud ibn Ghilan narrated to us; Wakiʻ narrated to us; Misʻar ibn Kidam and Sufyan (al-Thawri)—both of them reported from Maʻbad ibn Khalid, from Zayd ibn ʻUqbah, from Samurah ibn Jundub: "That he (peace be upon him) would recite in the Eid prayer: 'Glorify the name of your Lord, the Most High' and 'Has there come to you the report of the Overwhelming?'"[30]

وَاخْتِيَارُنَا هُوَ اخْتِيَارُ الشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ.

L8755 It has been narrated from Abū Ḥanīfah that he mentioned some of that. Among them is the takbīr, for Abū Ḥanīfah said: He utters the takbīr for initiating prayer, then seeks refuge, then pronounces three takbīrs audibly and raises his hands with each takbīr, then recites, then bows. When he rises after prostration to begin the second rakʿah, he utters the takbīr when rising, then recites. When he completes the sūrah after Umm al-Qur'ān, he pronounces three takbīrs audibly and raises his hands with each takbīr, then utters the takbīr to enter rukūʿ.

وَقَدْ رُوِيَ عَنْ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ أَنَّهُ ذَكَرَ بَعْضَ ذَلِكَ؟ وَمِنْهَا - التَّكْبِيرُ، فَإِنَّ أَبَا حَنِيفَةَ قَالَ: يُكَبِّرُ لِلْإِحْرَامِ ثُمَّ يَتَعَوَّذُ ثُمَّ يُكَبِّرُ ثَلَاثَ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ يَجْهَرُ بِهَا، وَيَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ مَعَ كُلِّ تَكْبِيرَةٍ، ثُمَّ يَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ، فَإِذَا قَامَ بَعْدَ السُّجُودِ إِلَى الرَّكْعَةِ الثَّانِيَةِ كَبَّرَ لِلْإِحْرَامِ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ، فَإِذَا أَتَمَّ السُّورَةَ مَعَ (أُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ) كَبَّرَ ثَلَاثَ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ جَهْرًا، يَرْفَعُ مَعَ كُلِّ تَكْبِيرَةٍ يَدَيْهِ، ثُمَّ يُكَبِّرُ لِلرُّكُوعِ.

L8756–8758 And Malik said: seven takbirs in the first rak'ah including the takbirat al-ihram, and five in the second rak'ah excluding its takbir. The standing during prayer, and there is disagreement reported regarding this among the Salaf - may Allah be pleased with them. It has been reported to us that Ali - may Allah be pleased with him - would recite the takbīr in the prayers of Eid al-Fitr, Eid al-Adha, and the prayer for rain: seven times in the first rak'ah and five times in the second rak'ah. He would perform the prayer before the sermon and recite audibly.

L8759 It is reported that Abu Bakr, Umar, and Uthman used to do this. However, the chain includes Ibrahim ibn Abi Yahya, whose transmission is interrupted.

وَأَنَّ أَبَا بَكْرٍ، وَعُمَرَ، وَعُثْمَانَ: كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ ذَلِكَ، إلَّا أَنَّ فِي الطَّرِيقِ إبْرَاهِيمَ بْنَ أَبِي يَحْيَى، وَهُوَ أَيْضًا مُنْقَطِعٌ، عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَلِيِّ بْنِ الْحُسَيْنِ: أَنَّ عَلِيًّا؟ وَرُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ

[30] Qur'an references (L8753): Qur'an 87:1 (Al-A'la).

مَالِكٍ، وَأَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ نَافِعٍ قَالَ: شَهِدْت الْعِيدَ مَعَ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ فَكَبَّرَ فِي الْأُولَى سَبْعًا، وَفِي الْأُخْرَى خَمْسًا قَبْلَ الْقِرَاءَةِ.

From Muhammad ibn Ali ibn al-Husayn: that it was from Ali [?]. And it was narrated to us through the chain of Malik and Ayyub al-Sakhtiyani, both from Nafiʿ, who said: "I attended the Eid prayer with Abu Hurayrah. He pronounced the takbir seven times in the first [rakʿah] and five times in the second before the recitation."

وَهَذَا سَنَدٌ كَالشَّمْسِ وَرُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ السَّبِيعِيِّ عَنْ الْأَسْوَدِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ قَالَ: كَانَ ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ جَالِسًا وَعِنْدَهُ حُذَيْفَةُ، وَأَبُو مُوسَى الْأَشْعَرِيُّ، فَسَأَلَهُمْ سَعِيدُ بْنُ الْعَاصِ عَنْ التَّكْبِيرِ فِي الصَّلَاةِ يَوْمَ الْفِطْرِ، وَالْأَضْحَى؟ فَقَالَ ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ يُكَبِّرُ أَرْبَعًا ثُمَّ يَقْرَأُ، ثُمَّ يُكَبِّرُ فَيَرْكَعُ، ثُمَّ يَقُومُ فِي الثَّانِيَةِ فَيَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يُكَبِّرُ أَرْبَعًا بَعْدَ الْقِرَاءَةِ؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ خَالِدٍ الْحَذَّاءِ، وَقَتَادَةَ كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ هُوَ ابْنُ نَوْفَلٍ - قَالَ: كَبَّرَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ يَوْمَ الْعِيدِ فِي الرَّكْعَةِ الْأُولَى أَرْبَعَ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ ثُمَّ رَكَعَ، ثُمَّ قَامَ فَقَرَأَ ثُمَّ كَبَّرَ ثَلَاثَ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ سِوَى تَكْبِيرَةِ الصَّلَاةِ وَهَذَانِ إسْنَادَانِ فِي غَايَةِ الصِّحَّةِ، وَبِهَذَا تَعَلَّقَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ، قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: أَيْنَ وُجِدَ لِهَؤُلَاءِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - أَوْ لِغَيْرِهِمْ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - مَا قَالَهُ مِنْ أَنْ يَتَعَوَّذَ إثْرَ الْأُولَى ثُمَّ يُكَبِّرُ ثَلَاثًا، وَأَنَّهُ يَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ مَعَهُنَّ؟ فَبَطَلَ عَنْ أَنْ يَكُونَ لَهُ مُتَعَلَّقٌ بِصَاحِبٍ.

L8760 This is a chain of narration like the sun. It has been narrated to us through the path of Maʿmar from Abū Isḥāq al-Sabīʿī from al-Aswad ibn Yazīd, who said: Ibn Masʿūd was sitting while Ḥudhayfah and Abū Mūsā al-Ashʿarī were with him. Saʿīd ibn al-ʿĀṣ asked them about the Takbīr during the prayer on Eid al-Fiṭr and Eid al-Aḍḥā. Ibn Masʿūd replied: "He pronounces the Takbīr four times, then recites, then pronounces the Takbīr and bows. Then he rises for the second unit, recites, then pronounces the Takbīr four times after the recitation." Through another chain from Shuʿbah from Khālid al-Ḥadhdhā' and Qatādah, both from ʿAbdullāh ibn al-Ḥārith—who is Ibn Nawfal—he said: "Ibn ʿAbbās pronounced the Takbīr on Eid day in the first unit four times, then recited, then bowed. Then he stood, recited, then pronounced three Takbīrs apart from the opening Takbīr (Takbīrat al-Iḥrām) of the prayer." These are two chains of the utmost authenticity, and this is what Abū Ḥanīfah upheld. Abū Muḥammad said: "Where is it established that these companions (may Allah be pleased with them) or any other companions (may Allah be pleased with them) stated what he claimed—to seek refuge after the first unit, then pronounce three Takbīrs, while raising his hands with them?" Thus, it is invalidated that this has any basis connected to a companion.

وَأَطْرَفُ ذَلِكَ أَمْرُهُ بِرَفْعِ الْأَيْدِي فِي التَّكْبِيرِ، الَّذِي لَمْ يَصِحَّ قَطُّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - رَفَعَ فِيهِ يَدَيْهِ، وَنَهْيُهُ عَنْ رَفْعِ الْأَيْدِي فِي التَّكْبِيرِ فِي الصَّلَاةِ حَيْثُ صَحَّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - كَانَ يَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ وَهَكَذَا فَلْيَكُنْ عَكْسَ الْحَقَائِقِ، وَخِلَافَ السُّنَنِ؟ وَرُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ يَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانِ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي عَرُوبَةَ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ عِكْرِمَةَ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ فِي التَّكْبِيرِ فِي الْعِيدَيْنِ؟ قَالَ: يُكَبِّرُ تِسْعًا أَوْ

L8761–8762 The most egregious aspect of this is his command to raise the hands during the Takbīr—since it has never been authentically established that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) raised his hands in this context—and his prohibition against raising hands during the Takbīr in prayer where it is established that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) did raise his hands. Thus, this is nothing but contrary to the truths and opposed to the established Sunnah. It has been narrated to us through the chain of Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān, from Saʿīd ibn Abī ʿArūbah, from Qatādah, from ʿIkrimah, from Ibn ʿAbbās regarding the Takbīr during the two Eid prayers. He said: “He would perform nine, eleven, or thirteen Takbīrs”—and this chain is of the highest authenticity. From Jābir ibn ʿAbdullāh, it is reported: “The Takbīr on Eid day is four times in the first rakʿah and three times in the last, totaling seven Takbīrs apart from the Takbīr of prayer”—except that the chain includes Ibrāhīm ibn Yazīd, who is deemed weak.

إِحْدَى عَشْرَةَ، أَوْ ثَلَاثَ عَشْرَةَ - وَهَذَا سَنَدٌ فِي غَايَةِ الصِّحَّةِ؟ وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: التَّكْبِيرُ فِي يَوْمِ الْعِيدِ فِي الرَّكْعَةِ الْأُولَى أَرْبَعًا، وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ ثَلَاثًا، وَالتَّكْبِيرُ سَبْعٌ سِوَى تَكْبِيرِ الصَّلَاةِ - إِلَّا أَنَّ فِي الطَّرِيقِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ بْنَ يَزِيدَ وَلَيْسَ بِشَيْءٍ

L8763 Abu Muhammad said: In this, there are narrations from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—but none of them are authentic. Among them is a report transmitted through the chain of Ibn Lahiʿah from ʿUqayl ibn Khālid from Ibn Shihāb from ʿUrwah from ʿĀʾishah: “The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—would say Allāhu Akbar during Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha: seven takbīrāt in the first, and five takbīrāt in the second.”

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: وَفِي هَذَا آثَارٌ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لَا يَصِحُّ شَيْءٌ مِنْهَا -: مِنْهَا - مِنْ طَرِيقِ ابْنِ لَهِيعَةَ عَنْ عُقَيْلِ بْنِ خَالِدٍ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ عَنْ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - كَانَ يُكَبِّرُ فِي الْفِطْرِ، وَالْأَضْحَى، فِي الْأُولَى: سَبْعَ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ، وَفِي الثَّانِيَةِ: خَمْسَ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ» .

L8764 From the path of ʾAmr ibn Shuʿayb, from his father, from ʾAbdullah ibn ʾAmr ibn al-ʾAs, from the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings be upon him - that he said: “The takbir during Eid al-Fitr is seven times in the first rak’ah and five times in the second rak’ah, and the recitation follows both sets of takbirs.”

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَنَّهُ قَالَ «التَّكْبِيرُ فِي الْفِطْرِ سَبْعٌ فِي الْأُولَى وَخَمْسٌ فِي الْآخِرَةِ، وَالْقِرَاءَةُ بَعْدَهُمَا كِلْتَاهُمَا» .

L8765–8767 All of this is invalid, and God forbid that we should cite what is invalid like one who cites Ibn Lahīʿah. As for Amr ibn Shuʿayb—when the two [narrations] align with his desire, as he did regarding zakat on camels and other matters, yet he rejects their narrations when they contradict his desire—this is the behavior of one who has no religion, who cares not that he strays in the religion of Allah the Exalted and causes others to stray.

L8768 Among them is a report through the chain of Zayd ibn al-Ḥubāb from ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Thawbān, from his father, from Makḥūl: Abū Aʾishah, the close associate of Abū Hurayrah, informed me that Saʿīd ibn al-ʿĀṣ was present and asked Abū Mūsā al-Ashʿarī and Ḥudhayfah ibn al-Yamān, “How did the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—recite the Takbīr during Eid al-Aḍḥā and Eid al-Fiṭr?” Abū Mūsā replied, “He would recite the Takbīr four times, similar to his practice during funeral prayers.”

وَمِنْهَا - خَبَرٌ مِنْ طَرِيقِ زَيْدِ بْنِ الْحُبَابِ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ ثَوْبَانَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ مَكْحُولٍ أَخْبَرَنِي أَبُو عَائِشَةَ جَلِيسُ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّهُ حَضَرَ سَعِيدُ بْنُ الْعَاصِ «سَأَلَ أَبَا مُوسَى الْأَشْعَرِيَّ، وَحُذَيْفَةَ بْنَ الْيَمَانِ كَيْفَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يُكَبِّرُ فِي الْأَضْحَى، وَالْفِطْرِ؟ فَقَالَ أَبُو مُوسَى كَانَ يُكَبِّرُ أَرْبَعًا، تَكْبِيرُهُ عَلَى الْجَنَائِزِ، قَالَ حُذَيْفَةُ: صَدَقَ، قَالَ أَبُو مُوسَى كَذَلِكَ كُنْتُ أُكَبِّرُ بِالْبَصْرَةِ حَيْثُ كُنْتُ عَلَيْهِمْ» .

Ḥudhayfah said, “He spoke the truth.” Abū Mūsā added, “Likewise, I used to recite the Takbīr in Basra when I was over them.”

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ ثَوْبَانَ ضَعِيفٌ وَأَبُو عَائِشَةَ مَجْهُولٌ، لَا يُدْرَى مَنْ هُوَ وَلَا يَعْرِفُهُ أَحَدٌ وَلَا تَصِحُّ رِوَايَةٌ عَنْهُ لِأَحَدٍ، وَلَوْ صَحَّ لَمَا كَانَ فِيهِ لِلْحَنَفِيِّينَ حُجَّةٌ، لِأَنَّهُ لَيْسَ فِيهِ مَا يَقُولُونَ مِنْ أَرْبَعِ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ فِي الْأُولَى بِتَكْبِيرَةِ الْإِحْرَامِ، وَأَرْبَعٌ فِي الثَّانِيَةِ بِتَكْبِيرَةِ الرُّكُوعِ، وَلَا أَنَّ الْأُولَى يُكَبِّرُ فِيهَا قَبْلَ الْقِرَاءَةِ، وَفِي الثَّانِيَةِ بَعْدَ الْقِرَاءَةِ، بَلْ ظَاهِرُهُ أَرْبَعٌ فِي كِلْتَا الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ فِي الصَّلَاةِ كُلِّهَا، كَمَا فِي صَلَاةِ الْجَنَازَةِ.

L8769 Abu Muhammad said: ‘Abd al-Rahman ibn Thawban is weak, and Abu A’ishah is unknown—no one knows who he is or recognizes him, and no narration from him is considered reliable by anyone. Even if it were authentic, it would not constitute evidence for the Hanafis, because it does not mention what they claim: four takbirs in the first rakʿah including the opening takbir, and four in the second rakʿah including the takbir for bowing. Nor does it state that the takbirs in the first rakʿah are before the recitation and in the second rakʿah after the recitation. Rather, its apparent meaning is four takbirs in both rakʿahs throughout the entire prayer, as in the funeral prayer.

L8770 This is an analogical reasoning against them, not for them, because the funeral prayer’s Takbirs are only four, while they assert there are six in total across both Rak’ahs, excluding the Takbirs for Ihram, Ruku’, and Qiyam, or ten Takbirs if they count within them the Takbirs of Ihram, Qiyam, and Ruku’. There is no raising of the hands in it as they falsely claimed, thus their deception has been entirely exposed—and all praise is due to Allah, the Exalted.

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: وَأَمَّا مَالِكٌ فَإِنَّهُ جَعَلَ فِي الْأُولَى سَبْعًا بِتَكْبِيرَةِ الْإِحْرَامِ، وَخَمْسًا فِي الثَّانِيَةِ دُونَ تَكْبِيرَةِ الْقِيَامِ، وَهَذَا غَيْرُ مَحْفُوظٍ عَنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ السَّلَفِ.

L8771 Ali said: As for Malik, he held seven takbirs in the first rakʿah including the opening takbir (takbirat al-ihram), and five in the second rakʿah excluding the takbir for rising (takbīrat al-qiyām). This is not reported from any of the Salaf.

L8772–8774 We have chosen what we have chosen because it constitutes the majority of what has been stated, and the Takbīr [saying “Allāhu Akbar”] is superior, with ten good deeds for each takbīrah (utterance). No one disparages it except one deprived of [Allah’s favor]. If we had found anyone who advocated a greater number, we would have affirmed it, based on Allah the Exalted’s statement: “And do good” [Al-Hajj: 77], and the Takbir is undoubtedly good.[31]

وَاخْتِيَارُنَا هُوَ اخْتِيَارُ الشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ

L8775 Our choice is the choice of Ash-Shāfiʿī and Abū Sulaymān.

[31] Qur’an references (L8772): Qur’an 22:77 (Al-Hajj).

وَمِنْهَا - مَا أَحْدَثَ بَنُو أُمَيَّةَ مِنْ تَأْخِيرِ الصَّلَاةِ، وَإِحْدَاثِ الْأَذَانِ وَالْإِقَامَةِ، وَتَقْدِيمِ الْخُطْبَةِ قَبْلَ الصَّلَاةِ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ثنا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ عَنْ أَبِي عَاصِمٍ، وَيَعْقُوبَ بْنِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ.

L8776 Among these are what the Umayyads introduced: delaying prayers, initiating innovations in the adhan and iqamah, and delivering the sermon before the prayer. Abdur-Rahman ibn Abdullah narrated to us, Ibrahim ibn Ahmad narrated to us, al-Farbari narrated to us, al-Bukhari narrated from Abu ʻAsim and Yaʻqub ibn Ibrahim.

قَالَ أَبُو عَاصِمٍ: أَنَا ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ أَخْبَرَنِي الْحَسَنُ بْنُ مُسْلِمٍ عَنْ طَاوُسٍ عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ.

L8777 Abu ʻAsim said: "I am Ibn Jurayj; Al-Hasan ibn Muslim informed me, from Tawus, from Ibn ʻAbbas."

وَقَالَ يَعْقُوبُ: ثنا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ هُوَ حَمَّادُ بْنُ أُسَامَةَ - ثنا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ هُوَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ - عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ.

L8778 Ya'qub said: Abu Usama—he is Hammad ibn Usama—narrated to us; Ubayd Allah—he is Ibn Umar—from Nafi', from Ibn Umar.

ثُمَّ اتَّفَقَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ، وَابْنُ عُمَرَ كِلَاهُمَا يَقُولُ «إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَأَبَا بَكْرٍ، وَعُمَرَ كَانُوا يُصَلُّونَ الْعِيدَيْنِ قَبْلَ الْخُطْبَةِ قَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ وَعُثْمَانُ» .

L8779 Then Ibn Abbas and Ibn Umar both agreed, saying, "Indeed, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), Abu Bakr, and Umar used to pray the two Eid prayers before the sermon." Ibn Abbas added, "and Uthman as well."

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ مَالِكٍ عَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ عَنْ أَبِي عُبَيْدٍ مَوْلَى ابْنِ أَزْهَرَ قَالَ: شَهِدْت الْعِيدَ مَعَ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ، وَعُثْمَانَ بْنِ عَفَّانَ، وَعَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ، كُلُّهُمْ يُصَلِّي ثُمَّ يَخْطُبُ.

L8780 And through the chain of Mālik from Ibn Shihāb from Abī ʿUbayd, the client of Ibn Azhar, who said: I attended the Eid prayer with ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb, ʿUthmān ibn ʿAffān, and ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib. All of them would pray first and then deliver the sermon.

وَبِالسَّنَدِ الْمَذْكُورِ إِلَى الْبُخَارِيِّ: ثنا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ مُوسَى ثنا هِشَامٌ أَنَّ ابْنَ جُرَيْجٍ أَخْبَرَهُمْ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي عَطَاءٌ عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، وَجَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَا جَمِيعًا: لَمْ يَكُنْ يُؤَذَّنُ يَوْمَ الْفِطْرِ، وَلَا يَوْمَ الْأَضْحَى؟

L8781 With the aforementioned chain of transmission to al-Bukhārī: Ibrāhīm ibn Mūsā narrated to us from Hishām, who said that Ibn Jurayj informed them, saying: "'Aṭā' informed me from Ibn ʿAbbās and Jābir ibn ʿAbd Allāh - they both said: 'The call to prayer was not made on Eid al-Fitr nor on Eid al-Adha.'"

قَالَ عَلِيٌّ: لَا أَذَانَ وَلَا إِقَامَةَ لِغَيْرِ الْفَرِيضَةِ، وَالْأَذَانُ وَالْإِقَامَةُ فِيهِمَا الدُّعَاءُ إلَى الصَّلَاةِ، فَلَوْ أُمِرَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِذَلِكَ لَصَارَتْ تِلْكَ الصَّلَاةُ فَرِيضَةً بِدُعَائِهِ إلَيْهَا؟

L8782–8783 Ali said: "There is no adhan nor iqamah for prayers other than the obligatory one, for the adhan and iqamah involve the call to prayer. If the Prophet (peace be upon him) had been commanded to perform them for other prayers, would those prayers have become obligatory by his calling to them?"

وَاعْتَلُّوا: بِأَنَّ النَّاسَ كَانُوا إذَا صَلُّوا تَرَكُوهُمْ وَلَمْ يَشْهَدُوا الْخُطْبَةَ، وَذَلِكَ لِأَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا يَلْعَنُونَ عَلِيَّ بْنَ أَبِي طَالِبٍ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ -، فَكَانَ الْمُسْلِمُونَ يَفِرُّونَ، وَحُقَّ لَهُمْ،

L8784 And they argued that people, when they prayed, would leave the imam and congregation rather than attend the sermon – this being because they [the preachers] used to curse Ali ibn Abi Talib (may Allah be pleased with him).

Thus the Muslims would rightfully withdraw, as was their due. How much more so when sitting for the sermon is not obligatory? Hammam ibn Ahmad narrated to us, who narrated from Abbas ibn Asbagh, who narrated from Muhammad ibn Abd al-Malik ibn Ayman, who narrated from Ahmad ibn Zuhayr ibn Harb, who narrated from Abdullah ibn Ahmad al-Kirmānī, who narrated from al-Fadl ibn Musa al-Sinānī, from Ibn Jurayj, from Ata ibn Abi Rabah, from Abdullah ibn al-Sa'ib, who said: "I attended the Eid prayer with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him). He prayed, then said (peace be upon him): 'We have completed the prayer. Whoever wishes to sit for the sermon may sit, and whoever wishes to leave may leave.'"[32]

L8785 Abu Muhammad said: If it is said, "Did Muhammad ibn al-Sabbah transmit it as mursal from al-Fadl ibn Musa?" We respond: Yes, then what? The musnid possesses additional knowledge not present with the mursil. How, when most of our opponents say: "The mursal and the musnad are equivalent"?

L8786–8787 It has been narrated to us through the chain of Ibn Jurayj from ʿAṭāʾ, who said: Attending the sermon is not an obligation upon the people—meaning during the two Eids—and the narrations on this matter are exceedingly numerous.

L8788 A question regarding the Eid prayers for slaves, free individuals, non-travelers, travelers, and women.

L8789 Issue 544: Both Eid prayers are to be performed by the enslaved and the free, the resident and the traveler, those praying alone, women and groups of women - in every settlement, whether small or large, as we mentioned. However, one praying alone does not deliver the sermon. If going to the prayer ground causes them hardship, they should pray in congregation at the congregational mosque. This is because the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings be upon him - (as we mentioned in our discussion about prayer shortening during travel and Friday prayer) established that Eid prayer consists of two units. This constitutes a general ruling that cannot be restricted فَكَيْفَ وَلَيْسَ الْجُلُوسُ لِلْخُطْبَةِ وَاجِبًا؟ حَدَّثَنَا حَمَامُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا عَبَّاسُ بْنُ أَصْبَغَ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ بْنِ أَيْمَنَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ زُهَيْرِ بْنِ حَرْبٍ ثنا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ الْكَرْمَانِيُّ ثنا الْفَضْلُ بْنُ مُوسَى السِّينَانِيُّ عَنِ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ هُوَ ابْنُ أَبِي رَبَاحٍ - عَنْ «عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ السَّائِبِ قَالَ شَهِدْتُ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - الْعِيدَ فَصَلَّى، ثُمَّ قَالَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: قَدْ قَضَيْنَا الصَّلَاةَ فَمَنْ أَحَبَّ أَنْ يَجْلِسَ لِلْخُطْبَةِ فَلْيَجْلِسْ، وَمَنْ أَحَبَّ أَنْ يَذْهَبَ فَلْيَذْهَبْ» .

without explicit textual evidence. Allah the Exalted says: "And do good" (22:77), and prayer is inherently good. We know of no disagreement on this matter except Abū Ḥanīfah's opinion that the two Eid prayers are only performed in a city with a congregational mosque. Their evidence holds no validity except for something we reported through ʿAlī: "There is no Friday prayer nor Tashrīq prayers except in a city with a congregational mosque."[33]

L8790 We have previously stated that there is no binding authority in anyone other than the Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace.

L8791–8793 If the statement of ʿAlī—may Allah be pleased with him—constitutes authoritative evidence in this matter, then it has indeed been transmitted to us through the chain of... From Abd al-Rahman ibn Mahdi, who reported from Shuʿbah; Muhammad ibn al-Nuʿman narrated to us from Abu Qays, from Huzayl ibn Shurahbil: Did Ali ibn Abi Talib command a man to lead the weak people in praying four rakʿahs in the mosque on the day of Eid? If they weaken this narration, respond to them: It is stronger than the narration you have relied upon from him or of similar strength, and there is no difference. All of them are in consensus that the prayers of the two Eids are performed where the Jumuʿah prayer is performed.

L8794 We have mentioned the ruling of the Friday prayer, and there is no difference between the two Eid prayers and [Friday prayer] in their locations. It has been narrated to us from ʿUmar and ʿUthmān—may Allah be pleased with them—that they performed the Eid prayer with the people in the mosque due to rain that fell on Eid day. The Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—would go out to the prayer ground for the two Eid prayers, and this is preferable. However, praying elsewhere suffices, as it is based on practice rather than obligation. And success is from Allah, the Most High.

women should stay away from the prayer area, while those in a state of purity should pray with the people. Whoever does not have a jilbab should borrow one and go out. When the imam finishes the sermon, we prefer that he come to them to admonish them and encourage them to give charity. It is recommended for them to give charity on that day with whatever is easy.

Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah narrated to us: Ibrahim ibn Ahmad narrated to us: al-Farbari narrated to us: al-Bukhari narrated to us: Abu Ma'mar—who is Abdullah ibn Amr al-Raqqi—narrated to us: Abd al-Warith—who is Ibn Sa'id al-Tannuri—narrated to us: Ayyub al-Sikhtiyani narrated from Hafsa bint Sirin, who said: "We used to prevent our young girls from going out on Eid. When Umm 'Atiyya arrived, I went to her and asked her: She said, 'From the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—that he said: Let adolescent girls who are secluded (or he said: and those who are secluded)'"—Ayyub was uncertain—"'and menstruating women go out. Menstruating women should stay away from the prayer area, and let them witness the good and the supplication of the believers.'"

L8797–8799 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us; Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us; Muslim ibn Al-Hajjaj narrated to us; ʿAmr al-Naqid narrated to us; Isa ibn Yunus narrated to us; Hisham—he is the son of Ḥassān—narrated from Hafsah bint Sirin, from Umm ʿAṭiyyah, who said: "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) commanded us." That we bring them out on Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha: adolescent girls, menstruating women, and women of screened chambers. As for the menstruating women, they should abstain from prayer but participate in the communal good and the Muslims' invocation. I said, "O Messenger of Allah, what if one of us has no cloak?" He said, "Let her sister clothe her from her own cloak."[34]

L8800 With the aforementioned chain to Al-Bukhari: Isḥāq ibn Ibrāhīm ibn Naṣr narrated to us – from ʿAbd al-Razzāq – from Ibn Jurayj – from ʿAṭāʾ, who said: I heard Jābir ibn ʿAbd Allāh say: "The Prophet (peace be upon him)

L8801 I said to 'Ata', "Do you truly consider it an obligation upon the Imam to go to them and remind them?" He replied, "It is indeed an obligation upon them, and why should they not do it?" With the aforementioned chain to Muslim: Muhammad ibn Rafi' and 'Abd ibn Humaid both narrated to me from 'Abd al-Razzaq: I am Ibn Jurayj [who says]: al-Hasan ibn Muslim informed me from Tawus, from Ibn 'Abbas, who said: "I attended the Eid al-Fitr prayer with the Prophet of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), Abu Bakr, 'Umar, and 'Uthman. All of them performed the prayer before the sermon and then delivered the sermon. The Prophet of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) descended, and it is as if I am looking at him when the men sat by his hand. Then he turned and made his way through them until he came to the women, accompanied by Bilal. He recited: 'O Prophet, when believing women come to you pledging not to associate anything with Allah…' [Al-Mumtahanah 60:12]. Then he asked: 'Are you committed to this?' A single woman among them—none else answered him—replied: 'Yes, O Prophet of Allah.' He said: 'Then give in charity.' Bilal spread out his garment and said: 'Come forth, may my parents be your ransom!' They began casting their anklets and rings into Bilal's garment."[35]

L8802–8803 These are mass-transmitted reports from the Prophet (peace be upon him) through chains including Jābir, Ibn ʿAbbās, and others, confirming that he (peace be upon him) approved women's presence at the prayer ground and commanded it. Therefore, there is no validity to the statement of anyone opposing him, nor does the opponent have any basis except a narration from Ibn ʿUmar stating that he prohibited them - though contradictory reports are narrated from Ibn ʿUmar himself. It is impermissible to assume anything about Ibn ʿUmar except that when he prohibited them, the command of Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him) had not reached him. When it reached him, he reverted to the truth, as he did when he severely rebuked his son upon hearing him say: “Do we prevent women from going to mosques at night?”

L8804 There is no valid argument for anyone against the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him. Even if one were to assert a consensus on the permissibility of women going out to the two Eids and that it is unlawful to prevent them, they would be believed. For we have no doubt that every Companion who witnessed this—may Allah be pleased with them—or learned of it through reports from those who were not present, submitted, consented, and obeyed. Whoever prohibits this opposes both the consensus and the Sunnah.

L8805 A juristic point on Eid etiquette: changing one’s route [after prayers].

L8806 Issue 546: It is recommended to travel to the Eid prayer via one route and return by another. If this is not feasible, there is no harm, as this practice has been reported from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), though the narration concerning it is not strong.

L8807 An issue: Eid coincided on the day of Friday.

L8808 547 - Issue: When Eid coincides on a Friday, the Eid prayer must be performed first, then the Friday prayer without exception. There is no valid report contradicting this, for its narrators include Isra’il and ’Abd al-Humayd ibn Ja’far, who are not strong [narrators]. There is no burden upon our opponents to cite them as evidence if their narration aligns with their adherence, but here they contradict their own reports. As for Isra’il’s narration, he reported from ’Uthman ibn al-Mughirah from Iyas ibn Abi Ramlah: “I heard Mu’awiyah ask Zayd ibn Arqam: ’Did you witness Eid and Friday [coinciding] with Allah’s Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him?’ He replied: ’Yes. He prayed the Eid prayer early in the day, then granted concession regarding the Friday prayer.”’

L8809–8810 Abd al-Humayd ibn Ja‘far narrated: Wahb ibn Kaysān reported to me, saying:

وَلَا حُجَّةَ فِي أَحَدٍ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَلَوْ ادَّعَى امْرُؤٌ الْإِجْمَاعَ عَلَى صِحَّةِ خُرُوجِ النِّسَاءِ إلَى الْعِيدَيْنِ، وَأَنَّهُ لَا يَحِلُّ مَنْعُهُنَّ -: لَصُدِّقَ، لِأَنَّنَا لَا نَشُكُّ فِي أَنَّ كُلَّ مَنْ حَضَرَ ذَلِكَ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - أَوْ بَلَغَهُ مِمَّنْ لَمْ يَحْضُرْ -: فَقَدْ سَلَّمَ وَرَضِيَ وَأَطَاعَ، وَالْمَانِعُ مِنْ هَذَا مُخَالِفٌ لِلْإِجْمَاعِ وَلِلسُّنَّةِ

"Two Eids coincided during the reign of Ibn al-Zubayr. He delayed his departure until the day had advanced, then went out, delivered a sermon and prolonged it. Thereafter, he came down and prayed two rak'ahs, but he did not lead the people in the Friday prayer that day." Ibn 'Abbās remarked: "He correctly observed the Sunnah."

Abu Muhammad said: The Friday prayer is obligatory and the Eid prayer is voluntary, and the voluntary prayer does not absolve one from the obligatory prayer.

[The issue of the takbīr of the night of Eid al-Fiṭr]

Issue 548: The takbīr during the night of Eid al-Fiṭr is obligatory, whereas during the night of Eid al-Aḍḥā, it is meritorious.

And He had mentioned the fasting of Ramadan, [saying]: "So that you may complete the prescribed period and glorify Allah for having guided you" [Al-Baqarah: 185].[36]

Upon completing the number of fasting days in Ramadan, it becomes obligatory to recite Takbīr, and a single Takbīr suffices for this obligation.

As for the night preceding Eid al-Adḥā and its day, and the day of Eid al-Fiṭr: no command has been issued regarding it, but the Takbīr is an act of goodness and earns reward.

An issue regarding eating on the day of Eid al-Fitr before the morning departure to the prayer place.

549 - Issue: It is recommended to eat on the day of Eid al-Fitr before proceeding to the prayer ground. If one does not do so, there is no blame provided he does not disregard the Sunnah in this matter. If one eats on the day of Eid al-Adha before proceeding to the prayer ground, there is no harm. If he delays eating until partaking of his sacrificial offering, that is preferable. Fasting on these two days is fundamentally impermissible. Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah narrated to us; Ibrahim ibn Ahmad narrated to us; al-Farbari narrated to us; al-Bukhari narrated to us; Muhammad ibn Abd al-Rahim said: Sa'id ibn Sulayman informed us; Hushaym informed us; Ubaydullah ibn Abi Bakr ibn Anas informed us. Anas reported: "The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) would not go out in the morning on Eid al-Fitr until he had eaten dates."[37]

L8821 Abu Muhammad said: It becomes incumbent on whoever obligates this to obligate dates, to the exclusion of anything else.

L8822 It was narrated to us through the chain of Abd al-Razzaq from Ma'mar from Ayyub al-Sikhtiyani from Nafi', who said: "Ibn Umar would go out early from the mosque on Eid al-Fitr, and I do not know that he ate anything."

L8823 From Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī, from ʿAlqamah and al-Aswad: That Ibn Masʿūd said, "Do not eat before going out on the day of al-Fiṭr, if you wish?" And from Sufyān al-Thawrī, from Manṣūr, from Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī, who said, "If he wishes, he may eat on the day of al-Fiṭr and al-Aḍḥā; if he wishes, he may abstain?"

L8824 [An Issue Regarding the Voluntary Prayer in the Prayer Area Before the Eid Prayer and After It]

L8825 550 – Issue: Voluntary prayer performed in the musalla [prayer area] before the two [obligatory] prayers is commendable. If one does not do so, there is no sin, for voluntary prayer is an act of righteousness.

L8826 If it is said: It has been established that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—did not pray before the two Eids or after them? We respond: Yes, because he—peace and blessings be upon him—was the Imam, and his coming coincided directly with the Takbīr for the Eid prayer without any interval. He—peace and blessings be upon him—never prohibited praying in the prayer area before or after Eid prayer—neither through obligation nor through declaring them discouraged. Had they been disliked, he—peace and blessings be upon him—would have clarified them.

فَإِنْ قِيلَ: قَدْ صَحَّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لَمْ يُصَلِّ قَبْلَهُمَا، وَلَا بَعْدَهُمَا؟ قُلْنَا: نَعَمْ، لِأَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - كَانَ الْإِمَامَ، وَكَانَ مَجِيئُهُ إلَى التَّكْبِيرِ لِصَلَاةِ الْعِيدِ بِلَا فَصْلٍ، وَلَمْ يَنْهَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - قَطُّ - لَا بِإِيجَابٍ وَلَا بِكَرَاهَةٍ - عَنْ التَّنَفُّلِ فِي الْمُصَلَّى قَبْلَ صَلَاةِ الْعِيدِ وَبَعْدَهَا، وَلَوْ كَانَتْ مَكْرُوهَةً لَبَيَّنَهَا - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -.

وَقَدْ صَحَّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لَمْ يَزِدْ قَطُّ فِي لَيْلَةٍ عَلَى ثَلَاثَ عَشْرَةَ رَكْعَةً، أَفَتَكْرَهُونَ الزِّيَادَةَ أَوْ تَمْنَعُونَ مِنْهَا؟ فَمِنْ قَوْلِهِمْ: لَا، فَيُقَالُ لَهُمْ: فُرِّقُوا وَلَا سَبِيلَ إِلَى فَرْقٍ

L8827 It has been authentically established that the Messenger of Allah—may peace and blessings be upon him—never performed more than thirteen rakʿahs (prayer units) in a single night. Do you then consider this increase disliked or prohibit it? If they say, “No,” it is said to them: “Be divided! But there is no way to achieve such division.”

وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ قَتَادَةَ: كَانَ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ، وَأَنَسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ، وَالْحَسَنُ، وَأَخُوهُ سَعِيدٌ، وَجَابِرُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ يُصَلُّونَ قَبْلَ خُرُوجِ الْإِمَامِ وَبَعْدَهُ: يَعْنِي فِي الْعِيدَيْنِ؟ وَعَنْ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ قَالَ: رَأَيْت أَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ وَالْحَسَنَ يُصَلِّيَانِ قَبْلَ صَلَاةِ الْعِيدِ.

L8828 It was narrated to us from Qatādah that Abū Hurayrah, Anas ibn Mālik, al-Ḥasan, his brother Saʿīd, and Jābir ibn Zayd used to pray before the Imam comes out to lead and after he had done so—meaning during the two Eids? And from Maʿmar, from Ayyūb al-Sakhtiyānī, who said: I saw Anas ibn Mālik and al-Ḥasan praying before the Eid prayer.

وَعَنْ مُعْتَمِرِ بْنِ سُلَيْمَانَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: رَأَيْت أَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ، وَالْحَسَنَ، وَأَخَاهُ سَعِيدًا، وَأَبَا الشَّعْثَاءِ جَابِرَ بْنَ زَيْدٍ: يُصَلُّونَ يَوْمَ الْعِيدِ قَبْلَ خُرُوجِ الْإِمَامِ.

L8829–8831 And from Mu’tamir ibn Sulayman, from his father, who said: I saw Anas ibn Malik, al-Hasan, and his [al-Hasan’s] brother. Sa‘īd and Abā al-Sha‘thā’ Jābir ibn Zayd: They pray on the Day of Eid before the Imam emerges.

وَعَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ: أَنَّهُ أَتَى الْمُصَلَّى فَرَأَى النَّاسَ يُصَلُّونَ، فَقِيلَ لَهُ فِي ذَلِكَ فَقَالَ: لَا أَكُونُ الَّذِي يَنْهَى عَبْدًا إذَا صَلَّى

L8832 From Ali ibn Abi Talib: He came to the outdoor prayer ground and saw the people praying. When he was asked about this, he said: “I will not be the one to forbid a servant when he prays.”

[مَسْأَلَةُ التَّكْبِيرُ فِي الْأَضْحَى وَأَيَّامِ التَّشْرِيقِ وَيَوْمِ عَرَفَةَ]

A Juristic Question: The Takbīr in Eid al-Adhā, the Days of Tashrīq, and the Day of ʿArafah ٥٥١ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَالتَّكْبِيرُ إثْرَ كُلِّ صَلَاةٍ، وَفِي الْأَضْحَى، وَفِي أَيَّامِ التَّشْرِيقِ، وَيَوْمِ عَرَفَةَ -: حَسَنٌ كُلُّهُ؛ لِأَنَّ التَّكْبِيرَ فِعْلُ خَيْرٍ، وَلَيْسَ هَهُنَا أَثَرٌ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِتَخْصِيصِ الْأَيَّامِ الْمَذْكُورَةِ دُونَ غَيْرِهَا.

L8833–8834 Issue 551: The recitation of takbīr after every prayer, during Eid al-Adhā, on the Days of Tashrīq [11th–13th of Dhū al-Ḥijjah], and on the Day of ʿArafah—all of this is commendable, for takbīr constitutes a virtuous act. There exists no authenticated report from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—that specifically designates these mentioned days for this practice to the exclusion of others.

وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ، وَأَبِي وَائِلٍ، وَأَبِي يُوسُفَ، وَمُحَمَّدٍ: اسْتِحْبَابَ التَّكْبِيرِ غَدَاةَ عَرَفَةَ إلَى آخِرِ أَيَّامِ التَّشْرِيقِ عِنْدَ الْعَصْرِ.

L8835 It is reported from Az-Zuhri, Abu Wa’il, Abu Yusuf, and Muhammad that it is recommended to recite Takbīr daily at the time of ʿAṣr, starting from the morning of the Day of ʿArafah until the end of the Days of Tashrīq.

L8836 From Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān and ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī, both from Sufyān al-Thawrī, from Abu Isḥāq al-Sabīʿī, from al-Aswad and the companions of Ibn Masʿūd, they said: Ibn Masʿūd would pronounce the takbīr starting at the Fajr prayer on the day of ʿArafah until the ʿAṣr prayer on the Day of Sacrifice.

وَعَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانِ، وَعَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ مَهْدِيٍّ كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ السَّبِيعِيِّ عَنْ الْأَسْوَدِ وَأَصْحَابِ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ: كَانَ ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ يُكَبِّرُ صَلَاةَ الصُّبْحِ يَوْمَ عَرَفَةَ إِلَى صَلَاةِ الْعَصْرِ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ.

L8837 Abd al-Rahman said in his narration: "God is the Greatest (Allahu Akbar), God is the Greatest (Allahu Akbar), There is no deity but God (La ilaha illa Allah), God is the Greatest (Allahu Akbar), God is the Greatest (Allahu Akbar), Praise be to God (Alhamdulillah)."

قَالَ عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ فِي رِوَايَتِهِ: اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ، اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ.

L8838 A similar opinion is reported from Alqamah, and this is the view of Abū Ḥanīfah. And from Ibn Umar: It extends from the Day of Sacrifice until the dawn prayer on the final day of the Days of al-Tashrīq.

وَعَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ مِثْلُ هَذَا، وَهُوَ قَوْلُ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ وَعَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: مِنْ يَوْمِ النَّحْرِ إِلَى صَلَاةِ الصُّبْحِ آخِرِ أَيَّامِ التَّشْرِيقِ.

L8839 Abū Muḥammad said: Whoever analogizes the takbīr of the days of Minā to that [of pilgrims] has erred, for he has analogized non-pilgrims to pilgrims. Scholars unanimously agree that they do not analogize non-pilgrims to pilgrims in the talbiyah; therefore, the same must apply to them regarding the takbīr.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: مَنْ قَاسَ ذَلِكَ عَلَى تَكْبِيرِ أَيَّامِ مِنًى فَقَدْ أَخْطَأَ، لِأَنَّهُ قَاسَ مَنْ لَيْسَ بِحَاجٍّ عَلَى الْحَاجِّ، وَلَمْ يَخْتَلِفُوا أَنَّهُمْ لَا يَقِيسُونَهُمْ عَلَيْهِمْ فِي التَّلْبِيَةِ، فَيَلْزَمُهُمْ مِثْلُ ذَلِكَ فِي التَّكْبِيرِ.

L8840 There is no validity to the claim that this applies exclusively to the appointed days, due to Allah's statement: "And let them mention the name of Allah on appointed days" [Al-Hajj: 28].[38] وَلَا مَعْنَى لِمَنْ قَالَ: إِنَّمَا ذَلِكَ فِي الْأَيَّامِ الْمَعْلُومَاتِ، لِقَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى {وَيَذْكُرُوا اسْمَ اللَّهِ فِي أَيَّامٍ مَعْلُومَاتٍ} [الحج: ٢٨] .

L8841–8843 He said: Indeed, the Day of Sacrifice is unanimously agreed upon as among the well-known matters, while what follows it is disputed because... An invalid claim. Has Allah the Exalted ever prohibited His remembrance on any day? There is no validity in restricting the prescribed rites to the Day of Slaughter (Yawm al-Naḥr), for the Qur'anic text explicitly prohibits this, as stated by Him the Exalted: {from what He has provided them of grazing livestock} [Al-Ḥajj 22:28].[39]

وَقَالَ: إِنَّ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ مُجْمَعٌ عَلَيْهِ أَنَّهُ مِنْ الْمَعْلُومَاتِ وَمَا بَعْدَهُ مُخْتَلَفٌ فِيهِ، لِأَنَّهُ دَعْوَى فَاسِدَةٌ، وَمَا حَجَرَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى قَطُّ ذِكْرَهُ فِي شَيْءٍ مِنْ الْأَيَّامِ؟ وَلَا مَعْنَى لِمَنْ اقْتَصَرَ بِالْمَعْلُومَاتِ عَلَى يَوْمِ النَّحْرِ، لِأَنَّ النَّصَّ يَمْنَعُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ، بِقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: {عَلَى مَا رَزَقَهُمْ مِنْ بَهِيمَةِ الْأَنْعَامِ} [الحج: ٢٨]

L8844 It has been authentically established that the Day of Arafah is not among the Days of Sacrifice, and that what follows the Day of Sacrifice is from the Days of Sacrifice. Thus, this assertion has been voided. And success is through Allah, the Most High.

L8845 Issue: It is an issue if one does not go out on the day of Eid al-Fitr or Eid al-Adha for the two Eid prayers.

L8846 Issue 552: Whoever does not go out on the day of Eid al-Fitr or the day of Eid al-Adha for the prayers of the two Eids should go out to perform their prayers the following day. If they do not go out in the morning, they may do so before the sun reaches its zenith, for this is an act of goodness. Allah the Exalted said: "And do good..." [Al-Hajj: 77].[40]

L8847 Abdullah ibn Rabee' narrated to us: Umar ibn Abd al-Malik narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Bakr narrated to us: Abu Dawud narrated to us: Hafs ibn Umar, who is al-Ḥawḍī, narrated to us: Shu'bah narrated from Jaʿfar ibn Abī Waḥshiyyah from Abū ʿUmayr ibn Anas ibn Mālik from his uncles among the companions of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) that a traveling party came to the Messenger of Allah bearing witness that they had sighted the crescent moon the previous day. He commanded them to break their fast, and when morning came, to proceed at dawn to their musalla.

L8848 Abu Muhammad said: This is an authentic chain of transmission, and it is conclusively established regarding Abu 'Umayr that he is fully aware of distinguishing those of his uncles whose companionship with the Prophet was valid from those whose companionship was not valid. This would only constitute a defect (ʿillah) for someone who might plausibly be unaware of such distinctions. All the Companions are reliable transmitters (ʿudūl)—may Allah be pleased with them—by virtue of Allah the Exalted's commendation of them.

L8849 This is the opinion of Abū Ḥanīfah and Al-Shāfiʿī. If one did not slaughter on the second day of Eid al-Adḥā but slaughtered on the third day, then they

A jurisprudential issue regarding singing, games, and dancing during the two Eid festivals.

Issue 553: Singing, playing, and dancing during the days of the two Eids are permissible in the mosque and elsewhere.

Narrated to us ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh, who narrated to us Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad, who narrated to us al-Farabrī, who narrated to us al-Bukhārī, who narrated to us [...] Ahmad ibn Salih narrated to us from Ibn Wahb—and I am Amr, he is Ibn al-Harith—that Muhammad ibn Abd al-Rahman, the orphan under the guardianship of Urwah, reported from Aisha, who said: "I entered the presence of Allah's Messenger—peace be upon him—while two young girls with me were singing songs of Bu'ath. He lay on his bed, turning his face aside. When Abu Bakr entered, he scolded me, saying: 'The little flute of Satan near Allah's Messenger!' The Prophet turned to him and said: 'Let them be.' When he became distracted, I gestured to the girls, and they left. It was the Eid day, and Ethiopians were performing with shields and spears. Perhaps I asked the Prophet, or perhaps he said: 'Would you like to watch?' I replied: 'Yes.' He positioned me behind him, with my cheek against his cheek, saying: 'Continue, O sons of Arfida (a term referring to Ethiopians)!' When I grew weary, he asked: 'Had enough?' I said: 'Yes.' He then said: 'Go now.'"

Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us: Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us: Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to me: Harun ibn Sa'id al-Ayli narrated to me: Ibn Wahb narrated to me: Amr ibn al-Harith reported that Ibn Shihab narrated to him from Urwah, from Aisha: That Abu Bakr entered upon her while she had two servant girls with her during the days of Mina, singing and beating a drum. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was lying covered with his garment. Abu Bakr rebuked them, but the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him)

L8857–8859 As reported in Muslim’s collection: Muḥammad ibn Rāfiʿ and ʿAbdullāh ibn Ḥumayd both narrated to me from ʿAbd al-Razzāq, who narrated from Maʿmar: I, Maʿmar, narrate from al-Zuhrī, from Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib, from Abū Hurayrah, who said: «While the Ethiopians were playing...» They were with their spears in the presence of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—when Umar ibn al-Khattab entered. He lunged toward them to pelt them with pebbles, but the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—said: “Leave them, O Umar.”

L8860 Abu Muhammad said: Where does the denial of those who denied stand compared to the denial of the two masters of this nation after its Prophet—Abu Bakr and Umar (may God be pleased with them)—when the Prophet (peace be upon him) disapproved of their denial, so they retracted their opinion and adhered to his statement?

صَلَاةُ الِاسْتِسْقَاءِ ٥٥٤ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: إنْ قَحَطَ النَّاسُ أَوْ اشْتَدَّ الْمَطَرُ حَتَّى يُؤْذِيَ فَلْيَدْعُ الْمُسْلِمُونَ فِي إدْبَارِ صَلَوَاتِهِمْ وَسُجُودِهِمْ وَعَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ، وَيَدْعُو الْإِمَامُ فِي خُطْبَةِ الْجُمُعَةِ.

prayer, and in all circumstances. The Imam should also supplicate during the Friday sermon.

L8864 Allah, the Exalted and Majestic, said: "And your Lord said, 'Call upon Me; I will respond to you'" (Al-Ghāfir 40:60).[42]

L8865 He, the Exalted, said: "Why did they not humble themselves when Our punishment came to them? But their hearts hardened" [Al-An'am: 43].[43]

L8866 If the Imam intends to go out specifically for the prayer for rain—not for other occasions—he should proceed humbly dressed and with humility to the designated prayer ground, accompanied by the people. He should begin by delivering a sermon to them, abundantly seeking forgiveness throughout it, and supplicating Allah, the Exalted and Glorious.

L8867 Then he turns his face toward the qiblah and his back toward the people, supplicating to Allah the Exalted while raising his hands with their backs toward the sky. He then turns his cloak or garment inside out—making the inner side outward and the upper part downward—and transfers what is on one shoulder to the other. The people likewise do this.

L8868 Then he leads them in two rakʿahs, just as we mentioned regarding the Eid Prayer, exactly the same, without an adhan or iqamah. However, in the prayer for rain (istisqa), the minbar is brought out to the musalla, whereas it is not brought out during the two Eids. When he concludes with the salutation, he departs, followed by the people.

L8869–8870 Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah narrated to us from Ibrahim ibn Ahmad from al-Farbari from al-Bukhari from Adam from Ibn Abi Dhi'b, who narrated from al-Zuhri from Abbad ibn Tamim from his uncle—Abdullah ibn Zayd al-Ansari—who said: "I saw the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—on the day he went out to perform the istisqa prayer. He turned his back to the people and faced the direction of prayer while supplicating. Then he turned his cloak inside out and prayed two units of prayer with us, reciting aloud in them."[44]

قَالَ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ: {وَقَالَ رَبُّكُمُ ادْعُونِي أَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ} [غافر: ٦٠] .

L8871 Abdullah ibn Rabi’ narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Mu’awiyah narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Shu’ayb narrated to us: I, Muhammad ibn ‘Ubayd, narrated to you: Hatim ibn Isma’il narrated from Hisham ibn Ishaq ibn Abdullah ibn Abi Kinanah, from his father, who said: “I asked Ibn Abbas about the Messenger of Allah’s prayer during the prayer for rain. He replied: ’The Messenger of Allah, may Allah’s peace and blessings be upon him, went out wearing simple clothes, humble and supplicating. He sat on the pulpit but did not deliver a sermon like these current sermons of yours. Instead, he remained ceaselessly engaged in humble entreaty, supplication, and proclaiming Allah’s greatness. He then prayed two units of prayer as he would pray on Eid.’”

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عُبَيْدٍ ثنا حَاتِمُ بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ إِسْحَاقَ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي كِنَانَةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: «سَأَلْتُ ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ عَنْ صَلَاةِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي الِاسْتِسْقَاءِ؟ فَقَالَ: خَرَجَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مُتَبَذِّلًا مُتَوَاضِعًا مُتَضَرِّعًا، فَجَلَسَ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فَلَمْ يَخْطُبْ خُطْبَتَكُمْ هَذِهِ، لَكِنْ لَمْ يَزَلْ فِي التَّضَرُّعِ، وَالدُّعَاءِ، وَالتَّكْبِيرِ، وَصَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ كَمَا كَانَ يُصَلِّي فِي الْعِيدِ» .

L8872 Abu Muhammad said: As for seeking forgiveness, it is based on the words of Allah, the Exalted: “Seek forgiveness from your Lord; indeed, He is the Abundantly Forgiving” [Nuh 71:10], “He will send the heavens pouring rain upon you” [Nuh 71:11], “And grant you wealth and children, and provide you with gardens and rivers” [Nuh 71:12].[45]

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: أَمَّا الِاسْتِغْفَارُ فَلِقَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {اسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّكُمْ إِنَّهُ كَانَ غَفَّارًا} [نوح: ١٠] {يُرْسِلِ السَّمَاءَ عَلَيْكُمْ مِدْرَارًا} [نوح: ١١] {وَيُمْدِدْكُمْ بِأَمْوَالٍ وَبَنِينَ وَيَجْعَلْ لَكُمْ جَنَّاتٍ وَيَجْعَلْ لَكُمْ أَنْهَارًا} [نوح: ١٢] .

L8873 The adjustment of the garment necessitates what we have mentioned—and this is entirely the position of our companions.

L8874 Mālik said: “Is advancing the sermon [before the prayer] permissible?” Al-Shāfiʿī said: “Is the prayer for rain like the Eid prayer?” It has been narrated to us from the Salaf contrary to this, and no one’s argument holds weight against the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: بِتَقْدِيمِ الْخُطْبَةِ؟ وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ: صَلَاةُ الِاسْتِسْقَاءِ كَصَلَاةِ الْعِيدِ؟ وَقَدْ رُوِّينَا عَنْ السَّلَفِ خِلَافَ هَذَا، وَلَا حُجَّةَ فِي أَحَدٍ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.

L8875 Narrated via the chain of ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī from Sufyān al-Thawrī from Abū Isḥāq al-Sabīʿī: Ibn al-Zubayr sent to ʿAbdullāh ibn Yazīd—al-Khiṭmī—to lead the people in istisqāʾ. He went out and performed istisqāʾ on their behalf, and among them were al-Barāʾ ibn ʿĀzib and Zayd ibn Arqam. He prayed, then delivered the sermon.

L8877 It has been narrated to us that ʿUmar went out to the muṣallā (prayer ground), supplicated for rain, then departed without praying (ṣalāt).

L8878–8880 Abu Muhammad said: Jews, Zoroastrians, or Christians are not to be prevented from going out to... The prayer for rain (istisqā') is restricted exclusively to supplicatory acts, and it is not permissible to ring a church bell nor anything that contradicts the religion of Islam. Success comes from Allah alone, the Most High.

L8881 ## The Solar Eclipse Prayer

L8882 555 - Issue: The eclipse prayer is observed in different forms. One of them is to perform two units of prayer (rak'ahs) like other voluntary prayers - this applies to the solar eclipse and also to the lunar eclipse. It was narrated to us by Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah, who narrated from Ibrahim ibn Ahmad, who narrated from al-Farbari, who narrated from al-Bukhari, who narrated from Abu Ma'mar, who narrated from Abd al-Warith ibn Sa'id al-Tannuri, who narrated from Yunus ibn Ubayd, from al-Hasan, from Abu Bakrah, who said: "A solar eclipse occurred during the time of Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him). He rushed out dragging his cloak until he reached the mosque. The people gathered, and he led them in two units of prayer. Then the eclipse cleared. He said: 'The sun and moon are two signs among Allah's signs. They do not eclipse for anyone's death. When this occurs, pray and supplicate until what afflicts you is removed.' This happened when a son of the Prophet (peace be upon him) named Ibrahim had died, and some people spoke about that."

L8883–8885 Abdullah ibn Rabee' narrated to us; Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb narrated to us; Amr ibn Ali narrated to us; Yazid—that is, Ibn Zurāʿ—narrated to us; Yunus—that is, Ibn ʿUbayd—narrated from Al-وَرُوِّينَا: أَنَّ عُمَرَ خَرَجَ إِلَى الْمُصَلَّى فَدَعَا فِي الِاسْتِسْقَاءِ، ثُمَّ انْصَرَفَ وَلَمْ يُصَلِّ.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: وَلَا يُمْنَعُ الْيَهُودُ، وَلَا الْمَجُوسُ، وَلَا النَّصَارَى: مِنْ الْخُرُوجِ إلَى الِاسْتِسْقَاءِ لِلدُّعَاءِ فَقَطْ، وَلَا يُبَاحُ لَهُمْ إخْرَاجُ نَاقُوسٍ وَلَا شَيْءَ يُخَالِفُ دِينَ الْإِسْلَامِ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ

[صَلَاةُ الْكُسُوفِ]

٥٥٥ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: صَلَاةُ الْكُسُوفِ عَلَى وُجُوهٍ -: أَحَدُهَا - أَنْ تُصَلِّيَ رَكْعَتَيْنِ كَسَائِرِ التَّطَوُّعِ، وَهَذَا فِي كُسُوفِ الشَّمْسِ، وَفِي كُسُوفِ الْقَمَرِ أَيْضًا -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ثنا إبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا أَبُو مَعْمَرٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَارِثِ هُوَ ابْنُ سَعِيدٍ التَّنُّورِيُّ - ثنا يُونُسُ هُوَ ابْنُ عُبَيْدٍ - عَنْ الْحَسَنِ عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ قَالَ: «خَسَفَتْ الشَّمْسُ عَلَى عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَخَرَجَ يَجُرُّ رِدَاءَهُ، حَتَّى انْتَهَى إلَى الْمَسْجِدِ، فَثَابَ النَّاسُ فَصَلَّى بِهِمْ رَكْعَتَيْنِ، فَانْجَلَتْ الشَّمْسُ، فَقَالَ: إنَّ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ آيَتَانِ مِنْ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ، وَإِنَّهُمَا لَا يُخْسَفَانِ لِمَوْتِ أَحَدٍ، وَإِذَا كَانَ ذَلِكَ فَصَلُّوا وَادْعُوا حَتَّى يُكْشَفَ مَا بِكُمْ، وَذَلِكَ أَنَّ ابْنًا لِلنَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مَاتَ، يُقَالُ لَهُ: إبْرَاهِيمُ، فَقَالَ نَاسٌ فِي ذَلِكَ»

Hasan, from Abu Bakrah: "We were with the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—when the sun was eclipsed. He rushed to the mosque, hurriedly dragging his cloak, and the people followed him. He prayed two rak'ahs in the manner they pray. When the eclipse ended, he delivered a sermon to us, saying: 'The sun and the moon are two signs among Allah's signs, through which Allah instills fear in His servants. They do not eclipse due to the death of anyone nor for anyone's life.'" So when you see the eclipse of one of the two (the sun or the moon), pray the eclipse prayer until it clears.

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا يَزِيدُ هُوَ ابْنُ زُرَيْعٍ ثنا يُونُسُ هُوَ ابْنُ عُبَيْدٍ - عَنْ الْحَسَنِ عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ «كُنَّا عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَانْكَسَفَتْ الشَّمْسُ، فَقَامَ إلَى الْمَسْجِدِ يَجُرُّ رِدَاءَهُ مِنْ الْعَجَلَةِ، فَقَامَ إلَيْهِ النَّاسُ، فَصَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ كَمَا يُصَلُّونَ، فَلَمَّا انْجَلَتْ خَطَبَنَا، فَقَالَ: إنَّ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ آيَتَانِ مِنْ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ يُخَوِّفُ اللَّهُ بِهِمَا عِبَادَهُ وَإِنَّهُمَا لَا يَنْكَسِفَانِ لِمَوْتِ أَحَدٍ وَلَا لِحَيَاتِهِ فَإِذَا رَأَيْتُمْ كُسُوفَ أَحَدِهِمَا فَصَلُّوا حَتَّى يَنْجَلِيَ» .

L8886 And it has also been narrated to us similarly from Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas on the day when Ibrahim, the son of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), died, except that the narration mentions a prolongation of bowing, prostration, and standing.

وَرُوِّينَا نَحْوَ هَذَا أَيْضًا عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ يَوْمَ مَاتَ إبْرَاهِيمُ ابْنُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إلَّا أَنَّ فِيهِ تَطْوِيلَ الرُّكُوعِ وَالسُّجُودِ وَالْقِيَامِ.

L8887 A group of the Salaf followed this practice, including Abdullah ibn al-Zubayr who prayed two rak'ahs during the solar eclipse like regular prayers. If it is asked: "Did his brother Urwa deem him mistaken?"

فَأَخَذَ بِهَذَا طَائِفَةٌ مِنْ السَّلَفِ -: مِنْهُمْ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الزُّبَيْرِ: صَلَّى فِي الْكُسُوفِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ كَسَائِرِ الصَّلَوَاتِ: فَإِنْ قِيلَ: قَدْ خَطَّأَهُ أَخُوهُ عُرْوَةُ؟

L8888 We said: Urwah is more deserving of being in error because Abdullah is a Companion while Urwah is not a Companion. Abdullah acted with knowledge, whereas Urwah rejected what he did not know.

قُلْنَا: عُرْوَةُ أَحَقُّ بِالْخَطَأِ، لِأَنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ صَاحِبٌ، وَعُرْوَةَ لَيْسَ بِصَاحِبٍ وَعَبْدُ اللَّهِ عَمِلَ بِعِلْمٍ، وَأَنْكَرَ عُرْوَةُ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ.

L8889 This is the position upheld by Abu Hanifa.

وَبِهَذَا يَقُولُ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ.

L8890 Abū Muḥammad said: This method entails praying in congregation for both solar and lunar eclipses. If one were to perform this prayer at every sign that appears—such as an earthquake or similar event—it would be commendable, for it is a righteous deed. If he wishes, he may pray two rak'ahs and give the salutation, then pray another two rak'ahs and give the salutation, continuing thus until the eclipse of the sun and moon clears, along with the signs as we mentioned. ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Isḥāq ibn as-Salīm narrated to us: Ibn al-Aʿrābī narrated to us: Abū Dāwūd narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Abī Shuʿayb al-Ḥarrānī narrated to us: al-Ḥārith

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: وَهَذَا الْوَجْهُ يُصَلَّى لِكُسُوفِ الشَّمْسِ، وَلِكُسُوفِ الْقَمَرِ فِي جَمَاعَةٍ، وَلَوْ صَلَّى ذَلِكَ عِنْدَ كُلِّ آيَةٍ تَظْهَرُ - مِنْ زَلْزَلَةٍ أَوْ نَحْوِهَا - لَكَانَ حَسَنًا، لِأَنَّهُ فِعْلُ خَيْرٍ وَإِنْ شَاءَ صَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَيُسَلِّمُ، ثُمَّ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَيُسَلِّمُ، هَكَذَا حَتَّى يَنْجَلِيَ الْكُسُوفُ فِي الشَّمْسِ وَالْقَمَرِ، وَالْآيَاتُ كَمَا ذَكَرْنَا حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ إسْحَاقَ بْنِ السَّلِيمِ ثنا ابْنُ الْأَعْرَابِيِّ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ أَبِي شُعَيْبٍ الْحَرَّانِيُّ ثنا الْحَارِثُ بْنُ عُمَيْرٍ الْبَصْرِيُّ

ibn ʿUmayr al-Baṣrī narrated from Ayyūb as-Sikhtiyānī from Abī Qilābah from an-Nuʿmān ibn Bashīr who said: “The sun eclipsed during the time of Allah’s Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—so he began praying two rak’ahs each time and inquiring about it until it cleared.”[46]

عَنْ أَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي قِلَابَةَ عَنْ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيرٍ قَالَ: «كَسَفَتْ الشَّمْسُ عَلَى عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَجَعَلَ يُصَلِّي رَكْعَتَيْنِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ وَيَسْأَلُ عَنْهَا حَتَّى انْجَلَتْ» .

L8891 It has also been narrated to us that he (peace be upon him) said, “Pray until the sun rises,” from Abu Bakrah, as we mentioned previously.

وَرُوِّينَا أَيْضًا قَوْلَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - «فَصَلُّوا حَتَّى تَنْجَلِيَ» عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ، كَمَا ذَكَرْنَا آنِفًا.

L8892 From Al-Mughīrah ibn Shuʿbah, Ibn ʿUmar, and Abū Masʿūd—with chains of transmission in the highest degree of authenticity—and this wording entails what we have mentioned.

وَعَنْ الْمُغِيرَةِ بْنِ شُعْبَةَ، وَعَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، وَأَبِي مَسْعُودٍ، بِأَسَانِيدَ فِي غَايَةِ الصِّحَّةِ، وَهَذَا اللَّفْظُ يَقْتَضِي مَا ذَكَرْنَا.

L8893 This is the statement of a group from the Salaf — it was reported to us through the chain of Wakiʿ, from Sufyān al-Thawrī and al-Rabīʿ ibn Ṣubayḥ.

L8894–8896 And Sufyān said: from Al-Mughirah from Ibrahim An-Nakha’i, and Ar-Rabi’ said: From Al-Hasan. Then Al-Hasan and Ibrahim concurred, both stating regarding the eclipse prayer: “He prayed two sets of two rak’ahs each. If he wishes, he may remember Allah the Exalted and supplicate after saying Allahu Akbar to initiate the prayer while standing. When the eclipse recedes, he recites two surahs and prays two rak’ahs”—this applies to solar eclipses, lunar eclipses, and other celestial signs. Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath, Abdul-Wahhab ibn Isa, Ahmad ibn Muhammad, Ahmad ibn Ali, Muslim ibn Al-Hajjaj, Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah, Abdul-A’la ibn Abdul-A’la, Al-Jurayri, Hayyan ibn Umayr Abu Al-Ala, from Abdur-Rahman ibn Samurah—a companion of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him—who said: “I was practicing archery with my arrows in Medina during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, when the sun eclipsed. I cast them aside and vowed: ’By Allah, I shall observe what the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, does during this eclipse.’ I found him standing in prayer, raising his hands. He continued glorifying, praising, declaring Allah’s oneness, proclaiming Allahu يُسَبِّحُ وَيَحْمَدُ وَيُهَلِّلُ، وَيُكَبِّرُ، وَيَدْعُو حَتَّى حُسِرَ عَنْهَا، فَلَمَّا حُسِرَ عَنْهَا قَرَأَ سُورَتَيْنِ وَصَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ» .

L8897 If it is the case specifically for a solar eclipse—if it is eclipsed after the Fajr prayer until the time of Dhuhr prayer—he is to pray two rak'ahs as we have previously mentioned.

وَإِنْ شَاءَ لِكُسُوفِ الشَّمْسِ خَاصَّةً إِنْ كُسِفَتْ بَعْدَ صَلَاةِ الْفَجْرِ إِلَى أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ الظُّهْرَ -: صَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ كَمَا قَدَّمْنَا.

L8898 If a solar eclipse occurs from after the Zuhr prayer until the sun begins to set, one should pray four rak'ahs, like the Zuhr or Asr prayer. For a lunar eclipse exclusively: if it occurs after the Maghrib prayer until you perform the last Isha prayer, one should pray three rak'ahs, equivalent to the rak'ahs of Maghrib prayer.

وَإِنْ كُسِفَتْ مِنْ بَعْدِ صَلَاةِ الظُّهْرِ إِلَى أَخْذِهَا فِي الْغُرُوبِ: صَلَّى أَرْبَعَ رَكَعَاتٍ، كَصَلَاةِ الظُّهْرِ، أَوْ الْعَصْرِ وَفِي كُسُوفِ الْقَمَرِ خَاصَّةً: إِنْ كُسِفَ بَعْدَ صَلَاةِ الْمَغْرِبِ إِلَى أَنْ تُصَلِّيَ الْعِشَاءَ الْآخِرَةَ: صَلَّى ثَلَاثَ رَكَعَاتٍ كَصَلَاةِ الْمَغْرِبِ.

L8899–8900 And if the eclipse occurs after the Night Prayer until dawn, one should pray four units similar to the Night Prayer. Abdullah ibn Rabi' narrated to us, Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb narrated to us, Muhammad ibn Bashshar informed us, Abdul-Wahhab—that is, Ibn Abdul-Majid al-Thaqafi—narrated to us, Khalid—that is, al-Khaddā—narrated from Abu Qilabah from al-Nu'man ibn Bashir, who said: "The sun was eclipsed during the time of Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—so he rushed out dragging his garment in alarmed haste until he reached the mosque. He continued praying with us until the eclipse cleared. When it cleared, he said: 'Some people claim the sun and moon are eclipsed only for the death of a great one among the great ones, but this is not so. The sun and moon are not eclipsed for the death or life of anyone, but they are two signs among Allah's signs. When Allah manifests His majesty to anything of His creation, it humbles itself before Him. So when you witness this, pray as you would perform the most recent obligatory prayer.'"

وَإِنْ كُسِفَ بَعْدَ صَلَاةِ الْعَتَمَةِ إِلَى الصُّبْحِ: صَلَّى أَرْبَعًا: كَصَلَاةِ الْعَتَمَةِ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ هُوَ ابْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَجِيدِ الثَّقَفِيُّ - ثنا خَالِدٌ هُوَ الْحَذَّاءُ عَنْ أَبِي قِلَابَةَ عَنْ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيرٍ قَالَ: «انْكَسَفَتْ الشَّمْسُ عَلَى عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَخَرَجَ يَجُرُّ ثَوْبَهُ فَزِعًا، حَتَّى أَتَى الْمَسْجِدَ، فَلَمْ يَزَلْ يُصَلِّي بِنَا حَتَّى انْجَلَتْ فَلَمَّا انْجَلَتْ قَالَ: إِنَّ نَاسًا يَزْعُمُونَ أَنَّ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ لَا يَنْكَسِفَانِ إِلَّا لِمَوْتِ عَظِيمٍ مِنْ الْعُظَمَاءِ، وَلَيْسَ كَذَلِكَ، إِنَّ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ لَا يَنْكَسِفَانِ لِمَوْتِ أَحَدٍ وَلَا لِحَيَاتِهِ، وَلَكِنَّهُمَا آيَتَانِ مِنْ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى، وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ إِذَا تَجَلَّى لِشَيْءٍ مِنْ خَلْقِهِ خَشَعَ لَهُ فَإِذَا رَأَيْتُمْ ذَلِكَ فَصَلُّوا كَأَحْدَثِ صَلَاةٍ صَلَّيْتُمُوهَا مِنْ الْمَكْتُوبَةِ» .

L8901 If it is said: "Abū Qilābah narrated this ḥadīth from a man [who narrated it] from Qabīṣah al-ʿĀmirī?" We respond: "Yes—and what is the issue?" For Abū Qilābah met al-Nuʿmān and transmitted this narration from him.

فَإِنْ قِيلَ: إِنَّ أَبَا قِلَابَةَ قَدْ رَوَى هَذَا الْحَدِيثَ عَنْ رَجُلٍ عَنْ قَبِيصَةَ الْعَامِرِيِّ؟ قُلْنَا: نَعَمْ، فَكَانَ مَاذَا؟ وَأَبُو قِلَابَةَ قَدْ أَدْرَكَ النُّعْمَانَ فَرَوَى هَذَا الْخَبَرَ عَنْهُ.

وَرَوَاهُ أَيْضًا عَنْ آخَرَ فَحَدَّثَ بِكِلْتَا رِوَايَتَيْهِ، وَلَا وَجْهَ لِلتَّعَلُّلِ بِمِثْلِ هَذَا أَصْلًا وَلَا مَعْنًى لَهُ؟ وَإِنْ شَاءَ فِي كُسُوفِ الشَّمْسِ خَاصَّةً: صَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ، فِي كُلِّ رَكْعَةٍ رَكْعَتَانِ، يَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ، فَيَقْرَأُ.

L8902 He also narrated it from another source, thus relating both versions. Is there any valid basis for such a pretext whatsoever, or does it carry any meaning? If one wishes [to pray] specifically during a solar eclipse: he prays two rakʿahs. In each rakʿah, he performs two bowings: he recites, then bows, then rises, then recites again.

ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ فَيَقُولُ: " سَمِعَ اللَّهُ لِمَنْ حَمِدَهُ " ثُمَّ يَسْجُدُ سَجْدَتَيْنِ. ثُمَّ يَقُومُ فَيَرْكَعُ أُخْرَى، فِي كُلِّ رَكْعَةٍ رَكْعَتَانِ، كَمَا وَصَفْنَا، ثُمَّ يَسْجُدُ سَجْدَتَيْنِ، ثُمَّ يَجْلِسُ وَيَتَشَهَّدُ وَيُسَلِّمُ.

L8903 Then he bows, then he rises and says, "Allah hears the one who praises Him," then he prostrates twice. Then he stands and bows again, with two bowings in every rak'ah as we have described, then he prostrates twice. Then he sits and recites the Tashahhud and performs the taslīm.

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ مَالِكٍ، وَالشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَحْمَدَ، وَأَبِي ثَوْرٍ؟ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ثنا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْلَمَةَ عَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ زَيْدِ بْنِ أَسْلَمَ عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ: «انْخَسَفَتْ الشَّمْسُ عَلَى عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَصَلَّى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَقَامَ قِيَامًا طَوِيلًا نَحْوًا مِنْ قِرَاءَةِ سُورَةِ الْبَقَرَةِ، ثُمَّ رَكَعَ رُكُوعًا طَوِيلًا، ثُمَّ رَفَعَ فَقَامَ قِيَامًا طَوِيلًا وَهُوَ دُونَ الْقِيَامِ الْأَوَّلِ، ثُمَّ رَكَعَ رُكُوعًا طَوِيلًا وَهُوَ دُونَ الرُّكُوعِ الْأَوَّلِ، ثُمَّ سَجَدَ ثُمَّ قَامَ قِيَامًا طَوِيلًا وَهُوَ دُونَ الْقِيَامِ الْأَوَّلِ، ثُمَّ رَكَعَ رُكُوعًا طَوِيلًا وَهُوَ دُونَ الرُّكُوعِ الْأَوَّلِ ثُمَّ رَفَعَ فَقَامَ قِيَامًا طَوِيلًا وَهُوَ دُونَ الْقِيَامِ الْأَوَّلِ، ثُمَّ رَكَعَ رُكُوعًا طَوِيلًا وَهُوَ دُونَ الرُّكُوعِ الْأَوَّلِ، ثُمَّ سَجَدَ ثُمَّ انْصَرَفَ» .

L8904–8906 This is the opinion of Mālik, al-Shāfiʿī, Aḥmad, and Abū Thawr. ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh narrated to us; Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad narrated to us; al-Firabrī narrated to us; al-Bukhārī narrated to us; ʿAbd Allāh ibn Maslamah narrated to us, from Mālik ibn Zayd ibn Aslam, from ʿAṭāʾ ibn Yasār, on the authority of ʿAbd Allāh ibn ʿAbbās, who said: A solar eclipse occurred during the time of Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him). He prayed, standing for a prolonged duration comparable to reciting Surah al-Baqarah. Then he bowed a prolonged bowing. Then he rose and stood again for a prolonged duration - shorter than the first standing. Then he bowed another prolonged bowing - shorter than the first bowing. Then he prostrated.

He then stood again for a prolonged duration - shorter than the first standing. Then he bowed another prolonged bowing - shorter than the first bowing. Then he rose and stood again for a prolonged duration - shorter than the preceding standing. Then he bowed another prolonged bowing - shorter than the preceding bowing. Then he prostrated, then he concluded the prayer.

وَذَكَرَ بَاقِيَ الْخَبَرِ؟

L8907 Did he mention the rest of the report?

وَرُوِّينَا أَيْضًا مِثْلَهُ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا - وَإِنْ شَاءَ صَلَّى فِي كُسُوفِ الشَّمْسِ خَاصَّةً رَكْعَتَيْنِ فِي كُلِّ رَكْعَةٍ ثَلَاثُ رَكَعَاتٍ، يَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ فَيَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ، ثُمَّ

L8908 We have also been narrated a similar account from ʻĀʾishah—may Allah be pleased with her. If one wishes, he may pray during a solar eclipse specifically two rakʿahs, with each rakʿah containing three bowings: he recites, then bows, rises to recite again, then bows again, rises to recite once more, then bows, rises and says, "Samiʿa Allāhu li-man ḥamidah" ("Allah hears those who praise Him"), then performs two prostrations. He then stands and performs another rakʻah containing three bowings as described, rises again, prostrates, sits to recite the Tashahhud, and gives the Tasleem salutation?

يَرْفَعُ فَيَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ، ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ فَيَقُولُ: " سَمِعَ اللَّهُ لِمَنْ حَمِدَهُ " ثُمَّ يَسْجُدُ سَجْدَتَيْنِ: ثُمَّ يَقُومُ فَيَرْكَعُ أَيْضًا رَكْعَةً فِيهَا ثَلَاثُ رَكَعَاتٍ كَمَا ذَكَرْنَا، ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ ثُمَّ يَسْجُدُ، ثُمَّ يَجْلِسُ وَيَتَشَهَّدُ وَيُسَلِّمُ ؟ .

L8909 It has been narrated to us what is presumed to involve this act from Ibn Abbas - narrated through the chain of Hammad ibn Salamah: "I [Hammad] from Qatadah, from Abdullah ibn al-Harith, from Ibn Abbas: that he led the people in prayer during an earthquake in Basra. He stood with them, uttered takbir four times, then recited [Qur'an], then uttered takbir and bowed. Then he raised his head and uttered takbir four times, then recited as much as Allah willed him to recite, then uttered takbir and bowed."

L8910 And through the chain of Ma'mar from Qatadah and Asim al-Ahwal, both from Abdullah ibn al-Harith from Ibn Abbas, that he prayed in Basra during the earthquake and prolonged the qunoot, then bowed, then raised his head and prolonged the qunoot, then bowed, then raised his head and prolonged the qunoot, then bowed, then he prostrated, then prayed the second rak'ah likewise. Thus, it became three bowings in four prostrations. He said: "Is this how the Prayer of the Signs is performed?"

L8911 Qatādah said: Ḥudhayfah prayed the Prayer of the Signs (Ṣalāt al-Āyāt) in Al-Madā'in with his companions, like Ibn ʿAbbās's prayer for the signs—three rak'ahs followed by two prostrations. Did he do the same in the other rak'ah?

قَالَ قَتَادَةُ: صَلَّى حُذَيْفَةُ بِالْمَدَائِنِ بِأَصْحَابِهِ مِثْلَ صَلَاةِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ فِي الْآيَاتِ ثَلَاثَ رَكَعَاتٍ ثُمَّ سَجَدَ سَجْدَتَيْنِ، وَفَعَلَ فِي الْأُخْرَى مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ؟

L8912–8913 From the narration of Waki' through Hisham al-Dastuwa'i, from Qatadah, from 'Ata', from 'Ubayd ibn 'Umayr, from 'Aishah, the Mother of the Believers, who said: The Prayer of the Signs consists of six rak'ahs within four prostrations. If one wishes to pray specifically during a solar eclipse, he may perform two rak'ahs, with four bowings in each rak'ah: he recites, then bows, then rises and recites, then bows, then rises and recites, then bows, then rises and recites, then bows, then rises and says, "Allah hears those who praise Him," then prostrates twice. same manner, exactly alike, then sits to recite the Tashahhud and concludes with the Salam.

سَمِعَ اللَّهُ لِمَنْ حَمِدَهُ " ثُمَّ يَسْجُدُ سَجْدَتَيْنِ، ثُمَّ يَفْعَلُ فِي الثَّانِيَةِ كَذَلِكَ أَيْضًا سَوَاءً بِسَوَاءٍ، ثُمَّ يَجْلِسُ وَيَتَشَهَّدُ وَيُسَلِّمُ

L8914 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us, Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us, Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us, Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah narrated to us, Isma'il ibn Ulayyah narrated to us, from Sufyan al-Thawri, from Habib - who is Ibn Abi Thabit - from Tawus, from Ibn Abbas, who said: "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) prayed eight rak'ahs in four prostrations when the sun was eclipsed." A similar report is narrated from Ali (may Allah be pleased with him).

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ ثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ ثنا إِسْمَاعِيلُ ابْنُ عُلَيَّةَ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ حَبِيبٍ هُوَ ابْنُ أَبِي ثَابِتٍ - عَنْ طَاوُسٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ: «صَلَّى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - حِينَ كَسَفَتْ الشَّمْسُ ثَمَانِيَ رَكَعَاتٍ فِي أَرْبَعِ سَجَدَاتٍ» وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - مِثْلُ ذَلِكَ

L8915 By his chain to Muslim: Muhammad ibn al-Muthanna narrated to us, Yahya ibn Sa'id al-Qattan narrated to us from Sufyan al-Thawri, who narrated to us from Habib (the son of Abi Thabit) from Tawus, from Ibn Abbas, from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), that he prayed during an eclipse, reciting then bowing, then reciting then bowing, then reciting then bowing, then reciting then bowing, then prostrating. He said: "The second rak'ah was performed the same way."[47]

L8916 This is the statement of ʿAlī, as we have mentioned. Indeed, Ibn ʿAbbās and Ḥabīb ibn Abī Thābit also performed it. We have been narrated through the chain of ʿAbd al-Razzāq from Ibn Jurayj that Sulaymān al-Aḥwal informed him that Tawus informed him - that Ibn ʿAbbās prayed two rakʿahs when the sun was eclipsed upon the platform of Zamzam, performing four rakʿahs in each rakʿah.

L8917 From Sufyan al-Thawri, from Habib ibn Abi Thabit: He prayed two rak'ahs during the solar eclipse, with four bowings in each rak'ah, as narrated.

وَعَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ حَبِيبِ بْنِ أَبِي ثَابِتٍ: أَنَّهُ صَلَّى فِي كُسُوفِ الشَّمْسِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ، فِي كُلِّ رَكْعَةٍ أَرْبَعُ رَكَعَاتٍ، كَمَا رَوَى.

L8918–8920 And if he wishes, he may pray two rakʿahs exclusively for the solar eclipse, with five bowings in each rakʿah. He recites, then bows, then rises and recites, then bows, then rises and recites, then bows, then rises and recites, then bows, then rises and recites, then bows, then rises and prostrates twice. Then the second rakʿah is performed in the same manner, then he sits. Does he recite the Tashahhud and perform the Taslim?

وَإِنْ شَاءَ صَلَّى فِي كُسُوفِ الشَّمْسِ خَاصَّةً رَكْعَتَيْنِ، فِي كُلِّ رَكْعَةٍ خَمْسَ رَكَعَاتٍ، يَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ، ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ فَيَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ، ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ فَيَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ، ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ فَيَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ، ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ فَيَقْرَأُ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعُ، ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ ثُمَّ يَسْجُدُ سَجْدَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ الثَّانِيَةُ كَذَلِكَ أَيْضًا ثُمَّ يَجْلِسُ وَيَتَشَهَّدُ وَيُسَلِّمُ؟

L8921 Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated to us: Isḥāq ibn Ibrāhīm—known as Ibn Rāhawayh—narrated to us: Muʿādh ibn Hishām al-Dastawāʾī narrated to us, saying: My father narrated to me from Qatādah regarding the Prayer for Cosmic Phenomena, from ʿAṭāʾ ibn Abī Rabāḥ, from ʿUbayd ibn ʿUmayr, from ʿĀʾishah, the Mother of the Believers, that "the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) prayed six rakʿahs structured into four sets of prostrations."[48]

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ هُوَ ابْنُ رَاهْوَيْهِ - ثنا مُعَاذُ بْنُ هِشَامٍ الدَّسْتُوَائِيُّ حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي عَنْ قَتَادَةَ فِي صَلَاةِ الْآيَاتِ عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ أَبِي رَبَاحٍ عَنْ عُبَيْدِ بْنِ عُمَيْرٍ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أُمِّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ «أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - صَلَّى سِتَّ رَكَعَاتٍ فِي أَرْبَعِ سَجَدَاتٍ» .

L8922 We have also narrated it, clarified in the rulings of the solar eclipse in the same manner of action, through the narration of Ubayy ibn Kaʿb.

L8923 Through the narration of Waki' from al-Mubārak ibn Fuḍāla from al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī: that ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib prayed during an eclipse with ten rakʿahs accompanied by four prostrations. Abū Muḥammad said: All of this is of the highest authenticity from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—and from those who acted upon it among the Companions or the Followers. It is reported from al-ʿAlāʾ ibn Ziyād al-ʿAdawī—who was among the senior Followers—that the manner of the eclipse prayer is to recite, then bow; if the eclipse does not clear, he bows again, then rises and recites, repeating this process until the eclipse clears. When it clears, he prostrates, then performs the second rakʿah.

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ الْمُبَارَكِ بْنِ فُضَالَةَ عَنْ الْحَسَنِ الْبَصْرِيِّ: أَنَّ عَلِيَّ بْنَ أَبِي طَالِبٍ صَلَّى فِي كُسُوفٍ عَشْرَ رَكَعَاتٍ فِي أَرْبَعِ سَجَدَاتٍ؟ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: كُلُّ هَذَا فِي غَايَةِ الصِّحَّةِ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَعَمَّنْ عَمِلَ بِهِ مِنْ صَاحِبٍ أَوْ تَابِعٍ؟ وَرُوِيَ عَنْ الْعَلَاءِ بْنِ زِيَادٍ الْعَدَوِيِّ - وَهُوَ مِنْ كِبَارِ التَّابِعِينَ أَنَّ صِفَةَ صَلَاةِ الْكُسُوفِ: أَنْ يَقْرَأَ ثُمَّ يَرْكَعَ فَإِنْ لَمْ تَنْجَلِ رَكَعَ ثُمَّ رَفَعَ، فَقَرَأَ هَكَذَا أَبَدًا حَتَّى تَنْجَلِيَ، فَإِذَا انْجَلَتْ سَجَدَ ثُمَّ رَكَعَ الثَّانِيَةَ.

L8924 And from Isḥāq ibn Rāhawayh something similar to this? Abū Muḥammad said: It is impermissible to restrict oneself to some of these narrations while excluding others, for they all constitute Sunnan. Nor is it permissible to prohibit anything from the Sunnan.

[48] Hadith references (L8921): Sunan an-Nasai 1471.

فَأَمَّا مَالِكٌ: فَإِنَّهُ فِي اخْتِيَارِهِ بَعْضِ مَا رُوِيَ مِنْ طَرِيقِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، وَعَائِشَةَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا - وَتَقْلِيدُ أَصْحَابِهِ لَهُ فِي ذَلِكَ -: هَادِمُونَ أَصْلًا لَهُمْ كَبِيرًا، وَهُوَ أَنَّ الثَّابِتَ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ، وَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ خِلَافُ مَا رَوَيَا مِمَّا اخْتَارَهُ مَالِكٌ كَمَا أَوْرَدْنَا آنِفًا.

L8925 As for Mālik: regarding his selection of certain narrations transmitted through Ibn ʿAbbās and ʿĀ'ishah—may Allah be pleased with them—and his followers' adherence to him in this matter, they are destroying a great foundational principle of their own school. This principle asserts that the established positions of ʿĀ'ishah and Ibn ʿAbbās contradict the very reports they themselves narrated, which Mālik nonetheless selected, as we cited earlier.

L8926–8927 Among their foundational principles is that if a Companion is authentically reported to have acted contrary to what he narrated, this serves as evidence of its abrogation—for he would not abandon what he narrated except due to possessing knowledge of a Sunnah more authoritative than the one he abandoned. Yet is this not among the matters in which they contradicted themselves? As for Abū Ḥanīfa and those who emulated him, they opposed all that was narrated by claiming: "We have not found in the foundational sources the specifics of any of these acts?" Abū Muḥammad said: "This is a misguidance leading to apostasy from Islam, for they explicitly declare that no Sunnah of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—is to be followed, nor is any command of his to be obeyed, unless another ruling similar to this which they opposed is found in the rest of the religion. Moreover, this is sheer stupidity in speech."

وَلَيْتَ شِعْرِي مِنْ أَيْنَ وَجَبَ أَنْ لَا تُؤْخَذَ لِلَّهِ شَرِيعَةٌ إِلَّا حَتَّى تُوجَدَ أُخْرَى مِثْلُهَا وَإِلَّا فَلَا؟ وَمَا نَدْرِي هَذَا يَجِبُ، لَا بِدِينٍ وَلَا بِعَقْلٍ، وَلَا بِرَأْيٍ سَدِيدٍ، وَلَا بِقَوْلٍ مُتَقَدِّمٍ، وَمَا هُمْ بِأَوْلَى مِنْ آخَرَ، قَالَ: بَلْ لَا آخُذُ بِهَا حَتَّى أَجِدَ لَهَا نَظِيرَيْنِ أَوْ مِنْ ثَالِثٍ قَالَ: لَا حَتَّى أَجِدَ لَهَا ثَلَاثَ نَظَائِرَ؟ وَالزِّيَادَةُ مُمْكِنَةٌ لِمَنْ لَا دِينَ لَهُ وَلَا عَقْلَ وَلَا حَيَاءَ ثُمَّ نَقَضُوا هَذَا فَجَوَّزُوا صَلَاةَ الْخَوْفِ كَمَا جَوَّزُوهَا، وَلَمْ يَجِدُوا لَهَا فِي الْأُصُولِ نَظِيرًا، فِي أَنْ يَقِفَ الْمَأْمُومُ فِي الصَّلَاةِ بَعْدَ دُخُولِهِ فِيهَا مُخْتَارًا لِلْوُقُوفِ، لَا يُصَلِّي بِصَلَاةِ إِمَامِهِ، وَلَا يُتِمُّ مَا بَقِيَ عَلَيْهِ؟ وَجَوَّزُوا الْبِنَاءَ فِي الْحَدَثِ، وَلَمْ يَجِدُوا فِي الْأُصُولِ لَهَا نَظِيرًا، أَنْ يَكُونَ فِي صَلَاتِهِ بِلَا طَهَارَةٍ، ثُمَّ لَا يَعْمَلُ عَمَلَ صَلَاتِهِ، وَلَا هُوَ خَارِجٌ عَنْهَا، وَالْقَوْمُ

L8928 I wish I knew from where it became obligatory that no divine legislation for Allah may be adopted unless another like it is found—otherwise not? We do not know this being obligatory—not by religion, reason, sound opinion, nor prior statement. They have no greater right than others. One said: "Rather, I will not adopt it until I find two parallels for it," while a third said: "No, until I find three parallels?" Such additions are possible only for those without religion, intellect, or shame. Then they invalidated this by permitting the prayer of fear as they sanctioned it, though finding no precedent in foundational principles for a follower to voluntarily pause in prayer after entering it—not praying in accordance with his imam's prayer nor completing what remains upon him. They permitted resuming prayer after ritual impurity without finding any analogy in foundational principles for one remaining in prayer without purification—neither performing its acts nor exiting it. Do these people not care about what they have said?

Abu Hanifa and Malik stated: “One does not recite aloud during the eclipse prayer.” Those arguing for them claimed: “Had Allah’s Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—recited aloud, what he recited would have been known.” Abu Muhammad said: “This argument is invalid, for what he recited is indeed known.”

لَا يُبَالُونَ بِمَا قَالُوا؟ وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ، وَمَالِكٌ: لَا يَجْهَرُ فِي صَلَاةِ الْكُسُوفِ وَقَالَ مَنْ احْتَجَّ لَهُمْ: لَوْ جَهَرَ فِيهَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لَعُرِفَ بِمَا قَرَأَ؟ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: هَذَا احْتِجَاجٌ فَاسِدٌ، وَقَدْ عُرِفَ مَا قَرَأَ؟

L8929 Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah narrated to us: Ibrahim ibn Ahmad, al-Farbarī, al-Bukhari, Muhammad ibn Mihran—he is al-Razi—, al-Walid ibn Muslim, Ibn Nimr Abd al-Rahman, who heard Ibn Shihab from Urwah from Aisha, who said: “The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) recited aloud in his recitation during the eclipse prayer.”

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ثنا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مِهْرَانَ هُوَ الرَّازِيّ - ثنا الْوَلِيدُ بْنُ مُسْلِمٍ ثنا ابْنُ نَمِرٍ عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ - سَمِعَ ابْنُ شِهَابٍ عَنْ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ: «جَهَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي صَلَاةِ الْكُسُوفِ بِقِرَاءَتِهِ» .

L8930–8931 Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us, Muḥammad ibn Isḥāq ibn as-Salīm narrated to us, ibn al-Aʿrabī narrated to us, Abū Dāwūd narrated to us, al-ʿAbbās ibn al-Walīd ibn Yazīd informed me, my father informed me, al-Awzāʿī narrated to us, ʿUrwah ibn al-Zubayr narrated from ʿĀʾishah, the Mother of the Faithful: “The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) recited an extended recitation and proclaimed it aloud” in the description of the eclipse prayer?[49]

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ إِسْحَاقَ بْنِ السَّلِيمِ ثنا ابْنُ الْأَعْرَابِيِّ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا الْعَبَّاسُ بْنُ الْوَلِيدِ بْنُ يَزِيدَ أَخْبَرَنِي أَبِي ثنا الْأَوْزَاعِيُّ أَخْبَرَنِي عُرْوَةُ بْنُ الزُّبَيْرِ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أُمِّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ: «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَرَأَ قِرَاءَةً طَوِيلَةً فَجَهَرَ بِهَا» فِي صِفَتِهَا لِصَلَاةِ الْكُسُوفِ؟

L8932 Abu Muhammad said: The definitive position of Aisha, Urwah, Al-Zuhri, and Al-Awzaʿi that he—peace be upon him—recited aloud during it is more valid than these false conjectures.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: قَطْعُ عَائِشَةَ، وَعُرْوَةَ، وَالزُّهْرِيِّ، وَالْأَوْزَاعِيِّ بِأَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - جَهَرَ فِيهَا -: أَوْلَى مِنْ ظُنُونِ هَؤُلَاءِ الْكَاذِبَةِ.

L8933 It has been narrated to us via the chain of Ubayy ibn Kaʿb that the Messenger of Allah (may Allah’s peace and blessings be upon him) recited one of the long surahs in the first rakʿah of the eclipse prayer.

وَقَدْ رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ أُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَرَأَ فِي أَوَّلِ رَكْعَةٍ مِنْ صَلَاةِ الْكُسُوفِ سُورَةً مِنْ الطُّوَلِ» .

L8934 If it is said: “Verily, Samurah narrated, stating, ‘Verily, he (peace be upon him) prayed during the eclipse—we did not hear him raise his voice’”?

فَإِنْ قِيلَ: إنَّ سَمُرَةَ رَوَى فَقَالَ: «إنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - صَلَّى فِي الْكُسُوفِ لَا نَسْمَعُ لَهُ صَوْتًا» ؟

L8935–8936 We said: This is invalid because it was only narrated by Thaʿlabah ibn ʿAbbād al-ʻAbdī, who is unknown (majhūl). Furthermore, even if it were authentic, they would have no argument in it, for it does not state that the Prophet—peace be upon him—did not recite audibly. Rather, it states: "We do not hear his voice." Samurah was truthful in not hearing it, for if he had been positioned to hear it, he would have heard it, just as ʻĀ'ishah—may Allah be pleased with her—heard it, as she was near the Qiblah in her room. Both of them are truthful.

[49] Hadith references (L8931): Sunan Abi Dawud 1188.

قُلْنَا: هَذَا لَا يَصِحُّ، لِأَنَّهُ لَمْ يَرْوِهِ إِلَّا ثَعْلَبَةُ بْنُ عَبَّادٍ الْعَبْدِيُّ، وَهُوَ مَجْهُولٌ، ثُمَّ لَوْ صَحَّ لَمْ تَكُنْ لَهُمْ فِيهِ حُجَّةٌ، لِأَنَّهُ لَيْسَ فِيهِ أَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - لَمْ يَجْهَرْ وَإِنَّمَا فِيهِ «لَا نَسْمَعُ لَهُ صَوْتًا» وَصَدَقَ سَمُرَةُ فِي أَنَّهُ لَمْ يَسْمَعْهُ، وَلَوْ كَانَ بِحَيْثُ يَسْمَعُهُ لَسَمِعَهُ كَمَا سَمِعَتْهُ عَائِشَةُ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا - الَّتِي كَانَتْ قَرِيبًا مِنْ الْقِبْلَةِ فِي حُجْرَتِهَا، وَكِلَاهُمَا صَادِقٌ

Furthermore, if it had contained "did not recite aloud," the narration of ʻĀ'ishah would have constituted an addition to what is in the narration of Samurah, and the addition takes precedence, or both cases would have been permissible without either invalidating the other. How, then, [is it] when there is nothing of this in it?

ثُمَّ لَوْ كَانَ فِيهِ " لَمْ يَجْهَرْ " لَكَانَ خَبَرُ عَائِشَةَ زَائِدًا عَلَى مَا فِي خَبَرِ سَمُرَةَ، وَالزَّائِدُ أَوْلَى، أَوْ لَكَانَ كِلَا الْأَمْرَيْنِ جَائِزًا لَا يُبْطِلُ أَحَدُهُمَا الْآخَرَ، فَكَيْفَ وَلَيْسَ فِيهِ شَيْءٌ مِنْ هَذَا؟

Abu Muhammad said: We do not know whether the Malikis' preferred ruling is supported by a practice reported from any Companion—may Allah be pleased with them—with explicit evidence that he [the Prophet] restricted himself to that practice. If it is said: How can all these practices be authentic when he—peace be upon him—only performed it once at Ibrahim's death? We reply: This is falsehood and an assertion rooted in ignorance—Abdullah ibn Rabiʻ narrated to us, Muhammad ibn Muʻawiyah narrated to us, Ahmad ibn Shuʻayb narrated to us, Abdah ibn Abd al-Rahim narrated to us, Sufyan ibn Uyaynah narrated to us, from Yahya ibn Saʻid al-Ansari, from Amrah, from Aishah: "The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—prayed during an eclipse in the vicinity of Zamzam with four rakʻahs and four prostrations." This was an eclipse prayer in Mecca, distinct from the one in Medina. They never reported from anyone "that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—performed the eclipse prayer only once."

Solar eclipses occur repeatedly, with five lunar months between every two eclipses. What denial could there be of him (PBUH) performing prayer during them tens of times throughout his prophethood? This is demonstrated by the recorded patterns of astronomical observatories regarding solar eclipses. As for our limitation to what we have described concerning the lunar eclipse prayer, it is due to the statement of Allah's Messenger - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him - "Prayers of the night and day are two by two." Thus, no prayer may validly consist of other than two by two units, except when an explicit authentic text specifies fewer or more than two rak'ahs, as mentioned regarding the solar eclipse. Here we adhere strictly to that, and legal rulings are not pitted against one another, for are they not all truths? We maintain that the lunar eclipse prayer and other signs are performed in congregation based on the Prophet's declaration - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him - "Congregational prayer surpasses individual prayer by twenty-seven degrees." Women, solitary worshippers, and travelers may perform it, as we previously detailed. Success is from Allah, the Exalted.

L8943 Prostration of the Quran

L8944 An issue in the Quran: fourteen prostrations.

L8945–8947 Prostrations in the Quran 556 – A ruling regarding fourteen prostrations in the Quran: the first being at the end of the conclusion of Sūrat al-Aʿrāf – followed by al-Raʿd. Then in Surah An-Nahl – then in "Subhana" – then in "Kaf Ha Ya 'Ayn Sad" – then in the first prostration of Surah Al-Hajj, not the one near its end – then in Surah Al-Furqan – then in Surah An-Naml – then in "Alif Lam Meem Tanzil" – then in Surah Sad – then in Surah Fussilat at "Ha Meem" – then in Surah An-Najm at its end – then in "Idha As-Sama'u Inshaqqat" at His saying, the Exalted: {they do not prostrate} [Al-Inshiqaq: 21] – then in "Iqra' Bismi Rabbika" at its conclusion. This prostration is not obligatory but recommended. It may be performed during obligatory prayers and voluntary prayers, and outside prayer at any time – during sunrise, sunset, or midday, facing the qiblah or otherwise, in a state of purity or without it.[50]

L8948 As for the consecutive prostration verses up to "Alif Lām Mīm, Tanzīl," there is no disagreement concerning them, nor regarding the positions of [50] Qur'an references (L8945): Qur'an 84:21 (Al-Inshiqaq).

[سُجُودُ الْقُرْآنِ]

[مَسْأَلَةٌ فِي الْقُرْآنِ أَرْبَعَ عَشْرَةَ سَجْدَةً]

سُجُودُ الْقُرْآنِ ٥٥٦ - مَسْأَلَةٌ فِي الْقُرْآنِ أَرْبَعَ عَشْرَةَ سَجْدَةً - أَوَّلُهَا -: - فِي آخِرِ خَاتِمَةِ سُورَةِ الْأَعْرَافِ - ثُمَّ فِي الرَّعْدِ ثُمَّ فِي النَّحْلِ - ثُمَّ فِي " سُبْحَانَ " - ثُمَّ فِي " كهيعص " - ثُمَّ فِي الْحَجِّ فِي الْأُولَى - وَلَيْسَ قُرْبَ آخِرِهَا - سَجْدَةٌ - ثُمَّ فِي الْفُرْقَانِ - ثُمَّ فِي النَّمْلِ - ثُمَّ فِي " الم تَنْزِيلُ " - ثُمَّ فِي " ص " ثُمَّ فِي " حم " فُصِّلَتْ - ثُمَّ فِي " وَالنَّجْمِ " فِي آخِرِهَا. - ثُمَّ فِي " إِذَا السَّمَاءُ انْشَقَّتْ " عِنْدَ قَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى {لا يَسْجُدُونَ} [الانشقاق: ٢١] ثُمَّ فِي " اقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ " فِي آخِرِهَا. وَلَيْسَ السُّجُودُ فَرْضًا لَكِنَّهُ فَضْلٌ وَيَسْجُدُ لَهَا فِي الصَّلَاةِ الْفَرِيضَةِ وَالتَّطَوُّعِ، وَفِي غَيْرِ الصَّلَاةِ فِي كُلِّ وَقْتٍ، وَعِنْدَ طُلُوعِ الشَّمْسِ وَغُرُوبِهَا وَاسْتِوَائِهَا إِلَى الْقِبْلَةِ وَإِلَى غَيْرِ الْقِبْلَةِ وَعَلَى طَهَارَةٍ وَعَلَى غَيْرِ طَهَارَةٍ.

فَأَمَّا السَّجَدَاتُ الْمُتَّصِلَةُ إِلَى " الم تَنْزِيلُ " فَلَا خِلَافَ فِيهَا، وَلَا فِي مَوَاضِعِ السُّجُودِ مِنْهَا، إِلَّا فِي سُورَةِ النَّمْلِ، فَإِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِنْ النَّاسِ قَالُوا: مَوْضِعُ السَّجْدَةِ فِيهَا عِنْدَ تَمَامِ قِرَاءَتِك {رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ} [النمل: ٢٦] .

prostration within them, except in Surah An-Naml. Many people have said that the place of prostration in it occurs upon completing the recitation of "Lord of the Mighty Throne" [An-Naml: 26].[51]

وَقَالَ بَعْضُ الْفُقَهَاءِ، بَلْ فِي تَمَامِ قِرَاءَتِك {وَمَا تُعْلِنُونَ} [النمل: ٢٥]

L8949 And some jurists said, rather, in the completion of your recitation—"And what you declare openly" (An-Naml 27:25).[52]

وَبِهَذَا نَقُولُ، لِأَنَّهُ أَقْرَبُ إلَى مَوْضِعِ ذِكْرِ السُّجُودِ وَالْأَمْرِ بِهِ، وَالْمُبَادَرَةُ إلَى فِعْلِ الْخَيْرِ أَوْلَى.

L8950 And this is our view, because it aligns more closely with the context where prostration is mentioned and the command thereof, and hastening to do good takes precedence.

قَالَ تَعَالَى: {وَسَارِعُوا إِلَى مَغْفِرَةٍ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ} [آل عمران: ١٣٣] .

L8951 He, the Exalted, said: "And strive eagerly for forgiveness from your Lord" [Āl ʿImrān 3:133].[53]

وَقَالَتْ طَائِفَةٌ: فِي الْحَجِّ سَجْدَةٌ ثَانِيَةٌ قُرْبَ آخِرِهَا، عِنْدَ قَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: {وَافْعَلُوا الْخَيْرَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ} [الحج: ٧٧] وَلَا نَقُولُ بِهَذَا فِي الصَّلَاةِ أَلْبَتَّةَ، لِأَنَّهُ لَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُزَادَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ سُجُودٌ لَمْ يَصِحَّ بِهِ نَصٌّ، وَالصَّلَاةُ تَبْطُلُ بِذَلِكَ، وَأَمَّا فِي غَيْرِ الصَّلَاةِ فَهُوَ حَسَنٌ، لِأَنَّهُ فِعْلُ خَيْرٍ؟

L8952 A group has said that in Hajj there is a second prostration near its end, at the mention of His statement, the Exalted: {And do good that you may succeed} [Al-Hajj: 77]. However, we absolutely do not affirm this view in prayer, because it is impermissible to add a prostration in prayer without valid textual evidence, and the prayer becomes invalid due to that. As for outside of prayer, it is commendable because it is an act of good.[54]

وَإِنَّمَا لَمْ نُجِزْهُ فِي الصَّلَاةِ؛ لِأَنَّهُ لَمْ يَصِحَّ فِيهَا سُنَّةٌ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَلَا أَجْمَعَ عَلَيْهَا، وَإِنَّمَا جَاءَ فِيهَا أَثَرٌ مُرْسَلٌ.

L8953–8954 We did not permit it in the prayer because there is no authenticated Sunnah from the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him—regarding it, nor have the scholars reached consensus on it. Only a mursal report has been transmitted concerning it.

L8955 It is authentically reported from Umar ibn al-Khattab, his son Abdullah, and Abu al-Darda' that they performed prostration in the Surah. It was also narrated from Abu Musa al-Ash'ari. The narration reached us through the chain of Abd al-Rahman ibn Mahdi: Shu'bah narrated from Sa'd ibn Ibrahim ibn Abd al-Rahman ibn Awf, who said: I heard Abdullah ibn Tha'labah state:

"I prayed behind Umar ibn al-Khattab, and he performed two prostrations in Surah Al-Hajj."

L8956 Narrated by Malik on the authority of ʿAbdullāh ibn Dīnār: I saw ʿAbdullāh ibn ʿUmar perform two sajdahs in prayer during the Hajj.

وَعَنْ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: أَنَّهُ وَأَبَاهُ عُمَرَ كَانَا يَسْجُدَانِ فِي الْحَجِّ سَجْدَتَيْنِ. وَقَالَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ: لَوْ سَجَدْت فِيهَا وَاحِدَةً لَكَانَتْ السَّجْدَةُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ أَحَبَّ إلَيَّ؟ وَقَالَ عُمَرُ: إنَّهَا فُضِّلَتْ بِسَجْدَتَيْنِ.

L8957 From Maʿmar, from Ayyūb, from Nāfiʿ, from Ibn ʿUmar: He and his father ʿUmar would perform two prostrations in Sūrat al-Ḥajj. Ibn ʿUmar said, "If I were to perform a single prostration in it, the reward for prostration in the Hereafter would be dearer to me." ʿUmar said, "It has been favored with two prostrations."

وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ مَهْدِيٍّ عَنْ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ خُمَيْرٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ جُبَيْرِ بْنِ نُفَيْرٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ: أَنَّ أَبَا الدَّرْدَاءِ سَجَدَ فِي الْحَجِّ سَجْدَتَيْنِ.

L8958 From ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī, from Shuʿbah, from Yazīd ibn Khumayr, from ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Jubayr ibn Nufayr, from his father, that Abū al-Dardāʾ performed two prayer units (rakʿahs) during Hajj.

وَرُوِيَ أَيْضًا عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ، وَأَبِي مُوسَى، وَعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ.

L8959 And it has also been narrated from Ali ibn Abi Talib, Abu Musa, and Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-As.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: أَيْنَ الْمُهَوِّلُونَ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ مَالِكٍ، وَأَبِي حَنِيفَةَ بِتَعْظِيمِ خِلَافِ الصَّاحِبِ الَّذِي لَا يُعْرَفُ لَهُ مُخَالِفٌ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ؟

L8960 Abu Muhammad said: Where are the alarmists among the followers of Mālik and Abū Ḥanīfa who exaggerate the significance of a Companion's disagreement when no opposing view is attested from the Companions themselves?

وَقَدْ خَالَفُوا هَهُنَا فِعْلَ عُمَرَ بِحَضْرَةِ الصَّحَابَةِ لَا يُعْرَفُ لَهُ مِنْهُمْ مُخَالِفٌ، وَمَعَهُ طَوَائِفُ مِمَّنْ ذَكَرْنَا، وَمَعَهُمْ حَدِيثٌ مُرْسَلٌ بِمِثْلِ ذَلِكَ، وَطَوَائِفُ مِنْ التَّابِعِينَ وَمِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ؟ وَبِهِ يَقُولُ الشَّافِعِيُّ.

L8961–8963 And here they have opposed the action of Umar in the presence of the Companions, with no dissenter among them known to exist. With him are groups from those we mentioned, a mursal hadith similar to that, and groups from the Successors and... After them? This is the opinion upheld by Al-Shāfiʿī.

L8964 As for us, we have no valid proof except what is authentically established from the Messenger of Allah—peace be upon him. If they say: "There is a differing opinion reported from Ibn Abbas regarding this," we respond: "It is not as you claim. What is reported from Ibn Abbas is that there are ten prostrations [in Quranic recitation], and it is also reported from him that there is no prostration in Surah Ṣād. Thus, the existence of an authentic differing opinion from him in this matter is invalid."

L8965 Rather, it has indeed been authentically reported from him (the Prophet) that there are two prostrations in Surah Al-Hajj—as has been narrated to us through the chain of Shu'bah from 'Āṣim al-Aḥwal from Abū al-'Āliyah from Ibn 'Abbās, who said: "Was Surah Al-Hajj favored over the Quran by two prostrations?" There was disagreement: does Surah Ṣād contain a prostration or not? We only ruled based on the prostration in it because it has been authentically reported from the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—that he prostrated in it. We had previously mentioned this in the context of the preacher's prostration on Friday when he recites the prostration verse.

L8966 There was disagreement concerning the prostration in the Ḥā-Mīm chapters.

L8967 A group maintained: The prostration of recitation is to be performed upon reaching the conclusion of the Exalted's words, "If it is Him alone you worship" (41:37), and this is the position we adhere to.[55]

L8968 And a group said: Rather, at His saying: {And they do not grow weary} [Fussilat: 38].[56]

L8969–8971 We have chosen what we have chosen for two considerations: First, the verse requiring prostration precedes the other, and hastening to obedience is superior. Second, [one is] commanded to prostrate, and compliance with the command is more obligatory? Some of those not guided to correctness said: "We found prostration in the Quran occurs only in narrative contexts, not prescriptive ones?" Abu Muhammad said: "He is the first to have opposed this." Because he and all Muslims prostrate in the Criterion regarding the words of the Most High: {When it is said to them, "Prostrate to the Most Merciful," they say, "What is the Most Merciful? Should we prostrate to what you command us?"—and it increases their aversion} [25:60]. This is a command, not a declarative statement. In the recitation of Al-Kisā'ī – one of the canonical readings – {Should they not prostrate to Allah who brings forth the hidden in the heavens and the earth} [27:25] to the end of the verse, with the lightened pronunciation of "أَلَّا" (allā) meaning: "O people, prostrate!" – is this not a command?[57]

L8972 In Surah Al-Nahl, in the verse where the Exalted says: {And they do as they are ordained} [Al-Nahl: 50].[58]

L8973 We have found mention of prostration in the context of good, but no prostration in it is recognized by anyone. This is the saying of the Most High in Āl ʿImrān: "They are not all alike; among the People of the Scripture is an upright community reciting the verses of Allah during the hours of the night while prostrating" [Āl ʿImrān: 113].[59]

L8974 And in His statement, the Most High: {And those who spend the night in prostration and standing before their Lord} [Al-Furqān 25:64].[60]

L8975 It is established that the people are in confusion—they do not grasp what they say. It has been narrated to us via Wakiʿ, via his father, via Abū Isḥāq al-Sabiʿī, via ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn al-Aswad, who said: The companions of Ibn Masʿūd would prostrate at the first of the two verses.

L8976 And likewise from Abī ʿAbd al-Raḥmān al-Sulamī.

L8977 This is the opinion of Mālik and Abū Sulaymān. It has been authentically reported from Ibn Masʿūd and ʿAlī that they did not consider the obligatory prostrations among the aforementioned except for "Alif Lām Mīm" and "Ḥā Mīm," and they viewed these two as more emphatic than the others. Mālik said: There is no prostration in any part of the Mufaṣṣal.

L8978–8980 This has been narrated from Ibn Abbas and Zayd ibn Thabit. Others among the Companions disagreed with them, as we shall mention if Allah the Exalted wills, after stating: The prostration in them has been authentically reported from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). No conclusive L8982 Is this the position followed by the majority of the Salaf? It has been narrated to us through Mālik from ʿAbd al-Raḥmān al-Aʿraj from Abū Hurayrah: that ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb recited to them "By the star when it descends" and prostrated during it. Then he proceeded to recite another surah. Did he do this during the prayer with the Muslims?

وَبِهِ يَأْخُذُ جُمْهُورُ السَّلَفِ؟ وَرُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ مَالِكٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ الْأَعْرَجِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ: أَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ قَرَأَ لَهُمْ " وَالنَّجْمِ إِذَا هَوَى " فَسَجَدَ فِيهَا، ثُمَّ قَامَ فَقَرَأَ بِسُورَةٍ أُخْرَى، وَأَنَّهُ فَعَلَ ذَلِكَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ بِالْمُسْلِمِينَ؟

L8983 It is narrated from Abu Uthman al-Nahdi that Uthman ibn Affan recited "By the star" in the Isha prayer and prostrated at its end. Then he stood and recited "By the fig and the olive," bowed and prostrated. He thus recited two surahs in one rak'ah.

وَعَنْ أَبِي عُثْمَانَ النَّهْدِيِّ: أَنَّ عُثْمَانَ بْنَ عَفَّانَ قَرَأَ فِي صَلَاةِ الْعِشَاءِ بِ " وَالنَّجْمِ " فَسَجَدَ فِي آخِرِهَا، ثُمَّ قَامَ فَقَرَأَ بِ " وَالتِّينِ وَالزَّيْتُونِ " فَرَكَعَ وَسَجَدَ، فَقَرَأَ سُورَتَيْنِ فِي رَكْعَةٍ.

L8984 From the narration of Sufyan al-Thawri, from Asim ibn Abi al-Najud, from Zirr ibn Hubaysh, from Ali ibn Abi Talib, who said: The surahs requiring obligatory prostration are four: As-Sajdah (Alif-Lam-Meem Tanzeel), Fussilat (Ha Meem As-Sajdah), An-Najm, and Al-Alaq (Iqra bismi rabbika).

L8985 From Shuʿbah, from ʿĀṣim ibn Abī al-Najūd, from Zirr ibn Ḥubaysh, from

Ibn Masʿūd, who said: The prescribed prostrations are four: “Alif-Lām-Mīm Tanzīl,” “Ḥā-Mīm,” “al-Najm,” and “Iqra’ bismi rabbika.”

وَعَنْ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ عَاصِمِ بْنِ أَبِي النَّجُودِ، عَنْ زِرِّ بْنِ حُبَيْشٍ عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ: عَزَائِمُ السُّجُودِ أَرْبَعٌ: (الم تَنْزِيلُ) " وَحُمَّ " " وَالنَّجْمُ " " وَاقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ "

L8986 From Sulaymān ibn Mūsā and Ayyūb al-Sakhtiyānī, both of whom from Nāfiʿ, the freed slave of Ibn ʿUmar, who said: “Indeed, Ibn ʿUmar would prostrate when he recited al-Najm.”

وَعَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ مُوسَى، وَأَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ نَافِعٍ مَوْلَى ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ: إِنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ إِذَا قَرَأَ بِ (النَّجْمِ) سَجَدَ.

L8987 Al-Muṭṭalib ibn Abī Wadaʿah said: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) prostrated in the Star, but I did not prostrate—for I was a polytheist at that time.

وَعَنْ «الْمُطَّلِبِ بْنِ أَبِي وَدَاعَةَ قَالَ: سَجَدَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي النَّجْمِ وَلَمْ أَسْجُدْ - وَكَانَ مُشْرِكًا حِينَئِذٍ -.

L8988–8989 He said, “I will never cease to prostrate therein, ever.” Al-Muṭṭalib embraced Islam on the Day of the Conquest of Mecca.

قَالَ: فَلَنْ أَدَعَ السُّجُودَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا» أَسْلَمَ الْمُطَّلِبُ يَوْمَ الْفَتْحِ.

L8990 So here are Umar, Uthman, and Ali, in the presence of the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them), while they were condemning actions even lesser than this.

L8991 And regarding prostration therein, the following have stated: ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Abī Laylā, Sufyān, Abū Ḥanīfah, al-Shāfiʿī, Aḥmad, Dāwūd, and others.

وَبِالسُّجُودِ فِيهَا يَقُولُ: عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ أَبِي لَيْلَى، وَسُفْيَانُ، وَأَبُو حَنِيفَةَ وَالشَّافِعِيُّ، وَأَحْمَدُ، وَدَاوُد، وَغَيْرُهُمْ.

L8992 Abu Muhammad said: The adherents of Malik argued using a report—we have narrated it through the chain of transmission of Yazid ibn Abdullah ibn Qusayṭ from Ata ibn Yasar from Zayd ibn Thabit, who said: “I recited Surah An-Najm to the Messenger of Allah, may Allah bless him and grant him peace, and he did not perform the prostration of recitation in it.”[61]

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: وَاحْتَجَّ الْمُقَلِّدُونَ لِمَالِكٍ بِخَبَرٍ -: رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ يَزِيدَ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ قُسَيْطٍ عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ عَنْ «زَيْدِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ قَالَ: قَرَأْتُ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَالنَّجْمِ فَلَمْ يَسْجُدْ فِيهَا» .

L8993 Abu Muhammad said: There is no proof for them in this, for the Prophet - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him - did not say: “There is no prostration in it.” Rather, this report contains proof against those who claimed prostration is solely an obligation.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: لَا حُجَّةَ لَهُمْ فِي هَذَا، فَإِنَّهُ لَمْ يَقُلْ: إِنَّ النَّبِيَّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: لَا سُجُودَ فِيهَا، وَإِنَّمَا فِي هَذَا الْخَبَرِ حُجَّةٌ عَلَى مَنْ قَالَ: إِنَّ السُّجُودَ فَرْضٌ فَقَطْ.

L8994 And thus we say: Prostration is not obligatory, but if one prostrates, it is superior, and if one omits it, there is no blame—so long as one does not turn away from the Sunnah. Moreover, the narrator of this report—Ibn Qusayt—is authentically established from Mālik as one whose narrations he did not rely upon. How then can his narration now become a proof for invalidating the Sunnah, when it contains nothing of what they allege? They further attempted to justify their position with another report—which we narrated through the chain of Ḥammād ibn Salama, from Ḥumayd, from Bakr ibn ʿAbdullāh al-Muzanī—that Abū Saʿīd al-Khudrī said: "Allah's Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him) used to prostrate for Surah al-Najm in Mecca. When he arrived in Medina, Abū Saʿīd saw in a dream vision as if he were writing Surah Ṣād. Upon reaching the prostration verse, the inkwell, the pen, the trees, and everything around him prostrated. He said: 'I informed Allah's Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him), so he prostrated in response to it and abandoned prostration in Surah al-Najm.'"

وَهَكَذَا نَقُولُ: إِنَّ السُّجُودَ لَيْسَ فَرْضًا، لَكِنْ إِنْ سَجَدَ فَهُوَ أَفْضَلُ، وَإِنْ تَرَكَ فَلَا حَرَجَ، مَا لَمْ يَرْغَبْ عَنْ السُّنَّةِ؟ وَأَيْضًا: فَإِنَّ رَاوِيَ هَذَا الْخَبَرِ قَدْ صَحَّ عَنْ مَالِكٍ أَنَّهُ لَا يَعْتَمِدُ عَلَى رِوَايَتِهِ - وَهُوَ ابْنُ قُسَيْطٍ - فَالْآنَ صَارَتْ رِوَايَتُهُ حُجَّةً فِي إبْطَالِ السُّنَنِ؟ عَلَى أَنَّهُ لَيْسَ فِيهَا شَيْءٌ مِمَّا يَدَّعُونَهُ؟ وَمَوَّهُوا أَيْضًا بِخَبَرٍ -: رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ حُمَيْدٍ عَنْ بَكْرٍ هُوَ ابْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ الْمُزَنِيّ - أَنَّ أَبَا سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيّ قَالَ: «إنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - كَانَ يَسْجُدُ بِمَكَّةَ بِالنَّجْمِ فَلَمَّا قَدِمَ الْمَدِينَةَ رَأَى أَبُو سَعِيدٍ فِيمَا يَرَى النَّائِمُ كَأَنَّهُ يَكْتُبُ سُورَةَ ص، فَلَمَّا أَتَى عَلَى السَّجْدَةِ: سَجَدَتْ الدَّوَاةُ، وَالْقَلَمُ، وَالشَّجَرُ، وَمَا حَوْلَهُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ. قَالَ: فَأَخْبَرْت رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَسَجَدَ فِيهَا، وَتَرَكَ النَّجْمَ»

L8995–8997 This report is not authentic because Bakr did not hear it from Abu Sa'id, and Allah knows best who he heard it from, except... The invalidity of this report has been confirmed without doubt due to what we previously narrated from the statement of Abū Hurayrah: "Indeed, the Messenger of Allah—upon him be peace—prostrated with them in Sūrat al-Najm." Abū Hurayrah embraced Islam late, only after the conquest of Khaybar, and this report asserts that the abandonment of prostration in it occurred after his arrival in Medina—upon him be peace—and this is invalid.

فَهَذَا خَبَرٌ لَا يَصِحُّ؛ لِأَنَّ بَكْرًا لَمْ يَسْمَعْهُ مِنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ، وَاَللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ مِمَّنْ سَمِعَهُ، إلَّا أَنَّهُ قَدْ صَحَّ بُطْلَانُ هَذَا الْخَبَرِ بِلَا شَكٍّ لِمَا رُوِّينَاهُ آنِفًا مِنْ قَوْلِ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ «إنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - سَجَدَ بِهِمْ فِي النَّجْمِ» وَأَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ مُتَأَخِّرُ الْإِسْلَامِ، وَإِنَّمَا أَسْلَمَ بَعْدَ فَتْحِ خَيْبَرَ، وَفِي هَذَا الْخَبَرِ أَنَّ تَرْكَ السُّجُودِ فِيهَا كَانَ إثْرَ قُدُومِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - الْمَدِينَةَ، وَهَذَا بَاطِلٌ

L8998 They sought to obscure the matter by citing a report we narrated through the chain of Matar al-Warraq, who relates it from Ibn Abbas: "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) did not perform prostration in al-Mufassal since arriving in Medina."

وَمَوَّهُوا بِخَبَرٍ رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ مَطَرٍ الْوَرَّاقِ يَذْكُرُهُ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لَمْ يَسْجُدْ فِي الْمُفَصَّلِ مُذْ قَدِمَ الْمَدِينَةَ» .

L8999 This is sheer invalidity due to what we have mentioned in the ḥadīth of Abū Hurayrah and what we will subsequently mention, if Allah the Exalted wills: the ʿillah (hidden flaw) of this report is that [the narrator] Muṭarr is weak in memory.

وَهَذَا بَاطِلٌ بَحْتٌ، لِمَا ذَكَرْنَا مِنْ حَدِيثِ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، وَلِمَا نَذْكُرُهُ إثْرَ هَذَا إنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: وَعِلَّةُ هَذَا الْخَبَرِ هُوَ أَنَّ مَطَرًا سَيِّئُ الْحِفْظِ.

ثُمَّ لَوْ صَحَّ لَكَانَ الْمُثْبِتُ أَوْلَى مِنْ النَّافِي، وَلَا عَمَلَ أَقْوَى مِنْ عَمَلِ عُمَرَ، وَعُثْمَانَ بِحَضْرَةِ الصَّحَابَةِ بِالْمَدِينَةِ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L9000 Then, if it were valid, the affirmer would take precedence over the denier, and no practice holds greater authority than that established by Umar and Uthman in the presence of the Companions at Medina. And success is granted solely by Allah, the Most High.

وَذَكَرُوا أَحَادِيثَ مُرْسَلَةً سَاقِطَةً، لَا وَجْهَ لِلِاشْتِغَالِ بِهَا لِمَا ذَكَرْنَا؟ وَأَمَّا إذَا السَّمَاءُ انْشَقَّتْ وَاقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّك فَإِنَّ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ حَدَّثَنَا قَالَ: ثنا إبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ إبْرَاهِيمَ، وَمُعَاذُ بْنُ فَضَالَةَ قَالَا: ثنا هِشَامُ الدَّسْتُوَائِيُّ عَنْ يَحْيَى هُوَ ابْنُ أَبِي كَثِيرٍ - عَنْ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ عَنْ «عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ قَالَ: رَأَيْتُ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ سَجَدَ فِي إذَا السَّمَاءُ انْشَقَّتْ، فَقُلْتُ: يَا أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ، أَلَمْ أَرَكَ تَسْجُدُ؟ قَالَ: لَوْ لَمْ أَرَ النَّبِيَّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - سَجَدَ لَمْ أَسْجُدْ بِهَا» .

L9001 They cited mursal and rejected narrations that hold no valid basis for engagement due to our prior explanation. Regarding the verse “When the sky is split apart” and “Read in the name of your Lord,” ʻAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʻAbd Allāh narrated to us through Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad → al-Farbarī → al-Bukhārī → Muslim ibn Ibrāhīm and Muʻādh ibn Faḍālah, who both reported: Hishām al-Dastuwāʾī narrated to us from Yaḥyā (Ibn Abī Kathīr) → Abū Salamah → ʻAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʻAwf, who said: “I witnessed Abū Hurayrah prostrating during [the recitation of] ’When the sky is split apart.’ I asked: ’O Abū Hurayrah, did I not see you prostrating?’ He replied: ’Had I not seen the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—prostrate, I would never have prostrated for this verse.’”[1] وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ مَالِكٍ أَيْضًا عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ عَنْ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ بِمِثْلِهِ.

L9002 And also through Mālik’s chain, from ʿAbdullāh ibn Yazīd, from Abū Salama ibn ʿAbd al-Raḥmān, from Abū Hurairah, with a similar narration.

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ ثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَعَمْرٌو النَّاقِدُ ثنا سُفْيَانُ بْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ بْنِ مُوسَى عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ مِينَاءَ عَنْ «أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: سَجَدْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي: إذَا السَّمَاءُ انْشَقَّتْ وَاقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ» .

L9003 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us: Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us: Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us: Abu Bakr ibn Abi Shaybah and Amr an-Nāqid narrated to us: Sufyan ibn Uyaynah narrated to us from Ayyub ibn Musa from Ata ibn Mīnā’ from Abu Hurairah, who said: “We prostrated with the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—during the recitation of the verse When the sky is split apart (84:1) and the verse Read in the name of your Lord (96:1).”[2]

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: هَذَا يُكَذِّبُ رِوَايَةَ مَطَرٍ الَّتِي احْتَجُّوا بِهَا؟

L9004 Abu Muhammad said: Does this contradict the narration of Maṭar that they relied upon as proof?

L9005–9006 From the narration of Al-Layth ibn Saʻd, from Yazīd ibn Abī Ḥabīb, from Ṣafwān ibn Sulaym, from ʻAbd al-Raḥmān al-Aʻraj, from Abū Hurayrah: “The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) prostrated at the verse 'When the sky is split apart' (Sūrah al-Inshiqāq) and 'Read in the name of your Lord' (Sūrah al-'Alaq)."[3]

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ اللَّيْثِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ أَبِي حَبِيبٍ عَنْ صَفْوَانَ بْنِ سُلَيْمٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ الْأَعْرَجِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ: «سَجَدَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي إِذَا السَّمَاءُ انْشَقَّتْ وَاقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ»

L9007 We have narrated it through numerous, mass-transmitted (mutawatir) chains as undeniable as the sun; we have deemed this sufficient from them.

وَرُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طُرُقٍ كَثِيرَةٍ مُتَوَاتِرَةٍ كَالشَّمْسِ، اكْتَفَيْنَا مِنْهَا بِهَذَا.

L9008 And with this, the majority of the Salaf hold: It has been narrated to us through the chains of Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān, ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī, and al-Muʿtamir ibn Sulaymān - all of whom said: Qurrah, who is Ibn Khālid, narrated to us from Muḥammad ibn Sīrīn, from Abū Hurayrah, who said: "Abū Bakr and ʿUmar prostrated during 'When the sky is split apart,' and during 'and the one who is better than both of them.'" ʿAbd al-Raḥmān and al-Muʿtamir added: "and during 'Read in the name of your Lord.'"[4]

وَبِهَذَا يَأْخُذُ عَامَّةُ السَّلَفِ -: رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ يَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانِ، وَعَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ مَهْدِيٍّ، وَالْمُعْتَمِرِ بْنِ سُلَيْمَانَ كُلُّهُمْ قَالَ: ثنا قُرَّةُ هُوَ ابْنُ خَالِدٍ - عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سِيرِينَ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: " سَجَدَ: أَبُو بَكْرٍ، وَعُمَرُ فِي: " إِذَا السَّمَاءُ انْشَقَّتْ " وَمَنْ هُوَ خَيْرٌ مِنْهُمَا " زَادَ عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ، وَالْمُعْتَمِرُ " وَ: (اقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ)

L9009 And this report is as clear as the sun in its authenticity.

وَهَذَا أَثَرٌ كَالشَّمْسِ صِحَّةً.

L9010 As previously cited from ʿAlī and Ibn Masʿūd, the obligatory prostrations of recitation (sajdah al-tilāwah) are in "Alif-Lām-Mīm," "Ḥā-Mīm," "an-Najm," and "Iqra' bi-smi rabbika."

وَقَدْ ذَكَرْنَا عَنْ عَلِيٍّ، وَابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ آنِفًا: عَزَائِمُ السُّجُودِ -: " الم " " وَحُمَّ " " وَالنَّجْمُ " " وَاقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ ".

L9011 And from the narration of Shuʿbah from ʿĀṣim ibn Abī al-Najūd from Abū Razīn: "'Ammār ibn Yāsir recited 'When the sky is split open' while delivering a sermon, then he descended and prostrated."

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ عَاصِمِ بْنِ أَبِي النَّجُودِ عَنْ أَبِي رَزِينٍ: قَرَأَ عَمَّارُ بْنُ يَاسِرٍ: " إِذَا السَّمَاءُ انْشَقَّتْ " وَهُوَ يَخْطُبُ، فَنَزَلَ فَسَجَدَ

L9012 From the trustworthy authorities: Ayyub, Ubayd Allah ibn Umar, and Sulayman ibn Musa, from Nafi' that Ibn Umar used to prostrate during "When the sky is split apart" and "Read in the name of your Lord."

وَعَنْ الثِّقَاتِ: أَيُّوبَ، وَعُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ، وَسُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ مُوسَى عَنْ نَافِعٍ: أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ يَسْجُدُ فِي: " إِذَا السَّمَاءُ انْشَقَّتْ "، " وَاقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ ".

L9013 This is the opinion of the companions of Ibn Masʿūd, Shurayḥ, al-Shaʿbī, and ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz—he commanded the people to do that—al-Shaʿbī,

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ أَصْحَابِ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ، وَشُرَيْحٍ، وَالشَّعْبِيِّ وَعُمَرُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْعَزِيزِ أَمَرَ النَّاسَ بِذَلِكَ وَالشَّعْبِيِّ وَأَبِي حَنِيفَةَ، وَالْأَوْزَاعِيِّ، وَسُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ، وَالشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَحْمَدَ، وَإِسْحَاقَ، وَدَاوُد، وَأَصْحَابِهِمْ، وَأَصْحَابِ الْحَدِيثِ؟

Abū Ḥanīfah, al-Awzāʿī, Sufyān al-Thawrī, al-Shāfiʿī, Aḥmad, Isḥāq, Dāwūd, their companions, and the Ahl al-Ḥadīth.

L9014–9016 As for her prostration without ablution and not facing the Qiblah however possible, this is because it is not a prayer. The Prophet (peace be upon him) said: "The prayer of night and day is two by two." Thus, anything less than two rakʿahs cannot be a prayer unless there comes an explicit text stating it is a prayer, such as the Fear Prayer, the Witr Prayer, and the Funeral Prayer. And there is no text regarding... Is the prostration of recitation considered a prayer? It has been narrated from Uthman—may Allah the Exalted be pleased with him—and Saʿid ibn al-Musayyab: "Does a menstruating woman gesture with the prostration?" Saʿid said: "And she should say: 'My Lord, to You I prostrated.'" And from al-Shaʿbi: "Its permissibility toward other than the qiblah."

Prostration of Gratitude

L9017

L9018 Issue 557: The prostration of gratitude is a recommended act. When a blessing from Allah, the Exalted, comes to a person, it is recommended for him to perform prostration, as prostration constitutes an act of righteousness. Allah, the Exalted, has stated: "And do righteous deeds" [Al-Ḥajj 22:77].[5]

L9019 And no prohibition against the Prophet (peace be upon him) has been reported from him.

L9020 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us; Abdul-Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us; Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us; Zuhayr ibn Harb narrated to us; al-Walid ibn Muslim narrated to us, saying: I heard al-Awzaʿī say: Al-Walid ibn Hisham al-Muʿaytī narrated to us: "Maʿdan ibn Abi Talhah al-Yaʿmurī narrated to us, saying: I met Thawban, the freed slave of Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—and asked him: 'Inform me of a deed that will make Allah admit me to Paradise,' or I said: 'What deed is most beloved to Allah the Exalted?' He replied: 'I asked Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—just as you asked me, and he said:

Maʿdan said: 'Then I met Abu al-Darda' and asked him. He replied with the same words Thawban had told me.'"

L9021–9023 Abu Muhammad said: Al-Walid ibn Hisham was among the senior companions of Umar ibn Abd al-Aziz due to his excellence. And his action, and the rest of the chain's narrators—are they not too well-known to require inquiry? None may assert: "This prostration is indeed only the prostration of prayer specifically." Whoever dares to do this has falsely attributed to the Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant peace—what he did not say. Rather, he has lied against him, for he declared his intent through the unseen and false conjecture.

L9024 It has been narrated to us from Abū Bakr al-Ṣiddīq that when news of the conquest of Yamāmah reached him, he prostrated. From ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib: when Dhū al-Thudayyah was found among the slain, he prostrated upon recognizing that [Dhū al-Thudayyah] belonged to the faction of falsehood and that [the believers] were the ones upholding the truth. It is authentically reported from Kaʿb ibn Mālik in the account of his failure to join the expedition to Tabūk that when his repentance was accepted, he prostrated. There was no dissent whatsoever among the Companions regarding these acts, nor any flaw in the report concerning Kaʿb at all.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: الْوَلِيدُ بْنُ هِشَامٍ مِنْ كِبَارِ أَصْحَابِ عُمَرَ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْعَزِيزِ لِفَضْلِهِ وَعَمَلِهِ، وَبَاقِي الْإِسْنَادِ أَشْهَرُ مِنْ أَنْ يُسْأَلَ عَنْهُمْ؟ وَلَيْسَ لِأَحَدٍ أَنْ يَقُولَ: إِنَّ هَذَا السُّجُودَ إِنَّمَا هُوَ سُجُودُ الصَّلَاةِ خَاصَّةً، وَمَنْ أَقْدَمَ عَلَى هَذَا فَقَدْ قَالَ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مَا لَمْ يَقُلْهُ، بَلْ كَذَبَ عَلَيْهِ، إِذْ أَخْبَرَ عَنْ مُرَادِهِ بِالْغَيْبِ وَالظَّنِّ الْكَاذِبِ.

The Book of Funerals

Abu Muhammed Ali Ibn Hazm Al-Andalusi · Arabic–English parallel edition

Return to the reading collection

L9025–9026 The Book of Funerals: The Funeral Prayer and the Rulings Concerning the Deceased Chapter: The Washing of the Muslim Male and Female and Their Shrouding

L9027 558 - Ruling: Washing the deceased Muslim male and female and shrouding them is obligatory. The shroud must be of good quality according to one's capability, and similarly the prayer over the deceased. Abd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh narrated to us: Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad narrated to us; al-Farbarī narrated to us; al-Bukhārī narrated to us; Ismāʿīl, the son of Abi Uways, narrated to us; Mālik narrated from Ayyūb al-Sikhtiyānī from Muḥammad ibn Sīrīn, from Umm ʿAṭiyyah al-Anṣāriyyah, who said: "Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him) came to us when his daughter died and said: 'Wash her three times, five times, or more if you see fit.'" And he [Ibn Sīrīn] mentioned the remainder of the ḥadīth.

L9028 He, peace be upon him, commanded her to perform the ritual bath, and his command is obligatory unless another scriptural text nullifies its obligation.

L9029–9031 There is no disagreement that the ruling for men and women in this matter is equal. The obligation of ritual washing - this being the opinion of al-Shāfiʿī and Dāwūd - How strange of those who do not deem the ritual washing of the deceased obligatory, when it is the practice of Allah's Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him), his command, and the practice of the Muslim community from its inception until now. ʿAbdullāh ibn Yūsuf narrated from Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ, who narrated from ʿAbd al-Wahhāb ibn ʿĪsā, who narrated from Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad, who narrated from Aḥmad ibn ʿAlī, who narrated from Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj, who narrated from Hārūn ibn ʿAbdullāh, who narrated from Ḥajjāj ibn Muḥammad al-Aʿwar, who said: Ibn Jurayj said: I am Abū al-Zubayr, who heard Jābir ibn ʿAbdullāh relating: "That..." The Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—delivered a sermon one day and mentioned a man from his companions who had died and been shrouded in a garment that was not long enough. He then said, "When any of you shrouds his brother (in faith), let him ensure the shroud is proper."

L9032 It has been narrated to us from Ibn Masʿūd that he instructed to be shrouded in a garment worth two hundred dirhams. From Ibn Sīrīn, it is related that it used to be said: "Whoever assumes responsibility for his brother's burial should ensure a good shroud for him, for they will visit one another in their shrouds in the hereafter."

[كِتَابُ الْجَنَائِزِ صَلَاةُ الْجَنَائِزِ وَحُكْمُ الْمَوْتَى] [مَسْأَلَةٌ غُسْلُ الْمُسْلِمِ الذَّكَرِ وَالْأُنْثَى وَتَكْفِينُهُمَا]

فَأَمَرَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِغُسْلِهَا، وَأَمْرُهُ فَرْضٌ، مَا لَمْ يُخْرِجْهُ عَنْ الْفَرْضِ نَصٌّ آخَرُ.

L9033 From Hudhayfah: Do not be extravagant in the shroud; buy two clean garments for me.

L9034 Abu Muhammad said: This is an embellishment for the shroud; he only disapproved of extravagance. It is narrated from Abu Sa'id al-Khudri that he instructed Anas, Ibn Umar, and other Companions of the Prophet (peace be upon him): "Carry me upon a Byzantine cloak, apply an ounce of incense from a censer over me, shroud me in the garments I pray in, and in the Coptic tunic from the house along with them."

L9035 As for what was narrated from Abu Bakr—may Allah the Exalted be pleased with him—regarding the garment he was wearing being washed and shrouding him in it along with two other garments: an improvement of the shroud. Even if there were disagreement, it would be obligatory to refer back to the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him.

L9036 An issue: He was not washed and not shrouded until he was buried.

L9037–9039 559 - Issue: If someone is neither washed nor shrouded before burial, it is obligatory to remove him so that he can be washed and shrouded without fail. ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh narrated to us; Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad narrated to us; al-Farbarī narrated to us; al-Bukhārī narrated to us; ʿAlī ibn ʿAbd Allāh narrated to us; Sufyān—that is, Ibn ʿUyaynah—narrated to us. ʿAmr ibn Dīnār said: I heard Jābir ibn ʿAbd Allāh say: "The Messenger of Allāh—peace and blessings be upon him—came to ʿAbd Allāh ibn Ubayy after he had been placed in his burial pit. He ordered that he be brought out; so he was removed." He placed him on his knee, blew upon him with his saliva, and dressed him in a shirt.

L9040 Abu Muhammad said: The Prophet's command—may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him—to wash and shroud the deceased is not bound by time; it remains a perpetual obligation even if the body is fragmented. There is no distinction between fragmentation due to decay and fragmentation caused by injuries and smallpox. None of these things prevent washing and shrouding him.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: أَمْرُ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِالْغُسْلِ وَالْكَفَنِ لَيْسَ مَحْدُودًا بِوَقْتٍ، فَهُوَ فَرْضٌ أَبَدًا، وَإِنْ تَقَطَّعَ الْمَيِّتُ، وَلَا فَرْقَ بَيْنَ تَقَطُّعِهِ بِالْبِلَى وَبَيْنَ تَقَطُّعِهِ بِالْجِرَاحِ، وَالْجُدَرِيِّ، لَا يَمْنَعُ شَيْءٌ مِنْ ذَلِكَ مِنْ غُسْلِهِ وَتَكْفِينِهِ؟

L9041 Issue on the Burial at Night

[مَسْأَلَةُ الدّفن لَيْلًا]

L9042 560 - Issue: It is not permissible to bury anyone at night except out of necessity, nor at sunrise until it has fully risen, nor when the sun is at its zenith until it begins to decline, nor when it begins to set, nor during the night until the emergence of the second dawn (true dawn). The funeral prayer is permissible over the deceased during all these times. Abdullah ibn Rabiʿ narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Muʿawiyah narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated to us: Yusuf ibn Saʿīd narrated to us: Hajjāj ibn Muhammad al-Aʿwar narrated to us from Ibn Jurayj, who informed me that Abū al-Zubayr heard Jābir ibn ʿAbdullāh say: "The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) delivered a sermon and forbade the burial of a person at night unless compelled by necessity."

٥٦٠ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُدْفَنَ أَحَدٌ لَيْلًا إِلَّا عَنْ ضَرُورَةٍ وَلَا عِنْدَ طُلُوعِ الشَّمْسِ حَتَّى تَرْتَفِعَ، وَلَا حِينَ اسْتِوَاءِ الشَّمْسِ حَتَّى تَأْخُذَ فِي الزَّوَالِ، وَلَا حِينَ ابْتِدَاءِ أَخْذِهَا فِي الْغُرُوبِ، وَيَتَّصِلُ ذَلِكَ بِاللَّيْلِ إِلَى طُلُوعِ الْفَجْرِ الثَّانِي، وَالصَّلَاةُ جَائِزَةٌ عَلَيْهِ فِي هَذِهِ الْأَوْقَاتِ كُلِّهَا -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا يُوسُفُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ ثنا حَجَّاجُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ الْأَعْوَرُ عَنِ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ أَخْبَرَنِي أَبُو الزُّبَيْرِ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ جَابِرَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ يَقُولُ: «خَطَبَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَزَجَرَ أَنْ يُقْبَرَ إِنْسَانٌ لَيْلًا إِلَّا أَنْ يُضْطَرَّ إِلَى ذَلِكَ» ؟ .

L9043 Abu Muhammad said: All those from him (peace be upon him), his wives, and his companions (may Allah be pleased with them) who were buried at night:

L9044 This is solely due to a necessity that necessitated it.

فَإِنَّمَا ذَلِكَ لِضَرُورَةٍ أَوْجَبَتْ ذَلِكَ

L9045–9047 Due to fear of overcrowding, fear of heat harming those present—for the heat of Medina is severe—or fear of decay or other valid reasons permitting burial at night, is it not impermissible for anyone to assume that the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—acted contrary to this? We were narrated through the chain of Yahya ibn Sa'id al-Qattan: Hisham al-Dastuwa'i narrated to us from Qatadah, from Sa'id ibn al-Musayyib, that he disapproved of burial at night. Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us;

، مِنْ خَوْفِ زِحَامٍ، أَوْ خَوْفِ الْحَرِّ عَلَى مَنْ حَضَرَ، وَحَرُّ الْمَدِينَةِ شَدِيدٌ، أَوْ خَوْفِ تَغَيُّرٍ أَوْ غَيْرِ ذَلِكَ مِمَّا يُبِيحُ الدَّفْنَ لَيْلًا، لَا يَحِلُّ لِأَحَدٍ أَنْ يَظُنَّ بِهِمْ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - خِلَافَ ذَلِكَ؟ -: رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ يَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانِ ثنا هِشَامٌ الدَّسْتُوَائِيُّ عَنْ

Abdul-Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us; Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us; Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us; Yahya ibn Yahya narrated to us; Abdullah ibn Wahb narrated from Musa ibn Ali ibn Rabah, from his father: I heard Uqbah ibn Amir say, "Three times were..." The Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him - forbade us to pray in them or bury our dead in them: when the sun rises brightly until it rises high, when the sun stands at its zenith until it declines, and when the sun inclines toward setting until it sets.

قَتَادَةَ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ: أَنَّهُ كَرِهَ الدَّفْنَ لَيْلًا؟ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ ثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَى ثنا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ وَهْبٍ عَنْ مُوسَى بْنِ عَلِيِّ بْنِ رَبَاحٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ سَمِعْتُ عُقْبَةَ بْنَ عَامِرٍ يَقُولُ: «ثَلَاثُ سَاعَاتٍ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَنْهَى أَنْ نُصَلِّيَ فِيهَا أَوْ أَنْ نَقْبُرَ فِيهِنَّ مَوْتَانَا: حِينَ تَطْلُعُ الشَّمْسُ بَازِغَةً حَتَّى تَرْتَفِعَ، وَحِينَ يَقُومُ قَائِمُ الظَّهِيرَةِ حَتَّى تَمِيلَ الشَّمْسُ، وَحِينَ تُضَيِّفُ لِلْغُرُوبِ حَتَّى تَغْرُبَ» .

L9048 Abu Muhammad said: We have previously clarified that the prayer prohibited during these times is specifically the deliberate voluntary prayer, whose initiation is undertaken with focused intent.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: قَدْ بَيَّنَّا قَبْلُ أَنَّ الصَّلَاةَ الْمَنْهِيَّ عَنْهَا فِي هَذِهِ الْأَوْقَاتِ إنَّمَا هِيَ التَّطَوُّعُ الْمُتَعَمَّدُ ابْتِدَاؤُهُ قَصْدًا إلَيْهِ.

L9049 Similarly, this ruling applies to every obligatory prayer that was intentionally neglected until the time of its remembrance—and only then—not to every prayer that is obligatory or recommended. And success is from Allah, the Most High.

وَكَذَلِكَ كُلُّ صَلَاةِ فَرْضٍ مَقْضِيَّةٍ تَعَمَّدَ تَرْكَهَا إلَى ذَلِكَ الْوَقْتِ وَهُوَ يَذْكُرُهَا فَقَطْ، لَا كُلُّ صَلَاةٍ مَأْمُورٍ بِهَا أَوْ مَنْدُوبٍ إلَيْهَا - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

The Ruling on the Funeral Prayer for Deceased Muslims.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ الصَّلَاةُ عَلَى مَوْتَى الْمُسْلِمِينَ]

L9051 Issue 561: Prayer over deceased Muslims is an obligation—Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated to us: Maḥmūd ibn Ghaylān said: Abū Dāwūd—that is, al-Ṭayālisī—narrated to us: Shuʿbah narrated from ʿUthmān ibn ʿAbdillāh ibn Mawhab: "I heard ʿAbdullāh ibn Abī Qatādah report from his father: 'The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was brought a man from the Anṣār to pray over him. He (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "Pray over your companion, for he owes a debt"—but did he mention the entire ḥadīth?'" This constitutes a general command to pray over him.

٥٦١ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَالصَّلَاةُ عَلَى مَوْتَى الْمُسْلِمِينَ: فَرْضٌ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا مَحْمُودُ بْنُ غَيْلَانَ أَنَا أَبُو دَاوُد هُوَ الطَّيَالِسِيُّ - ثنا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَوْهَبٍ سَمِعْتُ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ أَبِي قَتَادَةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أُتِيَ بِرَجُلٍ مِنْ الْأَنْصَارِ لِيُصَلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ، فَقَالَ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: صَلُّوا عَلَى صَاحِبِكُمْ، فَإِنَّ عَلَيْهِ دَيْنًا» وَذَكَرَ الْحَدِيثَ؟ فَهَذَا أَمْرٌ بِالصَّلَاةِ عَلَيْهِ عُمُومًا.

L9052 A similar ruling has also been reported concerning the embezzler of war spoils. 562 - Issue: Exempted is one killed by the hands of polytheists specifically in the cause of Allah (the Mighty and Majestic) on the battlefield specifically. He is neither washed nor shrouded but buried with his blood and garments—only his weapons are removed. Whether prayer is performed over him or not, both are permissible. If he is carried away from the battlefield alive and later dies, he is washed, shrouded, and prayed over.

Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah → Ibrahim ibn Ahmad → al-Farbari → al-Bukhari → Abdullah ibn Yusuf → al-Layth—that is, Ibn Sa'd—narrated to me: Ibn Shihab narrated to me from Abd al-Rahman ibn Ka'b ibn Malik from Jabir ibn Abdullah, who mentioned the martyrs of Uhud and said: "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) commanded their burial in their blood. They were neither washed nor prayed over."

وَرُوِيَ مِثْلُ ذَلِكَ أَيْضًا فِي الْغَالِّ؟ ٥٦٢ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: حَاشَا الْمَقْتُولِ بِأَيْدِي الْمُشْرِكِينَ خَاصَّةً فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ فِي الْمَعْرَكَةِ خَاصَّةً، فَإِنَّهُ لَا يُغَسَّلُ وَلَا يُكَفَّنُ، لَكِنْ يُدْفَنُ بِدَمِهِ وَثِيَابِهِ، إِلَّا أَنَّهُ يُنْزَعُ عَنْهُ السِّلَاحُ فَقَطْ، وَإِنْ صُلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ: فَحَسَنٌ، وَإِنْ لَمْ يُصَلَّ عَلَيْهِ: فَحَسَنٌ، فَإِنْ حُمِلَ عَنْ الْمَعْرَكَةِ وَهُوَ حَيٌّ فَمَاتَ: غُسِّلَ وَكُفِّنَ وَصُلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ثنا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا اللَّيْثُ هُوَ ابْنُ سَعْدٍ - حَدَّثَنِي ابْنُ شِهَابٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ كَعْبِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ: أَنَّهُ ذَكَرَ قَتْلَى أُحُدٍ وَقَالَ: «إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَمَرَ بِدَفْنِهِمْ فِي دِمَائِهِمْ، وَلَمْ يُغَسَّلُوا وَلَمْ يُصَلَّ عَلَيْهِمْ» .

L9053–9055 And through him also to Al-Layth ibn Sa'd: Yazīd ibn Abī Ḥabīb narrated to me, on the authority of Abū al-Khayr, on the authority of 'Uqbah ibn 'Āmir al-Juhanī, that the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him - went out one day and performed the funeral prayer for the people of Uḥud in the manner of his prayer over... The deceased—then he turned to the pulpit" and he mentioned the hadith. Abu Muhammad said: These individuals deviated from the Prophet's command (peace be upon him) concerning shrouding, washing, and prayer. The remaining cases are all others killed by a Muslim, a rebel, a belligerent, or those removed alive from the battlefield—they remain subject to the rulings governing ordinary deceased persons. Abu Hanifah held that prayer should be offered over them. Abu Muhammad said: It is invalid to discard either of the two mentioned precedents for the other. Both constitute valid and permissible rulings. This is not a case for abrogation, as their concurrent application is possible under differing circumstances.[1]

وَبِهِ أَيْضًا إِلَى اللَّيْثِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ: حَدَّثَنِي يَزِيدُ بْنُ أَبِي حَبِيبٍ عَنْ أَبِي الْخَيْرِ عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ الْجُهَنِيِّ «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - خَرَجَ يَوْمًا فَصَلَّى عَلَى أَهْلِ أُحُدٍ صَلَاتَهُ عَلَى الْمَيِّتِ، ثُمَّ انْصَرَفَ إِلَى الْمِنْبَرِ» وَذَكَرَ الْحَدِيثَ -: قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: فَخَرَجَ هَؤُلَاءِ عَنْ أَمْرِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِالْكَفَنِ، وَالْغُسْلِ، وَالصَّلَاةِ - وَبَقِيَ سَائِرُ مَنْ قَتَلَهُ مُسْلِمٌ، أَوْ بَاغٍ، أَوْ مُحَارِبٌ، أَوْ رُفِعَ عَنْ الْمَعْرَكَةِ حَيًّا - عَلَى حُكْمِ سَائِرِ الْمَوْتَى، وَذَهَبَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ إِلَى أَنْ يُصَلَّى عَلَيْهِمْ -: قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: لَيْسَ يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُتْرَكَ أَحَدُ الْأَثَرَيْنِ الْمَذْكُورَيْنِ لِلْآخَرِ، بَلْ كِلَاهُمَا حَقٌّ مُبَاحٌ، وَلَيْسَ هَذَا مَكَانَ نَسْخٍ؛ لِأَنَّ اسْتِعْمَالَهُمَا مَعًا مُمْكِنٌ فِي أَحْوَالٍ مُخْتَلِفَةٍ.

L9056 It has been authentically reported from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) that those who die of intestinal disease, the plague-stricken, the drowned, those who perish by burning, the one afflicted with pleurisy, the one crushed by a collapsing structure, and the woman who dies in childbirth: all of them are martyrs.

وَقَدْ صَحَّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «أَنَّ الْمَبْطُونَ، وَالْمَطْعُونَ، وَالْغَرِيقَ، وَالْحَرِيقَ، وَصَاحِبَ ذَاتِ الْجَنْبِ، وَصَاحِبَ الْهَدَمِ، وَالْمَرْأَةَ تَمُوتُ بِجُمْعٍ -: شُهَدَاءُ كُلُّهُمْ».

L9057 There is no disagreement that he—peace be upon him—shrouded others during his lifetime and ritually washed those among them who died. Success comes solely from Allah, the Exalted.

وَلَا خِلَافَ فِي أَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - كَفَّنَ فِي حَيَاتِهِ، وَغَسَّلَ مَنْ مَاتَ فِيهِمْ مِنْ هَؤُلَاءِ - وَبِاللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L9058 Were ʻUmar, ʻUthman, and ʻAli—may Allah be pleased with them—martyrs, so they were washed, shrouded, and prayed over? And is there no valid evidence for not leaving marks on the whipped person, since its narrator is ʻAli ibn ʻĀṣim, who is deemed unreliable?

وَقَدْ كَانَ عُمَرُ، وَعُثْمَانُ، وَعَلِيٌّ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -: شُهَدَاءَ، فَغُسِّلُوا، وَكُفِّنُوا وَصُلِّيَ عَلَيْهِمْ؟ وَلَا يَصِحُّ فِي تَرْكِ الْمَجْلُودِ أَثَرٌ؛ لِأَنَّ رَاوِيهِ عَلِيُّ بْنُ عَاصِمٍ، وَلَيْسَ بِشَيْءٍ؟

Issue: Deepening the Grave's Digging

[مَسْأَلَةُ إِعْمَاقُ حَفِيرِ الْقَبْرِ]

L9060 Issue 563: It is obligatory to deepen the grave. Burying a Muslim is obligatory, and it is permissible to bury two or three individuals in a single grave, with precedence given to the one who has memorized the most Quran.

The Issue of Burying the Disbeliever

[مَسْأَلَةُ دَفْنُ الْكَافِرِ]

L9065 Issue 564: The burial of a belligerent disbeliever and others is obligatory. Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah narrated to us, Ibrahim ibn Ahmad narrated to us, al-Farbari narrated to us, al-Bukhari narrated to us, Abdullah ibn Muhammad reported hearing Rawh ibn Ubada narrate from Saʿid ibn Abi Arubah, who reported from Qatadah that he said: "Anas ibn Malik informed us that the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him - commanded on the day of Badr that twenty-four men from the chieftains of Quraysh be cast into a foul and defiling well among the wells of Badr." The Prophet's prohibition against mutilation (peace be upon him) has been authentically established.

٥٦٤ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَدَفْنُ الْكَافِرِ الْحَرْبِيِّ وَغَيْرِهِ: فَرْضٌ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ثنا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ سَمِعَ رَوْحَ بْنَ عُبَادَةَ ثنا سَعِيدُ بْنُ أَبِي عَرُوبَةَ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ قَالَ: ذَكَرَ لَنَا أَنَسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ: «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَمَرَ يَوْمَ بَدْرٍ بِأَرْبَعَةٍ وَعِشْرِينَ رَجُلًا مِنْ صَنَادِيدِ قُرَيْشٍ فَقُذِفُوا فِي طَوِيٍّ مِنْ أَطْوَاءِ بَدْرٍ خَبِيثٍ مُخْبِثٍ» . وَقَدْ صَحَّ نَهْيُهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - عَنْ الْمُثْلَةِ.

L9066 Leaving a human unburied is mutilation.

وَتَرْكُ الْإِنْسَانِ لَا يُدْفَنُ: مُثْلَةٌ.

L9067–9069 It has been authentically reported that "the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) commanded, when he ordered the killing of Banu Qurayẓah, that trenches be dug and they be cast into them." From ʿAbdullāh ibn Rabīʿ → Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah → Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb → ʿAbdullāh ibn Saʿīd: Yaḥyā—that is, Ibn al-Qaṭṭān—narrated to us from Sufyān al-Thawrī from Abū Isḥāq al-Sabīʿī from Nājiyah ibn Kaʿb from ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib, who said:

وَصَحَّ أَنَّ «رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَمَرَ إِذْ قَتَلَ بَنِي قُرَيْظَةَ بِأَنْ تُحْفَرَ خَنَادِقُ وَيُلْقَوْا فِيهَا» -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ ثنا يَحْيَى هُوَ ابْنُ الْقَطَّانِ - عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ السَّبِيعِيِّ

"I said to the Prophet (peace be upon him): 'Your misguided uncle has died—who will bury him?' He replied: 'Go and bury your father.'" He then mentioned the remainder of the ḥadīth. Narrated by ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī, from Sufyān al-Thawrī, from Abū Sinān ʿAbdullāh ibn Sinān, from Saʿīd ibn Jubayr, who said: I said to Ibn ʿAbbās, "A man among us died as a Christian and left his son." He replied: "He should accompany him and bury him." Sufyān stated: I heard Ḥammād ibn Abī Sufyān narrate from al-Shaʿbī that the mother of al-Ḥārith ibn Abī Rabīʿah died as a Christian, and the Companions of the Prophet (peace be upon him) escorted her funeral procession.

Issue: The Best Burial Shroud (Kafan) for a Muslim

[مَسْأَلَةٌ أَفْضَلُ الْكَفَنِ لِلْمُسْلِمِ]

565 – Issue: The best shroud for a Muslim is three white garments for the man, in which he is wrapped. There should be no shirt, turban, trousers, or cotton in them. The woman is the same, with two additional garments.

٥٦٥ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَأَفْضَلُ الْكَفَنِ لِلْمُسْلِمِ: ثَلَاثَةُ أَثْوَابٍ بِيضٍ لِلرَّجُلِ، يُلَفُّ فِيهَا، لَا يَكُونُ فِيهَا قَمِيصٌ، وَلَا عِمَامَةٌ، وَلَا سَرَاوِيلُ، وَلَا قُطْنٌ. وَالْمَرْأَةُ كَذَلِكَ، وَثَوْبَانِ زَائِدَانِ.

But if he cannot acquire more than one garment, it suffices him.

فَإِنْ لَمْ يَقْدِرْ لَهُ عَلَى أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ثَوْبٍ وَاحِدٍ أَجْزَأَهُ.

If no garment is found for the two except a single one: they are both to be wrapped together in it.

فَإِنْ لَمْ يُوجَدْ لِلِاثْنَيْنِ إِلَّا ثَوْبٌ وَاحِدٌ: أُدْرِجَا فِيهِ جَمِيعًا.

If a man and a woman are shrouded with fewer or more [wrappings], there is no blame. Abd al-Rahman ibn Abdullah narrated to us through Ibrahim ibn Ahmad through al-Farbari through al-Bukhari through Ismail ibn Abi Uways through Malik through Hisham ibn Urwah through his father through Aisha, who said: "The Prophet (peace be upon him) was shrouded in three white Suhuli cloths, containing neither a shirt nor a turban." Abu Muhammad said: "Allah the Exalted did not choose for His Prophet except the best of conditions." Through the same chain of transmission to al-Bukhari: Musaddad narrated to us through Yahya ibn Sa'id al-Qattan through Ubaydullah - the son of Umar - who said: "Nafi narrated to me from Ibn Umar, who said: 'When Abdullah ibn Ubayy died, his son came to the Prophet (peace be upon him) and said: 'Give me your shirt to shroud him in, pray over him, and seek forgiveness for him.' He gave him his shirt and said: 'Notify me when you are ready for me to pray over him,'" and he mentioned the rest of the hadith. Through the same chain of transmission to al-Bukhari: Umar ibn Hafs ibn Ghiyath narrated to us through his father through al-Aʿmash through Shaqiq through Khabbab, who said: "We emigrated with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) seeking Allah's countenance, thus our reward became incumbent upon Allah. Among us were those who died without having consumed any portion of their reward, such as Musʿab ibn Umayr who was killed on the day of Uhud. We found nothing to shroud him in except a cloak." Except for a cloak: when we covered his head, his feet were exposed, and when we covered his feet, his head was exposed. So the Prophet, peace be upon him, commanded us to cover his head and to place some idhkhir over his feet.

L9077 Abu Muhammad said: Is it obligatory in this case to shroud someone for whom only a single garment is found that does not cover his entire body? Abu Muhammad said: Here is a hadith in which its narrator made an inadvertent error - we have narrated it via Ahmad ibn Hanbal from al-Hasan ibn Musa al-Ashyab from Hammad ibn Salama from Abdullah ibn Muhammad ibn Aqil ibn Abi Talib from Muhammad ibn Ali ibn Abi Talib - he is Ibn al-Hanafiyya - from his father: "The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) was shrouded in seven sheets."[2]

L9078 The uncertainty here is from al-Ḥasan ibn Mūsā or ʿAbdullāh ibn Muḥammad ibn ʿAqīl. Should someone mention the report we transmitted via Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān, who said: I heard Saʿīd ibn Abī ʿArūbah narrating from Ayyūb, from Abū Qilābah, from Abū al-Muhallab, from Samurah ibn Jundub, from the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—who said: "Wear white garments from among your clothes, for they are purer and cleaner. Shroud your dead in it."

L9079 We said: This is not an obligation, for it is authentically established that he—peace be upon him—wore a red two-piece garment and a black cloak. Abdullāh ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us, who narrated to us from ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-Malik, who narrated to us from Muḥammad ibn Bakr, who narrated to us from Abū Dāwūd, who narrated to us from al-Qaʿnabī, from ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz ibn Muḥammad—he is al-Darāwardī—from Zayd—who is the son of Aslam—that Ibn ʿUmar was asked: "Why do you dye with yellow?" He replied: "I saw the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—dye with it. Nothing was more beloved to him than it, and he would dye all his garments with it, even his turban ʿimāmah." ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbdullāh narrated to us, who narrated to us from Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad, who narrated to us from al-Farbarī, who narrated to us from al-Bukhārī, who narrated to us from ʿAmr ibn ʿĀṣim, who narrated to us from Hammām ibn Yaḥyā, from Qatādah, who said: "I asked Anas ibn Mālik: 'Which clothing was most beloved to the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him?' He answered: 'al-ḥibarah (a type of striped Yemeni cloth)'."

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: لَا يَحِلُّ أَنْ يُتْرَكَ حَدِيثٌ لِحَدِيثٍ، بَلْ كُلُّهَا حَقٌّ، فَصَحَّ أَنَّ الْأَمْرَ بِالْبَيَاضِ نَدْبٌ؟ وَبِاخْتِيَارِنَا هَذَا يَقُولُ جُمْهُورُ السَّلَفِ: كَمَا رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ: أَنَّ أَبَا بَكْرٍ الصِّدِّيقَ قَالَ لَهَا فِي حَدِيثٍ " فِيمَ كَفَّنْتُمُوهُ؟ - يَعْنِي النَّبِيَّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَتْ فِي ثَلَاثَةِ أَثْوَابٍ بِيضٍ سُحُولٍ لَيْسَ فِيهَا قَمِيصٌ وَلَا عِمَامَةٌ، فَقَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: انْظُرُوا ثَوْبِي هَذَا فَاغْسِلُوهُ، وَبِهِ رَدْعٌ مِنْ زَعْفَرَانٍ أَوْ مِشْقٍ وَاجْعَلُوا مَعَهُ ثَوْبَيْنِ آخَرَيْنِ ".

L9080–9081 Abu Muhammad said: It is not permissible to abandon one hadith for another, for all of them are truth. Thus, it is established that the directive regarding white garments is a recommended act. According to this position we have chosen, the majority of the Salaf state - as narrated to us through Hammad ibn Salamah's chain from Hisham ibn Urwah from his father from Aisha - that Abu Bakr al-Siddiq asked her: "In what did you shroud him?" meaning the Prophet, peace be upon him. She replied: "In three white Suhuli garments, in which there was no shirt or turban." Abu Bakr then said: "Look at this garment of mine. Wash it, and it has a dye of saffron or mishq [a plant-based dye], and add two other garments with it."

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ: كُفِّنَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ فِي ثَلَاثَةِ أَثْوَابٍ: ثَوْبَيْنِ سُحُولِيَّيْنِ، وَثَوْبٍ كَانَ يَلْبَسُهُ

L9082 From the narration of Ibn Umar, he said: Umar ibn al-Khattab was shrouded in three garments: two Sahuli garments and one he used to wear.

L9083 Narrated by Abu Hurairah that he said to his family upon his death: "Do not clothe me in a shirt nor place a turban on me, for indeed the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was not clothed in a shirt nor was a turban placed on him."

«وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ لِأَهْلِهِ عِنْدَ مَوْتِهِ لَا تُقَمِّصُونِي وَلَا تُعَمِّمُونِي فَإِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - لَمْ يُقَمَّصْ وَلَمْ يُعَمَّمْ» .

L9084 From Ibn Jurayj, from ʿAṭāʾ: The deceased should not be turbaned, nor wrapped with an izār (lower garment), nor draped with a ridāʾ (upper garment), but rather enveloped in the shrouds plainly.

وَعَنْ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ: لَا يُعَمَّمُ الْمَيِّتُ وَلَا يُؤَزَّرُ وَلَا يُرَدَّى لَكِنْ يُلَفُّ فِيهَا لَفًّا.

L9085 Ibn Jurayj said: Ibn Tāwus informed me from his father that he would shroud a man from his family in three garments, none of which was a turban.

قَالَ ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ: وَأَخْبَرَنِي ابْنُ طَاوُسٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يُكَفِّنُ الرَّجُلَ مِنْ أَهْلِهِ فِي ثَلَاثَةِ أَثْوَابٍ لَيْسَ فِيهَا عِمَامَةٌ.

L9086 And this is the preferred opinion of Al-Shāfiʿī, Abū Sulaymān, Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, and their followers.

وَهُوَ اخْتِيَارُ الشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَأَحْمَدَ بْنِ حَنْبَلٍ، وَأَصْحَابِهِمْ.

L9087–9089 In this manner, Baqī ibn Makhlad and Qāsim ibn Muḥammad were shrouded. Did al-Khushanī and others present issue a fatwa on that? As for the shroud of a woman, ʻAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʻAbd Allāh narrated to us, saying: Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad narrated to us, al-Farabrī narrated to us, al-Bukhārī narrated to us, Ḥāmid ibn ʻUmar narrated to us, Ḥammād ibn Zayd narrated to us, from Ayyūb al-Sakhtiyānī, from Muḥammad ibn Sīrīn, from Umm ʻAṭiyyah, who said: "One of the daughters of the Prophet—may God's prayers and peace be upon him—died. He came to us and said: 'Wash her three times, five times, or more if you (women) deem necessary, with water and lote leaves. Place in the final wash...'" Camphor or a portion of camphor. When you [women] have finished, notify me." She said: When the women finished, they notified him. He then handed us his waist-wrapper and said: "Shroud her with it."[3]

وَهَكَذَا كُفِّنَ بَقِيُّ بْنُ مَخْلَدٍ، وَقَاسِمُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ: أَفْتَى بِذَلِكَ الْخُشَنِيُّ، وَغَيْرُهُ مِمَّنْ حَضَرَ؟ وَأَمَّا كَفَنُ الْمَرْأَةِ فَإِنَّ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ حَدَّثَنَا قَالَ: ثنا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا حَامِدُ بْنُ عُمَرَ ثنا حَمَّادُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سِيرِينَ عَنْ أُمِّ عَطِيَّةَ قَالَتْ: «تُوُفِّيَتْ إِحْدَى بَنَاتِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَخَرَجَ فَقَالَ: اغْسِلْنَهَا ثَلَاثًا أَوْ خَمْسًا أَوْ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ذَلِكَ إِنْ رَأَيْتُنَّ بِمَاءٍ وَسِدْرٍ، وَاجْعَلْنَ فِي الْآخِرَةِ كَافُورًا أَوْ شَيْئًا مِنْ كَافُورٍ، فَإِذَا فَرَغْتُنَّ فَآذِنَّنِي؟ قَالَتْ فَلَمَّا فَرَغْنَ آذَنَّاهُ فَأَلْقَى إِلَيْنَا حِقْوَهُ وَقَالَ: أَشْعِرْنَهَا إِيَّاهُ» .

L9090 It is narrated from Al-Ḥasan: "A woman is shrouded in five garments: a tunic, a veil, and three winding sheets." From al-Nakhaʿī: "A woman is shrouded in five garments: a tunic, a veil, a winding sheet, a waist-wrapper, and a cloak."

وَرُوِّينَا عَنْ الْحَسَنِ قَالَ: تُكَفَّنُ الْمَرْأَةُ فِي خَمْسَةِ أَثْوَابٍ: دِرْعٍ، وَخِمَارٍ، وَثَلَاثِ لَفَائِفَ وَعَنْ النَّخَعِيِّ: تُكَفَّنُ الْمَرْأَةُ فِي خَمْسَةِ أَثْوَابٍ: دِرْعٍ، وَخِمَارٍ، وَلِفَافَةٍ، وَمِنْطَقَةٍ، وَرِدَاءٍ

L9091 From Ibn Sīrīn: A woman is shrouded in five garments: a chemise, a head covering, two winding sheets, and a cloth? From al-Shaʿbī: A woman is shrouded in five garments, and a man in three?

Issue: A man died owing a debt that exhausts all his estate.

566 - Issue: If someone dies while owing a debt that exhausts all they left behind, everything they left belongs to the creditors. The creditors are not obligated to provide his burial shroud; this duty falls upon the rest of the Muslims present. This is because Allah, the Exalted, has not designated inheritance or bequest except for what a person leaves after their debt. Thus, it is established that debt takes precedence, and the deceased has no right to retain the amount owed as debt from what remains of his estate. Therefore, if he left nothing, the duty to shroud him falls upon everyone present, whether a creditor or a non-creditor.

Based on the statement of Allah, the Most High: "Indeed, the believers are brothers" [Al-Hujurat: 10].[4]

The statement of the Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—, "Whoever takes charge of his brother, let him prepare an excellent burial shroud."

And we have indeed mentioned it earlier, along with its isnād.

Every guardian of the deceased is commanded to provide a proper shroud for him, and it is impermissible to restrict this obligation exclusively to creditors while excluding others.

Is this the opinion of Abū Sulaymān and his companions? If anything remains after settling the debt, the burial shroud takes priority from that remainder before the execution of the will and distribution of inheritance. This is because of what we mentioned earlier: "that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) shrouded Muṣʿab ibn ʿUmayr (may Allah be pleased with him) in the Prophet's own cloak when he left nothing else behind, and thus did not give it to his heir."

[مَسْأَلَةٌ مَاتَ وَعَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ يَسْتَغْرِقُ كُلَّ مَا تَرَكَ]

٥٦٦ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ مَاتَ وَعَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ يَسْتَغْرِقُ كُلَّ مَا تَرَكَ: فَكُلُّ مَا تَرَكَ لِلْغُرَمَاءِ، وَلَا يَلْزَمُهُمْ كَفَنُهُ دُونَ سَائِرِ مَنْ حَضَرَ مِنْ الْمُسْلِمِينَ؟ لِأَنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى لَمْ يَجْعَلْ مِيرَاثًا وَلَا وَصِيَّةً إلَّا فِيمَا يُخَلِّفُهُ الْمَرْءُ بَعْدَ دَيْنِهِ، فَصَحَّ أَنَّ الدَّيْنَ مُقَدَّمٌ، وَأَنَّهُ لَا حَقَّ لَهُ فِي مِقْدَارِ دَيْنِهِ مِمَّا يَتَخَلَّفُهُ، فَإِذْ هُوَ كَذَلِكَ فَحَقُّ تَكْفِينِهِ - إذَا لَمْ يَتْرُكْ شَيْئًا - وَاجِبٌ عَلَى كُلِّ مَنْ حَضَرَ مِنْ غَرِيمٍ، أَوْ غَيْرِ غَرِيمٍ.

لِقَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {إِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ إِخْوَةٌ} [الحجرات: ١٠]

وَقَوْلِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «مَنْ وَلِيَ أَخَاهُ فَلْيُحْسِنْ كَفَنَهُ» .

وَقَدْ ذَكَرْنَاهُ قَبْلُ بِإِسْنَادِهِ.

فَكُلُّ مَنْ وَلِيَهُ فَهُوَ مَأْمُورٌ بِإِحْسَانِ كَفَنِهِ، وَلَا يَحِلُّ أَنْ يُخَصَّ بِذَلِكَ الْغُرَمَاءُ دُونَ غَيْرِهِمْ.

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ وَأَصْحَابِهِ؟ فَإِنْ فَضَلَ عَنْ الدَّيْنِ شَيْءٌ فَالْكَفَنُ مُقَدَّمٌ فِيهِ قَبْلَ الْوَصِيَّةِ وَالْمِيرَاثِ -: لِمَا ذَكَرْنَا قَبْلُ مِنْ «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - كَفَّنَ مُصْعَبَ بْنَ عُمَيْرٍ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - فِي بُرْدَةٍ لَهُ لَمْ يَتْرُكْ شَيْئًا غَيْرَهَا، فَلَمْ يَجْعَلْهَا لِوَارِثِهِ»

[4] Qur'an references (L9094): Qur'an 49:10 (Al-Hujurat).

وَهَذَا لَا خِلَافَ فِيهِ، وَلِأَنَّ تَكْلِيفَ مَا عَدَا هَذَا دَاخِلٌ فِي الْحَرَجِ وَالْمُمْتَنِعِ، قَالَ تَعَالَى: {وَمَا جَعَلَ عَلَيْكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ مِنْ حَرَجٍ} [الحج: ٧٨]

L9100 567 – Legal Ruling: Everything we have mentioned as being a collective obligation (farḍ al-kifāyah) - such as washing the deceased, shrouding him, burying him, and praying over him - becomes lifted from the rest of the people if someone fulfills it.

L9101 There is no disagreement regarding this, and because imposing obligations beyond this entails constriction and the impossible. Allah, the Most High, said: “He has not placed upon you in the religion any hardship” [Al-Hajj: 78].[5]

[مَسْأَلَةٌ صِفَةُ غُسْلِ الْمَيِّتِ]

L9102 Issue: The Description of Washing the Deceased

٥٦٨ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَصِفَةُ الْغُسْلِ أَنْ يَغْسِلَ جَمِيعَ جَسَدِ الْمَيِّتِ وَرَأْسَهُ بِمَاءٍ قَدْ رُمِيَ فِيهِ شَيْءٌ مِنْ سِدْرٍ وَلَا بُدَّ، إنْ وُجِدَ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يُوجَدْ فَبِالْمَاءِ وَحْدَهُ -: ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ وَلَا بُدَّ، يُبْتَدَأُ بِالْمَيَامِنِ، وَيُوَضَّأُ -: فَإِنْ أَحَبُّوا الزِّيَادَةَ فَعَلَى الْوِتْرِ أَبَدًا: إمَّا ثَلَاثُ مَرَّاتٍ، وَإِمَّا خَمْسُ مَرَّاتٍ، وَإِمَّا سَبْعُ مَرَّاتٍ وَيَجْعَلُ فِي آخِرِ غَسَلَاتِهِ - إنْ غُسِّلَ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ مَرَّةٍ - شَيْئًا مِنْ كَافُورٍ وَلَا بُدَّ فَرْضًا، فَإِنْ لَمْ يُوجَدْ فَلَا حَرَجَ، لِأَمْرِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِذَلِكَ كُلِّهِ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ ثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَى أَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ زُرَيْعٍ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سِيرِينَ عَنْ أُمِّ عَطِيَّةَ قَالَتْ «دَخَلَ عَلَيْنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَنَحْنُ نُغَسِّلُ ابْنَتَهُ فَقَالَ: اغْسِلْنَهَا ثَلَاثًا، أَوْ خَمْسًا، أَوْ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ ذَلِكَ، إنْ رَأَيْتُنَّ ذَلِكَ بِمَاءٍ وَسِدْرٍ، وَاجْعَلْنَ فِي الْآخِرَةِ كَافُورًا أَوْ شَيْئًا مِنْ كَافُورٍ» .

L9103 568. Issue: The method of ghusl is to wash the entire body of the deceased and their head with water containing some sidr leaves – if available; otherwise, with plain water. This must be done three times in all cases. Begin with the right side and perform ablution (wudu). If they wish to increase the washings, it must always be in odd increments: three, five, or seven times. In the final washing – if washed more than once – some camphor must be added as an obligatory requirement if available. If unavailable, there is no blame, in accordance with the command of Allah’s Messenger (peace be upon him) in all these matters.

Narrated by ‘Abdullāh ibn Yūsuf, Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ, ‘Abd al-Wahhāb ibn ‘Īsā, Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad, Aḥmad ibn ‘Alī, Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj, Yaḥyā ibn Yaḥyā, Yazīd ibn Zurai‘, Ayyūb al-Sakhtiyānī, Muḥammad ibn Sīrīn, from Umm ‘Aṭiyyah, who said: “Allah’s Messenger (peace be upon him) entered upon us while we were washing his daughter. He said: ’Wash her three times, five times, or more if you see fit – with water and sidr. Place camphor or a portion thereof in the final wash.’”[6] narrated to us, Al-Farbari narrated to us, Al-Bukhari narrated to us, Yahya ibn Musa narrated to us, Waki' narrated to us from Sufyan Ath-Thawri from Khalid Al-Hadhdha' from Hafsah bint Sirin from Umm 'Atiyyah, who said: "When we washed the daughter of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), he instructed us: 'Begin on her right side and the areas of ablution.'" حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ خَالِدٍ ثنا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ مُوسَى ثنا وَكِيعٌ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ خَالِدٍ الْحَذَّاءِ عَنْ حَفْصَةَ بِنْتِ سِيرِينَ عَنْ «أُمِّ عَطِيَّةَ قَالَتْ لَمَّا غَسَّلْنَا بِنْتَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ لَنَا: ابْدَأْنَ بِمَيَامِنِهَا وَمَوَاضِعِ الْوُضُوءِ» .

L9106 Allah, the Exalted, said: {Allah does not burden a soul beyond its capacity} [Al-Baqarah: 286].[7] وَقَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {لا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلا وُسْعَهَا} [البقرة: ٢٨٦] .

L9107 And He, the Exalted, said: "Allah does not burden a soul except with what He has endowed it." [At-Talaq: 7][8]

وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {لا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلا مَا آتَاهَا} [الطلاق: ٧]

L9108 It has been established that whoever Allah, the Exalted, has not granted lote tree leaves or camphor, He has not obligated him regarding those two. It has been narrated to us from Ibn Jurayj, from ʿAṭāʾ: "The deceased is washed three, five, or seven times, all of these washings with water and lote tree leaves. In each washing, his head and body are washed." Ibn Jurayj said: "I asked him: 'If lote tree leaves are not found, should marshmallow plant be used?' He replied: 'No, lote tree leaves will be found.'"

فَصَحَّ أَنَّ مَنْ لَمْ يُؤْتِهِ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى سِدْرًا وَلَا كَافُورًا فَلَمْ يُكَلِّفْهُ إِيَّاهُمَا -: رُوِّينَا عَنْ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ: يُغَسَّلُ الْمَيِّتُ ثَلَاثًا أَوْ خَمْسًا أَوْ سَبْعًا، كُلُّهُنَّ بِمَاءٍ وَسِدْرٍ، فِي كُلِّهِنَّ يُغْسَلُ رَأْسُهُ وَجَسَدُهُ قَالَ ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ: فَقُلْت لَهُ: فَإِنْ لَمْ يُوجَدْ سِدْرٌ خَطْمِيٌّ؟ قَالَ: لَا، سَيُوجَدُ السِّدْرُ.

L9109 He held that a single instance suffices—and is this an opinion from him? From Sulaymān ibn Mūsā and Ibrāhīm: The ritual washing (ghusl) of the deceased is three times.

وَرَأَى الْوَاحِدَةَ تُجْزِئُ، وَهَذَا رَأْيٌ مِنْهُ؟ وَعَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ مُوسَى، وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ: غُسْلُ الْمَيِّتِ ثَلَاثُ مَرَّاتٍ.

L9110 It is reported from Muḥammad ibn Sīrīn and Ibrāhīm [al-Nakhaʿī] that the deceased is washed an odd number of times.

وَعَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سِيرِينَ، وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ: يُغَسَّلُ الْمَيِّتُ وِتْرًا.

L9111 From Ibn Sīrīn: The deceased is washed twice with water and lote leaves (sidr), and the third time with water containing camphor. And a woman is also treated similarly.

وَعَنْ ابْنِ سِيرِينَ: يُغَسَّلُ مَرَّتَيْنِ بِمَاءٍ وَسِدْرٍ، وَالثَّالِثَةَ بِمَاءٍ فِيهِ كَافُورٌ. وَالْمَرْأَةُ أَيْضًا كَذَلِكَ.

L9112 From Qatadah, from Sa'id ibn al-Musayyib: The deceased is washed first with plain water, then with water mixed with sidr (lote tree) leaves, and finally with water and camphor.

وَعَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ: الْمَيِّتُ يُغَسَّلُ بِمَاءٍ، ثُمَّ بِمَاءٍ وَسِدْرٍ، ثُمَّ بِمَاءٍ وَكَافُورٍ.

[7] Qur'an references (L9106): Qur'an 2:286 (Al-Baqarah).
[8] Qur'an references (L9107): Qur'an 65:7 (At-Talaq).

From Ibn Sīrīn: The deceased is given ghusl as the living are given wudu, commencing with their right side.

وَعَنْ ابْنِ سِيرِينَ: الْمَيِّتُ يُوَضَّأُ كَمَا يُوَضَّأُ الْحَيُّ يُبْدَأُ بِمَيَامِنِهِ.

From Qatādah: The ritual washing begins with the right limbs of the deceased, i.e., during the washing?

وَعَنْ قَتَادَةَ يُبْدَأُ بِمَيَامِنِ الْمَيِّتِ، يَعْنِي فِي الْغُسْلِ؟

A jurisprudential issue concerning the unavailability of water when intending to wash the deceased.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ عُدِمَ الْمَاءُ عِنْد إرَادَة غَسَلَ الْمَيِّت]

Ruling: If water is unavailable, tayammum must necessarily be performed on the deceased, as the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "The earth has been made for me a place of prostration and a means of purification when water is not found."

مَسْأَلَةٌ: فَإِنْ عُدِمَ الْمَاءُ يُمِّمَ الْمَيِّتُ وَلَا بُدَّ، لِقَوْلِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «جُعِلَتْ لِي الْأَرْضُ مَسْجِدًا وَطَهُورًا إذَا لَمْ نَجِدْ الْمَاءَ» .

A Juristic Issue: The Adequacy of a Man's Clothing in Impermissible Contexts

[مَسْأَلَةٌ تَكْفِينُ الرَّجُلِ فِيمَا لَا يَحِلُّ لِبَاسُهُ]

Issue 570: It is forbidden to shroud a man in materials unlawful for him to wear, such as silk, gold-embroidered, or saffron-dyed cloth. However, it is permissible to shroud a woman in all such materials, as mentioned in the Chapter on Prayer regarding the Messenger of Allah's (peace and blessings be upon him) ruling: "Silk and gold are forbidden for the men of my Ummah but permissible for their women."

٥٧٠ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَا يَحِلُّ تَكْفِينُ الرَّجُلِ فِيمَا لَا يَحِلُّ لِبَاسُهُ، مِنْ حَرِيرٍ، أَوْ مُذَهَّبٍ، أَوْ مُعَصْفَرٍ. وَجَائِزٌ تَكْفِينُ الْمَرْأَةِ فِي كُلِّ ذَلِكَ، لِمَا قَدْ ذَكَرْنَاهُ فِي كِتَابِ الصَّلَاةِ مِنْ «قَوْلِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي الْحَرِيرِ، وَالذَّهَبِ إنَّهُمَا حَرَامٌ عَلَى ذُكُورِ أُمَّتِي حِلٌّ لِإِنَاثِهَا» .

And similarly, he said regarding safflower-dyed material: Did he not, peace be upon him, prohibit men from it?

وَكَذَلِكَ قَالَ فِي الْمُعَصْفَرِ: إذْ نَهَى - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - الرِّجَالَ عَنْهُ؟

The shrouding of a woman and the digging of her grave are from her estate.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ كَفَنُ الْمَرْأَةِ وَحَفْرُ قَبْرِهَا مِنْ رَأْسِ مَالِهَا]

Issue 571: The shroud of a woman and the digging of her grave are to be funded from her own estate, and her husband bears no obligation in this matter. This is because Muslims' wealth remains protected unless explicitly mandated by a Quranic injunction or Sunnah-based ruling. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "Verily, your blood and your wealth are inviolable for you."

٥٧١ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَكَفَنُ الْمَرْأَةِ وَحَفْرُ قَبْرِهَا مِنْ رَأْسِ مَالِهَا، وَلَا يَلْزَمُ ذَلِكَ زَوْجَهَا، لِأَنَّ أَمْوَالَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ مَحْظُورَةٌ إلَّا بِنَصِّ قُرْآنٍ أَوْ سُنَّةٍ، قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «إنَّ دِمَاءَكُمْ وَأَمْوَالَكُمْ عَلَيْكُمْ حَرَامٌ» .

L9123 Indeed, Allah the Exalted has obligated upon the husband financial maintenance, garments, and lodging. Yet in the language Allah has used to address us, the shroud is not termed “garments,” nor is the grave called a “dwelling.”

L9124 ## The Legal Issue Pertaining to the Prayer over the Deceased

L9125 572. Issue: The funeral prayer is performed with an Imam standing and facing the Qiblah, the people in rows behind him. The Imam stands at the head of a man and at the mid-section of a woman.

L9126 Abd al-Rahman ibn Abd Allah narrated to us from Ibrahim ibn Ahmad from al-Farbari from al-Bukhari from Musaddad from Abu Awanah from Qatadah from Ata’ from Jabir ibn Abd Allah, who said: “The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—prayed over the Najashi, and I was in the second row, or the third.”

L9127 Is there no disagreement that it is a standing prayer, with no bowing, prostration, sitting, or tashahhud?

L9128–9130 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath → Abdul-Wahhab ibn Isa → Ahmad ibn Muhammad → Ahmad ibn Ali → Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj → Yahya ibn Yahya, who said: “I [narrate] from Abdul-Warith ibn Sa‘id → Husayn ibn Dhakwan. Abdullah ibn Buraidah narrated to me from Samurah ibn Jundub, who said: ’I prayed behind the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—and he led prayers for Umm Ka‘b, who died during her postpartum bleeding. The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—stood in...” The prayer over it is its midpoint [i.e., the middle prayer (ʿAṣr)].

L9131 It was also narrated to us via the chain of al-Bukhārī from Musaddad, who narrated to us: Yazīd ibn Zurayʿ, from al-Ḥusayn ibn Dhakwān, through his chain of transmission.

L9132 And it was also transmitted by Yazīd ibn Hārūn, al-Faḍl ibn Mūsā, and ʿAbdullāh ibn al-Mubārak—all of them narrating from al-Ḥusayn ibn Dhakwān with his chain of transmission.

وَإِنَّمَا أَوْجَبَ تَعَالَى عَلَى الزَّوْجِ النَّفَقَةَ، وَالْكِسْوَةَ، وَالْإِسْكَانَ، وَلَا يُسَمَّى فِي اللُّغَةِ الَّتِي خَاطَبَنَا اللَّهُ تَعَالَى بِهَا الْكَفَنُ: كِسْوَةً، وَلَا الْقَبْرُ: إِسْكَانًا

[مَسْأَلَةُ الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى الْمَيِّتِ]

٥٧٢ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَيُصَلَّى عَلَى الْمَيِّتِ بِإِمَامٍ يَقِفُ وَيَسْتَقْبِلُ الْقِبْلَةَ، وَالنَّاسُ وَرَاءَهُ صُفُوفٌ، وَيَقِفُ مِنَ الرَّجُلِ عِنْدَ رَأْسِهِ، وَمِنَ الْمَرْأَةِ عِنْدَ وَسَطِهَا.

He stood at his head, uttered four takbirs without prolonging or hastening them, then moved to sit down. They said: "O Abu Hamzah, what about the Ansari woman?" They brought her forward on a green bier. He stood at her hips and prayed over her in the same manner as he prayed over the man. When he sat down, al-Ala' ibn Ziyad asked him: "O Abu Hamzah, did the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) pray over the deceased as you did—uttering four takbirs, standing at the man's head and the woman's hips?" He replied: "Yes."

L9135–9137 This position is held by Al-Shafi'i, Ahmad, Dawud, their companions, and the scholars of Hadith. Abu Hanifah and Malik disagreed, and we know of no valid argument for them except a corrupt claim - that this practice existed when biers were not used. This is a falsehood from whoever asserted it, for did Anas not pray in such a manner while the woman was in a green bier? Some argued: "Just as the Imam stands aligned with the middle of the prayer row before him, so too should he stand aligned with the middle of the funeral bier?" The response is: This is invalid and a corrupt analogy, for he is the Imam of the prayer row - not the Imam of the funeral bier nor a follower in it. The precedent we follow in his standing opposite the middle of the prayer row is the same as that for his standing opposite the middle of... The position of the woman is aligned with the head of the man—referring to

The issue of uttering the takbīr [Allāhu Akbar] regarding the funeral.

L9139 Issue 573: The Imam and those praying behind him pronounce takbīr by following the Imam's takbīr during funeral prayers - five takbīrs with no increase. If they pronounce four takbīrs, this is acceptable. There shall be no fewer. Hands are raised only during the first takbīr. When the prescribed takbīrs conclude, the Imam offers two salutations of peace, and the congregants likewise offer peace. If he pronounces seven takbīrs, we disliked it yet followed him. Similarly, if he pronounces three, we followed him. If he exceeds this number, we do not follow him. If he pronounces fewer than three, we do not conclude with his salutation but complete the prescribed takbīr.

Narrated to us by ʿAbdullāh ibn Yūsuf, from Aḥmad ibn Yūsuf, from Aḥmad ibn Fatḥ, from ʿAbd al-Wahhāb ibn ʿĪsā, from Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad, from Aḥmad ibn ʿAlī, from Muslim ibn al-Ḥajjāj, from Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shaybah and Muḥammad ibn al-Muthannā, both of whom said: Narrated to us by Muḥammad ibn Jaʿfar from Shuʿbah from ʿAmr ibn Murrah from ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Abī Laylā, who said: "Zayd ibn Arqam would pronounce four takbīrs over our deceased. Once he pronounced five takbīrs over a funeral, so I questioned him. He replied: 'The Messenger of Allāh—peace and blessings of Allāh upon him—used to pronounce them.'"[9]

L9140 It has been authentically reported from the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—that he also performed four takbirs, as we will mention after this, if Allah the Exalted wills—Abu Muhammad said: Those who prohibited performing more than four takbirs cited a report we have narrated through the chain of Waki' from Sufyan al-Thawri from 'Amir ibn Shaqiq from Abu Wa'il, who said: "Umar ibn al-Khattab gathered the people and consulted them regarding the takbirs in the funeral prayer. They said: The L9141 And it was also narrated to us via ʿAbd al-Razzāq from Sufyān al-Thawrī from ʿUmar ibn Shaqīq from Abī Wāʾil - and he mentioned it.

وَرُوِّينَا أَيْضًا مِنْ طَرِيقِ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ شَقِيقٍ عَنْ أَبِي وَائِلٍ فَذَكَرَهُ.

L9142 They said: "So this is consensus, and thus it is impermissible to oppose it?" Abū Muḥammad replied: "This is utterly invalid. The first reason is that the narration is unauthentic, for it comes from ʿĀmir ibn Shaqīq, who is weak."

قَالُوا: فَهَذَا إجْمَاعٌ، فَلَا يَجُوزُ خِلَافُهُ؟ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: وَهَذَا فِي غَايَةِ الْفَسَادِ، أَوَّلُ ذَلِكَ -: أَنَّ الْخَبَرَ لَا يَصِحُّ؛ لِأَنَّهُ عَنْ عَامِرِ بْنِ شَقِيقٍ وَهُوَ ضَعِيفٌ.

L9143–9144 As for ʿUmar ibn Shaqīq, none in the world knows who he is. Allah forbid that ʿUmar—may Allah be pleased with him—would ever consider introducing an obligation contrary to what Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—practiced, or prohibiting something the Prophet—peace be upon him—performed that remained permissible during his lifetime, only for ʿUmar to prohibit it afterward. Would anyone attribute this to ʿUmar except one ignorant of his standing in the religion and Islam, or a slanderer of the Salaf—may Allah be pleased with them? They also mentioned what Ḥummām narrated to us: ʿAbbās ibn Aṣbagh narrated to us, Ibn Ayman narrated to us, Aḥmad ibn Zuhayr narrated to us, ʿAlī ibn al-Jaʿd narrated to us, Shuʿbah narrated to us from ʿAmr ibn Murrah: I heard Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib narrate from Ibn ʿUmar, who said: "All of that had occurred—four or five [takbīrs]—but we agreed upon four," meaning the number of takbīrs in the funeral prayer.

وَأَمَّا عُمَرُ بْنُ شَقِيقٍ فَلَا يُدْرَى فِي الْعَالَمِ مَنْ هُوَ وَمَعَاذَ اللَّهِ أَنْ يَسْتَشِيرَ عُمَرُ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - فِي إحْدَاثِ فَرِيضَةٍ بِخِلَافِ مَا فَعَلَ فِيهَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَوْ لِلْمَنْعِ مِنْ بَعْضِ مَا فَعَلَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -، وَمَاتَ وَهُوَ مُبَاحٌ، فَيُحَرِّمُ بَعْدَهُ، لَا يَظُنُّ هَذَا بِعُمَرَ إلَّا جَاهِلٌ بِمَحَلِّ عُمَرَ مِنْ الدِّينِ وَالْإِسْلَامِ، طَاعِنٌ عَلَى السَّلَفِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -؟ وَذَكَرُوا أَيْضًا مَا حَدَّثَنَاهُ حُمَامٌ ثنا عَبَّاسُ بْنُ أَصْبَغَ ثنا ابْنُ أَيْمَنَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ زُهَيْرٍ ثنا عَلِيُّ بْنُ الْجَعْدِ ثنا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ مُرَّةَ سَمِعْت سَعِيدَ بْنَ الْمُسَيِّبِ يُحَدِّثُ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ: كُلُّ ذَلِكَ قَدْ كَانَ، أَرْبَعًا وَخَمْسًا، فَاجْتَمَعْنَا عَلَى أَرْبَعٍ، يَعْنِي التَّكْبِيرَ عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ؟

L9145 And through him to Shuʿbah from al-Mughīrah from Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī, who said: A man from the Companions of Muʿādh ibn Jabal came and prayed over a funeral, performing five takbīrs over it. They laughed at him, so Ibn Masʿūd said: "Did we not use to perform four, five, six, and seven takbīrs, then we agreed upon four?"

وَبِهِ إلَى شُعْبَةَ عَنْ الْمُغِيرَةِ عَنْ إبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ قَالَ: جَاءَ رَجُلٌ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ، فَصَلَّى عَلَى جِنَازَةٍ، فَكَبَّرَ عَلَيْهَا خَمْسًا، فَضَحِكُوا مِنْهُ، فَقَالَ ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ، قَدْ كُنَّا نُكَبِّرُ أَرْبَعًا، وَخَمْسًا، وَسِتًّا، وَسَبْعًا، فَاجْتَمَعْنَا عَلَى أَرْبَعٍ؟

L9146 We have also narrated it through the chain of al-Ḥajjāj ibn al-Minhāl from Abū ʿAwānah from al-Mughīrah from Ibrāhīm al-Nakhaʿī in a similar manner.

وَرُوِّينَاهُ أَيْضًا مِنْ طَرِيقِ الْحَجَّاجِ بْنِ الْمِنْهَالِ عَنْ أَبِي عَوَانَةَ عَنْ الْمُغِيرَةِ عَنْ إبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ نَحْوَهُ -: وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ غُنْدَرٍ عَنْ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ مُرَّةَ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ قَالَ قَالَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ: كُلُّ ذَلِكَ قَدْ كَانَ: أَرْبَعٌ، وَخَمْسٌ يَعْنِي التَّكْبِيرَ عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ. قَالَ سَعِيدٌ: فَأَمَرَ عُمَرُ النَّاسَ بِأَرْبَعٍ؟ قَالُوا: فَهَذَا إجْمَاعٌ؟ -: قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: هَذَا الْكَذِبُ؟ لِأَنَّ إبْرَاهِيمَ لَمْ يُدْرِكْ ابْنَ مَسْعُودٍ. وَعَلِيُّ بْنُ الْجَعْدِ لَيْسَ بِالْقَوِيِّ وَسَعِيدٌ لَمْ يَحْفَظْ مِنْ عُمَرَ إلَّا نَعْيَهُ النُّعْمَانَ بْنَ مُقَرِّنٍ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فَقَطْ، فَكُلُّ ذَلِكَ مُنْقَطِعٌ أَوْ ضَعِيفٌ؟

And through the chain of Ghundar from Shu‘bah from ‘Amr ibn Murrah from Sa‘īd ibn al-Musayyib, who said: ‘Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb declared: “All of this has occurred: four and five,” meaning the Takbīr in the funeral prayer. Sa‘īd said: “Did ‘Umar then instruct people to perform four?” They said: “Is this consensus?” Abū Muḥammad responded: “Is this not falsehood? For Ibrāhīm did not meet Ibn Mas‘ūd, ‘Alī ibn al-Ja‘d is not reliable, and Sa‘īd did not reliably preserve from ‘Umar except his announcement of al-Nu‘mān ibn Muqarrin’s death from the pulpit alone. Thus, are all these chains either interrupted or weak?”

وَلَوْ صَحَّ، لَكَانَ مَا رَوَوْهُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ مُكَذِّبًا لِدَعْوَاهُمْ فِي الْإِجْمَاعِ؛ لِأَنَّ صَاحِبَ مُعَاذٍ الْمَذْكُورَ كَبَّرَ خَمْسًا، وَلَمْ يُنْكِرْ ذَلِكَ عَلَيْهِ ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ.

If it were valid, what they reported about it would have refuted their claim of consensus, because the aforementioned associate of Mu‘ādh performed the takbīr five times, and Ibn Mas‘ūd did not object to it.

We have mentioned from Zayd ibn Arqam that he pronounced the takbir five times after Umar. Hammam narrated to us: Ibn Mufarrij narrated to us: Ibn al-A’rabi narrated to us: al-Dabari narrated to us: Abd al-Razzaq narrated from Sufyan ibn Uyaynah from Isma’il ibn Abi Khalid from al-Sha’bi: Abdullah ibn Mughaffal narrated to me: Ali ibn Abi Talib prayed over Sahl ibn Hunayf and pronounced the takbir over him six times, then turned to us and said, “Was he not a veteran of Badr?” Al-Sha’bi said: Alqamah came from Syria and said to Ibn Mas’ud, “Your brothers in Syria pronounce the takbir five times over their deceased. Would you set a specified practice for us to follow you in?” Abdullah remained silent for a moment and then said, “Observe your deceased and pronounce the takbir over them as your imams do—no time or number.” Abu Muhammad said: Ibn Mas’ud died during Uthman’s lifetime—may Allah be pleased with them both. Alqamah only reported to him what he narrated from the Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—in Syria. This is a chain of transmission of utmost authenticity, for al-Sha’bi met Alqamah, learned from him, and heard from him. Muhammad ibn Sa’id ibn Nabat narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Awn Allah narrated to us: Qasim ibn Asbagh narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Abd al-Salam al-Khushani narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Bashshar narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Ja’far narrated from Shu’bah from al-Minhal ibn Amr from Zirr ibn Hubaysh, who said: I saw Ibn Mas’ud pray over a man from Bal’adan—a branch of Banu Asad—and pronounce the takbir five times over him. Via the same chain: Abd al-Razzaq from Ma’mar from Hammad ibn Abi Sulayman from Ibrahim al-Nakha’i: Ali pronounced the takbir five times over a funeral. Via the same chain: Abd al-Razzaq from Sufyan ibn Uyaynah from Amr ibn Dinar from Abi Ma’bad from Ibn Abbas: He used to pronounce the takbir three times over the deceased.

عَبْدِ السَّلَامِ الْخُشَنِيُّ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ عَنْ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ الْمِنْهَالِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو عَنْ زِرِّ بْنِ حُبَيْشٍ قَالَ: رَأَيْت ابْنَ مَسْعُودٍ صَلَّى عَلَى رَجُلٍ مِنْ بَلْعَدَانَ - نَخْذٌ مِنْ بَنِي أَسَدٍ - فَكَبَّرَ عَلَيْهِ خَمْسًا؟ وَبِالسَّنَدِ الْمَذْكُورِ إلَى عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ حَمَّادِ بْنِ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ عَنْ إبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ أَنَّ عَلِيًّا كَبَّرَ عَلَى جِنَازَةٍ خَمْسًا؟ وَبِهِ إلَى عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ بْنِ عُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ عَنْ أَبِي مَعْبَدٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يُكَبِّرُ عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ ثَلَاثًا.

L9150 It is also narrated through Muḥammad ibn Jaʿfar, from Shuʿbah, from ʿAmr ibn Dīnār, who said: I heard Abū Maʿbad say: Ibn ʿAbbās used to recite three takbīrs during the funeral prayer.

وَرُوِّينَاهُ أَيْضًا مِنْ طَرِيقِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ جَعْفَرٍ عَنْ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ قَالَ: سَمِعْت أَبَا مَعْبَدٍ يَقُولُ: كَانَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ يُكَبِّرُ عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ ثَلَاثًا.

L9151–9155 And this is a chain of narration of the utmost authenticity. From the path of Hammad ibn Salamah: Shaybah ibn Ayman informed me that Anas ibn Malik prayed over a funeral and performed three takbīrs. And through him to Hammad, from Yahya ibn Abi Ishaq: It was said to Anas, “So-and-so performed three takbīrs over a funeral?” Anas replied, “Is the takbīr anything but three?” Muhammad ibn Sirin said, “Was the takbīr not originally three, then they added one—meaning over the funeral?” From the path of Muslim ibn Ibrahim, from Shuʿbah, from Zurarah ibn Abi al-Halal al-ʿAtaki: Jabir ibn Zayd Abu al-Shaʿtha’ commanded Yazid ibn al-Muhallab to perform three takbīrs over the funeral.

وَهَذَا إسْنَادٌ فِي غَايَةِ الصِّحَّةِ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ أَخْبَرَنِي شَيْبَةُ بْنُ أَيْمَنَ أَنَّ أَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ صَلَّى عَلَى جِنَازَةٍ فَكَبَّرَ ثَلَاثًا؟ وَبِهِ إلَى حَمَّادٍ عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ أَبِي إسْحَاقَ: أَنَّهُ قِيلَ لِأَنَسٍ: إنَّ فُلَانًا كَبَّرَ ثَلَاثًا، يَعْنِي عَلَى جِنَازَةٍ؟ فَقَالَ أَنَسٌ: وَهَلْ التَّكْبِيرُ إلَّا ثَلَاثًا؟ وَقَالَ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ سِيرِينَ: إنَّمَا كَانَ التَّكْبِيرُ ثَلَاثًا فَزَادُوا وَاحِدَةً يَعْنِي عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ مُسْلِمِ بْنِ إبْرَاهِيمَ عَنْ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ زُرَارَةَ بْنِ أَبِي الْحَلَالِ الْعَتَكِيِّ أَنَّ جَابِرَ بْنَ زَيْدٍ أَبَا الشَّعْثَاءِ أَمَرَ يَزِيدَ بْنَ الْمُهَلَّبِ أَنْ يُكَبِّرَ عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ ثَلَاثًا؟ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: أُفٍّ لِكُلِّ إجْمَاعٍ يُخْرَجُ عَنْهُ: عَلِيُّ بْنُ أَبِي طَالِبٍ وَعَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْعُودٍ وَأَنَسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ، وَابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ، وَالصَّحَابَةُ بِالشَّامِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -، ثُمَّ التَّابِعُونَ بِالشَّامِ، وَابْنُ سِيرِينَ وَجَابِرُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ وَغَيْرُهُمْ بِأَسَانِيدَ فِي غَايَةِ الصِّحَّةِ، وَيَدَّعِي الْإِجْمَاعَ بِخِلَافِ هَؤُلَاءِ بِأَسَانِيدَ وَاهِيَةٍ، فَمَنْ أَجْهَلُ مِمَّنْ هَذِهِ سَبِيلُهُ؟ فَمَنْ أَخْسَرُ صَفْقَةً مِمَّنْ يَدْخُلُ فِي عَقْلِهِ أَنَّ إجْمَاعًا عَرَفَهُ

Abu Muhammad said: Uff! For every consensus claimed while excluding ʿAli ibn Abi Talib, ʿAbdullah ibn Masʿud, Anas ibn Malik, Ibn ʿAbbas, and the Companions in Syria—may Allah be pleased with them—then the Successors in Syria, Ibn Sirin, Jabir ibn Zayd, and others with chains of the highest authenticity, while asserting consensus contrary to these with feeble chains—who is more ignorant than one whose path is this? Who suffers a worse bargain than one who accepts that a consensus known to Abu Hanifah, Malik, and al-Shafiʿi remained hidden from ʿAli, Ibn Masʿud, Zayd ibn Arqam, Anas ibn Malik, and Ibn ʿAbbas, so that they opposed the consensus? Allah is far above this! They have no basis for what we have narrated: that ʻUmar performed four takbīrs, ʻAli performed four over Ibn al-Mukaffiʻ, Zayd ibn Thabit performed four over his mother, ʻAbdullah ibn Abi Awfa performed four over his daughter, Zayd ibn Arqam performed four, and Anas performed four. All this is true and correct. None of these individuals has any authentic report rejecting five takbīrs at all. Even if it were found, it would oppose the statement of those who permitted it, and it would then become obligatory to revert to what Allah the Exalted has prescribed as the recourse in times of dispute—the Quran and the Sunnah. It has been authentically established that he (peace be upon him) pronounced the Takbir five times and four times. Therefore, it is impermissible to abandon either of his two practices for the other.

-: أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ، وَمَالِكٌ، وَالشَّافِعِيُّ، وَخَفِيَ عِلْمُهُ عَلَى -: عَلِيٍّ، وَابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ، وَزَيْدِ بْنِ أَرْقَمَ، وَأَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ، وَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، حَتَّى خَالَفُوا الْإِجْمَاعَ؟ حَاشَا لِلَّهِ مِنْ هَذَا؟ وَلَا مُتَعَلَّقَ لَهُمْ بِمَا رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ أَنَّ عُمَرَ كَبَّرَ أَرْبَعًا، وَعَلِيًّا كَبَّرَ عَلَى ابْنِ الْمُكَفِّفِ أَرْبَعًا، وَزَيْدَ بْنَ ثَابِتٍ كَبَّرَ عَلَى أُمِّهِ أَرْبَعًا، وَعَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ أَبِي أَوْفَى كَبَّرَ عَلَى ابْنَتِهِ أَرْبَعًا، وَزَيْدَ بْنَ أَرْقَمَ كَبَّرَ أَرْبَعًا، وَأَنَسًا كَبَّرَ أَرْبَعًا -: فَكُلُّ هَذَا حَقٌّ وَصَوَابٌ، وَلَيْسَ مِنْ هَؤُلَاءِ أَحَدٌ صَحَّ عَنْهُ إنْكَارُ تَكْبِيرِ خَمْسٍ أَصْلًا، وَحَتَّى لَوْ وُجِدَ لَكَانَ مُعَارِضًا لَهُ قَوْلُ مَنْ أَجَازَهَا، وَوَجَبَ الرُّجُوعُ حِينَئِذٍ إلَى مَا افْتَرَضَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى الرَّدَّ إلَيْهِ عِنْدَ التَّنَازُعِ، مِنْ الْقُرْآنِ وَالسُّنَّةِ، وَقَدْ صَحَّ أَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - كَبَّرَ خَمْسًا وَأَرْبَعًا، فَلَا يَجُوزُ تَرْكُ أَحَدِ عَمَلَيْهِ لِلْآخَرِ

L9156 We have not found from any of the Imams a practice of performing more than seven takbīrs or fewer than three. Whoever adds beyond five and reaches six or seven has done an act never authentically established from the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him. Thus we disliked it for that reason, but since he—peace be upon him—did not forbid it, we did not declare it prohibited. Similarly, what is the ruling regarding one who performs three takbīrs?

وَلَمْ نَجِدْ عَنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ الْأَئِمَّةِ تَكْبِيرًا أَكْثَرَ مِنْ سَبْعٍ، وَلَا أَقَلَّ مِنْ ثَلَاثٍ، فَمَنْ زَادَ عَلَى خَمْسٍ وَبَلَغَ سِتًّا أَوْ سَبْعًا فَقَدْ عَمِلَ عَمَلًا لَمْ يَصِحَّ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَطُّ، فَكَرِهْنَاهُ لِذَلِكَ، وَلَمْ يَنْهَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - عَنْهُ فَلَمْ نَقُلْ: بِتَحْرِيمِهِ لِذَلِكَ، وَكَذَلِكَ الْقَوْلُ: فِيمَنْ كَبَّرَ ثَلَاثًا؟

L9157 As for fewer than three or more than seven, the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—did not perform it, nor do we know of anyone who held this view. It is a contrivance, and we have been forbidden to be among those who contrive—except for a baseless ḥadīth that we must bring attention to, to prevent anyone from being deceived by it: "The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—performed seventy prayers over Ḥamza—may Allah be pleased with him—on the day of Uḥud." This is undoubtedly false, and Allah alone grants success.

وَأَمَّا مَا دُونَ الثَّلَاثِ وَفَوْقَ السَّبْعِ فَلَمْ يَفْعَلْهُ النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَلَا عَلِمْنَا أَحَدًا قَالَ بِهِ، فَهُوَ تَكَلُّفٌ، وَقَدْ نُهِينَا أَنْ نَكُونَ مِنْ الْمُتَكَلِّفِينَ، إلَّا حَدِيثًا سَاقِطًا وَجَبَ أَنْ نُنَبِّهَ عَلَيْهِ لِئَلَّا يُغْتَرَّ بِهِ، وَهُوَ «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - صَلَّى عَلَى حَمْزَةَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ سَبْعِينَ صَلَاةً» وَهَذَا بَاطِلٌ بِلَا شَكٍّ وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ؟

L9158 As for raising the hands, there is no report from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) that he raised his hands during any of the funeral prayer's Takbīrs except in the first Takbīr alone. Therefore, it is impermissible to do so, as it constitutes an act within the prayer unsupported by textual evidence. Rather, it is reported from him (peace be upon him) that he raised his hands with every lowering and raising (in prayer) – but is there no raising or lowering in it (the funeral prayer)? It is astonishing that Abū Ḥanīfah opines raising the hands in every Takbīr of the funeral prayer, despite there being no report from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) supporting this, while he prohibits raising the hands with every lowering and raising in other prayers – and it has been authentically established from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him).

وَأَمَّا رَفْعُ الْأَيْدِي فَإِنَّهُ لَمْ يَأْتِ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَنَّهُ رَفَعَ فِي شَيْءٍ مِنْ تَكْبِيرِ الْجَنَازَةِ إلَّا فِي أَوَّلِ تَكْبِيرَةٍ فَقَطْ، فَلَا يَجُوزُ فِعْلُ ذَلِكَ، لِأَنَّهُ عَمَلٌ فِي الصَّلَاةِ لَمْ يَأْتِ بِهِ نَصٌّ، وَإِنَّمَا جَاءَ عَنْهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: أَنَّهُ كَبَّرَ وَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ فِي كُلِّ خَفْضٍ وَرَفْعٍ، وَلَيْسَ فِيهَا رَفْعٌ وَلَا خَفْضٌ؟ وَالْعَجَبُ مِنْ قَوْلِ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ: بِرَفْعِ الْأَيْدِي فِي كُلِّ تَكْبِيرَةٍ فِي صَلَاةِ الْجَنَازَةِ وَلَمْ يَأْتِ قَطُّ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَمَنْعِهِ مِنْ رَفْعِ الْأَيْدِي فِي كُلِّ خَفْضٍ وَرَفْعٍ فِي سَائِرِ الصَّلَوَاتِ، وَقَدْ صَحَّ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -

L9159 As for the two taslims, they pertain to the prayer. The conclusion of the prayer is the taslim, and the second taslim is an act of remembrance (dhikr) and a good deed—and success comes from Allah, the Most High.

وَأَمَّا التَّسْلِيمَتَانِ فَهِيَ صَلَاةٌ، وَتَحْلِيلُ الصَّلَاةِ: التَّسْلِيمُ، وَالتَّسْلِيمَةُ الثَّانِيَةُ ذِكْرٌ وَفِعْلُ خَيْرٍ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L9160 574. Issue:

٥٧٤ - مَسْأَلَةٌ:

L9161 When he utters the first Takbīr, he must necessarily recite Umm al-Qur'ān (the Opening of the Quran) and send blessings upon the Messenger of Allah—may peace and blessings be upon him. If he supplicates for the Muslims, it is commendable. Should he continue supplicating for the deceased throughout the remainder of the prayer? As for the recitation of Umm al-Qur'ān, this is because the Messenger of Allah—may peace and blessings be upon him—called it the prayer when he said, "Pray for your companion."

فَإِذَا كَبَّرَ الْأُولَى قَرَأَ (أُمَّ الْقُرْآنِ) وَلَا بُدَّ، وَصَلَّى عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَإِنْ دَعَا لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ فَحَسَنٌ، ثُمَّ يَدْعُو لِلْمَيِّتِ فِي بَاقِي الصَّلَاةِ؟ أَمَّا قِرَاءَةُ (أُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ) فَلِأَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - سَمَّاهَا صَلَاةً بِقَوْلِهِ «صَلُّوا عَلَى صَاحِبِكُمْ» .

L9162–9163 And he—peace be upon him—said: "There is no prayer for one who does not recite the Fātiḥah." Narrated by ʻAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʻAbd Allāh, narrated by Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad, narrated by al-Farbarī, narrated by al-Bukhārī, narrated by Muḥammad ibn Kathīr, narrated by Sufyān—that is, al-Thawrī—from Saʻd—that is, Ibn Ibrāhīm ibn ʻAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʻAwf—from Ṭalḥa ibn ʻAbd Allāh ibn ʻAwf, who said: "I prayed behind Ibn ʻAbbās, at a funeral, and he recited the Fātiḥah. He said: 'So that you may know it is a sunnah.'"

وَقَالَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - «لَا صَلَاةَ لِمَنْ لَمْ يَقْرَأْ بِأُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ» ؟ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ثنا إبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ كَثِيرٍ ثنا سُفْيَانُ هُوَ الثَّوْرِيُّ - عَنْ سَعْدٍ هُوَ ابْنُ إبْرَاهِيمَ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ - عَنْ طَلْحَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ

L9164 It has also been narrated to us through the chain of Shu'bah and Ibrāhīm ibn Sa'd, both of whom [are] from Sa'd ibn Ibrāhīm, from Ṭalḥah ibn 'Abd Allāh, from Ibn 'Abbās.

وَرُوِّينَاهُ أَيْضًا مِنْ طَرِيقِ شُعْبَةَ وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ بْنِ سَعْدٍ كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ إبْرَاهِيمَ عَنْ طَلْحَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ.

L9165 Abdullah ibn Rabi' narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb narrated to us: Qutaybah ibn Sa'id said: I heard from Al-Layth ibn Sa'd, from Ibn Shihab, from Abu Umamah ibn Sahl ibn Hunayf and Muhammad ibn Suwayd al-Dimashqi, from al-Dahhak ibn Qays. Al-Dahhak and Abu Umamah said: The Sunnah for the funeral prayer is to recite quietly during the Takbir, then say the next Takbir, and the Taslim is given after the final one.

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ أَنَا اللَّيْثُ بْنُ سَعْدٍ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ بْنِ سَهْلِ بْنِ حُنَيْفٍ وَمُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سُوَيْدٍ الدِّمَشْقِيِّ عَنْ الضَّحَّاكِ بْنِ قَيْسٍ، قَالَ الضَّحَّاكُ، وَأَبُو أُمَامَةَ: السُّنَّةُ فِي الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ أَنْ يَقْرَأَ فِي التَّكْبِيرِ مُخَافَتَةً، ثُمَّ يُكَبِّرَ، وَالتَّسْلِيمُ عِنْدَ الْآخِرَةِ.

L9166 And from Ibn Mas'ud: that he would recite the Opening of the Book during the funeral prayer. Through the chain of Waki' from Salamah ibn Nubayt from al-Dahhak ibn Qays, who said: "He recites the Opening of the Book between the first two takbirs." From Hammad ibn Salamah from Muhammad ibn Ishaq from Muhammad ibn Ibrahim al-Taymi from Muhammad ibn 'Amr ibn 'Ata': that al-Miswar ibn Makhramah performed the funeral prayer and recited the Opening of the Book and a short surah during the first takbira, raising his voice with them. When he concluded, he said: "I know well this prayer is silent, but I intended to teach you that recitation is part of it."

وَعَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقْرَأُ عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ بِ أُمِّ الْكِتَابِ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ نُبَيْطٍ عَنْ الضَّحَّاكِ بْنِ قَيْسٍ قَالَ: يَقْرَأُ مَا بَيْنَ التَّكْبِيرَتَيْنِ الْأُولَيَيْنِ: فَاتِحَةَ الْكِتَابِ وَعَنْ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ إسْحَاقَ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ إبْرَاهِيمَ التَّيْمِيِّ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ عَطَاءٍ: أَنَّ الْمِسْوَرَ بْنَ مَخْرَمَةَ صَلَّى عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ فَقَرَأَ فِي التَّكْبِيرَةِ الْأُولَى فَاتِحَةَ الْكِتَابِ وَسُورَةً قَصِيرَةً، رَفَعَ بِهِمَا صَوْتَهُ، فَلَمَّا فَرَغَ قَالَ: لَا أَجْهَلُ أَنْ تَكُونَ هَذِهِ الصَّلَاةُ عَجْمَاءَ، وَلَكِنِّي أَرَدْت أَنْ أُعَلِّمَكُمْ أَنَّ فِيهَا قِرَاءَةً.

L9167 Abu Muhammad said: Ibn Abbas and al-Miswar held that whispered recitation is not obligatory. It is reported from Abu Hurayrah, Abu al-Dardā', Ibn Mas'ud, and Anas ibn Malik that they would recite Al-Fatihah (the Opening, also known as Umm al-Qur'ān), supplicate, and seek forgiveness after each of the three takbīrāt (reflecting a minority opinion in the funeral prayer). Then they would utter takbīr, conclude the prayer, and refrain from further recitation.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: فَرَأَى ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ، وَالْمِسْوَرُ: الْمُخَافَتَةَ لَيْسَتْ فَرْضًا. وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، وَأَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ، وَابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ، وَأَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ: أَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا يَقْرَءُونَ بِأُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ وَيَدْعُونَ وَيَسْتَغْفِرُونَ بَعْدَ كُلِّ تَكْبِيرَةٍ مِنْ الثَّلَاثِ فِي الْجِنَازَةِ، ثُمَّ يُكَبِّرُونَ وَيَنْصَرِفُونَ وَلَا يَقْرَءُونَ.

L9168–9170 And from Maʿmar from al-Zuhrī: I heard Abā Umāmah ibn Sahl ibn Ḥunayf narrate. Sa’id ibn al-Musayyib said: The Sunnah in the funeral prayer is that you say the Takbir, then recite the Opening Chapter (Al-Fatihah), then pray upon the Prophet - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him - then sincerely supplicate solely for the deceased. You do not recite except in the first Takbir, then he concludes by silently saying the Salam to his right side only.

وَعَنْ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ: سَمِعْت أَبَا أُمَامَةَ بْنَ سَهْلِ بْنِ حُنَيْفٍ يُحَدِّثُ سَعِيدَ بْنَ الْمُسَيِّبِ قَالَ: السُّنَّةُ فِي الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى الْجَنَائِزِ أَنْ تُكَبِّرَ، ثُمَّ تَقْرَأَ بِأُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ ثُمَّ تُصَلِّيَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - ثُمَّ تُخْلِصَ الدُّعَاءَ لِلْمَيِّتِ، وَلَا تَقْرَأُ إلَّا فِي التَّكْبِيرَةِ الْأُولَى، ثُمَّ يُسَلِّمُ فِي نَفْسِهِ عَنْ يَمِينِهِ.

L9171 Narrated on the authority of Ibn Jurayj: Ibn Shihab said to me, “Is recitation [of the Qur’an] over the deceased performed during the first takbir of the prayer?”

وَعَنْ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ: قَالَ لِي ابْنُ شِهَابٍ: الْقِرَاءَةُ عَلَى الْمَيِّتِ فِي الصَّلَاةِ فِي التَّكْبِيرَةِ الْأُولَى؟

L9172 From Ibn Jurayj, who reported from Mujāhid concerning the prayer over the deceased: He says “Allāhu Akbar,” then recites the Mother of the Quran (i.e., Al-Fātiḥah), then invokes blessings upon the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), then Ibn Jurayj mentioned a supplication.

وَعَنْ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ فِي الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى الْجَنَازَةِ: يُكَبِّرُ ثُمَّ يَقْرَأُ بِأُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ ثُمَّ يُصَلِّي عَلَى النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - ثُمَّ ذَكَرَ دُعَاءً.

L9173 From Sufyān al-Thawrī, from Yūnus ibn ʿUbayd, from al-Ḥasan: that he used to recite the Opening of the Book (Al-Fātiḥah) in every Takbīr during the funeral prayer. This is the opinion of al-Shāfiʿī, Abū Sulaymān, and their companions.

وَعَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ يُونُسَ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ عَنْ الْحَسَنِ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقْرَأُ بِفَاتِحَةِ الْكِتَابِ فِي كُلِّ تَكْبِيرَةٍ فِي صَلَاةِ الْجَنَازَةِ؟ وَهُوَ قَوْلُ الشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَأَصْحَابِهِمَا.

L9174 Abu Muhammad said: Those who prohibited reciting the Quran during it argued by saying: It was reported from the Prophet (peace be upon him): “Dedicate your supplication sincerely to Him.”

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: وَاحْتَجَّ مَنْ مَنَعَ مِنْ قِرَاءَةِ الْقُرْآنِ فِيهَا بِأَنْ قَالُوا: رُوِيَ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «أَخْلِصُوا لَهُ الدُّعَاءَ» .

L9175 Abū Muḥammad said: This is a weak ḥadīth, never transmitted through any reliable chain. Even if it were authentic, it would not prohibit recitation, for dedicating supplication to the deceased does not entail a prohibition against Quranic recitation. Do we not sincerely dedicate supplication for him and recite as we were commanded? They said: It is narrated from Abū Hurayrah that he was asked about the funeral prayer, and he mentioned supplication but did not mention Quranic recitation. From Fuḍāla ibn ʿUbayd: When asked, “Does one recite anything from the Qur’an during the funeral prayer?” he replied, “No.”

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: هَذَا حَدِيثٌ سَاقِطٌ، مَا رُوِيَ قَطُّ مِنْ طَرِيقٍ يُشْتَغَلُ بِهَا ثُمَّ لَوْ صَحَّ لَمَا مَنَعَ مِنْ الْقِرَاءَةِ، لِأَنَّهُ لَيْسَ فِي إخْلَاصِ الدُّعَاءِ لِلْمَيِّتِ نَهْيٌ عَنْ الْقِرَاءَةِ، وَنَحْنُ نُخْلِصُ لَهُ الدُّعَاءَ وَنَقْرَأُ كَمَا أُمِرْنَا؟ وَقَالُوا: قَدْ رُوِيَ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ: أَنَّهُ سُئِلَ عَنْ الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى الْجَنَازَةِ؟ فَذَكَرَ دُعَاءً وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ قِرَاءَةً وَعَنْ فُضَالَةَ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ: أَنَّهُ سُئِلَ: أَيَقْرَأُ فِي الْجَنَازَةِ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ الْقُرْآنِ؟ قَالَ: لَا.

L9176 It is reported from Ibn ‘Umar that he would not recite during the Janazah prayer.

وَعَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ لَا يَقْرَأُ فِي صَلَاةِ الْجَنَازَةِ.

L9177–9179 Abu Muhammad said: We said that none of them had said that one does not recite the Mother of the Quran (Al-Fatihah) in it. Yes, we say: Nothing from the Quran is recited in it except the Mother of the Quran (Al-Fatihah).

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: فَقُلْنَا - لَيْسَ عَنْ وَاحِدٍ مِنْ هَؤُلَاءِ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: لَا يَقْرَأُ فِيهَا بِأُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ وَنَعَمْ، نَحْنُ نَقُولُ: لَا يُقْرَأُ فِيهَا بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ الْقُرْآنِ إلَّا بِأُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ

L9180 There is no valid disagreement between these [individuals] and those Companions—may Allah be pleased with them—who explicitly affirmed the recitation of the Quran, such as Ibn Abbas, Al-Miswar, Ad-Dahhak ibn Qays, Abu Hurairah, Abu al-Darda', Ibn Mas'ud, and Anas, especially since Abu Hurairah did not mention the Takbir or the Taslim.

فَلَا يَصِحُّ خِلَافٌ بَيْنَ هَؤُلَاءِ وَبَيْنَ مَنْ صَرَّحَ بِقِرَاءَةِ الْقُرْآنِ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -، كَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، وَالْمِسْوَرِ، وَالضَّحَّاكِ بْنِ قَيْسٍ، وَأَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، وَأَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ، وَابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ، وَأَنَسٍ، لَا سِيَّمَا وَأَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ لَمْ يَذْكُرْ تَكْبِيرًا وَلَا تَسْلِيمًا.

L9181 Thus, their attachment to it was nullified.

فَبَطَلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ لَهُمْ بِهِ مُتَعَلَّقٌ.

L9182 It has been narrated from him that the Quran was recited during funerals. How then, even if an authentic disagreement were reported from them regarding that matter, would it be obligatory to refer—when they dispute—to what Allah the Exalted has commanded to return to: what is from the Quran and the Sunnah.

وَقَدْ رُوِيَ عَنْهُ قِرَاءَةُ الْقُرْآنِ فِي الْجَنَازَةِ، فَكَيْفَ وَلَوْ صَحَّ عَنْهُمْ فِي ذَلِكَ خِلَافٌ؟ لَوَجَبَ الرَّدُّ عِنْدَ تَنَازُعِهِمْ إلَى مَا أَمَرَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى بِالرَّدِّ إلَيْهِ مِنْ الْقُرْآنِ وَالسُّنَّةِ.

L9183 He (peace be upon him) said, "There is no prayer for one who does not recite the Mother of the Quran." And they said: Perhaps they recited it on the basis that it is a supplication.

وَقَدْ قَالَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - «لَا صَلَاةَ لِمَنْ لَمْ يَقْرَأْ بِأُمِّ الْقُرْآنِ» وَقَالُوا: لَعَلَّ هَؤُلَاءِ قَرَءُوهَا عَلَى أَنَّهُ دُعَاءٌ

L9184 So we said: This is invalid because the command to recite it was established from them, and that it constitutes their sunnah. Thus, the claim of those who say, "Perhaps they recited it considering it a supplication"—this is pure falsehood. Moreover, we do not know what compelled them to prohibit its recitation, driving them to plunge into falsehood through such feeble rationales? How strange that they uphold analogical reasoning while acknowledging it as prayer—mandating in it the takbīr, facing the qiblah, male imamate, purification, and the salām—yet they omit recitation!

فَقُلْنَا: هَذَا بَاطِلٌ؛ لِأَنَّهُمْ ثَبَتَ عَنْهُمْ الْأَمْرُ بِقِرَاءَتِهَا، وَأَنَّهَا سُنَّتُهَا، فَقَوْلُ مَنْ قَالَ: لَعَلَّهُمْ قَرَءُوهَا عَلَى أَنَّهَا دُعَاءٌ -: كَذِبٌ بَحْتٌ؟ ثُمَّ لَا نَدْرِي مَا الَّذِي حَمَلَهُمْ عَلَى الْمَنْعِ مِنْ قِرَاءَتِهَا حَتَّى يَتَقَحَّمُوا فِي الْكَذِبِ بِمِثْلِ هَذِهِ الْوُجُوهِ الضَّعِيفَةِ؟ وَالْعَجَبُ أَنَّهُمْ أَصْحَابُ قِيَاسٍ، وَهُمْ يَرَوْنَ أَنَّهَا صَلَاةٌ، وَيُوجِبُونَ فِيهَا: التَّكْبِيرَ، وَاسْتِقْبَالَ الْقِبْلَةِ، وَالْإِمَامَةَ لِلرِّجَالِ، وَالطَّهَارَةَ، وَالسَّلَامَ، ثُمَّ يُسْقِطُونَ الْقِرَاءَةَ

L9185 If they say: Since bowing, prostration, and sitting have been omitted, does recitation become omitted? We reply: On what basis is this analogy obligatory rather than analogizing recitation to the takbīr and taslīm? Indeed, if analogy were valid, analogizing recitation to the takbīr and taslīm—since all these are verbal remembrance—would take precedence over analogizing recitation to bodily actions. But is this their understanding of analogy and the Sunnah? Yet they magnify opposition to the practice of Medina, even though we have shown them the practice of the Companions, Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib, Abū Umāmah, and al-Zuhrī—the scholars among the people of Medina—yet they opposed them. And all success is from Allah, the Exalted.

فَإِنْ قَالُوا: لَمَّا سَقَطَ الرُّكُوعُ وَالسُّجُودُ وَالْجُلُوسُ: سَقَطَتْ الْقِرَاءَةُ؟ قُلْنَا: وَمِنْ أَيْنَ يُوجَبُ هَذَا الْقِيَاسُ دُونَ قِيَاسِ الْقِرَاءَةِ عَلَى التَّكْبِيرِ وَالتَّسْلِيمِ؟ بَلْ لَوْ صَحَّ الْقِيَاسُ لَكَانَ قِيَاسُ الْقِرَاءَةِ عَلَى التَّكْبِيرِ وَالتَّسْلِيمِ - لِأَنَّ كُلَّ ذَلِكَ ذِكْرٌ بِاللِّسَانِ - أَوْلَى مِنْ قِيَاسِ الْقِرَاءَةِ عَلَى عَمَلِ الْجَسَدِ، وَلَكِنْ هَذَا عِلْمُهُمْ بِالْقِيَاسِ وَالسُّنَنِ؟ وَهُمْ يُعَظِّمُونَ خِلَافَ الْعَمَلِ بِالْمَدِينَةِ، وَهَهُنَا أَرَيْنَاهُمْ عَمَلَ الصَّحَابَةِ، وَسَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ، وَأَبِي أُمَامَةَ، وَالزُّهْرِيِّ، عُلَمَاءِ أَهْلِ الْمَدِينَةِ، وَخَالَفُوهُمْ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ

The Issue of the Supplication Upon the Funeral Procession.

[مَسْأَلَةُ الدُّعَاء عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ]

L9188

Issue: The most beloved supplication to us during the funeral prayer is that which was transmitted by Abdullah ibn Yusuf from Ahmad ibn Fath, from Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa, from Ahmad ibn Muhammad, from Ahmad ibn Ali, from Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj, who said: Abu Tahir reported to me from Ibn Wahb, who was informed by Amr ibn al-Harith from Abu Hamzah ibn Sulaim, from Abdul Rahman ibn Jubayr ibn Nufayr, from his father, from Awf ibn Malik al-Ashja'i, who said: I heard Allah's Messenger - peace and blessings be upon him - pray over a deceased person, saying: "O Allah, forgive him, have mercy upon him, pardon him, grant him well-being, honor his lodging in Paradise, widen his resting place, cleanse him with water, snow, and hail, purify him from sins as a white garment is cleansed of impurities, replace his home with a better home, his family with a better family, his spouse with a better spouse, and shield him from the trial and punishment of the grave, and from the punishment of the Fire."

مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَأَحَبُّ الدُّعَاءِ إلَيْنَا عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ هُوَ مَا -: حَدَّثَنَاهُ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو الطَّاهِرِ ثنا ابْنُ وَهْبٍ أَخْبَرَنِي عَمْرُو بْنُ الْحَارِثِ عَنْ أَبِي حَمْزَةَ بْنِ سُلَيْمٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ جُبَيْرِ بْنِ نَفِيرٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ «عَوْفِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ الْأَشْجَعِيِّ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَصَلَّى عَلَى جِنَازَةٍ يَقُولُ: اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لَهُ وَارْحَمْهُ، وَاعْفُ عَنْهُ وَعَافِهِ، وَأَكْرِمْ نُزُلَهُ، وَوَسِّعْ مُدْخَلَهُ، وَاغْسِلْهُ بِمَاءٍ، وَثَلْجٍ، وَبَرَدٍ، وَنَقِّهِ مِنْ الْخَطَايَا كَمَا يُنَقَّى الثَّوْبُ الْأَبْيَضُ مِنْ الدَّنَسِ، وَأَبْدِلْهُ دَارًا خَيْرًا مِنْ دَارِهِ، وَأَهْلًا خَيْرًا مِنْ أَهْلِهِ، وَزَوْجًا خَيْرًا مِنْ زَوْجِهِ، وَقِهِ فِتْنَةَ الْقَبْرِ، وَعَذَابَ الْقَبْرِ وَعَذَابَ النَّارِ» .

Abdullah ibn Rabi' narrated to us, Umar ibn Abd al-Malik narrated to us, Muhammad ibn Bakr narrated to us, Abu Dawud narrated to us, Musa ibn Harun al-Raqqi narrated to us, Shu'ayb—meaning ibn Ishaq—narrated to us from al-Awza'i, from Yahya ibn Abi Kathir, from Abu Salama ibn Abd al-Rahman ibn ʿAwf, from Abu Hurayrah, who said: "The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—prayed over a funeral and said:

وَمَا حَدَّثَنَاهُ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا عُمَرُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَكْرٍ ثنا أَبُو دَاوُد ثنا مُوسَى بْنُ هَارُونَ الرَّقِّيُّ ثنا شُعَيْبٌ يَعْنِي ابْنَ إِسْحَاقَ - عَنْ الْأَوْزَاعِيِّ عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ أَبِي كَثِيرٍ عَنْ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: «صَلَّى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ -

صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - عَلَى جِنَازَةٍ فَقَالَ: اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِحَيِّنَا، وَمَيِّتِنَا، وَصَغِيرِنَا، وَكَبِيرِنَا، وَذَكَرِنَا، وَأُنْثَانَا، وَشَاهِدِنَا، وَغَائِبِنَا، اللَّهُمَّ مَنْ أَحْيَيْتَهُ مِنَّا فَأَحْيِهِ عَلَى الْإِيمَانِ، وَمَنْ تَوَفَّيْتَهُ مِنَّا فَتَوَفَّهُ عَلَى الْإِسْلَامِ اللَّهُمَّ لَا تَحْرِمْنَا أَجْرَهُ، وَلَا تُضِلَّنَا بَعْدَهُ» .

'O Allah, forgive our living and our dead, our young and our old, our males and our females, our present and our absent. O Allah, whoever among us You keep alive, keep him alive in faith, and whoever among us You cause to die, cause him to die upon Islam. O Allah, do not deprive us of his reward, and do not let us go astray after him.'"[10]

فَإِنْ كَانَ صَغِيرًا فَلْيَقُلْ " اللَّهُمَّ أَلْحِقْهُ بِإِبْرَاهِيمَ خَلِيلِكَ " لِلْأَثَرِ الَّذِي صَحَّ أَنَّ الصِّغَارَ مَعَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فِي رَوْضَةٍ خَضْرَاءَ.

L9190 If he is a minor, he should say: "O Allah, join him with Ibrahim, Your intimate friend," due to the authentic narration that young children are with Ibrahim (peace be upon him) in a verdant garden.

وَمَا دَعَا بِهِ فَحَسَنٌ؟

[مَسْأَلَةُ اللَّحْدِ]

The Issue of the Lahd

٥٧٦ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَنَسْتَحِبُّ اللَّحْدَ، وَهُوَ الشَّقُّ فِي أَحَدِ جَانِبَيِ الْقَبْرِ، وَهُوَ أَحَبُّ إِلَيْنَا مِنَ الضَّرِيحِ، وَهُوَ الشَّقُّ فِي وَسَطِ الْقَبْرِ. وَنَسْتَحِبُّ اللَّبِنَ أَنْ تُوضَعَ عَلَى فَتْحِ اللَّحْدِ، وَنَكْرَهُ الْخَشَبَ، وَالْقَصَبَ، وَالْحِجَارَةَ. وَكُلُّ ذَلِكَ جَائِزٌ؟ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ ثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَى أَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ الْمَسْوَرِيُّ عَنْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ بْنِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ عَنْ عَمِّهِ عَامِرِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ: أَنَّ أَبَاهُ سَعْدَ بْنَ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ فِي مَرَضِهِ الَّذِي هَلَكَ فِيهِ " أَلْحِدُوا لِي لَحْدًا، وَانْصِبُوا عَلَيَّ اللَّبِنَ نَصْبًا، كَمَا صُنِعَ بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - "

576 – Question: We recommend the laḥd (an excavation on one side of the grave), preferring it to the darīḥ (an excavation in the grave's center). We recommend placing mud bricks over the laḥd's opening and disapprove of using wood, reeds, or stones. Is all of that permissible? -: Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us: Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Ali narrated to us: Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to us: Yahya ibn Yahya narrated to us: Abdullah ibn Ja'far al-Miswari informed us from Ismail ibn Muhammad ibn Sa'd ibn Abi Waqqas, from his uncle Amir ibn Sa'd: That his father Sa'd ibn Abi Waqqas said during the illness from which he died, "Dig a lahd for me, lay the bricks over me securely, exactly as was done for the Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace."

[مَسْأَلَةُ بِنَاءُ الْقَبْرِ وَتَجْصِيصُهُ]

An Issue Regarding the Building of the Grave and Its Plastering.

٥٧٧ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُبْنَى الْقَبْرُ، وَلَا أَنْ يُجَصَّصَ، وَلَا أَنْ يُزَادَ عَلَيْهِ شَيْءٌ to its soil. All of that is to be demolished. If a house or a standing structure is erected over it, there is no disapproval of that.

٥٧٧ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَا يَحِلُّ أَنْ يُبْنَى الْقَبْرُ، وَلَا أَنْ يُجَصَّصَ، وَلَا أَنْ يُزَادَ عَلَى تُرَابِهِ شَيْءٌ، وَيُهْدَمُ كُلُّ ذَلِكَ، فَإِنْ بُنِيَ عَلَيْهِ بَيْتٌ أَوْ قَائِمٌ: لَمْ يَكْرَهْ ذَلِكَ.

L9198 Similarly, if one were to engrave his name upon a stone—do we not disapprove of that? It was narrated to us through the aforementioned chain to Muslim: Hārūn ibn Saʿīd al-Aylī narrated to us, Ibn Wahb narrated to us, ʿAmr ibn al-Ḥārith narrated to me that Thumāmah ibn Shufayy narrated to him, saying: "We were with Fuḍālah ibn ʿUbayd in Byzantine territory at Rhodes when a companion of ours died. Fuḍālah ordered his grave to be leveled and said: 'I heard the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—commanding the leveling of graves.'" Through the same chain to Muslim: Yaḥyā ibn Yaḥyā narrated to us, I am Wakīʿ, from Sufyān al-Thawrī, from Ḥabīb ibn Abī Thābit, from Abū Wāʾil, from Abū al-Hayyāj al-Asadī, who said: ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib told me: "Shall I not send you for the same purpose the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—sent me? Leave no statue without erasing it, and no elevated grave without leveling it."[11]

وَكَذَلِكَ لَوْ نَقَشَ اسْمَهُ فِي حَجَرٍ: لَمْ نَكْرَهْ ذَلِكَ؟ -: رُوِّينَا بِالسَّنَدِ الْمَذْكُورِ إِلَى مُسْلِمٍ: حَدَّثَنِي هَارُونُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ الْأَيْلِيُّ ثنا ابْنُ وَهْبٍ حَدَّثَنِي عَمْرُو بْنُ الْحَارِثِ أَنَّ ثُمَامَةَ بْنَ شُفَيٍّ حَدَّثَهُ قَالَ: «كُنَّا مَعَ فُضَالَةَ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ بِأَرْضِ الرُّومِ بِرُودِسَ، فَتُوُفِّيَ صَاحِبٌ لَنَا، فَأَمَرَ فُضَالَةُ بِقَبْرِهِ فَسُوِّيَ، وَقَالَ: سَمِعْت رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَأْمُرُ بِتَسْوِيَتِهَا» -: وَبِهِ إِلَى مُسْلِمٍ: ثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَى أَنَا وَكِيعٌ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ حَبِيبِ بْنِ أَبِي ثَابِتٍ عَنْ أَبِي وَائِلٍ عَنْ أَبِي الْهَيَّاجِ الْأَسَدِيِّ قَالَ: قَالَ لِي عَلِيُّ بْنُ أَبِي طَالِبٍ «أَلَا أَبْعَثُكَ عَلَى مَا بَعَثَنِي عَلَيْهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -؟ أَنْ لَا تَدَعَ تِمْثَالًا إِلَّا طَمَسْتَهُ، وَلَا قَبْرًا مُشْرِفًا إِلَّا سَوَّيْتَهُ» .

L9199 And through him to Muslim: Muḥammad ibn Rāfiʿ narrated to me [narrated to us by ʿAbd al-Razzāq] from Ibn Jurayj, who informed me that Abū al-Zubayr reported hearing Jābir ibn ʿAbdullāh say: "I heard the Messenger of Allah - peace be upon him - forbid plastering graves, that they be sat upon, or that structures be built over them."

وَبِهِ إِلَى مُسْلِمٍ: حَدَّثَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ رَافِعٍ [ثنا عَبْدُ الرَّزَّاقِ] عَنْ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ أَخْبَرَنِي أَبُو الزُّبَيْرِ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ جَابِرَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ يَقُولُ: «سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَنْهَى عَنْ أَنْ تُجَصَّصَ الْقُبُورُ، وَأَنْ يُقْعَدَ عَلَيْهَا، وَأَنْ يُبْنَى عَلَيْهَا» .

L9200–9201 Abu Muhammad said: He (peace be upon him) warned about the location of his grave through his statement, "Between my grave and my pulpit lies a garden from the gardens of Paradise," and he informed that it is within his house.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: قَدْ أَنْذَرَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِمَوْضِعِ قَبْرِهِ بِقَوْلِهِ «مَا بَيْنَ قَبْرِي وَمِنْبَرِي رَوْضَةٌ مِنْ رِيَاضِ الْجَنَّةِ» وَأَعْلَمَ أَنَّهُ فِي بَيْتِهِ بِذَلِكَ.

L9202 He (peace be upon him) did not disapprove of the grave being located within a house, nor did he forbid an existing structure. Rather, he prohibited building over the grave: only a dome.

وَلَمْ يُنْكِرْ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - كَوْنَ الْقَبْرِ فِي بَيْتٍ، وَلَا نَهَى عَنْ بِنَاءٍ قَائِمٍ، وَإِنَّمَا نَهَى عَنْ بِنَاءٍ عَلَى الْقَبْرِ: قُبَّةٍ فَقَطْ

[11] Hadith references (L9198): Mishkat al-Masabih 1696.

L9203–9205 And from Waki‘, from al-Rabee‘, from al-Hasan: He disliked that graves be plastered with gypsum, coated with clay, or have anything added to them from soil other than their own excavated earth. And from Waki‘, from ‘Imrān ibn Ḥudayr, from Abi Mijlaz, who said: Leveling graves is part of the Sunnah. And from ‘Uthmān, the Commander of the Believers, may Allah be pleased with him, that he ordered graves to be leveled and raised from the ground by a handspan. And from ‘Abd al-Razzāq, from Ma‘mar, from Ayyūb al-Sikhtiyānī, from... Abd al-Rahman ibn al-Qasim ibn Muhammad said: The wall around the Prophet’s grave (peace be upon him) collapsed, so it was covered and then rebuilt. I said to the one covering it: “Lift the edge of the covering so I may look at it.” When I looked, I saw upon it coarse fabrics and sand, as if it were sand from al-ʿArṣah?

L9206 Hammam narrated to us: Abbas ibn Asbagh narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Abd al-Malik ibn Ayman narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Waddah narrated to us: Yaqub ibn Ka’b narrated to us: Ibn Abi Fudayk informed me from Amr ibn Uthman ibn Hani’ from al-Qasim ibn Muhammad, who said: “I entered upon Aisha and said: ’O Mother, uncover for me the grave of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and his two companions.’ She uncovered three graves for me—neither sunken nor elevated—leveled with the reddish gravel of the courtyard. I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) positioned foremost, Abu Bakr at his head with his feet between the shoulders of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), and I saw Umar at the feet of Abu Bakr—may Allah be pleased with both of them.”

L9207 ## The Ruling on Sitting on Graves

L9208 578 - Issue: It is not permissible for anyone to sit on a grave. If he cannot find a place to sit, he should stand until he relieves himself. Even if he squats without sitting, this does not establish that he is in hardship.

L9209 Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Fath narrated to us: Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Muhammad narrated to us: Ah-

وَعَنْ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ الرَّبِيعِ عَنْ الْحَسَنِ: كَانَ يَكْرَهُ أَنْ تُجَصَّصَ الْقُبُورُ أَوْ تُطَيَّنَ أَوْ يُزَادَ عَلَيْهَا مِنْ غَيْرِ حَفِيرِهَا؟ وَعَنْ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُدَيْرٍ عَنْ أَبِي مِجْلَزٍ قَالَ: تَسْوِيَةُ الْقُبُورِ مِنْ السُّنَّةِ؟ وَعَنْ عُثْمَانَ أَمِيرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - أَنَّهُ أَمَرَ بِتَسْوِيَةِ الْقُبُورِ، وَأَنْ تُرْفَعَ مِنْ الْأَرْضِ شِبْرًا. وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ أَنَا مَعْمَرٌ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ السِّخْتِيَانِيِّ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ الْقَاسِمِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ قَالَ: سَقَطَ الْحَائِطُ الَّذِي عَلَى قَبْرِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَسُتِرَ، ثُمَّ بُنِيَ، فَقُلْت لِلَّذِي سَتَرَهُ: ارْفَعْ نَاحِيَةَ السِّتْرِ حَتَّى أَنْظُرَ إلَيْهِ، فَنَظَرْت إلَيْهِ، فَإِذَا عَلَيْهِ جَبُوبٌ وَرَمْلٌ، كَأَنَّهُ مِنْ رَمْلِ الْعَرْصَةِ؟

حَدَّثَنَا حُمَامٌ ثنا عَبَّاسُ بْنُ أَصْبَغَ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ بْنِ أَيْمَنَ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ وَضَّاحٍ ثنا يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ كَعْبٍ ثنا ابْنُ أَبِي فُدَيْكٍ أَخْبَرَنِي عَمْرُو بْنُ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ هَانِئٍ عَنْ الْقَاسِمِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ قَالَ: دَخَلْت عَلَى عَائِشَةَ فَقُلْت: يَا أُمَّهْ، اكْشِفِي لِي عَنْ قَبْرِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَصَاحِبَيْهِ فَكَشَفَتْ لِي عَنْ ثَلَاثَةِ قُبُورٍ، لَا لَاطِئَةٍ وَلَا مُشْرِفَةٍ، مَبْطُوحَةً بِبَطْحَاءِ الْعَرْصَةِ الْحَمْرَاءِ، فَرَأَيْت رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مُقَدَّمًا، وَأَبُو بَكْرٍ عِنْدَ رَأْسِهِ، وَرِجْلَاهُ بَيْنَ كَتِفَيْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَرَأَيْت عُمَرَ عِنْدَ رِجْلَيْ أَبِي بَكْرٍ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا -.

[مَسْأَلَةُ الْجُلُوسِ عَلَى الْقَبْرِ]

٥٧٨ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَا يَحِلُّ لِأَحَدٍ أَنْ يَجْلِسَ عَلَى قَبْرٍ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَجِدْ أَيْنَ يَجْلِسُ: فَلْيَقِفْ حَتَّى يَقْضِيَ حَاجَتَهُ، وَلَوْ اسْتَوْفَزَ وَلَمْ يَقْعُدْ لَمْ يَبْنِ أَنَّهُ يُحْرَجُ.

mad ibn Ali narrated to us: Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj narrated to me: Zuhayr ibn Harb narrated to us: Jarir—that is, Ibn Abdul-Hamid—narrated to us from Suhayl ibn Abi Salih, from his father, from Abu Hurairah, who said: The Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "For one of you to sit on a burning ember that scorches his garments and penetrates to his skin is better for him than to sit upon a grave."[12]

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ فَتْحٍ ثنا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ بْنُ عِيسَى ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ثنا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ الْحَجَّاجِ حَدَّثَنِي زُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ ثنا جَرِيرٌ هُوَ ابْنُ عَبْدِ الْحَمِيدِ - عَنْ سُهَيْلِ بْنِ أَبِي صَالِحٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «لَأَنْ يَجْلِسَ أَحَدُكُمْ عَلَى جَمْرَةٍ فَتَحْرِقَ ثِيَابَهُ فَتَخْلُصَ إِلَى جِلْدِهِ خَيْرٌ لَهُ مِنْ أَنْ يَجْلِسَ عَلَى قَبْرٍ» .

L9210 And likewise, we have narrated it through the chain of transmission of Sufyān al-Thawrī and ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz al-Darāwardī, both of whom narrated from Suhayl from his father from Abū Hurayrah from the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him.

وَهَكَذَا رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ، وَعَبْدِ الْعَزِيزِ الدَّرَاوَرْدِيِّ، كِلَاهُمَا: عَنْ سُهَيْلٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.

L9211 It has also been narrated to us through the chain of Jābir ibn ʿAbd Allāh from the Prophet—may God bless him and grant him peace—regarding the prohibition against sitting on graves. We have indeed mentioned this shortly before. It has also been narrated to us through the chain of Wāthilah ibn al-Asqaʿ from Abū Marthad al-Ghanī from the Messenger of God—may God bless him and grant him peace—"Do not sit on graves nor pray toward them."

وَرُوِّينَا أَيْضًا مِنْ طَرِيقِ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - النَّهْيَ عَنْ الْقُعُودِ عَلَى الْقَبْرِ: وَقَدْ ذَكَرْنَاهُ قَبْلَ هَذَا بِيَسِيرٍ؟ وَرُوِّينَاهُ أَيْضًا مِنْ طَرِيقِ وَاثِلَةَ بْنِ الْأَسْقَعِ عَنْ أَبِي مَرْثَدٍ الْغَنَوِيِّ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - «لَا تَجْلِسُوا عَلَى الْقُبُورِ وَلَا تُصَلُّوا إلَيْهَا» .

L9212–9213 Therefore, these are mutawātir narrations of the highest soundness.

فَهَذِهِ آثَارٌ مُتَوَاتِرَةٌ فِي غَايَةِ الصِّحَّةِ

L9214 This is the statement of a group of the Salaf—may Allah be pleased with them—among them are Abu Hurairah. Through the chain of Waki', from Ismāʿīl ibn Abī Khālid, from Sālim al-Barrād, from Ibn 'Umar, who said: "Indeed, to tread upon heated stones is more beloved to me than to tread upon a grave."

وَهُوَ قَوْلُ جَمَاعَةٍ مِنْ السَّلَفِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ -، مِنْهُمْ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ إسْمَاعِيلَ بْنِ أَبِي خَالِدٍ عَنْ سَالِمٍ الْبَرَّادِ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ: لَأَنْ أَطَأَ عَلَى رَضْفٍ أَحَبُّ إلَيَّ مِنْ أَنْ أَطَأَ عَلَى قَبْرٍ

L9215 Ibn Masʿud said: "I would rather step on an ember until it cools down than intentionally tread upon a grave when I have a valid excuse to avoid it."

وَعَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ: لَأَنْ أَطَأَ عَلَى جَمْرَةٍ حَتَّى تَبْرُدَ أَحَبُّ إلَيَّ مِنْ أَنْ أَتَعَمَّدَ وَطْءَ قَبْرٍ لِي عَنْهُ مَنْدُوحَةٌ.

[12] Hadith references (L9209): Sahih Muslim 971a; Mishkat al-Masabih 1699.

L9216 On the authority of Sa'īd ibn Jubayr: "I would prefer to tread upon a hot coal until it cools down rather than tread upon a grave" (and this is the saying of Abū Sulaymān).

L9217 Some claimed the permissibility of that act, arguing that the prohibited sitting under threat referred exclusively to defecation. This is entirely baseless for several reasons: First, it constitutes an unsupported assertion and a distortion of the Messenger of Allah's—peace and blessings be upon him—words away from their evident meaning, and this is gravely serious.

L9218 The second is that the wording of the report categorically prohibits this, as stated by him—peace be upon him—: "For one of you to sit on an ember so that it burns his clothes and reaches his skin is better for him than sitting on a grave."

L9219 By necessity, every being of sound senses knows that sitting to relieve oneself is never done in this manner whatsoever. Have we ever witnessed anyone sit upon their garments for defecation except one whose brain lacks soundness?

L9220 The third is that the narrators of this report did not extend its meaning beyond the conventional understanding of sitting. We have never known in the Arabic language—ever—that the phrase "someone sat" meant "he defecated." Thus, the invalidity of this claim becomes evident—and all praise is due to Allah, the Exalted.

L9221 We have mentioned the prohibition of prayer toward the grave or upon it in the Book of Prayer. And is Allah, the Exalted, Praiseworthy?

L9222 ## Issue of Walking Between Graves

L9223–9225 579. Issue: It is impermissible for anyone to walk between graves wearing Sibtiyyatayn sandals, which are the two that have no hair in them. If they have hair, is that permissible? If one has hair and the other does not, is walking in both of them permissible? Abdullah ibn Rabi' narrated to us: Muhammad ibn Mu'awiyah narrated to us: Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb informed us: From Muhammad ibn Abdullah ibn al-Mubarak, who narrated from Waki'

وَعَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ: لَأَنْ أَطَأَ عَلَى جَمْرَةٍ حَتَّى تَبْرُدَ أَحَبُّ إِلَيَّ مِنْ أَنْ أَطَأَ عَلَى قَبْرٍ - وَهُوَ قَوْلُ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ.

فَقَالَ قَائِلُونَ بِإِبَاحَةِ ذَلِكَ، وَحَمَلُوا الْجُلُوسَ الْمُتَوَعَّدَ عَلَيْهِ إِنَّمَا هُوَ لِلْغَائِطِ خَاصَّةً؟ وَهَذَا بَاطِلٌ بَحْتٌ لِوُجُوهٍ -: أَوَّلُهَا - أَنَّهُ دَعْوَى بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ، وَصَرْفٌ لِكَلَامِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - عَنْ وَجْهِهِ، وَهَذَا عَظِيمٌ جِدًّا

وَثَانِيهَا - أَنَّ لَفْظَ الْخَبَرِ مَانِعٌ مِنْ ذَلِكَ قَطْعًا، بِقَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - «لَأَنْ يَجْلِسَ أَحَدُكُمْ عَلَى جَمْرَةٍ فَتَحْرِقَ ثِيَابَهُ فَتَخْلُصَ إِلَى جِلْدِهِ: خَيْرٌ لَهُ مِنْ أَنْ يَجْلِسَ عَلَى قَبْرٍ» .

وَبِالضَّرُورَةِ يَدْرِي كُلُّ ذِي حِسٍّ سَلِيمٍ: أَنَّ الْقُعُودَ لِلْغَائِطِ لَا يَكُونُ هَكَذَا أَلْبَتَّةَ، وَمَا عَهِدْنَا قَطُّ أَحَدًا يَقْعُدُ عَلَى ثِيَابِهِ لِلْغَائِطِ إِلَّا مَنْ لَا صِحَّةَ لِدِمَاغِهِ؟

وَثَالِثُهَا - أَنَّ الرُّوَاةَ لِهَذَا الْخَبَرِ لَمْ يَتَعَدَّوْا بِهِ وَجْهَهُ مِنْ الْجُلُوسِ الْمَعْهُودِ، وَمَا عَلِمْنَا قَطُّ فِي اللُّغَةِ - جَلَسَ فُلَانٌ - بِمَعْنَى تَغَوَّطَ، فَظَهَرَ فَسَادُ هَذَا الْقَوْلِ - وَلِلَّهِ تَعَالَى الْحَمْدُ؟

وَقَدْ ذَكَرْنَا تَحْرِيمَ الصَّلَاةِ إِلَى الْقَبْرِ وَعَلَيْهِ فِي كِتَابِ الصَّلَاةِ وَاَللَّهُ تَعَالَى مَحْمُودٌ؟

[مَسْأَلَةٌ الْمَشْيِ بَيْنَ الْقُبُورِ]

٥٧٩ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَا يَحِلُّ لِأَحَدٍ أَنْ يَمْشِيَ بَيْنَ الْقُبُورِ بِنَعْلَيْنِ سِبْتِيَّتَيْنِ وَهُمَا اللَّتَانِ لَا شَعْرَ فِيهِمَا، فَإِنْ كَانَ فِيهِمَا شَعْرٌ: جَازَ ذَلِكَ؟ فَإِنْ كَانَتْ إِحْدَاهُمَا بِشَعْرٍ، وَالْأُخْرَى بِلَا شَعْرٍ: جَازَ الْمَشْيُ فِيهِمَا؟ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ

from al-Aswad ibn Sha'ban - who was trustworthy - from Khalid ibn Samir from Bashir ibn Nahik from Bashir of the Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings be upon him - who was the son of al-Khaṣāṣiyyah. He said: "I was walking with the Messenger of Allah when he saw a man walking among the graves wearing his sandals. He said: 'O wearer of the two Sibtiyyatayn, cast them off?'"

أَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْمُبَارَكِ ثنا وَكِيعٌ عَنْ الْأَسْوَدِ بْنِ شَعْبَانَ - وَكَانَ ثِقَةً - عَنْ خَالِدِ بْنِ سَمِيرٍ عَنْ بَشِيرِ بْنِ نَهِيكٍ «عَنْ بَشِيرٍ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَهُوَ ابْنُ الْخَصَاصِيَةِ - قَالَ كُنْتُ أَمْشِي مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَرَأَى رَجُلًا يَمْشِي بَيْنَ الْقُبُورِ فِي نَعْلَيْهِ، فَقَالَ: يَا صَاحِبَ السِّبْتِيَّتَيْنِ أَلْقِهِمَا» ؟

L9226 Hammam narrated to us: Abbas ibn Asbagh narrated to us, Muhammad ibn Abd al-Malik ibn Ayman narrated to us, Muhammad ibn Sulaiman al-Basri narrated to us, Sulaiman ibn Harb narrated to us, al-Aswad ibn Shayban narrated: Khalid ibn Samir related to me—Bashir ibn Nahik informed me—Bashir ibn al-Khaṣāṣiyyah informed me (his name in the pre-Islamic era was Zahm, but Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—named him Bashir). He said: "While I was walking among the graves, wearing two leather sandals, Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—called out to me: 'O wearer of the two leather sandals! O wearer of the two leather sandals! If you find yourself in such a place, remove your sandals.' So I removed them."

وَحَدَّثَنَاهُ حُمَامٌ ثنا عَبَّاسُ بْنُ أَصْبَغَ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ بْنِ أَيْمَنَ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ الْبَصْرِيُّ ثنا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ ثنا الْأَسْوَدُ بْنُ شَيْبَانَ حَدَّثَنِي خَالِدُ بْنُ سَمِيرٍ أَخْبَرَنِي بَشِيرُ بْنُ نَهِيكٍ أَخْبَرَنِي بَشِيرُ بْنُ الْخَصَاصِيَةِ - وَكَانَ اسْمُهُ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ زَحْمٌ، فَسَمَّاهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بَشِيرًا - قَالَ: «بَيْنَا أَنَا أَمْشِي بَيْنَ الْمَقَابِرِ وَعَلَيَّ نَعْلَانِ، إِذْ نَادَانِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَا صَاحِبَ السِّبْتِيَّتَيْنِ، يَا صَاحِبَ السِّبْتِيَّتَيْنِ، إِذَا كُنْت فِي مِثْلِ هَذَا الْمَكَانِ فَاخْلَعْ نَعْلَيْكَ، قَالَ: فَخَلَعْتُهُمَا» ؟ .

L9227 Abu Muhammad said: If it is asked, "Why do you not prohibit all sandals, given the generality of his statement—peace be upon him—'Remove your two sandals'?" We reply: The prohibition is based on two aspects. The first is that he—peace be upon him—specifically addressed the wearer of two soft leather sandals, in accordance with the explicit textual wording of his instruction, and then commanded him to remove his two sandals.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: فَإِنْ قِيلَ - فَهَلَّا مَنَعْتُمْ مِنْ كُلِّ نَعْلٍ، لِعُمُومِ قَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - «فَاخْلَعْ نَعْلَيْكَ» ؟ قُلْنَا: مَنَعَ مِن ذَلِكَ وَجْهَانِ -: أَحَدُهُمَا: أَنَّه - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - إنَّمَا دَعَا صَاحِبَ سِبْتِيَّتَيْنِ، بِنَصِّ كَلَامِهِ، ثُمَّ أَمَرَهُ بِخَلْعِ نَعْلَيْهِ؟

L9228 The second narration is what was conveyed to us by 'Abdullāh ibn Rabī', who narrated to us Muḥammad ibn Mu'āwiyah, who narrated to us Aḥmad ibn Shu'ayb, who narrated to us Ibrāhīm ibn Ya'qūb ibn Isḥāq al-Juzjānī, who narrated to us Yūnus ibn Muḥammad, who narrated to us Shaybān, reporting from Qatādah, who narrated from Anas ibn Mālik, who said: The Prophet of Allāh, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Indeed, when the servant وَالثَّانِي مَا حَدَّثَنَاهُ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ ثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ ثنا إبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ يَعْقُوبَ بْنِ إِسْحَاقَ الْجُوزَجَانِيُّ ثنا يُونُسُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ثنا شَيْبَانُ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ ثنا أَنَسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ قَالَ: قَالَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «إنَّ الْعَبْدَ إذَا وُضِعَ فِي قَبْرِهِ وَتَوَلَّى عَنْهُ أَصْحَابُهُ إنَّهُ لَيَسْمَعُ قَرْعَ نِعَالِهِمْ» وَذَكَرَ الْحَدِيثَ.

is placed in his grave and those who accompanied him turn away, he hears the clatter of their sandals," and he mentioned the ḥadīth.[13]

L9229–9230 Abū Muḥammad said: This is a narration from him (peace be upon him) regarding what will occur after him—that Muslims will wear sandals in cemeteries until the Day of Resurrection, based on the general scope of his notification (peace be upon him) about this matter, though he did not prohibit it. And narrations are not subject to abrogation at all.

L9231 Is the permissibility of wearing sandals in cemeteries established, necessitating the exclusion of Sibtiyyah sandals due to the explicit statement of the Prophet (peace be upon him) regarding them? Abu Muhammad said: Some who speak carelessly with their tongues said: "Perhaps those two sandals contained impurities?"

L9232 Abu Muhammad said: Whoever asserts decisively on this matter has lied against the Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—by attributing to him what he did not say. Whoever refrains from decisive judgment has ruled based on conjecture and followed what he has no knowledge of. Are not both steps of collapse? We seek refuge in Allah from them!

L9233 Then it is said to him: Suppose that were the case? Would you say: "Is this your position?" Would you then prohibit walking between graves wearing shoes soiled with filth? So when they say: "No," it is said to them: What comfort is there for you in advancing a false claim? Even if it were valid, why would you adhere to it, remaining opposed to the report in any case? It is also said to him: Perhaps the ruling regarding nosebleeds applies only to black blood due to its resemblance to menstrual blood, and perhaps the invalidation of a man's prayer next to a woman occurs only if she is youthful, out of fear of temptation. Such instances are numerous.

L9234 An Issue Concerning the Prayer Over Parts of the Deceased

[13] Hadith references (L9228): Sunan Abi Dawud 3231; Sunan an-Nasai 2049; Sunan Abi Dawud 4752.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: فَهَذَا إِخْبَارٌ مِنْهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِمَا يَكُونُ بَعْدَهُ، وَأَنَّ النَّاسَ مِنْ الْمُسْلِمِينَ سَيَلْبَسُونَ النِّعَالَ فِي مَدَافِنِ الْمَوْتَى إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ، عَلَى عُمُومِ إِنْذَارِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِذَلِكَ، وَلَمْ يَنْهَ عَنْهُ، وَالْأَخْبَارُ لَا تُنْسَخُ أَصْلًا.

فَصَحَّ إِبَاحَةُ لِبَاسِ النِّعَالِ فِي الْمَقَابِرِ، وَوَجَبَ اسْتِثْنَاءُ السِّبْتِيَّةِ مِنْهَا، لِنَصِّهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - عَلَيْهَا؟ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: وَقَالَ بَعْضُ مَنْ لَا يُبَالِي بِمَا أَطْلَقَ بِهِ لِسَانَهُ فَقَالَ: لَعَلَّ تِيْنِكَ النَّعْلَيْنِ كَانَ فِيهِمَا قَذَرٌ؟

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: مَنْ قَطَعَ بِهَذَا فَقَدْ كَذَبَ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إِذْ قَوَّلَهُ مَا لَمْ يَقُلْ، وَمَنْ لَمْ يَقْطَعْ بِذَلِكَ فَقَدْ حَكَمَ بِالظَّنِّ، وَقَفَا مَا لَا عِلْمَ لَهُ بِهِ، وَكِلَاهُمَا خُطَّتَا خَسْفٍ نَعُوذُ بِاَللَّهِ مِنْهُمَا؟

ثُمَّ يُقَالُ لَهُ: فَهَبْكَ ذَلِكَ كَذَلِكَ؟ أَتَقُولُونَ: بِهَذَا أَنْتُمْ؟ فَتَمْنَعُونَ مِنْ الْمَشْيِ، بَيْنَ الْقُبُورِ بِنَعْلَيْنِ فِيهِمَا قَذَرٌ؟ فَمِنْ قَوْلِهِمْ: لَا؟ فَيُقَالُ لَهُمْ: فَأَيُّ رَاحَةٍ لَكُمْ فِي دَعْوَى كَاذِبَةٍ؟ ثُمَّ لَوْ صَحَّتْ لِمَ تَقُولُوا بِهَا، وَلَبَقِيتُمْ مُخَالِفِينَ لِلْخَبَرِ بِكُلِّ حَالٍ؟ وَيُقَالُ لَهُ أَيْضًا: وَلَعَلَّ الْبِنَاءَ فِي الرُّعَافِ إِنَّمَا هُوَ فِي الدَّمِ الْأَسْوَدِ لِشَبَهِهِ بِدَمِ الْحَيْضِ، وَلَعَلَّ فَسَادَ صَلَاةِ الرَّجُلِ إِلَى جَنْبِ الْمَرْأَةِ إِنَّمَا هُوَ إِذَا كَانَتْ شَابَّةً خَوْفَ الْفِتْنَةِ، وَمِثْلُ هَذَا كَثِيرٌ

[مَسْأَلَةٌ الصَّلَاة عَلَى أجزاء الْمَيِّت]

L9235 Question 580: The funeral prayer is to be performed over whatever remains found of a deceased Muslim, even if it is a nail, a hair, or anything more significant than that. The deceased is to be washed and shrouded, except in the case of a martyr – who is not washed but wrapped and buried. The funeral prayer is also performed for a Muslim even if their body is absent or unrecoverable.

٥٨٠ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَيُصَلَّى عَلَى مَا وُجِدَ مِنْ الْمَيِّتِ الْمُسْلِمِ، وَلَوْ أَنَّهُ ظُفْرٌ أَوْ شَعْرٌ فَمَا فَوْقَ ذَلِكَ، وَيُغَسَّلُ وَيُكَفَّنُ، إلَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ مِنْ شَهِيدٍ فَلَا يُغَسَّلُ، لَكِنْ يُلَفُّ وَيُدْفَنُ؟ وَيُصَلَّى عَلَى الْمَيِّتِ الْمُسْلِمِ وَإِنْ كَانَ غَائِبًا لَا يُوجَدُ مِنْهُ شَيْءٌ.

L9236 If another limb of the deceased is found after that also, it is washed again, shrouded, buried, and there is no objection to praying over him a second time - does this process continue perpetually in this manner?

فَإِنْ وُجِدَ مِنْ الْمَيِّتِ عُضْوٌ آخَرُ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ أَيْضًا غُسِّلَ أَيْضًا، وَكُفِّنَ، وَدُفِنَ، وَلَا بَأْسَ بِالصَّلَاةِ عَلَيْهِ ثَانِيَةً، وَهَكَذَا أَبَدًا؟

L9237–9238 The proof of that—we have previously mentioned the obligation of washing the deceased, shrouding him, burying him, and performing the funeral prayer over him. Thus, it is validated that washing all his body parts—whether minor or major—and shrouding and burying them with the burial shroud are obligatory. Therefore, there is no doubt that each of these obligations applies to every part of him.

بُرْهَانُ ذَلِكَ -: أَنَّا قَدْ ذَكَرْنَا قَبْلُ وُجُوبَ غُسْلِ الْمَيِّتِ وَتَكْفِينِهِ وَدَفْنِهِ وَالصَّلَاةِ عَلَيْهِ، فَصَحَّ بِذَلِكَ غُسْلُ جَمِيعِ أَعْضَائِهِ - قَلِيلِهَا وَكَثِيرِهَا - وَسَتْرُ جَمِيعِهَا بِالْكَفَنِ وَالدَّفْنِ، فَذَلِكَ بِلَا شَكٍّ وَاجِبٌ فِي كُلِّ جُزْءٍ مِنْهُ.

L9239 Since this is the case, it is obligatory to perform it in whatever can be performed with existence whenever it is ascertained, and it is impermissible for this obligation to be waived regarding scattered body parts without established evidence.

فَإِذْ هُوَ كَذَلِكَ فَوَاجِبٌ عَمَلُهُ فِيمَا أَمْكَنَ عَمَلُهُ فِيهِ، بِالْوُجُودِ مَتَى وُجِدَ، وَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يَسْقُطَ ذَلِكَ فِي الْأَعْضَاءِ الْمُفَرَّقَةِ بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ

L9240 Does the intention in praying over whatever part of the deceased is found extend to the entirety of the deceased—its body and soul? Abū Ḥanīfa and his companions stated: If half of the deceased containing the head is found, or more than half even without the head, it is obligatory to wash, shroud, and pray over it. If the half lacking the head is found, or less than the half containing the head, it is not permissible to wash, shroud, or pray over it.

وَيَنْوِي بِالصَّلَاةِ عَلَى مَا وُجِدَ مِنْهُ الصَّلَاةُ عَلَى جَمِيعِهِ: جَسَدِهِ، وَرُوحِهِ؟ وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ، وَأَصْحَابُهُ: إنْ وُجِدَ نِصْفُ الْمَيِّتِ الَّذِي فِيهِ الرَّأْسُ، أَوْ أَكْثَرُ مِنْ نِصْفِهِ وَإِنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ فِيهِ الرَّأْسُ -: غُسِّلَ وَكُفِّنَ وَصُلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ؟ وَإِنْ وُجِدَ النِّصْفُ الَّذِي لَيْسَ فِيهِ الرَّأْسُ، أَوْ أَقَلَّ مِنْ النِّصْفِ الَّذِي فِيهِ الرَّأْسُ -: لَمْ يُغَسَّلْ، وَلَا كُفِّنَ، وَلَا صُلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ

L9241 Abu Muhammad said: And this is confusion; let this suffice you concerning it.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: وَهَذَا تَخْلِيطٌ نَاهِيكَ بِهِ

L9242 They were asked: From where do you derive that covering most of it during prayer is obligatory, while covering half of it is not? You have ruled that a quarter—regarding what becomes exposed of the free woman's belly and hair—holds the legal weight of the whole, and you have also ruled in some of your juristic cases that a tenth holds the legal weight of the whole? This applies to shaving a tenth of one's head or beard for those in iḥrām according to Muḥammad ibn al-Ḥasan's opinion. From what source do these religious rulings originate without authorization from Allah the Exalted for them?

وَقِيلَ لَهُمْ: مِنْ أَيْنَ لَكُمْ أَنَّ الصَّلَاةَ عَلَى أَكْثَرِهِ وَاجِبَةٌ، وَعَلَى نِصْفِهِ غَيْرُ وَاجِبَةٍ؟ وَأَنْتُمْ قَدْ جَعَلْتُمْ الرُّبُعَ - فِيمَا أَنْكَشَفَ مِنْ بَطْنِ الْحُرَّةِ وَشَعْرِهَا - كَثِيرًا فِي حُكْمِ الْكُلِّ، وَجَعَلْتُمْ

الْعُشْرَ - فِي بَعْضِ مَسَائِلِكُمْ أَيْضًا - فِي حُكْمِ الْكُلِّ؟ وَهُوَ مِنْ حَلْقِ عُشْرِ رَأْسِهِ، أَوْ عُشْرِ لِحْيَتِهِ مِنْ الْمُحْرِمِينَ فِي قَوْلِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْحَسَنِ، فَمِنْ أَيْنَ هَذِهِ الْأَحْكَامُ فِي الدِّينِ بِغَيْرِ إِذْنٍ مِنْ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى بِهَا؟

L9243 And it has been narrated to us from Abū Ayyūb al-Anṣārī and Abū Mūsā al-Ashʿarī—may Allāh be pleased with them both—that they prayed over the leg—of a person? This is the view of Abū Sulaymān and our companions.

وَقَدْ رُوِّينَا عَنْ أَبِي أَيُّوبَ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ وَأَبِي مُوسَى الْأَشْعَرِيِّ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا -: أَنَّهُمَا صَلَّيَا عَلَى رِجْلٍ، إنْسَانٍ؟ وَهُوَ قَوْلُ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَأَصْحَابِنَا.

L9244–9246 It has been narrated from ʻUmar that he prayed over bones, and from Abu Ubaydah that he prayed over a head. As for the prayer over an absent person, there has come a decisive text concerning it, rendering speculation unnecessary, even if such speculation [were possible]. The prayer over him is obligatory because the statement of the Messenger of Allah—may Allah bless him and grant him peace—"Pray over your deceased" constitutes a general ruling encompassing both the absent and present. It is impermissible to restrict this obligation to either group. Rather, it becomes an obligation concerning every Muslim buried without prayer that those Muslims who become aware of this must pray over him, as it is a communal obligation. For those who perform the prayer over him, it is a recommended act.

وَرُوِيَ عَنْ عُمَرَ، أَنَّهُ صَلَّى عَلَى عِظَامٍ وَعَنْ أَبِي عُبَيْدَةَ: أَنَّهُ صَلَّى عَلَى رَأْسٍ وَأَمَّا الصَّلَاةُ عَلَى الْغَائِبِ فَقَدْ جَاءَ بِهِ نَصٌّ قَاطِعٌ، أَغْنَى عَنْ النَّظَرِ، وَإِنْ كَانَ النَّظَرُ تَجِبُ بِهِ الصَّلَاةُ عَلَيْهِ، لِأَنَّ قَوْلَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «صَلُّوا عَلَى صَاحِبِكُمْ» عُمُومٌ يَدْخُلُ فِيهِ الْغَائِبُ وَالْحَاضِرُ، وَلَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يُخَصَّ بِهِ أَحَدُهُمَا، بَلْ فَرْضٌ فِي كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ دُفِنَ بِغَيْرِ صَلَاةٍ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ مَنْ بَلَغَهُ ذَلِكَ مِنْ الْمُسْلِمِينَ، لِأَنَّهَا فَرْضٌ عَلَى الْكِفَايَةِ، وَهِيَ فِيمَنْ صَلَّى عَلَيْهِ نَدْبٌ.

L9247 Narrated by Abdur-Rahman ibn Abdullah from Ibrahim ibn Ahmad from Al-Farbari from Al-Bukhari from Ismail ibn Abi Uwais: Malik narrated to me from Ibn Shihab from Sa'id ibn Al-Musayyib from Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—announced the death of An-Najashi on the day he died. He went out to the prayer ground, lined them up in rows, and performed four takbīrāt.[14]

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ثنا إبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ ثنا إسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ أَبِي أُوَيْسٍ حَدَّثَنِي مَالِكٌ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - نَعَى النَّجَاشِيَّ فِي الْيَوْمِ الَّذِي مَاتَ فِيهِ؟ خَرَجَ إلَى الْمُصَلَّى فَصَفَّ بِهِمْ وَكَبَّرَ أَرْبَعًا» .

L9248 Through him to Al-Bukhari: Ibrāhīm ibn Mūsā narrated to us, Hishām ibn Yūsuf narrated to us, that Ibn Jurayj informed them, saying: ʿAṭāʾ informed me that he heard Jābir ibn ʿAbd Allāh saying, "The Prophet (peace be upon him) said: 'A righteous man from Abyssinia has died today. Come, pray over him.' We formed rows, and the Prophet (peace be upon him) prayed while we [prayed]."

وَبِهِ إلَى الْبُخَارِيِّ: ثنا إبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ مُوسَى ثنا هِشَامُ بْنُ يُوسُفَ أَنَّ ابْنَ جُرَيْجٍ أَخْبَرَهُمْ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي عَطَاءٌ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ جَابِرَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ يَقُولُ " قَالَ النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -

[14] Hadith references (L9247): Sahih al-Bukhari 1245.

«قَدْ تُوُفِّيَ الْيَوْمَ رَجُلٌ صَالِحٌ مِنْ الْحَبَشِ، فَهَلُمَّ فَصَلُّوا عَلَيْهِ، فَصَفَفْنَا، فَصَلَّى النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَنَحْنُ» .

L9249 And through him to Al-Bukhari: Narrated to us Musaddad from Abū ʿAwānah from Qatādah from ʿAṭāʾ from Jābir ibn ʿAbdullāh: "The Messenger of Allah - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him - performed the funeral prayer for al-Najāshī. Jābir said: I was in the second row or the third row."

وَبِهِ إلَى الْبُخَارِيِّ: ثنا مُسَدَّدٌ عَنْ أَبِي عَوَانَةَ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ «أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - صَلَّى عَلَى النَّجَاشِيِّ. قَالَ جَابِرٌ: فَكُنْتُ فِي الصَّفِّ الثَّانِي أَوْ الثَّالِثِ» .

L9250 We have also narrated it through a robust chain from Imrān ibn al-Ḥuṣayn from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). This is the command of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), his practice, and the practice of all his Companions. Thus, there is no consensus more sound than this, and multiply-transmitted reports from a group of the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them) as we have cited.

وَرُوِّينَاهُ أَيْضًا مِنْ طَرِيقٍ قَوِيَّةٍ عَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ الْحُصَيْنِ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -. فَهَذَا أَمْرُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَعَمَلُهُ وَعَمَلُ جَمِيعِ أَصْحَابِهِ، فَلَا إجْمَاعَ أَصَحُّ مِنْ هَذَا، وَآثَارٌ مُتَوَاتِرَةٌ عَنْ جَمَاعَةٍ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ - كَمَا أَوْرَدْنَا؟

L9251 Malik and Abu Hanifah prohibited this, and their adherents asserted this ruling was exclusive to the Negus. This is a false claim without evidence—and success is from Allah, the Exalted.

وَمَنَعَ مِنْ هَذَا: مَالِكٌ، وَأَبُو حَنِيفَةَ، وَادَّعَى أَصْحَابُهُمَا الْخُصُوصَ لِلنَّجَاشِيِّ، وَهَذِهِ دَعْوَى كَاذِبَةٌ بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ.

L9252 If they say: "Did any of the Companions do this after the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)?" We said to them: "Has it ever been narrated that any of the Companions forbade this or rejected it?" Then they are told: "There is no proof in anyone other than the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)." Allah the Exalted said: {So that mankind would have no proof against Allah after the messengers} [An-Nisa' 4:165].[15]

فَإِنْ قَالُوا: هَلْ فَعَلَ هَذَا أَحَدٌ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ بَعْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -؟ قُلْنَا لَهُمْ: وَهَلْ جَاءَ قَطُّ عَنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ أَنَّهُ زَجَرَ عَنْ هَذَا أَوْ أَنْكَرَهُ؟ ثُمَّ يُقَالُ لَهُمْ: لَا حُجَّةَ فِي أَحَدٍ غَيْرِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -. قَالَ تَعَالَى: {لِئَلا يَكُونَ لِلنَّاسِ عَلَى اللَّهِ حُجَّةٌ بَعْدَ الرُّسُلِ} [النساء: ١٦٥]

Legal Question: Prayer at the Grave

L9253–9254

[مَسْأَلَةُ الصَّلَاةُ عَلَى الْقَبْرِ]

L9255 Issue: It is permissible to perform the funeral prayer over a grave, even if the funeral prayer has already been offered for the deceased buried there.

مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَالصَّلَاةُ جَائِزَةٌ عَلَى الْقَبْرِ، وَإِنْ كَانَ قَدْ صُلِّيَ عَلَى الْمَدْفُونِ فِيهِ

L9256 Abu Hanifah said: If one is buried without the funeral prayer, the prayer is performed over the grave from the time of burial up to three days, and no prayer is performed after that. If he is buried after the prayer has been performed over him, no one may pray over his grave.

[15] Qur'an references (L9252): Qur'an 4:165 (An-Nisa).

وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ: إِنْ دُفِنَ بِلَا صَلَاةٍ: صُلِّيَ عَلَى الْقَبْرِ مَا بَيْنَ دَفْنِهِ إِلَى ثَلَاثَةِ أَيَّامٍ، وَلَا يُصَلَّى عَلَيْهِ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ، وَإِنْ دُفِنَ بَعْدَ أَنْ صُلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ لَمْ يُصَلِّ أَحَدٌ عَلَى قَبْرِهِ؟

L9257 Malik said: Prayer should not be performed over a grave, and he narrated that from Ibrahim al-Nakha'i?

وَقَالَ مَالِكٌ: لَا يُصَلَّى عَلَى قَبْرٍ، وَرَوَى ذَلِكَ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ النَّخَعِيِّ؟

L9258 Al-Shafi'i, Al-Awza'i, and Abu Sulayman said: Prayer is offered at the grave even if the deceased buried in it has already been prayed over, and this has been reported from Ibn Sirin? Ahmad ibn Hanbal said: Prayer is offered over him for a month; is prayer not offered over him after that?

وَقَالَ الشَّافِعِيُّ، وَالْأَوْزَاعِيُّ، وَأَبُو سُلَيْمَانَ: يُصَلَّى عَلَى الْقَبْرِ وَإِنْ كَانَ قَدْ صُلِّيَ عَلَى الْمَدْفُونِ فِيهِ، وَقَدْ رُوِيَ هَذَا عَنِ ابْنِ سِيرِينَ؟ وَقَالَ أَحْمَدُ بْنُ حَنْبَلٍ: يُصَلَّى عَلَيْهِ إِلَى شَهْرٍ، وَلَا يُصَلَّى عَلَيْهِ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ؟

L9259 Ishaq said: May an absent person pray over the grave up to a month, and a present person pray over it up to three days? — Abdullah ibn Yusuf narrated to us from Ahmad ibn Fath from Abdul Wahhab ibn Isa from Ahmad ibn Muhammad from Ahmad ibn Ali from Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj from Abu Kamil Fudayl ibn Husayn al-Jahdarī from Hammad ibn Zayd from Thabit al-Bunani from Abu Rafi' from Abu Hurayrah: "A black woman [or a youth] who used to sweep the mosque. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) noticed his absence and inquired about him. They said: 'He died.' He said: 'Why did you not inform me?' It was as if they belittled his significance. He said: 'Direct me to his grave.' They directed him, and he prayed over him. Then he said: 'These graves are filled with darkness upon their inhabitants, and Allah the Exalted illuminates them through my prayer over them.'"[16]

L9260 A group of people claimed that this statement of his—peace be upon him—is evidence that this is specific to him?

فَادَّعَى قَوْمٌ أَنَّ هَذَا الْكَلَامَ مِنْهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - دَلِيلٌ عَلَى أَنَّهُ خُصُوصٌ لَهُ؟

L9261–9263 Abu Muhammad said: It is not as they claimed. Rather, this statement concerns solely the blessing of his prayer (peace be upon him) and its superiority over the prayers of others. There is absolutely no prohibition here against others praying at the grave; rather, indeed... Allah, the Exalted, said: "There has certainly been for you in the Messenger of Allah an excellent example" [Al-Ahzab 33:21].[17]

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: وَلَيْسَ كَمَا قَالُوا، وَإِنَّمَا فِي هَذَا الْكَلَامِ بَرَكَةُ صَلَاتِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - وَفَضِيلَتُهَا عَلَى صَلَاةِ غَيْرِهِ فَقَطْ، وَلَيْسَ فِيهِ نَهْيُ غَيْرِهِ عَنِ الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى الْقَبْرِ أَصْلًا، بَلْ قَدْ قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ} [الأحزاب: ٢١]

L9264 Among the evidence invalidating the claim of specificity here is what we transmitted through the aforementioned chain to Muslim: Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Numayr narrated to us, Muḥammad ibn Idrīs narrated to us from al-Shaybānī, who is Abū Isḥāq, from al-Shaʿbī, from someone who narrated to him, who said: "We arrived with the Messenger of Allāh—peace and blessings be upon him—at a fresh grave. He prayed over it, they lined up in rows behind him, and he uttered four takbīrs."

وَمِمَّا يَدُلُّ عَلَى بُطْلَانِ دَعْوَى الْخُصُوصِ هَهُنَا مَا رُوِّينَاهُ بِالسَّنَدِ الْمَذْكُورِ إِلَى مُسْلِمٍ: ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ نُمَيْرٍ ثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ إِدْرِيسَ عَنْ الشَّيْبَانِيِّ هُوَ أَبُو إِسْحَاقَ - عَنْ الشَّعْبِيِّ عَمَّنْ حَدَّثَهُ قَالَ «انْتَهَيْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إلَى قَبْرٍ رَطْبٍ، فَصَلَّى عَلَيْهِ، وَصَفُّوا خَلْفَهُ، وَكَبَّرَ أَرْبَعًا»

L9265 Ash-Shaybani said: I asked Amir al-Sha'bi, "Who narrated to you?" He replied, "The trustworthy one who witnessed it - Ibn Abbas."

قَالَ الشَّيْبَانِيُّ: قُلْت لِعَامِرٍ الشَّعْبِيِّ: مَنْ حَدَّثَك؟ قَالَ: الثِّقَةُ، مَنْ شَهِدَهُ، ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ.

L9266 This invalidates the claim of specificity, for his companions (peace be upon him, and upon them be Allah's pleasure) prayed with him at the grave, thus invalidating the claim.

فَهَذَا أَبْطَلَ الْخُصُوصَ، لِأَنَّ أَصْحَابَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -، وَعَلَيْهِمْ رِضْوَانُ اللَّهِ صَلَّوْا مَعَهُ عَلَى الْقَبْرِ، فَبَطَلَتْ دَعْوَى الْخُصُوصِ

L9267 And by the same chain to Muslim: Ibrāhīm ibn Muḥammad ibn ʿUrʿura al-Sāmī narrated to me: Ghundar narrated to us: Shuʿbah narrated from Ḥabīb ibn al-Shahīd [from Thābit] from Anas: "That the Prophet - peace and blessings of Allah be upon him - prayed over a grave."[18]

وَبِهِ إلَى مُسْلِمٍ حَدَّثَنِي إبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عُرْعُرَةَ السَّامِيِّ ثنا غُنْدَرٌ ثنا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ حَبِيبِ بْنِ الشَّهِيدِ [عَنْ ثَابِتٍ] عَنْ أَنَسٍ «أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - صَلَّى عَلَى قَبْرٍ» .

L9268 Abu Muhammad said: So these are mass-transmitted traditions; there is no room to deviate from them.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: فَهَذِهِ آثَارٌ مُتَوَاتِرَةٌ لَا يَسَعُ الْخُرُوجُ عَنْهَا

L9269 Some of them argued: "The Muslims did not perform prayer at the grave of Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him." Abu Muhammad said: "We do not know of any Companion—may Allah be pleased with them—who forbade performing prayer at the grave of Allah's Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him. Neither Allah the Exalted nor His Messenger—peace and blessings be upon him—prohibited it. Therefore, prohibition of this is invalid, and sending blessings upon him constitutes a righteous deed. A claim is invalid unless supported by evidence." Some of them said: "The Prophet's prohibition—peace and blessings be upon him—against praying facing graves or praying over graves prevents this."

L9270 Abu Muhammad said: This is astonishing—nothing like it has ever been seen! For whoever cites this as evidence has completely inverted the truth, because it is established from the Prophet (peace be upon him) that he prohibited praying over the grave or toward it.

L9271 Or in the cemetery, or regarding sitting on a grave, this speaker said: All of this is permissible.

L9272–9274 It is authentically reported that the Prophet—may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him—prayed the funeral prayer over a grave as he would over the deceased. Yet this speaker deemed it impermissible, arguing that the absolute prohibition against prayer in general extends to forbidding the funeral prayer over the grave. He cited the report about prayer over graves as evidence for permitting the forbidden prayers performed in cemeteries, directed toward graves, or upon them. "Allah is sufficient for us, and what an excellent Trustee!" Some said: "Did Ibn Umar not pray over graves?" We responded: "Yes—he would not perform regular prayers over graves, yet he would always offer the funeral prayer over graves without exception." Abu Muhammad remarked: "Even if this were authentic, it would conflict with established contrary evidence—specifically that he (may Allah be pleased with him) did offer funeral prayers over graves. Furthermore, even if this were not narrated from him, it would still oppose what is authentically reported from the Companions on this matter. How could it stand when no conclusive proof rests with anyone other than the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him)?"

L9275 No authentic report is transmitted from Ibn Umar except what we have mentioned. It was narrated to us from Ma'mar, from Ayyub al-Sakhtiyānī, from Ibn Abi Mulaykah: Abd al-Rahman ibn Abi Bakr died six miles from Mecca, so we carried him and transported him to Mecca, where we buried him. Then Aisha, the Mother of the Believers, came to us and said, "Where is my brother's grave?" We showed her his grave, and she positioned her litter near his grave, then prayed over him. From Hammad ibn Salama, from Ayyub al-Sakhtiyānī, from Nafi‘, from Ibn Umar: When he arrived and his brother Asim had died, he said, “Where is my brother’s grave?” He was directed to it, then he prayed over him and supplicated for him. Abu Muhammad said: This clarifies that it was the funeral prayer, not merely supplication.

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّد: وَهَذَا عَجَبٌ مَا مِثْلُهُ عَجَبٌ وَهُوَ أَنَّ الْمُحْتَجَّ بِهَذَا عَكَسَ الْحَقَّ عَكْسًا، لِأَنَّهُ صَحَّ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - النَّهْيُ عَنْ الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى الْقَبْرِ، أَوْ إلَيْهِ.

وَعَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ: أَنَّهُ أَمَرَ قَرَظَةَ بْنَ كَعْبٍ الْأَنْصَارِيَّ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ عَلَى قَبْرِ سَهْلِ بْنِ حُنَيْفٍ بِقَوْمٍ جَاءُوا بَعْدَمَا دُفِنَ وَصُلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ؟ وَعَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ أَيْضًا: أَنَّهُ صَلَّى عَلَى جِنَازَةٍ بَعْدَمَا صُلِّيَ عَلَيْهَا؟ وَعَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانِ ثنا أَبَانُ بْنُ يَزِيدَ الْعَطَّارُ عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ أَبِي كَثِيرٍ: أَنَّ أَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ صَلَّى عَلَى جِنَازَةٍ بَعْدَمَا صُلِّيَ عَلَيْهَا وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ نَحْوُ ذَلِكَ.

L9276 From Ali ibn Abi Talib: that he commanded Qarazah ibn Ka‘b al-Ansari to lead the prayer over the grave of Sahl ibn Hunayf with a group that arrived after he was buried and the prayer had been performed. Also from Ali ibn Abi Talib: that he performed the prayer over the deceased after it had already been performed. From Yahya ibn Sa‘id al-Qattan: Aban ibn Yazid al-‘Attar narrated from Yahya ibn Abi Kathir: that Anas ibn Malik performed the prayer over the deceased after it had already been performed. From Ibn Mas‘ud is something similar.

وَعَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ إِبَاحَةُ ذَلِكَ.

L9277 And the permissibility of that is narrated from Sa‘īd ibn al-Musayyib.

وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ خَالِدِ بْنِ الْوَلِيدِ: أَنَّهُ صَلَّى عَلَى جِنَازَةٍ بَعْدَمَا صُلِّيَ عَلَيْهَا وَعَنْ قَتَادَةَ: أَنَّهُ كَانَ إِذَا فَاتَتْهُ الصَّلَاةُ عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ صَلَّى عَلَيْهَا.

L9278–9280 From Abd al-Rahman ibn Khalid ibn al-Walid: that he prayed over a funeral after it had already been prayed over. It is narrated from Qatādah that whenever he missed the prayer over the bier, he would pray over it.

فَهَذِهِ طَوَائِفُ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ لَا يُعْرَفُ لَهُمْ مِنْهُمْ مُخَالِفٌ؟ وَأَمَّا أَمْرُ تَحْدِيدِ الصَّلَاةِ بِشَهْرٍ أَوْ ثَلَاثَةِ أَيَّامٍ فَخَطَأٌ لَا يُشْكِلُ، لِأَنَّهُ تَحْدِيدٌ بِلَا دَلِيلٍ، وَلَا فَرْقَ بَيْنَ مَنْ حَدَّ بِهَذَا، أَوْ مَنْ حَدَّ بِغَيْرِ ذَلِكَ.

L9281 These are groups among the Companions; no dissenter from them is known. As for restricting [the duration of] prayer to a month or three days, it is an unambiguous error, for it constitutes a restriction without textual evidence. There is no distinction between one who restricts it to this and one who restricts it to something else.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ تَزَوَّجَ مُسْلِمٌ كَافِرَةً فَحَمَلَتْ مِنْهُ وَمَاتَتْ حَامِلًا]

A jurisprudential case: A Muslim man married a non-Muslim woman, impregnated her, and she died while pregnant.

٥٨٢ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَمَنْ تَزَوَّجَ كَافِرَةً فَحَمَلَتْ مِنْهُ وَهُوَ مُسْلِمٌ وَمَاتَتْ حَامِلًا -: فَإِنْ كَانَتْ قَبْلَ أَرْبَعَةِ أَشْهُرٍ وَلَمْ يُنْفَخْ فِيهِ الرُّوحُ بَعْدُ: دُفِنَتْ مَعَ أَهْلِ دِينِهَا، وَإِنْ كَانَ بَعْدَ أَرْبَعَةِ

L9282 L9283 582 - Issue: If whoever marries a disbelieving woman while being Muslim, she conceives from him, and dies pregnant: If she dies before four months when the soul has not yet been breathed into the fetus, she is buried with her religious community. If she dies after four months when the soul has been breathed into the fetus, she is buried at the edge of the Muslims’ cemetery, for the practice of Muslims since the time of Allah's Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) is that no Muslim is buried with a polytheist. Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn ʿAbdillāh ibn al-Mubārak narrated to us: Wakīʿ narrated from al-Aswad ibn Shaybān – who was reliable – from Khālid ibn Samīr, from Bashīr ibn Nahīk, from Bashīr ibn al-Khaṣāṣiyyah, a Companion of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), who said: "I was walking with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) when he passed by the graves of Muslims and said: 'These have preceded much evil.' Then he passed by the graves of polytheists and said: 'These have preceded much good.'"[19]

L9284 Thus, the separation of Muslim graves from those of polytheists was validated by this.

L9285–9287 The fetus before the soul is breathed into it is merely a part of its mother's body and among the contents of her abdomen. She must be buried among the disbelievers, for when the soul is breathed into it, it becomes another creation, as Allah the Exalted said: "Then We clothed the bones with flesh, then We brought it forth as another creation" [Al-Mu'minun:14]. At that point, it becomes a living human being distinct from his mother. Rather, he may be male while she is female, and he is the son of a Muslim, thus subject to the rulings of Islam. Therefore, it is impermissible to bury him in the cemeteries of the disbelievers. Since she is a disbeliever, she cannot be buried in the cemeteries of the Muslims. Consequently, she must be buried in a separate area for this reason. It has been narrated to us from Sulaymān ibn Mūsā that Wāthilah ibn al-Asqaʿ, the Companion of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), buried a Christian woman who died pregnant from a Muslim in a cemetery that was neither the Christians' cemetery nor the Muslims' cemetery, between them.[20]

L9288 It was narrated to us from ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb that she should be buried with the Muslims for the sake of her child.

L9289 Issue: A minor is taken captive—whether with both parents, with one parent, or without them—and subsequently dies.

L9290 583. Issue: If a minor is captured along with both parents, one of them, or without them, and then dies, he is to be buried with the Muslims and the funeral prayer is to be performed for him. Allah the Exalted said: "The natural disposition of Allah, upon which He created mankind. There is no altering Allah's creation. That is the upright religion" (30:30). Thus, it is established that every newborn is a Muslim, except those whom Allah the Exalted has confirmed in disbelief—specifically, those born to two disbelieving dhimmi parents or two disbelieving parents from enemy territory, who were not captured until reaching adulthood. Are those outside these two categories not Muslims?[21]

L9291 Issue: The person most deserving to lead the prayer over the deceased.

L9292 584 - Issue: The most entitled individuals to perform the funeral prayer over a deceased male or female are the closest relatives—namely: the father and his paternal forebears, the son and his sons, followed by the full brothers, then the paternal half-brothers, then their sons, then the paternal uncles and maternal uncles, then the paternal uncles alone, then their sons, then all mahram relatives—unless the deceased instructed a specific person to lead their prayer, in which case that person holds priority.

L9293 Then the spouse, then the ruler or judge. If someone other than those we mentioned leads the prayer, it suffices. The proof for this is the verse of Allah, the Most High: {And blood relatives are more entitled to one another in the decree of Allah} [Al-Anfal: 75]. This is a general principle that may not be restricted. The statement of Allah's Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him – "A man must not lead prayer among his family" – includes

L9294–9296 We have narrated it from Qatādah from Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib that he said concerning the funeral prayer for a woman: a father, or… Is a son or brother more entitled to the funeral prayer over her than the husband? Via the chain of Waki' from Sufyān al-Thawrī from Layth from Zayd ibn Abī Sulaymān: that 'Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb said regarding the funeral prayer over a woman when she dies: "The guardian [walī] instead of the husband?" From Shu'bah from al-Ḥakam ibn 'Utaybah regarding the funeral prayer over a woman when she dies: "The brother has greater right than the husband."

رُوِّينَاهُ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ: أَنَّهُ قَالَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى الْمَرْأَةِ: أَبٌ، أَوْ ابْنٌ، أَوْ أَخٌ: أَحَقُّ بِالصَّلَاةِ عَلَيْهَا مِنْ الزَّوْجِ؟ وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ لَيْثٍ عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ: أَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى الْمَرْأَةِ إذَا مَاتَتْ -: الْوَلِيُّ دُونَ الزَّوْجِ؟ وَعَنْ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ الْحَكَمِ بْنِ عُتَيْبَةَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى الْمَرْأَةِ إذَا مَاتَتْ: الْأَخُ أَحَقُّ مِنْ الزَّوْجِ.

L9297 From the narration of Waki' via al-Rabi' via al-Hasan: They would prioritize the prayer leaders (Imams) in leading their funeral prayers. If there is a dispute, the guardian takes precedence, followed by the husband.

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ الرَّبِيعِ عَنْ الْحَسَنِ: كَانُوا يُقَدِّمُونَ الْأَئِمَّةَ عَلَى جَنَائِزِهِمْ، فَإِنْ تَدَارَءُوا فَالْوَلِيُّ، ثُمَّ الزَّوْجُ.

L9298 If it is said: Al-Ḥusayn ibn ʿAlī—may Allāh be pleased with him—appointed Saʿīd ibn al-ʿĀṣ over his guardian and stated: "Were it not for this being the Sunnah, I would not have appointed you." And Abū Bakra said to his wife's brothers: "I have greater right than you." We responded: We did not claim consensus for you, yet you oppose us with this. However, when leaders disagree, it becomes obligatory to refer back to the Qurʾān and Sunnah. In the Qurʾān and Sunnah is what we have presented, for Allāh the Exalted has not permitted resolving disputes by referring to anything other than His speech and the ruling of His Prophet—peace and blessings of Allāh be upon him.

فَإِنْ قِيلَ: قَدْ قَدَّمَ الْحُسَيْنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ -: سَعِيدَ بْنَ الْعَاصِ عَلَى وَلِيِّ لَهُ وَقَالَ: لَوْلَا أَنَّهَا سُنَّةٌ مَا قَدَّمْتُك؟ وَقَالَ أَبُو بَكْرَةَ لِإِخْوَةِ زَوْجَتِهِ: أَنَا أَحَقُّ مِنْكُمْ قُلْنَا: لَمْ نَدَّعِ لَكُمْ إجْمَاعًا فَتُعَارِضُونَا بِهَذَا، وَلَكِنْ إذَا تَنَازَعَ الْأَئِمَّةُ وَجَبَ الرَّدُّ إلَى الْقُرْآنِ وَالسُّنَّةِ، وَفِي الْقُرْآنِ وَالسُّنَّةِ مَا أَوْرَدْنَا، وَلَمْ يُبِحْ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى الرَّدَّ فِي التَّنَازُعِ إلَى غَيْرِ كَلَامِهِ وَحُكْمِ نَبِيِّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.

L9299 Abu Hanifah, Malik, al-Shafi'i, and al-Awzaʿī—the latter in one of his two opinions—stated: The male guardians are more entitled to pray over her than the husband. However, Abu Hanifah said: If her child is the son of her present husband, then the husband (who is the child's father) is more entitled. This is baseless, as it constitutes an unsupported claim.

وَقَالَ أَبُو حَنِيفَةَ، وَمَالِكٌ، وَالشَّافِعِيُّ، وَالْأَوْزَاعِيُّ فِي أَحَدِ قَوْلَيْهِ: الْأَوْلِيَاءُ أَحَقُّ بِالصَّلَاةِ عَلَيْهَا مِنْ الزَّوْجِ، إلَّا أَنَّ أَبَا حَنِيفَةَ قَالَ: إنْ كَانَ وَلَدُهَا ابْنَ زَوْجِهَا الْحَاضِرُ فَالزَّوْجُ أَبُو الْوَلَدِ أَحَقُّ - وَهَذَا لَا مَعْنَى لَهُ، لِأَنَّهُ دَعْوَى بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ

٥٨٥ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَأَحَقُّ النَّاسِ بِإِنْزَالِ الْمَرْأَةِ فِي قَبْرِهَا مَنْ لَمْ يَطَأْ تِلْكَ اللَّيْلَةَ، وَإِنْ كَانَ أَجْنَبِيًّا، حَضَرَ زَوْجُهَا أَوْ أَوْلِيَاؤُهَا أَوْ لَمْ يَحْضُرُوا، وَأَحَقُّهُمْ بِإِنْزَالِ الرَّجُلِ أَوْلِيَاؤُهُ؟

L9300 Legal Issue: Who among the people is most entitled to lower a woman into her grave?

L9301 585 – Issue: The most deserving person to place a woman into her grave is one who has not engaged in sexual intercourse the preceding night, even if he is an unrelated male—regardless of whether her husband or guardians are present. As for a man, are his guardians the most deserving to place him [into the grave]?

L9302 As for the man, it is based on the statement of Allah, the Most High: "And blood relatives are more entitled to one another" [Al-Anfāl: 75]. This constitutes a general ruling, and it is impermissible to restrict it except through scriptural evidence.[23]

L9303–9305 As for the woman, ʻAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʻAbd Allāh ibn Khālid narrated to us: Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad narrated to us, al-Farabrī narrated to us, al-Bukhārī narrated to us, ʻAbd Allāh ibn Muḥammad—al-Musnadī—narrated to us, and Abū ʻĀmir—al-ʻAqadī—narrated to us. Fulayh ibn Sulayman narrated to us from Hilal ibn Ali from Anas ibn Malik, who said: "We attended a daughter of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) while the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was sitting by the grave. I saw his eyes shedding tears. He said: 'Is there among you a man who did not have sexual relations last night?' Abu Talhah said: 'I am.' He said: 'Then descend!' So he entered her grave."

L9306 Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad al-Ṭalamankī narrated to us: Ibn Mufarrij narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Ayyūb al-Ṣamūt narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn ʿAmr al-Bazzār narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Maʿmar narrated to us: Rawḥ ibn Aslam narrated to us from Ḥammād ibn Salamah from Thābit al-Bunānī from Anas that when Ruqayyah—may Allah be pleased with her—the daughter of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) died, he said: "No man who has engaged in sexual intercourse this night may enter the grave." So ʻUthmān did not enter.

L9307 Abu Muhammad said: Al-Muqārafah refers to sexual intercourse, not to the commission of sin.

L9308 Allah forbid that Abu Talhah would claim purity in the presence of the Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—by asserting that he did not commit any sin.

L9309 Thus, is it established that one who did not engage in intercourse that night has a stronger right than the father, the spouse, and others beyond them?

L9310 A legal question regarding a bequest stipulating that someone other than the guardian or the husband perform the prayer over the testator.

L9311 586 – Remainder of the prior issue that precedes this one: Abu Muhammad said: We supplemented the will by stipulating that someone other than the guardian or husband should perform the funeral prayer over the testator. This is because Allah the Exalted – having mentioned the dying person's will – states: "Whoever alters it after hearing it, the sin thereof is only upon those who alter it" [Al-Baqarah 2:181].[24]

L9312 It has been narrated to us through the chain of Wakiʿ from Sufyān al-Thawrī from Muḥārib ibn Dithār: that Umm Salamah, the Mother of the Believers—may Allah the Exalted be pleased with her—requested that Saʿīd ibn Zayd should lead her funeral prayer, even though he was neither a leader, a close relative from her mahram kin, nor a member of her tribe, and this occurred in the presence of the Companions—may Allah the Exalted be pleased with them. And via the same chain extending to Sufyān from Abū Isḥāq al-Sabīʿī: that Abū Maysarah requested that Shurayḥ should lead his funeral prayer, though he was not from his tribe.

L9313–9314 Narrated through Waki', from Misʿar ibn Kidam, from Abu Husayn, that ʿAbīdah al-Salmani instructed that al-Aswad ibn Yazid al-Nakhaʿi lead the funeral prayer for him.

L9315 An issue regarding kissing the deceased.

[24] Qur'an references (L9311): Qur'an 2:181 (Al-Baqarah).

وَرُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ وَكِيعٍ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ الثَّوْرِيِّ عَنْ مُحَارِبِ بْنِ دِثَارٍ: أَنَّ أُمَّ سَلَمَةَ أُمَّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى عَنْهَا - أَوْصَتْ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ عَلَيْهَا سَعِيدُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ وَهُوَ غَيْرُ أَمِيرٍ وَلَا وَلِيٍّ مِنْ ذَوِي مَحَارِمِهَا وَلَا مِنْ قَوْمِهَا، وَذَلِكَ بِحَضْرَةِ الصَّحَابَةِ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى عَنْهُمْ - وَبِهِ إلَى سُفْيَانَ عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ السَّبِيعِيِّ: أَنَّ أَبَا مَيْسَرَةَ أَوْصَى أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ شُرَيْحٌ وَلَيْسَ مِنْ قَوْمِهِ.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ تَقْبِيلُ الْمَيِّتِ]

L9316 587 - Issue: Kissing the deceased is permissible. Abd al-Rahman ibn Abd Allah ibn Khalid narrated to us: Ibrahim ibn Ahmad narrated to us: al-Farbari narrated to us: al-Bukhari narrated to us: From Bishr ibn Muhammad: I heard from Abd Allah ibn al-Mubarak, who informed me: Ma'mar and Yunus informed me from al-Zuhri: Abu Salama—the son of Abd al-Rahman ibn Awf—informed me that Aisha, the wife of the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—reported that Abu Bakr entered upon the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—while he was shrouded in a striped cloak—meaning, she meant, after his death. She said: He uncovered his face, then leaned over him, kissed him, wept, and said: "By my father and mother, O Messenger of Allah!" And Abu Salama related the hadith in full.

٥٨٧ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَتَقْبِيلُ الْمَيِّتِ جَائِزٌ -: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ خَالِدٍ ثنا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَحْمَدَ ثنا الْفَرَبْرِيُّ ثنا الْبُخَارِيُّ أَنَا بِشْرُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ أَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الْمُبَارَكِ أَخْبَرَنِي مَعْمَرٌ وَيُونُسُ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ أَخْبَرَنِي أَبُو سَلَمَةَ هُوَ ابْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ، - أَنَّ عَائِشَةَ زَوْجَ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَخْبَرَتْهُ " أَنَّ أَبَا بَكْرٍ دَخَلَ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَهُوَ مُسَجًّى بِبُرْدِ حِبَرَةٍ - تَعْنِي إذْ مَاتَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - قَالَتْ: فَكَشَفَ عَنْ وَجْهِهِ، ثُمَّ أَكَبَّ عَلَيْهِ فَقَبَّلَهُ، ثُمَّ بَكَى وَقَالَ: بِأَبِي أَنْتَ وَأُمِّي يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ". وَذَكَرَ الْحَدِيثَ.

The deceased should be shrouded in a shroud, and an object should be placed on his stomach to prevent swelling.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ يُسَجَّى الْمَيِّتُ بِثَوْبٍ وَيُجْعَلُ عَلَى بَطْنِهِ مَا يَمْنَعُ انْتِفَاخَهُ]

L9318 588: Issue: The deceased should be shrouded with a garment, and something should be placed on his abdomen to prevent swelling. As for the shrouding, this is done because of what we mentioned concerning the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), and all that was done regarding him (peace be upon him) is the rightful way, due to the saying of Allah, the Most High: "And Allah will protect you from the people" (Quran 5:67).[25]

٥٨٨ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَيُسَجَّى الْمَيِّتُ بِثَوْبٍ وَيُجْعَلُ عَلَى بَطْنِهِ مَا يَمْنَعُ انْتِفَاخَهُ -: أَمَّا التَّسْجِيَةُ - فَلِمَا ذَكَرْنَاهُ فِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَكُلُّ مَا فُعِلَ فِيهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَهُوَ حَقٌّ، لِقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: {وَاللَّهُ يَعْصِمُكَ مِنَ النَّاسِ} [المائدة: ٦٧]

L9319 This is a general principle, and it may not be particularized except through textual evidence.

وَهَذَا عُمُومٌ، لَا يَجُوزُ تَخْصِيصُهُ إلَّا بِنَصٍّ؟

L9320 As for our statement, "He is laid on his stomach," this is based on Allah's injunction: "Cooperate in righteousness and piety" [Al-Mā'idah: 2]. Does not every act that entails kindness toward a Muslim and averts mutilation of his body constitute righteousness and piety?[26]

وَأَمَّا قَوْلُنَا: يُوضَعُ عَلَى بَطْنِهِ فَلِقَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {وَتَعَاوَنُوا عَلَى الْبِرِّ وَالتَّقْوَى} [المائدة: ٢] وَكُلُّ مَا فِيهِ رِفْقٌ بِالْمُسْلِمِ وَدَفْعٌ لِلْمُثْلَةِ عَنْهُ، فَهُوَ بِرٌّ وَتَقْوَى؟

A jurisprudential issue regarding wailing, beating the face and chest, and plucking the hair or shaving it for the deceased.

[مَسْأَلَةُ الصِّيَاحِ وَضَرْبِ الْوَجْهِ وَالصَّدْرِ وَنَتْفِ الشَّعْرِ وَحَلْقُهُ لِلْمَيِّتِ]

[25] Qur'an references (L9318): Qur'an 5:67 (Al-Ma'idah).
[26] Qur'an references (L9320): Qur'an 5:2 (Al-Ma'idah).

L9322–9324 589 - Issue: Patience is obligatory, and weeping is permissible provided it does not involve wailing, for wailing is forbidden. Shouting, scratching faces, striking them, beating the chest, plucking hair, or shaving it in mourning for the deceased—all of that is forbidden; similarly disliked is reprehensible speech expressing discontent with the decrees of Allah Almighty, and tearing garments. Narrated by ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʿAbd Allāh → Ibrāhīm ibn Aḥmad → al-Farbarī → al-Bukhārī → Ādam → Shuʿbah → Thābit al-Bunānī → Anas ibn Mālik, who said: "The Prophet—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—passed by a woman weeping at a grave." He said, "Fear Allah and be patient."[27]

L9325 And with his chain to Al-Bukhari: Muḥammad ibn Bishār narrated to us: Ghundar narrated to us from Shuʿbah from Thābit al-Bunānī, who said: I heard Anas ibn Mālik report from the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) that he said: "Patience is only at the first shock."

L9326 And through him to al-Bukhari: Al-Hasan ibn Abdul Aziz narrated to us, Yahya ibn Hassan narrated to us, Quraysh—he is Ibn Hayyan—narrated to me from Thabit al-Bunani from Anas, who said: "We entered with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) to visit Ibrahim—he is the son of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him)—as he was breathing his last. Both eyes of the Messenger of Allah began to overflow with tears. Abdur Rahman ibn Awf said to him: 'And you, O Messenger of Allah?' He replied: 'O Ibn Awf, it is mercy. The eye sheds tears, the heart grieves, and we say nothing except what pleases our Lord. Are we not indeed saddened by your separation, O Ibrahim?'"

L9327 This refers to the permissibility of grief that no one can ward off, for {Allah does not burden any soul beyond its capacity} (Al-Baqarah 2:286). This ruling also permits weeping and prohibits speech that displeases Allah, the Exalted.[28] ill, so the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—visited him accompanied by ʻAbd al-Raḥmān ibn ʻAwf, Saʻd ibn Abī Waqqāṣ, and Ibn Masʻūd. When he entered and found him beneath his covering, the Prophet—peace and blessings be upon him—wept. When the people saw the Prophet's weeping—peace and blessings be upon him—they too wept. He then said: 'Behold!..." "Do you not hear? Indeed, Allah does not punish for the tears of the eye nor the grief of the heart, but He punishes by this [pointing to his tongue] or grants mercy. And verily, the deceased is punished for the weeping of his family over him."[31]

فَلَمَّا دَخَلَ عَلَيْهِ وَجَدَهُ فِي غَاشِيَتِهِ فَبَكَى النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَلَمَّا رَأَى الْقَوْمُ بُكَاءَ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بَكَوْا، فَقَالَ: أَلَا تَسْمَعُونَ؟ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُعَذِّبُ بِدَمْعِ الْعَيْنِ وَلَا بِحُزْنِ الْقَلْبِ، وَلَكِنْ يُعَذِّبُ بِهَذَا - وَأَشَارَ إِلَى لِسَانِهِ - أَوْ يَرْحَمُ، وَإِنَّ الْمَيِّتَ يُعَذَّبُ بِبُكَاءِ أَهْلِهِ عَلَيْهِ» .

L9335 Abu Muhammad said: This complete narration clarifies the meaning of what many people have misunderstood regarding his statement - upon him be peace - "Indeed the deceased is tormented by his family's weeping over him."

قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ هَذَا الْخَبَرُ بِتَمَامِهِ يُبَيِّنُ مَعْنَى مَا وَهَلَ فِيهِ كَثِيرٌ مِنْ النَّاسِ مِنْ قَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -: «إِنَّ الْمَيِّتَ يُعَذَّبُ بِبُكَاءِ أَهْلِهِ عَلَيْهِ» .

L9336 It is evident from this that the wailing for which the deceased is tormented is not the same as acts that do not incur punishment, such as tears of the eye and sorrow of the heart.

وَلَاحَ بِهَذَا أَنَّ هَذَا الْبُكَاءَ الَّذِي يُعَذَّبُ بِهِ الْمَيِّتُ لَيْسَ هُوَ الَّذِي لَا يُعَذَّبُ بِهِ مِنْ دَمْعِ الْعَيْنِ، وَحُزْنِ الْقَلْبِ.

L9337 Thus, it is confirmed that weeping is expressed through lamentation, as he is punished for his leadership in which he transgressed and thus incurred punishment, for his bravery—for which he is punished—since he used his bravery in opposition to the obedience of Allah the Exalted, and for his generosity whereby he acquired what he gave through unlawful means and spent it on illegitimate purposes. Thus, his family weeps for him over these prided virtues, while he is tormented by those very same traits. This is the clear meaning of the ḥadīth for those who impose interpretations on the apparent report that are not inherent to it. And with Allah the Exalted lies all success. It has been narrated to us from Ibn ʻAbbās that he condemned those who denounced weeping over the deceased, saying: "Did Allah not create laughter and tears?"

فَصَحَّ أَنَّهُ الْبُكَاءُ بِاللِّسَانِ، إذْ يُعَذِّبُونَهُ بِرِيَاسَتِهِ الَّتِي جَارَ فِيهَا فَعُذِّبَ عَلَيْهَا، وَشَجَاعَتِهِ الَّتِي يُعَذَّبُ عَلَيْهَا، إذْ صَرَفَهَا فِي غَيْرِ طَاعَةِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى، وَبِجُودِهِ الَّذِي أَخَذَ مَا جَادَ بِهِ مِنْ غَيْرِ حِلِّهِ، وَوَضَعَهُ فِي غَيْرِ حَقِّهِ فَأَهْلُهُ يَبْكُونَهُ بِهَذِهِ الْمَفَاخِرِ، وَهُوَ يُعَذَّبُ بِهَا بِعَيْنِهَا، وَهُوَ ظَاهِرُ الْحَدِيثِ لِمَنْ يَتَكَلَّفُ فِي ظَاهِرِ الْخَبَرِ مَا لَيْسَ فِيهِ - وَبِاَللَّهِ تَعَالَى التَّوْفِيقُ -: وَقَدْ رُوِّينَا عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: أَنَّهُ أَنْكَرَ عَلَى مَنْ أَنْكَرَ الْبُكَاءَ عَلَى الْمَيِّتِ، وَقَالَ: اللَّهُ أَضْحَكَ وَأَبْكَى؟

L9338 A juristic scenario: A pilgrim in the state of iḥrām died before sunrise on the Day of Sacrifice.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ مَاتَ الْمُحْرِمُ بَعْد الْإِحْرَام وَقَبْل طُلُوع شَمْس يَوْمِ النَّحْرِ]

[31] Hadith references (L9332): Sahih al-Bukhari 1304; Sahih Muslim 924; Riyad as-Salihin 1663.

L9339 590 – Issue: If a person in the state of iḥrām dies between entering iḥrām and sunrise on the Day of Sacrifice (Yawm al-Nahr) – if he was a Hajj pilgrim – or until completing his ṭawāf and saʿy – if he was an ʿUmrah pilgrim –, the obligation is to have the body washed with water and sidr leaves only, if sidr leaves are available.

٥٩٠ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَإِذَا مَاتَ الْمُحْرِمُ مَا بَيْنَ أَنْ يُحْرِمَ إِلَى أَنْ تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ مِنْ يَوْمِ النَّحْرِ إِنْ كَانَ حَاجًّا، أَوْ أَنْ يُتِمَّ طَوَافَهُ وَسَعْيَهُ، إِنْ كَانَ مُعْتَمِرًا -: فَإِنَّ الْفَرْضَ أَنْ يُغَسَّلَ بِمَاءٍ وَسِدْرٍ فَقَطْ - إِنْ وُجِدَ السِّدْرُ -.

L9340 Should he not have camphor or scented substances applied to him, nor should his face nor his head be covered? He should be shrouded only in his Ihram garments or in two garments other than his Ihram garments.

وَلَا يُمَسُّ بِكَافُورٍ وَلَا بِطِيبٍ، وَلَا يُغَطَّى وَجْهُهُ، وَلَا رَأْسُهُ؟ وَلَا يُكَفَّنُ إِلَّا فِي ثِيَابِ إِحْرَامِهِ فَقَطْ، أَوْ فِي ثَوْبَيْنِ غَيْرِ ثِيَابِ إِحْرَامِهِ.

L9341 And if it is a woman, the same applies, except her head is covered while her face remains uncovered. Even if a garment is draped over her from above her head, there is no harm provided she is not fully veiled. As for a male or female pilgrim in ihram who dies after sunrise on the Day of Sacrifice: are they to be treated like all other deceased individuals, whether they had stoned the jamarat or not?

وَإِنْ كَانَتْ امْرَأَةً فَكَذَلِكَ، إِلَّا أَنَّ رَأْسَهَا تُغَطَّى وَيُكْشَفُ وَجْهُهَا، وَلَوْ أُسْدِلَ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ فَوْقِ رَأْسِهَا فَلَا بَأْسَ مِنْ غَيْرِ أَنْ تُقَنَّعَ؟ فَمَنْ مَاتَ مِنْ مُحْرِمٍ، أَوْ مُحْرِمَةٍ بَعْدَ طُلُوعِ الشَّمْسِ مِنْ يَوْمِ النَّحْرِ فَكَسَائِرِ الْمَوْتَى، رَمَى الْجِمَارَ أَوْ لَمْ يَرْمِهَا؟

L9342–9344 Abū Ḥanīfah and Mālik said: They are like the rest of the deceased in all of that. The evidence for our statement is what we have narrated through the chain of Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb: Muhammad ibn Bashshar narrated to us, Muhammad ibn Ja'far narrated to us, Shu'bah narrated to us, saying: I heard Abu Bishr (who is Ja'far ibn Abi Wahshiyyah) narrate from Sa'id ibn Jubayr, from Ibn Abbas: "A man fell from his mount and his skull was fractured. Another narration through the chain of Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb: Abdah ibn Abdullah al-Basri narrated to us, Abu Dawud (al-Hafri) narrated to us, from Sufyan (al-Thawri), from Amr ibn Dinar, from Sa'id ibn Jubayr, from Ibn Abbas: "A man died, and the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—said: 'Wash him with water and sidr (lote-tree leaves), shroud him in his own garments, and do not cover his face or head, for he will be resurrected on the Day of Judgment reciting the talbiyah (pilgrimage chant).'"

The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: ‘Wash him with water and lote-tree leaves, shroud him in two garments, do not embalm him, and do not cover his head, for he will be resurrected on the Day of Judgment reciting the talbiyah.’”[32]

L9349 This is such that no one is permitted to oppose it, for it is as the sun in authenticity. It was narrated by Shu‘bah, Sufyān, Abū ‘Awānah, Manṣūr, and Ḥammād ibn Zayd. It was also narrated prior to them by Abū Bishr, ‘Amr ibn Dīnār, al-Ḥakam, Ayyūb, and all the imams of the Muslims—from Sa‘īd ibn Jubayr, from Ibn ‘Abbās: that he witnessed the incident during the Farewell Pilgrimage in the final days of the Messenger of Allah’s life (peace ، وَأَمَرَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - بِذَلِكَ فِي مُحْرِمٍ سُئِلَ عَنْهُ، وَالْمُحْرِمُ يَعُمُّ الرَّجُلَ وَالْمَرْأَةَ، وَالْبَعْثُ وَالتَّلْبِيَةُ يَجْمَعُهُمَا، وَبِهِمَا جَاءَ الْأَثَرُ، وَالسَّبَبُ الْمَنْصُوصُ عَلَيْهِ فِي الْحُكْمِ.

L9350 And he (peace be upon him) commanded this regarding a Muhrim about whom a question was posed, as the term Muhrim encompasses both men and women. The Talbiyah and the ritual departure apply to both, as narrated in the tradition with these two acts, and the cause textually specified in the ruling.

فَإِنْ قِيلَ: إِنَّكُمْ تُجِيزُونَ لِلْمُحْرِمِ الْحَيِّ أَنْ يُغَطِّيَ وَجْهَهُ، وَتَمْنَعُونَ ذَلِكَ الْمَيِّتَ؟ قُلْنَا: نَعَمْ، لِلنُّصُوصِ الْوَارِدَةِ فِي ذَلِكَ، وَلَا يَحِلُّ الِاعْتِرَاضُ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَلَمْ يَأْمُرْ الْمُحْرِمَ الْحَيَّ بِكَشْفِ وَجْهِهِ، وَأَمَرَ بِذَلِكَ فِي الْمَيِّتِ، فَوَقَفْنَا عِنْدَ أَمْرِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -، {وَمَا يَنْطِقُ عَنِ الْهَوَى} [النجم: ٣] {إِنْ هُوَ إِلا وَحْيٌ يُوحَى} [النجم: ٤]

L9351 If it is said: "You permit the pilgrim in iḥrām to cover his face, yet prohibit this for the deceased?" We respond: Yes, due to the transmitted texts regarding that matter. One may not object to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), for he did not command the living pilgrim to uncover his face, yet he commanded it for the deceased. Thus we restrict ourselves to his directive (peace be upon him), as stated: {Nor does he speak from desire. It is but a revelation revealed} [53:3-4].[35]

وَمَا نَدْرِي مِنْ أَيْنَ وَقَعَ لَهُمْ أَنْ لَا يُفَرِّقَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى بَيْنَ حُكْمِ الْمُحْرِمِ الْحَيِّ وَالْمُحْرِمِ الْمَيِّتِ؟ أَمْ فِي أَيِّ سُنَّةٍ وَجَدُوا ذَلِكَ أَمْ فِي أَيِّ دَلِيلِ عَقْلٍ؟

L9352 And we do not know from where it occurred to them that Allah the Exalted does not differentiate between the rulings for a living muḥrim and a deceased muḥrim. Or in which Sunnah did they find that, or in which rational evidence?

ثُمَّ هُمْ أَوَّلُ قَائِلِينَ بِهَذَا نَفْسِهِ، فَيُفَرِّقُونَ بَيْنَ حُكْمِ الْمُحْرِمِ الْحَيِّ وَالْمُحْرِمِ الْمَيِّتِ بِآرَائِهِمْ الْفَاسِدَةِ، وَيُنْكِرُونَ ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ تَعَالَى وَعَلَى رَسُولِهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.

L9353 Then, they are the first to assert this very claim themselves, so they differentiate between the legal ruling for a living Muḥrim (one in ritual consecration) and a deceased Muḥrim based on their corrupt opinions, denying this to Allah the Exalted and His Messenger (may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him).

وَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ هَذَا: خُصُوصٌ لِذَلِكَ الْمُحْرِمِ. فَقُلْنَا: هَذَا الْكَذِبُ مِنْكُمْ؛ لِأَنَّ النَّبِيَّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - إنَّمَا أَفْتَى بِذَلِكَ فِي الْمُحْرِمِ يَمُوتُ إذْ سُئِلَ عَنْهُ، كَمَا أَفْتَى فِي الْمُسْتَحَاضَةِ، وَكَمَا أَفْتَى أُمَّ سَلَمَةَ فِي أَنْ لَا تَحِلَّ ضَفْرَ رَأْسِهَا فِي غُسْلِ الْجَنَابَةِ وَسَائِرِ مَا اُسْتُفْتِيَ فِيهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ -؟ فَأَفْتَى فِيهِ فَكَانَ عُمُومًا؟ .

L9354–9356 Some of them said this, "These are specific rulings for that muḥrim." We responded, "This is a lie from you, because the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) only issued a fatwa concerning the muḥrim who dies when [text cut off]." He was asked about it, as he issued a ruling concerning the mustahādah, and as he issued for Umm Salamah that she should not undo the braid of her head during the ritual bath for major impurity, and all other matters he was consulted about—peace be upon him—he issued a ruling on it, and it became a general ruling?

L9357 Among the wonders of this world is their approach to his statement—peace be upon him—"He will be resurrected with matted hair," and "[uttering the pilgrimage invocation (talbiyah)]" and "[proclaiming God's greatness (takbīr)]"—yet they did not apply these rulings universally, limiting them to a specific person. They extended his rulings—peace be upon him—concerning wheat, barley, dates, salt, gold, and silver to matters he never legislated, becoming fixated on contradicting the explicitly stated commands. Yet some of them asserted: "It is authentically reported from 'Ā'ishah, Mother of the Believers, and Ibn 'Umar: embalming [with camphor] a deceased person in the state of iḥrām, perfuming him, and covering his head?"

L9358 We said: Authentic reports from Uthman and others contradict this—as we have transmitted through Abd al-Razzaq's chain from Ma'mar via al-Zuhri, who said: Abdullah ibn al-Walid set out for Umrah with Uthman ibn Affan and died at al-Suqya while in ihram. Uthman did not cover his head nor apply perfume to him, and the people adopted this practice. Through Abd al-Razzaq's chain: my father narrated: Ubayd ibn Yazid died at al-Muzdalifah while in ihram, and al-Mughira ibn Hakim did not cover his head within the bier. Through Hammad ibn Salamah's chain from al-Hajjaj ibn Artah via Abu Ishaq al-Sabi'i via al-Harith via Ali ibn Abi Talib, who said regarding the one in ihram: "His head is washed with water and sidr, his head is not covered, and he is not touched with perfume?" This is the view of al-Shafi'i, Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Abu Sulayman, and others. How remarkable that al-Zuhri states "the people adopted this practice" while they claim consensus on lesser matters, such as their assertion regarding the legal punishment for wine consumption being eighty lashes, and other cases. If it is said: "Ibn Umar later opposed Uthman in this, thus invalidating the claim of consensus?"

L9359 We said: Indeed, Uthmān, ʿAlī, al-Ḥasan, and ʿAbdullāh ibn Jaʿfar differed regarding the punishment for wine after ʿUmar, so it became invalid for it to be a consensus. When the Salaf disagree, is the obligation not upon us to return what they disputed to the Quran and Sunnah, rather than to the opinion of anyone apart from these two?

قُلْنَا: وَقَدْ خَالَفَ: عُثْمَانُ، وَعَلِيٌّ، وَالْحَسَنُ، وَعَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ: فِي حَدِّ الْخَمْرِ بَعْدَ عُمَرَ، فَبَطَلَ أَنْ يَكُونَ إجْمَاعًا؟ وَإِذَا تَنَازَعَ السَّلَفُ فَالْفَرْضُ عَلَيْنَا رَدُّ مَا تَنَازَعُوا فِيهِ إلَى الْقُرْآنِ وَالسُّنَّةِ لَا إلَى قَوْلِ أَحَدٍ دُونَهُمَا؟

L9360–9361 Among the peculiarities of worldly life is their argument in this matter by citing what we have narrated via the chain of ʿAbd al-Razzāq from Ibn Jurayj from ʿAṭāʾ: that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said, "Cover their faces, and do not resemble the Jews."

وَمِنْ طَرَائِفِ الدُّنْيَا احْتِجَاجُهُمْ فِي هَذَا بِمَا رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ عَبْدِ الرَّزَّاقِ عَنْ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ «خَمِّرُوا وُجُوهَهُمْ، وَلَا تَشَبَّهُوا بِالْيَهُودِ» .

L9362 This is invalid for several reasons: First—it is mursal (a hadith with an incomplete chain), and is there any proof in a mursal? Second—even if authentic, it contains no explicit text or evidence indicating it pertains to the muhrim (one in ihram) at all; rather, would it not have applied to all deceased individuals? Third—it is fundamentally impermissible to attribute such a statement to him (peace be upon him), for he (peace be upon him) only speaks the truth, whereas the Jews do not uncover the faces of their deceased.

وَهَذَا بَاطِلٌ لِوُجُوهٍ -: أَوَّلُهَا - أَنَّهُ مُرْسَلٌ، وَلَا حُجَّةَ فِي مُرْسَلٍ؟ وَالثَّانِي - أَنَّهُ لَيْسَ فِيهِ نَصٌّ وَلَا دَلِيلٌ - لَوْ صَحَّ - عَلَى أَنَّهُ فِي الْمُحْرِمِ أَصْلًا، بَلْ كَانَ يَكُونُ فِي سَائِرِ الْمَوْتَى؟ وَثَالِثُهَا - أَنَّهُ لَا يَجُوزُ أَنْ يَقُولَهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - أَصْلًا؛ لِأَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - لَا يَقُولُ إلَّا الْحَقَّ، وَالْيَهُودُ لَا تَكْشِفُ وُجُوهَ مَوْتَاهَا.

L9363 Thus, it was established that it is invalid. 'Aṭā' heard it from someone of no merit or from someone who erred. Fourthly: Even if it were authentically transmitted regarding those in iḥrām, it would contain no valid proof, for Ibn 'Abbās's report is undoubtedly the other [authoritative one]. It is inconceivable that the Prophet—peace be upon him—would describe a practice he commanded as resembling Jewish customs. It is plausible that he first prohibited emulating Jews before receiving Revelation, then later commanded a similar act—not as imitation of them—just as he—peace be upon him—spoke about the Jewish woman's statement regarding grave punishment, then the Revelation came to him confirming the validity of grave punishment.

فَصَحَّ أَنَّهُ بَاطِلٌ، سَمِعَهُ عَطَاءٌ مِمَّنْ لَا خَيْرَ فِيهِ أَوْ مِمَّنْ وَهَمَ وَالرَّابِعُ -: أَنَّهُ لَوْ صَحَّ مُسْنَدًا فِي الْمُحْرِمِينَ لَمَا كَانَتْ فِيهِ حُجَّةٌ؛ لِأَنَّ خَبَرَ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ هُوَ الْآخَرُ بِلَا شَكٍّ، وَمِنْ الْمُحَالِ أَنْ يَقُولَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - فِي أَمْرٍ أَمَرَ بِهِ أَنَّهُ تَشَبُّهٌ بِالْيَهُودِ، وَجَائِزٌ أَنْ يَنْهَى عَنْ التَّشَبُّهِ بِالْيَهُودِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ الْوَحْيُ، ثُمَّ يَأْمُرَ بِمِثْلِ ذَلِكَ الْفِعْلِ، لَا تَشَبُّهًا بِهِمْ كَمَا قَالَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - فِي قَوْلِ الْيَهُودِيَّةِ فِي عَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ، ثُمَّ أَتَاهُ الْوَحْيُ بِصِحَّةِ عَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ

L9364 Some of them cited as evidence in this matter the authentic hadith: "When the deceased dies, their deeds cease except for three: ongoing charity, knowledge they taught, and a righteous child who prays for them."

وَاحْتَجَّ بَعْضُهُمْ فِي هَذَا بِالْخَبَرِ الثَّابِتِ «إذَا مَاتَ الْمَيِّتُ انْقَطَعَ عَمَلُهُ إلَّا مِنْ ثَلَاثٍ: صَدَقَةٌ جَارِيَةٌ، وَعِلْمٌ عَلَّمَهُ، وَوَلَدٌ صَالِحٌ يَدْعُو لَهُ» .

L9365–9367 In this, there is absolutely no evidence for them whatsoever, because it merely contains that his actions have ceased—and thus we say—but it does not indicate that the actions of others related to him cease. Rather, others are commanded to perform obligatory acts concerning him: ritual washing, funeral prayer (ṣalāt al-janāzah), burial, and other such duties. This action is not the deed of the deceased muḥrim; it is the action of the living. Thus, their confusion and distortion become evident. Some of them have cited as evidence the words of Allah, the Exalted: And that there is not for man except what he strives for (Quran 53:39).[36]

وَهَذَا لَا حُجَّةَ لَهُمْ فِيهِ أَصْلًا؛ لِأَنَّهُ إِنَّمَا فِيهِ أَنَّهُ انْقَطَعَ عَمَلُهُ، وَهَكَذَا نَقُولُ، وَلَيْسَ فِيهِ أَنَّهُ يَنْقَطِعُ عَمَلُ غَيْرِهِ فِيهِ، بَلْ غَيْرُهُ مَأْمُورٌ فِيهِ بِأَعْمَالٍ مُفْتَرَضَةٍ، مِنْ غُسْلٍ، وَصَلَاةٍ، وَدَفْنٍ، وَغَيْرِ ذَلِكَ، وَهَذَا الْعَمَلُ لَيْسَ هُوَ عَمَلَ الْمُحْرِمِ الْمَيِّتِ، إِنَّمَا هُوَ عَمَلُ الْأَحْيَاءِ - فَظَهَرَ تَخْلِيطُهُمْ وَتَمْوِيهُهُمْ وَاحْتَجَّ بَعْضُهُمْ بِقَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى: {وَأَنْ لَيْسَ لِلإِنْسَانِ إِلا مَا سَعَى} [النجم: ٣٩]

L9368 This is their attribution of words away from their proper contexts, and we have never stated that this stems from the deceased's own striving. Rather, it is the striving of the living which is commanded regarding the deceased, just as we are commanded not to wash the martyr, nor shroud him, and to bury him in his garments. This is neither the martyr's action nor his striving, but rather our action regarding him and our striving for ourselves - that which we have been commanded to undertake concerning him. Is there any difference?

وَهَذِهِ إِحَالَةٌ مِنْهُمْ لِلْكَلِمِ عَنْ مَوَاضِعِهِ، وَلَمْ نَقُلْ قَطُّ: إِنَّ هَذَا مِنْ سَعْيِ الْمَيِّتِ، وَلَكِنَّهُ مِنْ سَعْيِ الْأَحْيَاءِ الْمَأْمُورِ بِهِ فِي الْمَيِّتِ كَمَا أُمِرْنَا بِأَنْ لَا نُغَسِّلَ الشَّهِيدَ وَلَا نُكَفِّنَهُ، وَأَنْ نَدْفِنَهُ فِي ثِيَابِهِ، وَلَيْسَ هُوَ عَمَلَ الشَّهِيدِ وَلَا سَعْيُهُ، لَكِنَّهُ عَمَلُنَا فِيهِ وَسَعْيُنَا لِأَنْفُسِنَا الَّذِي أُمِرْنَا بِهِ فِيهِ وَلَا فَرْقَ؟

L9369 The statement: "They arbitrarily impose corrupt opinions, leaving nothing remaining except if they hover around using all this to object to the Prophet's saying (peace be upon him): 'He will be resurrected مُلَبِّدًا'—meaning proclaiming the talbiyah and entering the state of ihram. Is this apostasy?"

وَالْقَوْلُ مُتَحَكِّمُونَ بِالْآرَاءِ الْفَاسِدَةِ وَلَا مَزِيدَ إِلَّا إِنْ كَانُوا يَحُومُونَ حَوْلَ أَنْ يَعْتَرِضُوا بِهَذَا كُلِّهِ عَلَى قَوْلِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «فَإِنَّهُ يُبْعَثُ مُلَبِّدًا» يُلَبِّي " " وَيُهِلُّ " فَهَذَا رِدَّةٌ؟

L9370 There is no distinction between his statement—peace be upon him—"Verily, the muḥrim will be raised on the Day of Judgment reciting the talbiyah and tahleel—with matted hair," and his statement—peace be upon him—"Verily, whoever is wounded in Allah's cause will come on the Day of Judgment gushing blood—its color is the color of blood, and its fragrance is the fragrance of musk."

وَلَا فَرْقَ بَيْنَ قَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - «إِنَّ الْمُحْرِمَ يُبْعَثُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ يُلَبِّي وَيُهِلُّ وَمُلَبِّدًا» وَبَيْنَ قَوْلِهِ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - «إِنَّ مَنْ يُكْلَمُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ يَأْتِي يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ يَثْعَبُ دَمًا، اللَّوْنُ لَوْنُ الدَّمِ، وَالرِّيحُ رِيحُ الْمِسْكِ» .

L9371 All these are merits that are neither abrogated nor invalidated. Yet these people, who claim to be advocates of juristic analogy (qiyās), why do they not argue: "Someone killed in Allah's cause and someone who dies in iḥrām—

وَكُلُّ هَذِهِ فَضَائِلُ لَا تُنْسَخُ وَلَا تُرَدُّ، وَالْقَوْمُ أَصْحَابُ قِيَاسٍ بِزَعْمِهِمْ، فَهَلَّا قَالُوا: الْمَقْتُولُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ، وَالْمَيِّتُ مُحْرِمًا: كِلَاهُمَا مَاتَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى، وَحُكْمُ أَحَدِهِمَا خِلَافُ حُكْمِ الْمَوْتَى، فَكَذَلِكَ الْآخَرُ؟

both died in the path of Allah Almighty. The ruling for one of them differs from those applicable to ordinary deceased persons; should the same not apply to the other?"

L9372 But they neither follow the revealed texts nor are they proficient in legal analogy. There is no doubt that the juristic similarity between jihad, and Hajj is closer than that between theft, and marriage.

L9373 A legal ruling: Standing up for the funeral when one sees it.

L9374 Issue 591: It is recommended to stand for the funeral procession when one sees it - even if it is a disbeliever's funeral - until it is placed down or passes by. If one does not stand, there is no sin.

L9375 From what has been narrated to us through al-Bukhārī's chain: Qutaybah narrated to us, al-Layth - that is, Ibn Saʿd - narrated to us, from Nāfiʿ, from Ibn ʿUmar, from ʿĀmir ibn Rabīʿah, from the Prophet - peace and blessings be upon him - who said: "When one of you sees a funeral procession, if he is not walking with it, let him stand until it has passed him by, or until he remains behind it, or until it is set down before passing him."

L9376–9377 It has also been narrated through the chains of Ayyūb, Ibn Jurayj, ʿUbayd Allāh ibn ʿUmar, and ʿAbd Allāh ibn ʿAwn—all of them transmitting from Nāfiʿ, from Ibn ʿUmar, as a musnad narration. And through the chain of al-Zuhrī: from Sālim, from his father, as a musnad.

L9378 From the chain of al-Bukhārī: Muslim ibn Ibrāhīm narrated to us; Hishām al-Dastawā'ī narrated to us; Yaḥyā ibn Abī Kathīr narrated to us from Abū Salama ibn ʿAbd al-Raḥmān from Abū Saʿīd al-Khudrī from the Prophet—peace be upon him—who said: "When you see the funeral procession, stand up. Whoever follows it must not sit until it is placed."[37]

L9381 From the transmission of Muslim: Muḥammad ibn Rumḥ ibn al-Muhājir narrated to us; al-Layth (Ibn Saʿd) narrated to us from Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd (al-Anṣārī) from Wāqid ibn ʿAmr ibn Saʿd ibn Muʿādh, that Nāfiʿ ibn Jubayr ibn Muṭʿim informed him that Masʿūd ibn al-Ḥakam related to him from ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib, who said: “Allāh’s Messenger (ṣallallāhu ʿalayhi wa-sallam) stood up, then sat down” - referring to [his posture] for the funeral. The Prophet’s sitting (ṣallallāhu ʿalayhi wa-sallam) after instructing others to stand demonstrates this was a recommended injunction rather than an obligation. It cannot be validly claimed this constitutes abrogation, for one may not abandon a firmly established sunnah except through definitive proof of abrogation. Abrogation only occurs either through explicit prohibition or abandonment coupled with prohibition.

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ مُسْلِمٍ نا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ رُمْحِ بْنِ الْمُهَاجِرِ نا اللَّيْثُ هُوَ ابْنُ سَعْدٍ - عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيدٍ هُوَ الْأَنْصَارِيُّ - عَنْ وَاقِدِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ سَعْدِ بْنِ مُعَاذٍ أَنَّ نَافِعَ بْنَ جُبَيْرِ بْنِ مُطْعِمٍ أَخْبَرَهُ أَنَّ مَسْعُودَ بْنَ الْحَكَمِ حَدَّثَهُ عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: «قَامَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - ثُمَّ قَعَدَ يَعْنِي لِلْجِنَازَةِ» فَكَانَ قُعُودُهُ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بَعْدَ أَمْرِهِ بِالْقِيَامِ مُبَيِّنًا أَنَّهُ أَمْرُ نَدْبٍ، وَلَيْسَ يَجُوزُ أَنْ يَكُونَ هَذَا نَسْخًا، لِأَنَّهُ لَا يَجُوزُ تَرْكُ سُنَّةٍ مُتَيَقَّنَةٍ إِلَّا بِيَقِينِ نَسْخٍ، وَالنَّسْخُ لَا يَكُونُ إِلَّا بِالنَّهْيِ، أَوْ بِتَرْكٍ مَعَهُ نَهْيٌ؟

L9382–9383 If it is said: You have narrated through the chain of Ḥammād ibn Salama from Muḥammad ibn ʿAmr from Wāqid ibn ʿAmr ibn Saʿd ibn Muʿādh, who said: “I stood next to Nāfiʿ ibn Jubayr at a funeral, and he said to me: Masʿūd ibn al-Ḥakam narrated to me from ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib, who said: ’The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) commanded us to stand, then commanded us to sit.’” Why, then, did you not definitively conclude abrogation based on this narration?

فَإِنْ قِيلَ: قَدْ رَوَيْتُمْ مِنْ طَرِيقِ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو عَنْ وَاقِدِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ سَعْدِ بْنِ مُعَاذٍ قَالَ: قُمْت إِلَى جَنْبِ نَافِعِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ فِي جِنَازَةٍ، فَقَالَ لِي: حَدَّثَنِي مَسْعُودُ بْنُ الْحَكَمِ عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ قَالَ «أَمَرَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِالْقِيَامِ. ثُمَّ أَمَرَنَا بِالْجُلُوسِ» فَهَلَّا قَطَعْتُمْ بِالنَّسْخِ بِهَذَا الْخَبَرِ؟

L9384 We said, “We used to do that, had it not been for what was narrated to us through the chain of Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb—Yūsuf ibn Saʿīd reported to us—Ḥajjāj ibn Muḥammad, the one-eyed, narrated from Ibn Jurayj, from Ibn ʿAjlān, from Saʿīd al-Maqburī, from Abū Hurayrah and Abū Saʿīd al-Khudrī, both of whom said: 'We never saw the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—attend a funeral and sit until the deceased was placed in the grave.'"[38]

L9385 This was his consistent practice — peace be upon him — and Abū Hurayrah and Abū Saʿīd never left him — peace be upon him — until his passing. Thus, it was confirmed that his instruction to sit denotes permissibility and leniency, while his exhortation to stand and his act of standing are recommended.

L9386 Among those who would sit were Ibn Abbas, Abu Hurayrah, and Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib.

L9387 ## Issue: Hastening the Funeral

L9388 592 – Issue: It is obligatory to hasten the funeral procession, and it is recommended that those who have prayed over it do not depart until the deceased is buried. If one leaves before burial, there is no sin, and what is the point of awaiting the permission of the funeral's guardian?

L9389–9391 As for the obligation of hastening, it is due to what we have reported through the chain of Muslim: Abu al-Tahir narrated to us, Ibn Wahb narrated to us: Yunus ibn Zayd informed me from Ibn Shihab, who narrated to me: Abu Umamah ibn Sahl ibn Hunayf narrated from Abu Hurayrah, who said: I heard the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—say: "Hasten with the funeral procession, for if the deceased was righteous, you bring it closer to goodness, and if not, it is an evil you cast off from your necks." This was the established practice of the Companions, as we have reported through the chain of Ahmad ibn Shu'ayb: Ali ibn Hajar narrated to us from Isma'il ibn 'Ulayyah and Hushaym, both of whom narrated from 'Uyaynah ibn 'Abd al-Rahman from Abu Bakrah, who said: "Verily, I have..." I observed that we, while with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), almost began to walk briskly alongside the funeral procession.[39]

L9392 And through the chain of Muslim: Muḥammad ibn Bashshār narrated to us, Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Qaṭṭān narrated to us, Shuʿbah narrated to us from Qatādah, who narrated from Sālim ibn Abī al-Jaʿd, who narrated from Maʿdān ibn Abī Ṭalḥah al-Yaʿmurī, who narrated from Thawbān, the freed slave of the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—that the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—said: "Whoever prays over a funeral will have a qīrāṭ, and if he witnesses its burial, he will have two qīrāṭs. The qīrāṭ is like Mount Uḥud."[40] وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ مُسْلِمٍ نا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ نا يَحْيَى بْنُ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانُ نا شُعْبَةُ حَدَّثَنَا قَتَادَةُ عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ أَبِي الْجَعْدِ عَنْ مَعْدَانَ بْنِ أَبِي طَلْحَةَ الْيَعْمُرِيِّ عَنْ ثَوْبَانَ مَوْلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ: «مَنْ صَلَّى عَلَى جِنَازَةٍ فَلَهُ قِيرَاطٌ، فَإِنْ شَهِدَ دَفْنَهَا فَلَهُ قِيرَاطَانِ - الْقِيرَاطُ مِثْلُ أُحُدٍ» .

L9393 We have also transmitted it through the chain of Ibn Mughaffal and Abū Hurayrah as a sound, musnad report. Abū Muḥammad said: Hastening with it is obligatory, while the latter is recommended. The Prophet's (peace be upon him) permission for one who prays over the deceased to abstain from attending the burial—while being granted a _qirat_ of reward equivalent to Mount Uḥud—provides explicit clarification that the guardian's permission is meaningless. Have we not transmitted through the chain of ʿAbd al-Razzāq, from Maʿmar, from Abū Isḥāq al-Sabīʿī, that Ibn Masʿūd said: "When you pray over the deceased, you have fulfilled your duty. Leave them and their people," and that he would depart without seeking their permission? Through the same chain to Maʿmar, from Hishām ibn ʿUrwah, from his father, from Zayd ibn Thābit: He would depart without awaiting their permission—referring to the funeral. And by this is the position Maʿmar adopts.

L9396 ## The Issue of the Imam's Position in the Funeral Prayer

[مَسْأَلَةٌ مَوْقِفُ الْإِمَامِ فِي صَلَاةِ الْجَنَازَةِ]

L9397–9399 593 - Issue: The Imam stands—when praying over the deceased—opposite the head of a man and opposite the middle of a woman. Malik said: He stands opposite the middle of a man, and Abu Hanifah: at the shoulder of a woman. It is also narrated from Abu Hanifah: He stands opposite the chest of both. The evidence for the validity of our opinion is what we narrated through the chain of Abu Dawud: Narrated by Dawud ibn Mu'adh, narrated by Abd al-Warith. Narrated Abu Ghalib Nafi': "I attended the funeral of Abdullah ibn Umayr, and Anas ibn Malik led the prayer over him while I stood behind him. He positioned himself at the head of the deceased and said four Takbirs. Then they said, 'O Abu Hamzah, the Ansari woman is here,' so they brought her forward on a green bier. He stood at the level of her hips and prayed over her in the same way he prayed over the man. Al-Ala' ibn Ziyad asked him, 'O Abu Hamzah, did the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings be upon him—pray the funeral prayer as you did, saying four Takbirs, standing at the head of the man and the hips of the woman?' He replied, 'Yes.'"

٥٩٣ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَيَقِفُ الْإِمَامُ - إذَا صَلَّى عَلَى الْجَنَازَةِ - قُبَالَةَ رَأْسِهِ وَمِنْ الْمَرْأَةِ قُبَالَةَ وَسَطِهَا -: قَالَ مَالِكٌ، وَأَبُو حَنِيفَةَ يَقِفُ مِنْ الرَّجُلِ قُبَالَةَ وَسَطِهِ، وَمِنْ الْمَرْأَةِ عِنْدَ مَنْكِبَيْهَا. وَرُوِيَ عَنْ أَبِي حَنِيفَةَ أَيْضًا: يَقِفُ قُبَالَةَ الصَّدْرِ مِنْ كِلَيْهِمَا؟ بُرْهَانُ صِحَّةِ قَوْلِنَا

مَا رُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ أَبِي دَاوُد: نا دَاوُد بْنُ مُعَاذٍ نا عَبْدُ الْوَارِثِ عَنْ أَبِي غَالِبٍ نَافِعٍ قَالَ «شَهِدْت جِنَازَةَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَيْرٍ، فَصَلَّى عَلَيْهَا أَنَسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ وَأَنَا خَلْفَهُ، فَقَامَ عِنْدَ رَأْسِهِ فَكَبَّرَ أَرْبَعَ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ، ثُمَّ قَالُوا: يَا أَبَا حَمْزَةَ، الْمَرْأَةُ الْأَنْصَارِيَّةُ فَقَرَّبُوهَا وَعَلَيْهَا نَعْشٌ أَخْضَرُ، فَقَامَ عَلَيْهَا عِنْدَ عَجِيزَتِهَا، فَصَلَّى عَلَيْهَا نَحْوَ صَلَاتِهِ عَلَى الرَّجُلِ فَقَالَ لَهُ الْعَلَاءُ بْنُ زِيَادٍ: يَا أَبَا حَمْزَةَ، هَكَذَا كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يُصَلِّي عَلَى الْجِنَازَةِ كَصَلَاتِكَ، يُكَبِّرُ عَلَيْهَا أَرْبَعًا، وَيَقُومُ عِنْدَ رَأْسِ الرَّجُلِ وَعَجِيزَةِ الْمَرْأَةِ؟ قَالَ: نَعَمْ»

L9400 We have narrated it through the chain of Al-Hajjaj ibn Minhal, from Hammam ibn Yahya, from Nafi' Abu Ghalib, who mentioned this hadith of Anas. At its end: Al-'Ala' ibn Ziyad turned to the people and said, "Preserve this." Abu Muhammad said: This is an issue in which the Hanafis and Malikis have contradicted their own principles, for they censure others for opposing a Companion who has no known opponent among the Companions, yet here is a Companion with no known opponent among the Companions, and they have opposed him. Our opinion here is that of Al-Shafi'i, Ahmad, Abu Sulayman, and to this Abu Yusuf reverted. We know of no valid argument for those who say, "He should stand in the middle of both," except their claim that they analogized this to the Imam standing opposite the middle of the row behind him. This is the most absurd analogy in the world, for the deceased is not a follower of the Imam in prayer to stand at his middle. The argument of those who say, "He should stand at the chest," is that they claimed: This was before the use of biers, to conceal the woman from the people. This is invalid—a false claim without proof—and it is an exceedingly grave matter. We seek refuge in Allah from it.

وَرُوِّينَاهُ مِنْ طَرِيقِ الْحَجَّاجِ بْنِ الْمِنْهَالِ نا هَمَّامُ بْنُ يَحْيَى عَنْ نَافِعٍ أَبِي غَالِبٍ فَذَكَرَ حَدِيثَ أَنَسٍ هَذَا، وَفِي آخِرِهِ: فَأَقْبَلَ الْعَلَاءُ بْنُ زِيَادٍ عَلَى النَّاسِ فَقَالَ: احْفَظُوا؟ قَالَ أَبُو مُحَمَّدٍ: هَذَا مَكَانٌ خَالَفَ فِيهِ الْحَنَفِيُّونَ، وَالْمَالِكِيُّونَ أُصُولَهُمْ؛ لِأَنَّهُمْ يُشَنِّعُونَ بِخِلَافِ الصَّاحِبِ الَّذِي لَا يُعْرَفُ لَهُ مُخَالِفٌ، وَهَذَا صَاحِبٌ لَا يُعْرَفُ لَهُ مِنْ الصَّحَابَةِ مُخَالِفٌ، وَقَدْ خَالَفُوهُ؟ وَقَوْلُنَا هَذَا هُوَ قَوْلُ الشَّافِعِيِّ، وَأَحْمَدَ، وَأَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ، وَإِلَيْهِ رَجَعَ أَبُو يُوسُفَ؟ وَلَا نَعْلَمُ لِمَنْ قَالَ: يَقِفُ فِي كِلَيْهِمَا عِنْدَ الْوَسَطِ -: حُجَّةً، إلَّا أَنَّهُمْ قَالُوا: قِسْنَا ذَلِكَ عَلَى وُقُوفِ الْإِمَامِ مُقَابِلَ وَسَطِ الصَّفِّ خَلْفَهُ، وَهَذَا أَسْخَفُ قِيَاسٍ فِي الْعَالَمِ؛ لِأَنَّ الْمَيِّتَ لَيْسَ مَأْمُومًا لِلْإِمَامِ فَيَقِفُ وَسَطَهُ وَحُجَّةُ مَنْ قَالَ: يَقِفُ عِنْدَ الصَّدْرِ أَنَّهُمْ قَالُوا: كَانَ ذَلِكَ قَبْلَ اتِّخَاذِ النُّعُوشِ، فَيَسْتُرُ الْمَرْأَةَ مِنْ النَّاسِ وَهَذَا بَاطِلٌ، وَدَعْوَى كَاذِبَةٌ بِلَا بُرْهَانٍ، وَهَذَا عَظِيمٌ جِدًّا نَعُوذُ بِاَللَّهِ مِنْهُ.

L9401 Moreover, his lie is cold and null, for even if he conceals the woman's shameful flaws from others, he does not conceal them from himself—and are he and others not equal in that?

ثُمَّ مَعَ كَذِبِهِ بَارِدٌ بَاطِلٌ، لِأَنَّهُ وَإِنْ سَتَرَ عَجِيزَتَهَا عَنْ النَّاسِ لَمْ يَسْتُرْهَا عَنْ نَفْسِهِ، وَهُوَ وَالنَّاسُ سَوَاءٌ فِي ذَلِكَ؟

Issue: Insulting the Dead

[مَسْأَلَةُ سَبِّ الْأَمْوَاتِ]

594 – Issue: It is impermissible to insult the dead with the intent of causing harm. However, warning against disbelief, blameworthy innovation, or corrupt practices is permissible. As for cursing disbelievers: is it permissible?

٥٩٤ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَلَا يَحِلُّ سَبُّ الْأَمْوَاتِ عَلَى الْقَصْدِ بِالْأَذَى، وَأَمَّا تَحْذِيرٌ مِنْ كُفْرٍ أَوْ بِدْعَةٍ أَوْ مِنْ عَمَلٍ فَاسِدٍ: فَمُبَاحٌ، وَلَعْنُ الْكُفَّارِ: مُبَاحٌ؟

From what has been narrated to us through the chain of al-Bukhārī: From Adam, from Shu'bah, from al-A'mash, from Mujāhid, from 'Ā'ishah, the Mother of the Believers, who said: The Prophet (peace be upon him) said, "Do not insult the dead, for they have met what they forwarded."[41]

لِمَا رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ الْبُخَارِيِّ: نا آدَم نا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أُمِّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ قَالَتْ: قَالَ النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «لَا تَسُبُّوا الْأَمْوَاتَ فَإِنَّهُمْ قَدْ أَفْضَوْا إلَى مَا قَدَّمُوا» .

Allah, the Exalted, indeed reviled Abu Lahab and Pharaoh as a warning against their disbelief.

وَقَدْ سَبَّ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: أَبَا لَهَبٍ، وَفِرْعَوْنَ، تَحْذِيرًا مِنْ كُفْرِهِمَا

And the Exalted said: "Cursed were those who disbelieved among the Children of Israel" (Surah Al-Mā'idah 5:78).[42]

وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {لُعِنَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ بَنِي إِسْرَائِيلَ} [المائدة: ٧٨]

Allah the Exalted said: "Indeed, the curse of Allah is upon the wrongdoers" [Hud: 18]. And the Prophet - peace be upon him - informed that "the garment that Mid'am misappropriated from war booty will become a blazing fire upon him, and that is after his death."[43]

وَقَالَ تَعَالَى: {أَلا لَعْنَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَى الظَّالِمِينَ} [هود: ١٨] وَأَخْبَرَ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - «أَنَّ الشَّمْلَةَ الَّتِي غَلَّهَا مِدْعَمٌ تَشْتَعِلُ عَلَيْهِ نَارًا» ، وَذَلِكَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهِ

Issue: Instructing the dying to affirm the Shahada (declaration of faith).

[مَسْأَلَةُ تَلْقِينُ الْمَيِّتِ شَهَادَةَ الْإِسْلَامِ]

595 - Issue: It is obligatory to instruct the dying person who is mentally present while passing away - whether their tongue is mobile or immobile - to utter the testimony of Islam, which is: "There is no god but Allah, Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah."

٥٩٥ - مَسْأَلَةٌ: وَيَجِبُ تَلْقِينُ الْمَيِّتِ الَّذِي يَمُوتُ فِي ذِهْنِهِ وَلِسَانُهُ مُنْطَلِقٌ - أَوْ غَيْرُ مُنْطَلِقٍ - شَهَادَةَ الْإِسْلَامِ، وَهِيَ " لَا إلَهَ إلَّا اللَّهُ مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ".

From what has been narrated to us through the transmission chain of Imam Muslim: Amr al-Naqid reported to us, on the authority of Abu Khalid al-لِمَا رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ مُسْلِمٍ نا عَمْرٌو النَّاقِدُ نا أَبُو خَالِدٍ الْأَحْمَرُ عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ كَيْسَانَ عَنْ أَبِي حَازِمٍ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -: «لَقِّنُوا مَوْتَاكُمْ لَا إلَهَ إلَّا اللَّهُ» .

Ahmar, who reported from Yazid ibn Kaysan, from Abu Hazim, from Abu Hurayrah, who said: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "Instruct your dying ones to affirm: There is no deity but Allah."

This has also been authentically reported from the Mother of the Believers, and is narrated from ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb. It is reported from Ibrāhīm, on the authority of ʿAlqamah, that he said: "Prompt me with 'There is no god but Allah,' and hasten me to my grave." As for one who is not in his right mind, it is not possible to prompt him, as he is unresponsive. As for one who is prevented from speaking, he should say it inwardly. We ask Allah for the best in that station.

A jurisprudential issue regarding closing the deceased's eyes.

596. Issue: It is recommended to close the eyes of the deceased when he has passed away. This is derived from what we have narrated through the chain in Muslim's compilation: Zuhayr ibn Harb narrated to us from Muʿawiyah ibn ʿAmr, from Abu Ishaq al-Fazari, from Khalid al-Ḥadhāʾ, from Abu Qilabah, from Qabisah ibn Dhuʾayb, from Umm Salamah, the Mother of the Believers (may Allah be pleased with her), who said: "The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) entered upon Abu Salamah when his eyes were wide open (in death), so he closed them."[44]

We were narrated from ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb that he ordered that the eyes of the deceased be closed.

Question: The afflicted one says, "Verily, we belong to Allah, and to Him we shall return."

597 – Issue

It is recommended that the afflicted person say, "Indeed, we belong to Allah, and indeed to Him we will return. O Allah, reward me in my affliction and replace it for me with something better than it."

[44] Hadith references (L9414): Sunan Ibn Majah 1454; Sahih Muslim 920a; Sunan Abi Dawud 3118.

[مَسْأَلَةٌ يَقُول الْمُصَابُ إنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ]

٥٩٧ - مَسْأَلَةٌ

وَيُسْتَحَبُّ أَنْ يَقُولَ الْمُصَابُ " إنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ اللَّهُمَّ آجِرْنِي فِي مُصِيبَتِي وَأَخْلِفْ لِي خَيْرًا مِنْهَا ".

L9420 As for what has been transmitted to us through the chain of Muslim: Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shaybah narrated to us, Abū Usāmah narrated from Saʿd ibn Saʿīd, who narrated that ʿUmar ibn Kathīr ibn Aflaḥ reported: "I heard Ibn Safīnah narrate that he heard Umm Salamah say: I heard Allah's Messenger - peace and blessings be upon him - declare: 'There is no servant struck by a calamity who says: 'Indeed we belong to Allah and to Him we shall return. O Allah, grant me reward in my affliction and replace it for me with something better," but that Allah rewards him in his affliction and replaces it for him with something better than it.'"[45][46]

L9421 The jurisprudential ruling on performing the funeral prayer for a newborn who is born alive [and survives] and then dies.

L9422 598. Issue: It is recommended to perform the funeral prayer over a newborn who is born alive and then dies—whether the infant cried [or showed signs of life] or not. The prayer over the child is not obligatory unless the child has attained puberty.

L9423 As for prayer concerning him, it is indeed a righteous act about which no prohibition has been reported.

L9424 As for not performing the funeral prayer over him, this is due to what was narrated to us through Abu Dawud's chain: Muhammad ibn Yahya ibn Faris narrated to us via Yaʿqub ibn Saʿd, who narrated via ʿAbdullah ibn Abi Bakr ibn Muhammad ibn ʿAmr ibn Hazm, from ʿAmrah bint ʿAbd al-Rahman, from ʿA'ishah, the Mother of the Believers, who said: "Ibrahim, the son of Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him), passed away when he was eighteen months old, and Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him) did not perform the funeral prayer over him."

L9425 This is a sound narration, but it only mentions the omission of prayer [over the deceased], and contains no prohibition against it. Two disconnected (Mursal) reports have come stating that he—peace be upon him—did pray

[مَسْأَلَةُ الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى الْمَوْلُودِ يُولَدُ حَيًّا ثُمَّ يَمُوتُ]

٥٩٨ - مَسْأَلَةٌ وَنَسْتَحِبُّ الصَّلَاةَ عَلَى الْمَوْلُودِ يُولَدُ حَيًّا ثُمَّ يَمُوتُ - اسْتَهَلَّ أَوْ لَمْ يَسْتَهِلَّ - وَلَيْسَ الصَّلَاةُ عَلَيْهِ فَرْضًا مَا لَمْ يَبْلُغْ؟

أَمَّا الصَّلَاةُ عَلَيْهِ فَإِنَّهَا فِعْلُ خَيْرٍ لَمْ يَأْتِ عَنْهُ نَهْيٌ

أَمَّا تَرْكُ الصَّلَاةِ عَلَيْهِ فَلِمَا رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ أَبِي دَاوُد: نا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ يَحْيَى بْنِ فَارِسٍ نا يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ سَعْدٍ حَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ أَبِي بَكْرِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ حَزْمٍ عَنْ عَمْرَةَ بِنْتِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أُمِّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ قَالَتْ «مَاتَ إبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَهُوَ ابْنُ ثَمَانِيَةَ عَشَرَ شَهْرًا، فَلَمْ يُصَلِّ عَلَيْهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -» .

هَذَا خَبَرٌ صَحِيحٌ وَلَكِنْ إنَّمَا فِيهِ تَرْكُ الصَّلَاةِ، وَلَيْسَ فِيهِ نَهْيٌ عَنْهَا، وَقَدْ جَاءَ أَثَرَانِ مُرْسَلَانِ بِأَنَّهُ - عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ - صَلَّى عَلَيْهِ، وَالْمُرْسَلُ لَا حُجَّةَ فِيهِ؟ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ نا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ نا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ أَنَا إسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ مَسْعُودٍ أَنَا خَالِدُ بْنُ الْحَارِثِ

over him, though Mursal reports cannot serve as definitive evidence, can they? Abdullah ibn Rabīʿ narrated to us: Muḥammad ibn Muʿāwiyah narrated to us: Aḥmad ibn Shuʿayb narrated to us: Ismāʿīl ibn Masʿūd narrated to us: Khālid ibn al-Ḥārith narrated to us: Saʿīd ibn ʿUbaydillāh al-Thaqafī reported: I heard Ziyād ibn Jubayr ibn Ḥayyah narrating from his father from al-Mughīrah ibn Shuʿbah that he mentioned the Messenger of Allah—peace and blessings of Allah be upon him—said: "The rider is behind the funeral procession, the pedestrian may walk wherever he wishes within it, and the child should be prayed over."[47]

نا سَعِيدُ بْنُ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ الثَّقَفِيُّ سَمِعْتُ زِيَادَ بْنَ جُبَيْرِ بْنِ حَيَّةَ يُحَدِّثُ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ الْمُغِيرَةِ بْنِ شُعْبَةَ أَنَّهُ ذَكَرَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَ «الرَّاكِبُ خَلْفَ الْجِنَازَةِ، وَالْمَاشِي حَيْثُ شَاءَ مِنْهَا، وَالطِّفْلُ يُصَلَّى عَلَيْهِ» .

L9426–9428 And with this, the majority of the Companions adopt. It has been narrated to us through the chain of al-Ḥajjāj ibn al-Minhāl, from Abū ʿAwānah, from Qatādah, from Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib, that Abū Bakr al-Ṣiddīq said: "Our children are the most deserving of those for whom we should perform the funeral prayer." And through the chain of Ḥammād ibn Zayd, from Yaḥyā ibn Saʿīd al-Anṣārī, from Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyib, from Abū Hurayrah, that he prayed over a newborn - if he had ever committed any sin - saying, "O Allah, protect him from the punishment of the grave."

وَبِهَذَا يَأْخُذُ جُمْهُورُ الصَّحَابَةِ رُوِّينَا مِنْ طَرِيقِ الْحَجَّاجِ بْنِ الْمِنْهَالِ عَنْ أَبِي عَوَانَةَ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ أَنَّ أَبَا بَكْرٍ الصِّدِّيقَ قَالَ: أَحَقُّ مَنْ صَلَّيْنَا عَلَيْهِ أَطْفَالُنَا -: وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ حَمَّادِ بْنِ زَيْدٍ عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيدٍ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ عَنْ ابْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّهُ صَلَّى عَلَى مَنْفُوسٍ إنْ عَمِلَ خَطِيئَةً قَطُّ قَالَ: اللَّهُمَّ أَعِذْهُ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ

L9429 From the narration of Hammad ibn Salamah, from Muhammad ibn Ishaq, from Ata ibn Abi Rabah, from Jabir ibn Abdullah, who said: If a child cries out at birth, is the funeral prayer performed for him, and does he inherit?

وَمِنْ طَرِيقِ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ إسْحَاقَ عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ أَبِي رَبَاحٍ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ - إذَا اسْتَهَلَّ الصَّبِيُّ صُلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ وَوَرِثَ؟

L9430 And via the chain of Ḥammād ibn Salamah, from Ayyūb al-Sakhtiyānī, from Nāfiʿ, from Ibn ʿUmar, that he said: When his creation is perfected, he cries out: "Prayers are offered for him, and he is inherited." And via the chain of Shuʿbah: ʿAmr ibn Murrah narrated to us, saying: ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Abī Laylā said to me: "I encountered surviving members of the Ansar who would pray over the child when he died."
